

Buy Now, Pay Later powered by QuickFee

Offer your customers a manageable monthly payment plan with our new BNPL solution.

Customers pay over time with the credit card in their wallet: no hard credit checks, no lengthy approvals.

QuickFee.

Easy Use

It's quick to start offering installment plans today at affordable rates.

Streamlined Payments

Once a plan is approved, you get paid in full within three business days.

Customer Satisfaction

They'll enjoy flexibility and accessibility from their mobile devices.

HOW DOES IT WORK?

When your customer chooses Buy Now, Pay Later, they will only be charged for the first installment (out of four) on day one. The rest is pre-authorized on their available credit limit.

And customers can use multiple cards!

Our merchant application only takes minutes to complete.

Starting at the partner landing page, you just need to click "Apply Now" to access our quick application. Once you're approved, you'll receive a custom payment link to share with your customers.

There's no need for integrations or long-term contracts, and monthly fees only apply for months you aren't transacting.
