presents:
Regenerative Gardening: Quantum Soil

speaker:
Walt Michaels

time:
Sunday, February 22, 2026, @ 12:00 PM

Why You Should Come

- Learn soil gardening techniques
- Understand how “quantum soil” principles revive depleted soil
- Gain insights from decades of hands-on agricultural experience
- Connect with gardeners of all experience levels

Join us for an inspiring session with agricultural educator and soil expert Walt Michaels, whose lifelong work spans Pennsylvania farms, university-led community gardening programs, regenerative soil innovation, and more than 40 years with the Las Vegas Farmers Market. Learn how regenerative practices can restore depleted soils and transform your gardening experience.

All are welcome!
Beginners to seasoned growers.
