Note: The "CRISIS" Magazine will no longer be included in membership material or as part of the Membership package. The CRISIS Magazine is the official publication of the NAACP. Founded in 1909, it is a quarterly journal of civil rights, history, politics, and culture and seeks to educate and challenge its readers about issues that continue to plague African Americans and other communities of color. It is currently available to all members for free. For the latest edition, please visit <https://issuu.com/thecrisismagazine/docs>.
