Reflection

The Gospel of this Trinity Sunday is taken from John 16:12-15. Emerging from these difficult to understand sentences is the radically trinitarian theology of the evangelist John – a sense of distinct divine persons held within an overall unity of being and operation. This Father expresses a life-giving Word to the world, a Word which the Son embodies and makes known in his human flesh, the Spirit, sent from Father and Son, continuous the revelation of that Word to the community and the world in the post-Easter situation.

Jesus reveals the mystery of the Trinity to us, not just to let us know the truth about God, but also to know the truth about ourselves as to what is our origin, where is our destiny and how we can arrive at that final point. We only exist, and the world only exists, because God give life. He is the Father who looks upon us so his children and is closer to us than we are to ourselves. Everyday is a day to love the Father, Son and Holy Spirit so we should strive to make the Holy Trinity a more practical part on our lives. Love is the binding force of the three persons of the Trinity; so, when we love we share in that community of love which is the living God.

*Like a flame my hope is burning, may my song arise to You:

The Most Holy Trinity SundayYear C 15th June 2025FIRST READING

A reading from the book of Proverbs

8:22-31

Thus says the Wisdom of God: The Lord possessed me at the beginning of his work, the first of his acts of old. Ages ago I was set up, at the first, before the beginning of the earth. When there were no depths I was brought forth, when there were no springs abounding with water. Before the mountains had been shaped, before he had made the earth with its fields, or the first of the dust of the world. When he established the heavens, I was there; when he drew a circle on the face of the deep, when he made firm the skies above, when he established the fountains of the deep, when he assigned to the sea its limit, so that the waters might not transgress his command, when he marked out the foundations of the earth, then I was beside him, like a master workman, and I was daily his delight, rejoicing before him always, rejoicing in his inhabited world and delighting in the children of man.

The word of the Lord.
All: Thanks be to God.

Proverbs 8:23
(was set up from everlasting, from the beginning, or ever the earth was.) (KJV)

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

8:4-5. 6-7. 8-9. R2a

R. O Lord, our Lord, how majestic is your name through all the earth!

- When I see the heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars which you arranged, what is man that you should keep him in mind, the son of man that you care for him? R

2. Yet you have made him little lower than the angels; with glory and honour you crowned him, gave him power over the works of your hands: you put all things under his feet. R

3. All of them, sheep and oxen, yes, even the cattle of the fields, birds of the air, and fish of the sea that make their way through the waters. R.

SECOND READING

A reading from the letter of St. Paul to the Romans

5:1-5

All: Glory to you, O Lord.

Brothers and Sisters: Since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Through him we have also obtained access by faith into this grace in which we stand, and we rejoice in hope of the glory of God. Not only that, but we rejoice in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not put us to shame, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us.

The word of the Lord.
All: Thanks be to God.

Proverbs 8:23
(was set up from everlasting, from the beginning, or ever the earth was.) (KJV)

PSALM

R. O Lord, our Lord, how majestic is your name through all the earth!

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, the God who is and who was and who is to come.
Alleluia.

GOSPEL

16:12-15

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

All: Glory to you, O Lord.

At that time: Jesus said to his disciples, 'I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth, for he will not speak on his own authority, but whatever he hears he will speak, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me, for he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine; therefore I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you.'

The Gospel of the Lord.
All: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven,

(All bow for following three lines)
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate. He suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the Prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

SINCE WE HAVE BEEN JUSTIFIED THROUGH FAITH WE HAVE PEACE WITH GOD THROUGH OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST
