Prelude

From a Distance- J. Gold

K.Caton

The music of the prelude begins the worship experience.

We invite you to sit quietly and allow the Holy Spirit to speak to you through the notes of the music at this time.

Call to Worship

Andy Stone

Reader: For God alone my soul silently waits

All: for my hope is from God.

Reader: God alone is my rock and salvation,

All: my refuge is God.

Reader: Put no confidence in riches

All: Set not your heart on them.

To you, O Lord, belongs steadfast love.

First Reading

UM Hymnal

No.95Blessing*Time of Prayer:

Intercession: To You, O Lord, we entrust the burdens of our hearts.

We lift up...those who need comfort in loss.

In your mercy, hear our prayer.

We lift up...those who need your healing touch.

In your mercy, hear our prayer.

We lift up...those you need your provision or protection.

In your mercy, hear our prayer.

Pastoral PrayerLords Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven

Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

Hymn

I Sing a Song of the Saints of God

No.712

I sing a song of the saints of God,

patient and brave and true,

who toiled and fought and lived and died

for the Lord they loved and knew.

And one was a doctor, and one was a queen,

and one was a shepherdess on the green;

they were all of them saints of God, and I mean,

God helping, to be one too.

They loved their Lord so dear, so dear,

and his love made them strong;

and they followed the right for Jesus' sake

the whole of their good lives long.

And one was a soldier, and one was a priest,

and one was slain by a fierce wild beast;

and there's not any reason, no, not the least,

why I shouldn't be one too.

They lived not only in ages past;

there are hundreds of thousands still.

The world is bright with the joyous saints who love to do Jesus' will.

You can meet them in school, on the street, in the store,

in church, by the sea, in the house next door;

they are saints of God, whether rich or poor,

and I mean to be one too.

Second Reading

John 1:29-42

Hymn

The Summons

No.2130

Will you come and follow me if I but call your name?

Will you go where you don't know and never be the same?

Will you let my love be shown? Will you let my name be known,

will you let my life be grown in you and you in me?

Will you leave yourself behind if I but call your name?

Will you care for cruel and kind and never be the same?

Will you risk the hostile stare should your life attract or scare?
Will you let me answer prayer in you and you in me?
Will you let the blinded see if I but call your name?
Will you set the prisoners free and never be the same?
Will you kiss the leper clean and do such as this unseen,
and admit to what I mean in you and you in me?
Will you love the “you” you hide if I but call your name?
Will you quell the fear inside and never be the same?
Will you use the faith you’ve found to reshape the world around,
Through my sight and touch and sound in you and you in me?
Lord your summons echoes true when you but call my name.
Let me turn and follow you and never be the same.
In Your company I’ll go where Your love and footsteps show.
Thus I’ll move and live and grow in you and you in me.

Retiring of the Colors.
