FUNDING

Q So how much is the federal government investing in the National Endowment for the Arts (NEA)?

A Congress has proposed allocating $162.25 million to the NEA in FY 2020, which has been relatively level for the last several years. This amounts to just 49¢ per capita, yet the nonprofit arts industry generates over $13 billion in federal tax revenue back to the treasury. Imagine what nonprofit arts groups could generate with $1 per capita!

“The arts in Missouri are crucial to growing our state’s economy. They foster creativity and innovation within our communities and add to the cultural fabric that makes Missouri one of the best places to live and to do business.”

—Rob Dixon, Director Missouri Department of Economic Development

MISSOURI ARTS FACTS

IN THE SHOW ME STATE, THE ARTS UNITE US

Like a butterfly, Joplin has undergone a metamorphosis since 2011. Recovering from that year’s destructive tornado, the community collaborated to produce many beautiful murals throughout the town. See the murals at joplinmolife.com/murals-in-joplin.

THE MISSOURI ARTS COUNCIL—

Established as a state agency in 1965, the Missouri Arts Council is a division of the Department of Economic Development. The Missouri Arts Council supports the arts that strengthen the cultural, educational, and economic vitality of the state.

THE ARTS ARE EVERYWHERE!

- Now in its 26th year, the St. Louis Art Fair is ranked in the top ten art fairs and festivals to visit by Art Fair Sourcebook. And the Festival of Nations is the region’s largest multicultural celebration featuring dance, music, arts and crafts, and an international bazaar with unique gifts from around the world.
- In Hannibal, the birthplace of Samuel Clemens, the literature of Mark Twain continues to inspire, engage, and entertain, and the man himself makes an appearance at least once a year at the Twain on Main Festival.
- If you value fact over fiction, you would enjoy going to Columbia for the True/False Film Festival, called “The most important documentary festival in America” by the Los Angeles Times.
- It’s been said that “while New Orleans was the birthplace of jazz, America’s music grew up in Kansas City.” Whether you hear it in the iconic Kauffman Center for the Performing Arts, or nightly at clubs across the City, it is the best place to get to know KC jazz.
- In Springfield, the Missouri State University and Springfield Arts Council partner to create ideaXfactory (which stands for Innovation, Design, Entrepreneurship, and Art). There you can take in site-specific art installations, non-traditional art projects, and contemporary art exhibitions.
- West Plains is a place where unspoiled natural beauty, hardscrabble ingenuity, and tenacity in the face of unforgiving land have defined generations. Traditional arts are central to the culture and embedded in daily life. The Old-Time Music and Ozark Heritage Festival shows how the people of West Plains celebrate their culture.
- In Cape Girardeau First Friday with the Arts gallery walks and annual Outdoor Sculpture Exhibit help further the revitalization of downtown.
