THE PURPOSE

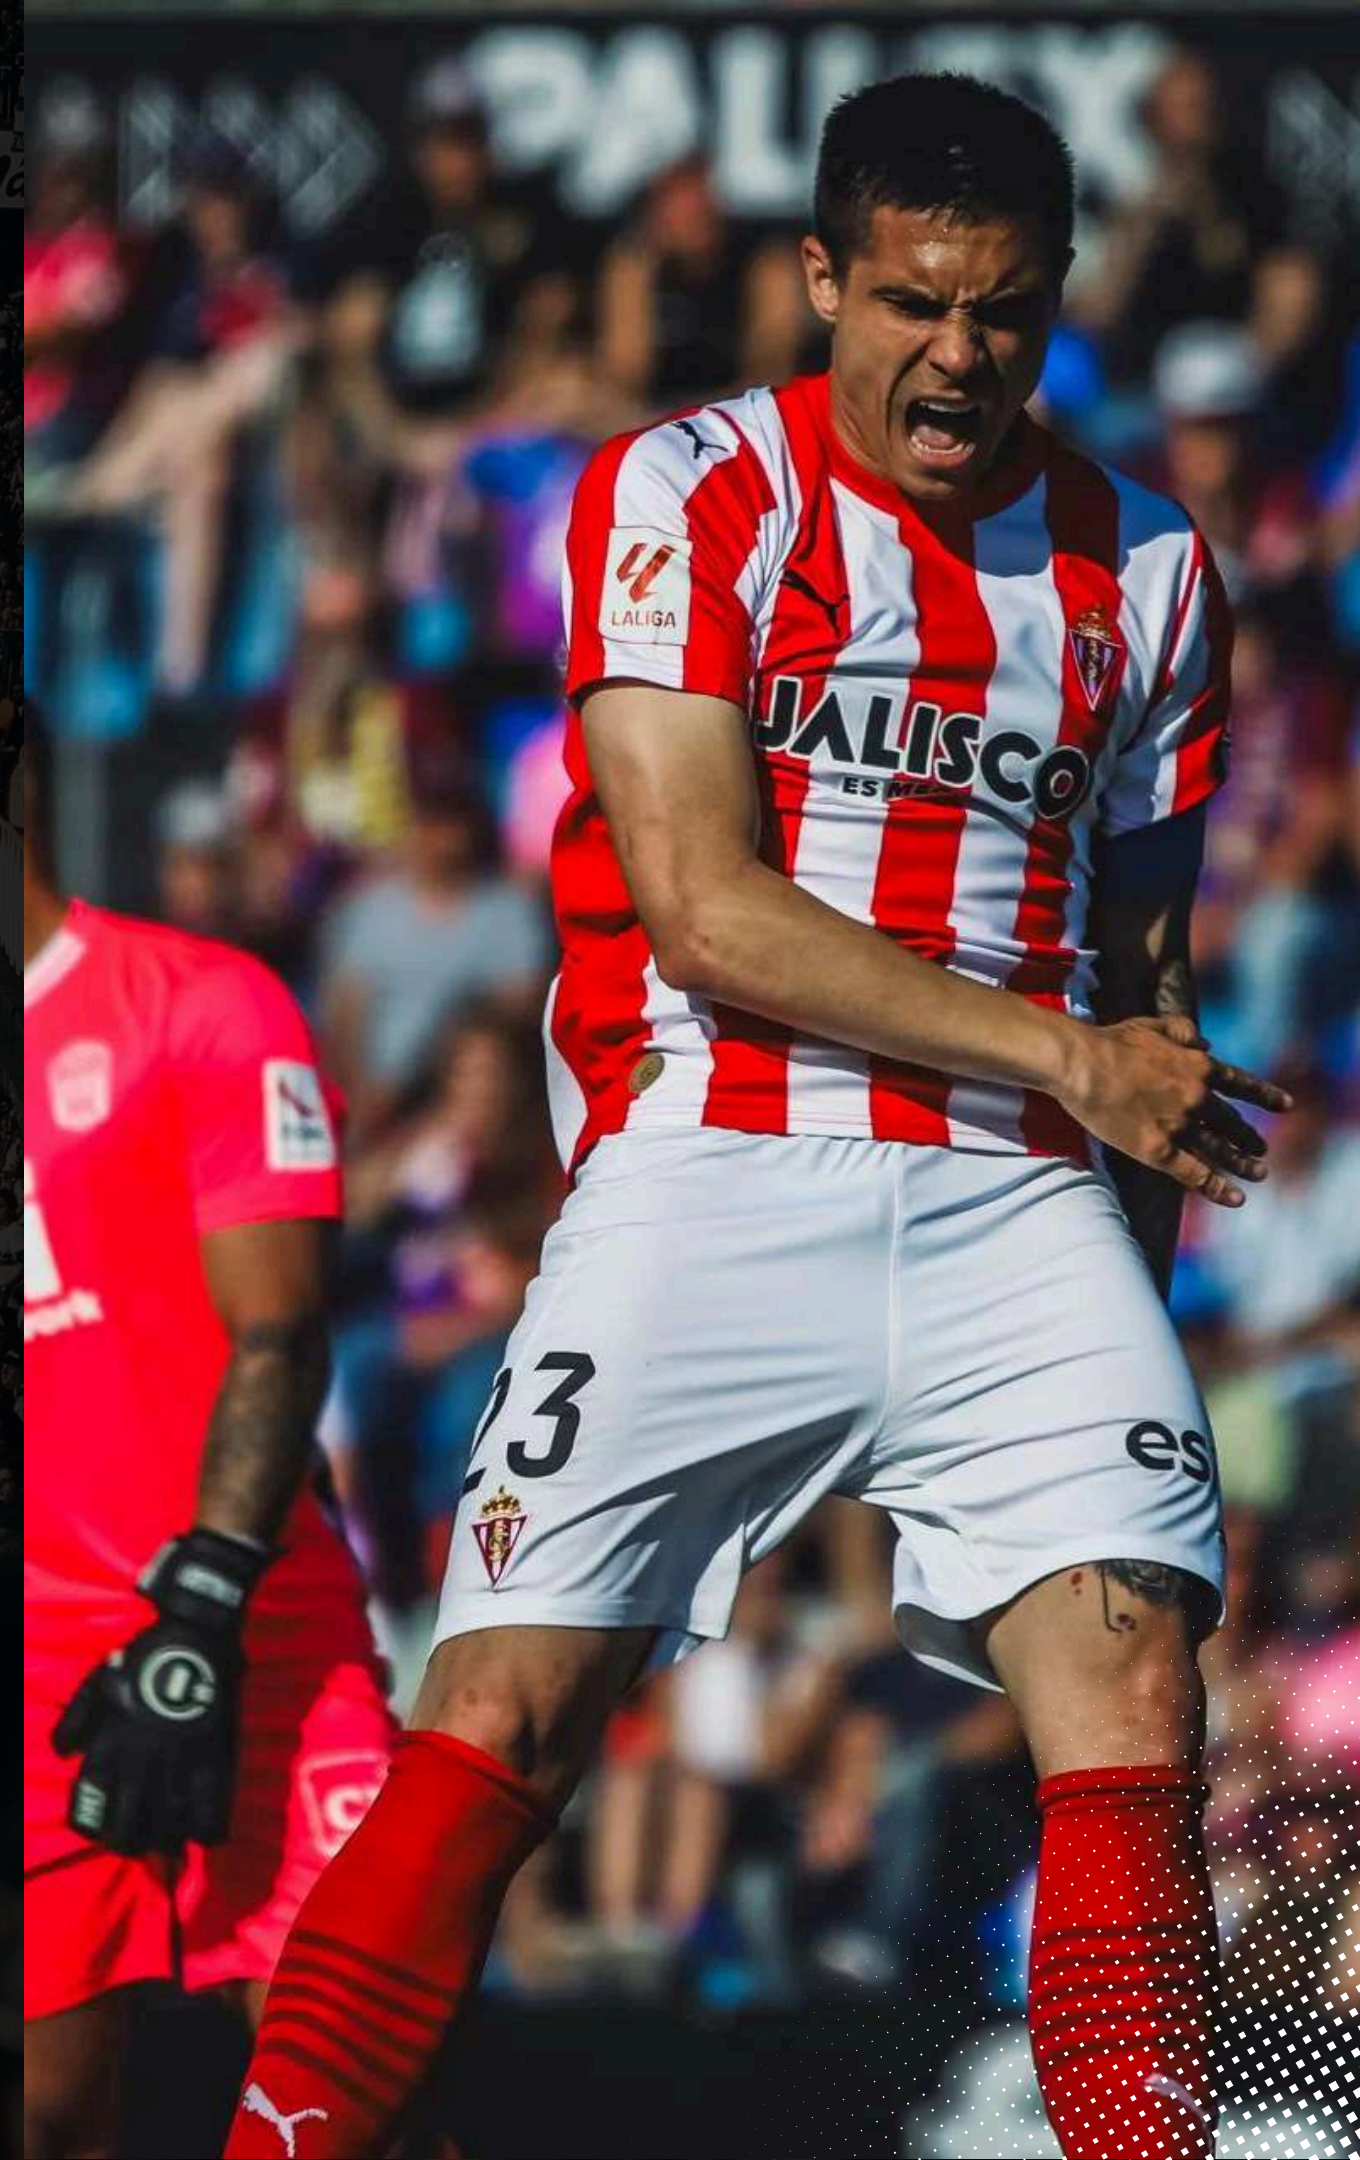

Learning from the best

Spain excels in nurturing young players, providing one of the best football youth development systems in the world. Through this WIMS developmental program, immersed in a professional environment, players are given the opportunity to live and train exactly like professional youth players of Real Sporting de Gijón.

Real Sporting de Gijón

An all in-house program.

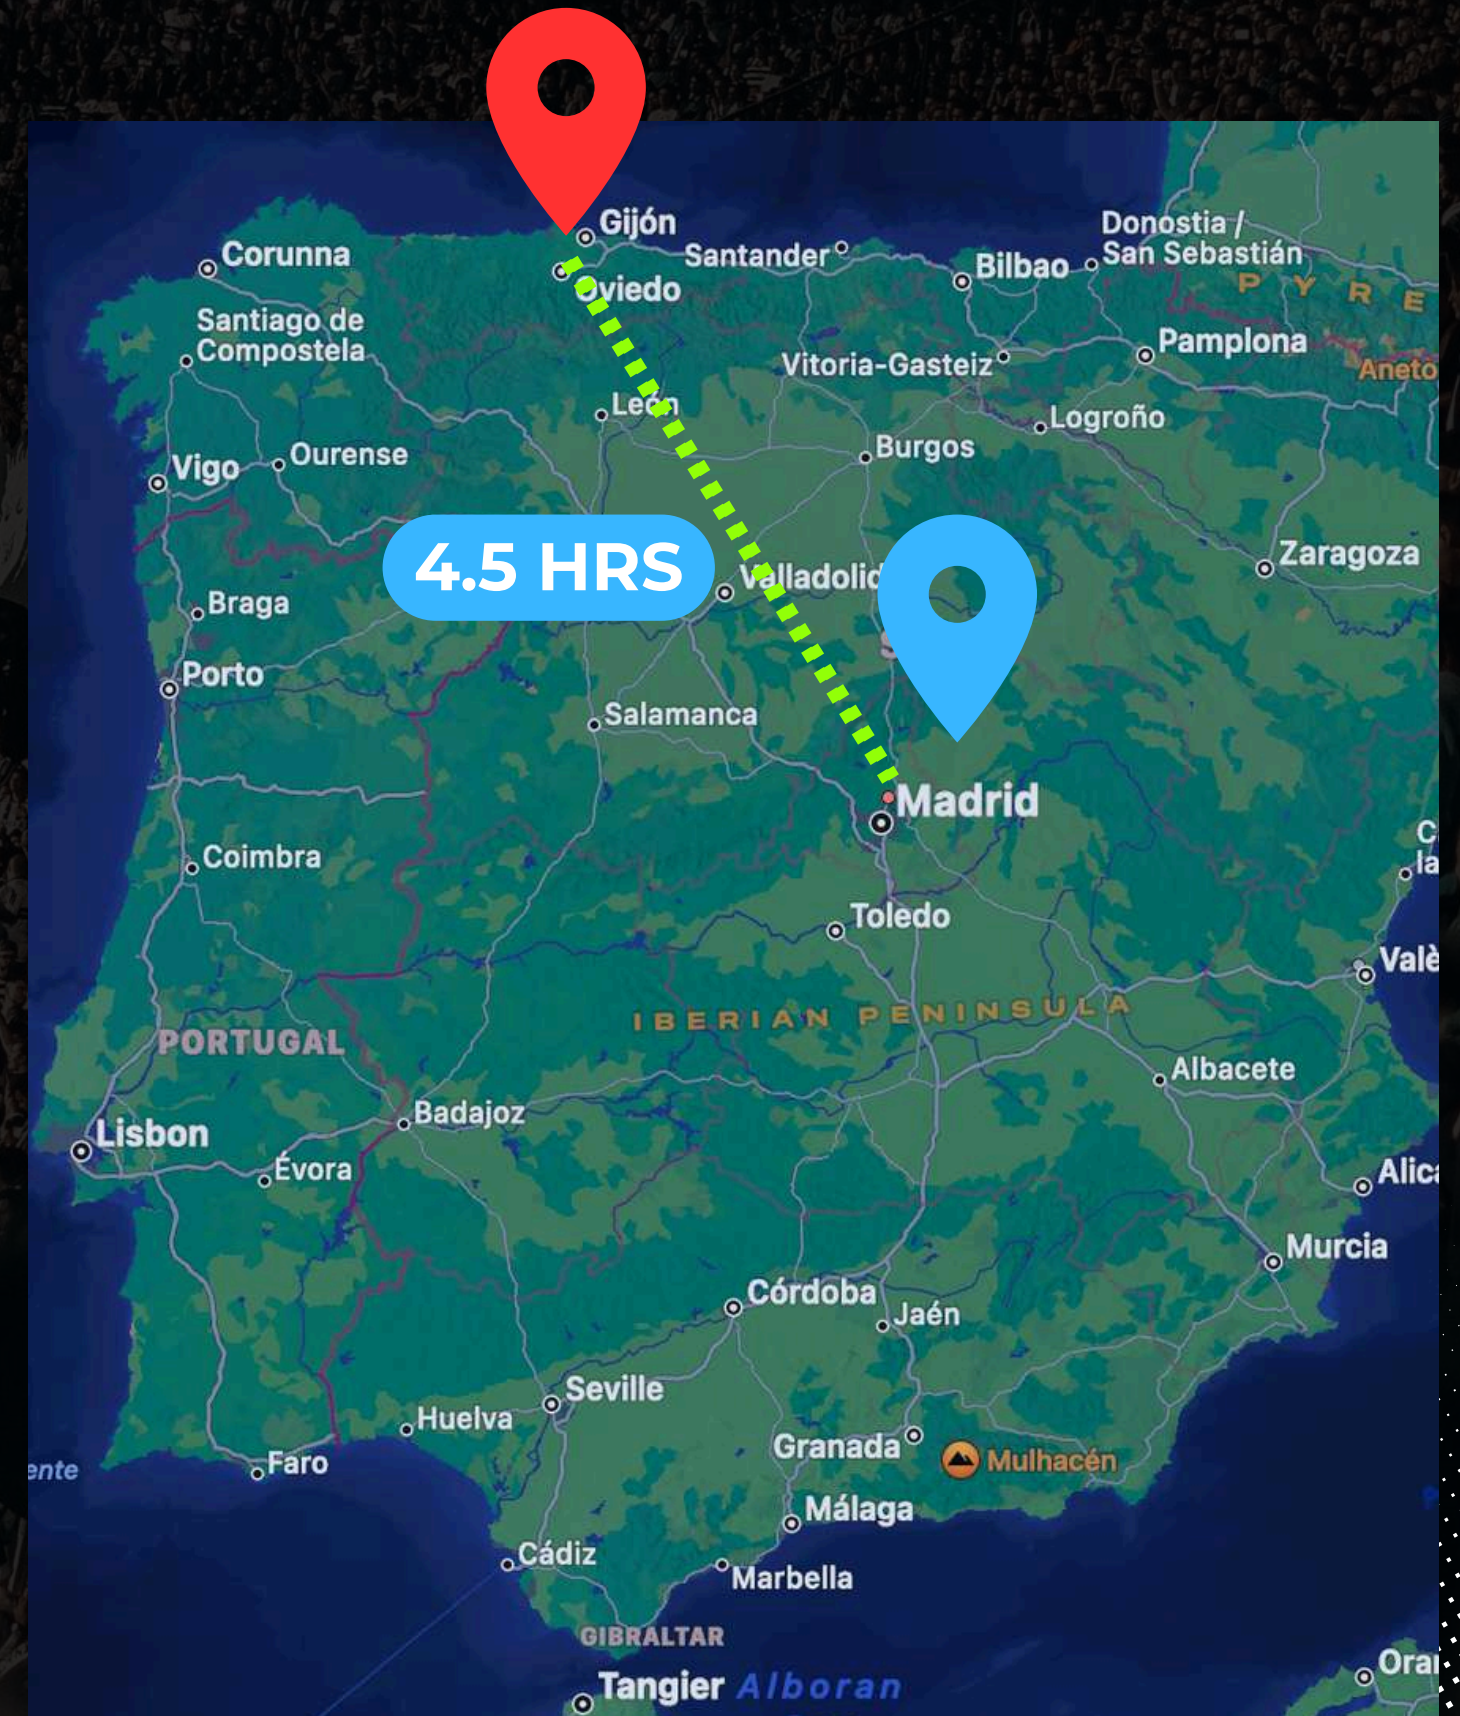

Players will receive daily training from the club's official professional UEFA licensed coaches. Over the 10-day program, their development will be guided by a carefully designed microcycle plan, curated by the club's methodology department. In addition, Real Sporting will be analyzing videos after games, allowing them to focus on key components of the players' performance and ensure that the WIMS Select players improve on specific aspects.
