PIONEERS ARRIVE BY SHIP IN SAN FRANCISCO BAY
(SHIP BROOKLYN), BY ARNOLD FRIBERG

REBECCA ELLEFSEN

Rebecca Ellefsen is a professional researcher, writer, and genealogist. Traveling the US, she uses humor in her presentations to teach about Ship Brooklyn Saints and early pioneers of California. Born and raised in the Bay Area, Ellefsen is a fifth generation Californian. She has served three missions for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, including FamilySearch, and the California Living History Service Mission. You can often find her walking the streets of San Francisco giving Pioneer History tours. Married to her husband Danny Ellefsen for over forty-three years, they have raised four daughters who have since married and added seventeen inspiring grandchildren to their family. □

vocalists Temple Hill Vocal Artists
accompanist Larry Petersen

The audience is invited to join in on the last verse:

How blessed the day when the lamb and the lion
Shall lie down together without any ire,
And Ephraim be crowned with his blessing in Zion
And Jesus descends with His chariot of fire!
We'll sing and we'll shout with the armies of heaven
Hosanna, hosanna to God and the Lamb!
Let glory to Him in the highest be given,
Hence forth and forever, Amen and amen.

MANY OF THESE ARTISTS RETURN TO PERFORM ON TEMPLE HILL AS PART OF THE DAYS OF CHRISTMAS !
