JANUARY RUN: Moore, 16/01/22

Organised by Vanessa and Rod Robertson, written by Jayne Pritchard, photos from Google

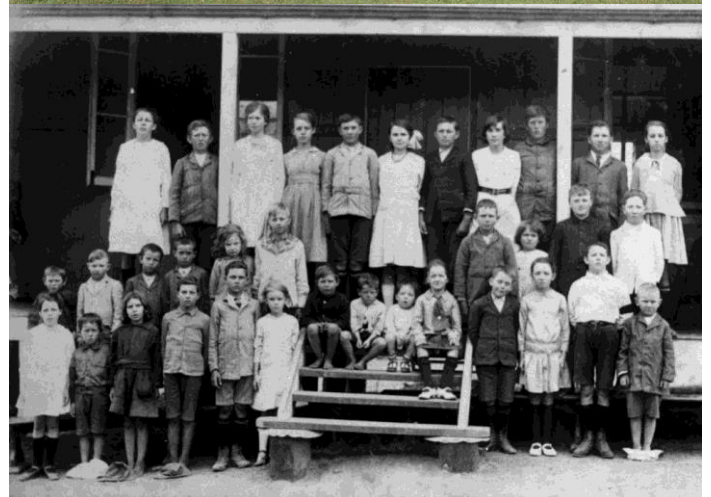

Moore is a rural QLD town with a population of around 300 people. Originally known as Stanley Gate, and then as Mooretown, in July 1910 the town took the name Moore from its railway station which closed in 1993.

Moore Provisional School opened in 1904, became Moore State School in 1908, and was closed in 2007. There are no schools left in Moore.

The Moore Post Office has been open since 1905. Moore features Stonehouse; a heritage listed former homestead and inn built from 1874 to 1888.

FEBRUARY RUN: Baroon Pocket Dam, 20/02/22

Organised by Alex Gallacher, written by Kim Castle, photos by Kim Castle

Our first stop was at Peachester for morning tea. We drove through some back streets along Williams Rd, Markwell St, Alcock Rd and Beerburum Rd to reach this destination and at one point we all turned the wrong way and instead of heading to Peachester we were heading back to Caboolture but we saw the errors of our ways and like a true car club all did U-turns not synchronized at all.... It looked like arms and legs going everywhere but it would be good practice for later, well for me at least.

We made it to our little café at Peachester and all was going well, the weather was holding off and everything seemed, well peachy. The rain came, over and over on and off for the rest of the day but it did not dull our adventure and our spirits were high.

We left the café to carry on to our final destination at Baroon Pocket Dam taking in winding roads and beautiful scenery, I think I ran off the road at one point looking at the bush instead of where Cauldron wanted to go. I stopped halfway up Bald Knob Rd to take a picture for Jayne and ended up taking a photo of mostly a dead tree but that's ok. I had Jen and Stan behind me and they were just coming around the bottom of the hill so I thought I had half hour before they caught me... That Holden moves faster than I thought 😊

They thought I broke down but realised I was taking a photo of a dead tree and we must remember it is the Subaru (Sidda) that breaks down and needs towing not Cauldron.

So the instructions were simple, drive to the end of this road and turn left... I drove to the end but now I was behind the rest of the cars and didn't see them turn left. I also didn't look at the run sheet because I was on a narrow winding road but I saw a car turn right as I started down the hill so I turned right. Not only was that car not with us but now I was heading somewhere that wasn't Maleny. I saw Jen and Stan turn left so I had to turn around and when I was on the straight read the run print to see where to go and I eventually caught up at the right spot.

The dam was gorgeous with lots of people there and I took some photos of the cars and the dam. None of people sorry 😊

It was a great day even with the rain and I hope everyone's cars didn't take on too much water and thank you Alex for the relaxing day and catching up with friends.
