Client and Candidate Testimonials

"Marie is tenacious and an expert recruiting agent. She aggressively pursues qualified candidates while understanding the goals and objectives of her business clients. Marie consistently exceeds her counterparts and discovers new talent on a continual basis. Marie's work ethic and professionalism are exceptional and would complement any business team."

Even in her tenth year of business, Marie Moser, owner of East Pointe Search Group, Inc., takes her clients' personnel needs personally. As the first point of contact for screening, she must understand her clients in order to cultivate a pool of candidates whose skills, experience and expectations match. And she does!

Twenty years' experience, investment in both community and business organizations, and a friendly, relatable personality combine to lead Marie to effectively connect people on both sides of an employment negotiation.

"You are my first choice for a recruiter."

"Marie is a highly skilled professional and a caring individual. With the entire process of recruiting and ultimate hire, I couldn't have asked to work with anyone more interested and sincere. I would highly recommend Marie when you want the job done well. She is reliable and efficient; she does what she says she'll do. You can count on Marie

"Marie is a very upbeat and professional person who has provided me and my company with consistent, excellent service. I highly recommend her to anyone who is in need of recruiting expertise!"

"I immediately appreciated working with Marie for her professionalism, reactivity and quality of her work. We have worked together on multiple recruitments in Quality, Engineering and Commercial domains. She takes care to precisely understand the Company needs: technical and personality skills. Marie has built a real partnership with our company."

"I have found Marie to be a pleasant person who is never afraid to take on a challenging task. She has been one of our most dedicated resources. Marie is an independent, self-directed person who is able to communicate extremely effectively and has met even the most demanding staffing challenges. She takes the time to understand our requirements and then has an uncanny ability to find the right candidate."

"Marie is a delight to deal with. She took time to understand the unique combination of skills that we were looking for in a candidate, and carefully curated the candidates that she presented, ensuring that my time was used effectively during the recruitment process. She was very perceptive & highly professional. The process from start to finish was a great experience."

"Once I met with Marie, I could tell she was very genuine and truly just wanted to help me find a better career. Marie got me an interview with the company and I ended up getting the position. I absolutely love my new job and the company I am working for. It was an absolute pleasure working with Marie and East Pointe Search Group, Inc. I couldn't have done it without her."

"I appreciated your interview style. I think it allowed me to paint a really good picture of where I would like to be."

"I regret deeply that I did not meet Marie 15 months before we actually met. She is a profound professional with everything one needs in a recruiter. I recommend her both to job seekers and to employers."

"I have been on a lot of interviews in the last year. Few have been as pleasant and comfortable as ours. With your friendly demeanor and your professional hospitality, you left me with a very positive impression."

Marie was professional, friendly, approachable, easy to talk with, and actively listened. She was positive, optimistic, and very enthusiastic.

"I am impressed with your sincerity as a Recruiter."

You are so great at what you do, it's amazing! Thank you, Marie. You have forever changed my life! (for the better)

"I commend the wonderful services Marie at EAST POINTE Search Group provided. As Marie detailed the job and the requirements, she took the time to understand my experience and needs fully. I was very impressed by the support, communication and professionalism Marie provided to me during my interview process and as I secured my current position. Her attention to details and her commitment to guide me through the entire employment screening was commendable. Even though the employer was her client, I felt she was looking at the best interests of all parties involved. She went the extra mile to ensure a successful outcome for all."

"I'm equally impressed with the speed of your response...further validating the value of your services."
