

PRIVACY POLICY

This privacy policy governs your access or use, of content, products, and services made available by Clindle. Your use of our Services, including any dispute concerning privacy, is subject to this Privacy Policy and our Terms of Use

Information collected

You can use our service as a Guest by providing basic information needed to render medical or mental health service:

- Name, date of birth, and demographic information (e.g., age, gender, etc.)
- Phone number, email, Medical conditions, Medications, Allergies, Zip code, and local pharmacy
- Insurance information when applicable
- We use Stripe or Square to receive payment for the booking, Clindle does not store your credit card information.
- Your email is used to create an account for you the first time you use our service. You can still use the service as a guest but using your login on a subsequent visit can save you time.

You agree that Clindle may contact you by email, telephone, or text message as part of providing you a service or for marketing purposes such as new services and products.

Clindle could send you a direct SMS message through a mobile device, and such a message constitutes your prior express written consent to receive, review, and respond to the messages you request to that SMS device.

Clindle will not share your information with any marketing partners, third parties, data partners, or pharmaceutical companies. We encrypt our platform for security and we do not save your payment details in our database. We use a third party (Stripe and Square) to process payments, which means we can accept most Payment cards.

We may make changes to our privacy policy from time to time. When we do so, we will post the revised privacy policy on our website.

Last modified: January 5, 2024