Dear Patricia,

I am writing this letter to express my sincere appreciation for all your professionalism, skill set, market knowledge, your great demeanor, and friendly attitude. After selling real estate for over 34 years and being an investor, I have worked with multiple property managers, and you are my favorite thus far. Feel free to share my contact information to be used as a personal reference if you should find need in the future.

Sincerely,
