MENTAL HEALTH RESOURCES

The Los Angeles County Department of Mental Health (LACDMH) supports the wellbeing of our County residents and communities. LACDMH's Help Line is available 24/7 to provide mental health support, resources and referrals at (800) 854-7771. We understand these are challenging times. Please take the time to care for your own mental health and wellbeing, and reach out to others with kindness and compassion. Special collections of resources are organized by topic <https://dmh.lacounty.gov/resources/>

The California Department of Education and Wellness Together present the 2021 Wellness Together Spring Event Series and invite families and educators to participate. Join them every Thursday this month from 3:00-4:30 p.m. to hear from leading voices in the student mental wellness movement, with diverse presenters from across the country. The series intends to equip educators, parents, and guardians to promote mental wellness for students at home and in the classroom. Presenters will share content to help increase mental health awareness, advocacy, and access to mental health services for our students. Each webinar will include a live question and response session. Registration link
