"Behold the Lamb of God" A reflection on the Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear Parish Family and friends,

After the joy and light of Christmas, the Church gently leads us into Ordinary Time—a season that reminds us that God is found not only in great celebrations, but in the everyday moments of life.

In today's Gospel, John the Baptist points to Jesus and proclaims, "Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world." These simple words hold a deep truth. John does not draw attention to himself. Instead, he teaches us what real faith looks like: to recognize Jesus and point others toward Him.

Calling Jesus the Lamb of God speaks of gentleness, sacrifice, and love. Jesus does not come with force or power as the world expects. He comes offering Himself—for healing, forgiveness, and new life. He enters our ordinary days, our struggles, our families, and our communities, quietly inviting us to trust Him.

This Sunday challenges us to ask:
Do I recognize Jesus at work in my daily life?
How can I point others to Christ by my words, actions, and kindness?
Am I willing, like John the Baptist, to step aside so Jesus may be seen more clearly?

As we begin this Ordinary Time, may we learn to see the extraordinary grace of God present in our everyday lives. May we echo John's words—not only with our lips, but with our lives: "Behold the Lamb of God."

May the Lord bless you and your families, and may this season deepen our walk with Jesus, the Lamb who walks with us every day.

With prayers and gratitude,
Fr. Herman Manuel, SVD

PRAYER

Loving God,
you revealed your Son to us as the Lamb who takes away the sin of the world.
Open our eyes to recognize Jesus in the ordinary moments of our days—in our families, our work, our struggles, and our joys.

Give us humble hearts like John the Baptist,
so that our lives may point not to ourselves,
but to Christ.
Teach us to walk with kindness, to speak with compassion,
and to live in a way that reflects your mercy and love.

As we continue this season of Ordinary Time,
help us to see the extraordinary grace you place before us each day.
May Jesus, the Lamb of God, guide our steps,
strengthen our faith,
and lead us closer to you.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen.
