MAY RUN: Greene Park, Wynnum

Organised by Denise & Graeme Douglas, written by Bob Pritchard, photos by Jayne Pritchard

We had a good turnout for this run. Some new members came on this run - Robert & Karen Wiuck and Frank Tenney driving his nice middle fifties straight eight Buick coupe. Our first stop was Nudgee Beach for morning tea. At Nudgee Beach we saw a number of metal detectors being waved over an area of the mud flats.

On our way to the next destination, the convoy managed to go the wrong way due to some road works, but we eventually did a U-turn and made it back to the gateway highway. We had a nice drive through Manly and Wynnum where we followed along the esplanade to Greene Park for lunch where we had our meeting.

Doug and Lynn won the raffle. It was a nice day out.

Thank you for the excellent run Denise and Graham.

JUNE RUN: Studio 7, Old Church Hall, Samford

Organised by Jayne Pritchard & Matt Sinagra, written by Jenny Vallance, photos by Jayne Pritchard

We all arrived on a very cold morning at our usual meeting spot, unfortunately it was a small turnout. We took a drive through the back of Morayfield which was all new territory for all of us. There were a few errors on the run sheet (not to name any names) that caused a bit of confusion, I was glad we were right behind Bobby's car or we would have been in terrible trouble.

Morning Tea was at Apex Park, just outside of Dayboro. The carpark was a little dusty, but waiting for us were Keith & Marilyn in their new baby (see the 'Featured Car' on page 1). Keith said he had to prove that the car did exist.

Despite the bitter wind and cold most of the boys, and a very interested Miss Abbey spent quite a bit of time looking over the car. It was great to see Phil along today with Heidi and the children, good to meet you at last, Phil. Phil was very brave in shorts while the rest of us shivered. He kept warm playing football with the kids.

After morning team we took off to Samford and our destination of the church art gallery. We made camp between the church and the hall and had a lovely meal. There was a real feat. There were buffalo chicken wings, sliced ham bread rolls, chicken salad platter, chicken rissoles & savory scones. Then we had the dessert table. Matthew had made some delicious red velvet cupcakes and Heidi produced a scrumptious big platter of assorted treats - We had vanilla slices, coconut biscuits and little chocolate mini pastry.

We all had such a lovely time; it was 1:30pm or later before we all packed up and made our various ways home.

Thank you Matthew and Jayne for a very enjoyable day.
