EVER WONDER?

Why do banks leave vault doors open and then chain the pens to the counter?

Why do we leave cars worth thousands of dollars in our driveways and put our useless junk in the garage?

Why the sun lightens our hair, but darkens our skin?

Why don't you ever see a headline "physic wins lottery"?

Why is abbreviated such a long word?

Why is it lemon juice is made with artificial flavouring, but dishwashing liquid is made with real lemons?

Why is the time of day with the slowest traffic called "Rush hour"?

Why do they sterilize the needle for lethal injections?

Why don't sheep shrink when it rains?

If flying is so safe, why do they call the Airport "The Terminal"?

A man walked into a supermarket with his zipper down.
A lady cashier walked up to him and said "your barracks door is open" – not a phrase that men normally use, he went on his way looking a bit puzzled.
When he was about done shopping, a man came up and said "your fly is open".
He zipped himself up and finished shopping.
At the checkout – he intentionally got in the line where the lady was that told him about his "barracks door". He was planning to have a little fun with her, so when he reached the counter he said " when you saw my barracks door open, did you see a marine standing in there at attention?"
The lady (naturally smarter than the man) thought for a moment and said – "No, no I didn't. All I saw was a disabled veteran sitting on a couple of old duffel bags!"

Two elderly ladies are sitting on the front porch, doing nothing.
One lady turns and asks, "Do you still get horny?"
The other replies, "Oh sure I do."
The first old lady asks, "What do you do about it?"
The second old lady replies, "I suck on a lifesaver."
After a few moments, the first old lady asks, "Who drives you to the beach?"

An old lady was standing at the railing of the cruise ship holding her hat on tightly so that it would not blow off in the wind.

A gentleman approached her and said: "Pardon me, madam. I do not intend to be forward, but did you know that your dress is blowing up in this high wind?"
"Yes, I know," said the lady, "I need both hands to hold onto this hat."
"But, madam, you must know that your privates are exposed!" said the gentleman in earnest.

The woman looked down, then back up at the man and replied, "Sir anything you see down there is 85 years old. I just bought this hat yesterday!"

Three old ladies were sitting side by side in their retirement home reminiscing.
The first lady recalled shopping at the green grocers and demonstrated with her hands, the length and thickness of a cucumber she could buy for a penny.
The second old lady nodded, adding that onions used to be much bigger and cheaper also, and demonstrated the size of two big onions she could buy for a penny a piece.
The third old lady remarked, "I can't hear a word you're saying, but I remember the guy you're talking about."

RUN REPORT – Sunday 16th October – Caloundra

Well we started off at the Caboolture Lakes as per usual and we then all headed up the highway towards Caloundra to the very trendy Velvet Waters Rock and Roll Restaurant and Bar.

Most of the members got there on time but some of us decided to take the scenic route which took about another half an hour – anyway it was quite a pleasant drive just the same. Sometimes just following the leader is not the best thing to do (you know who you all are)!!! – but hey we had fun and a good laugh when we finally got to our destination.

Once we got to the restaurant most of us decided to go for a walk around the markets and grab some bargains – it was very hot though and some of us just decided to sit inside and enjoy the air conditioning.

We had a lovely lunch/finger food and enjoyed the entertainment that they put on.

However for a rock and roll restaurant – they seemed to sing more country than anything else – thought this was a bit odd – but nonetheless, enjoyed myself.

Thanks to Chris, Sharon, Trent and Lisa for organising the run – this was our last run for the year as the next run is the xmas party in November. All members enjoyed themselves and after lunch and a bit of a sing-a-long we all said our farewells and headed home.

I can't believe how quickly the year has gone – but hey we have certainly all had some fun times haven't we? Graeme and I are on holidays for a month in November so we will not see you all again til January. Have a great xmas and a safe and healthy new year everyone – if you are sick – get well, and if you are well – stay that way. It has been great and look forward to seeing you all in the New year. Denise.

A big thanks to all of you have contributed to the newsletter this year.

I still have a fair bit for upcoming newsletters – but please keep your jokes and everything coming. It is a joy for me to read through them and they give me a good laugh – I hope you all have a laugh too!.
