

NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU MAY GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION.

PLEASE REVIEW CAREFULLY

THIS NOTICE APPLIES TO ALL OF THE RECORDS OF YOUR CARE GENERATED BY PRECISION FAMILY MEDICINE, PA

WHETHER MADE BY THE COMPANY OR AN ASSOCIATED FACILITY.

Our Legal Duty

We are required by applicable federal and state law to maintain the privacy of your protected health information. We are also required to give you this notice about our privacy practices, our legal duties, and your rights concerning your protected health information. We must follow the privacy practices that are described in this notice while it is in effect. This notice takes effect April 14, 2003, and will remain in effect until we replace it.

We reserve the right to change our privacy practices and the terms of this notice at any time, provided that such changes are permitted by applicable law. We reserve the right to make changes to our privacy practices and the new terms of our notice effective for all protected health information we created or received before we made the changes.

You may request a copy of our notice (or any subsequent revised notice) at any time. For more information about our privacy practices, or for additional copies of this notice please contact us using the information listed at the end of this notice.

Uses and Disclosures of Protected Health Information

Treatment. Your health information may be used by staff members or disclosed to other health care professionals for the purpose of evaluating your health, diagnosing medical conditions, and providing treatment. For example, results of laboratory tests and procedures will be available in your medical record to all health professionals who may provide treatment or who may be consulted by staff members.

Payment. Your health information may be used to seek payment from your health plan and from other sources such as credit card companies that you may use to pay for services. For example, your health plan may request and receive information on dates of service, services provided, and the medical condition for which you are being treated.

Health Care Operations. Your health information may be used as necessary to support the day-to-day activities and management of our company. For example, information on the services received may be used to support budgeting and financial reporting, and activities to evaluate and promote quality.

Law Enforcement. Your health information may be disclosed to law enforcement agencies to support government audits and inspections, to facilitate law-enforcement investigations, and to comply with government mandated reporting.

Public Health Reporting. Your health information may be disclosed to public health agencies as required by law. For example, we are required to report certain communicable diseases to the state's public health department.

Other uses and disclosures require your authorization. Disclosure of your health information or its use for any purpose other than those listed above requires your specific written authorization. If you change your mind after authorizing the use or disclosure of your information you may submit a written revocation of the authorization. However, your decision to revoke the authorization will not affect or undo any use or disclosure of information that occurred before you notified us of your decision to revoke your authorization.

Additional Uses of Information

Appointment reminders. Your health information may be used by our staff to send you appointment reminders.

Information about treatments. Your health information may be used to send information that you may find interesting on the treatment and management of your medical condition. We may also send your information describing other health-related products and services that we believe may interest you.

Individual Rights

You have certain rights under the federal privacy standards. These include the following and are explained in greater detail in the PATIENT RIGHTS section of this notice:

- o the right to request restrictions on the use and disclosure of your protected health information
- o the right to receive confidential communications concerning your medical condition
- o the right to inspect and copy your protected health information
- o the right to amend or submit corrections to your protected health information
- o the right to receive an accounting of how and to whom your protected health information has been disclosed
- o the right to receive a printed copy of this notice

Duties of the Company

We are required by law to maintain the privacy of your protected health information and to provide you with this notice of privacy practices. We are also required to abide by the privacy policies and practices that are outlined in this notice.

Right to Revise Privacy Practices

As permitted by law, we reserve the right to amend or modify our privacy policies and practices. Changes in our policies and practices may be required by changes in federal and state laws and regulations. Upon request, we will provide you with the most recently revised notice on any office visit. The revised policies and practices will be applied to all protected health information we maintain.

Requests to Inspect Protected Health Information

You may generally inspect or copy the protected health information that we maintain. As permitted by federal regulation, we require that requests to inspect or copy protected health information be submitted in writing. You may obtain a form to request access to your records by contacting our receptionist or privacy officer. Your request will be reviewed and will generally be approved unless there are legal or medical reasons to deny the request.

Questions and Complaints

If you would like to submit a comment or complaint about our privacy practices, you can do so by sending a letter outlining your concerns to:

Precision Family Medicine c/o Kyle K. Carter, M.D., 1428 W. Hebron Parkway, Ste. 110, Carrollton, TX 75010

If you believe that your privacy rights have been violated, you should call the matter to our attention by sending a letter describing the cause of your concern to the same address. You will not be penalized or otherwise retaliated against for filing a complaint.

Contact Person

The name and address of the person you may contact for further information concerning our privacy practices is as noted above. You may call our Privacy Officer at 972-939-4555.

Effective Date This notice is effective on or after April 14, 2003

PATIENT RIGHTS

THIS SECTION DESCRIBES YOUR RIGHTS AND THE OBLIGATIONS OF THIS COMPANY REGARDING THE USE OF AND DISCLOSURE OF YOUR MEDICAL INFORMATION.

You have the following rights regarding the medical information we maintain about you:

Right to Inspect and Copy

You have the right to inspect and copy medical information that may be used to make decisions about your care. This includes your own medical and billing records but does not include psychotherapy notes. Upon proof of an appropriate legal relationship, records or others related to you or under your care (guardian or custodial) may also be disclosed. To inspect and copy your medical record, you must submit your request in writing to our Privacy. If you request a copy of the information, we may charge a fee for the costs of copying, mailing or other supplies (tapes, disks, etc.) associated with your request. We may deny your request to inspect and copy in certain very limited circumstances. If you are denied access to medical information, you may request that our denial be reviewed. Another licensed health care professional chosen by the company will review your request and the denial. The person conducting the review will not be the person who denied your request. We will comply with the outcome and recommendations from that review.

Right to Amend

If you feel that the medical information, we have about you in your record is incorrect or incomplete, then you may ask us to amend the information by following the procedure below. You have the right to request an amendment for as long as the company maintains your medical record.

To request an amendment, your request must be submitted in writing, along with your intended amendment and a reason that supports your request to amend. The amendment must be dated and signed by you and notarized.

We may deny your request for an amendment if it is not in writing or does not include a reason to support the request. In addition, we may deny your request if you ask us to amend information that:

- o was not created by us, unless the person or entity that created the information is no longer available to make the amendment;
- o is not part of the medical information kept by or for the company;
- o is not part of the information which you would be permitted to inspect and copy; or
- o is inaccurate and incomplete

Right to an Accounting of Disclosures

You have the right to request and “accounting of disclosures”. This is a list of the disclosures we made of medical information about you, to others. To request this list, you must submit your request in writing. Your request must state a time no longer than six (6) years back and may not include dates before April 14, 2003 (or the actual implantation date of the HIPPA Privacy Regulations). Your request should indicate in what form you want the list (ie. Paper or electronically). We will notify you of the cost involved and you may choose to withdraw or modify your request at that time before any costs are incurred.

Right to Request Restrictions

You have the right to request a restriction or limitation on the medical information we use or disclose about you for treatment, payment, or health care operations. You also have the right to request a limit on the medical information we disclose about you to someone who is involved in your care or the payment for your care (a family member or friend). For example, you could ask that we not use or disclose information about a particular treatment you received. We are not required to agree to your request, and we may not be able to comply with your request. If we do agree, we will comply with your request except that we shall not comply, even with a written request, if the information is expected from the consent requirement or we are otherwise required to disclose the information by law.

To request restrictions, you must make your request in writing and your request must indicate:

- o what information you want to limit;
- o whether you want to limit our use, disclosure,
- or both; and
- o to whom you want the limits to apply (i.e., disclosures to your children, parents, spouse, etc.)

Right to Request Confidential Communications

You have the right to request that we communicate with you about medical matters in a certain way or at a certain location. For example, you can ask that we only contact you at work or by mail, that we do not leave voicemail or e-mail, or the like.

To request confidential communications, you must make your request in writing. We will not ask you the reason for your request. We will accommodate all reasonable requests. Your request must specify how or where you wish us to contact you.

Right to a Paper Copy of This Notice You have the right to a paper copy of this notice. You may ask us to give you a copy of this notice at any time. Even if you have agreed to receive this notice electronically, you are still entitled to a paper copy of this notice.

Right to a Paper Copy of This Notice
