

Granton Information Centre Website Accessibility Statement

Granton Information Centre (GIC) is committed to making our website accessible and inclusive for everyone. We want as many people as possible to be able to use our website, regardless of their ability, disability or the technology they use.

We are committed to continually improving the accessibility and usability of our website and aim to follow recognised accessibility standards wherever reasonably practicable.

Our commitment to accessibility

When designing, developing and maintaining our website, we aim to:

- Use clear and straightforward language wherever possible.
- Provide a logical page structure with clear headings.
- Ensure good colour contrast between text and backgrounds.
- Enable navigation using a keyboard.
- Ensure text can be resized without loss of content or functionality.
- Design pages to work with commonly used assistive technologies, including screen readers.
- Provide meaningful alternative text for images where appropriate.
- Ensure documents published on our website are as accessible as possible.
- Regularly review and improve the accessibility of our website.

Alternative formats

If you require information from our website in an alternative format, such as large print, an accessible PDF, Microsoft Word document or another format, please contact us. We will do our best to provide the information in a format that meets your needs within a reasonable timescale.

Reporting accessibility issues

If you experience any difficulty accessing information, encounter an accessibility barrier, or have suggestions for improving our website, please contact us at info@gic.org.uk. Please include details of the page or information you were trying to access and the issue you experienced. We will investigate the matter, respond as quickly as possible and welcome your feedback.

Accessibility standards

We aim for our website to conform to the Web Content Accessibility Guidelines (WCAG) 2.2 Level AA, the internationally recognised standard for website accessibility. We regularly review our website and make improvements to enhance accessibility wherever possible.

Ongoing review

Accessibility is an ongoing process. GIC will continue to review and improve the accessibility of our website to ensure that it remains as inclusive and user-friendly as possible for all visitors.
