Electronic Transcript:

This document is official when downloaded by a Parchment Receive member from their inbox.

If receiving via email, this official transcript has been digitally signed and therefore contains special characteristics. This document will reveal a digital certificate that has been applied to the transcript, and for optimal results, we recommend that this document is viewed with the latest version of Adobe® Acrobat or Adobe® Reader. This digital certificate will appear in a pop-up screen or status bar on the document, display a blue ribbon, and declare that the document was certified by Parchment, with a valid certificate issued by GlobalSign CA for Adobe®. This document certification can be validated by clicking on the Signature Properties of the document.

The Blue Ribbon Symbol: The blue ribbon is your assurance that the digital certificate is valid, the document is authentic, and the contents of the transcript have not been altered.

Invalid: If the transcript does not display a valid certification and signature message, reject this transcript immediately. An invalid digital certificate display means either the digital signature is not authentic, or the document has been altered. The digital signature can also be revoked by the transcript office if there is cause, and digital signatures can expire. A document with an invalid digital signature display should be rejected.

Author Unknown: Lastly, one other possible message, Author Unknown, can have two possible meanings: The certificate is a self-signed certificate or has been issued by an unknown or untrusted certificate authority and therefore has not been trusted, or the revocation check could not complete. If you receive this message make sure you are properly connected to the internet. If you have a connection and you still cannot validate the digital certificate on-line, reject this document.

The current version of Adobe® Reader is free of charge, and available for immediate download at <http://www.adobe.com>.

Historical Sketch

Voted into being by the Southern Baptist Convention in 1917 as messengers met in New Orleans for their annual meeting, New Orleans Seminary was the first theological institution to be created by direct action of the Southern Baptist Convention. Following unanimous Southern Baptist Convention approval in 1917, the institute opened its first session in October 1918. Bearing the name Baptist Bible Institute until 1946, the school was actually the fulfillment of the century-old dream of Baptists to establish a missionary training school at the gateway to Latin America. From its beginning until 1953, the school was located at 1220 Washington Avenue, in the heart of the Garden District of residential New Orleans. The current campus at 3939 Gentilly Boulevard was purchased in 1947.

Term Totals/Cumulative Totals

When added together, the term totals should equal the cumulative totals. The term totals reflect the information as recorded at the end of each term. These figures are adjusted because of repeats.

Credits are reported in semester hours.

Key to Identifying Courses

Courses listed on the transcript are identified by four letters and four numbers. The letters indicate the division and/or the department. For example, the letters PSYC indicate that the course is in the department of Psychology and Counseling. The letters CESW indicate Christian Education Division and the department of Social Work.

The first number indicates the course level:

- 1-4: Undergraduate-level courses (For example, a 1 is a freshman-level course, a 2 is a sophomore-level course, a 3 is a junior-level course, and a 4 is a senior-level course.)
- 5: Basic master's-level courses without graduate prerequisites are considered beginner's level. These courses, especially if required as prerequisites for other courses, should be taken as early as possible in the student's program of study.
- 6: Advanced master's-level courses having prerequisites, or courses which by their nature should be taken after the student's initial year of theological study.
- 7: Master of Theology courses to be taken only by students pursuing the Master of Theology degree program.
- 8: Doctor of Ministry and Doctor of Educational Ministry courses only.
- 9: Doctor of Philosophy courses only.

The second number indicates the semester hour value of the course.
