Every year the global Church celebrates missions during the month of October. This celebration a powerful reminder of our shared responsibility to proclaim the Gospel to all nations. It is a day when Catholics around the world unite in prayer and solidarity to support the missionary work of the Church. Seeing the Lazarus at Our Door Reflection on the 26th Sunday in Ordinary Time

This Sunday's Gospel (Luke 16:19–31) brings us the powerful parable of the rich man and Lazarus. The story is sobering: a wealthy man, clothed in luxury, feasts daily while a poor man, Lazarus, lies at his door, longing for scraps. In the end, the roles are reversed: Lazarus is carried to Abraham's side, while the rich man is left in torment.

At its heart, this is not just about wealth and poverty—it is about blindness. The rich man never truly saw Lazarus. He walked past him day after day, perhaps stepping over him, but never opened his heart. Jesus is warning us: spiritual blindness leads to eternal separation.

Our communities know what it means to be overlooked. Many Native peoples, immigrants, and those on the margins have long felt unseen or unheard. This Gospel challenges us to be different—to notice, to care, to cross the road toward the one in need. When we see each other as brothers and sisters, God's kingdom begins to break through right here among us.

Like the rich man, we too have received blessings. The question is not whether we have much or little, but how we use what God has given us.

Do our choices bring healing, dignity, and hope? Or do they close our eyes and hearts to the cries around us?

A PRAYER

*Loving God,
You open our eyes to the poor and our ears to the cry of the suffering.
Help us never to walk past those who need us.
Make us generous in spirit, merciful in heart,
and faithful in using what You have given us to build Your kingdom.
May we recognize Christ in the Lazarus at our door, and may we one day share together the joy of Your eternal banquet.
Through Christ our Lord. Amen.*

Who do you identify with – the rich man or Lazarus? Choose to notice others and to reach out to those in need. Support those who serve the poor.
