

SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER
FAMILY MASS/MOTHER'S DAY

May 10, 2026

FIRST READING: This is a reading from the Acts of the Apostles

Phillip went to a city in Samaria (pronounced: sa-mar-ee-uh) to proclaim the Good News of Christ.

The people there believed what Phillip told them because of the way he preached and the wonderful signs he gave them, and he healed many people.

All the people were filled with joy

because of what Philip said and did.

When the apostles in Jerusalem heard that the people in Samaria believed in Jesus, they sent Peter and John there to pray that they would also receive the Holy Spirit.

The people already had been baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus, but when Peter and John laid hands on them and prayed,

they received the Holy Spirit.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER
FAMILY MASS/MOTHER'S DAY

May 10, 2026

RESPONSE: All the nations will praise you and know that you are God.

Give God Glory. Give honor and praise.

All the nations will praise you and know that you are God.

Proclaim salvation day after day.

All the nations will praise you and know that you are God.

Tell the nations God's wonderful deeds.

All the nations will praise you and know that you are God.

SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER
FAMILY MASS/MOTHER'S Day
May 10, 2026

SECOND READING: This is a reading from the First Letter of Saint Peter.

Dear Ones: Love Jesus with all your heart.

Always be ready to explain to anyone who asks you why you are full of hope,
but do it with gentleness and grace,
and behave as Jesus would want you to, so that,
when people say bad things about you,
they will embarrass themselves.

For it is better to suffer while acting in a Christ-like manner, than for doing evil.

Christ suffered for good people who were harmed by evil people, so that he might lead you to God.

He was put to death as a human, and was brought back to life as Lord, by the Holy Spirit.

The Word of the Lord

Thanks be to God