MARCH RUN: Osprey House, 15/03/20

Organised by Kim and Carol Bowers, written by Matt Sinagra, photos by Jayne Pritchard

It was yet another glorious Sunday on our favourite kind of day; an NDSCC run day. Because we live locally, Bob, Jayne and I headed directly to the morning tea stop at Bullocky Rest at the North Pine Dam. When we arrived the sun was shining and the location was looking very luscious and green after much needed recent rain. We set ourselves up at an undercover table at a beautiful spot right next to the lake while we waited for the others to arrive.

First to arrive was Keith in his red-hot Hot Rod. Like us, he is local to area and headed straight to the first spot. Soon everyone else arrived and we got stuck into our morning tea.

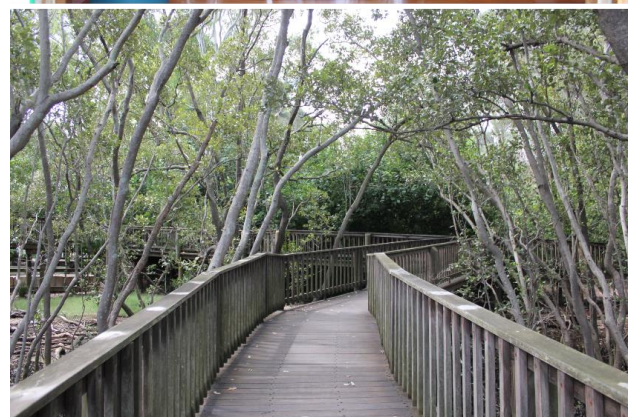

Once morning tea was devoured it was time to pack up and head off to our next destination via the winding roads of Anzac Avenue and Dohles Rocks Road. After a lovely and relaxing drive we arrived at Osprey House Environment Centre, a local preservation and bird spotting area.

After enjoying our lunch in the lovely BBQ area, Jayne and I went exploring with some of the other members of the club. The information centre was gorgeous and the staff were informative and friendly. They showed us their live stream of an Osprey nest located nearby.

Osprey House Environment Centre features a theatre, an information centre, and 400 metres of boardwalks including viewing areas where you can look at the river, the wetlands, the mangroves, and the wildlife, particularly birds. It was a beautiful location rich in natural scenery that was a welcome break from the hustle and bustle of daily life. Jayne and I are so glad we had the opportunity to enjoy this place. We can't wait to visit again in the future.

Thank you to Kim and Carol for organising such a wonderful run!

JUST FOR LAUGHS: Quickie in the bushes

Sent in by Jenny Vallance – thanks Jenny!

There are two statues in a park; one of a nude man and one of a nude woman.

They had been facing each other across a pathway for a hundred years, when one day an angel comes down from the sky and, with a single gesture, brings the two to life.

The angel tells them, 'As a reward for being so patient through a hundred blazing summers and dismal winters, you have been given life for thirty minutes to do what you've wished to do the most.'

He looks at her, she looks at him, and they go running behind the shrubbery

The angel waits patiently as the bushes rustle and giggling ensues.
After fifteen minutes, the two return, out of breath and laughing.

The angel tells them, 'Um, you have fifteen minutes left, would you care to do it again?'

He asks her 'Shall we?'

She eagerly replies, 'Oh, yes, let's! But let's change positions. This time, I'll hold the pigeon down and you shit on its head.'

AND WHAT WERE YOU THINKING???
