

Barn Owl Books Event Proposal

PART 3 - Promotion

Ninety percent of the success of an event—at least in terms of attendance, and to some degree sales—depends on the author’s efforts to get out the word. The following questions help us determine your promotional reach, as well as which store location might be best for your audience.

How many of your friends, colleagues, or fans do you expect would attend your event?

To have an event at Barn Owl Books we ask that you be confident that you can draw at least 5 attendees from your own contacts

Do you have a Boise/McCall area mailing list or social media network that you intend to use to promote your event?

- Work-related network or mailing list (not related to your writing)
- Blog/website

- Promotion on social media or the web

Please include any additional information that maybe pertinent to your book and/or event.

PART 4 - Your Digital Media Kit

If your proposal is approved—and possibly before then—we will ask you to electronically send a high-resolution author photo and cover image We use these images on our website, for in-store signage, and other promotional outlets. Therefore, we ask that the images you submit meet the following guidelines:

- Minimum 200 dpi (at 11 x 17 in.)
- Full color (RGB or CMYK)
- Format: .jpg (ideal); .tiff or .psd acceptable. NO .pdf, .gif., .pct., .eps, or .raw

You’re usually in the right ballpark if your images are in the 1-4 MB size range, as a JPEG.
