Rules, Regulations and Services

These regulations have been established for the mutual benefit of exhibitors, attendees and the New England Veterinary Medical Association (NEVMA) and are an integral part of the contract to which the exhibitor agrees.

Hours: At least one exhibitor representative must be available during the posted exhibit hours.

Cancellation: The virtual booth fee is non-refundable. If NEVMA cancels the event, the booth fee will be refunded back to the original form of payment. NEVMA reserves the right to cancel any contract at any time for a breach of regulations.

Irregular activities: No persons or concerns other than approved exhibitors will be permitted to demonstrate, solicit orders, or distribute advertising materials or other material in the exhibit area, on-site or virtual. Violation of this rule will be followed by prompt ejection of such violators, and exhibitors waive any rights or claims against the NEVMA arising out of the enforcement of this rule. No exhibitor may call or invite a visitor out of one exhibit into his own. No exhibitor may join another exhibitors' virtual booth or interact with attendees visiting another exhibitors' booth unless invited by the other exhibitor.

Complaints of any violations of rules and regulations are to be made promptly to the NEVMA Executive Board.

Communications: Address all communications to: NEVMA, PO Box 15304, Portland, ME 04112. Phone: 800-297-1749 Fax: 888-612-0941 Email: info@nevma.org
