PARENT INPUT WANTED ON THE RETURN STUDENTS TO CAMPUS PLAN

The Return Students to Campus Committee has a rough draft of the plan ready for stakeholder review. Here is the link to the plan. https://docs.google.com/document/d/1MvsUGI5fUS--dEC7tB-C1FJdPje0GluqXm7rD_cxTAA/edit?usp=sharing.

Questions and comments will be accepted until 2/10/21 at 5:00 and may be submitted through this link.

<https://forms.gle/FemeT1z5u92SvZESA> Two virtual public forums will be held from 6:30 - 7:30 PM on Wednesday, Feb. 18 and Wednesday, March 3. The purpose of the forums are to allow public input and answer questions about the plan. The public forums will be recorded and available to view for those who cannot attend.

Indoor Activities for Adults and Kids

In times like these, most of us find ourselves spending all our time indoors. But just like kids, we get bored too!

Are you looking for ways to release energy or simply relax? Well, we got you covered. There are even ideas for the kids too! These activity suggestions take almost nothing in the way of preplanning or additional equipment.

Welcome to Essential DPSS, a timely distribution of essential information and resources for individuals and families who need assistance. DPSS serves all County residents as an “Essential Services” department and provides benefits that meet life’s basic needs, such as food, health insurance, employment, and housing. We want everyone to stay informed about these essential benefits, and learn about resources offered by other service organizations. Please share this important information with those in your community who need it most.
