Is Joe Kubit, for judge, extremely qualified? Yes. But what's he like as a person?

Since the beginning of this pandemic, we have been collecting truckloads of food and delivering it to various ministries and food banks across Butler County. We have received letters from food banks, churches, and others telling us how we have helped to touch tens of thousands of people with food and have even helped to grow their ministry. These letters can be seen on my personal Facebook page.

Everything we have done would not have been possible without God and Joe Kubit. Joe has been helping us for years. He didn't "just start" in order to get attention, because he is running for judge.

When I talk to folks about Joe Kubit, they say, "I see that he is highly qualified, but tell me what kind of person he really is." That I can do with pleasure! I have known Joe for 15 years. He is a compassionate man who loves God, his wonderful family and all people everywhere.

We have never personally backed anyone running for a political office, until now. We need someone in this position who will judge with integrity and fairness in every case. Because Joe is that person, we fully endorse him for judge. Please vote for Joe on May 18.

Kubit has traits needed in judge

Do you know who the county district attorney is? Neither did we before our son was swept up in the juvenile justice system based on a lie.

Now we do. And, while years passed and our son is thriving, it is because we fiercely cared about the facts ... the truth.

Do you know the judges in Butler County? Neither did we. Now we do, and here is what we want in a judge:

- Someone who has practiced law, represented clients and understands the nuts and bolts of the work.
- Someone who has respect and compassion for everyone in the justice system based on civility and not predisposed ideas, prejudices, news cycles, trends or the next campaign.
- Someone who is fiercely committed to processes that get to the truth.
- Someone who is not part of the political fabric of the county.
- Someone who hires competent staff, evaluates their performance, and manages with integrity.
- Someone with the humility to know who he works for.

For us, that person is Joe Kubit. Please know the facts and visit www.kubitforjudge.com.

Kubit will work hard as judge

Joe Kubit will be a good judge. He will work hard as judge, just like he has done for 30 years as a practicing attorney.

Joe's courtroom will be run with decorum. He will be thoroughly prepared for each case. He will treat the parties involved and their attorneys impartially and with respect.

His rulings will be based upon the evidence presented and the applicable law. That is why Joe Kubit will be a good judge. I urge you to vote for Joe on May 18.

I'm writing on behalf of my friend, Joe Kubit.

I've known Joe for several years, and you couldn't find a better, God-fearing, Christian family man better than him.

If everyone was like Joe, this would be a much better world, trust me. And I'm sure that he would serve as judge with the utmost honesty and integrity.

So I urge everyone to cast their vote for Joe Kubit for judge. It's definitely the right choice.

The world needs more people like Joe Kubit, candidate for Butler County Common Pleas Judge. We are blessed that Joe is right here in our community and has stepped forward to serve in a position of public trust.

Professionally, Joe's resume details his deep credentialed experiences as a lawyer and legal expert. He is smart, fair and honest. He reveres the law, including the U.S. and Pennsylvania constitutions. He has earned the highest peer rating for professional excellence and ethical standards. And, more importantly, he has an impeccable reputation for unshakable integrity, diligent work ethic and measured temperament.

Personally, Joe is one of the finest people I know. He is humble, grateful and a true gentleman by every measure. With a quiet confidence, Joe has earned the trust and respect of so many, both inside and outside of the legal community. He listens so others know they are heard and thoughtfully responds with truth and wise counsel.

With deep roots in Butler County, Joe values our history, our people and our love of country. It's been said that being a good example in life is the best form of service. I encourage you to support Joe Kubit on Tuesday, May 18.

Kubit's built for the bench

By now, much of the county is aware of the working history and experience of many of the candidates who will be on the May 18 ballot, because of flyers placed, letters sent and speeches given.

But what about the importance of a candidate's character? I view this aspect of a judicial candidate as extremely significant and worthy of comment.

Adversity builds character. Joe Kubit's grandparents raised him and built upon the firm moral and spiritual values instilled in him by his parents, which ultimately built a man of strong endurance and virtue.

Hard work is no stranger to Joe, who worked his way through undergraduate and law school as a mechanic. Joe works six days a week, yet still finds time to:

- Be on a board that assists adults with special needs.
- Be on the board of an organization that coaches pastors on reaching the next generation.
- Has a past history of being on a board dealing with pregnancy and family resources.

I know Joe Kubit to be the epitome of moral integrity. A man whose yay is yay and nay is nay! A man who is God-fearing, reflecting a gentle, quiet spirit, possessing the innate ability to "get it right the first time," in judicial decisions.

Joe Kubit was truly built for the bench and will do Butler County proud as judge of Common Pleas Court.

Kubit model of principles, ethics

Historically, principled judges have been greatly guided by God to advance the integrity, security and honesty of a nation's courts. It is not uncommon to read about them on the pages of history, as well as in Scripture.

Joe Kubit is that kind of man. He is the model of principled, ethical living that Butler County needs. The church that I pastor (Slippery Rock Baptist Church) has been blessed and often refreshed by his commitment to family, love of country, devotion to Christ, law and true American values.

It is out of my love for this county, and my service to the people of this county, that I endorse Joe Kubit in his run for Butler County Common Pleas Judge. His experience and knowledge of our communities is second to none. He checks all the boxes and then some. Finally, a candidate that I can go all-in for.

After long conversations with him personally, as well as with his family, and after his visits with us to worship in our church services, I have no doubt that Joe Kubit will bring integrity, honesty, respect and equity to the position he is seeking.

Praying people will be refreshed by what Joe stands for. Patriotic people will be engaged by his unapologetic commitment to the constitution of our great country. Principled people will appreciate his love of family and community.

I'm sure I'm not the first, and I know I won't be the last to encourage you to pledge your vote for Joe Kubit as Butler County Common Pleas Judge.

Joe Kubit graduated from Butler County Community College in the 1980s, and in 2009 was honored as a distinguished alumnus by the college, where he is chairman of the board of trustees.

Kubit's approach at the college is always to find solutions that are in the best interests of students and the college. During times of growth, and during the past pandemic year, Joe Kubit's leadership has made all the difference for the success of BC3.

A highly respected attorney with more than 30 years of practice representing clients before all levels of Pennsylvania courts, Kubit has the professional experience and leadership skills that make him the best choice for judge of Butler County Court of Common Pleas.

I am proud to support Joe Kubit for judge. He is a true gentleman in every sense of the word and would make every citizen of Butler County proud to have him on the bench. Please vote for Joe Kubit in the primary on May 18.

Joe Kubit is running for Butler County Common Pleas judge in the May 18 primary election. Joe is an ideal candidate for this position and exactly what Butler County needs in our courts. My husband and I both work for large employers in Butler County and we are very active in our local community. We frequently hear people express their frustration with the current courts and also hear of people wanting to "build a better Butler." Electing Joe would be a step in the right direction.

Joe has been practicing law for 30 years and has an "AV" rating for his legal ability and ethics, which is the highest possible. He has tried cases in every division of the Butler Court and has tried cases before judges and juries in 10 other counties. He has argued appeals before the Pennsylvania Superior Court and the Pennsylvania Supreme Court. He has served as a law clerk to a judge of the Superior Court.

Joe is a leader and a hard worker who has never been handed anything. He grew up working on his Dad's and Uncle's Mack trucks and worked his way through college as a mechanic.

Joe is kind, humble, fair, honest and of the highest integrity. Butler County needs someone to promote a healthy and positive environment in that courthouse, and Joe is that person.

The endorsements of Joe on his website (kubitforjudge.com) from people of all walks of life in Butler County demonstrate how highly respected Joe is in the community.

Meet Joe and you will quickly realize how Joe Kubit is truly "built for the bench."
