EXHIBITS

Non-livestock projects such as photography, dog, gardening, and small engines are showcased along with other agricultural educational displays and products.

A GUIDE TO PURCHASING

Purchasing an animal may seem to be an intimidating investment but it is an easy and cost effective way of purchasing locally raised, high quality meat. When you buy a 4-H project, you purchase all your cuts of meat - steaks/chops, roasts, ribs, hamburger - for the same price and support youth & local agriculture!

Animals will be sold via live auction at the Agriplex and Online through DLMS based on weights verified at the North Thompson Agriplex immediately prior to the Expo.

Slaughter, cutting, and wrapping may occur at your choice of Rainer Custom Cutting or Rangeland Meats. For these options, transportation is covered and arranged by the BC Ag Expo Committee. If you would like your animal transported elsewhere, self haul is also an option with approval. If you purchase a carcass animal, it is already hanging at Rainer Custom Cutting and will be cut and wrapped based on your instructions.

Lamb is available for pickup from your selected cutting facility 7-14 days after the auction, while beef is available 4-5 weeks after the auction. Cutting and wrapping must be paid to your selected facility prior to or when you pick up - check with your abattoir once your order is ready.

WANT TO SUPPORT 4-H BUT DON'T NEED ALL THE MEAT?

Buying at the auction is a great way to support local youth in agriculture and great promotion for your business. If purchasing a whole animal is more meat than what you need, we have some options for you.

SHARE AN ANIMAL

If a whole beef, lamb, or chevon is more meat than you are looking for, ask family, friends, and co-workers to share in the purchase. Beef can be split into $\frac{1}{2}$ or $\frac{1}{4}$ packages, while lamb and chevon can be split into $\frac{1}{2}$ packages.

RAILGRADE

If you do not need beef, lamb, or chevon in your freezer, you can take advantage of our railgrade options where steers, lambs, and chevon are resold at current market prices by the pound. (Carcass animals are not eligible). These arrangements are made through the Sale Office at the Curling Rink and you will receive payment 6-8 weeks after the sale.

For more information or assistance placing an order, contact one of our sale coordinators.
