PASTOR'S CORNER

"Come After Me"

Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear Parish Family,

This Sunday's Gospel brings us to the shores of the Sea of Galilee, where Jesus begins his public ministry with a simple yet powerful invitation: "Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men."

What is striking is not only Jesus' call, but the response. Peter, Andrew, James, and John leave their nets at once. They do not wait for perfect conditions or full explanations. They trust the One who calls.

Ordinary Time reminds us that God often speaks not in dramatic moments, but in the everyday rhythms of life—while we are working, caring for family, or carrying our usual responsibilities. Jesus meets us right where we are and invites us to follow him more closely.

To follow Jesus does not always mean leaving everything behind in a literal way. It means allowing him to shape our priorities, our decisions, and our relationships. It means choosing compassion over indifference, faith over fear, and service over self-interest.

This week, let us ask ourselves:
What "nets" might Jesus be asking me to loosen my grip on?
Where is He inviting me to follow Him more deeply?

How can I be a witness of His love in my daily life?

Yours in the Divine Word,
Fr. Herman Manuel, SVD

PRAYER

*Loving and merciful God,
You call us in the ordinary moments of our lives,
just as You called the first disciples by the sea.*

*Give us listening hearts to hear your voice,
courage to let go of what holds us back,
and generous spirits to follow your Son,
Jesus, with trust and joy.*

*Guide our families, our community, and our parish,
so that through our words and actions,
others may come to know Your love and compassion.*

*We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen.*
