Prelude

Prelude in C- J.S. Bach

Kate Caton

The music of the Prelude begins the worship experience. The time of sharing and fellowshiping comes to an end, and we enter into a time of quiet, prayerful reflection. We invite you to sit quietly and allow the Holy Spirit to speak to you through the notes of the music at this time.

Words of Welcome

Lift Every Voice and Sing

No.519

Lift every voice and sing

Till earth and heaven ring

Ring with the harmonies of Liberty

Let our rejoicing rise

High as the listening skies

Let it resound loud as the rolling sea

Sing a song full of the faith that the dark past has taught us

Sing a song full of the hope that the present has brought us

Facing the rising sun of our new day begun

Let us march on till victory is won

Stony the road we trod

Bitter the chastening rod

Felt in the days when hope unborn had died

Yet with a steady beat

Have not our weary feet

Come to the place for which our fathers sighed?

We have come over a way that with tears has been watered

We have come, treading our path through the blood of the slaughtered

Out from the gloomy past

Till now we stand at last

Where the white gleam of our bright star is cast

God of our weary years

God of our silent tears

Thou who has brought us thus far on the way

Thou who has by Thy might Led us into the light

Keep us forever in the path, we pray

Lest our feet stray from the places, our God, where we met Thee

Lest, our hearts drunk with the wine of the world, we forget Thee

Shadowed beneath Thy hand

May we forever stand

True to our God

True to our native land

Hymn

Standing on the Promises

No.374

Standing on the promises of Christ my King, through eternal ages let his praises ring;
glory in the highest, I will shout and sing, standing on the promises of God.

Refrain:

Standing, standing, standing on the promises of Christ my Savior;
standing, standing,
I'm standing on the promises of God.

Standing on the promises that cannot fail, when the howling storms of doubt and fear assail, by the living Word of God I shall prevail, standing on the promises of God.

(Refrain)

Standing on the promises of Christ the Lord, bound to him eternally by love's strong cord, overcoming daily with the Spirit's sword,
standing on the promises of God.

(Refrain)

Standing on the promises I cannot fall, listening every moment to the Spirit's call, resting in my Savior as my all in all,
standing on the promises of God.

(Refrain)

Communion Liturgy

The Lord be with you. And also with you.

Lift up your hearts. We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Creator God,

In the beginning you formed the heavens and the earth.

You filled the heavens with Sun, moon & stars for seasons, times and signs calling each star by name. You spoke forth abundant life & created us in your image, breathing into us the breath of life.

Compassionate God,

In your great love and in your vastness and omnipotence, you attend to our needs and hear the cries of our hearts.

Through your Grace in Jesus, you have drawn us to you and made a way for us to be with you. When our love fails, Your love remains steadfast. You delivered us from captivity, and made covenant to be our sovereign God. Though there are shadows and worries, you have placed Your Spirit in us to instruct with wisdom and comfort us in affliction; You have given your Word to be a lamp to our feet. You transform us with the glory of your love.

We praise you with all the creatures of the earth and all the company of heaven. We join their unending hymn:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, Heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest!

Redeeming God,

You sent us Jesus, who emptied himself that we might be filled, Who suffered and died that we might live. He fed the hungry, healed the afflicted, and ate with the scorned and forgotten of this world. He washed his disciples' feet and shared a holy meal as a feast of his ever-present love.

On the night he gave himself up for us, he ate at the table with those who would desert and deny him. He took bread, broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying:

“Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you.

Do this in remembrance of me.”

When the supper was over, he took the cup, gave thanks to you, and gave it to his disciples saying:

“Drink from this all of you; for this is my blood of the new covenant,

poured out for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins.
Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.”

Therefore, Holy God,

Grant that in praise and thanksgiving, we may be a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable in your sight, and that our lives may proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died, Christ has risen, Christ will come again.

Pour out your Holy Spirit upon us and upon these gifts of bread and fruit of the vine, that through Christ's presence we may become a beacon of your divine light, a source of joy, a witness for peace.

By your Spirit, make us one with Christ, one with each other, and one in ministry to all the world until we feast at the heavenly banquet. Through your Son Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in your holy Church, all honor and glory is yours, almighty God, now and forever. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven

Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.
