

Audible Books I have read (listened to)

Hello and thank you for your interest!

So much of what I write is based on what's been in my gut for as long as I can remember. And what's in my gut compels me to discover why I might feel that way. Other times, I'm interested in a current event or development and want to bone up on what's happening, or I just want some good, juicy entertainment!

I've always wanted to read more, but can't sit still long enough to do so. I love Audible Books because I can listen to them while I drive or do dishes or cook or whatever. These are the books I have read (listened to), mostly in the last five years, listed by the most recent books first.

Audible costs about $16 per month and you get one book for that price, plus there are specials and deals all the time.

Most of the books are between 6 and 15 hours and it takes me about two to three weeks to finish a book.

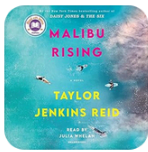

AND if you don't like the book, you can return it for credit! I have done that several times. No problem.

So if you're not able to sit still for very long, maybe give Audible a try. It's good brain exercise.

Happy Listening To You,
Cindi
