"There's a fine line in entertainment - you have to figure out what you will and will not do. As you take a stand, people become interested and you can share the gospel" - Larry Bagby

Larry Bagby has acted since youth in films like Disney's Hocus Pocus and Airborne, Saints and Soldiers, Walk the Line, Church Ball, Forever Strong, Age of Dragons, The Young and The Restless, and Buffy the Vampire Slayer. He's also appeared in Cold Case, Malcolm in the Middle, JAG, CSI: Crime Scene Investigation, NCIS, ER, The Wonder Years, Saved by the Bell: The New Class, Thirtysomething, and Mr. Belvedere. As a musician, Larry released his first album, Where I Stand, in 2005 and then his first EP, On the Radio, with songs such as Counting My Lucky Stars, the only original selection to be performed alongside Tim McGraw's music on a TV episode of Cold Case. His songs have also been featured in the #1 box office hit The Day the Earth Stood Still, and as the title track in The Break Up Artist. Touring and performing extensively, Larry has been featured in publications such as Country Weekly Magazine and JohnnyCash.com, among others. Born in Marysville, CA, Larry served his mission in Argentina.
