Sunday Reflection

The Gospel this 2nd Sunday of Lent is taken from Mark 9:2-10. The “Transfiguration” narrative. On this occasion of Jesus transfiguration, he enables his disciples momentarily catch sight of his divinity. Why? So that, when during Passion he will lose even the appearance of a human being (the prophet Isaiah says that, “he was inhumanly disfigured that he no longer looked like a man” Is. 52:14), the disciples might look beyond the appearance of the disfigured Jesus and remember that transfigured Jesus of today’s event. In other words, Jesus wanted to fortify his disciples in advance, he wanted to strengthen their faith in him in preparation for the impending great temptation their faith will undergo when they witness his passion and death.

On this mount of Transfiguration, Jesus felt comforted and affirmed. He knew that the Father was pleased with him, and would give him the strength to face the ordeal ahead. With God on his side, he could face anything. So too, with us, as St. Paul says: “With God on our side who can be against us?” In our dark moments, we must do what Jesus did. We must seek the transfigured God in prayer.

The Jubilee Prayer

Father in heaven, may the faith you have given us in your son, Jesus Christ, our brother, and the flame of charity enkindled in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, reawaken in us the blessed hope for the coming of your Kingdom. May your grace transform us into tireless cultivators of the seeds of the Gospel. May those seeds transform from within both humanity and the whole cosmos in the sure expectation of a new heaven and a new earth, when, with the powers of Evil vanquished, your glory will shine eternally. May the grace of the Jubilee reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope, a yearning for the treasures of heaven. May that same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer throughout the earth. To you our God, eternally blessed, be glory and praise for ever.
Amen.
