Update Regarding Be-Bop Biscotti Pricing

Dear Valued Customer,

We're writing to inform you about an upcoming adjustment to our pricing structure.

We understand that price changes can be inconvenient, and we haven't taken this decision lightly. Since our last price increase, we've experienced significant increases in labor, materials, ingredients and packaging.

Thank you very much for your understanding and continued support. We truly appreciate your business.

Sincerely,

The Be-Bop Biscotti Team
