

CRC Coding Boot Camp – 2019

Certified Risk Adjustment Coder

The future of reimbursement will be based on a patient's specific health status, which is calculated using a number of different risk adjustment models ("RAM") and very specific ICD-10 codes. Becoming a CRC ensures you have advanced knowledge in both RAMs and ICD-10 codes and can accurately code for and receive maximum reimbursement for all services rendered.

Sponsored By: North Country Physicians Organization, PLLC

What? CRC Coding Boot Camp – 5 Sessions – 20 CEUs Offered

When? Monday, April 15th through Friday, April 19th, 8:00 A.M. until 12:00 Noon

CRC Coding Boot Camp Workshop – Five Days

Topics Covered:

- Quality Care Models
- Risk Adjustment Models
- Documentation Improvement
- Compliance
- Terminology
- Common HCC and Diagnosis Coding
- Final Review and Questions

This course will prepare you to take the AAPC Certified Risk Adjustment Coder (CRC) exam. Coders who are already certified may attend to earn CEUs for other certifications and still take the CRC exam.

IMPORTANT:

You will need the following books:

- 2019 ICD-10CM (this book can be ordered at a discount at the NCPO office. The price is $55-$75 depending on the manufacturer. You can bring your ICD-10 book with your own notes into the CRC exam, so having your own book is suggested)
- AAPC Certified Risk Coder Study Guide (This book can only be purchased through the AAPC)

You MUST have the AAPC Certified Risk Coder Study Guide for Class-- Steve WILL NOT HAVE COPIES TO SELL DURING CLASS.

To purchase the study guide, call the AAPC at 1-800-626-2633 or order online at <https://www.aapc.com/training/crc-study-guide.aspx> If you are not already an AAPC member, Steve suggests becoming a member first before purchasing your study guide. This saves $30 off the study guide price. The price for non-members is $129.95 or $99.95 for members. Remember you need to be a member of the AAPC to register for the CRC exam anyway.

Class attendees are responsible for registering for their own AAPC exam and paying the AAPC charges.
