Sunday Reflection

The Gospel this Sunday is taken from the gospel of John 12:20-30. The arrival of Greeks in Jerusalem to see Jesus triggers the “hour” that the Son of Man may be glorified. Now the “hour” has come for the revelation of his “glory” in his obedient death upon the cross. Jesus’ death is the moment (“hour”) of supreme revelation of his glory because it is the occasion when his perfect unity with the Father will be most clearly displayed. When he will most transparently reveal the essence of God to be self-sacrificing love.

Jesus compares his death to the seed falling to the ground to produce more fruit. The seed can only be productive beyond itself if it falls into the ground, germinates, and in the sense “dies”. Applied to Jesus, the image explains why he, a single individual, must die in order to bear multiple “fruit” in the shape of a worldwide community of life and love.

Having spoken of dying in order to bring to life, Jesus points out that we, his followers cannot escape death more than our master and we too must pass through death to eternal life. Therefore, salvation is about losing our life so that we will keep it for eternal life.

The Jubilee Prayer

Father in heaven, may the faith you have given us in your son, Jesus Christ, our brother, and the flame of charity enkindled in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, reawaken in us the blessed hope for the coming of your Kingdom. May your grace transform us into tireless cultivators of the seeds of the Gospel. May those seeds transform from within both humanity and the whole cosmos in the sure expectation of a new heaven and a new earth, when, with the powers of Evil vanquished, your glory will shine eternally. May the grace of the Jubilee reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope, a yearning for the treasures of heaven. May that same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer throughout the earth. To you our God, eternally blessed, be glory and praise for ever.
Amen.
