Short Bio:

Steven Lasiter and Jennifer Barnaba are a married couple who have been performing together around the country for the last six years, entertaining folks from Florida all the way to Alaska! They are avid Johnny Cash and June Carter fans and are steeped in the old timey. You may have caught them in the Million Dollar Quartet national tour.

Longer Bio:

Steven Lasiter hails from Beaumont, Texas and Jennifer Barnaba hails from Dayton, Ohio. They have both been performing professionally for decades, in musicals, bands, and various live entertainment. They have had the honor to portray musicians such as Buddy Holly, Hank and Audrey Williams, Carl Perkins, Patsy Cline and more, but Johnny Cash and June Carter will always be their favorite. You may have caught them on the national tour of Million Dollar Quartet.

Jennifer and Steven met in 2018 on a gig in Alaska and were recently married in January of 2023.

They have always bonded over their love for old-timey music, and have traveled the North American continent together singing and playing for anyone who cares to listen. They wrote their first Johnny & June tribute show in 2020 and are so happy to offer this new version of the show to you today.

About the Show:

Cash, Carter and Company: A Musical Tribute features up to 30 of Cash and Carters' great hits, along with songs from the era and is backed by an all-star band of talented musicians. We want you to feel like you are just hanging out with us like we are all in one of Johnny Cash's 'guitar pulls' in his cabin outside of Nashville.

We have always felt the importance to keep singing these songs and telling these stories so that they are never forgotten.

May the circle be unbroken, and enjoy the show!

Cash, Carter, and Company Sizzle Reel

This show will please the legions of Johnny Cash lovers as they discover the personal roots of his music. Transported by Lasiter and Barnaba's beautiful harmonies, I enjoyed the simplicity of instrument and song. Their tribute to Johnny Cash allows us to revisit an American legend."
