EQUESTRIAN RELEASE OF LIABILITY AGREEMENT

Under Arizona Law, an equine owner or agent who allows another person to take control of an equine (horse, pony, mule, donkey or ass) is not liable for injury or death of the person resulting from the inherent risks of equine activities, pursuant to Arizona Revised Statutes – Section 12-533.

This is a release of liability and an agreement not to sue. You are giving up legal rights by signing this document. The execution of this document is a condition to participating in horseback riding and equine activities organized by the Glendale Equestrian Club.

1. I acknowledge that trail rides and any and all events and activities associated with the Glendale Equestrian Club are dangerous activities and that participation in activities as a participant, without limitation, exposes the participants to a substantial and serious risk of property damage and/or personal injury.
2. I hereby agree to assume the risks associated with horses and to release and hold harmless any and all of the persons and/or entities mentioned herein who might otherwise be liable to me my legal representatives, heirs, successors or assigns.
3. Being fully aware that participation in the activities will expose me to substantial and serious risk of property damage and/or personal injury, and in consideration for having been given permission to participate in activities organized by or associated with the GEC, I hereby release Glendale Equestrian Club, their respective officers, directors, employees, volunteers and agents (“Releasees”) from liability for any and all claims for property damage, personal injury and/or death which I may have or which may hereafter accrue to me as a result of my participation in the activities, including any claims that are known or unknown, foreseen or unforeseen, future or contingent. This release also applies to the activities of any person not yet 18 years old named below as a participant of whom I am parent or legal guardian.
4. I shall not at any time directly or indirectly, commence or prosecute any action, suit or other proceeding against the releasees arising out of or related to the actions, claims and/or demands hereby waived, released and discharged by me. This Equestrian Release of Liability shall be binding upon me, my legal representative, heirs, successors and assigns.
5. The safety of the riders and the well-being of the horses is always a priority. A variety of horses are brought to GEC activities. The Ride Coordinator has the right to not allow an individual to ride with the GEC activities.
