GREATER CHARLESTON AREA FOOD & DRINK

The Charleston area has an abundance of phenomenal restaurants and drinking establishments. Here are a few of our very favorite, all locally owned and uniquely Charleston.

TIP: We are frequently asked where to get good seafood in Charleston. The following list below includes our favorite casual place (Bowen's Island) and top higher-end experiences (Chubby Fish, Delaney House). However, most of the area's best restaurants feature seafood on their menus and often as nightly specials. These dishes are hands down better than any you may find in the tourist-filled seafood restaurants downtown.

- The Obstinate Daughter (Sullivan's Island) Creative and delicious pasta, pizza, and shareable plates that highlight local seafood and produce. We are obsessed with the gelato shop located below the restaurant and you can order it from your table. Reservations recommended.
- Chubby Fish (Downtown Charleston) Well curated menu of primarily seafood-based dishes that showcase a diversity in preparations and flavors. Walk-ins only, go early and be prepared to grab a drink nearby while you wait for a table.
- Pink Bellies (Downtown Charleston) Inventive and fun southeast Asian cuisine. Try the garlic noodles. Reservations recommended.
- FIG (Downtown Charleston) One of Charleston's finest. Impeccable service, lovely wine list, and fresh regional cuisine. Great steak tartar and chicken liver pate. Reservations almost always required well in advance.
- Delaney Oyster House (Downtown Charleston) Impressive raw bar and seafood dishes. Located in a historic home and swathed in southern charm, this is an authentic Charleston experience. Reservations recommended.
- Sushi-Wa (Downtown Charleston) Divine omakase experience, can't recommend this enough. Reservations required.
- Edmund's Oast (Downtown Charleston) Everything is made in house from the beer to the charcuterie, and everything is delicious. Sit outside for a more casual experience. Reservations recommended.
- Cru Café (Downtown Charleston) Located in a tiny Charleston single home near the market, perfect respite after (or during) a day of sight-seeing. The mac and cheese is a must. Reservations recommended.
- Lewis BBQ (Downtown Charleston) There are a ton of good options for SC BBQ in the area, but we often find ourselves craving Lewis, which is Texan-style. Nice selection of meats and family-style sides in a casual atmosphere. Must try the brisket.
- Rebel Taqueria (Just outside of Park Circle) Casual tacos in a fun atmosphere. They do great braised meats and house made hot sauces. Walk-in.
- Kwei Fei (James Island) Imaginative Chinese in a chill setting. Well worth the (30 mins)drive. Reservations recommended.
- Bowen's Island Restaurant (Folly Beach) Non-touristy, fried seafood on the water. Walk-in.

- Chico Feo (Folly Beach) Another non-touristy spot, its like hanging out in your friend's backyard if your friend was effortlessly hip and had a beach house with a great beer selection.
- Proof (Downtown Charleston) Arguably the best bar in town for classic cocktails and creative riffs on the classics. This is where the grown ups drink.
- Dalila's (Downtown Charleston) Fun, tiki-inspired cocktails in a cozy space.
- Last Saint (Downtown Charleston) Very hip spot with talented mixologists and innovative cocktails.
- Recovery Room (Downtown Charleston) Authentically local dive bar.

FUN THINGS TO DO

- City Paper - There's almost always a selection of events, festivals, and shows to choose from. The Charleston City Paper is a free weekly paper that provides a good summary of what's going on. You can find it in most restaurants and bars in the area. There's an online version but we prefer carrying the paper version as a guide plus you can do the crossword over a beer.
- Charleston Farmers Market - Occurs every Saturday morning (during the warmer months) in Marion Square downtown Charleston. In addition to local farm stands you can find a good variety of gifts, art, crafts, and several prepared food stands.
- Water Activities - When the weather's nice, we recommend exploring the many water activities on offer in the area. Rent a kayak, charter a boat for a booze cruise, or book a fishing excursion. And of course, there's always the beach.
- Tours - Charleston is known for its carriage tours but please be mindful of the temperature if you are considering this. Charleston gets really hot and humid and it can be difficult/dangerous for the horses. Instead, we recommend trying a walking tour, getting a pedicab ride for an informal tour, or taking a tour of the harbor by boat.
- Brewery District - Charleston's growing collection of breweries starts about 15 minutes from the house. There's a free trolley on Saturdays you can use to hop around.
- South Carolina Aquarium - Located on the Charleston harbor, the aquarium is a nice way to spend a hot or rainy afternoon.
- Riverfront Park - Take the pedestrian bridge from Park Circle into the park and enjoy a walk, a picnic, the, play ground, or maybe a festival or concert depending on the schedule.

- Frisbee Golf - There is a free frisbee golf course located around the round about in the center of Park Circle.
- Quarterman Lake Park - Known locally as "the duck pond", this park is a great place for a stroll. There are vending machines containing food you can purchase to feed the duck and geese. Please do not feed them anything other than what comes out of the machine, and drive slowly around this area as they like to wander into the street.
- Tennis Courts - There are free tennis courts located on the corner of East Montague and North Avenues.
- Top Golf - Fun indoor golf range located about 10 minutes away. It offers a full bar, food menu, and fun for all ages and abilities.
