

Upcoming Events – Schedule Changes

The upcoming two weeks have proven to be busy and challenging as we try to launch a regular social calendar. Chabad is also interested in helping to foster a Jewish life in Collingwood and vicinity and has also planned a Purim event. So we have had to make some changes to next week’s social schedule. Here’s what’s happening:

What Happened to the Other Events?

There was a Purim Shtick (dinner and schmooze) that was planned for March 25. With two Purim parties on March 24, a third Purim event was too much to have in such a short time, so the March 25 dinner was cancelled. And the Shabbat Potluck that was planned for March 29 will also be postponed until after Pesach.

Stay in Touch on Facebook

Thanks to Amanda Levine, who set up our Southern Georgian Bay Jewish Community Facebook Group, you can now keep track of the goings on of our new and growing Jewish community. If you haven't already received an email inviting you to this group, search for 'Southern Georgian Bay Jewish Community' on Facebook and ask to join. That's where you can find updates about events, keep connected with other members of the community. Did you know, for example, that the Town of Wasaga Beach just adopted the IHRA definition of antisemitism, thanks to our group's advocacy? Upcoming events and news of interest to our Jewish community is posted on our Facebook page.

Volunteering

There is lots going on and we can always use someone with enthusiasm and untapped talents! If you would like to get involved, we are building our community with the efforts of volunteers. We are also starting work to designate our organization as a not-for-profit agency. If anyone has experience with setting up not-for-profit entities or would like to plan an event or contribute to our Jewish community in some way, please reach out to me (rashell.feldman@icloud.com or shalom@sbgjc.ca)
