ROUGE & CO

L O N D O N

My name is Karin and I am the Director and Founder of Rouge & Co. London

Rouge & Co. was born out of a deep passion for wine and a desire to share that passion with others.

As wine enthusiasts, we (a husband-and-wife team) are captivated by everything the wine world has to offer—the nature, the stories, the incredible people we meet, the intricate process, the complex flavors, and, of course, the romance of it all.

This shared passion has been the foundation of our lives for many years, and it's what inspires us to do what we love every day.

On the business side, Rouge & Co. was inspired by a vision to enhance the wine experience for our clients.

We recognized an opportunity to bring something unique to the market by offering exceptional wines that stand out for their quality and value.

For us, this isn't just a business—it's a mission to bring joy to people's lives through the wines we carefully select and provide.

At Rouge & Co., we're proud to eliminate the middleman. By sourcing directly from producers, we ensure the finest quality wines at fair prices. This direct connection allows us to bring you exclusive labels that you won't find in supermarkets or online retail stores. Each bottle in our portfolio is thoughtfully curated to reflect our commitment to authenticity, excellence, and exclusivity.

We're meticulous in our selection process because we believe in offering only wines we genuinely love and would enjoy ourselves.

With Rouge & Co. London, you can trust that every bottle has been chosen with care and passion.

Our goal is simple: to make high-quality, unique wines accessible to those who appreciate them and to elevate life's special moments with every sip.

Brut Rosé
Premier Cru
Mailly-Champagne

Tasting Notes

Appearance: A delicate, sensual pink hue with lively effervescence.

Aroma: An immediately expressive nose, revealing red fruit aromas of raspberry, strawberry, and blackcurrant. These are elegantly intertwined with spicy and woody notes, reminiscent of forest undergrowth, ripe wild berries, and noble vegetal scents such as licorice, lichen, and moss.

Palate: From the first sip, a crisp and vibrant attack showcases the characteristic crunchiness of Pinot Noir and Meunier from the terroirs of Mailly and Rilly-la-Montagne, adding an extra layer of indulgence. The texture is built around suppleness, leading to a long, aromatic finish.

Gastronomic Pairing: A refreshing Rosé Champagne, perfect for spring and summer, best enjoyed outdoors on a shaded terrace.

Ideal Pairings: Fresh red berries. Exotic cuisine with mild spices and cooked fruits. Grilled meats, such as ribeye steak or pan-seared foie gras

100% Tempranillo

Alcohol: 14°

pH: 3.85

Total Acidity: 5.1 g/L

Residual sugar: 2.1 g/L

Winemaking

Harvested by hand, pre-fermentation maceration for 4 days at 5°C, then fermentation takes place at temperatures never above 26°C with a total maceration of 10 days. In all our wines we try to reduce the use of yeast, lactic bacteria and oenological products.

Ageing

6 months aged in French oak barrels of 225.

CALCU FUTA

FUTA 2019 represents the most elegant expression of CALCU's finest Cabernet Sauvignon.

Powerful, fresh, and deeply elegant. The nose reveals layers of black cherry, cassis, and graphite, intertwined with hints of tobacco, cedar, and spice. On the palate, it delivers great structure and finesse, with velvety, rounded tannins and a remarkable balance of ripe fruit, freshness, and complexity. The finish is long, refined, and persistent, making this wine ideal for ageing and highly praised by national and international critics alike.

Vinification & Terroir

FUTA is crafted exclusively from low-yielding plots in the Hurtado family's top vineyards in the Ramadilla Estate, nestled in the rolling hills of Marchigüe. These sites are defined by granitic soils rich in clay but low in organic matter, ideal for producing concentrated, structured wines. The nearby Pacific Ocean brings cooling breezes day and night, moderating temperatures during the growing season and preserving freshness.

- 100% hand-harvested and hand-sorted grapes
- Fermentation in stainless steel tanks at 22–25°C
- 21 days total maceration for full extraction and complexity
- Gentle vertical pressing

CALCU

Fotem

Calcu Fotem 2019 was created to express the singular personality of Cabernet Sauvignon grown in the most coastal area of the Colchagua Valley. This wine stands out for its depth, structure, and power—capturing the full character and strength of its origin.

Sourced from vineyards planted on granitic soils rich in clay and cooled by steady Pacific breezes, Calcu Fotem delivers freshness, elegance, and identity. It opens with expressive aromas of crunchy black cherries and red plums, with subtle mineral and herbal notes in the background. On the palate, it shows great structure, body, and persistence—offering a bold, yet refined, experience with a long and layered finish.

Vinification & Terroir

The Ramadilla vineyards in Marchigüe are planted on rolling hills, where ocean breezes moderate the heat during the growing season, allowing the fruit to ripen slowly and evenly. The granitic-clay soils promote low yields and deliver wines of great elegance and power.

WINEMAKER'S SELECTION

Winemaker's Selection 2019 represents CALCU's boldest and most expressive blend, crafted to highlight the unique character of each varietal from Marchigüe.

The wine opens with intense aromas of fresh blackberries, plum jam, sweet spices, and subtle cedar, followed by hints of vanilla, clove, and wild herbs. On the palate, it is juicy, smooth, and well-rounded, with elegant, polished tannins, generous body, and a long, persistent finish. A balanced and vibrant wine with remarkable drinkability and finesse.

Vinification & Terroir

Each year, CALCU Winemaker's Selection is crafted as a unique blend, designed to showcase the identity, elegance, and vitality of each varietal in perfect harmony.

The vineyards are located on rolling hills in the Marchigüe area, where ocean breezes from the Pacific cool the vines during the afternoon and night, preserving freshness and contributing to a longer ripening season. The granitic soils, with high clay content and low organic matter, result in naturally low yields and concentrated fruit.

Vinification & Terroir

A blend of Roussanne, Marsanne, and Viognier, all hand-harvested in the early morning to retain optimal freshness.

Grapes are double-sorted, first in the vineyard and then again at the cellar, before gentle pressing and fermentation at controlled temperatures. Each variety is vinified separately, with final blending completed only after fermentation to ensure finesse and precision.

Winery

Château de la Gaude is a historic, organically certified estate that combines 17th-century heritage with cutting-edge precision. With more than 20 years of organic viticulture and growing integration of biodynamic practices, the estate is guided by the belief that “great wines are made in the vineyard.” Every step—meticulous vine care, manual harvesting, and low-intervention winemaking—seeks to express the full character of its exceptional terroir.

Winery

Calcu Vineyards and Viña Maquis share a winery in Palmilla in the Colchagua Valley for making and ageing their wines.

The winery was built in 2002 under a sustainable concept using gravity technology to allow the grapes and musts to move gently in order to better preserve the aromas and flavours of each of its wines.

Equipped with an innovative geothermal plant, it is the only winery in Chile that uses this type of energy for its wine production. Thanks to this initiative, they were recognized by the Chilean-British Chamber of Commerce as they reduced their gas consumption by 90% and electricity consumption by 40% per litre of wine produced.
