Don't forget to bring your morning tea.

January 26th Australia Day run report.

Our regular run on the 3rd Sunday was cancelled due to the large amount of functions being held on Australia Day and our club opted to go to the Samford event and join up with the Classic and Historic Club of Caboolture (CHACC) of which a lot of us also belong.

It was a nice run to Samford and we all set up our site under the trees. Morning tea of damper and syrup or scones jam and cream were supplied along with a cuppa and a good old sausage and onions on bread for lunch. A raffle was run and the winners were Elaine Gallacher's brother, Tony Hyde and second was Pat Vincent. A very short meeting was held and then everyone started to wander off home. A very relaxing day was had by all.

A popular tourist attraction is the Samford Valley Historical Museum. Located in the heart of the village, John Scott Park is the frequent venue of community cultural activities such as free concerts and holiday celebrations. The park contains playground facilities for children and is a popular venue for weekend barbecues. The Slab Hut Gallery is an information centre and art gallery located in John Scott Park at the centre of town. There are several gift shops, restaurants and cafes, as well as a pub, in the immediate vicinity of John Scott Park.

Samford's very first inhabitants were an aboriginal tribe which belonged to the Waka language group, whose territory also included the upper Brisbane River and the South Burnett. While there are no aboriginal tribes still living in Samford, their history remains by means of the Bora Ring at Wights Mountain the burial site near Upper Camp Mountain Road and the records kept at the local historical museum.

GENERAL BUSINESS

We needed volunteers to run our monthly runs for February and March. Bob Pritchard agreed to help Jayne and Matthew map out a suitable run for February.

Stan and Jenny Valance kindly volunteered to set out an interesting run for our March meeting. Both groups were applauded for their help

There being no further business, meeting was closed at 12:15 PM

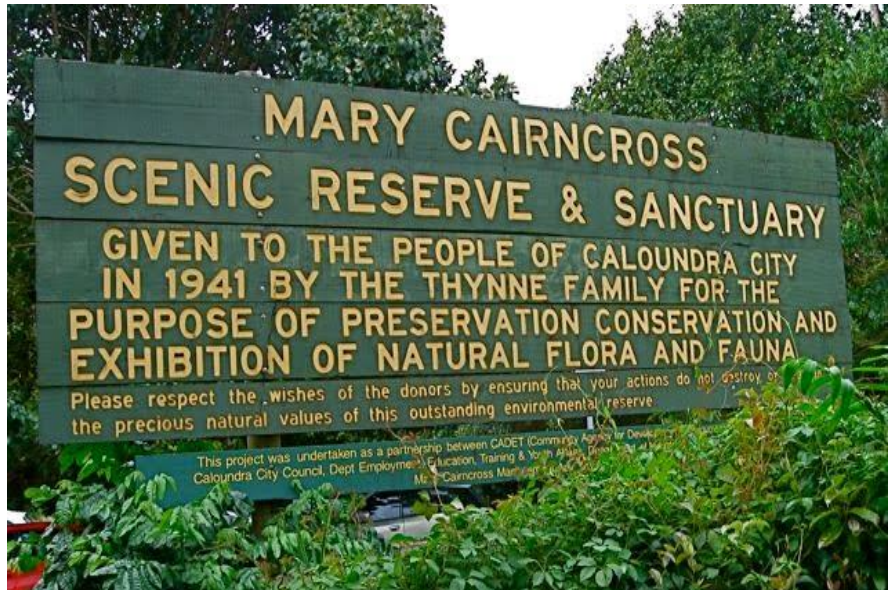

Alex Gallacher... Hon Sec

We need some members to organise runs for May, June, July and August so if you think you can help, please let us know, otherwise we are relying on the same people to do it all the time.

First run for new members Rex and Tina Holden

15th February run was to Mary Cairncross Reserve, Maleny

Mary Cairncross Scenic Reserve comprises 55 hectares of subtropical rainforest, which overlooks the Glass House Mountains National Landscape. A remnant of the rainforests that once covered the Blackall Range, the Reserve is a living museum of diverse plant and animal life which will delight with its tranquility and beauty. Step back in time in our Rainforests Through Time display, take a relaxing walk along our rainforest tracks from 7am to 6pm (Gold Coin donation appreciated) have a picnic or barbeque, or relax at the Café (except Mondays).

Some of the members relaxing in the beautiful surrounds of Mary Cairncross Reserve.

Spectacular view from the road out over the Glasshouse Mountains.

Our President Bob Pritchard has brought the Presidents Day forward from August to April as he has this special place he would like us to see. Please try to attend this run as a lot of effort has gone into organizing it and we had to pay a deposit for the booking and we need numbers. The fee is $6 per person and it is a BYO.

Attention all members – our run for this month April has been brought forward to the 2nd Sunday April 13th, not the 3rd Sunday as this is the day the Qld Society of Model and Experimental Engineer have their invitation only day at Warner. So please mark this change on your calendar.

Smile a while 😊

This is the best one I have read in a long time...

Several days ago as I left a meeting at a hotel; I desperately gave myself a personal TSA pat down. I was looking for my keys. They were not in my pockets. A quick search in the meeting room revealed nothing. Suddenly I realized I must have left them in the car. Frantically, I headed for the parking lot. My husband has scolded me many times for leaving the keys in the ignition. My theory is the ignition is the best place not to lose them. His theory is that the car will be stolen. As I burst through the door, I came to a terrifying conclusion. His theory was right. The parking lot was empty. I immediately called the police. I gave them my location, confessed that I had left my keys in the car, and that it had been stolen. Then I made the most difficult call of all, "Honey," I stammered; (I always call him "honey" in times like these.) "I left my keys in the car and it's been stolen." There was a period of silence. I thought the call had been dropped, but then I heard his voice. "Are you kiddin' me", he barked, "I dropped you off"!!!!!!

Now it was my time to be silent. Embarrassed, I said, "Well, come and get me." He retorted, "I will, as soon as I convince this cop I didn't steal your car." Yep it's the golden years...:-

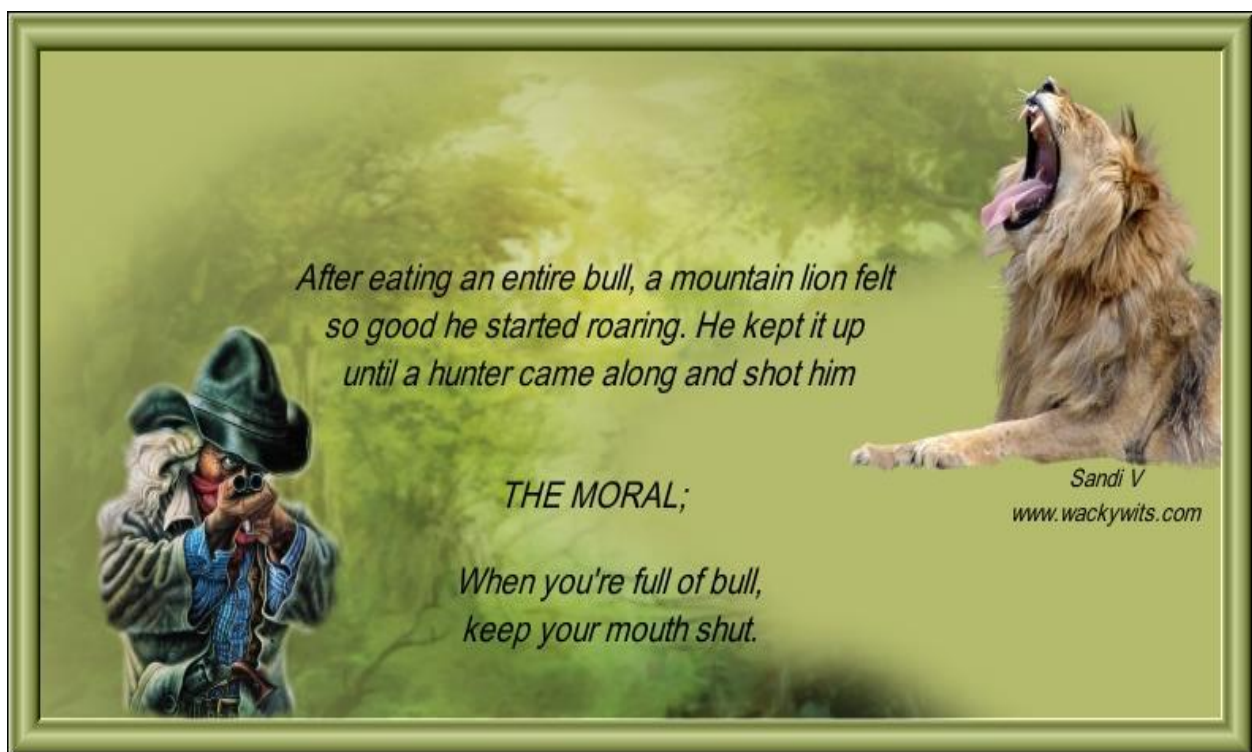

Milk and eggs

This is a story which is perfectly logical to all males. A wife asks her husband, "Could you please go shopping at IGA for me and buy one carton of milk, and if they have eggs, get 6." A short time later the husband comes back with 6 cartons of milk. The wife asks him, "Why did you buy 6 cartons of milk?"

He replied, "They had eggs."

Mexican Jews

Two old Jewish men, Sid and Al, are sitting in a Mexican restaurant in Los Angeles. One day, Sid asks Al, "Do you know of any people of our faith born and raised in Mexico?" Al replies, "I don't know, let's ask our waiter." When the waiter arrives, Al asks, "Are there any Mexican Jews?" The waiter says, "I don't know, Senor, I ask the cook." He returns from the kitchen a few minutes later and says, "No, Senor, the cook say no Mexican Jews." Al isn't satisfied and asks, "Are you absolutely sure?" The waiter, realizing he is dealing with 'Gringos,' replies, "I check once again, Senor." While the waiter is away, Sid says, "I find it hard to believe that there are no Jews in Mexico. Our people are scattered everywhere. The waiter returns and says, "Senor, the head cook say there is no Mexican Jews." Al asks, "Are you certain? I just can't believe there are no Mexican Jews." The exasperated waiter says, "Senor, I ask EVERYONE. All we have is Orange Jews, Grape Jews, Prune Jews and Tomato Jews.
