A PRAYER FOR MOTHER'S DAY

Lord Jesus, Today we thank You for the gift of mothers. We thank You for the tenderness they show us, for the comfort they offer us, for challenging us, for understanding us and sharing with us Your wonderful ways. We especially thank You for their loving actions and for the time they take to nurture us with Your guidance.

Bless them, today and always, with the knowledge of how important their responsibilities are. Continue to give them the compassion, wisdom and courage they show us daily.

We remember our mothers who are now in Your eternal care. May all our departed mothers rejoice with Mary, our Blessed Mother, enjoying their heavenly home. Amen.

PASTOR'S CORNER

Jesus, The Good Shepherd

A reflection on the Fourth Sunday of Easter

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ, as we gather on this Fourth Sunday of Easter, we are invited to reflect on the beautiful and comforting image of Jesus as the Good Shepherd. In today's Gospel from St. John, Jesus reveals himself as the One who intimately knows his sheep and leads them to life in abundance.

Jesus, our Good Shepherd, does not simply guide us from afar, but he knows us personally. He calls each of us by name, and we are invited to respond to his voice with trust and obedience. He is always present, always watching over us, ready to protect us from harm, and willing to lay down his life for us. In this image, we are reminded of Christ's love for each of us—unfailing, unshakable, and unconditional.

On this Good Shepherd Sunday, we are also reminded of our call to be shepherds in our own lives. Whether as parents, teachers, leaders, or friends, we are called to care for and guide others with the same compassion and tenderness that Christ has shown to us. Our relationships should be rooted in love, care, and responsibility, helping others encounter the voice of the Good Shepherd through our actions.

This Sunday is also a time to pray for those who have been called to shepherd the Church, especially our priests, deacons, and bishops. We pray that they may always reflect the heart of the Good Shepherd and lead the flock with faithfulness, wisdom, and humility.

As we celebrate this sacred time of Easter, let us open our hearts to the voice of the Good Shepherd, trusting that He will lead us to eternal life. May we follow him faithfully, and may we also strive to be reflections of His love and care in our world today.

Wishing you all a blessed Easter season filled with the peace and joy of the Good Shepherd.
