Your journey to our hotel and beyond

Crowne Plaza Hobart is less than twenty minutes from Hobart International Airport and is located in the city's central business district. The hotel's close proximity to major government and commercial offices will be a draw for business guests. The city's renowned Salamanca Place and Constitution Dock at the capital's waterfront are also a stone's throw away from the hotel, as is the Theatre Royal, Museum and Art Gallery, providing easy access for guests during their leisure time. Surrounded by Hobart's best shopping, everything our guests need is on our doorstep.

To help you unwind and keep you nourished

Crowne Plaza Hobart features a range of business and meetings facilities including our Centurion Ballroom, meeting rooms, boardroom and 24-hour access to business Centre services. Guests will also be able to enjoy the hotel's restaurants, unwind at core restaurant and bar or relax with friends on THE DECK perched over Liverpool Street.

Hotel Cleanliness and Safety

As an IHG Hotel, Crowne Plaza Hobart wants to ensure that we are doing all that we can to provide guests a safe, welcoming and clean environment for them to call home. We have our standard operating procedures in place for each area of the guest journey through out the hotel, as well as colleague areas, with a strong focus on cleanliness, communication and social distancing. If you require specific information, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Parking/Transport

Crowne Plaza Hobart has a number of parking options available. We have valet parking available from $35.00 per day for guests who are staying in overnight accommodation at the hotel. Alternatively, for guests visiting for the day, who are not staying in overnight accommodation, we have a strategic partnership with Market Place Car Park that provides hotel guests with access to parking with only a short 7-minute walk to the hotel. This car park is privately owned and all fees are paid direct to the car park operator. Alternatively, there are many public car parks located within close proximity to the hotel.
