LEGAL STANDARDS

Virginia Rule of Evidence 2:401 defines “relevant” evidence as tending to “make the existence of any fact in issue more probable or less probable than it would be without the evidence. Evidence is relevant if it tends to prove or disprove a “material” fact. See Kristensen ex rel. Kristensen v. Spotnitz, 2011 WL 4380893, at *14 (W.D. Va. Sept. 21, 2011) (relevance involves making any “material fact” more or less probable”).

Evidence that is “not relevant is not admissible.” Va. Sup. Ct. R. 2:402. In addition, even if evidence could be relevant, it should be excluded in certain circumstances. Virginia Rule of Evidence 2:403(a) provides that relevant evidence may be excluded if “the probative value of the evidence is substantially outweighed by (i) the danger of unfair prejudice, or (ii) its likelihood of confusing or misleading the trier of fact.” Winston v. Commonwealth, 268 Va. 564, 598 (2004) (Prejudice must outweigh probative value to exclude evidence); Coe v. Commonwealth, 231 Va. 83, 87 (1986) (Evidence which may be inflammatory, “must be weighed against the tendency of the offered evidence to produce passion and prejudice out of proportion to its probative value.”); accord Cousins v. Cousins, 56 Va. App. 257, 272 (2010).

“Unfair prejudice” involves “a genuine risk that the emotions of the jury will be excited to irrational behavior, and that this risk is disproportionate to the probative value of the offered evidence.” United States v. Ham, 998 F.2d 1247, 1252 (4th Cir. 1993); see also United States v. Mohr, 318 F.3d 613, 619-20 (4th Cir. 2003) (noting that, under Rule 403, the Court should exclude evidence “that damages an opponent for reasons other than its probative value, for instance, an appeal to emotion”).

ARGUMENT

1. The Statement from the Headline from Washington Post Should be Excluded and Redacted

In ruling on the Demurrer, former Chief Judge White held that three statements from the Op-Ed may be potentially defamatory and therefore survived Demurrer. At the Demurrer stage, all allegations of the Complaint are taken as true, and Mr. Depp asserted Ms. Heard made the statement in the original headline of the Op-Ed: “Amber Heard: I spoke up against sexual abuse – and faced our culture’s wrath. That has to change.”¹ There is only one instance of Ms. Heard referring to sexual assault, and that was in the body of the Op-Ed: “Like many women, I had been harassed and sexually assaulted by the time I was of college age.” Att. 68, Op-Ed. The Court did not find that statement to be an actionable statement in Mr. Depp’s Complaint.

After all the evidence has been taken in the case, Mr. Depp – who bears the burden of proof - cannot establish through any evidence that Ms. Heard made the statement in the headline.

Ms. Heard has testified that she did not write the headline and did not see it prior to publication:

By Mr. Chew:

Q: Now, let's go through this. The version -- this percent of the op ed is entitled "Amber Heard: I spoke up against sexual violence and faced our culture's wrath. That has to change." What are you referring to there?

Q: Who wrote the title?

A: I – I’m not sure.

Q: But you approved the title, correct?

A: I never saw the title before it was -- before it was printed or -- or went to press as far as I can recall.

Att. 70, Heard Tr. 205:3-9.

¹ When the same Op-Ed appeared in The Post’s print edition one day later, the editors changed the title to “A Transformative Moment for Women.”

Moreover, the evidence is clear the ACLU submitted the article to the Washington Post for publication without any headline. Att. 69. At 4:23pm on December 18, 2018, the Op-Ed was sent back to the ACLU from the Washington Post editors for finalization—without a headline. It was approved—still without a headline—at 5:54pm and published online approximately four minutes later. Id. There is absolutely no evidence that Amber Heard drafted, was aware of, approved of, or even communicated about a headline to the Op-Ed with the Washington Post at any time, let alone in the four-minute window from the time of approval by the ACLU of the draft to its publication. In addition, the ACLU Corporate Designee testified that the Washington Post drafted the title of the article and it was not approved by Amber or the ACLU:

By Mr. Chew:

Q: Directing your attention to the title, "Amber Heard: I spoke up against sexual abuse - and faced our culture's wrath. That has to change."

Who came up with that title?

A: Based on my investigation, I'm not aware of any -- I'm not aware that the ACLU had any role in writing the name of the op-ed piece, and my understanding of how op-ed pieces work is, that the media, in this case The Washington Post, would have drafted the name of the -- the title of the op-ed and not the person who wrote the op-ed.

Q: Did The Washington Post seek the ACLU's or Ms. Heard's approval of its title?

A: I believe the answer to that is: No. There's nothing in the evidence that shows that they reached out to us to do that, and it is inconsistent with my understanding that these news outlets do not usually ask for the permission of the author of the op-ed to -- you know, for when they come up with the title.

Att. 71, Dougherty Tr. 303:13-304:16. Even Mr. Depp's expert, Richard Marks, agreed that in the "newspaper business, they usually have someone on staff write the -- the headline, if you will." Att. 85, Marks Tr. (rough) 59:7-10.

There is no evidence Mr. Depp can proffer that would establish Ms. Heard drafted the title of the Op-Ed, was aware of it before publication, or approved it. Instead, the only evidence is that she did not. The burden of proof is on Mr. Depp, and they are unable to present any evidence to support their position on this statement.

Therefore, the statement in the headline should not be considered by the jury for defamation, and the headline should be redacted from all evidence submitted to the jury and should not be considered in evidence.

2. Any Evidence, Testimony, or Allegations of Criminal Conduct Against Ms. Heard Should be Excluded Based on Virginia’s Rules of Evidence and Relevance

Throughout this case, and as explained below, Mr. Depp has repeatedly made various allegations respecting conduct of Ms. Heard to prove “she is a liar” and claims that she has been convicted of or has engaged in criminal conduct, and has repeatedly referenced and attempted to insert them into the case, as if they establish that Ms. Heard must be lying about the abuse at the hands of Mr. Depp. However, in Virginia, only the “fact that a party in a civil case...has previously been convicted of a felony, or a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, and the number of such convictions may be elicited during examination.” Va. Sup. Ct. R. 2:609(a)(i) (emphasis added). In no event may “the details of prior convictions be elicited,” unless offered to rebut other evidence concerning prior convictions. Id. at (a)(iii). Despite Virginia’s clear rules on this type of evidence, Mr. Depp has repeatedly attempted to obtain discovery of matters far outside of the parameters of Rule 2:609 to harass Ms. Heard, including serving extensive third-party discovery.

First, Mr. Depp seeks to introduce evidence related to an arrest at the Seattle-Tacoma in King County, Washington in 2009, where Ms. Heard was arrested and quickly released, and the charges (assault – Ms. Heard grabbed her partner’s wrist to get her attention when the rental bus was leaving) were dropped, and the arrest record was later expunged.² It is undisputed that no criminal charges were ever brought against Ms. Heard in King County, let alone resulting in a conviction. Therefore, evidence, testimony, or references to this arrest or the alleged underlying alleged conduct are inadmissible pursuant to Va. Sup. Ct. R. 2:609, and also the “details” underlying these charges may not be “elicited” by Mr. Depp at trial. This information is also not relevant to the issues in this case, and the risk of prejudice far outweighs the probative value.

Second, Mr. Depp also seeks to introduce evidence related to an incident involving Ms. Heard’s customs declaration in 2015 when she and Mr. Depp brought their dogs into Australia while Mr. Depp was filming Pirates 5, again to suggest Ms. Heard has “a criminal record” and has “found to be dishonest by a Court.” As with the King County matter, “there is no conviction recorded” because the Australian Court instead “discharge[d] the person [Ms. Heard] without proceeding to conviction.” Att. 1, Tr. 4/18/2016 Australia Proceedings, at 5:39-45; Att. 2 (Australian Crimes Act 1914, § 19B).

Relatedly, testimony emerged in the UK trial when a third-party witness (an employee of Mr. Depp) claimed Ms. Heard asked him to make false statements in the Australian proceeding, but he refused. Ms. Heard denies this, but since she never even had a conviction recorded in Australia, the testimony falsely accusing her of attempting to manufacture testimony is also inadmissible under 2:609(a). Such evidence should also be excluded as irrelevant to the issues at trial, and any possible relevance is far outweighed by the potential prejudice. The notion that signing an airport form relating to the immunizations of Mr. Depp and Ms. Heard’s dogs suggests she is lying about being abused by Mr. Depp is untenable.

² Tasya van Ree, the person whose wrist Ms. Heard grabbed to get her attention to go to the rental car bus, has stated that Ms. Heard “was wrongfully accused” and that “[c]harges were quickly dropped and she was released moments later.” Att. 30, Heard Tr. Ex. 826.

Third, the UK trial (and a witness Kate James – Ms. Heard’s former assistant who was fired by Ms. Heard - designated by Mr. Depp for this trial and on this subject) included testimony related to Savannah McMillen, an assistant to Ms. Heard while she was filming in the UK, and the status of her employment relationship with Ms. Heard in the United States. Ms. Heard provided a letter to the Immigration department in support of Ms. McMillen in 2014 after Ms. McMillen had been stopped and questioned at an airport. There were never any charges brought against Ms. McMillen (or Ms. Heard), so these allegations that Ms. Heard lied to Immigration authorities about the true status of Ms. McMillen’s employment status in the US are not admissible and should be excluded under Rule 2:609(a). Such evidence is also completely irrelevant to the issues at trial – whether Ms. Heard allegedly lied to Immigration authorities about the employment status of her UK assistant has no bearing on whether Ms. Heard is lying about the abuse committed by Mr. Depp against her. The potential for prejudice far outweighs any possible relevance.

Fourth, at deposition Mr. Depp cross-examined Ms. Henriquez, Ms. Heard’s sister (but never questioned Ms. Heard) respecting Ms. Heard’s juvenile driving record, including driving on a suspended license in Texas when she was a teenager. Att. 3, 2/3/22 Tr. Henriquez, at 70:6-77-10. These driving violations were when Ms. Heard was a minor, and even then, are neither felonies nor “misdemeanors involving moral turpitude.” Va. Sup. Ct. R. 2:609(a)(i). And even if the convictions could be elicited, which they cannot, in no event may “the details of prior convictions be elicited.” Id. at (a)(iii). Such evidence should also be excluded as irrelevant to the issues at trial – whether Ms. Heard had speeding tickets as a minor and drove on a suspended license as a minor have no bearing on whether Ms. Heard is lying about whether Mr. Depp committed domestic abuse of her, and the prejudice far outweighs any potential relevance.

Fifth, at deposition Mr. Depp also cross-examined Ms. Henriquez, suggesting her sister was driving the vehicle at the time of the tragic death of Ms. Heard's close friend Logan when they were both teenagers. Att. 3, 2/3/22 Tr. of Henriquez, at 70:6-77-10. This suggestion was made even though there is not a stitch of evidence to support this outrageous allegation – Ms. Heard was nowhere near the county in which the accident occurred at the time and was devastated when notified. There is no evidence whatsoever, let alone any charges or convictions, that Ms. Heard had anything to do with this tragic death. Such evidence should also be excluded as irrelevant to the issues at trial, and even the malicious suggestion that Ms. Heard was driving at the time of the accident should be excluded from trial.

Sixth, for the same reasons, Mr. Depp should be precluded from claiming or suggesting to the jury by any means that Ms. Heard has a “criminal record.” Mr. Depp's counsel has repeatedly made such assertions during various Court hearings, in third party depositions, and even in meet and confers, regardless of its relevance to each proceeding, and Ms. Heard expects counsel to do the same in the presence of the Jury at trial, absent this Court's intervention. Such prejudicial statements and references should also be excluded for all the reasons set forth above, and any possible relevance is far outweighed by the potential prejudice to the Jury of such allegations and accusations.

As noted above, all the above evidence should further be excluded because the probative value of such evidence is substantially outweighed by the danger of unfair prejudice and the likelihood of confusing or misleading the jury on these matters. Va. Sup. Ct. R. 2:403.

Finally, for the same reasons as above Mr. Depp's Trial Exhibits 112-14 and 424 should also be excluded. Att. 4.

For these reasons, any evidence, testimony, allegations, or references by counsel respecting these matters should be excluded from trial.

3. Evidence Respecting Either Amber Heard's or Mr. Depp's Pledges or Donations to Charities Should Be Excluded

a. Evidence of Amber Heard's Pledges and Donations to Charity Should be Excluded

At virtually every hearing and deposition, counsel for Mr. Depp has adamantly pronounced that Ms. Heard is "a liar" because she said she donated the $7 million she received from the divorce proceedings to charity, and she has not, and she has deprived children with cancer needing surgery. The reality is that Ms. Heard has been responsible for donations of roughly $1 million towards each charity, and fully intends to complete her pledges to both, but because she was sued by Mr. Depp in this lawsuit, she has been unable to fully fulfill the pledges yet. Both organizations have testified there is no expiration date on the pledges.

Significantly, this has nothing to do with whether Mr. Depp abused Ms. Heard. Yet it is the lynchpin of virtually every effort in Court, in third party depositions, and in the press, to discredit Ms. Heard, and suggest because she has not yet fulfilled the entire amount of the pledges, she is "a liar" and therefore the jury should conclude because she lied about not yet paying all of the $3.5 million pledged to Children's Hospital, and not yet paying all the $3.5 million pledged to the ACLU, she must be lying about Mr. Depp abusing her.

This is precisely the type of collateral issue that should be excluded under Virginia Rules of Evidence 2:401 and 2:402 as completely irrelevant and likely to lead to significant prejudice and confusion by the jury. Information related to Ms. Heard's pledge to donate $7 million - the proceeds of her divorce settlement - to charity does not make it more or less probable that Mr. Depp domestically abused her. Mr. Depp has testified that the settlement proceeds had nothing to do with any claims of abuse by Ms. Heard: "None of the $7 million that [Ms. Heard] was awarded in the divorce had anything whatsoever to do with any-any of her claims, any of that, no.” Att. 5, 11/10/20 Depp Tr., at 70:20-71:6, 74:6-9. There is not even a remote nexus between her donations and any claim, either by Mr. Depp or Ms. Heard in this case, and there is no mention of donations in either pleading. While Mr. Depp argued in the UK proceeding that Ms. Heard’s allegations were motivated as “an insurance policy” and “to build a dossier” – neither of which relate to the $7 million pledge to charity - Ms. Heard’s sole motivation for claiming abuse as alleged by Mr. Depp in this litigation is to further her career. Compl. ¶¶ 64-68. There is absolutely no allegation by Mr. Depp that Ms. Heard’s settlement proceeds had anything to do with her allegations of abuse, and as noted above, Mr. Depp specifically denied the $7 million payment to Ms. Heard had anything to do with the allegations of abuse. Ms. Heard’s announcement that she would be donating the money to the ACLU and Children’s Hospital was more than two years prior to the publication of the Op-Ed - the subject of Depp’s defamation claim, and, contrary to Mr. Depp’s common refrain, she has never “tied her donations to her motivation for alleging abuse,” the idea of which is risible.

Even if this Court deems the evidence of Ms. Heard’s donations somehow relevant, Mr. Depp should be precluded from offering it under Rule 2:403(i) and (ii), as its probative value would be greatly outweighed by (i) “the danger of unfair prejudice” and (ii) “its likelihood of confusing or misleading [the jury].” Mr. Depp has raised the issue of the donations on countless occasions before this Court to allege in dramatic fashion that Ms. Heard lied about donating to “kids with cancer.” See e.g. Att. 6, 4/30/21 Hearing Tr. 53:13-54:1. Mr. Depp’s commonly repeated suggestion that Ms. Heard is abandoning sick children would serve no purpose other than to significantly prejudice a jury. Furthermore, the details of the multiple transactions pertaining to the donations, including transactions from donor-advised funds; how they are classified and credited toward her pledges; and the legal impact of signing of a pledge form, are complex and require legal expertise, and will create a confusing sideshow that will distract from the already-complicated issues in the case. Moreover, Mr. Depp has not designated an expert for this topic.

In addition, Mr. Depp has repeatedly attempted to tie Elon Musk to the donation issues (as well as frivolously suggesting he has been paying for her attorneys' fees, when not asserting the ACLU is paying her attorneys' fees), but this Court has already ruled there is no relevance to the anonymous donation. Id. at 66:22-67:2. Such references or suggestions would also only serve as prejudicial to Ms. Heard and is not probative of any element of Mr. Depp's defamation claim, or any other claim or defense in this case.

All evidence pertaining to Ms. Heard's donations to charity should be excluded, and Mr. Depp should be precluded from referencing in any manner her donations. Finally, for the same reasons as above, the Mr. Depp's Trial Exhibits 4, 6, 9-11, 15, 24, 27, 32, 36, 117, 204, 205, 939, and 940 should also be excluded.

b. Evidence of Mr. Depp's Charity Donations of Money or Time Should be Excluded

Evidence of Mr. Depp's Charitable donations, including but not limited to any monetary or in-kind donations and donations of time, and any photographs of Depp at any hospitals dressed as Jack Sparrow, should be excluded pursuant to Virginia Rules of Evidence 2:401 and 2:402 as irrelevant to this case. This Court, at a hearing on Ms. Heard's Motion to Compel Eleventh and Twelfth Requests for Production of Documents on December 10, 2021, denied the requests, ruling that evidence of Depp's donations to charitable organizations, whether monetary or donations of time, are irrelevant. Att. 8, 12/10/21 Hearing Tr. 7:7-18:15. Ms. Heard had sought documents identifying Mr. Depp's donations to any charitable organizations, "including any documents referring to any time given or donated by Mr. Depp to any charitable organizations even if no monetary donation was involved.” In his Opposition, Mr. Depp took the position that “Mr. Depp's charitable donations are totally irrelevant. Mr. Depp has never tied his charitable donations to this case, has never indicated that he intends to present evidence about his own donations, and does not intend to do so.” Att. 9, Pl.’s Op. to Motion to Compel (emphasis added). Based on Mr. Depp’s argument and representations, this Court denied the motion to compel: “As to charitable donations the Court just does not find relevance in this matter to compel that. So I’m going to deny the motion to compel as to that issue.” Id. at 18:12-15 (emphasis added).

Mr. Depp has no legitimate reason to oppose the exclusion of this evidence, since he has previously represented to the Court he had no intention of introducing evidence of any charitable donations, and admitted it is irrelevant. Mr. Depp should not be permitted to shield himself from discovery of such matters only to later use them as a sword at trial.

For the foregoing reasons, Ms. Heard respectfully requests that all evidence pertaining to Mr. Depp’s charitable donations be excluded.

4. Mr. Depp Should be Precluded from Introducing Any Evidence on Subjects to Which the Attorney-Client or Work Product Privilege was Asserted

On a number of occasions, Mr. Depp asserted the attorney-client privilege and refused to permit discovery, including responses to questions in depositions. For example, for each of the defamatory statements at issue in Ms. Heard’s Counterclaims, Mr. Depp refused to allow his attorney, Adam Waldman, to answer any questions relating to the statements such as: “Did you make that statement on behalf of Mr. Depp?”; “Why did you make the statement?”; “Were you representing Mr. Depp at the time you made this statement?”; “Did you discuss the statement with Mr. Depp before making the statement?”; “Did you discuss the statement with Mr. Depp after making the statement?"; "Was Mr. Depp aware, either before or after, that you were making this statement?"; "Did you make this statement with Mr. Depp's authorization or agreement?"; "Was Mr. Depp aware that you were speaking with the press?"; "Did Mr. Depp ever ask you to retract or correct this statement?"; and "Did you rely upon any statements or evidence from Mr. Depp in making this statement?" Att. 11, 2/15/22 Dep. Waldman at 64:4-68:4, 69:12-73:21, 77:4-80:2. Mr. Depp also refused to answer the same questions. Att. 12., 11/10/20 Dep. Depp.; Att. 23, 12/14/21 Tr. Dep. Depp, at 999:7-1002:8. Mr. Depp further refused to allow his publicist, Robin Baum, to answer any questions respecting conversations she had with Mr. Waldman respecting Mr. Waldman's statements, Att. 13, 1/20/22 Dep. Baum at 138:4-140:6; 145:22-148:9.³

Mr. Depp also claims text messages between Ms. Heard and Stephen Deuters, Mr. Depp's assistant, were somehow fake. Yet, Mr. Depp refused to allow Mr. Deuters to answer questions about whether Mr. Deuters has any basis to believe the texts were not authentic. Att. 15, 2/24/22 Dep. Deuters 164:8-167:11. Incredibly, Mr. Deuters was instructed to not even answer a question about information "other than what he learned from his attorneys" respecting the texts at issue:

Q Other than anything you have learned from your attorneys or communications you've had with your attorneys, you have no basis to believe that these text messages were doctored in any way, correct, Mr. Deuters? MS. VASQUEZ: Same instruction, same objection. BY MR. ROTTENBORN: Q Mr. Deuters, are you refusing to answer the question on the basis of your attorney's instruction? MS. VASQUEZ: On the basis of attorney-client privilege, yes, he is. MR. ROTTENBORN: You're not the witness, Camille. I asked him a question if he is refusing.

Id., 165:8-166:13.

³ In addition, Mr. Depp refused to allow Jack Whigham, Mr. Depp's agent, testify to his discussions with Mr. Waldman respecting any litigation. Att. 14, 1/20/21 Dep. Whigham at 65:1-69:14.

Given that Mr. Depp has asserted the privilege on these issues, and refused to allow Ms. Heard discovery, Mr. Depp must be precluded from asserting any legal argument or introducing any evidence relating in any manner to the issues to which Mr. Depp has asserted privilege -- any authorization or lack thereof by Mr. Depp relating to the defamatory statements at issue, and any evidence respecting whether the text messages between Ms. Heard and Mr. Deuters are authentic.

Mr. Depp cannot use attorney-client privilege as both a sword and shield, which is contrary to its very purpose. As the Virginia Supreme Court held, “parties should not be permitted to use the privilege as both a shield, preventing the admission of evidence, and as a sword to mislead the finder of fact by allowing evidence that would be impeached by the privileged information if it had not been suppressed.” Walton v. Mid-Atlantic Spine Specialists, P.C., 280 Va. 113, 130 (2010). “Such a pick-and-choose approach may seem unfair in general or because it distorts the evidence that is presented to the factfinder.” Id. at 127; see also Gordon v. Newspaper Ass'n of Am., 51 Va. Cir. 183, 193 (Richmond Cir. 2000) (“The attorney-client privilege is meant to be used as a shield from intrusion and not as a sword for manipulation of the truth”); Koch v. Cox, 489 F.3d 384, 390 (D.C. Cir. 2007) (considering whether the party asserting privilege seeks to employ that privilege both as a sword and as a shield, and thereby to gain litigation advantage); Bittaker v. Woodford, 331 F.3d 715, 718 (9th Cir. 2003) (“[t]he principle is often expressed in terms of preventing a party from using the privilege as both a shield and a sword. . . . In practical terms, this means that parties in litigation may not abuse the privilege by asserting claims the opposing party cannot adequately dispute unless it has access to the privileged materials.”); United States v. Desir, 273 F.3d 39, 45 (1st Cir. 2001) (considering unfairness of allowing invocation of the privilege when a party testifies about portions of a communication or selectively asserts protections, because the "privilege cannot be used as both a shield and a sword"); United States v. Yerardi, 192 F.3d 14, 18 (1st Cir. 1999) ("Probably the most common example is a privilege holder's effort to answer some questions in a subject area (usually those that serve the privilege holder's interests) but not others (those that harm the privilege holder's interest). Such a pick-and-choose approach may seem unfair in general or because it distorts the evidence that is presented to the factfinder").

As a result of parties attempting to use these "sword and shield" tactics, many of these Courts preclude a party from introducing evidence or testimony at trial that the opposing party "was prevented...from exploring during a deposition by invoking the attorney-client privilege." Engineered Prods. Co. v. Donaldson Co., 313 F. Supp. 2d 951, 1022-23 (N.D. Iowa 2004), reversed on other grounds, 147 Fed. Appx. 979 (Fed. Cir. 2005). In Engineered Prods. the Court barred the plaintiff from introducing testimony at trial on issues that the plaintiff had prevented the defendant from exploring during a deposition by invoking the attorney-client privilege and explaining that to allow the plaintiff to present the testimony at trial would be to allow the plaintiff to use the privilege "as both a shield and a sword." In fact, the Eastern District of Virginia held that:

The weight of authority indicates that to permit Mouer to testify to issues which she refused to testify to during her deposition based on privilege would allow the Defendants to use the attorney-client privilege as both a shield and a sword. Thus, Mouer may only testify at trial within the scope of her deposition and Plaintiff may not refer to the rulings of Judge Mitchell and Judge Brinkema concerning the crime-fraud exception to the attorney-client privilege.

Galaxy Comput. Servs. v. Baker, 325 B.R. 544, 559-60 (E.D. Va. 2005). Further, the Engineered Prods. Court held that:

plaintiff's objections during [the] deposition likely precluded as full an exploration of documents and issues . . . as the defendant would have been entitled to make, had there been a contemporaneous judicial finding of waiver of attorney-client privilege. Therefore, the parties will be entitled to present documents and testimony formerly protected by attorney-client privilege only to the extent that those issues were explored in [the] deposition.

313. F. Supp. 2d 951, 1023 (emphasis original).

Mr. Depp has throughout used, and continues to use, the attorney client privilege as a shield to prevent discovery of relevant communications with Mr. Waldman and Mr. Deuters. As a result, Mr. Depp should be precluded from referencing, introducing evidence or testimony or mentioning at all any topic for which Mr. Depp has objected and refused to provide either the discovery, or permitting the answer to any deposition question on the basis of the attorney-client privilege.

5. Ms. Heard Should be Permitted to Designate Testimony from Tracey Jacobs in two Other Litigations Filed by Mr. Depp where Mr. Depp was Represented by Counsel and Where the Depositions were produced too Late for Ms. Heard to Elicit from Ms. Jacobs

a. Background

On August 19, 2020, Ms. Heard requested deposition transcripts of witnesses from litigation in which Mr. Depp was previously a party. Mr. Depp refused to produce any – not even his own - claiming that Ms. Heard was seeking discovery on “wholly unrelated cases.” Ms. Heard moved to compel these transcripts, and Mr. Depp then falsely represented to the Court, “Having been involved in all of those cases, Your Honor, I can say that none of those cases has anything to do with Ms. Heard or alleged abuse by Ms. Heard or any other woman,” leading the Court to deny the discovery sought by Ms. Heard. Att. 17, 11/20/20 Tr. at 15:9-12.

But then eight minutes into the deposition of Mr. Depp’s former talent agent Tracey Jacobs, Mr. Depp’s paralegal produced an unidentified document production with password protection, labeled DEPP017, leaving out Ms. Heard’s primary paralegal in the case, and did not disclose it was related to the then in-progress deposition of Tracey Jacobs. Att. 18. Ms. Heard’s counsel Ms. Bredehoft, who was already in the process of deposing Ms. Jacobs, did not become aware of the production during the deposition, and even if she had, could not reasonably have taken a break to review 100s of pages of transcripts and documents, upload them, and use them to refresh or impeach the witness, or supplement her outline of questions – that would have taken hours at least. Yet Mr. Depp’s counsel Mr. Chew – who represented Mr. Depp in BOTH of the prior depositions, had already read through the materials and picked parts favorable to Mr. Depp, uploaded the documents for use as exhibits, and then used them in the deposition. Had Ms. Heard had the same opportunity, she would have been able to elicit highly relevant and damaging information:

- Mr. Depp’s serious and worsening drug and alcohol use, lateness and not showing up at all in filming, and movie studios’ unhappiness with Mr. Depp;
- Significant financial issues surrounding some of the abuse Mr. Depp inflicted on Ms. Heard;
- Ms. Jacobs’ knowledge of issues relating to Mr. Depp’s conduct;
- Ms. Jacobs testified that she believed Mr. Depp hit Ms. Heard based on “his behavior, and his inconsistencies, and violent outbursts.”
- Ms. Jacobs also testified that “more than a couple of times” Mr. Depp was so angry at Ms. Jacobs “to the point where it really concerned” her, and that “these instances of his anger seem[ed] to intensify as time went on.”;
- Testifying that in the period of 2015 and 2016, Mr. Depp “was angry at everybody”;
- Mr. Depp’s actions hurt Mr. Depp’s career;
- Mr. Depp lied to the LAPD;
- Mr. Depp appeared on TV drunk and stoned, to the point that Disney studio executives called Ms. Jacobs asking “What the hell was wrong with your client?”;
- These same issues appeared during the filming of Pirates 5, and Disney told Ms. Jacobs the conduct was not “going to be tolerated,” Disney was “not going to put up with this,” and that “there was no love between Johnny and Disney, given the Pirates five situation.”

As discussed below, this is the type of testimony Ms. Heard included in her designations of these two prior depositions, and seeks leave to do so. Ms. Heard has designated portions from these depositions consistent with the Scheduling Order.

b. Mr. Depp's Counsel's Conduct
Respecting This Prejudicially Late Document Production

Mr. Depp's counsel was intentionally misleading during the deposition of Tracey Jacobs in this case. When Ms. Heard's counsel objected to Mr. Depp's use of the prior depositions and attendant documents as they had never been produced in this litigation, Mr. Depp's counsel, knowing they had been produced during the deposition and that counsel for Ms. Heard would not have known or had a reasonable opportunity to review and pull for use in the deposition, falsely stated "they were all produced to your office prior to this deposition. So you should, again, check with them, because you got that and you got the deposition transcripts." Att. 19, 1/18/21 Tr. at 162:11-15 (emphasis added); id. at 85:17-86:2 (MS. BREDEHOFT: "Ms. Jacobs, just so you know, I don't have your prior deposition. We requested them of Mr. Depp, they have not been provided to us. So I'm at a disadvantage, I don't have those. MR. CHEW: That's actually not true. You should check with your office staff, Elaine. You can do that during a break. You've got everything.").

But Mr. Depp's counsel declined to state that the documents were produced after the deposition of Tracey Jacobs had begun, even though Mr. Depp's counsel later admitted it determined BEFORE THE DEPOSITION that the deposition transcripts and exhibits contained relevant testimony. Att. 20. Mr. Depp's counsel further admitted making this determination "[s]hortly before Ms. Jacobs' deposition, and in the course of preparing for same," deciding to use them as exhibits at the deposition of Tracey Jacobs in this case during preparation, and having the documents already pre-marked for use in the deposition before they were even produced. Id.

c. Relief Sought by Ms. Heard

Ms. Heard was and remains significantly and unfairly prejudiced by this conduct, as Ms.

Jacobs is a third-party California resident, and was not subject to further subpoena or deposition in this case. While denying Ms. Heard's earlier Motion, the Court recognized that:

I'm not going to make any pre-trial motions as far as designating portions of it or the foundational objections. I'm just not going to do that at this point. I don't think that's a proper thing to do when we're so far away from trial. That is something that might come up later when we get closer to trial, but at this time, I'm not going to do that...the motion to compel is denied. Whether or not authenticating parts of depositions, that has nothing to do with the motion to compel. Whether or not we do that is something for pre-trial. I assume we're going to be going through quite a few different depositions and there's going to be arguments back and forth at that time.

Att. 21, 6/25/21 Tr., at 52:7-14, 53:21-54:6.

Ms. Heard was able to obtain through Requests for Admissions the authenticity to documents attached to the earlier depositions, Att. 22, Depp 2nd Supp. Resp. to 5th RFAs, but there was no other way to obtain the same testimony given at the other depositions by Ms. Jacobs. Thus, Ms. Heard is now requesting the relief the Court deferred on until closer to trial, as quoted above. Ms. Heard now seeks the Court's leave to designate portions of the two prior deposition transcripts of Tracey Jacobs - which Ms. Heard has already timely completed - subject to further evidentiary rulings of the Court.

Earlier in this case, Mr. Depp sought to be able to use the prior depositions of two LAPD police officers, because Ms. Heard's prior counsel was present for the depositions and therefore Ms. Heard was represented. Here, Mr. Chew, representing Mr. Depp in both actions, was present for and took the two prior depositions of Ms. Tracey Jacobs. Thus, by Mr. Depp's own logic in requesting - and obtaining- this relief earlier in this case, should apply equally here. There is no prejudice, because Mr. Depp was fully represented in those depositions.

Ms. Heard now seeks the Court's approval of this long-disclosed relief - to use portions of Ms. Jacobs' earlier deposition transcripts.

6. Evidence of the Following Irrelevant Personal Matters Should be Excluded

Mr. Depp inappropriately seeks to introduce evidence of the following Irrelevant Personal Matters: (1) nude pictures of Amber Heard; (2) Amber Heard's sister Whitney's reality show video; (3) Whitney and Amber's past romantic relationships; and (4) Amber's brief stint as an exotic dancer years before she met Mr. Depp and Mr. Depp attempting to frivolously and maliciously suggest or imply that Ms. Heard was at one time an escort (the "Irrelevant Personal Matters").

- a. Plaintiff Should Not be Allowed to Introduce Evidence of Irrelevant Personal Matters Because Such Matters Are Not Probative of Any Material Fact, Including Whether Mr. Depp Ever Assaulted Amber Heard

None of the Irrelevant Personal Matters has any tendency to make any material fact more or less probable, including the fact of domestic abuse. Rather, any purported evidence of Irrelevant Personal Matters would serve solely as sex-related distractions and tangential publicity bombshells, which would confuse and prejudice the jury and could negatively affect Amber Heard's reputation as an actress. For example, first, nude pictures of Amber Heard have no bearing on any material fact in dispute. They are irrelevant, very personal, and would tend inappropriately to objectify Amber Heard – which is demeaning and would definitely detract from the issues in this case – of whether Mr. Depp committed domestic abuse. Second, there is nothing about Amber's sister Whitney's reality show video from high school that could shed any light on any material issue in this case, namely the relationship between Amber Heard and Mr. Depp.

Third, whomever Amber or Whitney dated prior to 2011 (i.e., before Amber Heard met Mr. Depp) is wholly irrelevant; Amber and Whitney's prior romantic relationships are far removed in time and subject matter from this case. Fourth, allegations that Amber Heard was an escort are unfounded, incendiary, irrelevant, and designed to harass and demean Amber Heard, and Ms. Heard's brief stint working at a strip club just after moving to LA to start her acting career also has nothing to do with her relationship with Mr. Depp years later or whether he abused her.

- b. Plaintiffs Should Not Be Allowed to Introduce Evidence Relating to the Irrelevant Personal Matters Because Any Probative Value Is Substantially Outweighed by the Danger of Unfair Prejudice and the Likelihood of Confusing or Misleading the Jury

In addition to being wholly irrelevant, evidence of the Irrelevant Personal Matters should be excluded because any probative value is substantially outweighed by (1) the danger of unfair prejudice and/or (2) the likelihood of confusing or misleading the jury. See Va. R. S. Ct. 2:403 (relevant evidence may be excluded if (a) the probative value of the evidence is substantially outweighed by (i) the danger of unfair prejudice, or (ii) its likelihood of confusing or misleading the trier of fact).

Evidence of the Irrelevant Personal Matters likely will distract the jury from the critical domestic abuse issues; excite potentially irrational emotions; entice gossip and speculation on irrelevant matters; and lead to harassment, bias, and prejudice toward Amber Heard and her sister. For example, first, nude pictures of Amber Heard or comments about stripping or escort services would be highly distracting and unfairly prejudicial to the extent they portray Amber Heard as a sex symbol instead of a women's rights activist against domestic abuse. Second, Amber Heard's sister's alleged reality video is likely to confuse or mislead the jury by focusing on third-party relationships (not the relationship between Amber Heard and Mr. Depp). The reality video likely would unfairly prejudice Amber by minimizing the grave domestic abuse allegations at issue. Third, Amber and Whitney's past relationships would be distracting and confusing because those relationships have no bearing on the relationship between Mr. Depp and Amber Heard; any conflation of relationships would cause unfair prejudice. Fourth, postseparation alleged affairs likely would mislead and confuse a jury because affairs have no relevance to findings of domestic abuse. In addition, affairs likely would provoke negative emotional connections for at least some jurors, causing unfair prejudice.

Because the Irrelevant Personal Matters involve inadmissible collateral facts that are likely to unfairly prejudice Amber Heard and distract the jury, such evidence should be excluded. See, e.g. PTS Corp. v. Buckman, 263 Va. 613, 620 (2002) (“Evidence of collateral facts, from which no fair inferences can be drawn tending to throw light upon the particular facts under investigation, is properly excluded for the reason that such evidence tends to draw the minds of the jury away from the point in issue, to excite prejudice and mislead them”).

For these reasons, Amber Heard moves the Court in limine for an Order striking evidence of (1) nude pictures of Amber Heard; (2) Amber Heard’s sister Whitney’s reality video; (3) Whitney and Amber’s past relationships; and (4) allegations of exotic dancing or unfounded allegations of Amber Heard escorting. These matters are wholly irrelevant and likely to confuse and mislead the jury and unfairly prejudice Amber Heard.

7. Prior Irrelevant Litigations/Legal Matters

a. References to and Characterizations of the October 2018 Arbitration and Decision Should be Excluded

In 2018, Ms. Heard initiated an arbitration against Depp for comments he or his attorney Adam Waldman made to GQ and other print publications that he had never abused Ms. Heard, that she had attacked him, and that she had falsified evidence suggesting he attacked her. Att. 25, 3/12/19 Arbitration Decision, at 2. Ms. Heard initiated the Arbitration pursuant to her divorce agreement with Depp. The Arbitrator found that the case was not arbitrable because he had not been appointed judge pro tem for continuing proceedings under the divorce agreement, and because the divorce agreement did not clearly and unmistakably confer upon him the power to determine arbitrability. Id. at 4-10. The arbitrator did not decide any of the merits of the lawsuit in any way. Id. at 10. Ms. Heard took no further action with respect to attempting to enforce the terms of the Settlement Agreement. Yet Mr. Depp's counsel has made statements in Court, in depositions and in meet and confers, suggesting that Ms. Heard brought a suit and lost, that Ms. Heard "fired the first shot," that Judge Meisinger (the Arbitrator) granted the motion to dismiss, and suggesting Mr. Depp prevailed on the merits. Ms. Heard moves the Court to preclude Mr. Depp from referencing in any manner the Arbitration proceeding, including eliciting testimony about the Arbitration, suggesting in any manner that Depp "won" the Arbitration, characterizations of the Arbitration, that Amber "fired the first shot," or anything else relating to it. The Arbitration is completely irrelevant to this proceeding and any reference is prejudicial and will create confusion and likely mislead the jury.

At the deposition of Ms. Heard's former counsel Eric George, on whom Ms. Heard relied for advice that the December 18, 2018 Washington Post Op-Ed was not actionable by Mr. Depp, including for defamation, Mr. Depp's counsel repeatedly asked questions about the Arbitration and suggested the Arbitration claim was not meritorious because Mr. Depp had filed a motion to dismiss that was granted for the procedural reasons described above. Att. 26, 4/5/21 Tr. Dep. George at 140:9- 142:20. Mr. Depp asked whether Ms. Heard "fired the first shot." Id. 136:21-137:6. Mr. George, an attorney who understood exactly the type of misleading testimony Mr. Chew was trying to elicit, explained the basis for the Arbitrator's decision and observed that "[y]ou're misconstruing a decision based on a procedural ground, and trying to suggest that it was based on a substantive ground." Id. 142:19-143:11. And Mr. Chew then tried to elicit testimony that the Arbitrator did not award Ms. Heard compensatory or punitive damages. Id. 145:10-147:3. All of these questions are clearly designed to mislead the jury into thinking that the Arbitrator had ruled on the merits of Ms. Heard's claim and therefore Mr. Depp, in this case, in alleging he did not abuse Ms. Heard, has already won this through an Arbitration proceeding brought by Ms. Heard.

Permitting these sorts of questions or argument in front of the jury would be highly prejudicial to Ms. Heard, misleading to the jury, and irrelevant to the issues in this case. As the evidence shows, the Arbitrator did not decide any of the merits of the Arbitration case, including the truth or falsity of any defamatory statements. The Arbitration decision has no relevance to this case. The sole purpose for attempting to introduce the Arbitration and decision and to reference it, is to confuse the jury into thinking it had already been decided as a matter of law that it was not defamatory to say Ms. Heard was not abused by Mr. Depp. This is demonstrably false. The Court should therefore preclude any attempt by Depp or his counsel to use the Arbitration to mislead the jury that the truth or falsity of Depp's domestic abuse was decided in the Arbitration. See Bermingham v. City of Clermont, Florida, 2013 WL 5970700, *3-4 (M.D. Fla. 2013) (excluding evidence relating to prior arbitration proceedings because those proceedings "have no bearing on Plaintiff's constitutional claim and should be excluded as irrelevant.").

Finally, for the same reasons as above the following Mr. Depp's Trial Exhibits 219-20 should also be excluded. Att. 10.

b. Counsel's Characterizations of the UK Judgment Should be Precluded

The fact of the UK judgment against Mr. Depp is undeniably relevant to this case, first and foremost because it relates clearly to the damages Mr. Depp has alleged, as well as issues that have been interwoven into the liability aspects of the case, including bias of witnesses and inconsistencies. In addition, the testimony of the witnesses in the UK, and the conduct of Mr. Depp in procuring certain evidence in the UK that will also be evidence at this trial, is relevant, provided it is introduced in an appropriate manner (as impeachment evidence, facts testified to directly by witnesses in this case, etc.). But the parties should be precluded from characterizing, arguing, or eliciting testimony suggesting their own interpretations of why the Court found, what the Court found, or what the evidence was, without the proper evidentiary introduction of the document and specific references.

For example, on March 10, Mr. Chew stated about an incident of sexual abuse by Depp against Ms. Heard: “And even the Court in the U.K. dismissed one of them out of hand.” Att. 28, B. Chew 3/10/22 Email to S. Abdallah. This is a gross mischaracterization of the UK judgment, which did not involve claims by Ms. Heard that the UK Court could “dismiss,” and it falsely suggests that the Court did not believe Ms. Heard, which was not the basis for any of its rulings. This type of misleading characterization or editorializing is improper, would mislead the jury, and should be precluded. Mr. Depp’s counsel must be required to follow the Rules of Evidence in referencing portions of the Judgment or any document.

In addition, Mr. Depp’s counsel has repeatedly and improperly brought in and referenced UK testimony without engaging in the proper evidentiary standards for impeachment. Mr. Depp’s counsel should be admonished that if they seek to impeach through prior testimony, they need to follow the Rules of Evidence and appropriate procedures.

c. The Nikola Six Lawsuit

Mr. Depp has made multiple references to the Nikola lawsuit, a lawsuit brought by the producers of London Fields which starred Ms. Heard and included Mr. Depp playing a smaller role. The lawsuit resulted in a confidential settlement. This lawsuit, and the allegations, have no bearing on the claims or damages in this litigation, and reference to it would only be for the purpose of unfairly prejudicing Ms. Heard and confusing the jury. Therefore, testimony and any references to the Nikola lawsuit should be excluded.

8. Allegations of Amber Heard Abusing Anyone and Claims of Mr. Depp Not Abusing Other Individuals Should be Excluded

a. Mr. Depp's Claims Amber Heard Abused Anyone

Throughout this litigation, Mr. Depp has attempted to pressure witnesses into testifying respecting Ms. Heard's purported abuse of other individuals. But there remains no admissible evidence supporting Mr. Depp's desperate claims that Ms. Heard ever abused any other individuals. Mr. Depp has further attempted to inject the issue of his allegations Ms. Heard abused him, despite the content of the Op-Ed forming the basis of Mr. Depp's defamation claim being wholly distinct from such allegations.

First, this issue is not relevant to the core factual issue in both Mr. Depp's Complaint based on the Op-Ed and the Counterclaim - whether Mr. Depp abused Ms. Heard, and for the Counterclaim the other related factual matters respecting whether Ms. Heard faked her injuries as Mr. Depp falsely contends. Mr. Depp even agreed, objecting that Ms. Heard seeking the facts of each supposed "incident during which you contend that Ms. Heard inflicted any type of physical or emotional abuse or abuse upon you" was "unlikely to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence and that it seeks documents and communications that are irrelevant, immaterial, or unnecessary to the issues in this Action." Att. 29, at 13-14.

Second, Mr. Depp repeatedly attempted at deposition to pressure Whitney Henriquez, Ms. Heard's younger sister, to falsely state that Ms. Heard hit her or threw objects at her, which Ms. Henriquez denied. Att. 3, at 85:11-86:6, 216:10-217:17. Third, Mr. Depp has repeatedly referenced the arrest at Seattle-Tacoma airport. But Tasya van Ree herself, whom Mr. Depp claims is the victim related to this arrest, has stated that Ms. Heard "was wrongfully accused" and that “[c]harges were quickly dropped and she was released moments later.” Att. 30, Heard Tr. Ex. 826. This particular incident is also the subject of the Motion in Limine in No. 1 above.

Finally, all the above evidence should further be excluded because the probative value of such evidence is substantially outweighed by the danger of unfair prejudice and the likelihood of confusing or misleading the jury on these matters. Va. Sup. Ct. R. 2:403. As noted above, the core factual issue for both Mr. Depp’s Complaint and Ms. Heard’s Counterclaim is whether Mr. Depp abused Ms. Heard, and for the Counterclaim other related factual matters respecting whether Ms. Heard faked her injuries as Mr. Depp falsely contends.

For these reasons, any evidence, testimony, allegations, or references by counsel that Ms. Heard abused anyone should be excluded.

b. Claims Mr. Depp Did Not Abuse Anyone Besides Ms. Heard

Throughout this litigation, counsel for Mr. Depp has repeatedly asserted that besides Ms. Heard, Mr. Depp has never been accused of domestic abuse by anyone. But counsel making such general statements is not evidence, and any testimony would be hearsay and lacks foundation, and is therefore inadmissible, and suggesting this would be significantly and unduly prejudicial in front of the jury at trial and should be prohibited. For clarity, Ms. Heard is not seeking to prohibit Mr. Depp’s counsel from affirmatively questioning witnesses by asking if such witness has ever been abused by Mr. Depp, provided such questions otherwise comply with the Rules of Evidence. But counsel should be precluded from making such broad and generalized assertions in the negative, or even eliciting testimony from Mr. Depp or anyone else as to whether he has ever been accused of committing abuse against anyone else, because such statement would necessarily rely on matters wholly outside the litigation, along with relying on hearsay and lacking foundation.

The probative value of such evidence is also substantially outweighed by the danger of unfair prejudice and the likelihood of confusing or misleading the jury on these matters, as the jury would likely rely on these statements as evidence in the case (despite Counsel's statements not being evidence and despite the hearsay and foundation issues which prohibit cross examination of a witness who would be making the claim or not making the claim), and which reference matters outside of the evidence and testimony that will be presented at trial. Va. Sup. Ct. R. 2:403.

For these reasons, any evidence, testimony, allegations, or references by Mr. Depp's counsel that Mr. Depp has never been accused of domestic abuse by anyone besides Ms. Heard should be excluded.

9. The Documents Produced by Mr. Depp as EWC1-76 Should be Struck from and Inadmissible at Trial

Mr. Depp produced documents from his business manager Ed White that purport to show the earnings of Depp (through his various companies) from 2009 to 2021. Information from the years 2009 to 2019 was produced as EWC1-52. Att. 7, Depp Trial Ex. 227. Because Depp had produced very little other than these summary documents and had long referred to these documents alone as his evidence of damages, Ms. Heard served a discovery request for the documents referred or relied upon in preparing EWC1-52. Depp objected and Ms. Heard was forced to bring a motion to compel. The Court granted the motion, ordering Depp to "produce all responsive documents to the following revised Request No. 6 of Ms. Heard's Tenth Requests for Production of Documents":

All financial documents relied upon by Mr. White, or anyone else who may have been involved or participated (collectively, "Mr. White"), in preparing the documents bates numbered EWC 1-52. For purposes of clarity, this request is only seeking all underlying financial documents relied upon or referred to by Mr. White to prepare the numbers and calculations included in EWC 1-52.

Att. 36, 8/19/21 Order, at 2.⁴

At his deposition, in response to questions respecting what he or his employees relied upon or referred to in preparing EWC1-52, White testified that “[w]e would have looked at the underlying source documents; for example, contracts. We would have looked at the stream of payments that were actually rendered. That would be examples of the kind of information that we would have analyzed in order to produce this document.” Att. 35, White Dep. 67:16-68:2. He testified further that, to generate the income statements or profit and loss statements at the core of EWC1-52, he would have referred to or relied upon “[n]umerous documents. There could be thousands if not tens of thousands of entries that would be compiled and organized and presented to construct these numbers.” Id. 68:15-21. That information would reside in journals and ledgers maintained in QuickBooks or a software called Datafaction. Id. 68:22-69:14. Those ledgers and journals would also contain information about the receipts of cash by Depp and his entities that is the underlying source data for summaries contained in EWC1-52. Id. at 69:15-70:3.

Other than a few contracts, Depp has produced none of this source data. He has produced none of the journal entries or ledger entries from QuickBooks or Datafaction that would allow anyone to confirm the summary information provided in EWC1-76. When asked at his deposition “whether you produced contracts or stream of payments or journals or ledgers or any other information that would underlie EWC 1 through 52,” Mr. White was instructed by his counsel (who is also Depp’s counsel) not to answer on the basis of attorney-client privilege. Id. 70:4-73:11. He did say, however, that “all the information that we were requested has been produced and sent to counsel.” Id. 70:9-11.

It is apparent, then, that either Depp’s counsel never requested Mr. White to provide the financial information underlying EWC1-52, or Mr. Depp requested and received it, but chose not to produce it. Either way, Depp violated the Court Order instructing him to produce the underlying information.

Depp has had years to produce the information underlying these documents. He has been under a Court Order to produce them since August 19, 2021. Yet he has simply not complied. Without underlying documentation, Ms. Heard has no way to test the truth or accuracy of the information contained in the documents. The prejudice is significant, because Depp will use his declining financial condition reflected in these documents (performance that was declining since far before the date of Ms. Heard’s Op-Ed) as evidence of his alleged damages. His damages expert Michael Spindler relies almost entirely on these documents for his damages analysis. Yet because of his disregard of the Court’s Order and failure to produce the underlying documentation, Ms. Heard has no opportunity to review the underlying documents and determine the accuracy of EWC1-76. Even after counsel for Ms. Heard raised in Ed White’s deposition that no underlying documents had been produced, in violation of the Court Order, Mr. Depp declined to produce the documents.

“Rule 4:12 gives the trial court broad discretion in determining what sanctions, if any, will be imposed upon a litigant who fails to respond timely to discovery.” Woodbury v. Courtney, 239 Va. 651, 654 (1990). When a party fails to supplement discovery responses, it is appropriate to exclude information from trial. See Moore v. Moore, 2020 WL 6277427, *5-6 (Va. Ct. App. 2020) (unpublished) (affirming Order by J. Azcarate granting motion in limine to exclude testimony respecting property value, title, and ownership because non-movant had failed to supplement discovery responses that did not provide the information); see also Anonymous C v. Anonymous B, 2011 WL 65957, *13 (Va. Ct. App.) (unpublished) (affirming trial court's exclusion of evidence at trial because party "failed to comply fully with the discovery order in this case" by not producing documents that should have been produced); Donnert v. Feld Entertainment, Inc., 2013 WL 12097618, *2-3 (E.D. Va. 2013) (granting motion in limine to exclude certain damages evidence from trial when plaintiffs did not produce supporting documentation and "[i]n violation of Judge Jones' order to compel, plaintiffs did not do so").

Depp's conduct here is even more egregious than the conduct that led to this Court's exclusion of trial testimony in Moore, because in that case, the party whose information was excluded had simply failed to supplement discovery responses. In contrast, here, Depp has disregarded a Court Order after a motion to compel seeking the information underlying the Ed White documents.

The Court should bar Depp from introducing EWC1-76 at trial, and Mr. Depp's damages experts should be precluded from testifying to any reliance on these documents. Any other result would condone Depp's flagrant violation of the Court's August 19, 2021 Order and severely prejudice Ms. Heard.

10. Mr. Depp's Expert Witnesses and Their Testimony Should be Excluded Pursuant to the Crane Doctrine

Rule 4:1(b)(4)(a)(i) requires a party "to identify each person whom the other party expects to call as an expert witness at trial, to state the subject matter on which the expert is expected to testify, and to state the substance of the facts and opinions to which the expert is expected to testify and a summary of the grounds for each opinion.” Va. Sup. Ct. R. 4:1(b)(4)(A)(i); John Crane, Inc. v. Jones, 274 Va. 581 (Va. 2007). Mere disclosures of the topic of testimony is insufficient to satisfy Rule 4:1(b)(4)(A)(i), Crane, 274 Va. at 591-93.

Defendant’s Expert Designations do not meet the requirements of Rule 4:1(b)(4)(a)(i) or Crane, and are rife with speculation, conclusory generalizations, seek to testify to the ultimate issue, and are without support that needed to be provided in response to discovery. Expert Testimony is inadmissible if it is speculative or founded on assumptions that have no basis in fact. Tarmac Mid-Atlantic, Inc. v. Smiley Block Co., 250 Va. 161 (1995).

a. Dr. Shaw Should be Excluded from Providing Any Expert Testimony

Mr. Depp has identified Dr. Richard J. Shaw as an expert to partially rebut Dr. David Spiegel’s opinions respecting Mr. Depp. Att. 37, at 35-50. Dr. Shaw’s opinion in his designation does not evaluate any evidence in this case. Rather, he opines that Dr. Spiegel cannot provide his opinions respecting Mr. Depp because Dr. Spiegel did not personally interview Mr. Depp, which Dr. Shaw opines is a violation of an ethical rule in psychiatry called the Goldwater Rule. Id. As described below, this “rule” is not applicable in litigation, and does not apply when a psychiatrist has access to medical records, which Dr. Spiegel reviewed in this case. Dr. Shaw admits that his opinion is thus based on the quality of the medical records in this case, yet Dr. Shaw’s designation is void of any comment whatsoever respecting Mr. Depp’s medical records. Therefore, Dr. Shaw’s proposed testimony must be excluded, based on Crane.

i. The Goldwater Rule is Not Applicable to Litigations

According to Rule 2:702(a) of the Rules of the Supreme Court of Virginia, expert testimony is admissible in a civil case when “scientific, technical, or other specialized knowledge will assist the trier of fact to understand the evidence or to determine a fact in issue.” Here, Dr.

Shaw is not offering any opinions that will assist the jury in understanding the evidence. Rather, Dr. Shaw describes a psychiatric ethical rule called the Goldwater Rule and claims that Dr. Spiegel failed to abide by that Rule. Id. at 34-35. But Courts have held that “the so-called ‘Goldwater rule’—an ethical rule that appears to preclude psychiatrists from rendering opinions on the mental status of public figures - [does not] appear to apply in this situation, at least not to bar testimony in court.” See e.g., Simmons v. City of Chicago, 2018 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 26140, at *4 (N.D. Ill. Feb. 18, 2018); State Farm Fire & Casualty Co. v. Wicka, 474 N.W.2d 324, 332, n.6 (MN 1991) (“the APA standard referenced by the trial court does allow a psychiatrist to ethically testify respecting another’s mental capacity without a personal examination.”)

Indeed, the Goldwater Rule has nothing to do with litigation, and as Dr. Shaw’s own disclosure states, was developed “following a controversy that emerged during the 1964 presidential election when Fact magazine published the results of a large survey of psychiatrists who were asked whether Senator Barry Goldwater was psychologically fit to run for the presidency.” Att. 37, at 35. The Rule states that “On occasion psychiatrists are asked for an opinion about an individual who is in the light of public attention or who has disclosed information about himself/herself through public media. In such circumstances, a psychiatrist may share with the public his or her expertise about psychiatric issues in general. However, it is unethical for a psychiatrist to offer a professional opinion unless he or she has conducted an examination and has been granted proper authorization for such a statement.” Id. This Rule does not say anything prohibiting expert testimony. In fact, the Ethics Committee of the American Psychiatric Association, commented on the Rule and stated that it is ethical for a psychiatrist to testify about the competency of a defendant based on medical records and not an examination of the defendant. Att. 38, at 35. The Ethics Committee also found that experts are allowed to render an opinion in a court without an in-person exam “because there is a court authorization for the examination (or an opinion without examination), and this work is conducted within an evaluative framework including parameters for how and where the information may be used or disseminated.” Id. at 76.

ii. Dr. Shaw is Prohibited from Commenting on the Medical Records in this Case

In this case, while Dr. Spiegel did not interview Mr. Depp, even though he asked to interview Mr. Depp twice, Att. 39, at 75, Dr. Spiegel reviewed video of Mr. Depp’s 3 ½ days of deposition testimony, testimony from all of Mr. Depp’s doctors, testimony from other witnesses, audio recordings, video recordings, emails, text messages, and Mr. Depp’s medical records. Att. 40. Dr. Shaw admitted in his deposition that it is reasonable to render an opinion on such a record. “I do think it is reasonable to render opinions about a case based on review of medical records, if the medical records are of good quality and rigorous and meet the standard of care.” Att. 41, 3/15/22 Tr. Shaw Depo, at 32:8-12. So Dr. Shaw’s entire opinion that the Goldwater Rule applies to Dr. Spiegel in this matter is reliant on Dr. Shaw’s opinion on the quality of the medical records in this case. Id. at 32:16-21. But Dr. Shaw’s designation is completely devoid of any discussion of the medical records in this case, which Dr. Shaw admits. Id. at 34:1-4 (“Q You’ve not disclosed your opinions on the quality of the medical records in this case, correct? A I have not, no.”).

Dr. Shaw also opines about the deposition of Mr. Depp, stating that it was “a long deposition, in which Mr. Depp had to sit for many hours and answer very personal questions that at times were difficult for him and exposing and -- in which he was, you know, frequently interrupted and told that he was not answering the questions appropriately, and in which there were arguments between the attorneys that were upsetting to him. And, you know, knowing what we know about his history of exposure to trauma in his past, this is clearly upsetting to him. And so I think that relying on that deposition was not proper and not necessarily representative of who Mr. Depp is. Id. at 63:1-15. But just like the medical records, Mr. Depp failed to reveal in his expert disclosure anything that Dr. Shaw would be opining about Mr. Depp's deposition.

In Crane, the Virginia Supreme Court ruled on the disclosure requirement of Supreme Court Rule 4:1(b)(4)(A)(i). 274 Va. 581 (2007). The Court held that where Crane failed to reveal that his proposed expert might testify about asbestos in the ambient air, the trial court properly excluded that proposed testimony from evidence. Id. at 591-92. "Furthermore, a party is not relieved from its disclosure obligation under the Rule simply because the other party has some familiarity with the expert witness or the opportunity to depose the expert." Id. at 592. Therefore, even though Dr. Shaw revealed in his deposition that he planned to testify to the quality of the medical records and Mr. Depp's deposition testimony, because he admits that material is not in his expert disclosure, such testimony cannot be admitted at trial. And given that Dr. Shaw's opinion respecting whether the Goldwater Rule applies in this matter is entirely dependent on the medical records, Dr. Shaw must be excluded from testifying at trial.

b. Dr. Kipper Should be Excluded from Providing Any Expert Testimony

In Mr. Depp's List of Witnesses for Trial, he discloses that he may call his personal physician, Dr. David Kipper, whom he has paid millions of dollars, for live testimony via video link at trial. If Dr. Kipper is called as a witness, he must only testify as a fact witness, and be excluded in any way from offering expert opinion, as both Mr. Depp and Dr. Kipper prevented discovery based on their representations that Dr. Kipper will not provide expert testimony in this matter.

On February 16, 2021, Dr. Kipper was originally disclosed as a non-retained expert for Mr. Depp, who was “expected to testify as to the pharmacological effects of the medications prescribed on Mr. Depp, as well as medical opinions reached during the course of Mr. Depp and Ms. Heard’s treatment. In so doing, Dr. Kipper may rely on his expertise and experience as a medical doctor practicing internal medicine.” Att. 42, at 21. Yet, just days later, at his deposition, Dr. Kipper refused to answer any questions that called for his expertise, with his counsel stating, “I will instruct him not to answer any questions calling for expertise.” Att. 43, 2/22/21 Kipper Depo, at 12. Based on that instruction, Dr. Kipper refused to answer questions such as: what drugs Mr. Depp was addicted to, id. at 34, whether Mr. Depp was erratic while attempting to detox from drugs, id. at 67, Dr. Kipper’s basis for believing that Mr. Depp romanticized the entire drug culture, id. at 73, why it was best for Ms. Heard to be away from Mr. Depp after she told Dr. Kipper that Mr. Depp had pushed her during his attempted detox, id. at 79, Dr. Kipper’s concerns about Mr. Depp’s hallucinations, id. at 83, whether Mr. Depp experienced drug relapses, id. at 103, whether Mr. Depp was coherent after Mr. Depp chopped off the tip of his finger, id. at 126-127, the purpose of prescribing particular drugs to Mr. Depp, id. at 174, and even whether Dr. Kipper was concerned about abuse to Ms. Heard. Id. at 79.

Dr. Kipper cannot now answer the same questions that he refused to answer during discovery. As the Virginia Supreme Court held relating to the attorney-client privilege (but just as applicable here), “parties should not be permitted to use the privilege as both a shield, preventing the admission of evidence, and as a sword to mislead the finder of fact by allowing evidence that would be impeached by the privileged information if it had not been suppressed.” Walton v. Mid-Atlantic Spine Specialists, P.C., 280 Va. 113, 130 (2010).

In addition, in order to prevent Ms. Heard's expert, Dr. Spiegel, from taking a 4:10 Medical Exam of Mr. Depp after disclosing Dr. Kipper as a potential expert, Mr. Depp's counsel backtracked, and represented to the Court on October 8, 2021, "we are not proffering Dr. Kipper as an expert on anything. We are proffering him as a fact witness. Att. 4. Mr. Depp must be bound by this representation to the Court.

Thus, if Dr. Kipper is to testify at trial, it must be only as a fact witness, and he must be prevented from testifying as an expert and on subjects in which he had previously refused to testify. And as explained in § 11(b) below, Mr. Depp improperly double-designated Dr. Kipper to testify at trial by both deposition designation and by "reserving the right to call by video link." Att. 45, at 2-3.

Therefore, Dr. Kipper should only be permitted to testify at trial as a fact witness through his deposition designations, and only through the deposition designations that the Court permits to go to trial following its rulings on each parties' objections to those designations. Furthermore, none of Mr. Depp's fact or expert witness should be permitted to testify on the subjects that Dr. Kipper refused to respond to at deposition.

c. Plaintiff's So-Called "Non-retained Experts" Should be Precluded from Presenting Testimony as Experts and Plaintiffs Should Not Be Permitted to Refer to Them as "Experts" at Any Time During the Trial

Plaintiff identified Jack Whigham, Christian Carino, Edward White, and Robin Baum as "Non-Retained Experts" in his Designation/Identification of Expert Witnesses dated November 4, 2019 (Att. 82) and his Designation /Identification of Expert Witnesses dated February 16, 2021 (Att. 83). These Non-Retained Experts were not included in Plaintiff's January 11, 2022 Designation/Identification of Expert Witnesses or Plaintiff's January 18, 2022 Supplemental Designation/Identification of Expert Witnesses. Plaintiff has made no indication since 2021 that he intends to rely on these fact witnesses as “non-retained experts,” so it appears Plaintiff does not intend to rely on these fact witnesses as “Non-Retained Experts.” However, out of an abundance of caution, Ms. Heard files this Motion in Limine.

Mr. Depp should be precluded from relying on these individuals as experts in any manner because he has not identified them in his 2022 designations. In addition, the Non-Retained Expert designations do not meet the requirements of Rule 4:1(b)(4)(a)(i) or Crane, Inc. v. Jones, 274 Va. 581, 591-93 (2007). The three-sentence designations for each non-retained expert contain only disclosures of the topic testimony and state no facts or summary of the grounds for their opinions. In addition, at least one of these witnesses, Mr. Carino, was not aware that he was designated as an expert. See Att. 84, Carino Tr. 352:19-354:11.

The Court should preclude Plaintiff from presenting the testimony of these four individuals as experts in any capacity and plaintiff should not refer to them as experts during any stage of the trial.

d. Mr. Neumeister Should be Excluded

As of the date of filing this Motion, Mr. Neumeister has not served any Supplemental Expert Disclosure, and his Expert Disclosures to date falls well short of the Crane standards. Ms. Heard has diligently pursued a date when Mr. Neumeister will produce this Supplemental Expert Disclosure followed by a date for his deposition, and Mr. Depp even committed to identifying the date by March 18. Att. 16. But Mr. Depp then failed to do so by March 18, and continued to fail to do so as of the date of filing this Motion despite Ms. Heard’s further attempts to resolve the issue. Id.

Therefore, Ms. Heard includes her motion to exclude Mr. Neumeister in this Motion to preserve her right to move to exclude his testimony if Mr. Neumeister later serves a Supplemental Expert Disclosure and appears for deposition, and requests leave of Court to file a supplemental Memorandum on this issue.

e. Dr. Curry Testimony Should be Limited

Dr. Curry's deposition was taken on March 21, 2022. During the deposition, Dr. Curry admitted that she did not evaluate and was unable to provide an opinion as to whether Mr. Depp abused or did not abuse Ms. Heard, whether Ms. Heard abused or did not abuse Mr. Depp, and she did not evaluate and was unable to provide an opinion as to whether Ms. Heard suffered any emotional distress as the result of the three defamatory statements made by Mr. Waldman that are the subject of the Counterclaim. Dr. Curry should therefore be excluded from testifying on these subjects.

In addition, Dr. Curry repeatedly referred to the Rule 4:10 examination as an "IME" and that her examination of Ms. Heard was "Court Ordered." Each of these references was designed to suggest Dr. Curry was testifying on behalf of the Court and that Ms. Heard resisted the Rule 4:10 examination, both of which are false. The Court has not appointed Dr. Curry as an independent examiner on behalf of the Court, and Ms. Heard did not object to providing a Rule 4:10 examination – her position was simply that it should be ordered for both parties, which the Court disagreed. Even if Ms. Heard had resisted or opposed the Rule 4:10 examination, like any opposition to a Motion to Compel, the fact of opposition is not relevant and would be unfairly prejudicial, confusing and misleading to the jury, who risks inferring that Ms. Heard has done something wrong, resulting in the Court ordering her to be examined by an "independent" expert. As discussed in greater detail below, but a broader request is being asked here, the use of the term "independent" is misleading and unfairly prejudicial, as is the reference to "Court-Ordered" examination, or that it was opposed. Dr. Curry, whose initial designation opined that Ms. Heard was lying and abusing Mr. Depp, is far from independent. She was hired by Mr. Depp's counsel, and she even had dinner and drinks at Mr. Depp's home.

Finally, when asked about obtaining collateral interviews for verification and as best practices in conducting an examination and rendering opinions, Dr. Curry contended that this Court had ordered Dr. Curry not to engage any collateral sources, citing to the October 8, 2022 Order. Att. 87. In fact, the language from the Order, drafted by counsel for Plaintiff, was stricken by the Court because it could have been read to require third parties to speak with Dr. Curry, which was outside the purview of Rule 4:10. It did not prohibit Dr. Curry from reaching out to the collateral sources, or obtaining their records. In fact Dr. Curry attended two depositions of collateral sources – Dr. Cowan and Dr. Banks, yet did not include any aspect of their depositions in her Report or supplement with them. In addition, Dr. Curry was provided with Dr. Hughes' notes (after a mutual Order was entered) and did not include those in her Report or any Supplementation. The paragraph above, ¶ 5, makes clear that Dr. Curry was not limited by Dr. Hughes' Report. Id. Further, ¶ 6(b) provides that “[r]elevant records must be obtained as far back as necessary for Dr. Curry to determine with a “reasonable degree of certainty” how Ms. Heard was functioning prior to the alleged traumatic event, but not fewer than three to five years prior to the alleged trauma,” and ¶¶ 6(c)-(h) indicate Dr. Curry can assess a number of areas including “any other mental condition identified by Dr. Curry during her review of relevant records and/or examination of Ms. Heard.” Defendant therefore requests that Dr. Curry be prohibited from testifying that the Court prevented her from contacting or relying on collateral sources for her opinions.

f. Mr. Marks' Testimony on the Impact of a Jury Verdict in Mr. Depp's Favor on his Career and Reputation Should be Excluded

Mr. Marks Expert Designation states that he will opine on “The positive and significant impact of a jury verdict in Mr. Depp’s favor on his career and reputation in the film industry going forward.” Att. 86, Richard Marks Designation at 5 ¶(g). Mr. Marks’ Designation at ¶ g is deficient in several respects. First, Mr. Marks’ Expert Designation does not even provide his opinion as to whether he believes a jury verdict will have any positive or significant impact on Mr. Depp’s career and reputation. Mere disclosures of the topic of testimony is insufficient to satisfy Rule 4:1(b)(4)(A)(i). Crane, 274 Va. at 591-93.

Second, Mr. Marks has failed to “state the substance of the facts and opinions to which the expert is expected to testify and a summary of the grounds for each opinion.” Va. Sup. Ct. R. 4:1(b)(4)(A)(i). While Mr. Marks testified that he intends to testify that a verdict in Mr. Depp’s favor will have a positive impact on Mr. Depp’s career, his designation remains deficient under Crane. 274 Va. at 592 (“A party is not relieved from its disclosure obligation under the Rule simply because the other party has some familiarity with the expert witness or the opportunity to depose the expert.”).

Third, Mr. Marks’ testimony as to whether a jury verdict in Mr. Depp’s favor will have a positive impact on Mr. Depp’s career is completely irrelevant as to any damage caused by Ms. Heard and is not probative of any fact in this case. Whether a future event has any impact on Mr. Depp’s career and reputation does not impact causation—whether the Op-Ed caused damaged Mr. Depp’s reputation—or the amount of damage allegedly caused by the Op-Ed.

Finally, Mr. Marks’ conclusory assertion is not supported by his own testimony. Mr. Marks testified that he is not aware of any actors accused of domestic abuse who have had a jury verdict or judgment on the issue other than Mr. Depp. Att. 85, Marks Tr. (rough) 81:19-82:11.

Mr. Marks' conclusions are wholly speculative and have no basis in fact. This Court should exclude Mr. Marks' testimony regarding any impact a favorable jury verdict may have on Mr. Depp's reputation and career.

11. Motions in Limine Respecting Mr. Depp's Witness List

a. Mr. Depp Improperly Included Witnesses in his Witness List for Whom He Provided Inadequate Contact Information or No Contact Information

In Mr. Depp's List of Witnesses for Trial, he discloses that he may call several witnesses for which he did not provide complete contact information as required by Rule 4:8 and this Court's Order dated August 10, 2020. Specifically, he provided no contact information or inadequate contact information for Gina Deuters, Travis McGivern, Leonard Damian, Keenan Wyatt, Kevin Murphy, Samantha McMillen, and Andy Milner (collectively, the "Witnesses"). In addition, he failed to identify Leonard Damian and Andy Milner in his responses to Ms. Heard's interrogatory requesting that he identify all persons with knowledge or information about any of the claims or defenses in this case. Mr. Depp's failure to comply with his discovery obligations deprived Ms. Heard of a reasonable opportunity to serve subpoenas on the Witness. Accordingly, the Witnesses should be excluded from testifying at trial.

i. Procedural History

In 2019, Ms. Heard served her 1st set of interrogatories on Mr. Depp, which included as interrogatory number one the request that he:

Identify each person having any knowledge or information about any of the claims or defenses in this case, including but not limited to Your (a) substance abuse, (b) damage of property, (c) acts of abuse, (d) abuse in any form of any Romantic Partner, and (e) relationship with Ms. Heard. The answer to this Interrogatory should include contact information, to the extent known, for the following: Alejandro Romero, Ben King, Bobby de Leon, Brandon Patterson, Bruce Witkin, Christi Dembrowski, C.J. Roberts, Dr. Connell Cowan, Cornelius Harrell, Dr. David Kipper, Debbie Lloyd, Erin Boerum (Falati), Isaac Baruch, Joel Mandel, Kevin Murphy, Jerry Judge, Josh Drew, Keenan Wyatt, Laura Divenere, Lisa Beane, Malcolm Connolly, Melissa Saenz, Nathan Holmes, Samantha McMillan, Sam Sarkar, Sean Bett, Stephen Deuters, Tara Roberts, Todd Norman, Trinity Esparza, Trudy Salven, Tyler Hadden.

(“witness identification interrogatory”). After Mr. Depp failed to provide a complete response to the interrogatory, this Court granted Ms. Heard’s motion to compel and ordered Mr. Depp to:

Fully supplement his Answer to Interrogatory No. 1 in Defendant’s First Set of Interrogatories to Plaintiff for all persons with knowledge of any information relating to claims and defenses, including but not limited to all known addresses, email addresses and telephone numbers for all individuals identified, to the extent Plaintiff has that information within his possession, custody, or control.

Att. 24 (“August 10, 2020 Order”). Despite this Order, Mr. Depp failed to supplement his response with adequate contact information for the Witnesses. As relevant here, Mr. Depp served his third supplemental response to the witness identification interrogatory on February 22, 2021.⁵

Att. 27. Thereafter, Ms. Heard made several, unsuccessful attempts serve the Witnesses at the addresses provided in this response. Att. 31.

On March 11, 2022, the day discovery closed, Mr. Depp supplemented his response to the witness identification interrogatory with additional contact information for Keenan Wyatt.

Att. 32, No. 87. This untimely response deprived Ms. Heard of a reasonable opportunity to serve Mr. Wyatt, and effectively prevented her from deposing him. Mr. Depp has not offered any justification for waiting until the last day of discovery to supplement his answer to the witness identification interrogatory. Such gamesmanship warrants sanctions, and consequently, Mr. Wyatt and the other Witnesses should be excluded from testifying at trial.

⁵ The initial response and 2d supplemental response to Ms. Heard’s 1st set of interrogatories provided less contact information for the Witnesses than the 3d supplemental response. The 1st supplemental response did not address the witness identification interrogatory. Therefore, the 3d supplemental response is the operative response for the purposes of this motion.

ii. Legal Standard

Pursuant to Rule 4:12, the Court has broad discretion to sanction Mr. Depp for failing to comply with discovery obligations and court orders. See, e.g., Nolte v. MT Tech. Enterprises, LLC, 284 Va. 80, 94 (2012) (“[T]rial court did not abuse its discretion in imposing this sanction [default judgment] in response to the sanctioned parties’ failures to comply with discovery obligations under the Rules and pursuant to express orders of the court.”); see also Hoffman v. Tonnemacher, 2006 WL 3457201, at *5 (E.D. Cal. Nov. 30, 2006) (excluding testimony of witness because defendant failed to provide witness’ contact information, which prevented plaintiff from deposing witness prior to trial); Ebersole v. Kline-Perry, 2012 WL 2673150, at *4 (E.D. Va. July 5, 2012) (excluding defendant’s witness from testifying where defendant disclosed witness one day before discovery deadline, which deprived plaintiff of the opportunity to depose the witness). As discussed below, Mr. Depp’s failure to provide adequate contact information should be sanctioned and the Witnesses should be barred from testifying at trial.

iii. Gina Deuters

In Mr. Depp’s 3d supplemental response to the witness identification interrogatory, he directed Ms. Heard to contact Ms. Deuters “through Plaintiff’s counsel.” Att. 27, No. 79. In accordance with these instructions, on November 30, 2021, Ms. Heard served subpoenas on Mr. Depp’s counsel seeking the production of documents from Ms. Deuters and to depose her on January 27, 2022. Att. 34. Mr. Depp’s counsel responded that he was not authorized to accept service on behalf of Ms. Deuters, and that she was a resident of the United Kingdom. Id. Ms. Heard’s counsel then reminded counsel that Mr. Depp had specifically directed Ms. Heard to contact Ms. Deuters through his counsel. Id. Mr. Depp’s counsel agreed that he was a “means of contact” for Ms. Deuters, id., thereby demonstrating that he was in possession of her contact information. Yet Mr. Depp did not supplement his answer to the witness identification interrogatory with Ms. Deuters' address, email address, or telephone number as required by this Court's August 10, 2020 Order.

About week before Ms. Deuters' scheduled deposition, Ms. Heard's counsel asked Mr. Depp's counsel to confirm the deposition would go forward. Att. 78. In response, Mr. Depp's counsel asserted that because Ms. Deuters was a resident of the United Kingdom, she was "not subject to subpoena power or jurisdiction in Virginia" and would not appear for her deposition. Id. Ms. Heard's counsel again explained that the contact information for Ms. Deuters in Mr. Depp's interrogatory responses stated she must be "contact[ed] through Plaintiff's counsel." Id. Ms. Heard's counsel further explained that in reliance on this response, Ms. Heard served subpoenas on Mr. Depp's counsel and therefore intended to proceed with the deposition noticed for January 27, 2022. Id. Mr. Depp's counsel then reiterated various untimely objections to the subpoenas for Ms. Deuters. Id. In addition, he offered to "see if we are able to obtain" certain information including Ms. Deuters' "address," even though the August 10, 2020 Order required Mr. Depp to provide contact information that included her address. Id. (emphasis added).

On March 8, 2022, three days before the close of discovery, Mr. Depp's counsel informed Ms. Heard's counsel that he had "been in contact" with Ms. Deuters "for several weeks to see if she will agree to appear voluntarily for a deposition." Att. 74 (emphasis added). Although Mr. Depp had Ms. Deuters' contact information for at least several weeks prior to March 8, 2022, he never supplemented his response to the witness identification interrogatory with her contact information. Instead, he notified Ms. Heard that Ms. Deuters was available for a deposition the week after discovery closed. Id. With less than one week of notice regarding Ms. Deuters' availability and numerous trial deadlines the week she was available, Ms. Heard had no reasonable opportunity to depose her. Mr. Depp clearly possessed Ms. Deuters' contact information and flouted his obligation fully answer the witness identification interrogatory. This conduct warrants sanctions and Ms. Deuters should be excluded from testifying at trial.

iv. Leonard Damian and Travis McGivern

Mr. Depp both failed to identify Leonard Damian as witness and to provide his contact information. Mr. Damian does not appear in Mr. Depp's initial response to the witness identification interrogatory or in any of his supplemental responses. Similarly, Mr. Depp provided inadequate contact information for Travis McGivern, listing only his address on the 3d and 4th supplemental responses to the witness identification interrogatory. Atts. 27, 31, No. 51. Both Mr. Damian and Mr. McGivern are part of Mr. Depp's security detail. As his employees, Mr. Depp surely possesses Mr. Damian's contact information and Mr. McGivern's email or phone number.

Notwithstanding Mr. Depp's failure to provide adequate contact information, Ms. Heard attempted to serve Mr. Damian and Mr. McGivern with subpoenas on several occasions. Att. 31.

On March 7, 2022, four days before the close of discovery, Mr. Depp's counsel informed Ms. Heard's counsel by email that "we were able to get in touch Leonard Damian and Travis McGivern directly," and that they were available for depositions two days later. Att. 79. Mr. Depp's counsel also provided Mr. Damian and Mr. McGivern's email addresses for the first time. This correspondence demonstrates that Mr. Depp possesses Mr. Damian and Mr. McGivern's contact information, including their email addresses. Yet even in Mr. Depp's untimely 4th supplemental response to the witness identification interrogatory dated March 11, 2022, he did not list Mr. Damian and Mr. McGivern's email addresses or other contact information. Att. 32, No. 51. Ms. Heard had no meaningful opportunity to serve Mr. Damian and

Mr. McGivern because of Mr. Depp's failure to provide adequate contact information.

Accordingly, they should be precluded from testifying at trial.

v. Keenan Wyatt

Although Keenan Wyatt is one of Mr. Depp's closest friends, he claimed in his initial and 2d supplemental response to the witness identification interrogatory that his contact information was "unknown." In his 3d supplemental response, Mr. Depp listed only a phone number and email address for Mr. Wyatt. On the last day of discovery, Mr. Depp filed his 4th supplemental response, which provided—for the first time—Mr. Wyatt's address. Atts. 27, 31, No. 87.

Ms. Heard was not able to serve Mr. Wyatt because she did not have his address before the close of discovery, and his testimony should therefore be excluded.

vi. Kevin Murphy

Ms. Heard attempted to serve subpoenas on Kevin Murphy using the address Mr. Depp provided in his responses to the witness identification interrogatory. Atts. 31-32. Despite multiple attempts, Ms. Heard was unable to serve him. Given that Mr. Murphy is one of Mr. Depp's employees, his failure to provide adequate contact information for Mr. Murphy is inexcusable and he should be excluded from testifying at trial.

vii. Samantha McMillen

Mr. Depp provided Samantha McMillen's phone number and two email address in his responses to the witness identification interrogatory. Atts. 27, 31, No. 49. Ms. Heard's counsel called the phone number approximately five times between January 7, 2022 and February 10, 2022. The first time she called, Ms. McMillen answered and stated she had to go because she was at work. After that call, Ms. Heard's counsel left Ms. McMillen several voicemails, but she did not return her calls. Ms. Heard's counsel also attempted to reach Ms. McMillen by emailing her at saintsandcharms@me.com on January 28, 20022, and Samantha@samanthamcmillen.com on January 31, 2022, February 10, 2022, and February 18, 2022. Because the contact information Mr. Depp provided for Ms. McMillen was inadequate, she should be excluded from testifying at trial.

viii. Andy Milner

The name Andy Milner does not appear on any of Mr. Depp's responses to the witness identification interrogatory. Mr. Depp's 3d supplemental response and untimely 4th supplemental response lists a person with the first name "Andy," but no last name is provided. Atts. 27, 31, No. 85. As stated in this Court's August 11, 2020 Order, Mr. Depp was required to identify all persons with knowledge of any information relating to claims and defenses. Mr. Depp did not identify Andy Milner or provide any contact information for him. As a result, Mr. Milner should be excluded from testifying at trial.

b. Mr. Depp Improperly Identified Witnesses to Testify By Multiple Means at Trial in Violation of the Audio-Visual Consent Order

Mr. Depp's Witness List improperly double-designated certain witnesses to appear "by in person testimony, but reserving the right to call by video link," and in other places has served both deposition designations and included such witnesses to testify at trial either in person or by video link.

First, Mr. Depp has identified Malcolm Connelly as testifying "by in-person testimony, but reserving the right to call by video link." Att. 45, at 1. Similarly, Mr. Depp has identified Sam Sarkar by "reserving the right to call in person, otherwise by video link." Id., at 2. Mr. Depp's improper double-designations of Sam Sarkar and Malcolm Connelly violate the negotiated Audio-Visual Consent Order, which requires that "the Parties shall disclose specifically on their Witness List filed with the Court on or before March 14, 2021 any witness who will testify remotely by audiovisual means at trial.” Att. 46, at 2. One of the purposes for this language is for both parties, as well as the Court, to plan for the testimony and facilitating the exhibits that will be needed remotely. A “maybe” defeats the very purpose of this language in the Order. Mr. Depp has therefore given Ms. Heard no notice whether Sam Sarkar and Malcolm Connelly will testify remotely by audiovisual means or in-person, defeating the entire purpose of the Audio-Visual Consent Order. Because of Mr. Depp’s violations of the Audio-Visual Consent Order, Sam Sarkar and Malcolm Connelly should not be permitted to testify by audio-visual, but instead should only be permitted to testify in person at trial.

Second, Mr. Depp has also double-designated the following witnesses by “reserving the right to call by video link, otherwise by deposition testimony”: Dr. David Kipper; Isaac Baruch; Christian Carino; Jack Whigham; Adam Waldman; and Kate James. Att. 45, at 2-3. But the Court’s Scheduling Order states that “[i]t is the obligation of the proponent of any deposition of any non-party witness who will not appear at trial to advise opposing counsel of record of counsel’s intent to use all or a portion of the deposition at trial at the earliest reasonable opportunity.” Att. 47, at 3. Therefore, Dr. David Kipper, Isaac Baruch, Christian Carino, Jack Whigham, Adam Waldman, and Kate James should not be permitted to testify by remote video link at trial, only through their deposition designations.

12. Dr. Curry’s Medical Exam of Ms. Heard Should Not Be Referred to as an IME or Independent Medical Examination or as Administered Pursuant to Court Order

On October 8, 2021, pursuant to Rule 4:10 of the Rules of the Virginia Supreme Court, the Court ordered Ms. Heard to be examined by Mr. Depp’s designated expert, Dr. Shannon Curry, because Ms. Heard had been evaluated by Dr. Dawn Hughes, Ms. Heard’s expert. As noted in § 10(e) above, Dr. Curry repeatedly referred to her examination as an “independent examination” and “Court-Ordered IME,” and words to that effect. Ms. Heard requests that any references at trial to Dr. Curry’s examination of Ms. Heard be called a medical examination of Ms. Heard, or a Rule 4:10 examination, and not an “independent medical examination,” an “IME,” or “Court-ordered.” Use of the term “independent” or “Court-ordered” suggests that Dr. Curry is Court appointed or otherwise not connected with the parties. This would suggest the jury should give greater weight to the opinions of Dr. Curry and risks the jury believing Dr. Curry is an independent expert, when she was in fact hired by Mr. Depp. Indeed, Dr. Curry’s non-independence is clear, as even before she met with Ms. Heard, Dr. Curry already concluded that “Ms. Heard exhibits patterns of behavior that suggest her allegations of abuse against Mr. Depp are false.” Att. 48, 2/21/21 Depp Designation at 14. This is even more important, since Dr. Curry’s limited experience primarily includes testifying at the request of the Court on Mental Status Orders and fitness for duty. The jury can easily be confused and think this is similar in nature and has been requested by the Court and Dr. Curry is acting at the Court’s request.

Although the Court denied this same request on October 8 because of the mistaken belief that Rule 4:10 refers to the examination as “independent,” Rule 4:10 does not define a Court ordered evaluation as an “independent medical examination” or an “IME.” The use of the term “independent” is nowhere in the Rule. Rather, the Rule simply labels such examinations as “Mental Examination[s].” Therefore, based on the Rule, there is no basis to call Dr. Curry’s examination an “independent medical examination” or an “IME” or “Court-ordered.”

In addition to the Courts in this jurisdiction, as well as across the Commonwealth, Courts around the country have granted such motions, understanding the prejudice that could be caused by the use of the term “independent” when the examination was not independent. See e.g., Fair v. Allen, 2011 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 27390, at *6-*7 (W.D. La. Mar. 3, 2011) (preventing the defendants “from making any reference or remark that the examination, report or work performed by Dr. Robert Holladay in this case constitutes an ‘Independent Medical Examination’ as... the defense’s orthopedic expert does not appear to be ‘independent,’ just a retained medical expert.”); Powell v. Jacksonville Transp. Group, 2014 Fla. Cir. LEXIS 1678, at *2 (Fla. Cir. Jan. 12, 2014) (“Dr. Northrup’s examination may not be referred to as an ‘Independent Medical Examination’ and nothing in his report should describe the report as an independent medical exam nor he as an independent medical examiner”); Beauchamp v. State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins. Co., 2009 Mich. Cir. LEXIS 874, at *3 (Mich. Cir. Nov. 9, 2009) (“Dr. Mann’s examination may only be referred to as a ‘medical examination’ at the time of trial and may not be referred to as an ‘independent medical examination.’”).

Ms. Heard simply requests that Dr. Curry’s examination be referred to the same as Dr. Hughes’s examination – a medical examination – the same term used by Rule 4:10.

13. The Jury Should be Instructed to Ignore Any Redactions in Medical and Mental Health Records and Not Give the Redactions any Significance or Speculate as to What has Been Deleted

On August 10, 2020, this Court ordered a HIPAA release pertaining to protected health information from medical professional for Ms. Heard that was to be limited to “Ms. Heard’s medical and psychological treatment stemming from any alleged abuse by Mr. Depp.” Att. 49, 8/10/20 Order. That Order was affirmed again on January 7, 2022, when the Court held that the “scope will be limited as we have stated previously in...the order. So that just has to be limited to ...the same scope as the previous order.” Att. 50, 1/7/22 Tr. at 22. Mr. Depp then moved again to expand the scope of the HIPAA release, which this Court denied on March 11, 2022. In considering certain medical records that were redacted based on the HIPAA release, the Court held that “the HIPAA releases are the same for everybody. And if the attorneys took that and did what they did to redact it... I have ... to go with those redactions.” Att. 51, 3/11/22 Tr. at 63.

Ms. Heard requests that, based on the Court’s previous three Orders, Mr. Depp be prevented from raising at trial, questioning, or suggesting there is anything important or relevant in the redacted material, or referring to the redactions in any way, or suggesting they are improper or what the content may be. During her deposition, Dr. Curry dismissed mental health records that had been redacted because of the redactions, suggesting that this invalidated the mental health and medical records. Dr. Curry referred to the records as “heavily redacted records.” This is precisely the type of testimony we are seeking to exclude – trying to dismiss the legitimacy of the medical records that were limited – ON BOTH SIDES – suggesting that the redactions include significant and relevant material, without any basis whatsoever, and after the Court has ruled on the reasonableness of the limitations, three times. The Court’s Orders determined the scope of what is relevant in Ms. Heard’s medical records, and it would be highly and unfairly prejudicial for there to be any inference, suggestion, eliciting of testimony, actual testimony, questioning the witness, or presenting any reference to or argument to the jury that the redacted material is somehow relevant, or that Ms. Heard is hiding anything in the redactions. As is customary in any trial, the jury should be instructed to only consider the evidence before it, that the Court has already made rulings on these documents, and that redactions in any of the documents should not be considered and should be given no weight.

14. Mr. Depp’s Trial Exhibits Containing Partial Audio Recordings Created by Counsel Should be Excluded

Mr. Depp has included the partial audio recordings produced as DEPP9046 (Att. 52) and DEPP9047 (Att. 53) in his trial exhibits as Exhibit Nos. 378 and 379. These are also two of the partial audio recordings leaked to the Daily Mail (Att. 54) by Mr. Depp's counsel Mr. Waldman (Att. 55). This also explains why the metadata for DEPP9047 identifies that the audio content was created in September 2015," but was then "somehow modified in June 2016." Att. 56, ¶ 12.

Therefore, Mr. Depp's Trial Exhibits 378-79 should be excluded as incomplete documents, on grounds of hearsay, and because their probative value as only partial recordings is substantially outweighed by the danger of unfair prejudice and the likelihood of confusing or misleading the jury. Mr. Depp has also included the full versions of these audio recordings as his Trial Exhibit 392 (Att. 58), so there is no prejudice whatsoever to Mr. Depp in excluding Exhibit Nos. 378 and 379 for these reasons, nor is there any loss to whatever probative value for which Mr. Depp seeks to introduce this audio evidence in the first place. Of course, Mr. Depp's Trial Exhibit 392 must also otherwise satisfy the Rules of Evidence to be appropriately admissible.

For these reasons, Mr. Depp's Trial Exhibits 378-79 should be excluded.

15. Counsel Should be Precluded from Referencing or Characterizing Pleadings, Motions Practice, Discovery Matters and Rulings, or Deposition Issues, Disputes, or Conduct in the Presence of the Jury

Counsel for both parties should be precluded from referencing the Court's rulings or the parties' respective allegations against each-other during the responsive pleadings, motions, or discovery processes of this litigation. More specifically, the parties should be precluded from referencing or characterizing the following discovery-based allegations, matters, or Court rulings:

- The attempted introduction into evidence of either party's pleadings or responsive pleadings, including Mr. Depp's Complaint, Ms. Heard's Answer, Ms. Heard's Counterclaim, or Mr. Depp's Answer;

- Allegations of unilateral scheduling of depositions, inappropriate or lengthy breaks during depositions, ending depositions at certain times or early, and deposition disputes between counsel respecting conduct and legal positions taken;
- References to or characterizations of the timing of either party's discovery production or deposition testimony, including prohibiting Counsel's statements and questions such as "for the first time disclosed ____ in deposition" or "for the first time disclosed ____ in a certain written discovery response";
- References to or characterizations of the Court's rulings on discovery motions
- References to or characterizations of any discovery sanctions sought or granted against either party;
- References to or characterizations of the Court's discovery rulings in the case;
- References to either party's responsive pleading motions to dismiss, oppositions, replies, or the Court's rulings/bases for rulings on either Mr. Depp's Complaint or Ms. Heard's Counterclaim (including any comments by Mr. Depp's Counsel such as "Ms. Heard has attempted to dismiss this case ____ times, etc.);
- References to or characterizations of negotiations, including settlement negotiations, or meet and confers during discovery;
- References to or characterizations of communications with or statements from any Conciliators in the case;
- References to or characterizations of a party not producing responsive documents, unless within the Rules of Evidence respecting appropriate impeachment as to any specific document or discovery Request.

All these matters are not "evidence" that could even be admitted in the case, are not relevant, and their probative value (none) is substantially outweighed by the danger of unfair prejudice and the likelihood of confusing or misleading the jury that their deliberations are based on discovery disputes or motions practice between the parties and not upon the evidence and legal instructions at trial. See Sjostrand v. Ohio State Univ., 2014 WL 4417767, at *8 (S.D. Ohio 2014) (granting motion in limine to bar references to pretrial briefing and change of counsel because "the procedural history of this case is not relevant to the issues to be decided"); Many of these matters are also hearsay, and would further lack foundation at trial. Moreover, it is inappropriate for counsel to “testify” at trial.

16. Evidence Regarding Paul Berese and any Investigation Should be Excluded

Consistent with references to counsel and earlier discovery, proceedings and the like, Mr. Depp’s counsel has raised in depositions the allegation that Ms. Heard hired an adult Film Star as a private investigator in this case. Att. 26, at 216:9-218:8, 251:21-252:16, 283:14-285. This person is not testifying and has had nothing to do with any of the discovery in this case. Moreover, whether a private investigator hired by earlier counsel was previously an adult Firm star, even if true – which has never been demonstrated by Mr. Depp through any evidence - is clearly not relevant, is significantly more unfairly prejudicial to Ms. Heard than probative to any relevant issue in the case and should be excluded.

17. Any References of a “Pretend Punch” by an Unknown Person on An Alleged Video Which Does Not Exist Should be Excluded

Mr. Depp should be precluded from introducing testimony of an alleged “pretend punch” of Ms. Heard by an unknown person (not Mr. Depp or Amber Heard) that nobody personally saw, except by an alleged video that does not exist. Such testimony is: (a) wholly irrelevant; (b) inadmissible hearsay within hearsay; (c) likely to confuse and mislead the jury; and (d) unreliable and unfairly prejudicial. Mr. Depp inappropriately seeks to introduce testimony of a video that does not exist – Mr. Depp’s counsel admitted to the UK Court that the video does not exist; cannot be authenticated; involves an alleged “pretend punch” by a third party (not Mr. Depp or Amber Heard); is not probative as to any material fact; constitutes hearsay within hearsay; would confuse, distract, and mislead the jury; and would be unfairly prejudicial. A pretrial ruling is necessary to prevent unfair prejudice.

a. The Alleged Video Does Not Exist

The alleged video, supposedly from surveillance cameras at the Eastern Columbia Building that some of the employees have attempted to interject into their testimony, has never been produced in discovery because it does not exist. Mr. Depp's counsel in the United Kingdom case, Depp v. News Group Newspapers Ltd et al., admitted that Mr. Depp's team does not have the video. Att. 75, U.K. Trial Tr. at 2189:13-20 ("No, that we do not have"). Similarly, the corporate designee for Action Property Management, Brandon Patterson, the custodian of records for the surveillance videos at the Eastern Columbia Building, testified as follows:

Q: So to the extent that footage has not been produced, is it fair to say that the footage no longer exists, or do you have another explanation?

A. Can you expand on that, please?

Q: ... my understanding is you testified there was 87 clips that have been preserved; is that right?

A. Yes.

Q. And that the date and timestamps are reasonably accurate, to your knowledge, on those?

A. Yes, to my knowledge.

Q. And to the extent there are any missing days or time, is it fair to say that the footage no longer exists, or is there any other footage that could be produced?

A. Outside the videos that were requested, that's correct, no – everything else would have been written over at this point.

Q. So there's no other videos other than those that have been produced, to your knowledge?

A. Yes, correct.

Att. 76, Patterson Corporate Designee Tr., at 130-132.

Q. And this footage was never found; is that correct – to your knowledge?

A. The footage was never requested.

Q. By whom?

A. Any of the attorneys.

Q. So the footage – is it your testimony that this exists, this footage exists or not?

* * *

A. It was no longer exists.

Q. And it would no longer exist, and it was never produced as one of the 87 clips – is that right?

A. That is correct.

Q. And I believe you testified earlier that attorneys for both sides selected times and looked through video and made selections of what to preserve; is that—was that your testimony?

A. Yeah, that’s correct.

Q. But nobody selected that footage to your knowledge?

A. Not to my knowledge, no.

Q. And it was never produced?

A. Not to my knowledge, no.

Id., at 225-228.

There is no dispute that the alleged pretend punch video does not exist, has never been authenticated, and that the jury would never be able to see it. A jury, therefore, could never render its own fact finding respecting what actually happened (or did not happen) in the alleged video. As a consequence, testimony on the alleged video is likely to be misleading, confusing, subjective, unreliable, and unfairly prejudicial. It is also inadmissible for the reasons described below.

b. Plaintiff Should Not Be Allowed to Introduce Testimony Respecting a Nonexistent “Pretend Punch” Video Because it Involves a Nonparty and Is Not Probative of Any Material Fact, Including Whether Mr. Depp Ever Assaulted Amber Heard

Even if the alleged pretend-punch video existed (which it does not), testimony about such would be wholly irrelevant. A “pretend punch” by an unknown person (not Mr. Depp or Amber Heard) has no tendency to make any material fact more or less probable. A pretend punch by a third party has no bearing on Mr. Depp’s relationship with Amber Heard or the domestic abuse therein. Whether or not a non-party female air-punched Ms. Heard has no bearing on whether Mr. Depp actually hit or committed other domestic abuse toward Ms. Heard.

c. Testimony about the Nonexistent
Pretend-Punch Video Is Inadmissible Hearsay Within Hearsay

The nonexistent video of an alleged “pretend punch” is hearsay, and testimony about what happened in the video is hearsay within hearsay. Any attempt to offer testimony of what allegedly happened in this video would violate Virginia law because there are no applicable hearsay exceptions for both levels (or either level) of hearsay. Va. Sup. Ct. R. 2:802; Va. Sup. Ct. R. 2:805; Warnick v. Commonwealth, 72 Va. App. 251, 270, 844 S.E.2d 414, 424 (2020) (“When there are multiple levels of hearsay, each level must be justified by an exception in order to be admissible”).

Because the video does not exist and has never been produced, testimony on the alleged video cannot be cross-examined and should be excluded as prejudicial hearsay.

d. Plaintiffs Should Not Be Allowed to Introduce Evidence of the Nonexistent “Pretend Punch” Video Because Any Probative Value Is Substantially Outweighed by the Danger of Unfair Prejudice or the Likelihood of Confusing or Misleading the Jury

In addition to being wholly irrelevant, evidence of the alleged pretend punch video should be excluded because any probative value is substantially outweighed by (1) the danger of unfair prejudice and/or (2) the likelihood of confusing or misleading the jury. See V. R. S. Ct. 2:403 (relevant evidence may be excluded if (a) the probative value of the evidence is substantially outweighed by (i) the danger of unfair prejudice, or (ii) its likelihood of confusing or misleading the trier of fact).

Here, testimony on the nonexistent alleged pretend-punch video is unfairly prejudicial and is very likely to confuse or mislead the jury. Testimony about the missing video will distract the jury from the critical domestic abuse issues; minimize the importance and severity of actual domestic abuse; excite potentially irrational emotions; entice gossip and speculation on irrelevant matters; and lead to unfair inferences, harassment, bias, and prejudice toward Amber Heard. For example, even if the alleged video existed (which it does not) there can be no fair inferences that would shed light on whether Mr. Depp assaulted Amber Heard. Rather, such evidence of a pretend punch by a non-party female would improperly distract and mislead the jury and likely cause unfair prejudice. It should be excluded. See, e.g. PTS Corp. v. Buckman, 263 Va. 613, 620, 561 S.E.2d 718, 722 (2002) (“Evidence of collateral facts, from which no fair inferences can be drawn tending to throw light upon the particular facts under investigation, is properly excluded for the reason that such evidence tends to draw the minds of the jury away from the point in issue, to excite prejudice and mislead them”).

e. Conclusion

For these reasons, Amber Heard moves the Court in limine for an Order striking testimony relating to a nonexistent video of an alleged pretend punch by a non-party female. Such testimony is irrelevant, inadmissible hearsay within hearsay, and likely would confuse and mislead the jury and unfairly prejudice Amber Heard.

18. Use of Declarations, U.K. Witness Statements or Prior Testimony
Should be Excluded Unless Properly Used as Impeachment Evidence or Were Not Objected to in Depositions as Part of Deposition Designations

Ms. Heard requests the Court limit the use of any witness declarations, witness statements from the UK (which are sworn testimony proffered in lieu of direct examination), or prior testimony from the UK or depositions in other cases to only permissible uses under Virginia’s Rules of Evidence. Throughout discovery in this case, Mr. Depp’s counsel has introduced various forms of prior sworn testimony in manners that would be inappropriate at trial. These tactics include, but are not limited to: (1) asking friendly witnesses if they adopt their prior witness statements made in the UK; (2) asking witnesses about declarations Depp’s counsel Adam Waldman allegedly obtained from them,⁶ and (3) attempting to elicit testimony from witnesses by asking question such as “didn’t you testify in the UK that....?” without the witnesses indicating a need to have their recollection refreshed or having given impeachable testimony. All these uses are improper.

Rule 2.801(d) of the Rules of the Supreme Court of Virginia provides that a prior statement (whether under oath or not) is hearsay unless it falls within a hearsay exception, is a prior inconsistent statement admitted for impeachment, or is a prior consistent statement admitted to rehabilitate the witness’s credibility only in certain circumstances. Rules 2.803 and 2.804 list the applicable hearsay exceptions. Simply introducing a declaration into evidence, or attempting to elicit testimony in this case by asking a witness to adopt her UK witness statements or reminding them of their UK testimony in the manner discussed above, is wholly inappropriate. The Court should preclude the use of prior statements in manners that are inconsistent with Virginia’s evidentiary rules or guiding statutes. See Versatile v. Johnson, 2011 WL 1167440, *2 (E.D. Va. 2011) (barring use of affidavits at trial as inadmissible hearsay).

19. The Testimony and Prior Statements and Declarations of Jennifer Howell Should be Excluded in their Entirety

Plaintiff listed Jennifer Howell as a person with knowledge of the claims and defenses in this case in response to Defendant’s First Set of Interrogatories; but after deposing Ms. Howell it became clear that she had and has no direct knowledge of any claims or defenses in this case, and her testimony is completely based on hearsay and hearsay within hearsay and is irrelevant or more unfairly prejudicial than probative. Ms. Howell's testimony does not satisfy any exception to the hearsay rule under Rule 2:803 and should therefore be excluded from evidence pursuant to Rules 2:802 and 2:805.

Plaintiff has designated portions of Ms. Howell's testimony where she described Whitney Henriquez, Ms. Heard's sister, speaking on the phone in another room with an unknown person and Ms. Henriquez then telling her that the person had said Amber had cut off Plaintiff's finger. Att. 59, Howell Tr. Day 1 163:17-164:12; Att. 60, Day 2 271:21-274:17. These allegations based on hearsay are also described in Ms. Howell's Declaration submitted in this case and her Witness Statement submitted in the UK litigation, whereas Plaintiff has pointed out different evidentiary rules applied. This game of telephone also constitutes hearsay within hearsay under Rule 2:805 as there are no exceptions to either the alleged statements from the unknown caller or Ms. Henriquez' statements. This testimony should therefore be excluded.

Plaintiff has designated another portion of Ms. Howell's testimony where she describes an incident involving Amber throwing a glass of wine at her sister Whitney. Att. 59, 168:13-169:18; Att. 61, Howell Declaration ¶ 15; Att. 62, Howell Witness Statement. Ms. Howell also testified that Ms. Henriquez told her that Amber beat her throughout "her whole life." Att. 59, 172:17-175:4. This account is again solely based on an alleged conversation she had with Ms. Henriquez and is once again based on pure hearsay. Ms. Howell never witnessed any abuse by Ms. Heard against anyone. In addition, evidence of Ms. Heard's alleged abuse of her sister is completely irrelevant to whether Ms. Heard suffered abuse by Mr. Depp, and by any means more prejudicial than probative and should be excluded pursuant to Rules 2:402 and 2:403. Ms. Howell's Statement, Declaration, and Testimony also tells a tale of how Defendant had pushed Ms. Henriquez down the stairs when she was trying to stop Ms. Heard from “attacking Johnny.” Att. 59, 180:12-181:7. Again, her knowledge of this incident is based solely on an alleged conversation with Ms. Henriquez. It is hearsay without exception. Ms. Henriquez’ alleged attempts to contact her about the UK litigation are likewise hearsay, and completely irrelevant to this litigation.

Ms. Howell also testified respecting statements Paige Heard, Ms. Heard’s mother, now deceased, allegedly made to her about Plaintiff and Defendant’s relationship, and Defendant’s relationship with Elon Musk. Once again these statements in her deposition, Declaration and Witness Statement are hearsay and do not fall under the exceptions of Rule 2:804 (Hearsay Exceptions Applicable Where the Declarant is unavailable). The statements, for example, that Mr. Musk had gifted Ms. Heard “a Tesla or multiple Teslas,” and that “she had found out that they were ‘bugged,’ in addition to alleged statements about a battle between Mr. Musk and Ms. Heard over embryos.⁷ These would make salacious headlines, but are completely irrelevant to this case and based on the alleged statements of a woman who is no longer living. This testimony and evidence from Ms. Howell should likewise be excluded pursuant to Rules 2:402, 2:403, 2:802, and 2:804, along with excluding any other evidence, testimony, references, or claims about these same subjects from any other witness, custodian, or source for the same reasons.

⁷ Ms. Howell has testified “And that is whenever her mom just kind of started talking about stuff that, at the point in time, and I still stand by it, like, it seemed kind of a little outrageous and crazy to me. She started talking about some legal battle over embryos between Amber and Mr. Elon Musk, and how they had created -- I believe it was six boy embryos and two girl embryos, and that he had gifted a Tesla or Teslas to Amber and family and had them bugged.” These are clearly not relevant and significantly and unfairly prejudicial.

Ms. Howell's additional testimony is irrelevant and purely prejudicial. Testimony that she never saw Mr. Depp appear intoxicated or that she saw Ms. Heard intoxicated is also irrelevant and certainly far more prejudicial than probative. Att. 60, 247:8-19; 251:18-252:18. For the foregoing reasons Ms. Howell's testimony should be excluded in its entirety. At a minimum, the following should be excluded: (1) Ms. Howell's UK Trial Witness Statement (2) Ms. Howell's Declaration, (3) all references to Ms. Howell's conversations with Ms. Henriquez about Mr. Depp's injury to his finger, (4) all references to Ms. Howell's conversations with Ms. Henriquez about abuse by Ms. Heard against Ms. Henriquez, (5) all references to any statements or information that was heard by another person and therefore hearsay, and (6) all references to Ms. Howell's purported conversations with Paige Heard re Elon Musk or Mr. Depp, and the subject matters claims by Ms. Howell.

Ms. Howell's Declaration (Att. 61) in particular was never produced to Ms. Heard or filed with the Court, even though it contained the caption of this case, a common tactic of Mr. Waldman to add legitimacy to these sham Declarations obtained improperly via Mr. Waldman's campaign of harassment and intimidation of witnesses as demonstrated by his own communications with these witnesses. See supra, at 59, n. 6.

20. All Correspondence (Letters and Emails) re Any Warner Bros.
Stipulation or Declaration and their Contents Should be Excluded from Evidence

Correspondence between counsel respecting Ms. Heard's Aquaman damages among counsel should be excluded under Rule 2:408 as compromise offers during negotiations. Rule 2:408 provides:

(a) Prohibited Uses. Evidence of the following is not admissible on behalf of any party in a civil case - either to prove or disprove the validity or amount of a disputed claim, or to impeach by a prior inconsistent statement or by contradiction:

- (1) furnishing, promising, or offering - or accepting, promising to accept, or offering to accept - a valuable consideration in compromising or attempting to compromise the claim; and
- (2) conduct or any statements made during compromise negotiations about the claim.

These communications are also inadmissible as they are irrelevant (Rule 2:402) and hearsay (Rule 2:802).

Mr. Depp subpoenaed Warner Brothers Entertainment Inc. (“WBEI”) for a personal appearance and business records, and in response WBEI filed a Motion to Quash in the Superior Court of the State of California. Mr. Depp then filed an Opposition to the Motion to Quash and a Motion for Sanctions. Att. 77. In an attempt to avoid motions practice about the subpoenas and avoid being deposed, counsel for WBEI sent a letter requesting a meet and confer and proposed drafting a sworn declaration setting forth the following:

- a. Any delay in WBEI picking up Heard’s option for Aquaman 2 was due to creative issues in casting Heard in the role of Mera for Aquaman 2, which were communicated to Heard’s agent at the time.
- b. Any delay in WBEI picking up Heard’s option for Aquaman 2 was not due to Heard’s dispute with Depp or any of the allegations in this lawsuit.
- c. WBEI would not have paid Heard more money on Aquaman 2, even if Heard had had more time to attempt to negotiate.

Att. 63.

Counsel for Ms. Heard was willing to attempt to negotiate with Warner Bros. and counsel for Mr. Depp and sent a proposed Stipulation concerning the matter of Ms. Heard’s Aquaman 2 damages—potentially foregoing her damages if Mr. Depp were willing to agree not to raise the matter at trial. See Att. 64. Counsel for Mr. Depp then provided a Declaration to the Superior Court suggesting the stipulation was a “take it or leave it,” when in fact, it was an initial draft, sent in word, in an effort to resolve the dispute. Att. 65. Ultimately the parties did not agree to a stipulation or a declaration respecting Ms. Heard’s Aquaman II damages. Atts. 66-67.

Counsel's communications respecting the stipulation and declaration were made during compromise negotiations and should be excluded under Rule 2:408. All drafts of the stipulation and declaration and communications and their contents respecting these attempted negotiations should be excluded pursuant to Rule 2:408 and Rule 2:802, and also on the basis of hearsay and foundation.

21. Mr. Depp Should be Precluded from Offering Testimony of Christian Carino's First Day of Deposition

Christian Carino was deposed by Amber Heard on January 19, 2021 and by Mr. Depp on March 11, 2022. Mr. Depp failed to designate the testimony of Christian Carino from his first day of deposition by the deadline set by this court: March 10, 2022. Instead, Mr. submitted designations from the first day with his designation of the second day on March 15, 2022. Att. 72. This created additional work for Amber Heard to counter-designate within a tight timeframe. More importantly, this violated the express Scheduling Order set by this Court. The parties agreed to these dates, and otherwise complied with these dates unless expressly jointly modified. The party not complying therefore creates hardship and prejudice to the other side, and there is no reason for the non-compliance. Therefore, Mr. Depp should be precluded from offering testimony from Christian Carino's first day of deposition.

22. Mr. Depp Should be Precluded from Introducing or Referencing Deposition Questions Eric George did not Answer based on Attorney Client Privilege Objections

Mr. George's deposition was taken in this case and is the subject of Deposition Designations. During the deposition, Mr. Depp's counsel asked a number of questions where the attorney client privilege was invoked. Mr. Depp disagreed and brought a motion to compel that testimony in the California Court having jurisdiction over Mr. George and this proceeding in California matters, but the California Court denied Mr. Depp's Motion to Compel further responses to those questions. Atts 73-74. Having been fully adjudicated, any attempts to claim in any manner at trial that Eric George refused to answer questions related to the attorney-client privilege should be excluded, as this has been fully adjudicated in the California courts, is not relevant to any fact issue before the jury, and would be significantly more prejudicial than probative.

23. Mr. Depp Should be Precluded from References to and Characterizations of Ms. Heard's Counsel or Prior Motions and Court Rulings in This Case

Throughout this litigation, Depp's counsel has repeatedly referred to the number of attorneys Ms. Heard has had, including referring to Ms. Bredehoft as Ms. Heard's "third lead counsel," referring to Ms. Heard's "serial lawyers" in the case and even referring to counsel Ms. Heard has used in other cases. Mr. Depp has also on many occasions launched personal attacks at counsel for Ms. Heard, including by name. Mr. Depp has also repeatedly referred to Ms. Heard's prior filings of dispositive or discovery motions suggesting unsuccessful efforts and incompetence. Depp's counsel has made these pejorative references to prior counsel, to changes of counsel, or to the procedural history in this case to contend that they show her case is weak.

Depp's team has even falsely stated that Ms. Heard's prior change of counsel took place because her then counsel no longer believed that she had been abused. See <https://theblast.com/c/johnny-depp-amber-heard-lawyer-drops-out-roberta-kaplan-times-up-withdraw-virginia-defamation-case/> (stating that "For years, #TimesUp and others inexplicably hitched their wagons to Amber Heard's abuse hoax. Ms. Heard's lawyers, one of whom co-founded the #TimesUp Legal Defense Fund, have now apparently unhitched from Ms. Heard's long-disproven frauds. We intend to discover why.").

Besides being false, any of these issues are wholly inappropriate to raise before the jury, are not relevant to whether Mr. Depp committed domestic abuse, and are unfairly prejudicial and are designed to confuse and mislead the jury in precisely the way represented to the press – that Ms. Heard’s counsel “abandoned her” because they did not believe her, and since Ms. Heard’s counsel have more information than the public, including privileged material, they must know something secret that the jury will not hear, and so they should assume Ms. Heard’s counsel know better. The reasons for changes in counsel can be numerous, including insurance coverage, and none of them are discoverable or should be referenced in the Court.

Ms. Heard requests that the Court preclude references to Ms. Heard’s changes of counsel, the number of counsel she has had, the outcomes of pretrial motions, any personal attacks on counsel, and anything directed personally at counsel for Ms. Heard. These references and information bear no relevance to the case and would only serve to prejudice Ms. Heard and confuse the jury. See Sjostrand v. Ohio State Univ., 2014 WL 4417767, at *8 (S.D. Ohio 2014) (granting motion in limine to bar references to pretrial briefing and change of counsel because “the procedural history of this case is not relevant to the issues to be decided”); Dodson v. Belk, Inc., 362 F. Supp. 3d 1283, 1288 (N.D. Ga. 2018) (granting motion in limine because non-movant “has not made any arguments as to why it should be able to solicit testimony or testify in any manner that Plaintiff had prior counsel”).

24. All References to the Legal Process Utilized by Ms. Heard to Obtain the California DV TRO Should be Excluded

Counsel for Mr. Depp has repeatedly referred to Ms. Heard obtaining an “Ex Parte” DV TRO in the divorce case, suggesting or implying that it should not have been ex parte, or that this was somehow a deviation from valid California legal process. However, Mr. Depp has not identified any expert witness to testify on the correct procedure for obtaining a DV TRO, nor whether obtaining an Ex Parte DV TRO was standard, a deviation, or some other process would have been preferable or appropriate. All references to or suggestions that Ms. Heard obtained an “Ex Parte” DV TRO, or that the process engaged in by Ms. Heard in obtaining the DV TRO was inappropriate or that she had some other legal alternative, or this was unnecessary, or testimony on the options available to Ms. Heard, should be excluded.

25. Mr. Depp Should be Limited to the Op-Ed in Asserting any Liability or Damages Against Ms. Heard Under the Complaint

Throughout this litigation, Mr. Depp has attempted to link his damages to conduct by Ms. Heard outside the Op-Ed, even though the sole basis for the defamation claims is the Op-Ed. Mr. Depp’s Expert Disclosures also attribute damages to alternative causes associated with Ms. Heard. Mr. Depp’s claims for defamation in this litigation all stem from one publication - Ms. Heard’s 2018 Op-Ed. Ms. Heard anticipates Mr. Depp will attempt to confuse the Jury into believing that they can hold Ms. Heard responsible for Mr. Depp’s damages for conduct outside the Op-Ed, including back at the time of the divorce. Mr. Depp should be precluded from claiming or arguing in any opening statement, questioning of witnesses, closing argument, or at any other point in the trial that any statement from Ms. Heard other than in the 2018 Op-Ed is sufficient to return a finding for Mr. Depp on liability, and further being precluded from claiming or arguing that any other statement besides the 2018 Op-Ed is sufficient for Mr. Depp to prove the causation element of his alleged damages on the defamation claim.

26. Evidence of Who is Paying Attorney’s Fees Should be Excluded and Any References to or Suggestions that Ms. Heard having “an army” or many Attorneys on the Case

Mr. Depp inappropriately seeks to introduce evidence that an insurance company (earlier it was alleged it was Elon Musk, or ACLU – depending upon the day) is paying Ms. Heard’s legal bills, whereas Mr. Depp is paying for his. Many times Mr. Depp, who brought this lawsuit, and the one in the UK, has suggested that Ms. Heard has an advantage over Mr. Depp because someone is paying for her fees, while poor Mr. Depp – who made $650 million while Ms. Jacobs was his agent – is solely responsible for his fees. Ms. Heard was in fact responsible for her fees and costs for a significant period of time before insurance kicked in, but that is completely irrelevant. Moreover, Mr. Depp consistently refers to Ms. Heard’s “army” of attorneys and suggestions there are many, many counsel compared to Mr. Depp’s, when in fact, frequently at depositions, hearings and meet and confers Mr. Depp has multiple attorneys present, they have offices in DC, California and New York, while Ms. Heard has to retain lawyers in these jurisdictions, and Mr. Depp has significantly more attorneys and staff working on this case than Ms. Heard’s counsel. Notwithstanding, this is all not relevant, completely inappropriate for the jury, such claims and implications likely would mislead the jury and would certainly substantially prejudice Amber Heard. Amber Heard therefore seeks to preclude Mr. Depp from introducing testimony respecting who is paying for each parties’ attorneys’ fees, and any references to the number of firms or lawyers each party has. Such testimony is: (a) wholly irrelevant; (b) likely to confuse and mislead the jury; and (d) is unfairly prejudicial to Amber Heard. A pretrial ruling is necessary to prevent unfair prejudice.

- a. Plaintiff Should Not Be Allowed to Introduce of Evidence of Who is Paying for Legal Fees Because Such Evidence Is Not Probative of Any Material Fact, Including Whether Mr. Depp Ever Assaulted Amber Heard

The identity of the payor of attorney’s fees is not relevant to any of the issues in this case. It does not tend to make any material fact more or less likely. Evidence of Amber Heard’s insurance coverage and the insurer’s payment of attorneys’ fees, therefore, should be excluded. See, e.g., McCloud v. Funaiock, No. 4:15-CV-5, 2016 WL 9175661, at *3 (E.D. Va. June 6, 2016) (the “Court cannot conceive how Defendant’s insurance coverage affects the issue, or how it would become relevant”).

b. Plaintiffs Should Not Be Allowed to Introduce Evidence Relating to Who Is Paying Each Side's Legal Bills Because Any Probative Value Is Substantially Outweighed by the Danger of Unfair Prejudice or the Likelihood of Confusing or Misleading the Jury

In addition to being wholly irrelevant, evidence of who is paying each sides legal fees should be excluded because any probative value is substantially outweighed by (1) the danger of unfair prejudice and/or (2) the likelihood of confusing or misleading the jury. See V. R. S. Ct. 2:403 (relevant evidence may be excluded if (a) the probative value of the evidence is substantially outweighed by (i) the danger of unfair prejudice, or (ii) its likelihood of confusing or misleading the trier of fact).

Here, evidence of who is paying attorneys' fees for each side is unfairly prejudicial and is very likely to confuse or mislead the jury. See, e.g., McCloud, 2016 WL 9175661, at *3 (E.D. Va. June 6, 2016) (granting motion in limine because reference to defendant's insurance coverage could prejudice the defendant or mislead the jury; the "jury should make its verdict based on the liability and damages facts, not based on knowledge of coverage"). Such evidence, therefore, should be excluded. See Goodman v. Norfolk S. Ry. Co., No. 1:16CV00002, 2017 WL 3113487, at *2 (W.D. Va. June 5, 2017) (granting motion in limine as to any reference to the existence of liability or other insurance); Edwards v. Whitlock, 57 Va. Cir. 337 (2002) (granting motion in limine to exclude evidence of insurance available to defendant); PTS Corp. v. Buckman, 263 Va. 613, 620, 561 S.E.2d 718, 722 (2002) ("Evidence of collateral facts, from which no fair inferences can be drawn tending to throw light upon the particular facts under investigation, is properly excluded for the reason that such evidence tends to draw the minds of the jury away from the point in issue, to excite prejudice and mislead them").

For these reasons, Amber Heard moves the Court in limine for an Order striking evidence of who is paying attorneys' fees for each side, and also, any references or characterizations of the number of counsel or resources of the legal teams. Such evidence is irrelevant and likely to confuse and mislead the jury and unfairly prejudice Amber Heard.

27. All Evidence of Settlement Communications or Documents Related to the Mediation Should be Excluded

All settlement communications between Ms. Heard and Mr. Depp (and their counsel) in this litigation should be excluded, along with documents and communications submitted in relation to mediations conducted related to this litigation. Virginia law explicitly excludes as inadmissible the following types of evidence, documents, and testimony: 1) Furnishing, promising, or offering — or accepting, promising to accept, or offering to accept — a valuable consideration in compromising or attempting to compromise the claim; and 2) Conduct or any statements made during compromise negotiations about the claim. Va. Sup. Ct. R. 2:408 (regardless of whether the party attempting to introduce such evidence intends to use it to “prove or disprove the validity or amount of a disputed claim or to impeach by a prior inconsistent statement or by contradiction”).

Therefore, any evidence, testimony, allegations, or references by counsel respecting these matters should be excluded.

CONCLUSION

For these reasons, Ms. Heard respectfully requests the Court grant the above Motions in limine.

DECISION

Any Rulings that may be included in this transcript, may be extracted and subject to revision by the Presiding Judge.

WARNING: The publication of information or details likely to lead to the identification of persons in some proceedings is a criminal offence. This is so particularly in relation to the identification of children who are involved in criminal proceedings or proceedings for their protection under the Child Protection Act 1999, and complainants in criminal sexual offences, but is not limited to those categories. You may wish to seek legal advice before giving others access to the details of any person named in these proceedings.

BENCH: Okay. Just before we start, I think how I dealt with the exhibits is probably not correct. So what I might do – Mr Kirk, do you wish to read and file the affidavit of Ms Heard, so that that - - -

MR KIRK: Yes.

BENCH: - - - can become a document of the court?

10 MR KIRK: I do, your Honour.

BENCH: That then would leave the USB sticker as exhibit - - -

BENCH: - - - 1, or is – that was 2, wasn't it?

UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: It was 1.

20 BENCH: What was – it was 1, and the references, exhibit 2, and the rest of the documents would be documents of the Court.

MR CALLAGHAN: Thank you, your Honour.

25 BENCH: Am I correct?

MR CALLAGHAN: I have no issue with that.

30 BENCH: Yes. That's how we'll divide it up. So that the rest of the documents just become the documents of the court.

MR CALLAGHAN: Yes.

MR KIRK: [indistinct]

35

BENCH: Okay. All right. Okay. First of all, Ms Heard, normally, I would deal with this with you standing, but I've got a bit to say. So please be seated. I intend to deal with this through – pursuant to section 19B of the Crimes Act, but I – I need to put some words on – some words on tape. Okay.

40

So first of all, Ms Heard has pleaded guilty to producing a document to the Australian Customs that was false. On the 28th of August 2014, both dogs were issued with certificates of vaccination for rabies by a Dr Hebbert from the animal hospital in the USA. On the 28th of October 2014, both dogs were examined at the same animal hospital, concerning the follow-up testing for travel, and that was travel to Australia. On the 26th of November 2014, declarations were issued for both dogs indicating rabies vaccinations were current.

45

On the 21st of April 2015, a private plane arrived at the Brisbane Airport and was met by quarantine and customs officers. Ms Heard was on board that plane, as were the dogs. Ms Heard completed an incoming passenger card, and in response to the question on that card:

Are you bringing into Australia animals, parts of animals, etcetera?

Ms Heard answered no. That answer was false. It is acknowledged that Ms – Ms Heard was – has routinely complied with customs and quarantine requirements for travel around the world when travelling with her dogs, and this is – there has been, on some occasions – this has, on some occasions, required her to change travel plans when those requirements have not been met in time.

On the 12th of May 2015, the principal vet officer for the – veterinary officer for the Department of Agriculture was contacted by a person who identified himself as an employee of Ms Heard’s husband. He had been instructed to contact the department following issues raised in the media with regards to the dogs’ presence in Australia. The media coverage alerted Ms Heard and her husband to the potential issues regarding documentation relating to the dogs.

The department were provided with veterinary records for both dogs and were advised the dogs were available for inspections. The dogs had been isolated and had not been in contact with any other animals. On the 13th of May 2015, the principal veterinary officer attended an address, where he examined the two dogs and confirmed that each dog microchip matched their veterinary records. The dogs were healthy, showing no signs of illness or disease.

25

There were no permits issued by the Director of Quarantine allowing the importation of those dogs into Australia. On the 13th of May 2015, both dogs were ordered into quarantine, and a direction was issued where they’d be re-exported within 72 hours. On the 15th of May 2015, both dogs were taken from Australia.

30

On the 13th of October 2015, Ms Heard provided an unsworn statement to the Prosecution regarding her actions and state of mind relevant to the offence, and on the 3rd of November 2015, there was an indication that she would plea to the charge that she made the false statement, on the basis that the other two charges were discontinued. That has, in effect, occurred today, and it is clearly a timely plea.

35

There have been a number of references placed before the Court, and I won’t go into them, but, clearly, all of them speak of Ms Heard’s generosity, commitment and kindness, and these indicate that she is just not another celebrity on the charity bandwagon, if I – if I can be – if I could put it that way. She is clearly a good person, and these people speak highly of her. She has been involved in many charitable causes in a very active way and has been so for a very long time, certainly since her teens, and I do take that into account.

45

5 Of the facts relating to this matter, at the time of Ms Heard's departure for Australia in April 2015, Ms Heard was unaware the documentation for the dogs' importation into Australia had not been complete. She relied on staff to organise that, along with other travel arrangements. Just prior to Ms Heard leaving for Australia, her assistant, one of the staff responsible for that documentation, had been dismissed from her employment in acrimonious circumstances. There were difficulties associated with this, and that had repercussions on the preparation of the documentation concerning the importation of the dogs.

10 Further to this, Ms Heard had a belief that, at the time of arriving – that the form she filled out did not cover her pets. She believed that the relevant paperwork had been completed for the dogs and provided to the Australian authorities separately. I accept that she did not set out to deliberately deceive the Australian authorities. I also accept that it's not a question of a person believing she's above the law.

15 In her pleading guilty, she accepts her responsibility for the offence. Her actions indicate she is truly remorseful for incorrectly filling out that form. It has been submitted by Mr Kirk that this ought to be dealt with pursuant to section 19B of the Crimes Act, and as I indicated at the very outset – that that is how I intended to deal with it. That involves a two-stage step.

20 First of all, I say at the outset this is not a trivial offence. Ms Heard comes before the Court without any criminal history. References provided speak of her generosity and kindness, as I've already spoken about. She's employed as an actor, and this requires a great deal of international travel. Sometimes she travels with her dogs, sometimes not. She's always complied with the various rules and regulations concerning such travel. No doubt a conviction being recorded will have an effect on her ability to travel.

25 The third factor concerning whether or not – whether or not I ought to consider dealing with this pursuant to section 19B is the extent to which the offence was committed under extenuating circumstances. The Defence submits that the extenuating circumstances under which this offence was committed included her belief that she was not required to declare the dogs, and this belief was based on her previous experience in travelling with her dogs, and also her belief that her staff had dealt with all of the documentation required for the dogs.

30 Given the amount of travel that Ms Heard is required to do, and her reliance on staff, that is not unsurprising. I do accept that those – that these – that this offence was committed under extenuating circumstances. I've quite deliberately not drawn reference to the fact that she was tired, because people travelling in and out of Australia are tired. It's a long way. We're a long way from anywhere, except New Zealand.

35 I find that, given Ms Heard's character and antecedents and the fact that this offence was committed under extenuating circumstances, that I ought to consider whether or not it would be inexpedient to inflict any punishment, or any punishment other than a nominal punishment, on Ms Heard. In considering this, all of section 16A of the Crimes Act comes into play.

5 I've had regard to all of the circumstances of this case. There's genuine remorse and a high – a high degree of cooperation. Ms Heard has returned to this country to have this matter dealt with, and her and her husband have provided a video with regards to not making a false declaration. This video no doubt will be quite useful for the department.

10 A conviction being recorded will have a very real effect on Ms Heard's ability to travel for her work. The cases cited from the Prosecution, where it's desirable that countries be aware of convictions being recorded are not relevant in this case. Ms Heard has never before deliberately flouted the laws of any country regarding the importation of her pets, and these were extenuating circumstances, as I have said.

15 I have no doubt that this whole matter has had a real impact upon Ms Heard, and given the level of public scrutiny both she and her husband have been subjected to, I find that personal deterrence is not a factor that I really have to give consideration to, because there's no doubt in my mind that this won't happen again.

20 With regards to the general deterrence, I think, quite frankly, the department's better off using that video that have been provided by Mr Depp and Ms Heard with regards to not making a false declaration and the real impact that it could have on this country. That's of far more benefit to this country than anything else that I may do
25 with regards to recording a conviction on Ms Heard. So, therefore, I'll be dealing with it, as I said, pursuant to 19B of the Crimes Act.

BENCH: Yes, Mr - - -

30 MR CALLAGHAN: Does your Honour require any assistance with the order? There is a pro forma, if that's of any use to you.

BENCH: Absolutely. Be of use to my assistant.

35 MR CALLAGHAN: Thank you.

BENCH: Thank you. Thank you. Okay. Stand up, please, Ms Heard. Pursuant to section 19B(1)(d), the charge against you is proven. However, by order, I release 40 you without proceeding to conviction, upon you giving security by recognisance in the sum of $1000, conditional that you be of good behaviour for a period of one month.

The – the purpose and the effect of the order is that you must be of good behaviour
45 for one month and not commit any further offences, and if you do, you could be called upon to pay the $1000. There is no conviction recorded. So what I'm going to do is ask for the courtroom to be cleared. Ms Heard, if you can remain, please, my – my assistant will deal with the – with the paperwork, and that will be dealt with very shortly. So if the – if the courtroom could please – if everybody can clear the courtroom, so that it can be dealt with, and I – please adjourn the Court.

CRIMES ACT 1914 - SECT 19B

Discharge of offenders without proceeding to conviction

(1) Where:

(a) a person is charged before a court with a federal offence or federal offences; and

(b) the court is satisfied, in respect of that charge or more than one of those charges, that the charge is proved, but is of the opinion, having regard to:

(i) the character, antecedents, age, health or mental condition of the person;

(ii) the extent (if any) to which the offence is of a trivial nature; or

(iii) the extent (if any) to which the offence was committed under extenuating circumstances; that it is inexpedient to inflict any punishment, or to inflict any punishment other than a nominal punishment, or that it is expedient to release the offender on probation;

the court may, by order:

(c) dismiss the charge or charges in respect of which the court is so satisfied; or

(d) discharge the person, without proceeding to conviction in respect of any charge referred to in paragraph (c), upon his or her giving security, with or without sureties, by recognizance or otherwise, to the satisfaction of the court, that he or she will comply with the following conditions:

(i) that he or she will be of good behaviour for such period, not exceeding 3 years, as the court specifies in the order;

(ii) that he or she will make such reparation or restitution, or pay such compensation, in respect of the offence or offences concerned (if any), or pay such costs in respect of his or her prosecution for the offence or offences concerned (if any), as the court specifies in the order (being reparation, restitution, compensation or costs that the court is empowered to require the person to make or pay):

(A) on or before a date specified in the order; or

(B) in the case of reparation or restitution by way of money payment or in the case of the payment of compensation or an amount of costs--by specified instalments as provided in the order; and

(iii) that he or she will, during a period, not exceeding 2 years, that is specified in the order in accordance with subparagraph (i), comply with such other conditions (if any) as the court thinks fit to specify in the order, which conditions may include the condition that the person will, during the period so specified, be subject to the supervision of a probation officer appointed in accordance with the order and obey all reasonable directions of a probation officer so appointed.

(1A) However, the court must not take into account under subsection (1) any form of customary law or cultural practice as a reason for:

(a) excusing, justifying, authorising, requiring or lessening the seriousness of the criminal behaviour to which the offence relates; or

(b) aggravating the seriousness of the criminal behaviour to which the offence relates.

(1B) In subsection (1A):

"criminal behaviour" includes:

(a) any conduct, omission to act, circumstance or result that is, or forms part of, a physical element of the offence in question; and

(b) any fault element relating to such a physical element.

(2) Where a court proposes to discharge a person in pursuance of an order made under subsection (1), it shall, before making the order, explain or cause to be explained to the person, in language likely to be readily understood by him or her:

(a) the purpose and effect of the proposed order;

(b) the consequences that may follow if he or she fails, without reasonable cause or excuse, to comply with the conditions of the proposed order; and

(c) that any recognizance given in accordance with the order may be discharged or varied under section 20AA.

(2A) A person is not to be imprisoned for a failure to pay an amount required to be paid under an order made under this section.

(3) Where a charge or charges against a person is or are dismissed, or a person is discharged, in pursuance of an order made under subsection (1):

(a) the person shall have such rights of appeal on the ground that he or she was not guilty of the offence or offences concerned with which he or she was charged as he or she would have had if the court had convicted him or her of the offence or offences concerned; and

(b) there shall be such rights of appeal in respect of the manner in which the person is dealt with for the offence or offences concerned as there would have been if:

(i) the court had, immediately before so dealing with him or her, convicted him or her of the offence or offences concerned; and

(ii) the manner in which he or she is dealt with had been a sentence or sentences passed upon that conviction.

(4) Where a person is discharged in pursuance of an order made under subsection (1), the court shall, as soon as practicable, cause the order to be reduced to writing and a copy of the order to be given to, or served on, the person.

1 the question. 01:29:57

2 Go ahead. 01:29:58

3 A. I would have to say no. I'm not even a 01:29:58

4 hundred percent sure if I remember who this person 01:30:01

5 is. 01:30:04

6 Q. Was Amber also friends with someone 01:30:05

7 named Logan? 01:30:08

8 MS. BREDEHOFT: Objection to the form of 01:30:09

9 the question. 01:30:10

10 Go ahead. 01:30:11

11 A. Yes. 01:30:11

12 Q. Who was Logan? 01:30:12

13 MS. BREDEHOFT: Objection to the form of 01:30:14

14 the question. 01:30:15

15 Go ahead. 01:30:16

16 A. Logan was a -- a dear friend of -- he 01:30:16

17 initially started off as Amber's friend. They 01:30:23

18 worked together at a pool, I believe. They were 01:30:27

19 both lifeguards. And he very quickly got close 01:30:30

20 with us and our family. And he passed away in a 01:30:37

21 car accident. 01:30:42

22 Q. How old was he when he met Amber? 01:30:47

1 MS. BREDEHOFT: Objection to the form of 01:30:50
2 the question. 01:30:51
3 Go ahead. 01:30:52
4 A. I don't recall. I don't know that -- I 01:30:52
5 don't know the answer to that. 01:30:57
6 Q. Well, he was older than Amber, wasn't 01:30:59
7 he? 01:31:02
8 MS. BREDEHOFT: Objection to the form of 01:31:03
9 the question. 01:31:03
10 Go ahead. 01:31:04
11 A. I'm actually not sure. 01:31:06
12 Q. And did there come a time when Amber and 01:31:09
13 Logan's relationship became romantic? 01:31:11
14 MS. BREDEHOFT: Objection to the form of 01:31:16
15 the question. 01:31:17
16 Go ahead. 01:31:18
17 A. Not to my knowledge. 01:31:19
18 Q. You mentioned that Logan passed away. 01:31:21
19 When did he pass away? 01:31:23
20 MS. BREDEHOFT: Objection to the form of 01:31:26
21 the question. 01:31:27
22 Go ahead. 01:31:27

1 A. I don't recall when it was specifically. 01:31:30

2 Q. Do you know how old Logan was when he 01:31:34

3 died? 01:31:36

4 A. I couldn't say with a hundred percent 01:31:41

5 certainty. I -- I believe he was 17 or 18, maybe. 01:31:45

6 I'm not sure actually. 01:31:51

7 Q. How old -- how old was Amber when he 01:31:54

8 passed away? 01:31:55

9 MS. BREDEHOFT: Objection to the form of 01:31:57

10 the question. 01:31:57

11 Go ahead. 01:31:58

12 A. I don't know. 01:32:01

13 Q. Did you ever observe Amber and Logan 01:32:02

14 fighting? 01:32:04

15 MS. BREDEHOFT: Objection to the form of 01:32:08

16 the question. 01:32:09

17 Go ahead. 01:32:10

18 A. No. 01:32:10

19 Q. Did Amber ever tell you that she was 01:32:11

20 with Logan at the time he passed away? 01:32:19

22 the question. 01:32:23

1	Go ahead.	01:32:25
2	A. That was not my understanding.	01:32:25
3	Q. And is it your understanding that Logan	01:32:32
4	passed away in a car accident?	01:32:34
5	MS. BREDEHOFT: Objection to the form of	01:32:37
6	the question.	01:32:39
7	Go ahead.	01:32:40
8	A. Yes.	01:32:41
9	Q. Did Amber ever tell you, in words or	01:32:43
10	substance, that she was driving the car at the	01:32:46
11	time he died?	01:32:48
12	MS. BREDEHOFT: Objection to the form of	01:32:49
13	the question.	01:32:50
14	Go ahead.	01:32:51
15	A. No.	01:32:52
16	Q. Was Amber with Logan when he passed	01:32:54
17	away?	01:32:56
18	MS. BREDEHOFT: Objection to the form of	01:32:57
19	the question, asked and answered.	01:32:58
20	Go ahead.	01:33:00
21	A. No.	01:33:01
22	Q. How did Amber react when Logan passed	01:33:02

1 away? 01:33:05

2 MS. BREDEHOFT: Objection to the form of 01:33:06

3 the question. 01:33:07

4 Go ahead. 01:33:08

5 A. She was devastated. He was her best 01:33:09

6 friend. 01:33:15

7 Q. Did Amber drop out of school after he 01:33:17

8 passed away? 01:33:19

9 MS. BREDEHOFT: Objection to the form of 01:33:20

10 the question. 01:33:21

11 Go ahead. 01:33:22

12 A. It was at some point after Logan passed, 01:33:24

13 but it wasn't as a result of that, no. 01:33:28

14 Q. Was your sister Amber's driver's license 01:33:31

15 suspended after Logan passed away? 01:33:34

17 the question, calls for hearsay. 01:33:38

18 Go ahead. 01:33:42

19 A. I believe -- I believe it was before. 01:33:43

20 I -- I can't recall with certainty, but I believe 01:33:46

21 it was before. 01:33:49

22 Q. So just to be clear, it's your 01:33:51

1 understanding that there came a time when Amber's 01:33:53
2 driver's license was suspended; true? 01:33:57
3 MS. BREDEHOFT: I'm going to object to 01:34:00
4 the form of the question and calls for 01:34:01
5 hearsay, speculation. 01:34:04
6 Go ahead. 01:34:06
7 A. If memory serves, I think at one point 01:34:06
8 it was. 01:34:12
9 Q. Do you know why it was suspended? 01:34:14
10 MS. BREDEHOFT: Objection to the form of 01:34:16
11 the question. 01:34:17
12 Go ahead. 01:34:18
13 A. I do not. 01:34:19
14 Q. You don't know, one way or the other, 01:34:22
15 whether it had anything to do with the accident in 01:34:24
16 which Logan died; is that true? 01:34:27
17 MS. BREDEHOFT: Objection to the form of 01:34:29
18 the question, asked and answered. 01:34:30
19 Go ahead. 01:34:32
20 A. It was -- it had nothing to do with 01:34:34
21 that. 01:34:36
22 Q. Did Amber ever drive the car -- strike 01:34:37

1 that.

01:34:41

2 Did Amber ever drive a car during the
3 period of time when her driver's license was 4 suspended?

01:34:42

01:34:46

01:34:48

5 MS. BREDEHOFT: Objection to the form of 6 the question, calls for speculation,
7 hypothetical.

01:34:50

01:34:51

01:34:53

8 Go ahead.

01:34:54

9 A. Yes.

01:34:55

10 After receiving my driver's license, I
11 had been in an accident. And she -- it was -- it
12 was very close to our house. And she was the only 13 one that was able to come. And it was my first
14 accident, and I was very shaken up and scared.
15 And she came to drive us back to our house.

01:35:02

01:35:09

01:35:12

01:35:15

01:35:18

16 Q. And at the time she did that, your 17 understanding was that her driver's license had 18 been suspended; is that correct?

01:35:23

01:35:25

01:35:29

20 the question.

01:35:30

01:35:31

21 Go ahead.

01:35:32

22 A. I might have known about it at the time.

01:35:34

1 I can't recall if I knew about it for sure. 01:35:36

2 I was -- like I said, it was my first 01:35:39

3 accident. I was -- I was so shaken up. I don't 01:35:42

4 know if I was thinking clearly. 01:35:45

5 Q. Did she ever get her driving privileges 01:35:47

6 restored? 01:35:50

7 MS. BREDEHOFT: Objection to the form of 01:35:51

8 the question. 01:35:52

9 Go ahead. 01:35:54

10 A. Yes. 01:35:54

11 Q. Okay. Let's -- let's move to a 01:35:56

12 different subject. 01:35:58

13 When did Amber move out of your parent's 01:35:59

14 home? 01:36:02

15 A. What year or -- 01:36:02

16 Q. Well, how old was she? What year was 01:36:06

17 it? 01:36:09

18 MS. BREDEHOFT: Same objection. 01:36:12

19 A. I want to say she was 17, maybe younger. 01:36:13

20 I don't know. 01:36:20

21 Q. And you were still living with your 01:36:23

22 parents when Amber moved out at approximately 17; 01:36:24

1 Q. And, again, this is another broad 01:43:15
2 question, but I'll ask it anyway. What types of 01:43:16
3 things would you argue with her about? 01:43:19
4 MS. BREDEHOFT: Objection to the form of 01:43:21
5 the question. 01:43:22
6 Go ahead. 01:43:23
7 A. Silly things, in retrospect, like who 01:43:23
8 borrowed whose jacket or -- I -- I can't remember 01:43:32
9 arguing about anything significant when we were -- 01:43:35
10 especially when we were first living together. 01:43:39
11 Q. And now, you know, broadening it beyond 01:43:42
12 just the time when you were living together when 01:43:44
13 you were very young. In any arguments you've had 01:43:46
14 with Amber over the entire period of your lives, 01:43:50
15 has she ever been physically violent with you -- 01:43:54
16 MS. BREDEHOFT: Objection to the form -- 01:43:59
17 Q. -- ever hit you in any way or thrown 01:44:00
18 something at you? 01:44:02
19 MS. BREDEHOFT: Objection to the form of 01:44:03
20 the question. 01:44:04
21 Go ahead. 01:44:05
22 A. No. 01:44:07

1	Q. She's never hit you?	01:44:08
2	A. No.	01:44:12
3	Q. She's never slapped you?	01:44:13
4	A. No.	01:44:16
5	Q. She's never thrown anything at you?	01:44:16
6	A. No.	01:44:19
7	Q. Have you and your sister Amber not	01:44:20
8	spoken for a period of time because you had had a	01:44:24
9	fight or disagreement?	01:44:27
10	MS. BREDEHOFT: Objection to the form of	01:44:30
11	the question.	01:44:32
12	Go ahead.	01:44:33
13	A. Yes. There were periods of time where	01:44:33
14	we weren't on speaking terms or we weren't as	01:44:35
15	close to one another as we might have been	01:44:38
16	previously due to an argument or disagreement.	01:44:40
17	Q. How many times can you remember where	01:44:44
18	there was a hiatus, you know, of communications	01:44:47
19	between the two of you?	01:44:49
20	MS. BREDEHOFT: Objection to the form of	01:44:51

15	the question.	04:02:40
16	Go ahead.	04:02:41
17	A. I never said I suffered any violence at	04:02:42
18	the hands of Amber. We did talk about my father,	04:02:44
19	but I never said I was subjected to any violence	04:02:49
20	because of Amber.	04:02:53
21	Q. So --	04:02:56
22	A. I never said that.	04:02:56

1	Q. So Jennifer's -- so Ms. Howell's just	04:02:57
2	making all these things up; is that your	04:03:00
3	testimony?	04:03:02
4	MS. BREDEHOFT: Objection to the form of	04:03:03
5	the question.	04:03:03
6	Go ahead.	04:03:04
7	A. I honestly don't know why she's saying	04:03:04
8	the things that she's saying. I can only speak to	04:03:07
9	what I've told her in the past. I can't -- I	04:03:10
10	can't speculate as to why she's saying what she's	04:03:13
11	saying now.	04:03:16
12	Q. Didn't you tell Ms. Howell that your	04:03:17
13	sister Amber was extremely violent?	04:03:21
14	MS. BREDEHOFT: Objection to the form of	04:03:24
15	the question.	04:03:25
16	Go ahead.	04:03:26
17	A. I've never said that.	04:03:28
18	Q. Let's move to the infamous 30th birthday	04:03:30
19	party in April of 2016.	04:03:35
20	Do you recall attending Amber's birthday	04:03:39
21	party that year?	04:03:42
22	A. Yes, I did.	04:03:46

1 THE REPORTER: Question: "So none of the 12:15:00
2 $7 million that you paid to Amber Heard was because
3 or as a result of her alleging that you'd engaged
4 in domestic abuse or violence; is that correct?" 12:15:01
5 MR. CHEW: And same instruction. 12:15:01
6 THE WITNESS: None of the $7 million that 12:15:04
7 she was awarded in the divorce had anything 12:15:07
8 whatsoever to do with any -- any of her claims, any 12:15:10
9 of that, no. 12:15:18
10 MS. CHARLSON BREDEHOFT: You can take 12:15:20
11 your break now. 12:15:21
12 MR. CHEW: Thank you. 12:15:22

1 identical knowing how much evidence had been produced
2 in the interim, and knowing that we had had meet and 3 confers, and were making this effort. But it also was 4 an abuse of this process to not continue to work with me
5 to know this before coming to Your Honor today and play
6 hide the ball, and try to in some way surprise me with 7 what they were going to claim still wasn't still wasn't,
8 after I spent the time to put out a 92-page supplemental 9 with all of those Bates stamps, and responding to these 10 things. There's no basis for a Motion to Compel today.

11 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

12 Mr. Chew?

13 MR. CHEW: Your Honor. If I -- if I could have 14 just a few more minutes for rebuttal. The Court has 15 been very indulgent with its time, and I will be very --

16 THE COURT: Great.

17 MR. CHEW: -- quick. But she's raised some 18 issues that I would like to address very quickly.

19 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Yes, sir.

20 MR. CHEW: Thank you, Your Honor.

21 First, with respect to the chart, we apologize
22 if we've filled the chart out incorrectly. This is our

1 first experience with it. We weren't trying to be
2 ponderous. We were trying to respond to the Court's
3 request.

4 Second, with respect to the conciliator, it is
5 ironic. We oppose the conciliator, not because we don't 6 want to conciliate, but because we knew that Ms.
7 Bredehoft would try to relitigate every single discovery
8 issue that had been resolved by Chief Judge White. And 9 Chief Judge White stated that, I know what Mr. Chew is 10 saying is true. You will, Elaine, try to relitigate
11 everything that's happened, and that's why I'm not 12 appointing a conciliator.

13 But -- but to get to more substantive matters, 14 Ms. Heard did not say that she pledged the money to the 15 ACLU and to the Children's Hospital of Los Angeles, kids
16 with cancer. She said she did it. Her testimony was,
17 The entire amount of my divorce settlement was donated 18 to charity. This wasn't an offhand comment in 19 deposition. This was a sworn statement that she filed.
20 She didn't say she pledged it. She's now saying after 21 the fact oh, gee, no, I really haven't given any money
22 to those charities other than the hundred thousand that

1 Mr. White gave at the time of the divorce. It was the
2 -- you know, I -- I -- I couldn't really give the money
3 because mean Johnny sued me. Well, her lawyer admitted
4 that it was Ms. Heard, in fact, who initiated the first
5 action against Mr. Depp. It was an arbitration matter
6 that was dismissed by Judge Meisinger. So she was the 7 one who actually fired the first shot, and had no
8 intention of giving this money to charity.

9 Third -- fourth, rather, with respect to the 10 additional communications relating to the CHLA and the 11 ACLU, these are clearly responsive. They have not been 12 ruled on. Elon Musk is in fact the anonymous donor.
13 It's relevant for several reasons. One, Elon Musk is on 14 film as having seen Ms. Heard in the days after May 21,
15 2016. That's the date where the -- all the police, all
16 four police, came to the condominiums, and all testified
17 there was not a sign of a damage on Ms. Heard's face, 18 and there was no disturbance to the apartment. I'll get 19 to that in a moment.

20 But the point is Mr. Musk saw her in the week
21 between the alleged abuse and the time she got the ex
22 parte TRO on May 27th of that week. So he's clearly a

A P P E A R A N C E S

ON BEHALF OF THE PLAINTIFF:

BENJAMIN G. CHEW, ESQUIRE
BROWN RUDNICK
601 Thirteenth Street, Northwest
Suite 600

(202) 536-1700

ON BEHALF OF THE DEFENDANT:

ADAM S. NADELHAFT, ESQUIRE
DAVID E. MURPHY, ESQUIRE
CHARLSON, BREDEHOFT, COHEN & BROWN
11260 Roger Bacon Drive
Suite 201

1 MR. NADELHAFT: Okay.

2 THE COURT: So you don't have to
3 regurgitate that.

4 MR. NADELHAFT: Sure.

5 THE COURT: But whatever you'd like to 6 add to it, that -- that would be great.

7 MR. NADELHAFT: Okay. Great. And so
8 I'm going to start off with the -- our motion to 9 compel Mr. Depp's charitable donations. And in 10 particular it's RFP nine of the 12th requests for 11 production where Ms. Heard requested documents
12 sufficient to -- to reflect Mr. Depp's charitable 13 donations of either money or time from 2010 to the 14 present.

15 To be clear, we're not asking for all
16 documents. We're just asking for documents
17 sufficient to reflect his charitable donations.
18 So I don't think this is a burdensome request.

19 THE COURT: No. No. I don't think 20 burdensome is the question. Relevance is the 21 question.

22 MR. NADELHAFT: Right. So there --

1 well, there's a couple -- there's a few -- there's 2 a few issues here.

3 One, Mr. Depp, as you know, as you've
4 heard, has made a big deal out of Ms. Heard's
5 donations to the -- and pledges to the ACLU and --
6 and LA Children's Hospital.

7 And I'm sure Mr. Chew is going to come
8 up here and say she's depriving children, sick
9 children, of -- of money and -- and time; but 10 that's not true. And it's -- it's not even part 11 of the complaint, but he's gotten discovery on 12 that.

13 What we're seeking is we don't want them
14 to make that -- that argument and then to say, Mr.
15 Depp -- and -- and talk about his donations to the 16 LA Children's Hospital and to the ACLU. And -- 17 and I can pass up, but he -- I mean, Mr. Depp has 18 made it public that he's made contributions to 19 the --

20 THE COURT: Right. But I just want to 21 make it -- you're -- you're saying because they're 22 getting it, we should get it?

1 MR. NADELHAFT: No, no, no. No, I'm
2 not -- we're not -- we're not doing tit for tat.
3 It's also -- it's also he's -- his reputation is 4 also at issue.

5 So when we see -- if we see that he's 6 increased his donations after certain events like 7 if he's had a drug or alcohol issue and his 8 donations go up, he's trying to improve his
9 reputation, we should be able to get information
10 sufficient to see what donations he's made, where 11 he's made it to and -- and be able to see if --
12 was he doing this to improve his reputation.

13 He's -- he's put his reputation at 14 issue. And -- and part of improving your -- part 15 of your reputation is your donations to the 16 public.

17 The other issue that we've really found
18 here that shows that it's relevant is that we went 19 to them and said, okay, let's just say we'll do
20 the LA -- donations to the LA Children's Hospital, 21 donations to the ACLU and Mr. Depp will agree that 22 he will not testify as to his charitable

1 contributions at trial.

2 They would not agree to that. They
3 wouldn't agree that Mr. Depp won't be -- won't
4 testify. They said it's -- they don't want to 5 give trial strategy. Well, if he's going to 6 testify as to his donations, he's admitted -- he's 7 admitted its relevance.

8 THE COURT: I -- I assume you'd object
9 to relevance if he starts --

10 MR. NADELHAFT: Well --

11 THE COURT: -- testifying to his 12 donations.

13 MR. NADELHAFT: -- sure; but now it's in 14 front of the -- now it's -- now it's -- and that 15 would be in front of the jury. We'd also have to 16 make a motion in limine.

17 If -- if we can get an -- I mean, if we
18 can have an order now that would say Mr. -- Mr.
19 Depp will not be able to testify as to his -- or 20 will agree not to testify to his charitable 21 donations, we can -- we can -- along with the ACLU
22 and -- and the Children's Hospital donations, we

1 could -- we could live -- we could live with that.

2 That way it ties a loop around any
3 donations made to the ACLU or Children's Hospital
4 to which Mr. Depp has tried to take credit for, at 5 least to the Children's Hospital. And then we're 6 not left to wonder will he testify, you know, at 7 trial about donations down the road. And we don't
8 need a motion to compel.

9 They've said they're not -- they've said
10 in their papers they're not intending to have him
11 testify. Let's have an order that says he can't.
12 And if -- if you're not going to -- if -- if 13 you're not going to -- if you're not going to 14 order that his -- he should produce the documents,
15 then an order at least saying that he will not 16 testify at trial as to his donations would be 17 sufficient.

18 THE COURT: All right. I understand. I
19 don't know -- I don't know if you could do a clear
20 order stating that he wouldn't testify, because a
21 lot of things happen at trial. You never know.
22 It's very fluid. But, I mean, it could be

1 where --

2 MR. NADELHAFT: Well, we could --

3 THE COURT: -- we could approach --

4 MR. NADELHAFT: Obviously we --

5 THE COURT: -- the bench before you get
6 into that issue. I mean, we could --

7 MR. NADELHAFT: Well, how are we --

8 THE COURT: -- do something like that.

9 MR. NADELHAFT: How we are going to know
10 when he's going to do that? And then if he goes 11 into that and it somehow is -- he does get to 12 testify, then now we have no documents at all to 13 be able to challenge him on it.

14 I mean, it -- he -- he can't have it
15 both ways. He can't make it -- it may be 16 relevant, I may be able to testify to it; but it's 17 not relevant for -- for discovery purposes.

18 THE COURT: Okay.

19 MR. NADELHAFT: And, again, we're
20 just -- we're seeking documents sufficient to show
21 his -- his donations to the -- at least to the 22 ACLU and -- and Children's Hospital, if not all of

1 it, and to show -- again, if he's increasing
2 his -- if he's increasing his donations after he
3 has an incident, a public incident, that goes to 4 his reputation.

5 And we can see why he was -- and then we 6 can see why he was making those donations, who he 7 was making it to. And, again, he's also taking 8 credit for the -- you know, the ACLU and the -- or 9 at least the Children's Hospital donations.

10 So it's a -- it's a relatively limited
11 request. It's either -- if -- if he's -- can't --
12 if he -- if we can't get this discovery, then Mr.
13 Depp should be ordered that he cannot -- that that 14 cannot be something that he testifies to at trial
15 which he has somewhat agreed to but now -- but 16 won't -- won't commit to it into a consent order.

17 THE COURT: All right. Thank you, sir.

18 MR. NADELHAFT: Thank you.

19 THE COURT: All right. Yes, sir.

20 Mr. Chew.

21 MR. CHEW: Good afternoon, Your Honor.
22 May it please the Court, Ben Chew for Johnny Depp.

1 Your Honor, this -- this is a motion to 2 compel. It's not a motion in limine. And we
3 respectfully submit that the Court should deny
4 as -- the motion to compel as to this category of 5 documents because they're irrelevant and not 6 reasonably calculated to lead to the -- to 7 admissible evidence.

8 Unlike Ms. Heard, Mr. Depp has not put
9 his charitable donations at issue. Ms. Heard did
10 so by stating quote, I played no role -- strike
11 that.

12 Ms. Heard did so by stating, quote,
13 money played no role for me personally and never 14 has except to the extent I could donate it to 15 charity, unquote.

16 What a joke. She hoodwinked the judge
17 in England who apparently believed her sworn 18 statement, her first sworn witness statement, that 19 she donated all seven million dollars of her 20 divorce settlement to Mr. Depp. And -- and the 21 judge cited that as a basis for concluding that 22 Ms. Heard -- Ms. Heard was not a gold digger.

1 We had to pull teeth to prove that was
2 false. Ms. Heard objected to our subpoena to the 3 Children's Hospital of Los Angeles. When she lost
4 that and was sanctioned by the judge, Judge
5 Bowick, in Los Angeles she took it to the Court of 6 Appeals -- imagine taking a discovery issue to the 7 Court of Appeals -- which rejected it in record
8 time.

9 And those records show that Ms. Heard,
10 in fact, gave zero to the Children's Hospital of 11 Los Angeles except for the $100,000 that Mr. Depp
12 gave in the wrongful impression that Ms. Heard was 13 serious when she pledged her 3.5 million dollars
14 to the Children's Hospital of Los Angeles.

15 So when Ms. Heard's counsel keeps
16 telling you that this isn't true, they know it's 17 false. In fact, we had an emergency hearing
18 before Chief Judge White to deal with 19 Ms. Bredehoft marking those documents produced by 20 the Children's Hospital of Los Angeles. The 21 Children's Hospital of Los Angeles did not mark
22 them as confidential, but Ms. Bredehoft did so

1 retroactively.

2 We had an emergency motion. Chief Judge
3 White found in chambers that there was no basis
4 for those to be marked confidential.
5 Ms. Bredehoft said, ah-ha, but there's no
6 emergency here. And -- and Chief Judge White
7 said, the emergency is your bad faith. So that 8 was the bad faith.

9 So why they keep saying that this was 10 not true -- they know it's true. Mr. Depp has not 11 made his charitable donations an issue. And this 12 is not a hearing on a motion in limine. If they 13 want to do that, they can do that. Thank you,
14 Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. All
16 right. Anything further on that issue?

17 MR. NADELHAFT: Real -- real quickly,
18 Your Honor. Respectfully, Ms. Heard did not make 19 this an issue. It's not -- and it's, one, not 20 part of Mr. Depp's complaint. It was never 21 mentioned in her -- it was never mentioned in her 22 op-ed. She never mentioned charities or

1 charitable donations. She never mentioned that at 2 all in anything in the complaint.

3 In terms of taking a -- a discovery
4 order to the appellate court, Mr. Depp has done
5 that in our -- in our requests to try to get
6 documents from Mr. Depp's counsel, Mr. Waldman.
7 He's taken it to the D.C. Court of Appeals. They 8 tried to have a stay. And that was denied
9 quickly.

10 All of Mr. -- all of Mr. Chew's
11 arguments were about Ms. Heard's pledges and 12 donations. We're -- we're simply seeking -- we're
13 simply seeking at a minimum whatever Mr. Depp
14 donated to the ACLU and LA Children's -- LA
15 Children's Hospital.

16 And -- and if -- and -- and that -- and 17 at a minimum we would be seeking that. I have 18 said before why we believe it is relevant, his 19 donations, and how it could go to his reputation.
20 I do think that it is relevant.

21 And, again, if Mr. Depp is going to 22 testify to that, which he's still not saying he

1 won't, then it needs to be -- then it needs to be
2 relevant for discovery purposes.

3 He's right. It's not a motion in 4 limine. But why not -- I mean, why have us go
5 through all this if he's -- if he won't commit
6 that it is -- you know, he can't have it both
7 ways. He can't say that it's relevant, it may be
8 relevant; but it's not relevant for discovery. So
9 unless you have any other questions...

10 THE COURT: No, that's fine, sir.

11 MR. NADELHAFT: Thank you, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: As to charitable donations
13 the Court just does not find relevance in this 14 matter to compel that. So I'm going to deny the 15 notion to compel as to that issue.

16 All right. I believe the next issue is 17 documents related to defenses and denials.

18 MR. MURPHY: Correct.

19 THE COURT: Okay.

20 MR. MURPHY: We'll focus on the 21 defenses --

22 THE COURT: In the counterclaim.

Civil Action No.: CL-2019-0002911

PLAINTIFF JOHN C. DEPP, II'S OPPOSITION TO DEFENDANT AMBER LAURA HEARD'S MOTION TO COMPEL RESPONSES TO ELEVENTH AND TWELFTH REQUESTS FOR PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS

I. The Motion Is Believed Moot As to Contracts/Related Documents

The parties appeared close to agreement on certain issues when Ms. Heard filed her motion to preserve a December 10 hearing date before the meet and confer process had concluded. Mr. Depp believes that the parties are now in agreement as to Ms. Heard's RFPs seeking Mr. Depp's performance contracts. Mr. Depp already produced contracts for many films and agrees to producing any additional film contracts in his possession and his contract with Christian Dior. Mr. Depp is also willing to produce responsive documents (if any) to Ms. Heard's RFPs for communications with Mr. Depp's employers under those contracts regarding terminations, complaints or concerns about Mr. Depp, as narrowed in the meet and confer.

II. Mr. Depp's Objections Related to His Defenses Are Appropriate

Ms. Heard served unreasonably broad and vague RFPs for all documents "supporting, refuting, or otherwise relating to" his affirmative defenses. Mr. Depp agrees in principle that non-privileged documents supporting his defenses may be discoverable. But Ms. Heard has failed to specifically describe identifiable categories of documents that might support Mr. Depp's defenses. Instead, she took a shortcut, making a blanket demand for everything in the world that might be deemed to "relate" to his defenses. That violates the requirement of Va. R. S. Ct. 4:9(b)(i) that RFPs "must set forth the items to be inspected either by individual item or by category, and describe each item and category with reasonable particularity." Simply put, there is no file that can be searched that contains all documents that might "relate" to an entire affirmative defense. Mr. Depp has agreed to produce documents in response to some requests, but subject to legitimate objections – the requests are too broad and too vague.

III. Ms. Heard Is Not Entitled to Privileged Documents

Ms. Heard also seeks privileged materials, arguing that Mr. Depp's assertion of the attorney-client privilege is incompatible with his Fourth and Fifth Affirmative Defenses to her Counterclaim for defamation. Not so. Mr. Depp's Fourth Affirmative Defense (that Mr. Depp did not make the statements at issue) merely points out an undisputed fact that is alleged in Ms. Heard's own Counterclaim – the statements that form the basis of her Counterclaim were made by Adam Waldman, not Mr. Depp. And Mr. Depp's "Fifth Affirmative Defense" is not an active defense, but merely a reservation of rights to assert hypothetical defenses related to the scope of Mr. Waldman's authority. Mr. Depp is not intending to rely on privileged communications with Mr. Waldman at trial and is under no obligation to waive privilege. As for Ms. Heard's argument that it is contested that Mr. Waldman's statements are attributable to Mr. Depp, that is of course true; but it does not follow from that fact that Ms. Heard is entitled to obtain privileged communications between Mr. Depp and Mr. Waldman. It is Ms. Heard's burden to establish that Mr. Waldman was acting at the behest of Mr. Depp in making the statements in question (not Mr. Depp's burden to disprove it), and Mr. Depp is under no obligation to waive privilege merely because he disputes that Ms. Heard can carry her burden.

IV. Mr. Depp's Objections to Documents "Related" to Denials Are Appropriate

Ms. Heard served broad, vague, and open-ended requests for any documents that could be deemed to relate to Mr. Depp's denials of the allegations in each paragraph of her Counterclaim. Not only do these requests fail to specify reasonably particularized categories of documents as required under Va. R. S. Ct. 4:9(b)(i), but also many of them relate to allegations that are no longer at issue, because they are focused on Ms. Heard's third cause of action in her Counterclaim, which was essentially an attempt to hold Mr. Depp accountable for any negative post about her on social media, and which was dismissed following Mr. Depp's Demurrer and Plea in Bar. For instance, RFP No. 47 in her Eleventh RFPs demands that Mr. Depp "produce all documents supporting, refuting, or otherwise relating to Your denial of ¶¶ 13-14 of the Counterclaim." Those paragraphs have nothing to do with the three allegedly defamatory statements still at issue in the Counterclaim:

"In total, there are at least dozens if not hundreds of inauthentic accounts that impugn Ms. Heard while praising Mr. Waldman. This messaging further evidences the origin of Mr. Depp's unlawful campaign and demonstrates that these inauthentic accounts are actively coordinating content to manipulate the Twitter platform and avoid detection."

"As examples, these inauthentic accounts include the following: ReemDepp, MyGrindelwald, mderndarkwizard, pomta5426, depp_soldier, PerspectiveDepp, depphead_, Ray Ray Depp, Depplyours, ILoveGellert, Jackiedepp 1963, JDeppS_girl. Investigation has revealed hundreds of others."

The Court has already rejected Ms. Heard's argument that Mr. Depp is accountable for every unpleasant comment about her on the Internet. Serving scores of RFPs for all documents "related" to these irrelevant and baseless allegations is harassment. Moreover, many paragraphs in Ms. Heard's Counterclaim do not even contain factual allegations but are just opinions or insults directed at Mr. Depp. For instance, RFP No. 59 demands all documents "supporting, refuting, or otherwise relating" to Counterclaim paragraph 27:

"Without this case, Mr. Depp's attempts to keep this matter in the press would amount to nothing more than a four-year old stale story that has been rehashed ad-nauseum. He would be wholly unable to generate any interest from the public, and thus without recourse to pursue his bitter obsession with destroying Ms. Heard. Movie studios and brands do not tend to care about issues they have no reason to think the public cares about. But if Mr. Depp can generate the impression that viewers and consumers do care - by fomenting a fantasy of online outrage and hatred for Ms. Heard, and its relevance animated by press coverage and "news" around this case - his fixation can continue to gain ground."

How does one even begin to look for documents that "support, refute, or relate" to a rant like that? Ms. Heard failed to meet her burden under Rule 4:9(b)(i).

V. Mr. Depp's Charitable Donations Are Irrelevant

In another example of Ms. Heard's blatant "tit for tat" discovery tactics, she also served a blanket demand for documents showing all of Mr. Depp's charitable donations, apparently as retaliation for Mr. Depp's discovery into her purported donations to the Children's Hospital, Los Angeles, and the ACLU. But Ms. Heard's purported donations to those organizations are relevant because she tied her supposed donations to her motives in alleging abuse. Ms. Heard issued a press release during the parties' divorce in which she stated that "money played no role for me personally and never has, except to the extent that I could donate it to charity," and testified under penalty of perjury in the UK action that she could have had no financial motive because "the entire amount of my divorce settlement was donated to charity"—only for it to emerge that five years after the parties' divorce, Ms. Heard kept most of the money. Conversely,

Mr. Depp's charitable donations are totally irrelevant. Mr. Depp has never tied his charitable donations to this case, has never indicated that he intends to present evidence about his own donations, and does not intend to do so¹

VI. Ms. Heard's RFPs Re: RFA and Interrogatory Responses Are Improper

In another example of Ms. Heard's use of discovery as a blunt instrument, Ms. Heard demanded all documents "supporting, refuting, or relating" to any of Mr. Depp's denials of RFAs or interrogatory responses. Mr. Depp objected, since the mere fact that a question has been asked in discovery does not mean that every document that could be deemed to "relate" to the response is discoverable (particularly given the blatant overbreadth of Ms. Heard's written discovery). For instance, Ms. Heard's Interrogatory No. 17, reads as follows:

Identify each judicial or administrative proceeding (including all details needed to locate the docket) in which You have had any involvement (including as a party, witness, or nonparty) from January 1, 2010 to the present, and include a description of (i) the nature of each proceeding; (ii) the court in which the proceeding was/is maintained; (iii) Your involvement in the proceeding, (iv) the status of the proceeding; and (v) the result, if the proceeding has concluded.

It is not reasonable to demand every document that "supports" or "relates" to a response to questions like this, since that effectively opens the door to every document that "relates" to wholly unrelated litigations. This is a global problem with these RFPs, since many other interrogatories or RFAs similarly are arguably "related" to documents that have no plausible relationship to this case. Ms. Heard must serve different requests that describe reasonably identifiable categories of documents.² Ms. Heard also demands documents that "relate" to Mr. Depp's "denials" of her RFAs – and then cites a series of RFAs, many of which Mr. Depp did not even deny (see the 4th and 5th RFAs in their entirety). These requests are neither appropriately particularized, nor reasonable, and, where they relate to responses other than denials, they are not even intelligible.

² Nonetheless, in the interests of compromise, Mr. Depp is prepared to produce the following in response to the interrogatories specifically listed in the Motion: (1) documents, if any, evidencing drug or alcohol use by Mr. Depp or Ms. Heard on any dates of alleged abuse (although such documents are believed to have been long-since produced); and (2) a fully executed copy of Mr. Depp's separation agreement with Vanessa Paradis, to the extent that one can be located – but again, it is believed that the copy produced is the only one in Mr. Depp's possession.

Respectfully submitted,

1 THE WITNESS: Okay. Thank you. I
2 understand. I accept the instruction.
3 MS. BREDEHOFT: Lucien, could we bring up
4 Exhibit No. 4.
5 AV TECHNICIAN: Stand by.
6 (Exhibit 4, Daily MailOnline article,
7 Published April 8, 2020, was marked for
8 identification and is attached to the transcript.)
9 AV TECHNICIAN: Showing Exhibit 4 on the 10 screen.
11 MS. BREDEHOFT: Thank you.
12 BY MS. BREDEHOFT:
13 Q Mr. Waldman, I'm going to ask you to take
14 a look at what has been marked as Exhibit No. 4.
15 I think I'm going to try to blow it up just a
16 touch. It's kind of hard to read. Okay.
17 And it's an article from July 3, 2020 from 18 MailOnline. This is Daily MailOnline. Do you see 19 that?
20 A I do.
21 Q Okay. And I'm going to ask you to turn to 22 what would be -- I forgot my page numbers here.

1 A Ms. Bredehoff, if we're going to talk
2 about this article, may I read it? I assume it's 3 not too long.
4 Q Yes. Yeah, absolutely. In fact, why
5 don't you take control, Mr. Waldman, and that way
6 you can scroll at your --
7 A This is dangerous giving me -- giving me
8 control.
9 Q And, Mr. Waldman --
10 A Do I scroll down with my scroll button?
11 Q You can. And, Mr. Waldman, you can also 12 blow it up a little bit more. It's at 75 percent.
13 So if you need to be able to see it better, you 14 can do that as you scroll. Go ahead and take your 15 time and then I will --
16 A I can use my cursor to scroll?
17 MR. CHEW: Mr. Waldman, if you click on 18 the screen, you'll be able to use -- yeah, there
19 you go.
20 THE WITNESS: Okay. Thank you. I'm able 21 to, thank you.
22 It's stopping me from going down to the

63
1 bottom.
2 AV TECHNICIAN: Click on the screen again.
3 I had to unmute.
4 THE WITNESS: Ahh, there we go. Thank
5 you.
6 I was wrong; it's a long article.
7 MR. CHEW: I would just note for the 8 record it's not one of the three articles that 9 remained in Ms. Heard's counterclaim, so I would 10 object -- make a threshold objection on relevance
11 grounds.
12 THE WITNESS: Okay. I think I've read the 13 article. I'm not going to read the transcript of 14 the audiotape unless -- I'll read that, I guess,
15 if we have questions about it.
16 BY MS. BREDEHOFT:
17 Q No. No, actually, if -- I'm just going to 18 go to page 8.
19 MS. BREDEHOFT: Lucien, if you can take me
20 to page 8, that will move it faster.
21 Q And I'm going to make it a little bit
22 larger. And I'm going to --

1 MS. BREDEHOFT: I need control. There we
2 go. Thank you. Oops, that's the wrong one.
3 BY MS. BREDEHOFT:
4 Q I'm going to ask you to take a look at the 5 following: It says, Adam Waldman, Depp's lawyer,
6 said afterwards, quote, Amber Heard and her
7 friends in the media use fake sexual violence
8 allegations as both a sword and a shield,
9 depending on their needs.
10 They have selected some of her sexual
11 violence hoax facts -- quote, facts, end of quote, 12 as the sword, inflicting them on the public and
13 Mr. Depp.
14 Do you see that?
15 A I do.
16 Q Did you make that statement?
17 A I believe I did.
18 Q Did you make that statement on behalf of
19 Mr. Depp?
20 MR. CHEW: I would instruct the witness
21 not to answer that question on attorney-client
22 privilege grounds.

1 THE WITNESS: I accept the instruction.
2 BY MS. BREDEHOFT:
3 Q Why did you make the statement?
4 MR. CHEW: Same instruction; same
5 rationale.
6 You can't answer the "why" question
7 without disclosing attorney-client privilege, so I
8 would instruct you not to answer.
9 Q Were you representing Mr. Depp at the time
10 you made this statement?
11 MR. CHEW: Objection; asked and answered.
12 And -- in any event, I'm going to instruct the 13 witness not to answer that question on 14 attorney-client privilege grounds.
15 THE WITNESS: I apologize, I actually
16 didn't hear the question. I can agree with the 17 instruction, but I probably should hear the 18 question.
19 MR. CHEW: Fair enough.
20 MS. BREDEHOFT: Amy, could you read that
21 back, please. Thank you.
22 The court reporter read the pertinent

66
1 part of the record.)
2 MR. CHEW: I would instruct the witness
3 not to answer on attorney-client privilege
4 grounds.
5 THE WITNESS: And thank you.
6 I accept the instruction. Sorry for the 7 repetition.
8 BY MS. BREDEHOFT:
9 Q Did you discuss the statement with
10 Mr. Depp before making the statement?
11 MR. CHEW: Same objection; same grounds.
12 THE WITNESS: Yeah, I accept the
13 instruction.
14 Q Did you discuss the statement with
15 Mr. Depp after making the statement?
16 MR. CHEW: Same instruction; same grounds.
17 THE WITNESS: I accept the instruction.
18 Q Was Mr. Depp aware, either before or
19 after, that you were making this statement?
20 MR. CHEW: Same instruction; same grounds.
21 THE WITNESS: I accept the instruction.
22 Q Did you make this statement with 67

1 Mr. Depp's authorization or agreement?
2 MR. CHEW: Same instruction; same grounds.
3 THE WITNESS: I accept the instruction.
4 Q Was Mr. Depp aware that you were speaking
5 with the press?
6 MR. CHEW: Same instruction; same grounds.
7 THE WITNESS: I accept the instruction.
8 Q Did Mr. Depp ever ask you to retract or 9 correct this statement?
10 MR. CHEW: Same instruction; same grounds.
11 THE WITNESS: I accept the instruction.
12 Q If Mr. Depp had asked you to retract or 13 correct the statement, would you have retracted or 14 corrected it?
15 MR. CHEW: Same instruction; same grounds.
16 THE WITNESS: I accept the instruction.
17 Q If Mr. Depp had told you that the 18 statement was not correct, would you have 19 corrected or retracted it?
20 MR. CHEW: Same instruction; same grounds.
21 THE WITNESS: I accept the instruction.
22 Q Did you rely upon any statements or

68
1 evidence from Mr. Depp in making this statement?
2 MR. CHEW: Same instruction; same grounds.
3 THE WITNESS: Yes, I accept the
4 instruction.
5 MS. BREDEHOFT: Thank you. You can take
6 this one down, Lucien.
7 And if you can bring up Exhibit No. 5.
8 AV TECHNICIAN: Stand by.
9 (Exhibit 5, Daily MailOnline article,
10 Published April 27, 2020, was marked for
11 identification and is attached to the transcript.)
12 AV TECHNICIAN: Showing Exhibit 5 on the
13 screen.
14 BY MS. BREDEHOFT:
15 Q Mr. Waldman, I'm going to be asking you a
16 question about a specific statement in this one.
17 If you would like to read the article first, you
18 are certainly at liberty to, and you can take 19 control now and do that.
20 A Thank you. I will.
21 MR. CHEW: And, again, I would just note
22 for the record this is not one of the three

69

1 statements, F, G, or H, that is still at issue in
2 the litigation.
3 THE WITNESS: Okay. Thank you. I've read
4 it.
5 MS. BREDEHOFT: All right. I'm going to
6 ask Lucien to take control and take me to page 9.
7 And then I'm going to ask to take control so I can
8 do my highlighter. And I'm going to go down to --
9 there we go. It's page 10, actually, I guess,
10 here.
11 BY MS. BREDEHOFT:
12 Q It says -- and this is -- I guess I didn't
13 set the stage here. This was the Daily Mail 14 published on July 3, 2020 [sic]. And I'm going to 15 now direct your attention to page 9. Depp's
16 lawyer Adam Waldman said the various discrepancies
17 proved that nothing Heard and her friends said
18 about the events of May 21, 2016 could be 19 considered credible.
20 Do you see that?
21 MR. CHEW: Objection; hearsay.
22 THE WITNESS: I do.

70

1 Q Then I'm going to direct your attention,
2 Mr. Waldman, to the next statement. Quote, Quite
3 simply this was an ambush, a hoax. They set
4 Mr. Depp up by calling the cops but the first
5 attempt didn't do the trick.
6 MR. CHEW: Objection; hearsay.
7 MS. BREDEHOFT: Excuse me, I'm not done.
8 Q The officers came to the penthouses,
9 thoroughly searched and interviewed, and left
10 after seeing no damage to face or property.
11 So Amber and her friends spilled a little 12 wine and roughed the place up, got their stories
13 straight under the direction of a lawyer and a
14 publicist, and then placed a second call to 911.
15 Do you see that statement?
16 MR. CHEW: Objection; hearsay.
17 THE WITNESS: I do.
18 Q Did you make those statements?
19 A There are two parts to what you've shown
20 me. The first part didn't have quotation marks
21 around it.
22 Q And I'm not asking about that.

71

1 A Okay.
2 Q I'm sorry --
3 A Where it said, nothing could be considered
4 credible, that's not quoting me.
5 Q Right.
6 A The part with the quote marks, I believe I
7 said that, yes.
8 Q So starting from "quite simply" through
9 "911," you stated all that; is that correct?
10 MR. CHEW: Objection; vague and ambiguous.
11 THE WITNESS: Yes, I believe so.
12 Q Okay. Did you make this -- these 13 statements on Mr. Depp's behalf?
14 MR. CHEW: Instruct the witness not to 15 answer on the grounds of attorney-client
16 privilege.
17 THE WITNESS: I accept the instruction.
18 Q Why did you make these statements?
19 MR. CHEW: Same instruction; same reason.
20 THE WITNESS: I accept the instruction.
21 Q What were you trying to convey to the
22 press in making these statements?

1 MR. CHEW: Same instruction; same reason.
2 THE WITNESS: I accept the instruction.
3 BY MS. BREDEHOFT:
4 Q Did you discuss this statement with
5 Mr. Depp before making these statements?
6 MR. CHEW: Same instruction; same reason.
7 THE WITNESS: I accept the instruction.
8 Q Did you discuss these statements with 9 Mr. Depp following making these statements?
10 MR. CHEW: Same instruction; same
11 rationale.
12 THE WITNESS: Yes, I accept the
13 instruction.
14 Q Was Mr. Depp aware, either before or
15 after, that you were making these statements?
16 MR. CHEW: Same instruction; same reason.
17 THE WITNESS: I accept the instruction.
18 Q Did you make these statements with
19 Mr. Depp's authorization or agreement?
20 MR. CHEW: Same instruction; same basis.
21 THE WITNESS: I accept the instruction.
22 Q Was Mr. Depp aware you were speaking with 73

1 the press?

2 MR. CHEW: Same instruction; same basis.

3 THE WITNESS: I accept the instruction.

4 Q Did Mr. Depp ever ask you to retract or

5 correct these statements?

6 MR. CHEW: Same objection; same basis.

7 THE WITNESS: I accept the instruction.

8 Q If Mr. Depp had asked you to retract or

9 correct these statements, would you have retracted

10 or corrected them?

11 MR. CHEW: Same instruction; same basis.

12 THE WITNESS: I accept the instruction.

13 Q If Mr. Depp had told you these statements

14 were not correct, would you have corrected or 15 retracted them?

16 MR. CHEW: Same objection; same basis.

17 THE WITNESS: I accept the instruction.

18 Q Did you rely upon any statements or

19 evidence from Mr. Depp in making these statements?

20 MR. CHEW: Same instruction; same basis.

21 THE WITNESS: I accept the instruction.

22 Q Okay.

74

1 MS. BREDEHOFT: Lucien, you can take that

2 one down, and let's go to Exhibit No. 6.

3 AV TECHNICIAN: Stand by.

4 (Exhibit 6, Daily Mail Online article,

5 Published June 24, 2020, was marked for

6 identification and is attached to the transcript.)

7 AV TECHNICIAN: I'm showing Exhibit 6 on

8 the screen.

9 BY MS. BREDEHOFT:

10 Q Mr. Waldman, I'm going to ask you to take

11 a look at Exhibit No. 6. This was another Daily

12 Mail Online, July 3, 2020 [sic]. And if you would

13 like to go ahead and read the article, this would

14 be a good time to do it.

15 A Thank you.

16 MR. CHEW: And while he's doing that, I

17 would just note for the record this is not one of 18 the three articles that contain statements that

19 are still at issue in the case in Ms. Heard's

20 counterclaims.

21 THE WITNESS: I'm getting a security block

22 message.

75

1 MS. BREDEHOFT: I got it, too.

2 AV TECHNICIAN: Just click on the screen

3 and try not to click on the text.

4 THE WITNESS: Okay. I got the box again.

5 MS. BREDEHOFT: Could we maybe take a

6 break and, Lucien, you can see if you can figure

7 that out -- help figure that out.

8 AV TECHNICIAN: Sure.

9 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We are -- stand by. We

10 are now going off the record. The time is

11 11:22 a.m.

12 (Recess was held.)

13 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We are now going back

14 on the record. The time is 11:31 a.m.

15 BY MS. BREDEHOFT:

16 Q Mr. Waldman, we were looking at Waldman

17 Exhibit No. 6, and it's the Daily Mail from July

18 -- I just lost it there -- July 3, 2020. And you

19 were going to scroll through it and I think we had 20 some technical difficulties so we took a break.

21 Have you had an opportunity to review it or do you

22 need to now?

1 A No, Ms. Bredehopt, I -- I just saw the

2 screen for the first time. So may I read it now?

3 Q Absolutely.

4 MR. CHEW: And, Elaine, while he's doing

5 that, let me make a correction. I had -- I stated

6 with a couple of the last exhibits that these were

7 not the statements at issue because I was thrown

8 off by the date at the top of the exhibits. So

9 some of the statements are at issue in the 10 counterclaims. That was not the basis of any of 11 my instructions not to answer. All the 12 instructions not to answer were based on 13 attorney-client privilege. So I just wanted to 14 make that clear.

15 THE WITNESS: Okay. May I read now?

16 Q Oh. I thought you were reading while Ben

17 was talking. But go ahead.

18 A Oh, sorry. Okay. I've -- there. It's

19 controlling the document. Thank you.

20 Okay. Thank you. I've read it.

21 Q Okay. Mr. Waldman --

22 MS. BREDEHOFT: I'm going to ask for

77

1 control of the screen, Lucien, if you could.
2 Thank you.
3 BY MS. BREDEHOFT:
4 Q I'm going to ask you to turn to what is
5 the 11th page, the last page you just finished
6 reading, and I'm going to direct your attention to 7 some specific words that are attributed to you.
8 (Do you see it says, Depp's attorney Adam Waldman
9 said, right here?)
10 (I'm trying to get that color, but...)
11 (AV TECHNICIAN: Oh, yeah, I -- the ability
12 to highlight is not -- you'll have to use a 13 different tool to -- yeah, you'll have to draw.)
14 (Yeah.)
15 Q Okay. Do you see, Depp's attorney Adam
16 Waldman said? Do you see that there, Mr. Waldman?
17 (A I do.)
18 Q Okay. And then I'm going to direct your
19 attention to specifically: the end of Ms. Heard's
20 abuse hoax against Johnny Depp.)
21 (Do you see that?)

78

1 (Q Did you speak the words, quote, the end of
2 Ms. Heard's abuse hoax against Johnny Depp?)
3 (MR. CHEW: Objection; hearsay.)
4 (THE WITNESS: I'm -- I'm not sure. It
5 appears as I look at this that there are quote
6 marks around the statement, and that suggests that 7 I did. I don't remember saying these particular
8 words, but it appears so.)
9 (Q Do you have any reason to believe that you
10 did not say, the end of Ms. Heard's abuse hoax
11 against Ms. -- Johnny Depp?)
12 (MR. CHEW: Objection; asked and answered,
13 calls for speculation.)
14 (THE WITNESS: No, I have no reason to -- 15 no reason to doubt that.)
16 (Q What was -- were you representing Mr. Depp
17 at the time you made this statement? I'm going to 18 refer to it as a "statement." I'm taking specific 19 words: (Ms. Heard's abuse hoax against Johnny 20 Depp.) (But were you representing Mr. Depp at the 21 time you made the statement that included
22 "Ms. Heard's abuse hoax against Johnny Depp"?)

1 (MR. CHEW: Instruct the witness not to
2 answer based on attorney-client privilege.)
3 (THE WITNESS: I accept the instruction.)
4 (Q Why did you make the statement?)
5 (MR. CHEW: Same instruction; same basis.)
6 (THE WITNESS: I accept the instruction.)
7 (Q What were you trying to convey to the 8 press in making this statement?)
9 (MR. CHEW: Same instruction; same basis.)
10 (THE WITNESS: I accept the instruction.)
11 (Q Did you make the statement on Mr. Depp's
12 behalf?)
13 (MR. CHEW: Same instruction; same basis.)
14 (THE WITNESS: I accept the instruction.)
15 (Q Did you discuss this statement with 16 Mr. Depp before making the statement?)
17 (MR. CHEW: Same instruction; same basis.)
18 (THE WITNESS: I accept the instruction.)
19 (Q Did you discuss this statement with 20 Mr. Depp following making the statement?)
21 (MR. CHEW: Same instruction; same basis.)

1 and made. So Jack has been, yeah, integral and 2 very important.
3 Q Jack Whigham moved to another agency
4 recently; is that correct?
5 A Yes, he did.
6 Q And do you know the name of the new
7 agency?
8 A No, I don't.
9 Q Are you still with him even though he has 10 moved?
11 A I will definitely go with Jack, yes, of 12 course.
13 Q That just hasn't come up yet for you?
14 A No, as far as I'm concerned, Jack Whigham
15 is my agent whether he's at CAA or not, he's my 16 film agent. At present, it's entirely normal and 17 possible that Christian Carino could remain my 18 commercial agent, as they say, in CAA.
19 Q And what role does Bryan Lourd play?
20 A Bryan Lourd is the -- he's the head of 21 CAA. He's the chairman I suppose, chairman of CAA.
22 Q Does he do anything personally for you

601

1 with your career?
2 A Bryan Lourd?
3 Q Yes.
4 A No, not very much, no.
5 Q Okay. When did you first meet Adam
6 Waldman?
7 A First met Adam Waldman, was it 2006? I'm 8 thinking.
9 Q Was it in the time frame of Tracey Jacobs
10 -- the Tracey Jacobs switch, was it around that 11 same time frame?
12 A I can't remember if Tracey was still in 13 my life at that moment. I believe that she was 14 not, and I met Adam with Ed White, at Ed White's
15 house, and --
16 Q Did Ed White introduce you to Adam
17 Waldman?
18 A Adam Waldman was someone that was brought 19 up -- his name was brought up as a -- as a very 20 capable and brilliant attorney, and he was someone
21 that I wanted to talk with regarding the Mandel
22 situation at that time, first and foremost, the

602

1 Mandel situation, and though Jake Bloom's thing was
2 coming out as -- it wasn't looking great, I waited
3 because I -- because I loved Jake Bloom in many 4 ways, and I couldn't bring myself to believe that
5 he would have done that to me, though when it came
6 to light, yes, Adam Waldman started with me
7 basically around then as an outside Hollywood
8 attorney, which I did not want a Hollywood
9 attorney.
10 MR. CHEW: And Mr. Depp, these questions
11 are fine, but I just want to --
12 THE WITNESS: Remind me that --
13 MR. CHEW: -- advise you --
14 THE WITNESS: Yes.
15 MR. CHEW: -- that when Adam became your 16 attorney, your communications are 100 percent --
17 THE WITNESS: Of course.
18 MR. CHEW: -- privileged.
19 THE WITNESS: Of course. Thank you.
20 BY MS. CHARLSON BREDEHOFT:
21 Q Who recommended Adam Waldman to you?
22 A It was kind of a -- it was a guy that I'd 603

1 met who turned out to be a very, very sweet man who
2 understood my dilemma and felt that I was being
3 dealt a dirty hand, and he recommended someone
4 named Adam Waldman and --
5 Q What's the name of that man that
6 recommended him?
7 A He was like a -- it was an attorney in 8 the U.K. that I'd met.
9 Q You don't recall his name?
10 A No, I don't. I don't recall his name.
11 Q So how is it that you ended up meeting
12 Adam Waldman at Ed White's house?
13 A I requested to meet with Mr. Waldman. I
14 believe it was Ed White who facilitated that 15 meeting because there was a dinner held at Ed
16 White's house.
17 Q Had Ed White worked with Adam Waldman
18 before?
19 A I don't believe so, no.
20 Q Okay. So do you recall when you first
21 (breed Adam Waldman?)
22 A Well, after -- after our first discussion

Conducted on November 12, 2020

604

1 and after he -- he had received enough information
 2 on the case and enough -- enough facts, he gave it
 3 some thought and then he got back to me on his --
 4 what he felt I had to -- what he felt was the right
 5 thing to do.
 6 Q Do you remember approximately when this
 7 was?
 8 A I mean --
 9 Q Are we still in 2016 or are we --
 10 A Yes, I believe we're still in 2016, yes.
 11 Q All right.
 12 A It wasn't long after that that I -- once
 13 I discussed the case with Mr. Waldman, I felt that 14 he was the man for the -- for the job.
 15 Q And is this before or after you resolved,
 16 for lack of a better word, your divorce with Amber
 17 that you met Mr. Waldman?
 18 A Oh, boy. Oh, before we broke up or 19 before the divorce?
 20 Q Before the August settlement. August
 21 2016 is when you reached the settlement.
 22 A That's the settlement, okay, so it was

1 after.
 2 Q Okay, so sometime between August 2016 and 3 (the end of 2016 is when you met Adam Waldman and 4 met him.
 5 A I'm going to guess -- I think it was
 6 somewhere in the -- I think it was around
 7 Octoberish.
 8 Q All right, and has Adam Waldman worked
 9 for you since that time?
 10 A Yes, ma'am.
 11 Q Okay. Consistently?
 12 A Yes, ma'am.
 13 Q And you consider him a trusted advisor?
 14 A Oh, yes, ma'am.
 15 Q Okay. Is he -- is Adam Waldman
 16 authorized to speak on your behalf?
 17 MR. CHEW: Objection to the form of the 18 question. It calls for a legal conclusion. It's 19 also vague as to instance.
 20 A Instance is very important. Is he
 21 allowed to speak on my behalf? Well, of course,
 22 there's a yes and a no in there. It depends on the 606

1 situation, it depends on what -- you know, what's
 2 presented.
 3 Q Is Adam Waldman authorized to speak on 4 your behalf with respect to your position on Amber
 5 Heard and her statements?
 6 MR. CHEW: Objection. Same objection.
 7 Objection to the form of the question to the extent
 8 it calls for a legal conclusion and to the extent
 9 it depends -- it's vague as to instance.
 10 A I think -- just --
 11 Q You know what?
 12 A Excuse my ignorance. Is that also not 13 privileged?
 14 MR. CHEW: Yes, any communications you
 15 had with Mr. --
 16 THE WITNESS: I do feel like --
 17 MR. CHEW: Any -- I'll instruct you not
 18 to answer --
 19 THE WITNESS: -- we're entering the arena
 20 of privilege.
 21 MR. CHEW: Yeah, Mr. Depp, I will
 22 definitely instruct you not to answer any questions

607

1 about communications you had to or from Adam
 2 Waldman or any of your attorneys.
 3 BY MS. CHARLSON BREDEHOFT:
 4 Q Let me do it this way. I think this
 5 might be the easiest way. When Mr. -- were you
 6 familiar with some requests for admissions that we 7 served in this case that you filed responses last
 8 Friday to? Let me phrase it a little differently
 9 because based on the look on your face, no.
 10 A Yes, I was confused, yes.
 11 Q Okay. We filed a series of what we call
 12 request for admissions, and we attached the 13 articles that Mr. -- one that you had made
 14 statements in, the GQ article, and then we also 15 attached the articles in which Mr. Waldman had made
 16 statements. We asked whether those were genuine
 17 and authentic and -- and the specific quotes were 18 genuine and authentic, and the responses to those 19 were yes, they were genuine and authentic.
 20 I'm going to go through, because I --
 21 just to make it move as quickly as possible, and 22 then that way Mr. Chew can, you know, figure -- to

1 help you where you know you want to be instructed
2 or not, I'm just trying to make this as transparent
3 as possible. I'm going to go through and ask you
4 on each of these whether Mr. Waldman was authorized
5 to make these statements, okay? So --
6 MR. CHEW: And just so you know -- and 7 first of all, it would be helpful if we had the 8 document to which you're referring. Secondly, I
9 will instruct him not to answer any specific 10 question about what he communicated to or from Mr.
11 Waldman, but you can go through this for the 12 record.
13 MS. CHARLSON BREDEHOFT: I'm not going to 14 ask him that so that we don't get into that issue.
15 That's what I'm trying to --
16 MR. CHEW: Okay.
17 MS. CHARLSON BREDEHOFT: When I say I'm
18 trying to be transparent, I'm literally going
19 through the statements and just saying was Mr.
20 Waldman authorized on your behalf to say X.
21 MR. CHEW: Right, and I will give the 22 appropriate instruction, so please --

609

1 MS. CHARLSON BREDEHOFT: That's --
2 MR. CHEW: Please delay your answer.
3 MS. CHARLSON BREDEHOFT: Yeah, that's --
4 MR. CHEW: I know it's somewhat
5 artificial, but she has to make a record on this.
6 THE WITNESS: Sure thing.
7 BY MS. CHARLSON BREDEHOFT:
8 Q So on April 12, 2019, was Adam Waldman
9 authorized on your behalf to make the quote in page
10 6, accusing Ms. Heard of committing, quote,
11 "Defamation, perjury and filing and receiving a 12 fraudulent temporary restraining order demand with 13 the court," end of quote?
14 MR. CHEW: Mr. Depp, I will instruct you
15 not to answer that question because you cannot do
16 so without disclosing your communications with Adam
17 Waldman.
18 A Thank you, Ben.
19 Q On June -- in June of 2019, was Adam
20 Waldman authorized on your behalf to tell "The Blast"
21 that, quote, "Ms. Heard continues to defraud her
22 abused hoax victim, Mr. Depp, the Me Too movement

1 she masquerades as the leader of, and other real
2 abuse victims worldwide," end of quote.
3 MR. CHEW: Mr. Depp, I would instruct you
4 not to answer that question on the basis of
5 attorney-client communication.
6 A Indeed.
7 Q On July 2nd, 2019, was Adam Waldman
8 authorized on your behalf to tell "The Blast" that 9 Ms. Heard, quote, "Went to court with painted on 10 bruises to obtain a temporary restraining order on 11 May 27," end of quote?
12 MR. CHEW: Mr. Depp, I would instruct you
13 not to answer that question based on
14 attorney-client privilege.
15 A Absolutely, Ben.
16 Q So you're -- just for the record, so you
17 are, based on the instructions of your counsel, you
18 are declining to answer each of these questions, 19 correct? I just want to make sure the record is 20 clear.
21 MR. CHEW: Yes, he's going to follow my
22 instruction.

611

1 A It seems pointless for me to sit here and
2 go against my counsel -- my counsel's wishes.
3 Q I wasn't asking you to go against it. I
4 just --
5 MR. CHEW: He's going to follow the 6 instructions of counsel, as I'm sure Mr. Heard will 7 when her turn comes.
8 MS. CHARLSON BREDEHOFT: I just want a
9 clear record is all I'm trying to --
10 MR. CHEW: She's entitled to ask.
11 THE WITNESS: Oh, no, I --
12 MR. CHEW: And I will make an objection
13 to each one. She has to make her record.
14 THE WITNESS: I get you.
15 BY MS. CHARLSON BREDEHOFT:
16 Q On July 3, 2019, was Adam Waldman
17 authorized on your behalf to state to People
18 Magazine that, quote, "Ms. Heard's battered face
19 was a hoax," end of quote?
20 MR. CHEW: I respectfully direct Mr. Depp
21 -- instruct Mr. Depp not to answer that question
22 based on attorney-client privilege.

1 A Thank you.

2 Q And you are following your counsel's

3 instructions not to answer, correct?

4 A Yes, ma'am, I'll follow my counsel's

5 instructions, thank you.

6 Q Okay. When on April 8, 2020, was Adam

7 Waldman authorized on your behalf to say, quote,

8 "Amber Heard and her friends in the media use fake

9 sexual violence allegations as both a sword and a

10 shield depending on their needs. They have

11 selected some of her sexual violence hoax facts as

12 the sword, inflicting them on the public and Mr.

13 Depp." end of quote.

14 MR. CHEW: I would instruct -- you're

15 asking whether he authorized that, and I would

16 instruct him not to answer that question based on

17 attorney-client communication.

18 MS. CHARLSON BREDEHOFT: And just -- I

19 neglected to say in The Daily Mail in --

20 MR. CHEW: I apologize, I --

21 MS. CHARLSON BREDEHOFT: No, no.

22 MR. CHEW: I jumped the gun.

613

1 MS. CHARLSON BREDEHOFT: No, no, that was

2 my fault. So can we just amend that and have the

3 --

4 MR. CHEW: Sure.

5 MS. CHARLSON BREDEHOFT: -- same

6 instruction?

7 MR. CHEW: Same instruction.

8 BY MS. CHARLSON BREDEHOFT:

9 Q On April 27, 2020, was Adam Waldman

10 authorized on your behalf to tell The Daily Mail

11 that, quote, "Quite simply, this was an ambush, a

12 hoax. They set Mr. Depp up by calling the cops,

13 but the first attempt didn't do the trick. The 14 officers came to the penthouses, thoroughly

15 searched and interviewed and left after seeing no

16 damage to face or property, so Amber and her

17 friends spilled a little wine and roughed the place

18 up, got their stories straight under the direction

19 of a lawyer and publicist and then placed a second

20 call to 911," end of quote.

21 MR. CHEW: I would instruct the witness

22 not to answer the question based on attorney-client

614

1 ~~privilege.~~

2 A I'll -- I'll take Ben's advice. Thank

3 you.

4 Q Okay. On June 24, 2020, was Adam Waldman

5 authorized on your behalf to accuse Ms. Heard in

6 The Daily Mail of committing a, quote, "abuse

7 hoax," end of quote, against you?

8 MR. CHEW: And I would instruct Mr. Depp

9 not to answer that question based on

10 attorney-client privilege.

11 THE WITNESS: Thank you, Ben. I will --

12 I take your advice and I appreciate it. Thank you.

13 MR. CHEW: You're most welcome.

14 MS. CHARLSON BREDEHOFT: And now with

15 respect to each of those that I just asked, I want

16 to just phrase it a little bit differently, but to 17 save time and us having to go through it --

18 MR. CHEW: Sure.

19 MS. CHARLSON BREDEHOFT: I would just

20 substitute the word "authorized" to was he acting

21 as your agent when he said, "Do you want me to go

22 through all of them again and ask that or --

615

1 MR. CHEW: I'm going to -- first of all,

2 it would call for a legal conclusion, but I would

3 give the same instruction --

4 MS. CHARLSON BREDEHOFT: Okay.

5 MR. CHEW: -- for him not to answer --

6 MS. CHARLSON BREDEHOFT: So --

7 MR. CHEW: -- whether you're asking as an

8 agent or an attorney.

9 MS. CHARLSON BREDEHOFT: So for the 10 record purposes, we can agree that I was going to 11 go back and then ask for each of those same ones

12 acting as your agent, and you would have instructed

13 him also on attorney-client privilege not to 14 answer, and he would have followed your advice.

15 MR. CHEW: Yes, to spare your time --

16 THE WITNESS: Yes, indeed.

17 MR. CHEW: Let's do that.

18 MS. CHARLSON BREDEHOFT: Okay.

19 THE WITNESS: The one thing that I am

20 confused about, I'd love to have defined in a way,

21 as an attorney, there's that, but agent -- what --

22 what is the definition of agent in this -- in this

Conducted on November 12, 2020.

616

1 instance? An agent as in Tracey Jacobs, a Jack
 2 Whigham or a --
 3 MR. CHEW: It's confusing. We can talk
 4 -- 5 MS. CHARLSON BREDEHOFT: Speaking on your
 6 behalf.
 7 MR. CHEW: We can talk --
 8 THE WITNESS: Okay.
 9 MR. CHEW: -- about it off the record.
 10 THE WITNESS: I just didn't know, yeah.
 11 MR. CHEW: It's confusing because agent
 12 -- an attorney can also be an agent, so it's 13 tricky, but I'll give the instruction just so that 14 we don't have to --
 15 THE WITNESS: It's just -- the one thing
 16 is he's not my -- not a -- he's not a talent agent
 17 or he's not a --
 18 MS. CHARLSON BREDEHOFT: No.
 19 THE WITNESS: -- an agent of my -- has 20 anything to do with --
 21 MS. CHARLSON BREDEHOFT: And I think Mr.
 22 Chew and I knew.

617

1 THE WITNESS: Okay, yeah.
 2 MR. CHEW: It's -- the -- the --
 3 THE WITNESS: This is just my --
 4 MR. CHEW: The confusing thing about
 5 agent, as you said, agent can be a commercial
 6 agent, can be a talent agent, and technically we 7 lawyers can be agents in a different context.
 8 THE WITNESS: Of course.
 9 MR. CHEW: But I think we're clear on -- 10 THE WITNESS: Yeah, I just wanted the 11 context.
 12 MR. CHEW: No, it's very -- yeah.
 13 THE WITNESS: I need to know the 14 definition.
 15 MR. CHEW: Context is key. Sorry.
 16 ~~MS. CHARLSON BREDEHOFT: But for your~~
 17 ~~purpose, Mr. Chew, just me substituting and asking~~
 18 ~~in each of those questions if Mr. Waldman was~~ 19 ~~acting as Mr. Depp's agent in making those same~~
 20 ~~statements --~~
 21 ~~MR. CHEW: Same instruction not to answer~~

 4 BY MS. CHARLSON BREDEHOFT:
 5 Q And Mr. Depp, you are following your 6 counsel's instructions with respect to all of that,
 7 correct?
 8 A Yes, ma'am. Thank you.
 9 Q Okay. Do you have a social media team?
 10 A No, I have a -- social media's something
 11 I've never -- I've never participated in. It
 12 wasn't until the Covid pandemic started to hit and 13 then people were stuck in isolation that I -- that 14 I thought if there was ever a time to open an 15 account like an Instagram account to be able to 16 talk directly to the people to try to lighten at 17 least their moment with a couple of posts, this or 18 that, thanking them for various things, that's the 19 first time I've ever had any kind of social --
 20 social media experience, and to be honest, I don't 21 have a team. I have -- there's a woman friend of 22 mine's misses who runs it for me. I myself don't

619

1 even know how -- I don't see it, I don't know how
 2 to log into it. I don't -- I'm not particularly 3 tech savvy, so --
 4 Q I'm going to back up for a minute. I
 5 forgot to ask one more series on that set of the --
 6 MR. CHEW: Okay.

 9 the inconvenience.
 10 A Sure thing.
 11 ~~Q With respect to each of the quotes that I~~
 12 ~~just gave, and to make it easier, beginning with~~ 13 ~~the April 12, 2019 statement to page 6, for each of~~ 14 ~~those statements, do you adopt those statements or~~ 15 ~~have you adopted those statements that Mr. Waldman~~

 17 ~~MR. CHEW: I'm going to instruct him not~~

1 MR. CHEW: Okay.

2 MS. CHARLSON BREDEHOFT: All right.

3 MR. CHEW: I think we're clear. I think

4 the record's clear on that.

5 MS. CHARLSON BREDEHOFT: All right, yeah,

6 and it's -- the paragraph where I read these from 7 is paragraph 66A through F of the counterclaim.

8 MR. CHEW: No, understood. It's a little

9 difficult because you haven't provided us a copy,

10 but I think we're clear.

11 MS. CHARLSON BREDEHOFT: Okay, so that

12 same question of do you adopt or have you adopted

13 these statements also would be imposing

14 attorney-client privilege --

15 MR. CHEW: Correct.

16 MS. CHARLSON BREDEHOFT: -- and

17 instructing him not to answer, correct?

18 MR. CHEW: Correct.

19 BY MS. CHARLSON BREDEHOFT:

20 Q And Mr. Depp, you would not answer based

21 on your counsel's direction?

22 A That is correct. Thank you.

621

1 MR. CHEW: And I assume Ms. Heard will do

2 the same at her deposition. She will follow your

3 instructions. I don't think I'll ask --

4 MS. CHARLSON BREDEHOFT: I was going to

5 say, I don't know that I can speak for her just yet

6 on that.

7 MR. CHEW: No, but I -- I don't think you

8 need to ask him that each time.

9 MS. CHARLSON BREDEHOFT: Oh, you know, it

10 depends -- depends upon the judge, but some of them

11 require that on the record. That's -- that's why.

12 MR. CHEW: I think Mr. Depp is going to 13 follow my instructions, right or wrong.

14 MS. CHARLSON BREDEHOFT: Okay, great.

15 MR. CHEW: So the house will fall upon me

16 and not upon him.

17 BY MS. CHARLSON BREDEHOFT:

18 Q That makes it -- that makes it easier,

19 okay. So let me go back to the social media, and I

20 apologize for --

21 A Not at all.

22 Q -- jumping around a little bit, but let 622

1 me -- do you have a publicist?

2 A I do. I've had a publicist for a number

3 of years. I've been with a woman named Robin Baum,

4 and -- and --

5 Q What does she do for you?

6 A Well, that's a good question. Since the 7 -- ever since the -- Ms. Heard's allegations and

8 accusations and the People Magazine cover and

9 reporting me to be a monster and a wife-beater and

10 all that, since then, Ms. Baum's work or her

11 responsibilities or her representation of me, our

12 communication lessened a great deal.

13 We did speak a couple of times. I think

14 she was overwhelmed -- I think Ms. Baum was 15 overwhelmed with the -- with what appeared to be

16 the imminent death of me, and therefore, didn't

17 really take much -- well, many many many many many

18 people in Hollywood were scared to take a stand on

19 anyone because it could cost them their livelihood,

20 it could cost -- if you back someone who's been

21 defined as a ne'er-do-well, you know, I mean, and

22 that's a -- it's not enough to say a ne'er-do-well.

623

1 Fear was rampant throughout Hollywood of

2 -- you know, people suddenly realize yeah, I like

3 Johnny, but you know what? I don't have a dog in

4 this race and I don't want to get in trouble and --

5 you know, so yeah, I was -- I was not a safe bet,

6 or I was not a safe person to represent, let's say.

7 Q So is there a point where Ms. Baum

8 stopped being your publicist? I'm just a little

9 confused.

10 A Well, there's a point where she stopped

11 being my publicist, but she's still technically my

12 publicist because I have not -- I have not, you

13 know, relieved her of her duties because she's not

14 doing anything, so I just -- she is there if I --

15 if I need to call her, but I have had no need to 16 call her, as she's not really been involved in any

17 of my attempts to get the truth out there into the 18 world.

19 Q Did you ask Robin Baum to assist you in 20 getting your truth out?

21 A I asked. I certainly asked her for

22 advice and asked her, you know, what is the -- how

Conducted on November 12, 2020

1 and that's still what it's for.
 2 Q So who were the people that were in --
 3 I'm trying to figure out who set it up for you.
 4 A I don't know.
 5 Q How can -- how would -- where would we be
 6 able to look to find out who set up your Instagram
 7 account?
 8 A I would say the man to ask for that is Ed
 9 White.
 10 Q Because he would have paid for it, right?
 11 A Oh, I think, yeah, at the end of the day,
 12 everything's going to come back to Ed.
 13 Q Did you discuss setting up the Instagram
 14 account with Adam Waldman?
 15 MR. CHEW: You may answer that yes or no.
 16 THE WITNESS: I can answer that?
 17 MR. CHEW: You can answer yes or no. You
 18 shouldn't disclose your communications with Mr.
 19 Waldman.
 20 THE WITNESS: Oh, I see, so yes, of 21 course, yes.
 22 BY MS. CHARLSON BREDEHOFT:

653

1 Q Do you -- with the Instagram account, do
 2 you have any Twitter account?
 3 A No.
 4 Q Have you ever Tweeted?
 5 A I've never Tweeted in my life.
 6 Q Have you ever accessed somebody's Twitter
 7 account to read other people's Tweets?
 8 A No, ma'am, I don't -- I don't read -- I
 9 don't read things in newspapers, I don't -- I don't
 10 -- I don't -- I don't know what Twitter or Tweeter
 11 is.
 12 Q Okay.
 13 A I'm --
 14 Q Do you have a Facebook account?
 15 A No.
 16 Q Do you have any other kind of -- other 17 than the Instagram, do you have any other kind of 18 social media account?
 19 A I mean, I have the ability to text and 20 send e-mails, and that's -- that's about as far as 21 I can get with a computer.
 22 Q Okay. So other than the conversation

654

1 that you told me -- or conversations you had with 2 Ms. Baum, Robin Baum, about how to deal with the 3 publicity after the obtaining of the temporary
 4 restraining order, did you speak with anyone about 5 how to -- how to handle in the press and in the 6 public this type of situation?
 7 MR. CHEW: Objection to the form of the
 8 question.
 9 MS. CHARLSON BREDEHOFT: You know, I
 10 asked it pretty terribly. I agree with you, so let 11 me ask --
 12 MR. CHEW: I didn't say it was terrible.
 13 I was just going to say it was ambiguous.
 14 MS. CHARLSON BREDEHOFT: It was nice of 15 you to use restraint on that one. I appreciate
 16 that, Ben.
 17 MR. CHEW: Thank you.
 18 BY MS. CHARLSON BREDEHOFT:
 19 Q I think we've established that Ms. Baum
 20 hasn't done anything for you by way of publicity
 21 since May 27, 2016, correct?
 22 A That's safe, yeah, to say.

655

1 Q Has anyone else done anything for you by
 2 way of publicity since May 27, 2016?
 3 A No, that's really the job of the 4 publicist. When -- yeah, when you're -- when 5 you're not particularly allowed in the door to 6 discuss that kind of thing and you know that the 7 person that you should be discussing it with has a
 8 bad case of the fear because of the situation,
 9 anything that I wanted to say I couldn't say so I
 10 didn't say for a very long time.
 11 I kept stum, as it were. I kept my mouth
 12 closed because I would rather -- it was my feeling
 13 that I would rather just continue to take the hits
 14 and then deal with them when I got -- when it got 15 to a point where you could deal with a lot, as 16 opposed to it becoming a he said she said. I was 17 not remotely interested in a he said she said or 18 any kind of contest about it. I wanted the truth
 19 out there, and my truth was not going to be heard
 20 by the mainstream media, so I went on tour, kept my 21 mouth shut and did that for quite a long time.
 22 Q And then you filed the lawsuit against

704 1 A No. 2 Q Did that stop at the same time in around 3 October 2018? 4 A Yes, right around the time that, yes, 5 everything went down with Mr. Bloom. 6 Q What was the reason that you stopped the 7 relationship with Marty Singer? 8 A Marty Singer's essentially Jake Bloom's 9 fix-it, henchman. 10 Q And I apologize. I said the wrong date. 11 I said October 2018. I meant October -- 12 A Oh. 13 Q -- 2016. 14 A '16, of course. Sorry. I missed that 15 too. Thank you though. 16 Q I had asked you a series of questions 17 earlier about Adam Waldman, but there were a couple 18 more that I needed to -- for the record, and I'm 19 anticipating -- wake up, Ben. 20 MR. CHEW: I'm awake. 21 MS. CHARLSON BREDEHOFT: I'm just teasing 22 you.	706 1 MR. CHEW: Same instruction not to 2 answer, attorney-client privilege. 3 BY MS. CHARLSON BREDEHOFT: 4 Q Okay. Did Adam Waldman act as your agent 5 or with your authority in communicating with the 6 press relating to this litigation and to the Sun 7 and Wootton litigation? 8 MR. CHEW: Instruct Mr. Depp not to 9 answer the question. 10 MS. CHARLSON BREDEHOFT: On the grounds 11 of attorney-client privilege again, right? 12 MR. CHEW: Yes. 13 MS. CHARLSON BREDEHOFT: I just want to 14 make sure. 15 MR. CHEW: I'm sorry, yeah, all of these 16 are attorney-client privilege. 17 THE WITNESS: And I'll of course follow 18 Ben's -- 19 MR. CHEW: Thank you. 20 MS. CHARLSON BREDEHOFT: The -- I think 21 we raised it off the record, and I just want to 22 make another on the record. My understanding was
705 1 MR. CHEW: I'm writing my summary. 2 BY MS. CHARLSON BREDEHOFT: 3 Q So I just want to ask you a few more 4 questions here with respect to Adam Waldman. So 5 was Adam Waldman acting as your agent or with your 6 authority in contacting potential witnesses in this 7 litigation? 8 MR. CHEW: I would -- I would first 9 object because it calls for a legal conclusion, and 10 then I would instruct Mr. Depp not to answer 11 because that would require disclosing 12 attorney-client privilege, so I would instruct you 13 not to answer, and he will, as he said earlier, 14 follow my instructions. 15 A Thank you. 16 Q I have like several here, and they're all 17 in a row. I just need to put them on the record. 18 A Yes, ma'am. 19 Q Did Adam Waldman act as your agent or 20 with your authority in drafting declarations for 21 potential witnesses that had the header from this 22 litigation?	707 1 that you were going to think more about 2 confidentiality of the settlements on the Mandel 3 suit and the Brooks -- not the Brooks. 4 MR. CHEW: Yes. 5 MS. CHARLSON BREDEHOFT: The Mandel suit 6 and the -- 7 MR. CHEW: Yeah, unfortunately -- 8 MS. CHARLSON BREDEHOFT: Jake -- 9 MR. CHEW: Unfortunately -- 10 MS. CHARLSON BREDEHOFT: -- Bloom. 11 MR. CHEW: They both have Draconian 12 confidentiality provisions. 13 MS. CHARLSON BREDEHOFT: And so you're 14 instructing him not to answer. 15 MR. CHEW: Yes, because doing so would 16 subject him and -- well, more importantly him, and 17 also me, but more importantly him, to Draconian 18 penalties. 19 MS. CHARLSON BREDEHOFT: Even though we 20 have a protective order. 21 MR. CHEW: Despite having a protective 22 order.

716 1 A -- on the phone with Amber Heard's -- 2 Q Okay. 3 A -- person that we introduced her to so 4 that she would understand what a postnup is. 5 That's it. 6 Q Do you -- did Adam Waldman act as your 7 agent or with your authority in any conduct 8 associated with computers that related to Amber 9 Heard? 10 MR. CHEW: I would instruct Mr. Depp not 11 to answer on the grounds of attorney-client 12 privilege. 13 BY MS. CHARLSON BREDEHOFT: 14 Q And you are following your counsel's 15 instructions, correct? 16 A Yes, I'm going to do that. Thank you 17 very much. 18 Q When did Amber Heard move into the 19 penthouse? 20 A I don't know exactly the date. 21 Q Do you remember the year? 22 A I feel like it's maybe 2014 maybe. I	718 1 wanted to do basically. 2 Q So timing wise, were you engaged at the 3 time that Amber Heard moved into the penthouse? 4 A I don't know if we were officially -- no, 5 we weren't officially engaged, no. 6 Q When did you get officially engaged? 7 A I don't know exactly, but it wasn't that 8 early. 9 Q When you said officially, is there some 10 distinction between engaged and officially engaged? 11 A Well, no, I think this just -- I don't 12 think if someone is my girlfriend, you know, if the 13 word "engaged" comes in, are you obligated to 14 change that to my fiancée? Then you get married 15 and you're obligated to change it to your wife? 16 Why these rules -- she's my girl, I'm her guy, and 17 I don't want to think about it -- about something 18 as abstract and as beautiful as love in official 19 kind of status and names. 20 Q You said yesterday I believe that you 21 believed that Elon Musk was behind Amber's 22 allegations of domestic violence and domestic
717 1 believe it's somewhere in 2014. Very difficult to 2 -- 3 Q Did you move in at the same time with 4 Amber to the penthouse? 5 A It was a penthouse that I'd bought years 6 before, so I had already taken residence there. It 7 was a place that I would go to and stay from time 8 to time. 9 Q Did you and Amber decorate it for her -- 10 in preparation for her moving in, redecorate? 11 A Well, sure, yes. 12 Q Okay, so do you remember approximately 13 when that was, when the redecoration took place? 14 A Well, I would say from the git-go, she 15 had -- she had free rein to choose where -- where 16 she wanted to be, where she wanted her things up. 17 Of course, all of that would have been done. In 18 fact, her -- her decision to use the master bedroom 19 and the guest bedroom in penthouse 5 as her shoe 20 closet and her clothing closet might have taken me 21 a little by surprise, but no, that was all 22 provided, and she had a choice of whatever she	719 1 abuse. Why do you believe that? 2 MR. CHEW: Objection to the form of the 3 question. I think that mischaracterizes his 4 testimony, but you may correct me. 5 A I don't know. I don't know that -- 6 exactly. What you're asking me is -- is far away 7 from what I stated. So there is perfect proof that 8 the transcript is all of our saving grace, so maybe 9 if you want to look back in the transcript and see 10 what I said -- 11 Q Well -- 12 A -- then that could help you. 13 Q Why don't you just tell me what you 14 think. Do you think Elon Musk has any -- has any 15 role in -- 16 A Any role? 17 Q In Amber Heard's decision to move forward 18 with the temporary restraining order against you 19 and -- 20 A I never said that once. 21 Q And domestic violence? 22 A Never said that once, ma'am.

988 1 partial, I don't know. If something ended up not 2 to your liking, I don't know. 3 Q Did Adam Waldman represent you as of 20 4 March 2020? 5 A I think -- I think we might be getting 6 into something that's attorney-client privilege, 7 and I -- didn't the judge also just recently find 8 that kind of an unpleasant thing for you to be -- 9 MR. CHEW: I would -- I would instruct the 10 witness not to answer any questions about any 11 communications between you and Adam Waldman, who 12 Ms. Bredehoff knows better than anybody is one of 13 your counsel. So, I instruct you not to answer 14 and we can move on. 15 Q Well -- well, we've got to move backwards. 16 A I'm invoking attorney-client privilege. 17 Q Mr. Depp, I'm going to ask you one more 18 time. Did you provide a partial audio recording 19 of the 26 March 2015 audio recording that you've 20 identified as paragraph -- in paragraph 7A of your 21 witness statement to The Daily Mail? Yes or no, 22 did you provide it to them?	990 1 Q Mr. Depp -- 2 MR. CHEW: (Indecipherable) he did not. 3 Q Mr. Depp, did you provide a partial of the 4 audio recording on 4 January 2016 that you 5 identified in paragraph 7B of your witness 6 statement to The Daily Mail? 7 MR. CHEW: Objection. It assumes facts 8 not in evidence, misstates his testimony, lack of 9 foundation, and contradicts the document, and 10 asked and answered. 11 Q What's your answer? 12 A I told you that's (indecipherable). 13 Q You need to answer the question. 14 MR. CHEW: You may answer the question 15 again if you understand. 16 A Did you -- did you -- maybe you were 17 working up a -- 18 Q Are you refusing to answer the question, 19 Mr. Depp? 20 MR. CHEW: No, he already answered the 21 question. 22 MS. BREDEHOFT: No, he didn't, Mr. Chew.
989 1 A My devices were given to my attorneys. 2 Q That's not the question I'm asking you. 3 Did you give a partial of the audio recording to 4 The Daily Mail? 5 A Did I personally give an audio recording 6 to anyone? No. 7 Q Do you know who did? 8 MR. CHEW: No, I'm going to instruct you 9 not to answer that question. You've already -- 10 you've already answered the one question she asked 11 that she was entitled to ask. You said you didn't 12 do it. Let's move on. 13 A I think she said -- she's getting -- she's 14 getting into territory where the judge has 15 already -- I think the judge has made an order 16 about -- 17 Q Mr. Depp, did you provide -- 18 A I'm sorry. I was just talking. 19 Q But you weren't answering the question. 20 Mr. Depp -- 21 A You think that I answered your question 22 wrong --	991 1 He answered the one that's 7A, not 7B. 2 THE WITNESS: Austin, I know you're the 3 gentleman -- Vicky, Ms. Wilson, is it possible, 4 are you able to read back -- 5 Q No, you don't get to ask that question. 6 A I'm not asking you, ma'am. 7 Q Have you made any effort at all to try to 8 locate the full recordings that you've identified 9 here in paragraph 7A and B of your witness 10 statement? 11 MR. CHEW: Objection. Asked and answered. 12 Lack of foundation. Argumentative. Misstates the 13 document. He said what he did with his devices 14 three or four times. 15 MS. BREDEHOFT: That's not what I'm 16 asking. 17 Q Have you made any effort at all to find 18 out where the full recordings are of the audio 19 recording from 26 March 2015 and the audio 20 recording from 4 January 2016? 21 MR. CHEW: Objection. Argumentative. 22 Lack of foundation. Assumes facts not in

992	1 evidence. Assuming partial recordings. 2 A I just looked at a piece of paper that you 3 showed me with these file names on them. You even 4 yourself skipped through the file names because 5 it's a bunch of numbers. You're saying one is 6 partial. Did I make it partial or did I give it? 7 I don't know what these are. 8 So, I don't -- I cannot tell you 9 1,000 percent what these things are, so I cannot 10 answer your questions in any way that's going to 11 please you and make you jump for joy. I can only 12 tell you, as I did say -- 13 Q But the answer is no. The answer is no, 14 you have not made any effort -- 15 MR. CHEW: Ms. Bredehopt, please let -- 16 please let him finish. You say -- 17 MS. BREDEHOFT: He's not answering the 18 question. He's being -- 19 MR. CHEW: He was trying. He was trying 20 to answer your question. 21 MS. BREDEHOFT: He's not trying. 22 All right. Let's go. Take this one out,	994	1 something. What are you looking at? 2 A It's a drawing. 3 Q All right. Other than your attorneys, did 4 you have any communications with anyone about the 5 op-ed between December 18, 2018, and March 1, 6 2019, when you filed this lawsuit? I'm asking for 7 anyone other than your attorneys. 8 A I don't recall. 9 Q Okay. Now, between the time of the op-ed 10 being published on December 18, 2018, and March 1, 11 2019, when you filed the lawsuit, did you lose any 12 roles or career opportunities? 13 A Yes -- 14 Q What? 15 A -- I did. Well, I had a decent -- a 16 decent run with Disney for a while there on a 17 series of films called Pirates of the Caribbean 18 that I was removed from after the op-ed was 19 released. 20 Q Has there been a Pirates of the Caribbean 21 6? 22 A Not just yet. I think they're trying to
993	1 Austin. 2 MR. CHEW: Now you're just being nasty, 3 and if you continue -- 4 MS. BREDEHOFT: I'm not being nasty. 5 You're intentionally trying to drag this out so 6 that I don't get to ask the questions, and you 7 know it. 8 MR. CHEW: You're projecting your value or 9 lack thereof onto me. 10 BY MS. BREDEHOFT: 11 Q All right. Let's talk about the op-ed, 12 all right, that Amber Heard published in The 13 Washington Post. Do you recall that? 14 A When the article was published in the 15 Washington Post was December 18th, 2000 -- 16 December something 2018, was it? 17 Q I'm asking -- okay. Let's just go to the 18 next question. Yes, that's correct. Okay. Other 19 than -- 20 A That's good. My memory worked. That's 21 great. 22 Q So, other than -- you're looking down at	995	1 figure out exactly how to do it. 2 Q Has anyone spoken with you from Disney 3 about any role that you may have in Pirates 6? 4 A No. 5 Q Now, after the U.K. judgment, you were 6 asked to resign from Fantastic Beast 3, and you 7 testified about that earlier, and I'm not going to 8 go through all of that again. What has your 9 career been like since you were asked to leave the 10 Fantastic Beast 3 and the U.K. judgment was 11 released? 12 MR. CHEW: Objection. Ambiguous. Vague. 13 A The only way that I can explain it is -- 14 well, it's very simple. Everybody is told, "Turn 15 off. Flick that light. There's no -- he doesn't 16 exist no more. Out," you know. Basically, it -- 17 yes, it's been -- I've been -- yeah, it was kind 18 of -- I'm a leper in Hollywood. 19 Q Okay. Have you had any roles? Have you 20 received any roles since the U.K. judgment came 21 out in November 2 of 2021? 22 A From --

Conducted on December 14, 2021

996 1 Q Sorry. 2 A From -- from Hollywood? 3 Q Yes, anyone, anywhere. 4 A Not from Hollywood, no. I have a 5 production company, and we've developed a number 6 of projects, one of which, Minamata, we did -- 7 shot a film and it was released, although had -- 8 back from MGM because they wouldn't release it 9 because of the situation with my name being linked 10 to leper colonies. 11 Q And this is after the U.K. judgment. 12 A Yes, it is. It is after the U.K. 13 judgment. 14 Q All right. I'm going to jump to Tokyo for 15 a moment. 16 A Boy, that's hard. 17 Q Do you recall -- do you recall going to 18 Tokyo in January of 2015 with Amber Heard? 19 A Oh, yes. 20 Q Okay. Do you recall what the movie was 21 that you were going to for the premier? 22 A Tokyo. No, ma'am, I don't. I don't.	998 1 Q All right. Do you recall where you stayed 2 in Tokyo? 3 A I -- I have a feeling that it was the Park 4 Hyatt, I believe. 5 Q And did the children stay in the same room 6 with you? 7 A The children stayed in -- we had adjoining 8 rooms, but it was sort of like a -- it was like a 9 nightly sleepover. You know, there was -- 10 everyone would gather in the living room, couches 11 and chairs, and sleep on floors and pillows and 12 things like that. 13 Q And that was true of Brittany and Steven 14 Deuters, as well? 15 A No, Steven keeps to himself. Brittany 16 Eustice is -- was a very close friend of -- of 17 Ms. Heard's and -- and she was -- she was very 18 good with kids. My kids liked her, Brittany. 19 Q Okay. 20 A I can't remember if there was anyone -- 21 there might have been. I don't remember if her 22 sister, Ms. Enriques was there or not.
997 1 It's a -- there's a lot -- I've been to Tokyo a 2 number of times for premieres. I can't remember 3 which -- 4 Q Do you recall whether your children -- 5 A Yes, my children -- 6 Q -- with you on that trip? 7 A Yes, they were with us, yes. 8 Q Was there anyone else besides Amber Heard, 9 your children, and you that went on that trip to 10 Tokyo in 2015? 11 A Yes, there was her friend Brittany 12 Eustice. 13 Q Okay. Anyone else? 14 A I believe one of the -- one or two of the 15 guys from my camp, maybe Steven Deuters, or one of 16 security, maybe. I can't remember. Maybe it was 17 Jerry Jost. I don't -- I don't remember. 18 Q Did anyone else accompany the children? 19 A The children were with -- no, pretty 20 much -- so, I don't -- no, we didn't bring a nanny 21 there. They were older -- they were old enough to 22 not have a nanny.	999 1 MS. BREDEHOFT: 2 Q Okay. Austin, can you bring up 3 Exhibit 51, please? 4 REMOTE TECH: Stand by. 5 (Depp Exhibit 51, previously marked, is 6 attached to the transcript.) 7 Q Mr. Depp, I'm going to ask you to look -- 8 (take a look at what has been marked as Depp 9 Exhibit Number 51. It's page 12 of Amber Heard's 10 counterclaim. And, in particular, I'm just going 11 to ask you, and this is my last series of 12 questions and then I'm done, but I'm going to ask 13 you to take a look at paragraphs 45, 46, and 47 14 for a moment. And let me make that a little bit 15 larger. 16 A Oh, that's good. Yeah. 17 Q Oops, Oops. I'll scroll down so you can 18 see it. Okay. Do you see -- let me know when 19 you're done. 20 A Yes, I'm -- I've finished. 21 Are you finished? 22 Q Was -- was Adam Waldman acting as your

1 attorney when these statements were made?
 2 MR. CHEW: Mr. Depp, I'm instructing you
 3 not to answer that question based on
 4 attorney-client privilege.
 5 Q Did Adam Waldman have the authority to
 6 speak on your behalf in making these statements
 7 that are reflected in paragraphs 45 through 47 of
 8 the counterclaim?
 9 MR. CHEW: Mr. Depp, I'm instructing you
 10 not to answer that question based on the
 11 attorney-client privilege.
 12 Q Did you authorize Adam Waldman to make
 13 these statements that are reflected in paragraphs
 14 45, 46, and 47 of the counterclaim?
 15 MR. CHEW: I respectfully instruct you not
 16 to answer that question based on attorney-client
 17 privilege.
 18 Q Have you at any time -- I'm sorry.
 19 Have you at any time -- I'm assuming
 20 you're taking your -- your attorney's advice and 21 that's why I'm not making you say more. Fair
 22 enough?

1001

1 A Yes.
 2 Q Do you -- have you ever retracted these
 3 statements reflected in paragraphs 45, 46, and 47?
 4 MR. CHEW: Assumes facts not in evidence.
 5 He didn't make the statements.
 6 Q Do you remember the question?
 7 A Yes, I remember the question.
 8 Q Have you at any time retracted these or
 9 said these were false?
 10 MR. CHEW: Objection to the form of the 11 question. Compound.
 12 And I would instruct you not to answer the 13 question to the extent it would require you to 14 disclose attorney-client privilege. So, I'm going
 15 to instruct you not to answer. So, I instruct you
 16 not to answer.
 17 MS. BREDEHOFT: Okay. And, Ben, just so
 18 we're clear on the record, when you instruct him
 19 not to answer, we're assuming he's accepting your
 20 instruction correct? So, I don't have to say,
 21 "Are you following your attorney's advice's right?"
 22 MR. CHEW: Correct.

1 A True. Yes, I said it before but you
 2 started early, so I just went with it.
 3 Q Okay. Is Adam -- have you ever asked Adam
 4 Waldman to retract these statements that are
 5 reflected in paragraphs 35, 36, and 37?
 6 MR. CHEW: I would instruct you not to
 7 answer the question based on attorney-client
 8 privilege.
 9 Q Is Adam Waldman still your attorney and
 10 agent?
 11 MR. CHEW: Objection to the form of the 12 question. It's compound and calls for a legal
 13 conclusion.
 14 A Is Adam Waldman still my -- is still legal 15 counsel for me?
 16 Q Yes.
 17 A Yes.
 18 Q Okay. And that has not changed at any 19 point between April 8, 2020, and the present is 20 that correct?
 21 A No, ma'am.
 22 MS. BREDEHOFT: Okay. I think that I

1003

1 might be out of time.
 2 John, what is the running time here? I'm
 3 trying to respect my time here.
 4 MR. CHEW: There's no rule requiring you
 5 to fill out the time.
 6 MS. BREDEHOFT: Yeah, I know, but I'm also
 7 going to respect if I only have three-and-a-half,
 8 I think I've hit that. If I didn't, though, I
 9 have more questions. That's why I'm asking John.
 10 John, would it be better if we go off the
 11 record and then check that and then we'll see?
 12 MR. CHEW: I think we should stay on the
 13 record.
 14 MS. BREDEHOFT: Oh, okay. I thought he
 15 said last time he had to go off in order to
 16 calculate.
 17 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Yeah, to get an
 18 accurate precise calculation, I'd have to go off
 19 the record to stop the recording.
 20 MS. BREDEHOFT: All right. Let's do that
 21 real quick and check because I do think I'm out
 22 and I don't want to --

137 1 MR. PRESIADO: Also assumes facts not in 2 evidence. 3 BY MS. PINTADO: 4 Q You can go ahead, Ms. Baum. 5 A Are you wanting me to answer that 6 question? 7 Q Yes. 8 A I have no -- I mean, I -- probably a 9 combination. 10 Q Okay. And did you do anything to verify 11 statements of Adam Waldman when you received them? 12 A No. Adam Waldman gave me statements and 13 told me to send them from him so they say they're 14 from him. 15 Q And when did you start -- when did Adam 16 Waldman start participating in the publicity of 17 Mr. Depp? 18 MR. PRESIADO: Objection; misstates 19 testimony, assumes facts not in evidence, vague 20 and ambiguous. 21 MS. HOUCK: Calls for speculation. 22 MR. PRESIADO: Join.	139 1 MS. PINTADO: And I would once again note 2 that there is no privilege that can be applied to 3 those communications. Ms. Baum is not an attorney 4 and is a third party. 5 So please go ahead and answer unless 6 you're directed not to, in which case we might 7 have to come back for another day. 8 MR. PRESIADO: And I don't agree with 9 that. But our position is on the record. 10 MS. HOUCK: Right. There is a dispute, 11 obviously, but we will respect the privilege 12 that's being held by Mr. Depp. 13 So can we have the question again. 14 THE REPORTER: Do you want me to read it 15 back? 16 MS. PINTADO: Yes, please. 17 THE REPORTER: Stand by. What was the 18 person's name? Wald-? 19 MS. PINTADO: Waldman. 20 (The court reporter read the pertinent 21 part of the record.) 22 MR. PRESIADO: Same objections.
138 1 THE WITNESS: I don't know. I don't know 2 exactly. I couldn't give you a date or a year. 3 BY MS. PINTADO: 4 Q What was Mr. Waldman's role in publicity 5 for Mr. Depp? 6 MR. PRESIADO: Objection; calls for 7 speculation, assumes facts not in evidence, lacks 8 foundation. 9 And, Ms. Baum, I would caution you in 10 course -- of course, in con- -- in consult with 11 your attorney, I would caution you not to divulge 12 any communications you've had with Mr. Waldman, 13 him being an attorney for Mr. Depp and you being 14 an agent of Mr. Depp. 15 MS. HOUCK: I concur. 16 MR. PRESIADO: So if the question is posed 17 and you can't -- and you believe you can't 18 answer -- answer without divulging such 19 communications, of course your attorney would have 20 to instruct you not to answer. But as the 21 attorney for Mr. Depp who holds the privilege, I 22 would ask you not answer.	140 1 MS. PINTADO: And -- yeah. I understand 2 that those are standing objections. We don't need 3 to state them every time. 4 THE WITNESS: Well, I could just say that 5 Adam Waldman was Johnny -- or was the -- Johnny's 6 attorney and provided me with statements. 7 BY MS. PINTADO: 8 Q Would you say he had an active role in 9 publicity for Mr. Depp? 10 MR. PRESIADO: Objection -- 11 MS. HOUCK: Objection. 12 MR. PRESIADO: -- calls for speculation, 13 lacks foundation, assumes facts not in evidence, 14 vague and ambiguous. 15 MS. HOUCK: Join. 16 MR. PRESIADO: Also to the extent it calls 17 for a legal conclusion. 18 BY MS. PINTADO: 19 Q Ms. Baum, you can answer. 20 A I'm still confused. Am I supposed to 21 answer or not supposed to answer? 22 MS. HOUCK: Yes, you can answer. Unless I

145 1 Mr. Depp's counsel. So if you could limit your 2 answer, if you have one, to communications where 3 Mr. Waldman was not involved. 4 MS. HOUCK: I agree. 5 THE WITNESS: You're saying I should 6 limit -- repeat that last thing you said to me. 7 MR. PRESIADO: Sure. So she's asking you 8 about communications between you and Mr. Depp. 9 THE WITNESS: Yeah. 10 MR. PRESIADO: But if you had those 11 communications with Mr. Waldman present, then 12 they're privileged and I would ask you not to 13 answer that. 14 But if it's just between you and 15 Mr. Depp -- if, in fact, those conversations were 16 ever had -- please limit your answer to those 17 conversations that did not include Mr. Waldman. 18 THE WITNESS: Okay. 19 I did not have conversations with 20 Mr. Depp. 21 BY MS. PINTADO: 22 Q Did you ever disagree with any of the	147 1 object to any of the statements? 2 MR. PRESIADO: Objection; vague and 3 ambiguous, assumes facts not in evidence. 4 MS. HOUCK: And compound to the extent 5 that it's multiple statements. I don't know which 6 ones you're talking about. 7 THE WITNESS: I -- I -- sorry. The words 8 just flew out of my head. 9 BY MS. PINTADO: 10 Q Let -- 11 A I did -- I trusted Mr. Adam's direction -- 12 Mr. Waldman's direction. 13 Q Were you asked by Mr. Depp to publish 14 statements that Mr. Waldman gave to you? 15 MR. PRESIADO: Again, Ms. Baum, I caution 16 you to not reveal any communications that 17 Mr. Waldman was present or party to even though 18 she's just asking you about you and Mr. Depp. 19 THE WITNESS: I did not speak to Mr. Depp. 20 Q Okay. And did you speak with Mr. Waldman 21 about any of the statements that he was asking you 22 to send to the press?
146 1 statements that you were putting out from 2 Mr. Waldman? 3 MR. PRESIADO: And, again, Ms. Baum, if 4 that was a communication between you and 5 Mr. Waldman, I would -- 6 MS. PINTADO: I'm not -- 7 MR. PRESIADO: -- ask that you not answer 8 that. 9 MS. PINTADO: I'm not referring to 10 communications, for now, with Mr. Waldman -- 11 MR. PRESIADO: That's not -- 12 MS. PINTADO: -- although I object to 13 that. 14 MR. PRESIADO: Then you need to clarify 15 your question. 16 BY MS. PINTADO: 17 Q Ms. Baum, did you understand the question? 18 A I think you're asking me if I ever 19 objected to the statements. Are you asking me if 20 I objected to the statements or objected them -- 21 to Adam Waldman? 22 Q Not -- not to Adam Waldman. Just, did you	148 1 MR. PRESIADO: Objection; calls for 2 attorney-client communications. 3 And I would ask that you not answer that 4 question on -- since Mr. Depp asserts the 5 privilege as to that question. 6 MS. HOUCK: Join in the objection. 7 And I'll instruct you not to answer that, 8 Ms. Baum. 9 THE WITNESS: Okay. 10 MS. PINTADO: All right. Let's look at 11 27. 12 (Exhibit 18, Chain of e-mails dated 13 12/18/14, Bates Nos. BAUM0000404 through 14 BAUM0000409, was marked for identification and is 15 attached to the transcript.) 16 AV TECHNICIAN: Exhibit 18. 17 BY MS. PINTADO: 18 Q And this is BAUM 404 -- well, it starts as 19 that. It's a six-page document. 20 A A six-page. Okay. 21 Q And on this first page -- if you could -- 22 if you could just read the first page for me

149	1 and -- or skim the document, and then let me know 2 if you understand -- or, sorry, recognize this 3 document. 4 A I can't move it down. 5 Q I'll do it for you. 6 A Thank you. 7 Q Ms. Baum, what is this document? 8 A Well, it's -- it's a letter from somebody 9 who works from -- at the National -- National 10 Enquirer, asking for comment. 11 Q And they're asking for a comment about a 12 story that Depp has turned his place into a "rehab 13 retreat"; isn't that right? 14 A Yeah, that's what it -- 15 MR. PRESIADO: Objection; the document 16 speaks for itself. 17 THE WITNESS: Yeah, that's what the 18 document says. 19 Q And this is December 18, 2014, correct? 20 A Correct. 21 Q And scrolling back up, Ms. Gonzalez at the 22 National Enquirer sends you an additional -- an	151	1 Q So at this time, at least, in December of 2 2014, you were working as a partner with 3 Ms. Dembrowski? 4 MS. HOUCK: Objection; lacks foundation, 5 assumes facts -- 6 MR. PRESIADO: Also misstates testimony. 7 Q You can answer, Ms. Baum. 8 A I -- yeah, I mean, I -- I -- yes, I worked 9 with Christi. 10 Q Okay. 11 THE WITNESS: Can I -- excuse me. Can I 12 pause for one second? It's just that the sun has 13 changed and it's very bright and I'm having a hard 14 time seeing, so... 15 Okay. Thank you. 16 MS. PINTADO: Okay. 17 Let's pull up 28. 18 (Exhibit 19, Chain of e-mails dated 19 3/11/15 and 3/12/15 with attachments, Bates Nos. 20 BAUM0000661 through BAUM0000683, was marked for 21 identification and is attached to the transcript.) 22 AV TECHNICIAN: Exhibit 19.
150	1 addition to the comment request sent earlier. 2 And you forward this e-mail -- these 3 e-mails from Ms. Gonzalez to Christi Dembrowski, 4 correct? 5 A Yeah, that's what it looks like. 6 Q Did you not want to respond to this press 7 inquiry? 8 A Well, I don't -- I don't recall whether I 9 did or I did not, but I don't make a habit of 10 responding on any of my clients' behalf to the 11 National Enquirer. 12 Q Was it true that Depp was in rehab? 13 MR. PRESIADO: Objection; calls for -- 14 lacks foundation, calls for speculation. 15 THE WITNESS: I don't know. 16 Q And why did you forward it to 17 Ms. Dembrowski? 18 A At the time, I included her in everything. 19 Q Why is that? 20 A Well, she was -- she was my partner who I, 21 you know, worked on -- for years on Johnny's 22 behalf.	152	1 BY MS. PINTADO: 2 Q Okay. And I will scroll through it. It's 3 23 pages. 4 A Sorry. 5 Q Are you -- let me know when I'm -- I can 6 scroll. 7 A You can scroll. 8 Q I'm going to go back up to the top of this 9 document. If you need to review any other parts 10 of it, let me know. 11 A Okay. 12 Q Do you recognize this document? 13 A Yes. 14 Q What is it? 15 A It was a document that the unit publicist 16 on the film had -- an e-mail that the unit 17 publicist from the film had sent to me. 18 Q So Michael Singer is the publicist on the 19 film? 20 A Yes. 65 1 Q What do you recall discussing with Adam 2 Waldman? 3 MS. VASQUEZ: I'm going to object here. 4 Calls for hearsay. And to the extent, 5 Mr. Whigham, you discussed anything covered by the 6 attorney-client privilege, and since Mr. Depp is 7 the holder of that privilege and Mr. Waldman is 8 Mr. Depp's attorney, I'm going to instruct you not 9 to answer. 10 MR. DERIN: Is that instruction that any 11 conversation that Mr. Whigham had with Mr. Waldman 12 you're instructing him not to answer anything 13 about that conversation? 14 MS. VASQUEZ: To the extent that you would 15 have to divulge information or parts of that 16 conversation that would be covered by the 17 attorney-client privilege, yes, I'm instructing 18 you not to answer. We can go question by 19 question, but the question, the way I heard it, I 20 could have it read back, was quite broad. 21 Q What do you recall discussing with 22 Mr. Waldman relating to the --	67 1 (Requested portion read back.) 2 MS. VASQUEZ: Okay. To the last question, 3 what do you recall discussing with Adam Waldman, 4 I'm going to object that it's overbroad. And I 5 will just -- as an instruction, to the extent that 6 your answer, Mr. Whigham, involves discussions 7 with Mr. Waldman relating to the Jake Bloom 8 lawsuit or any litigation of Mr. Depp's, I will 9 instruct you not to answer. 10 MR. DERIN: Elaine, if you want to perhaps 11 kind of parse it out, that's fine, but otherwise, 12 I think there's an instruction. 13 MS. BREDEHOFT: Right. There's an 14 instruction, if I'm hearing this, that she's 15 asserting the attorney-client privilege over a 16 third party in any discussion that they had with 17 Mr. Waldman on the basis of Mr. Depp's 18 attorney-client privilege. 19 Q Mr. Whigham, were you present with 20 Mr. Depp in any of your conversations with 21 Mr. Waldman? 22 A No.
66 1 A Yeah, it -- it was very brief. It was 2 mostly just, I think -- 3 MR. DERIN: Well, hang on for a second, 4 Jack. You know, if you're going to get into the 5 substance of it -- Ms. Vasquez, I don't know 6 whether you want him to tell -- to have a -- to 7 describe generically what the subject was, but you 8 can't expect the witness to make a decision about 9 whether it's covered by the attorney-client 10 privilege. So you're going to have to instruct 11 him whether the conversation is covered by the 12 privilege and you instruct him not to answer or 13 have him describe the general subject matter 14 whether it's about the litigation or about 15 something else, but it's not for him to determine, 16 it's for you to instruct. 17 MS. VASQUEZ: I understand Mr. Derin. 18 Mr. Whigham, I apologize. I think the way the 19 question is phrased -- Paul, do you mind reading 20 back the question? I believe it's relating to the 21 lawsuit. Paul, do you mind reading back the 22 question?	68 1 MR. DERIN: Objection; vague and 2 ambiguous. You can answer. 3 Q Were you present with Mr. Depp when you 4 had the discussion with Mr. Waldman about the Jake 5 Bloom litigation? 6 A No. 7 Q How many conversations did you have with 8 Mr. Waldman regarding the Jake Bloom litigation? 9 A To my -- the best of my recollection, 10 mainly one. 11 Q And what do you recall of your discussion 12 with Adam Waldman relating to the Bloom 13 litigation? 14 MS. VASQUEZ: Mr. Whigham, I'm going to 15 instruct you not to answer on the basis of the 16 attorney-client privilege. You were representing 17 Mr. Depp as an agent and Mr. Waldman is Mr. Depp's 18 attorney. So I will instruct you not to answer 19 Ms. Bredehofs's question on that basis. 20 Q And are you following that advice? I just 21 need that on the record that you're following the 22 advice. I don't agree with the invoking of the

69 1 attorney-client privilege, but I need to put on 2 the record that you are following that advice and 3 not responding to the question; is that correct? 4 And Mr. Derin, feel free to jump in. I'm okay -- 5 MR. DERIN: Yeah, based on Mr. Depp's -- 6 the assertion of Mr. Depp's privilege, 7 Mr. Whigham, I think you're bound to honor that 8 assertion of privilege because he's the holder of 9 privilege. So on that basis, I'll instruct you 10 not to answer because I think you have no choice. 11 Q And just for the record, then you are 12 following your counsel's advice not to answer; 13 correct? 14 A Yes. 15 MS. BREDEHOFT: Okay. Alex, can you pull 16 up Whigham 4, please. 17 Q Now, Mr. Whigham, you received a subpoena 18 duces tecum, a subpoena for documents in this 19 case, do you recall that? 20 A I don't, but seeing this reminds me. 21 Q Okay. Let me just go down so we can -- 22 because this will make it easier as we go through	71 1 little further here on this document so you can 2 see the whole trail. It starts June 22nd, 2017. 3 Robin Baum, sharing in case you didn't see. And 4 then Christi Dembrowski, haven't had a chance to 5 look, but will. Who is Christi Dembrowski? 6 A She's Johnny sister. 7 Q How frequently did you work with Christi 8 Dembrowski in connection with your representation 9 of Mr. Depp? 10 MS. VASQUEZ: Objection; assumes facts not 11 in evidence; it's vague and ambiguous as to "work 12 with." 13 A I -- I was in touch with Christi fairly 14 often. 15 Q And what -- for what reasons, just give me 16 an example? 17 A She was -- she was just very involved in 18 Johnny's life and helpful a lot with scheduling 19 and details and stuff like that. 20 Q Okay. You -- did you have an 21 understanding that she worked in a management role 22 for Mr. Depp?
70 1 other documents. It's labeled JW and then some 2 zeros and 145, 146, 147 here. The document 3 production that was given on your behalf has JW 4 and then numbers one through -- and I can't 5 remember what the last one was, but it's roughly 6 150. Does that help refresh your recollection? 7 A Yes, ma'am. Yes. 8 Q Okay. And did you -- once you received 9 the subpoena, then did you go in and try to find 10 the documents that were responsive to the request? 11 A Yes. 12 Q Okay. 13 A We work with internal lawyers to make sure 14 we complied fully. 15 (WHIGHAM Deposition Exhibit 4 marked for 16 identification and attached to the transcript.) 17 Q Okay. Great. And so I'm going to show 18 you this particular document that's been marked as 19 Whigham No. 4. And it has at the top, Re Johnny 20 Depp slams Donald Trump at Glastonbury and asks, 21 when was the last time an actor assassinated a 22 President? But I'm going to take you down a	72 1 MS. VASQUEZ: Objection; calls for 2 speculation; lack of foundation; assumes facts not 3 in evidence; vague and ambiguous. 4 A Not management per se, just kind of, you 5 know, helpful. She obviously was his sister and 6 knew everyone in his life and was able to help 7 with a lot of logistics. 8 Q Okay. Thank you. I'm going to go up a 9 little further. And then there is -- this one is 10 again from Robin Baum June 22nd, it has been 11 picked up everywhere and could continue past this 12 first round of stories. I haven't seen a tweet 13 from DT yet in response. And then this particular 14 -- on top of this story, one we have this one too, 15 Twitter is active. And it says, Johnny Depp 16 management knew about Amber Heard abuse, do you 17 see that? 18 A I do. 19 Q Do you believe that this press relating to 20 Johnny Depp's management knowing about Amber Heard 21 abuse negatively impacted Mr. Depp's personal or 22 professional reputation or career?

Subject: RE: Depp v. Heard- Supplemental Expert Disclosure & Deposition of Mr. Neumeister

Stephanie,

Your email is disappointing for a number of reasons, and does not even answer the one critical inquiry. First, as you know Mr. Depp already unsuccessfully tried to argue that Ms. Heard failed to timely comply with the relevant Order. As fully briefed and argued by Ms. Heard, it was Mr. Depp's counsel who repeatedly ignored Ms. Heard's communications (which Mr. Depp's counsel continues to do on this very email chain) to get her devices imaged per that Court Order. Followed by Mr. Depp's Expert ignoring communications and attempts to schedule the imaging, while complaining how busy he was and only being available during very limited times on specific dates which were accommodated. Mr. Depp's Expert then demanded the use of specific hardware by Mr. Young, but simultaneously refused to provide such hardware for Craig Young's use. The Court then agreed by denying Mr. Depp's Motion on this exact issue on March 4, which I argued. Perhaps this is why your email refers to when Mr. Depp received photographs, because you know and the Court agreed none of this can be blamed on Ms. Heard.

Second, this is the first I am hearing of any "technical glitches," but this is due to choices made by Mr. Depp. At that same March 4 hearing, based on Mr. Depp's demands the Court changed the data exchange process to Craig Young himself making two copies of his reviewed data onto two USBs, and sending those to each party's expert. Previously, Ms. Heard's expert received the data and then within 24 hours sent an exact duplicate to Mr. Depp's expert, and the process was seamless. So once again, this new delay was due to choices and demands made by Mr. Depp, and your implication that this was an error tied to Ms. Heard is again misplaced projection.

Third, you indisputably represented below that Mr. Neumeister would identify a date certain to produce a Supplemental Expert Report by March 18, and then failed to do so. Trial begins in less than 3 weeks, and Mr. Depp's position that he "hopes to" have a date certain is not workable at this late stage. Following Mr. Neumeister's production, Mr. Ackert will need time to prepare his Opposition Report, and we will need time to review both before deposing each expert. We are running out of time.

Therefore, please either confirm or deny by 5 PM today that Mr. Neumeister will: 1) Produce a full and complete Supplemental Expert Disclosure by 5 PM on Thursday, March 31; and 2) Mr. Neumeister will appear for deposition by Zoom at 10 AM Eastern on either April 5 or April 6 for up to 7 hours. If Mr. Depp does not timely respond or refuses to respond with a clear position on these two requests, Ms. Heard will proceed accordingly.

Thank you,

David E. Murphy

David,

As you know, we are still receiving a large volume of photographs, all of which were substantially delayed as a result of Ms. Heard's failure to timely comply with the relevant Order (the first tranche of photos not being received until March 2, several months late and on the eve of trial). Mr. Neumeister is now receiving many thousands of photographs – 58,000 and counting – many of which are outside the scope of the Court's Order, and is not yet in a position to provide a report. Setting aside the delays, there also seem to be some technical glitches. This past Saturday, Mr. Neumeister received a drive that had zero images on it. Moreover, several iTunes backups have still not even been processed.

We hope to have a date certain by which a supplemental report will be provided. We are amenable to continuing Mr. Ackert by mutual agreement beyond the expert cutoff, and will therefore plan not to proceed on Wednesday. However, we reject any suggestion that you are entitled to require that Mr. Neumeister be deposed before Mr. Ackert.

Best,
Stephanie

CAUTION: External E-mail. Use caution accessing links or attachments.

Stephanie,

I am following up on these matters once again. With Mr. Ackert's pending deposition and trial quickly approaching, Mr. Depp ignoring these issues and refusing to respond is inappropriate and highly prejudicial to Ms. Heard. Especially when Mr. Depp committed to identifying by March 18 the date when Mr. Neumeister will produce a Supplemental Expert Disclosure, then failed to do so.

Please identify Mr. Depp's position on these matters ASAP.

Thank you,

David E. Murphy

Stephanie,

As the below emails reflect, Mr. Depp committed to identifying a date certain for the production of a full and complete Supplemental Expert Disclosure from Mr. Neumeister by yesterday. But we received no further response from Mr. Depp. Please respond by providing this agreed information by Sunday, March 20.

Subject: RE: Depp v. Heard- Supplemental Expert Disclosure & Deposition of Mr. Neumeister

Stephanie,

Thank you for your response. This email confirms the parties' agreement that tomorrow's noticed deposition of Mr. Neumeister is being continued, and we will serve an Amended Notice once we have a new date for his deposition following the date he will serve the Supplemental Expert Disclosure. We also think it makes sense to continue the deposition of Mr. Ackert for the same reasons, but defer to Mr. Depp.

We look forward to receiving a date certain when Mr. Neumeister will serve a Supplemental Expert Disclosure by COB tomorrow, followed by providing Mr. Neumeister's available dates for deposition.

Thank you for working with us on this issue.

Subject: Depp v. Heard- Supplemental Expert Disclosure & Deposition of Mr. Neumeister

Ben et al.,

We are writing regarding the status of Bryan Neumeister producing a Supplemental Expert Disclosure. Please identify a date certain when Mr. Depp will agree to produce a Supplemental and complete Expert Disclosure for Mr. Neumeister. As you know, Ms. Heard is entitled to a full and complete disclosure of Mr. Neumeister's opinions in advance of both deposition and trial.

Additionally, as you also know Mr. Neumeister's deposition is currently noticed for March 18. But since Mr. Neumeister has not produced any Supplemental Expert Disclosure, it does not make sense to proceed on March 18 as Ms. Heard will have no choice but to hold the deposition open and bring Mr. Neumeister back for further testimony following receipt of his Supplement and sufficient time to review it. Therefore, in an attempt to resolve this issue, Ms. Heard proposes that both parties stipulate and agree to re-schedule the deposition of Mr. Neumeister either the week of March 28-April 1 or April 4-8, depending on the date certain when Mr. Neumeister is committing to produce his Supplement.

Please respond by 12 PM tomorrow with: 1) A date certain when Mr. Neumeister will disclose all opinions through a Supplement; 2) Mr. Depp's position on Ms. Heard's request to re-schedule by agreement Mr. Neumeister's deposition for March 28-April 1 or April 4-8; and 3) If Mr. Depp is agreeing, Mr. Neumeister's available dates for deposition during that time-frame. If Mr. Depp refuses or does not respond, Ms. Heard is prepared to proceed with the deposition as noticed for March 18, and reserves all rights to hold the deposition open to fully examine Mr. Neumeister on all opinions disclosed after March 18 and/or to move to strike later-asserted opinions, along with seeking fees and costs for having to re-depose Mr. Neumeister.

Thank you for your consideration,

David E. Murphy

1 Second category of documents relating to
2 the other litigation in which Mr. Depp has been 3 involved, as Your Honor has seen, these requests are 4 hopelessly broad and unduly burdensome. Even with 5 Ms. Bredehoft's reported limitations, she still
6 seeks all witness interactions, Mr. Depp's
7 explanations, Mr. Depp's perceptions, any and all
8 photographs, et cetera.

9 Having been involved in all of those 10 cases, Your Honor, I can say that none of those 11 cases has anything to do with Ms. Heard or alleged 12 abuse by Ms. Heard or any other woman, because the 13 only other woman in Mr. Depp's 57 years who ever
14 accused him of abuse was Ms. Heard.

15 The Bloom case involved Mr. Depp's former 16 lawyer, who illegally took 5 percent of his income
17 from a period between 1999 and April 2017. Judge
18 Green in Los Angeles declared that the alleged oral 19 contract was violative of Sections 6147 of the 20 California Business and Professional Code. As a 21 result of that ruling in this case, the firm of 22 Bloom, Hergott was disbanded because he had

1 perpetrated that scheme on several other people,
2 including Sylvester Stallone. That case involved
3 also one -- approximately one million documents.

4 Mr. Depp and Ms. Heard were only married
5 for 15 months during that 18-year period. The TMG
6 case involved Mr. Depp's former manager prior to Ed
7 White. He was -- Mr. Mandel was the manager from 8 1999 through March of 2016. He breached fiduciary 9 duties and misappropriated tens of millions of 10 dollars. Again, that case involved approximately 11 one million documents, most of which were designated 12 confidential by the defendant, which is the same --
13 the same is true in the Bloom case.

14 The Rocky Brooks' case is a comically
15 frivolous case involving an incident more than a
16 year after the divorce. The bodyguard's case
17 involved an esoteric dispute as to whether the two 18 gentlemen employees were either employees or 19 independent contractors. So none of this had 20 anything to do with Ms. Heard or her alleged claims
21 of abuse.

PLAINTIFF JOHN C. DEPP, II'S OPPOSITION TO DEFENDANT AMBER LAURA HEARD'S MOTION TO COMPEL AND FOR RELIEF BASED ON FAILURE TO TIMELY PRODUCE DISCOVERY BEFORE DEPOSITION OF TRACEY JACOBS

admonishing Ms. Heard's counsel as follows: "And, Ms. Bredehoff, I am going to make a comment to you. And maybe I shouldn't, but I am going to, anyway. But you risk losing credibility with the Court when you come before the Court and accuse the other side of not following the rules... You also send vastly overbroad requests apparently in the hope that they will negotiate something better than what you might have gotten had you sent a reasonable request[.]" (Chew Decl., Ex. 3, 30:14-31:3.) In defiance of the Court's admonition, Ms. Heard served her Tenth RFPs, for similar documents, to which Mr. Depp timely objected on January 22, 2021. (Ms. Heard's Att. 3.)

II. Ms. Heard's Assertions about the Jacobs' Deposition Are False

Ms. Heard deposed Ms. Jacobs, Mr. Depp's former agent, on January 28, 2021. Ms. Jacobs has never been identified as a percipient witness to any alleged violence between Mr. Depp and Ms. Heard, and indeed, testified in response to Ms. Bredehoff's questions that she was unaware of those allegations before Ms. Heard publicized them, and that she has never discussed the allegations with Mr. Depp. (Chew Decl., Ex. 6 at 107:15-108:13.) Shortly before Ms. Jacobs' deposition, and in the course of preparing for same, we discovered that Ms. Heard had been referenced in parts of Ms. Jacobs' deposition transcripts from the TMG Action and Bloom Action, and that portions of those transcripts could—arguably—relate to the claims and defenses in this action. Mr. Depp then immediately produced the transcripts on the day of the deposition (although, given the Court's denial of Ms. Heard's Eighth RFPs, and Mr. Depp's timely and proper objection to the Tenth RFPs, Mr. Depp had a basis to withhold them). Ms. Heard's allegations of deceptive conduct are therefore false. Again, we produced the transcripts immediately upon becoming aware of their arguable relevance, and undersigned counsel correctly represented to Ms. Bredehoff that they had been provided to her office. 1 timing worked out well at all for Ms. Bredehoft,
2 but you did provide it. I can't fault you for 3 that; however, I think it is important that she 4 does get that other video as soon as you get that.
5 Then she'll have the two videos. She has the 6 transcripts now.

7 I'm not going to make any pre-trial
8 motions as far as designating portions of it or the 9 foundational objections. I'm just not going to do
10 that at this point. I don't think that's a proper 11 thing to do when we're so far away from trial.
12 That is something that might come up later when we 13 get closer to trial, but at this time, I'm not 14 going to do that.

15 And since you are going to be providing 16 the videos, I'm just going to deny the motion to 17 compel today. We'll see where we are on Friday
18 with that, and I'm not going to give fees to 19 anybody on this matter. All right?

20 MR. CHEW: Thank you very much, Your 21 Honor.

22 MS. BREDEHOFT: Your Honor --

1 THE COURT: Is there --

2 MS. BREDEHOFT: If I'm understanding your
3 ruling, then, it's without prejudice for us to be 4 able to come back and ask for this relief again; is
5 that correct?

6 THE COURT: Well, it's a motion in
7 limine. When we get closer to trial, if there's 8 still issues going on, but, you know, that's going
9 to be something we do at our pre-trial conference
10 when we start doing deposition issues, yes.

11 MR. CHEW: And, Your Honor, just to 12 clarify, may we submit to Your Honor's chambers on 13 Monday a proposed order?

14 THE COURT: Yes, that would be fine.

15 MR. CHEW: And to that end, Your Honor,
16 so we can have obviate any disagreement, the motion
17 to compel is denied? I don't want to get into a 18 fight about --

19 THE COURT: Right.

20 MR. CHEW: -- without prejudice.

21 THE COURT: No -- well, the motion to 22 compel is denied. Whether or not authenticating

1 parts of depositions, that has nothing to do with 2 the motion to compel. Whether or not we do that is
3 something for pre-trial. I assume we're going to 4 be going through quite a few different depositions
5 and there's going to be arguments back and forth at 6 that time.

7 MR. CHEW: Thank you, Your Honor.

8 MS. BREDEHOFT: Your Honor, if I may, so
9 I understood that Your Honor granted the motion to 10 compel with respect to the second video deposition.

11 MR. CHEW: No, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: No, no, I didn't. I denied
13 the motion to compel outright. They're providing 14 the second video, so it's a moot point. So that's 15 going to get you either Monday or Tuesday, it
16 sounds like.

17 MR. CHEW: Yes, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: That's a moot point. So I'm 19 denying the motion to compel.

20 MS. BREDEHOFT: Your Honor -- and I'm not
21 trying to be unreasonable here, but maybe you know
22 that we have had issues with these proposed orders,

PLAINTIFF AND COUNTERCLAIM DEFENDANT JOHN C. DEPP, II'S SUPPLEMENTAL RESPONSES AND OBJECTIONS TO DEFENDANT AND COUNTERCLAIM PLAINTIFF AMBER LAURA HEARD'S
FOURTH REQUESTS FOR ADMISSION

Pursuant to Rule 4:11 of the Rules of the Supreme Court of Virginia, Plaintiff and Counterclaim Defendant John C. Depp, II ("Plaintiff"), by and through his undersigned counsel, hereby responds and objects to Defendant and Counterclaim Plaintiff Amber Laura Heard's Fourth Set of Request For Admission (each, a "Request" and collectively, the "Requests"), dated February 4, 2021 and served in the above captioned action ("Action") as follows:

GENERAL OBJECTIONS

- 1. The following general objections and responses (the "General Objections") are incorporated into each specific objection and response as if fully set forth therein:
- 2. Plaintiff objects to the Requests to the extent they purport to call for information that: (a) is subject to the attorney-client privilege; (b) constitutes attorney work product; (c) includes information protected from disclosure based on common interest or a similar privilege; or (d) is otherwise protected from disclosure under applicable privilege, law, or rule. Plaintiff contact between any part of Your body and another person's genitalia, anus, groin, breast, inner thigh, or buttocks; or (b) direct contact between any part of a third party's body and Your genitalia, anus, groin, breast, inner thigh, or buttocks.

RESPONSE: Plaintiff objects to this definition as overly broad and unduly burdensome, vague and ambiguous to the extent it seeks to impose burdens beyond those required by the Rules. This term is overly broad in its ten year scope, and vague and ambiguous in its use of the terms "direct contact" and "sexual manner." Plaintiff further objects to this term to the extent that it is inflammatory and harassing, assumes facts not in evidence, lacks foundation, calls for a medical and/or legal conclusion and seeks information unrelated to this case and that is unlikely to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Plaintiff will agree to meet and confer with Defendant regarding this term.

t. You and/or Your. The terms "You" and/or "Your" refer to the recipient(s) of these discovery requests, as well as all persons and entities over which said recipient has "control" as understood by the Rules of this Court.

RESPONSE: No objection.

REQUESTS FOR ADMISSION

1. Please admit that the document produced as DEPP19191 and attached as Exh. 1 is a true, genuine, and authentic copy of a December 14, 2012 email exchange between Tracey Jacobs and Christi Dembrowski.

ANSWER:

Plaintiff objects to this request to the extent it seeks information that is in the possession, custody or control of Defendant or third parties. Plaintiff further objects to this request on the grounds that it is neither relevant nor reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Plaintiff further objects to this request on the grounds and to the extent that it implicates private and/or confidential information that is not at issue. Plaintiff further objects to this request to the extent it seeks information that is available to and equally accessible to Defendant. Plaintiff further objects on the grounds Plaintiff is not included in this communication. Plaintiff objects to this request to the extent it seeks privileged information protected from disclosure, including information protected by the attorney-client privilege or work product doctrine and any other applicable privilege, immunity or protection. Plaintiff further objects to this request as the request is compound. Plaintiff objects to this request because the request does not have the specific document appended to the request. Subject to the foregoing specific and general objections, and specifically reserving all objections to admissibility, including without limitation hearsay and relevance, Plaintiff admits that DEPP19191 appears to be a copy of an email between Tracey Jacobs and Christi Dembrowski. Because Plaintiff was not included on the communication, Plaintiff otherwise lacks sufficient knowledge to admit or deny whether the email is “a true, genuine, and authentic copy”.

SUPPLEMENTAL ANSWER:

Plaintiff repeats and incorporates by this reference the above-stated general and specific objections as though set forth in full, specifically including Plaintiff’s lack of personal knowledge of the document in question. Subject to and without waiver of the foregoing general and specific objections, reserving the right to withdraw any admissions in the event of after-discovered information, and reserving all objections as to admissibility, Plaintiff supplements his response as follows: Plaintiff lacks personal knowledge of the creation, sending, and/or receipt of the document in question, and is not in a position to authenticate it from personal knowledge. However, Plaintiff is unaware of any reason to believe that the document is not authentic and presumes that it is. On that basis, its authenticity is admitted, while reserving all objections to admissibility, including without limitation relevance and hearsay.

2. Please admit that the document produced as DEPP19194-19196 and attached as Exh. 2 is a true, genuine, and authentic copy of May 23, 2013 emails between Tracey Jacobs and Christi Dembrowski.

Plaintiff further objects on the grounds Plaintiff is not included in this communication. Plaintiff objects to this request to the extent it seeks privileged information protected from disclosure, including information protected by the attorney-client privilege or work product doctrine and any other applicable privilege, immunity or protection. Plaintiff further objects to this request as the request is compound. Plaintiff objects to this request because the request does not have the specific document appended to the request. Subject to the foregoing specific and general objections, and specifically reserving all objections to admissibility, including without limitation hearsay and relevance, Plaintiff admits that DEPP19237-19238 appears to be a copy of an email between Tracey Jacobs, Sean Bailey, and Christi Dembrowski.

Because Plaintiff was not included on the communication, Plaintiff otherwise lacks sufficient knowledge to admit or deny whether the email is “a true, genuine, and authentic copy”.

SUPPLEMENTAL ANSWER:

Plaintiff repeats and incorporates by this reference the above-stated general and specific objections as though set forth in full, specifically including Plaintiff’s lack of personal knowledge of the document in question. Subject to and without waiver of the foregoing general and specific objections, reserving the right to withdraw any admissions in the event of after-discovered information, and reserving all objections as to admissibility, Plaintiff supplements his response as follows: Plaintiff lacks personal knowledge of the creation, sending, and/or receipt of the document in question, and is not in a position to authenticate it from personal knowledge. However, Plaintiff is unaware of any reason to believe that the document is not authentic and presumes that it is. On that basis, its authenticity is admitted, while reserving all objections to admissibility, including without limitation relevance and hearsay.

17. Please admit that the document produced as DEPP19239 and attached as Exh. 17 is a true, genuine, and authentic copy of April 14-15, 2015 emails between Tracey Jacobs, Scott Cooper, John Leshner, and Christi Dembrowski.

ANSWER:

Plaintiff objects to this request to the extent it seeks information that is in the possession, custody or control of Defendant or third parties. Plaintiff further objects to this request to the extent it seeks information that is available to and equally accessible to Defendant. Plaintiff further objects to this request on the grounds that it is neither relevant nor reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. otherwise lacks sufficient knowledge to admit or deny whether the email is “a true, genuine, and authentic copy”.

SUPPLEMENTAL ANSWER:

Plaintiff repeats and incorporates by this reference the above-stated general and specific objections as though set forth in full, specifically including Plaintiff’s lack of personal knowledge of the document in question. Subject to and without waiver of the foregoing general and specific objections, reserving the right to withdraw any admissions in the event of after-discovered information, and reserving all objections as to admissibility, Plaintiff supplements his response as follows: Plaintiff lacks personal knowledge of the creation, sending, and/or receipt of the document in question, and is not in a position to authenticate it from personal knowledge. However, Plaintiff is unaware of any reason to believe that the document is not authentic and presumes that it is. On that basis, its authenticity is admitted, while reserving all objections to admissibility, including without limitation relevance and hearsay.

38. Please admit that the document produced as DEPP20090 and attached as Exh. 38 is a true, genuine, and authentic copy of March 24, 2016 emails between Bec Smith, Tracey Jacobs, Rena Ronson, Jim Meenaghan, Jeremy Landau, and Christi Dembrowski.

ANSWER:

Plaintiff objects to this request to the extent it seeks information that is in the possession, custody or control of Defendant or third parties. Plaintiff further objects to this request on the grounds that it is neither relevant nor reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Plaintiff further objects to this request on the grounds and to the extent that it implicates private and/or confidential information that is not at issue. Plaintiff further objects to this request to the extent it seeks information that is available to and equally accessible to Defendant. Plaintiff further objects on the grounds Plaintiff is not included in this communication. Plaintiff objects to this request to the extent it seeks privileged information protected from disclosure, including information protected by the attorney-client privilege or work product doctrine and any other applicable privilege, immunity or protection. Plaintiff further objects to this request as the request is compound. Plaintiff objects to this request because the request does not have the specific document appended to the request. Subject to the foregoing specific and general objections, and specifically reserving all objections to admissibility, including without limitation hearsay and relevance, Plaintiff admits that DEPP20090 appears to be a copy of emails between Bec Smith, Tracey Jacobs, Rena Ronson, Jim Meenaghan, Jeremy Landau, and Christi Dembrowski. Because Plaintiff was not included on the communication, Plaintiff otherwise lacks sufficient knowledge to admit or deny whether the email is “a true, genuine, and authentic copy”.

However, Plaintiff is unaware of any reason to believe that the document is not authentic and presumes that it is. On that basis, its authenticity is admitted, while reserving all objections to admissibility, including without limitation relevance and hearsay.

39. Please admit that the document produced as DEPP19205 and attached as Exh. 39 is a true, genuine, and authentic copy of November 22, 2013 emails between Tracey Jacobs, Christi Dembrowski, Joel Mandel, Rachel Arlook (Jacobs), and the email addresses jab@bhdrl.com, danny@bhdrl.com, and mls@nhdrl.com.

ANSWER:

Plaintiff objects to this request to the extent it seeks information that is in the possession, custody or control of Defendant or third parties. Plaintiff further objects to this request on the grounds that it is neither relevant nor reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Plaintiff further objects to this request on the grounds and to the extent that it implicates private and/or confidential information that is not at issue. Plaintiff further objects to this request to the extent it seeks information that is available to and equally accessible to Defendant. Plaintiff further objects on the grounds Plaintiff is not included in this communication. Plaintiff objects to this request to the extent it seeks privileged information protected from disclosure, including information protected by the attorney-client privilege or work product doctrine and any other applicable privilege, immunity or protection. Plaintiff further objects to this request as the request is compound. Plaintiff objects to this request because the request does not have the specific document appended to the request. Subject to the foregoing specific and general objections, and specifically reserving all objections to admissibility, including relevance and hearsay, Plaintiff admits that the document appears to be a copy of an email among Tracey Jacobs and Christi Dembrowski. Plaintiff was not copied and is otherwise unable to admit or deny the authenticity.

SUPPLEMENTAL ANSWER:

Plaintiff repeats and incorporates by this reference the above-stated general and specific objections as though set forth in full, specifically including Plaintiff's lack of personal knowledge of the document in question. Subject to and without waiver of the foregoing general and specific objections, reserving the right to withdraw any admissions in the event of after-discovered information, and reserving all objections as to admissibility, Plaintiff supplements his response as follows: Plaintiff lacks personal knowledge of the creation, sending, and/or receipt of the document in question, and is not in a position to authenticate it from personal knowledge. However, Plaintiff is unaware of any reason to believe that the document is not authentic and presumes that it is. On that basis, its authenticity is admitted, while reserving all objections to admissibility, including without limitation relevance and hearsay.

40. Please admit that the document produced as DEPP19206 and attached as Exh. 40 is a true, genuine, and authentic copy of December 6, 2013 emails between Tracey Jacobs and Joel Mandel.

ANSWER:

Plaintiff objects to this request to the extent it seeks information that is in the possession, custody or control of Defendant or third parties. Plaintiff further objects to this request on the grounds that it is neither relevant nor reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Plaintiff further objects to this request on the grounds and to the extent that it implicates private and/or confidential information that is not at issue. Plaintiff further objects to this request to the extent it seeks information that is available to and equally accessible to Defendant. Plaintiff further objects on the grounds Plaintiff is not included in this communication. Plaintiff objects to this request to the extent it seeks privileged information protected from disclosure, including information protected by the attorney-client privilege or work product doctrine and any other applicable privilege, immunity or protection. Plaintiff further objects to this request as the request is compound. Plaintiff objects to this request because the request does not have the specific document appended to the request. Subject to the foregoing specific and general objections, and specifically reserving all objections to admissibility, including without limitation hearsay and relevance, Plaintiff admits that DEPP19206 appears to be a copy of emails between Tracey Jacobs and Joel Mandel. Because Plaintiff was not included on the communication, Plaintiff otherwise lacks sufficient knowledge to admit or deny whether the email is “a true, genuine, and authentic copy”.

SUPPLEMENTAL ANSWER:

Plaintiff repeats and incorporates by this reference the above-stated general and specific objections as though set forth in full, specifically including Plaintiff's lack of personal knowledge of the document in question. Subject to and without waiver of the foregoing general and specific objections, reserving the right to withdraw any admissions in the event of after-discovered information, and reserving all objections as to admissibility, Plaintiff supplements his response as follows: Plaintiff lacks personal knowledge of the creation, sending, and/or receipt of the document in question, and is not in a position to authenticate it from personal knowledge. On that basis, its authenticity is admitted, while reserving all objections to admissibility, including without limitation relevance and hearsay.

41. Please admit that the document produced as DEPP19212 and attached as Exh. 41 is a true, genuine, and authentic copy of a November 16, 2015 email between Tracey Jacobs and Joel Mandel.

ANSWER:

Plaintiff objects to this request to the extent it seeks information that is in the possession, custody or control of Defendant or third parties. Plaintiff further objects to this request on the grounds that it is neither relevant nor reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Plaintiff further objects to this request on the grounds and to the extent that it implicates private and/or confidential information that is not at issue. Plaintiff further objects to this request to the extent it seeks information that is available to and equally accessible to Defendant. Plaintiff further objects on the grounds Plaintiff is not included in this communication. Plaintiff objects to this request to the extent it seeks privileged information protected from disclosure, including information protected by the attorney-client privilege or work product doctrine and any other applicable privilege, immunity or protection. Plaintiff further objects to this request as the request is compound. Plaintiff objects to this request because the request does not have the specific document appended to the request. Subject to the foregoing specific and general objections, and specifically reserving all objections to admissibility, including without limitation hearsay and relevance, Plaintiff admits that DEPP19212 appears to be a copy of an email between Tracey Jacobs and Joel Mandel. Because Plaintiff was not included on the communication, Plaintiff otherwise lacks sufficient knowledge to admit or deny whether the email is “a true, genuine, and authentic copy”.

SUPPLEMENTAL ANSWER:

Plaintiff repeats and incorporates by this reference the above-stated general and specific objections as though set forth in full, specifically including Plaintiff’s lack of personal knowledge of the document in question. However, Plaintiff is unaware of any reason to believe that the document is not authentic and presumes that it is. On that basis, its authenticity is admitted, while reserving all objections to admissibility, including without limitation relevance and hearsay.

42. Please admit that the document produced as DEPP19796 and attached as Exh. 42 is a true, genuine, and authentic copy of April 18, 2016 emails between Jacob Bloom and Donald Starr.

ANSWER:

Plaintiff objects to this request to the extent it seeks information that is in the possession, custody or control of Defendant or third parties. Plaintiff further objects to this request on the grounds that it is neither relevant nor reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Plaintiff further objects to this request on the grounds and to the extent that it implicates private and/or confidential information that is not at issue. Plaintiff further objects to this request to the extent it seeks information that is available to and equally accessible to Defendant. Plaintiff further objects on the grounds Plaintiff is not included in this communication. Plaintiff objects to this request to the extent it seeks privileged information protected from disclosure, including information protected by the attorney-client privilege or work product doctrine and any other applicable privilege, immunity or protection. Plaintiff further objects to this request as the request is compound. Plaintiff objects to this request because the request does not have the specific document appended to the request. Subject to the foregoing specific and general objections, and specifically reserving all objections to admissibility, including relevance and hearsay, Plaintiff admits that the document appears to be a copy of an email among Jacob Bloom and Donald Starr. Plaintiff was not copied and is otherwise unable to admit or deny the authenticity.

However, Plaintiff is unaware of any reason to believe that the document is not authentic and presumes that it is. On that basis, its authenticity is admitted, while reserving all objections to admissibility, including without limitation relevance and hearsay.

43. Please admit that the document produced as DEPP20064 and attached as Exh. 43 is a true, genuine, and authentic copy of January 6-7, 2015 emails between Joe Kaczorowski, Danny Watts, and Donald Starr.

ANSWER:

Plaintiff objects to this request to the extent it seeks information that is in the possession, custody or control of Defendant or third parties. Plaintiff further objects to this request on the grounds that it is neither relevant nor reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Plaintiff further objects to this request on the grounds and to the extent that it implicates private and/or confidential information that is not at issue. Plaintiff further objects to this request to the extent it seeks information that is available to and equally accessible to Defendant. 1 partial, I don't know. If something ended up not
 2 to your liking, I don't know.
 3 Q Did Adam Wakiman represent you as of 20
 4 March 2020?
 5 A I think -- I think we might be getting
 6 into something that's attorney-client privilege,
 7 and I -- didn't the judge also just recently find
 8 that kind of an unpleasant thing for you to be --
 9 MR. CHEW: I would -- I would instruct the 10 witness not to answer any questions about any 11 communications between you and Adam Wakiman, who 12 Ms. Bredehopt knows better than anybody is one of 13 your counsel. So, I instruct you not to answer
 14 and we can move on.
 15 Q Well -- well, we've got to move backwards.
 16 A I'm invoking attorney-client privilege
 17 Q Mr. Depp, I'm going to ask you one more
 18 time. Did you provide a partial audio recording
 19 of the 26 March 2015 audio recording that you've 20 identified as paragraph -- in paragraph 7A of your 21 witness statement to The Daily Mail? Yes or no,
 22 did you provide it to them?

989

1 A My devices were given to my attorneys.
 2 Q That's not the question I'm asking you.
 3 Did you give a partial of the audio recording to 4 The Daily Mail?
 5 A Did I personally give an audio recording
 6 to anyone? No.
 7 Q Do you know who did?
 8 MR. CHEW: No, I'm going to instruct you
 9 not to answer that question. You've already --
 10 you've already answered the one question she asked
 11 that she was entitled to ask. You said you didn't 12 do it. Let's move on.
 13 A I think she said -- she's getting -- she's 14 getting into territory where the judge has 15 already -- I think the judge has made an order
 16 about --
 17 Q Mr. Depp, did you provide --
 18 A I'm sorry. I was just talking.
 19 Q But you weren't answering the question.
 20 Mr. Depp --
 21 A You think that I answered your question
 22 wrong --

1 Q Mr. Depp --
 2 MR. CHEW: (Indecipherable) he did not.
 3 Q Mr. Depp, did you provide a partial of the 4 audio recording on 4 January 2016 that you
 5 identified in paragraph 7B of your witness
 6 statement to The Daily Mail?
 7 MR. CHEW: Objection. It assumes facts
 8 not in evidence, misstates his testimony, lack of 9 foundation, and contradicts the document, and 10 asked and answered.
 11 Q What's your answer?
 12 A I told you that's (indecipherable).
 13 Q You need to answer the question.
 14 MR. CHEW: You may answer the question
 15 again if you understand.
 16 A Did you -- did you -- maybe you were 17 working up a --
 18 Q Are you refusing to answer the question,
 19 Mr. Depp?
 20 MR. CHEW: No, he already answered the
 21 question.
 22 MS. BREDEHOFT: No, he didn't, Mr. Chew.

991

1 He answered the one that's 7A, not 7B.
 2 THE WITNESS: Austin, I know you're the
 3 gentleman -- Vicky, Ms. Wilson, is it possible,
 4 are you able to read back --
 5 Q No, you don't get to ask that question.
 6 A I'm not asking you, ma'am.
 7 Q Have you made any effort at all to try to 8 locate the full recordings that you've identified
 9 here in paragraph 7A and B of your witness
 10 statement?
 11 MR. CHEW: Objection. Asked and answered.
 12 Lack of foundation. Argumentative. Misstates the 13 document. He said what he did with his devices
 14 three or four times.
 15 MS. BREDEHOFT: That's not what I'm 16 asking.
 17 Q Have you made any effort at all to find
 18 out where the full recordings are of the audio
 19 recording from 26 March 2015 and the audio
 20 recording from 4 January 2016?
 21 MR. CHEW: Objection. Argumentative.
 22 Lack of foundation. Assumes facts not in 992

1 evidence. Assuming partial recordings.
 2 A I just looked at a piece of paper that you
 3 showed me with these file names on them. You even 4 yourself skipped through the file names because 5 it's a bunch of numbers. You're saying one is 6 partial. Did I make it partial or did I give it?
 7 I don't know what these are.
 8 So, I don't -- I cannot tell you
 9 1,000 percent what these things are, so I cannot 10 answer your questions in any way that's going to 11 please you and make you jump for joy. I can only
 12 tell you, as I did say --
 13 Q But the answer is no. The answer is no,
 14 you have not made any effort --
 15 MR. CHEW: Ms. Bredehoff, please let --
 16 please let him finish. You say --
 17 MS. BREDEHOFT: He's not answering the 18 question. He's being --
 19 MR. CHEW: He was trying. He was trying 20 to answer your question.
 21 MS. BREDEHOFT: He's not trying.
 22 All right. Let's go. Take this one out,

993

1 Austin.
 2 MR. CHEW: Now you're just being nasty,
 3 and if you continue --
 4 MS. BREDEHOFT: I'm not being nasty.
 5 You're intentionally trying to drag this out so
 6 that I don't get to ask the questions, and you
 7 know it.
 8 MR. CHEW: You're projecting your value or 9 lack thereof onto me.
 10 BY MS. BREDEHOFT:
 11 Q All right. Let's talk about the op-ed,
 12 all right, that Amber Heard published in The 13 Washington Post. Do you recall that?
 14 A When the article was published in the 15 Washington Post was December 18th, 2000 --
 16 December something 2018, was it?
 17 Q I'm asking -- okay. Let's just go to the 18 next question. Yes, that's correct. Okay. Other 19 than --
 20 A That's good. My memory worked. That's 21 great.
 22 Q So, other than -- you're looking down at

994

1 something. What are you looking at?
 2 A It's a drawing.
 3 Q All right. Other than your attorneys, did
 4 you have any communications with anyone about the 5 op-ed between December 18, 2018, and March 1, 6 2019, when you filed this lawsuit? I'm asking for 7 anyone other than your attorneys.
 8 A I don't recall.
 9 Q Okay. Now, between the time of the op-ed
 10 being published on December 18, 2018, and March 1, 11 2019, when you filed the lawsuit, did you lose any 12 roles or career opportunities?
 13 A Yes --
 14 Q What?
 15 A -- I did. Well, I had a decent -- a
 16 decent run with Disney for a while there on a
 17 series of films called Pirates of the Caribbean
 18 that I was removed from after the op-ed was 19 released.
 20 Q Has there been a Pirates of the Caribbean
 21 6?
 22 A Not just yet. I think they're trying to 995

1 figure out exactly how to do it.
 2 Q Has anyone spoken with you from Disney
 3 about any role that you may have in Pirates 6?
 4 A No.
 5 Q Now, after the U.K. judgment, you were
 6 asked to resign from Fantastic Beast 3, and you
 7 testified about that earlier, and I'm not going to 8 go through all of that again. What has your 9 career been like since you were asked to leave the 10 Fantastic Beast 3 and the U.K. judgment was 11 released?
 12 MR. CHEW: Objection. Ambiguous. Vague.
 13 A The only way that I can explain it is --
 14 well, it's very simple. Everybody is told, "Turn
 15 off. Flick that light. There's no -- he doesn't 16 exist no more. Out," you know. Basically, it --
 17 yes, it's been -- I've been -- yeah, it was kind
 18 of -- I'm a leper in Hollywood.
 19 Q Okay. Have you had any roles? Have you
 20 received any roles since the U.K. judgment came 21 out in November 2 of 2021?
 22 A From --

997 1 It's a -- there's a lot -- I've been to Tokyo a 2 number of times for premieres. I can't remember 3 which -- 4 Q Do you recall whether your children -- 5 A Yes, my children -- 6 Q -- with you on that trip? 7 A Yes, they were with us, yes. 8 Q Was there anyone else besides Amber Heard, 9 your children, and you that went on that trip to 10 Tokyo in 2015? 11 A Yes, there was her friend Brittany 12 Eustice. 13 Q Okay. Anyone else? 14 A I believe one of the -- one or two of the 15 guys from my camp, maybe Steven Deuters, or one of 16 security, maybe. I can't remember. Maybe it was 17 Jerry Jost. I don't -- I don't remember. 18 Q Did anyone else accompany the children? 19 A The children were with -- no, pretty 20 much -- so, I don't -- no, we didn't bring a nanny 21 there. They were older -- they were old enough to 22 not have a nanny.	999 1 MS. BREDEHOFT: 2 Q Okay. Austin, can you bring up 3 Exhibit 51, please? 4 REMOTE TECH: Stand by. 5 (Depp Exhibit 51, previously marked, is 6 attached to the transcript.) 7 Q Mr. Depp, I'm going to ask you to look -- 8 take a look at what has been marked as Depp 9 Exhibit Number 51. It's page 12 of Amber Heard's 10 counterclaim. And, in particular, I'm just going 11 to ask you, and this is my last series of 12 questions and then I'm done, but I'm going to ask 13 you to take a look at paragraphs 45, 46, and 47 14 for a moment. And let me make that a little bit 15 larger. 16 A Oh, that's good. Yeah. 17 Q Oops. Oops. I'll scroll down so you can 18 see it. Okay. Do you see -- let me know when 19 you're done. 20 A Yes, I'm -- I've finished. 21 Are you finished? 22 Q Was -- was Adam Waldman acting as your

1 attorney when these statements were made?
 2 MR. CHEW: Mr. Depp, I'm instructing you
 3 not to answer that question based on
 4 attorney-client privilege.
 5 Q Did Adam Waldman have the authority to
 6 speak on your behalf in making these statements
 7 that are reflected in paragraphs 45 through 47 of
 8 the counterclaim?
 9 MR. CHEW: Mr. Depp, I'm instructing you
 10 not to answer that question based on the
 11 attorney-client privilege.
 12 Q Did you authorize Adam Waldman to make
 13 these statements that are reflected in paragraphs
 14 45, 46, and 47 of the counterclaim?
 15 MR. CHEW: I respectfully instruct you not
 16 to answer that question based on attorney-client
 17 privilege.
 18 Q Have you at any time -- I'm sorry,
 19 Have you at any time -- I'm assuming
 20 you're taking your -- your attorney's advice and 21 that's why I'm not making you say more. Fair
 22 enough?

1001

1 A Yes.
 2 Q Do you -- have you ever retracted these
 3 statements reflected in paragraphs 45, 46, and 47?
 4 MR. CHEW: Assumes facts not in evidence.
 5 He didn't make the statements.
 6 Q Do you remember the question?
 7 A Yes, I remember the question.
 8 Q Have you at any time retracted these or
 9 said these were false?
 10 MR. CHEW: Objection to the form of the
 11 question. Compound.
 12 And I would instruct you not to answer the
 13 question to the extent it would require you to 14 disclose attorney-client privilege. So, I'm going
 15 to instruct you not to answer. So, I instruct you
 16 not to answer.
 17 MS. BREDEHOFT: Okay. And, Ben, just so
 18 we're clear on the record, when you instruct him
 19 not to answer, were assuming he's accepting your
 20 instruction, correct? So, I don't have to say,
 21 "Are you following your attorney's advice", right?
 22 MR. CHEW: Correct.

1 A True. Yes, I said it before but you
 2 started early, so I just went with it.
 3 Q Okay, Is Adam -- have you ever asked Adam
 4 Waldman to retract these statements that are
 5 reflected in paragraphs 35, 36, and 37?
 6 MR. CHEW: I would instruct you not to
 7 answer the question based on attorney-client
 8 privilege.
 9 Q Is Adam Waldman still your attorney and
 10 agent?
 11 MR. CHEW: Objection to the form of the 12 question. It's compound and calls for a legal
 13 conclusion.
 14 A Is Adam Waldman still my -- is still legal 15 counsel for me?
 16 Q Yes.
 17 A Yes.
 18 Q Okay. And that has not changed at any 19 point between April 8, 2020, and the present; is 20 that correct?
 21 A No, ma'am.
 22 MS. BREDEHOFT: Okay. I think that I

1003

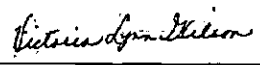

1 might be out of time.
 2 John, what is the running time here? I'm
 3 trying to respect my time here.
 4 MR. CHEW: There's no rule requiring you
 5 to fill out the time.
 6 MS. BREDEHOFT: Yeah, I know, but I'm also
 7 going to respect if I only have three-and-a-half,
 8 I think I've hit that. If I didn't, though, I
 9 have more questions. That's why I'm asking John.
 10 John, would it be better if we go off the
 11 record and then check that and then we'll see?
 12 MR. CHEW: I think we should stay on the
 13 record.
 14 MS. BREDEHOFT: Oh, okay. I thought he
 15 said last time he had to go off in order to
 16 calculate.
 17 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Yeah, to get an
 18 accurate precise calculation, I'd have to go off
 19 the record to stop the recording.
 20 MS. BREDEHOFT: All right. Let's do that
 21 real quick and check because I do think I'm out
 22 and I don't want to --

VIRGINIA:

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF FAIRFAX COUNTY

JOHN C. DEPP, II

Plaintiff,

v.

AMBER LAURA HEARD

Defendant.

Civil Action No.: CL-2019-0002911

ORDER

THIS CAUSE comes at the request of Defendant Amber Laura Heard, by counsel, who filed a Motion to Compel Production of Documents and Responses to Interrogatories and Requests for Admission against Plaintiff John C. Depp, II on July 2, 2020. Having reviewed the parties' pleadings and heard their argument on this matter, it is hereby:

ORDERED that Defendant's Motion is GRANTED in part and DENIED in part as set forth below. On or before 5 p.m. on August 21, 2020, Plaintiff shall:

(1) Supplement his Answers and substantively respond to Defendant's First Requests for Admission Nos. 11, 12, 13, 14 and 15;

(2) Produce all documents responsive to Defendant's First Request for Production Nos. 11-12;

(3) Fully supplement his Answer to Interrogatory No. 1 in Defendant's First Set of Interrogatories to Plaintiff for all persons with knowledge of any information relating to claims and defenses, including but not limited to all known addresses, email addresses and telephone numbers for all individuals identified, to the extent Plaintiff has that information within his possession, custody, or control;

NO EDU. 8-11-20

(4) Supplement his Answer to Interrogatory No. 12 in Defendant's First Set of Interrogatories to "Identify each romantic partner other than Ms. Heard that [Mr. Depp has] had in the past 10 years;"

(5) Substantively and fully respond to Interrogatory No. 1 in Defendant's Second Set of Interrogatories to identify all payments, gifts or transfers of value, in monetary form, to the identified individuals and any other Romantic Partners from 2012 to present;

(6) Substantively and fully respond to Interrogatory No. 2 in Defendant's Second Set of Interrogatories to Plaintiff to identify all "fees from every Performance from 2010 to present;" and

(7) Produce all documents responsive to Defendant's Second Request for Production Nos. 10, 12 and 13.

IT IS SO ORDERED

ENTERED this 10th day of August, 2020.

Hon. Bruce D. White
Chief Judge, Fairfax Circuit Court

1 Mr. Depp ever initiated any legal action, be it a 16:39:16
2 lawsuit, arbitration, or demand against your, 16:39:21
3 then-client, Amber Heard? 16:39:24
4 MS. BREDEHOFT: Objection. Leading. 16:39:26
5 Hearsay. Foundation. Speculation. 16:39:27
6 Go ahead. 16:39:29
7 A We -- will you say that again at the 16:39:30
8 beginning, you said putting aside what? 16:39:35
9 Q Putting aside the divorce case, had there 16:39:38
10 ever been any litigation or arbitration between 16:39:42
11 your former client, Amber Heard, and Johnny Depp? 16:39:45
12 A Not that I recollect. 16:39:49
13 MS. BREDEHOFT: Objection. 16:39:51
14 THE WITNESS: I'm sorry. Ms. Bredehopt, I 16:39:53
15 didn't catch your objection. 16:39:55
16 MS. BREDEHOFT: It was leading. Hearsay 16:39:57
17 and foundation. Calls for speculation. 16:39:58
18 THE WITNESS: As I sit here today, not 16:40:01
19 that I recollect. 16:40:03
20 BY MR. CHEW: 16:40:04
21 Q It is fair to say that you and your client 16:40:05
22 fired the first shot, true? 16:40:10

1 MR. SCHWARTZ: Objection. Misstates his 16:40:12
2 testimony. Argumentative. 16:40:14
3 MS. BREDEHOFT: Yeah, and hearsay. 16:40:15
4 Leading. Foundation. Calls for speculation. 16:40:18
5 You may answer. 16:40:20
6 A No. 16:40:20
7 Q Why is it not true? 16:40:21
8 A Look at the letter itself. 16:40:23
9 Q Is this a love tap? 16:40:24
10 MS. BREDEHOFT: Objection. Argumentative. 16:40:27
11 MR. SCHWARTZ: I don't want -- 16:40:30
12 MS. BREDEHOFT: [Indiscernible.] Hearsay. 16:40:33
13 BY MR. CHEW: 16:40:33
14 Q Let's look to the attachment. Was this 16:40:36
15 arbitration demand filed by Amber Heard against 16:40:39
16 Mr. Depp? What is that? 16:40:44
17 A Look at the second paragraph referencing 16:40:46
18 any further public statements that Mr. Depp or his 16:40:50
19 agents may make about Ms. Heard. I think that 16:40:53
20 speaks for itself. 16:40:56
21 Q What is the -- please describe for us what 16:40:57
22 you intended to convey as Ms. Depp's arbitration 16:41:02

1 document. 16:43:13

2 MS. BREDEHOFT: Objection, hearsay. 16:43:13

3 Leading. Foundation. Not best evidence. 16:43:17

4 Document speaks for itself, and misstates the 16:43:19

5 document. 16:43:22

6 BY MR. CHEW: 16:43:22

7 Q Did I accurately read that, sir? 16:43:22

8 A Yes. 16:43:25

9 Q Was that a meritorious claim? 16:43:25

10 MR. SCHWARTZ: Objection, calls for a 16:43:34

11 legal conclusion. 16:43:40

12 MS. BREDEHOFT: Yeah, calls for a legal 16:43:40

13 conclusion. Hearsay. Leading. Foundation. 16:43:42

14 BY MR. CHEW: 16:43:42

15 Q We've been talking about meritorious 16:43:44

16 claims all day long. Was that a meritorious 16:43:46

17 claim? 16:43:50

18 MS. BREDEHOFT: Same objections. 16:43:50

19 A Yes. 16:43:51

20 Q How was it resolved -- or, strike that. 16:43:51

21 How did Mr. Depp's -- how did Mr. Depp 16:43:55

22 respond to Ms. Heard's arbitration demand, 16:43:59

1	Exhibit 13?	16:44:02
2	MR. SCHWARTZ: Objection. Calls for	16:44:03
3	speculation, lack of personal knowledge.	16:44:04
4	MS. BREDEHOFT: Yeah, objection. Hearsay,	16:44:05
5	leading, foundation, and speculation.	16:44:08
6	Go ahead.	16:44:09
7	A There was an issue raised about whether	16:44:10
8	the parties had complied with the requisite	16:44:12
9	procedures to have any such arbitration claims	16:44:20
10	properly before a judge pro tem. So for	16:44:31
11	procedural reasons, this was found not to properly	16:44:36
12	be before the judge pro tem who we brought this	16:44:41
13	before.	16:44:45
14	Q Isn't it true that Mr. Depp filed a motion	16:44:46
15	to dismiss?	16:44:49
16	MS. BREDEHOFT: Objection. Hearsay,	16:44:50
17	leading, foundation, calls for speculation, not	16:44:51
18	best evidence.	16:44:53
19	Go ahead.	16:44:54
20	A I don't recollect the title of it, but he	16:44:55
21	did file a motion for exactly -- raising exactly	16:44:58
22	the claim that I just mentioned.	16:45:04

1	Q Who adjudicated Mr. Depp's motion to	16:45:07
2	dismiss?	16:45:10
3	MS. BREDEHOFT: Objection. Calls for	16:45:11
4	hearsay. Leading. Foundation. Speculation. Not	16:45:13
5	best evidence.	16:45:16
6	Go ahead.	16:45:16
7	A Again, I believe it was the judge pro tem,	16:45:17
8	a man named Judge Meisinger, Lou Meisinger.	16:45:21
9	Q And is it true that Judge Meisinger	16:45:29
10	dismissed Ms. Heard's arbitration demands	16:45:33
11	summarily?	16:45:37
12	MS. BREDEHOFT: Objection. Leading.	16:45:37
13	Hearsay. Foundation. Speculation.	16:45:38
14	Go ahead.	16:45:40
15	A Again, not on the merits, but precisely	16:45:41
16	because there was a question about whether the	16:45:45
17	parties stipulated to have these particular	16:45:47
18	disputes heard before him.	16:45:50
19	Q Did Judge Meisinger throw out Ms. Heard's	16:45:52
20	arbitration demand, "yes," or "no"?	16:45:56
21	MS. BREDEHOFT: Objection. Leading.	16:45:59
22	Hearsay. Foundation. Not best evidence.	16:46:01

1	Speculation, and argumentative.	16:46:02
2	A You're misconstruing a decision based on a	16:46:05
3	procedural ground, and trying to suggest that it	16:46:11
4	was based on a substantive ground. And I'm	16:46:14
5	telling you that Judge Meisinger determined that	16:46:17
6	the parties had not properly dotted there is and	16:46:20
7	crossed their Ts with respect to designating him,	16:46:25
8	personally, as the judge pro tem; and, therefore,	16:46:29
9	he could not exercise jurisdiction over the claim.	16:46:32
10	There was nothing that he did that addressed the	16:46:36
11	merits of the claim.	16:46:38
12	Q Motions to dismiss are granted oftentimes	16:46:42
13	not on the merits. Did he or did he not dismiss	16:46:44
14	Ms. Heard's demand for arbitration?	16:46:50
15	MR. SCHWARTZ: Objection. Asked and	16:46:52
16	answered.	16:46:53
17	MS. BREDEHOFT: Yeah, asked and answered,	16:46:53
18	and also objection to the form of the question.	16:46:54
19	It's very argumentative and inappropriate.	16:46:57
20	Hearsay. Leading. Foundation. And calls for	16:47:00
21	speculation.	16:47:00
22	BY MR. CHEW:	16:47:00

1	[indiscernible].	16:47:58
2	MR. CHEW: Are you kidding me?	16:48:02
3	MR. SCHWARTZ: You didn't cross-notice	16:48:04
4	this deposition.	16:48:06
5	MS. BREDEHOFT: He did. He cross-noticed	16:48:06
6	it so he has the ability.	16:48:09
7	BY MR. CHEW:	16:48:09
8	Q Did --	16:48:13
9	MR. CHEW: Excuse me.	16:48:13
10	Q Did Judge Meisinger award your client any	16:48:15
11	compensatory damages?	16:48:20
12	MS. BREDEHOFT: Objection. Hearsay,	16:48:21
13	leading, foundation, it's a hypothetical and not	16:48:23
14	best evidence. Calls for speculation.	16:48:26
15	A Again --	16:48:28
16	Q "Yes," or "no," sir.	16:48:31
17	MS. BREDEHOFT: Objection. You may not	16:48:32
18	badger the witness. You may not demand a "yes" or	16:48:34
19	"no." That is not appropriate in Virginia courts,	16:48:37
20	and you know it. Objection to the form of the	16:48:39
21	question.	16:48:42
22	BY MR. CHEW:	16:48:42

1 Q Did he award compensatory damages to your 16:48:42
2 client, "yes," or "no"? 16:48:47

3 MS. BREDEHOFT: Objection. Asked and 16:48:47
4 answered. Leading. Hearsay. Foundation. Not 16:48:48
5 best evidence. 16:48:50

6 A Again, as I've explained, there was no 16:48:51
7 hearing; and, therefore, there was no adjudication 16:48:56
8 in favor of or against my client on the merits. 16:48:59

9 Q Did he award any punitive damages to 16:49:03
10 Ms. Heard? 16:49:06

11 MR. SCHWARTZ: Asked and answered. 16:49:06

12 MS. BREDEHOFT: Objection. Leading. 16:49:06
13 Hearsay. Foundation. Not best evidence. And 16:49:08
14 asked and answered and argumentative. 16:49:13

15 BY MR. CHEW: 16:49:15

16 Q Please answer the question: Did he award 16:49:15
17 punitive damages to your client, or not? 16:49:18

18 MS. BREDEHOFT: Objection. Leading. 16:49:20
19 Hearsay. Foundation. Not best evidence. 16:49:22
20 Argumentative. Asked and answered. 16:49:24

21 A So for the reasons I've explained, as 16:49:26
22 there was no hearing whatsoever since, for 16:49:29

1 procedural reasons, the matter was not before him, 16:49:33
2 there was no award of punitive damages or any 16:49:36
3 other relief for either side in the proceeding. 16:49:39
4 Q What communications, if any, did you have 16:49:43
5 with Ms. Heard about Judge Meisinger's decision 16:49:45
6 throwing out her demand for arbitration? 16:49:51
7 MS. BREDEHOFT: I'm going to object. Let 16:49:53
8 me object first. Calls for attorney-client 16:49:56
9 communication, so I'm invoking the attorney-client 16:49:59
10 communications. 16:50:02
11 MR. SCHWARTZ: And I will instruct the 16:50:02
12 witness not to answer for that reason, and also 16:50:03
13 for attorney work product protection. 16:50:05
14 MR. CHEW: All right. Let me make a 16:50:05
15 record because we are, as Mr. George aptly 16:50:10
16 predicted, we are going back to the Court. So I 16:50:13
17 will ask the questions, and Mr. George will wait 16:50:16
18 for you to instruct. 16:50:19
19 BY MR. CHEW: 16:50:19
20 Q Did you have any oral communications with 16:50:20
21 Ms. Heard relating to the demand for arbitration 16:50:22
22 and the results of that as reflected in 16:50:25

1 MR. SCHWARTZ: Also lack of foundation, 18:30:47
2 and I'll instruct the witness not to answer. 18:30:49
3 MS. BREDEHOFT: Lack of foundation, 18:30:51
4 speculation, hearsay. 18:30:54
5 MR. CHEW: You're instructing him not to 18:30:55
6 answer that, too? 18:30:57
7 MR. SCHWARTZ: Correct. 18:30:59
8 BY MR. CHEW: 18:31:00
9 Q Who is Paul Berese [ph]. 18:31:01
10 A Paul Berese is a private investigator. 18:31:05
11 Q Did there come a time when you engaged 18:31:10
12 Mr. Berese to be a private investigator for 18:31:16
13 Ms. Heard with respect to Mr. Depp's defamation 18:31:21
14 case in Virginia? 18:31:24
15 MS. BREDEHOFT: I'm going to object on the 18:31:25
16 grounds that it calls for either attorney-client 18:31:27
17 communications or work product in connection with 18:31:31
18 representation, and I would invoke the privileges. 18:31:35
19 MR. SCHWARTZ: And I will assert the 18:31:38
20 attorney work product protection on Mr. George's 18:31:39
21 behalf and instruct him not to answer for the same 18:31:39
22 reason. 18:31:45

10	privilege, as well if there is any communication	18:32:13
11	with respect to attorney-client communications, I	18:32:15
12	would invoke that privilege.	18:32:17
13	MR. CHEW: Are you instructing him not to	18:32:19
14	answer?	18:32:21
15	MR. SCHWARTZ: I don't think the question	18:32:21
16	calls for that, but go ahead.	18:32:22
17	A I can certainly tell you I have no	18:32:24
18	personal information on that one.	18:32:26
19	Q But you did engage him as an investigator	18:32:30
20	in the context of the Virginia case, correct?	18:32:33
21	MS. BREDEHOFT: I'm going to object.	18:32:36
22	A I didn't say that.	18:32:39

1	MR. SCHWARTZ: Go ahead, Elaine.	18:32:42
2	MS. BREDEHOFT: That was already asked and	18:32:44
3	answered. I've already objected on the basis of	18:32:46
4	work product and, potentially, attorney-client	18:32:47
5	privilege, and I'm invoking those.	18:32:51
6	MR. SCHWARTZ: And I'll object on the	18:32:54
7	basis of the attorney work product protection and	18:32:56
8	instruct the witness not to answer on the basis	18:32:59
9	for that.	18:33:02
10	MR. CHEW: Well, all of this has been	18:33:02
11	waived, but we're going to fight this another day.	18:33:04
12	So please be very quick in your instructions not	18:33:04
13	to answer so we can move on. But I have to make a	18:33:09
14	record, as you know.	18:33:10
15	BY MR. CHEW:	18:33:12
16	Q What tasks if any, did you give Mr. Berese	18:33:13
17	with respect to investigating Mr. Depp in the	18:33:17
18	context of the Virginia action?	18:33:21
19	MS. BREDEHOFT: I'm going to object, and	18:33:22
20	calls for hearsay, foundation, speculation, and to	18:33:24
21	the extent that it calls for any attorney-client	18:33:29
22	communications or work product associated with the	18:33:32

1 to the extent that it calls for attorney-client 19:17:38
2 communications outside of the scope of the 19:17:41
3 representation of the drafting and publication of 19:17:44
4 the op-ed and also work product, and will invoke 19:17:47
5 those privileges. 19:17:49
6 BY MR. CHEW: 19:17:53
7 Q What communications, if any, did you have 19:17:53
8 with Amber Heard about your allegation here that 19:17:56
9 Johnny Depp "repeatedly" beat her? 19:17:59
10 MS. BREDEHOFT: I'm going to object to the 19:18:02
11 extent that it calls for attorney-client 19:18:04
12 communications outside the representation of Amber 19:18:06
13 for the drafting and publication of the op-ed, and 19:18:09
14 also work product privileges, and invoke those. 19:18:12
15 MR. SCHWARTZ: I'll add asked and 19:18:15
16 answered, and I'll instruct the witness not to 19:18:18
17 answer to the extent that the answer reveals 19:18:20
18 communications outside the limited scope we've 19:18:25
19 been discussing. 19:18:28
20 BY MR. CHEW: 19:18:28
21 Q What did your investigator, Paul Berese, 19:18:28
22 write you or write you about what he had 19:18:33

1	discovered about the allegation concerning	19:18:36
2	Mr. Depp beating Amber Heard?	19:18:39
3	MS. BREDEHOFT: I'm going to object to the	19:18:41
4	extent that calls for hearsay, foundation,	19:18:43
5	speculation, and then also to the extent that it	19:18:46
6	calls for attorney work product outside the scope	19:18:49
7	of the representation for the op-ed, for the	19:18:52
8	drafting and publication of the op-ed. I would	19:18:54
9	invoke that privilege.	19:18:57
10	MR. SCHWARTZ: And I'll also object on the	19:18:59
11	basis of attorney work product and instruct the	19:19:01
12	witness not to answer.	19:19:04
13	BY MR. CHEW:	19:19:05
14	Q Isn't it true that Mr. Berese told you he	19:19:06
15	came up with no one that could corroborate	19:19:09
16	Ms. Heard's allegations?	19:19:12
17	MS. BREDEHOFT: Objection. Leading.	19:19:13
18	Hearsay. Foundation. And then to the extent it	19:19:15
19	calls for work product outside the representation	19:19:17
20	-- outside the scope of the representation for the	19:19:20
21	drafting and publication of the op-ed, I would	19:19:23
22	invoke the privilege.	19:19:26

1	meritorious claims, correct?	20:07:09
2	MS. BREDEHOFT: Objection. Hearsay.	20:07:11
3	Foundation. Speculation. Not best evidence.	20:07:13
4	MR. SCHWARTZ: And mischaracterizes the	20:07:17
5	evidence.	20:07:17
6	A Mr. Chew, I should only say that I do	20:07:21
7	understand that an order was issued denying the	20:07:23
8	motion to dismiss; but beyond that, I really	20:07:26
9	shouldn't comment on it because I just don't know	20:07:30
10	the particulars of what occurred at that point in	20:07:32
11	time.	20:07:32
12	Q All right. Mr. George, I just want to --	20:07:32
13	this is just for purposes of making the record.	20:07:40
14	Did Ms. Heard, either directly or through	20:07:44
15	you, engage Paul Berese to be a private	20:07:47
16	investigator in the Depp v Heard matter?	20:07:53
17	MS. BREDEHOFT: Objection to the extent	20:07:56
18	that this calls for any attorney-client	20:07:59
19	communications outside the scope of the drafting	20:08:01
20	and publication of the op-ed or outside the scope	20:08:02
21	of -- or with work product outside the scope of	20:08:06
22	the drafting and publication of the op-ed, I would	20:08:10

1	impose the -- I would invoke the privilege and the	20:08:15
2	doctrine.	20:08:19
3	MR. SCHWARTZ: And I will also object on	20:08:19
4	the basis of the attorney work product protection,	20:08:20
5	and instruct the witness not to answer.	20:08:22
6	MR. CHEW: Okay. Just two more.	20:08:24
7	BY MR. CHEW:	20:08:24
8	Q Were you, or some attorney at your law	20:08:29
9	firm, the person who engaged Mr. Berese, or was it	20:08:31
10	someone else?	20:08:35
11	MS. BREDEHOFT: Objection to the extent it	20:08:35
12	calls for work product outside the scope of the	20:08:37
13	drafting and publication of the op-ed, I would	20:08:41
14	invoke the work product privilege. And to the	20:08:44
15	extent that it would involve or implicate	20:08:48
16	attorney-client communications, because I guess	20:08:53
17	that's a possibility in that one, outside the	20:08:56
18	scope of the op-ed, I will impose that.	20:08:59
19	MR. SCHWARTZ: I'll object on the basis of	20:09:01
20	attorney work product protection, and instruct the	20:09:04
21	witness not to answer.	20:09:05
22	BY MR. CHEW:	20:09:06

1 Q Was Ms. Heard the one who directly engaged 20:09:07
2 Mr. Berese to serve as a private investigator in 20:09:11
3 matters relating to Depp versus Heard? 20:09:14

4 MS. BREDEHOFT: Objection. I believe that 20:09:16
5 one definitely calls for attorney-client 20:09:19
6 communications outside the scope of the -- it 20:09:20
7 calls for an answer to that involving either 20:09:23
8 attorney-client communications outside the scope 20:09:28
9 of the op-ed, the drafting and publication of the 20:09:29
10 op-ed, or work product also outside that scope of 20:09:33
11 the op-ed. So I would invoke the privilege and 20:09:38
12 the document. 20:09:41

13 MR. SCHWARTZ: And I will object on the 20:09:41
14 basis of the attorney work product protection, and 20:09:42
15 instruct the witness not to answer. 20:09:45

16 BY MR. CHEW: 20:09:47

17 Q At the time of the op-ed representation 20:09:47
18 that you were trying to carve out, what, if any, 20:09:50
19 conversations did you have with James Franco or 20:09:53
20 James Franco's lawyer? 20:09:58

21 MS. BREDEHOFT: I'm going to object to the 20:10:01
22 extent that it calls for any work product outside 20:10:03

Subject: Suggested Restrictions on Camera in the Courtroom

Attachments: image003.png

Dear Samy,

Mr. Depp opposes certain of Ms. Heard’s proposed restrictions and may have a few of his own to recommend.

As to the former, Mr. Depp strongly objects, for example, to Ms. Heard’s proposed No. 5, which is a classic case of Ms. Heard “wanting to have her cake and eat it too.” We believe that Ms. Heard’s rape allegations are outrageously false, and physically impossible, since one allegedly occurred after Ms. Heard had severed the top of his finger with a broken vodka bottle (and as to which Ms. Heard’s testimony shifted dramatically as to timing). And even the Court in the U.K. dismissed one of them out of hand Ms. Heard is proposing that the cameras capture the fact of her scandalous allegations- which her counsel has improperly leaked to the press in violation of the Stipulated Amended Protective Order- but omit the patently false facts which would show the world how absurd her claims are. That is neither fair nor appropriate.

In light of the fact that a few weeks still remain before trial, and that I will be in Los Angeles with Mr. Depp for the mediation this coming Wednesday, March 16, Mr. Depp respectfully requests that the Court allow him until next Thursday, March 17, in which to respond to Ms. Heard’s suggestions- and to propose his own- and that the Court consider taking them up on Friday, March 18, when the parties will be before the Court anyway on the sanctions motions.

Warm regards,

Ben

Subject: Suggested Restrictions on Camera in the Courtroom

Samy: This follows Chief Judge Azcarate's decision to allow a pool camera in the courtroom for the trial, and her request that we send any suggested restrictions to you within the next two weeks. Our suggestions are as follows:

1. The camera should be in a stationary position such that there is no risk of accidentally capturing any juror;
2. The Court should explicitly prohibit any filming or tweeting on smart phones or any other devices by anyone in the courtrooms;
3. The Court controls whether there is any filming within the Courthouse. We strongly recommend the Court prohibit any filming within the Courthouse other than the camera that will be used for the pool inside the courtroom – this will also minimize the risk of any jurors being captured;
4. Voir Dire should not be included in the filming, to protect the jurors – if

- the court is inclined to include the questions, at least exclude the answers or any risk of filming the jurors or their voices;
5. Testimony with respect to the underlying facts relating to the sexual violence allegations, including rape and sexual assault, as well as any arguments about the specific testimony (not the fact of the allegations of sexual violence, but the underlying facts) should not be included in the filming (and we would ask to close the courtroom for this testimony) when counsel plan to raise the topic beyond simply the allegations of sexual violence, or elicit testimony, they should first ask to approach the bench so the Court can take the appropriate steps to protect ;
 6. The cameras should be restricted to the Court, the witnesses and counsel – it should not pan or attempt to capture the audience or staff, including any reactions they may have to any testimony and shall not hone in on any work product of counsel;
 7. The cameras should be off during any bench conferences;
 8. The cameras should be off during any motions in Limine argued (or ruled upon) at trial;
 9. The cameras should be off during jury instruction conferences;
 10. If the Court is permitting live stream, consider a 5 minute delay to be able to correct for any inadvertent capturing, e.g. a juror;
 11. We assume the March 30, 31 and April 1 hearings on the Motions in Limine and Deposition Designations will be closed to the public and the motions filed under seal.

We are happy to participate in any further discussions or hearings relating to these issues if the Court so desires.

Thank you very much for your consideration. Elaine

VIRGINIA:

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF FAIRFAX COUNTY, VIRGINIA

JOHN C. DEPP, II

Plaintiff and Counterclaim Defendant,

v.

AMBER LAURA HEARD,

Defendant and Counterclaim Plaintiff.

Civil Action No.: CL-2019-0002911

PLAINTIFF AND COUNTERCLAIM DEFENDANT JOHN C. DEPP, II'S RESPONSES AND OBJECTIONS TO DEFENDANT AND COUNTERCLAIM PLAINTIFF
AMBER LAURA HEARD'S FOURTH SET OF INTERROGATORIES

Pursuant to Rule 4:8 of the Rules of the Supreme Court of Virginia, Plaintiff and Counterclaim Defendant John C. Depp, II, by and through his undersigned counsel, hereby responds and objects to Defendant and Counterclaim Plaintiff Amber Laura Heard's Fourth Set of Interrogatories (each, an "Interrogatory" and collectively, the "Interrogatory"), dated January 17, 2022 and served in the above captioned action ("Action") as follows:

GENERAL OBJECTIONS

1. Plaintiff incorporates by reference as if fully set forth herein the General Objections contained in the Responses and Objections to Defendant's First Set of Requests for Production of Documents and Things to Plaintiff, dated September 3, 2019.

gg. Your Expert Designation. The phrase “Your Expert Designation” refers to Plaintiff’s Designation/Identification of Expert Witness served on February 16, 2021, along with any supplemental to or any other Designation/Identification of Expert Witness served by you in this Action.

RESPONSE: No objection.

INTERROGATORIES

1. Please describe in detail each and every incident during which You contend that Ms. [redacted] [redacted] inflicted any type of physical or emotional violence or abuse upon you. Please include the dates, times and location, as well as a description of the communications and actions leading up to, through, and following such alleged violence or abuse.

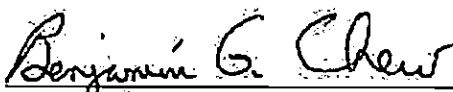

RESPONSE:

In addition to the foregoing General Objections and Objections to Definitions and Instructions, Plaintiff objects to this Interrogatory as compound. Plaintiff further objects that this Interrogatory will cause Defendant to exceed the number of additional interrogatories authorized by the Court. Plaintiff further objects to the term “violence or abuse” as vague and ambiguous. Plaintiff further objects that the Interrogatory is overly broad, ambiguous, and seeks irrelevant information, particularly (but without limitation) with respect to its demand for a “description of the communications and actions leading up to, through, and following such alleged violence or abuse.” Plaintiff further objects to this Interrogatory as overly broad and unduly burdensome. Plaintiff further objects to this Interrogatory to the extent that it seeks information protected by the attorney-client privilege, the work product doctrine, or any other applicable privilege, immunity, or protection. Plaintiff further objects to this Interrogatory as unlikely to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence and that it seeks documents and communications that are irrelevant, immaterial, or unnecessary to the issues in this Action. Plaintiff further objects to this Interrogatory to the extent it is intended to harass Plaintiff Plaintiff further objects to this Interrogatory as unreasonably cumulative and duplicative of Defendant's document requests, specifically Interrogatory No. 2 in Defendant's Third Set of Interrogatories.

Dated: February 7, 2022

DECLARATION OF MICHAEL J. DAILEY REGARDING MS. HEARD'S ATTEMPTED SERVICE OF SUBPOENAS FOR DISCOVERY ON NON-PARTIES TRAVIS MCGIVERN, LEONARD DAMIAN, AND KEVIN MURPHY

1 I, Michael J. Dailey, declare as follows:

2 1. I am an attorney duly admitted to practice before all courts in the State of 3 California. I am a Partner with the law firm Gordon Rees Scully Mansukhani, LLP, counsel of 4 record for Petitioner/Defendant and Counterclaim Plaintiff Amber Laura Heard (“Ms. Heard”).
5 I have personal knowledge of the facts contained herein, and as to those facts of which I do not
6 have personal knowledge, I believe them to be true on information and belief. If called as a
7 witness I could and would competently testify thereto.

8 2. I submit this declaration regarding Ms. Heard’s attempted service of subpoenas
9 for production of business records on non-parties Travis McGivern and Leonard Damian, and 10 subpoenas for personal appearance on non-parties Travis McGivern, Leonard Damian, and 11 Kevin Murphy. The subpoenas to Mr. McGivern and Mr. Damian were issued by my office
12 pursuant to the Interstate and International Depositions and Discovery Act, and the subpoena to 13 Mr. Murphy was issued by my firm’s Chicago office pursuant to Illinois statute, all for use in 14 the underling Virginia Action, Depp v. Heard, Case No. CL-2019-0002911.

15 Travis McGivern

16 3. On January 27, 2022, my office issued a subpoena for production of business
17 records and a subpoena for personal appearance to Travis McGivern at 321 No. Pass Ave.
18 #123, Burbank, CA 91505. On the same day, the subpoenas were provided to BFRM, a 19 California process server, to attempt personal service on Mr. McGivern. Later that day, BFRM
20 informed my office by email that 321 No. Pass Ave. #123, Burbank, CA 91505 is a postal 21 annex, and further service attempts were placed on hold. Attached hereto as Exhibit A is a true 22 and correct copy of that email.

23 4. On February 2, 2022, my office ran an online background search via Westlaw
24 for Mr. McGivern, and identified an alternative address of 333 1st Street, Apt B109, Seal
25 Beach, CA 90740.

26 5. On February 16, 2022, my office issued new subpoenas for production of 27 business records and for personal appearance to Mr. McGivern at 333 1st Street, Apt B109,

28

1 Seal Beach, CA 90740, and these were again provided to BFRM to attempt personal service.

2 6. I am informed that BFRM attempted to serve the subpoenas on Mr. McGivern at 3 the new address on February 17, 2022, at 6:40 p.m., but were told by the current occupant that
4 he did not know anyone by the name of Travis McGivern and had been living at that address
5 for over a year. A true and correct copy of BFRM's declaration regarding its service attempt at 6 this address is attached hereto as Exhibit B.

7 Leonard Damian

8 7. On January 27, 2022, my office issued a subpoena for personal appearance to 9 Leonard Damian at 6217 Archway, Irvine, CA 92618, and provided this subpoena to BFRM to 10 personally serve Mr. Damian. I am informed that BFRM attempted service on January 27,
11 2022 at 5:49 p.m., but there was no answer and no one appeared to be home.

12 8. On January 28, 2022, my office issued a subpoena for production of business
13 records to Leonard Damian at the same address of 6217 Archway, Irvine, CA 92618 and 14 provided this to BFRM to personally serve Mr. Damian.

15 9. I am informed that BFRM attempted service of both subpoenas on January 29,
16 2022 at 11:49 a.m., but that there was no answer at the door and no one appeared to be home. I
17 am informed that BFRM attempted service again on January 29, 2022 at 8:10 p.m., February
18 1, 2022 at 8:00 p.m., February 8, 2022 at 8:25 a.m., February 11, 2022 at 6:15 p.m., and 19 February 14, 2022 at 11:50 a.m., but on each occasion, there was no answer. Attached hereto
20 as Exhibit C are true and correct copies of BFRM's service update emails for this address.

21 10. On February 4, 2022, given service attempts had been unsuccessful up to that 22 point, my office ran an online background search via Westlaw for Mr. Damian, and identified
23 an alternative address of 8033 W. Sunset Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90046.

24 11. On February 15, 2022, my office issued new subpoenas for production of 25 business records and for personal appearance to Mr. Damian at 8033 W. Sunset Blvd., Los 26 Angeles, CA 90046, and these were again provided to BFRM to attempt personal service.
27 BFRM informed my office they attempted to serve Leonard Damian at the new address on

1 February 17, 2022 at 7:20 a.m., but this new address was a UPS store and further service
2 attempts were put on hold. A true and correct copy of BFRM's update email is attached hereto
3 as Exhibit D.

4 12. On February 17, 2022, my office identified a further alternative address for Mr.
5 Damian of 23396 Camelia Ln, Murrieta, CA 92662, associated with one of his bodyguard
6 permits. This address was provided to BFRM on February 17, 2022, to continue service
7 attempts at this address.

8 13. I am informed that BFRM attempted service on February 19, 2022 at 7:55 a.m.
9 at the 23396 Camelia Ln, Murrieta, CA 92662 address, but that a woman by the name of 10 Shannon Scanlon stated she had lived there for two years and does not know a Leonard
11 Damian. A true and correct copy of BFRM's declaration regarding its service attempts at this 12 address is attached hereto as Exhibit E.

13 Kevin Murphy

14 14. On February 17, 2022, the Lake County Court, Illinois, issued a subpoena for 15 personal appearance to Kevin Murphy at 25 Ronan Rd., Unit 202, Highwood, IL 60040. On 16 the same day, my firm's Chicago office provided the subpoena to Hanrahan Investigators, an 17 Illinois process server.

18 15. I am informed that Hanrahan Investigators attempted service on February 17, 19 2022 at 5:00 p.m. but there was no response at Mr. Murphy's door. I am informed that 20 Hanrahan Investigators attempted service again on February 18, 2022 at 3:00 p.m., February
21 21, 2022 at 5:30 p.m., February 23, 2022 at 3:15 p.m., and February 26, 2022 at 8:12 a.m., but 22 on each occasion there was no answer. I am informed Hanrahan Investigators also attempted 23 to call and text Mr. Murphy on February 18, 22, 24, 28, and March 5, 9 and 14, but were 24 unable to reach Mr. Murphy. A true and correct copy of Hanrahan Investigators' declaration
25 regarding its service attempts is attached hereto as Exhibit F.

26 I declare under the penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the 27 foregoing is true and correct to the best of my knowledge, information and belief.

Good morning Diane,

Status of service on Leonard Damian:

1/27/22 at 5:49 PM

I waited around because people usually come home after or a bit after 5 pm but came home. No answer.

1/29/22 at 11:15 am

Nobody seems to be home but a lot of cars are parked on the driveway. Not sure which one is their driveway but I'm assuming it's the first driveway next to their door. Neighbor told me they aren't home. No answer.

1/29/22 at 8:10 pm

No answer at the door.

We will continue attempting service.

EXHIBIT F

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE NINETEENTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT, LAKE COUNTY, ILLINOIS

JOHN C. DEPP, II,

Plaintiff,

v.

AMBER LAURA HEARD,

Defendant,

Case No.

Pending Out-of-State Action:
Civil Action No. CL-2019-0002911
Circuit Court of Fairfax County, Virginia
(Foreign Subpoena Attached)

AFFIDAVIT OF ATTEMPTED SERVICE

I, Peter J. Dotson, a citizen in good standing in the State of Illinois, am a private person over the age of 18 years, not a party to nor interested in the above captioned matter, I am a registered employee of Hanrahan Investigations located at 4413 Roosevelt Road, Suite 110, Hillside, IL 60162, a private detective agency listed under The Private Detective, Private Alarm, Private Security and Locksmith Act of 2004, under the laws of the State of Illinois, agency license #117-000934.

I attempted to serve a SUBPOENA FOR DEPOSITION, NOTICE OF DEPOSITION BY VIDEO and a witness fee check in the amount of $25.00 upon Kevin Murphy at his residence, 25 Ronan Rd., Unit 202, Highwood, IL 60040 on 02/17/2022 and 02/23/2022.

On 02/17/2022 at approximately 5:00 PM, there was no response at the intercom for Unit 202. I spoke with multiple neighbors through the building intercom system attempting to gain access to Murphy's residence. An unidentified female neighbor allowed me access to the building and stated Murphy was out of town. There was no response at Murphy's door. I called the possible phone numbers listed for Murphy as well as his associates and left voicemails regarding the aforementioned service documents.

On 02/23/2022 at approximately 3:15 PM, there was no response at the intercom for Unit 202. I spoke with multiple neighbors through the building intercom system attempting to gain access to Murphy's residence. I was unable to gain access to the building. I called the possible phone numbers for Murphy and left voicemails regarding the aforementioned service documents.

Additionally, I conducted a phone canvass for Kevin Murphy on 02/18/2022, 02/22/2022, 02/24/2022, 02/28/2022, 03/05/2022, 03/09/2022 and 03/14/2022. I was unable to reach Kevin Murphy during these phone canvass attempts. I left voicemail messages as well as text messages during these listed attempts to contact Kevin Murphy.

Further, the affiant sayeth not.

Peter J. Dotson

16. State in detail all facts which support and/or otherwise relate to any claim for monetary relief as part of this matter. Include in Your answer: (i) an itemization of all damages, loss or injury for which You are claiming or seeking to recover in this action—including each and every employment opportunity which You claim You have lost as a result of the actions complained of; (ii) an explanation of how the damages were computed; (iii) all assumptions made in computing the damages, and the basis for such assumptions; (iv) an explanation of how the damages are attributable to Defendant; and (v) all efforts to mitigate the damages.

FURTHER SUPPLEMENTAL RESPONSE:

Plaintiff reiterates the objections stated above in his original Answer, including that this Interrogatory is more appropriately addressed following the completion of fact and expert discovery. Subject to and without waiving any of the foregoing objections, Plaintiff further supplements his response as follows:

Plaintiff notes that because Ms. Heard's defamatory statements constitute defamation per se, damages are presumed, and need not be specifically proven. In any event, Plaintiff responds that his claim for monetary damages is supported by, inter alia, the fact that Plaintiff's reputation and career has been severely damaged, and Plaintiff has suffered the absence of roles and a substantial decline in his marketability. Although it is obvious and inevitable that these types of allegations would have a negative impact on Plaintiff's reputation and professional standing, particularly because Plaintiff is an individual in the public eye, the economic impact of these defamatory statements is the subject of expert analysis and disclosure according to Virginia law. Accordingly, Plaintiff incorporates by this reference his Disclosures of Expert Witnesses in this action and the documents underlying the same, specifically including the opinions and support for the opinions of Michael Spindler, Richard Marks and Doug Bania, as though set forth in full. Plaintiff further incorporates by this reference relevant deposition testimony in this action, including without limitation the testimony of Jack Whigham, Walt Disney, Christian Carino, as well as documents produced in this action, including without limitation Plaintiff's contracts with Disney, and the documents produced at EWC 1-52. Plaintiff further notes that he has suffered widespread negative press attention following the Op-Ed, which press coverage is a matter of public record and equally available to Defendant.

Further, just four days after Ms. Heard's op-ed was first published on December 18, 2018, Disney announced on December 22, 2018 that it was dropping Mr. Depp from his leading role as Captain Jack Sparrow in the forthcoming sixth installment of the Pirates of the Caribbean franchise. Based on Mr. Depp's prior earnings in connection with the Pirates of the Caribbean franchise, Mr. Depp expects that his role in the sixth installment would have been worth at least $50,000,000. Disney has never retracted that announcement, and to date Mr. Depp has never been approached or offered a role in the subsequent Pirates movie. In addition, Mr. Depp has not been offered or has otherwise lost other roles, such as an anticipated role as Harry Houdini, following Ms. Heard's Op-Ed.

EXTERNAL EMAIL

Adam:

As indicated in my email below, we have not agreed and have not been authorized to accept service on behalf of Gina Deuters. Listing a means of contact is not the same as agreeing to accept service or waiving the requirements of personal service.

As also indicated in my email below, we will look into this issue and get back to you. We have been doing our best to work cooperatively with your office on the various subpoenas Ms. Heard has issued, and intend to continue doing so. But as you already know, we cannot accept service of any and all subpoenas without authorization.

Subject: RE: Depp v Heard - Subpoenas to Gina Deuters

Sam- After we requested the depositions of Stephen Deuters and Sean Bett in August of 2020, Ben Chew agreed to accept service for both (documents and depositions), so long as we agreed to take both depositions by Zoom. We have been working with your firm on their document productions for over a year, and have scheduled the depositions based on receiving the documents, which you recently produced. We expect these to be taken on January 25 and January 26, 2022, and if someone is not available, you should let us know now and provide available dates by this Thursday.

With respect to Gina Deuters, you specifically directed us to contact Ms. Deuters through Brown Rudnick. We have done precisely that, by sending you her subpoenas. Mr. Depp cannot list your firm as the address for Ms. Deuters and then refuse to accept service on their behalf. Please confirm that Gina Deuters will be available for her deposition on January 27, 2022. If they she is not available on that date, like Mr. Deuters and Mr. Bett, please let us know by Thursday of this week and we will work with you to schedule a mutually acceptable date for her deposition. Please be aware, however, that all these subpoenas should be treated by you as served, based on your explicit directions and agreements.

Subject: RE: Depp v Heard - Subpoenas to Gina Deuters

Adam,

We have not previously agreed (and are not currently authorized) to accept service on behalf of Gina Deuters. We should also note that we understand Stephen and Gina Deuters to now be resident in the UK, and likely not subject to subpoena in the U.S.

We will look into this issue and can discuss this with you further, but as of today's date you should not assume that you have served this subpoena, or that it is effective.

Best,
Sam

Ben, et al- Attached are subpoenas to Gina Deuters that were filed with the Court today. This should also be considered service upon Ms. Deuters, as in Mr. Depp's disclosures, he stated that service for Ms. Deuters should be through Mr. Depp's counsel.

ATTACHMENT 3

John C. Depp, II v. Amber Laura Heard

Fairfax County Circuit Court: CL 2019-0002911

DEFINITIONS

- a. Action. The term "Action" means the above-captioned action.
- b. And/or. The use of "and/or" shall be interpreted in every instance both conjunctively and disjunctively in order to bring within the scope of these discovery requests any information which might otherwise be construed to be outside their scope.
- c. Communication. The term "Communication" means any oral or written exchange of words, thoughts, or ideas to another person, whether person-to-person, in a group, by phone, text (SMS), letter, fax, e-mail, internet post or correspondence, social networking post or correspondence or by any other process, electric, electronic, photographs, video or audio tape recordings, or otherwise. All such Communications are included without regard to the storage or transmission medium (electronically stored information and hard copies are included within this definition).
- d. Complaint. The term "Complaint" means the Complaint, dated March 1, 2019, filed in the Action.
- e. Concerning. The term "Concerning" includes relating to, referring to, describing, evidencing, or constituting.
- f. Correspondence. The term "correspondence" means any document(s) and/or communication(s) sent to or received from another entity and/or person.
- g. Defendant and/or Ms. Heard. The terms "Defendant" and/or "Ms. Heard" refer to Defendant Amber Laura Heard, including her agents, representatives, employees, assigns, and all persons acting on her behalf.
- h. Depp Abuse of Heard Dates. The phrase "Depp Abuse of Heard Dates" refers to the time periods contained in the Court's November 8, 2021 Order: December 15, 2012-January 15, 2013; March 6-April 5, 2013; June 1-June 30, 2013; May 22-June 7, 2014; August 15-August 31, 2014; December 15-December 31, 2014; January 23-February 8, 2015; March 1-April 6, 2015; August 1-August 31, 2015; November 24-December 10, 2015; December 13, 2015-January 12, 2016; April 19-May 5, 2016; May 19-June 4, 2016; and July 15-July 29, 2016.

i. Disney. The term Disney refers Walt Disney Motion Pictures Group, Inc., is affiliates, subsidiaries, employees, agents, assigns, representatives and all persons and entities acting on its behalf, including, but not limited to, Walt Disney Pictures, Sean Bailey, and Jerry Bruckheimer.

j. Document. The term "Document" is defined in its broadest terms currently recognized. The term shall include, without limitations: any written or other compilation of information (whether printed, handwritten, recorded, or encoded, produced, reproduced, or reproducible by any other process), drafts (revisions or finals), original or preliminary notes, and summaries of other documents, communications of any type (e-mail, text messages, blog posts, social media posts or other similar communications or correspondence), computer tape, computer files, and including all of their contents and attached files. The term "document" shall also include but not be limited to: correspondence, memoranda, contractual documents, specifications, drawings, photographs, audio or video recordings, images, aperture cards, notices of revisions, test reports, inspection reports, evaluations, technical reports, schedules, agreements, reports, studies, analyses, projections, forecasts, summaries, records of conversations or interviews, minutes or records of conferences or meetings, manuals, handbooks, brochures, pamphlets, advertisements, circulars, press releases, financial statements, calendars, diaries, trip reports, etc. A draft of a non-identical copy is a separate document within the meaning of this term.

k. Engaged. The term "Engaged," in relation to a person (as defined herein), means contracted, directed, hired, retained, formed an agreement with (whether formal or informal, binding or nonbinding, written or oral), and/or procured the services of, whether or not in exchange for remuneration or other valuable consideration.

l. Including. The term "including" means including but not limited to.

m. Other Litigation. The term "Other Litigation" includes the following cases either brought against Mr. Depp or by Mr. Depp. Individually, the name in quotations following the title of the case refers to that particular case.

- Eugene Arreola, Miguel Sanchez v. John C. Depp, II et al., Case No. BC704539, Cal. Super. Ct. (Los Angeles County filed May 1, 2018) ("Security Guard Case").
- Gregg "Rocky" Brooks v. John C. Depp, et al., Case No. BC713123, Cal. Super. Ct. (Los Angeles County filed July 6, 2018) ("Movie Set Assault Case").

- John C. Depp, II, et al v. Bloom Hergott Diemer, Rosenthal Laviolette Feldman Schenkman & Goodman, LLP, Jacob A. Bloom, and DOES 1-30, Case No. BC680066 (Cal. Super. Ct. filed Oct. 17, 2017) (“Attorney Case”).
- John C. Depp, II, Edward L. White v. The Mandel Company, et al., Case No. BC646882 (Cal. Super. Ct. filed January 13, 2017) (“Mandel case”).

n. Person. The term “person” is defined as any natural person, business, company, partnership, legal entity, governmental entity, and/or association.

o. Performance. The term “Performance,” in relation to Mr. Depp, means any creative work in which Mr. Depp or his likeness is, was, will be, may be, or is contemplated to appear, whether or not in exchange for payment or other benefit to Mr. Depp, and includes (without limitation) any appearance (or potential appearance) by Mr. Depp in any film, TV series, product endorsement, advertisement, musical performance, or in-person appearance. To avoid doubt, a Performance includes any creative work in which it was contemplated that Mr. Depp or his likeness would be featured, even if the work was ultimately created without Mr. Depp or his likeness appearing.

p. Plaintiff and/or Mr. Depp. The terms “Plaintiff and/or “Mr. Depp” in the context of any communications refer to Plaintiff John C. Depp, II, and also include his agents, representatives, employees, assigns, and all persons acting on his behalf both individually or as entities, including, but not limited to Infinitum Nihil, Scaramanga Bros. Inc., L.R.D. Productions, Inc., Adam Waldman, The Endeavor Law Firm PC, Frederick Levin, Buckley Sandler LLP, Pat Cipollone, Edward White, Edward White & Co, Benjamin Chew, Camille Vasquez, and Samuel Moniz, or any other attorney or agent representing Mr. Depp.

q. Requests. The term “Requests” shall mean the requests for documents to be produced under this Subpoena as set forth in this Attachment.

r. Romantic Partners. The term “Romantic Partners” shall mean any persons You know to have been in an intimate relationship with Mr. Depp.

s. You and/or Your. The terms “You” and/or “Your” refer to the recipient of this Subpoena, as well as all persons and entities over which said recipient has “control” as understood by the Rules of this Court.

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Where information in Your possession is requested, such request includes non-privileged information in the possession of Your agent(s), employee(s), assign(s), representative(s), and all others acting on Your behalf.
2. Whenever appropriate in these Requests, the singular form of a word shall be interpreted as its plural to whatever extent is necessary to bring within the scope of these Requests any information which might otherwise be construed to be outside their scope.
3. Unless otherwise indicated, these Requests refer to the time, place, and circumstances of the occurrences mentioned or complained of in the pleadings in this case.
4. All references to an entity include the entity and its agents, officers, employees, representatives, subsidiaries, divisions, successors, predecessors, assigns, parents, affiliates, and unless privileged, its attorneys and accountants.
5. If You perceive any ambiguities in a question, instruction, definition, or other aspect of this Subpoena, set forth the matter deemed ambiguous, and the construction used in answering.
6. If You assert a claim of privilege as to any of Your responses to the Requests, state the basis for the asserted privilege, specify the privilege claimed, and include in Your answer sufficient information to permit an informed ruling on the claim of privilege. If the claim relates to a privileged document, state the date, person or persons who prepared or participated in preparing the document, the name and address of any person to whom the document was shown or sent, the general subject matter of the document, the present or last known location and custodian of the original of the document, and the basis for the claim of privilege with respect to the document. If the claim of privilege relates to a communication, state the date(s), place(s) and person(s) involved in the communication, the subject matter of the communication, and the basis for the claim of privilege with respect to that communication.
7. If You perceive any Request to be overly broad, unduly burdensome, or objectionable for any other reason, respond to the fullest extent possible and clearly note any objection so as to permit an informed ruling on the objection.
8. These Requests are continuing in character so as to require You to promptly amend or supplement Your production of documents within a reasonable time if You obtain or become aware of any further documents responsive to this Subpoena.
9. Unless otherwise indicated, these Requests request documents for a time period of January 1, 2012 to the present

DOCUMENTS TO BE PRODUCED UNDER THIS SUBPOENA

In response to this subpoena, You are required to produce the original or an exact copy of the following and any documents in Your possession, custody or control:

1. All documents, communications, and correspondence relating to communications with Adam Waldman, Benjamin Chew, Camille Vasquez, Leo Presidio, Samuel Moniz, or any other attorney representing or communicating with you on behalf of Mr. Depp.
2. All documents, communications, and correspondence relating in any manner to Ms. Heard.
3. All documents that constitute, refer to or relate to video and/or audio recordings, photographs and/or images of Ms. Heard, including any copies of anything recorded by Mr. Depp or any of his entities, representatives or agents.
4. All documents that refer or relate to any consumption or possible consumption of alcohol or drug use, or abuse, by Mr. Depp.
5. All documents referring or relating to any instances or possible instances of issues with anger, anger management, shouting, yelling, scolding or speaking in a harsh tone, by Mr. Depp toward any person, including Ms. Heard or other females, any acquaintances, friends, dates, employees, or contractors of Mr. Depp or his companies, photographers, videographers, news reporters, and/or strangers.
6. All documents relating in any manner to Mr. Depp's efforts to cover up, deny, falsify or misrepresent facts or events reflecting negatively upon him.
7. All documents that refer or relate to any instances or possible instances of physical violence by Mr. Depp toward any person or property, including any photographs, videos, drawing, or other descriptions.
8. All documents that may impact negatively on Mr. Depp or Mr. Depp's reputation.
9. All communications between you and Mr. Depp referring or related to the Instagram account "johnnydepp," including but not limited to all communications referring to any posting on this account from January 1, 2020 through the present.

10. All communications between you and Mr. Depp referring or related to the posting of any information on the internet related to Mr. Depp.
11. All communications with Mr. Depp in which he created and/or sent you any content to be posted on the Instagram account "johnnydepp."
12. All communications between you and Robin Baum related in any manner to Mr. Depp.

1 documents numbered EWC 24 through 46 are Income
 2 Statements and Profit & Loss statements for
 3 Scaramanga Bros.?
 4 A They appear to be Income Statements for 5 Scaramanga, if that's responsive to your question.
 6 Q And Profit & Loss statements as well?
 7 A It's -- just let me look at it for a
 8 moment.
 9 Q Sure.
 10 A What I'm looking at -- it moved. What I'm 11 looking at is a Profit & Loss summary analysis for 12 January through December 2016. Is that responsive
 13 to your question?
 14 Q Yeah. My question was just if -- if these 15 documents included -- you said just Income
 16 Statements, but also Profit & Loss statements for 17 Scaramanga Bros.
 18 A There are three entities, you've
 19 identified them, that are only owned by Mr. Depp
 20 and utilized for his business activities.
 21 Q What is Scaramanga Bros.?
 22 A It's another loan-out corporation. And

66

1 depending upon the nature and the scope of the
 2 business activity, the income and related expenses
 3 are a conduit through this entity, as they are for 4 L.R.D., and as they are for Infinitum.
 5 Q And is your firm responsible for filing
 6 Mr. Depp's individual tax returns and tax returns
 7 for these entities?
 8 A Yes.
 9 Q And have you been since you were retained
 10 in 2016?
 11 A Yes.
 12 MR. ROTTENBORN: Can you please go to the 13 table starting at EWC 48.
 14 Q And just tell me, what are these
 15 documents?
 16 A It appears that this document was 17 constructed to identify sources of revenue from 18 various business relationships for several periods
 19 commencing in 2009. Based upon what I can see on 20 the screen, continuing through --
 21 MR. ROTTENBORN: Not so small. I can't 22 see it.

67

1 THE WITNESS: See, what's happened is, on
 2 the right side of my screen there is a visual
 3 image of all the people participating.
 4 I'm just trying to get the final date.
 5 It's a little small. Can we make that a little
 6 bigger, please.
 7 Is that 2020? Yes, it appears that the 8 schedule commences on 2009 and continues through
 9 August of 2020.
 10 BY MR. ROTTENBORN:
 11 Q And is this a schedule that you put
 12 together?
 13 A This would have been put together by my 14 colleagues. I would have engaged in discussions
 15 with them about the content.
 16 Q For all these documents, EWC 1 through 52,
 17 what other documents did you or anyone else rely
 18 upon or refer to to prepare them?
 19 A We would have looked at the underlying 20 source documents; for example, contracts. We 21 would have looked at the stream of payments that 22 were actually rendered. That would be examples of

68

1 the kind of information that we would have
 2 analyzed in order to produce this document.
 3 Q What else would you have analyzed?
 4 A Those are the two salient elements; what
 5 the contract stipulates and what actually was 6 received.
 7 Q And were there also -- for -- and I'm
 8 talking about not only this summary document on 48
 9 to 52, but also EWC 1 through 47, which shows --
 10 those documents show expenses as well, right?
 11 A What I looked at earlier there were 12 schedules that showed profit and loss and,
 13 therefore, the loss portion of it would be the 14 expense part of the ledger.
 15 Q So, what documents would you or anyone
 16 else refer or rely upon to generate the Income
 17 Statements or Profit & Loss statements?
 18 A Numerous documents. There could be 19 thousands if not tens of thousands of entries that 20 would be compiled and organized and presented to 21 construct these numbers.
 22 Q And where would those entries or that

69 1 information reside? 2 A They reside in journals, which is the book 3 of first entry, and in the ledgers that are 4 maintained for each of these entities. 5 Q Do you use software for those journals or 6 ledgers? 7 A Yes, we do. 8 Q What software? 9 A A company called QuickBooks. On some 10 cases we've used Datafaction. 11 Q I'm sorry, what was that second one? 12 A Datafaction. 13 But QuickBooks is our primary software 14 package, if you will. 15 Q You mentioned earlier, I think when you 16 were referring to the summary tables at the end of 17 this document bundle, that you would look at 18 contracts and stream of payments. What is "stream 19 of payments"? 20 A That's the actual receipts of cash that is 21 paid to Mr. Depp and his entities from the various 22 companies that engage him.	71 1 You can ask him, as you have been, what exists. 2 But as far as what he produced at the instruction 3 of counsel is privileged. 4 THE WITNESS: Therefore, I will follow the 5 advice of my counsel. 6 BY MR. ROTTENBORN: 7 Q And my question was: Is he aware -- are 8 you aware, Mr. White, of any of that type of 9 information being produced to Ms. Heard's side in 10 this case? 11 MR. PRESIADO: Objection. That would 12 necessarily involve attorney-client 13 communications. I instruct him not to answer. 14 THE WITNESS: Therefore, I will not answer 15 in accordance with the instruction of my counsel. 16 Q Mr. White, are you aware of a court order 17 requiring Mr. Depp to produce all underlying 18 financial documents relied upon or referred to by 19 you, Mr. White, to prepare the numbers and 20 calculations included in EWC 1 through 52? 21 MR. PRESIADO: Objection; calls for -- 22 necessarily calls for attorney-client
70 1 Q And where does that information exist? 2 A It exists in the journals and in the 3 ledgers for each of the entities. 4 Q Have you produced those contracts, the 5 stream of payments, the journals, the ledgers, 6 anything of that nature in this case? 7 MR. PRESIADO: Objection; compound. 8 You can answer, if you know. 9 THE WITNESS: Well, all the information 10 that we were requested has been produced and sent 11 to counsel. 12 Q And I don't want to know what your counsel 13 told you to produce or not because that's 14 privileged at this point, but my question to you 15 is: Do you know whether or not you have 16 produced -- like you produced EWC 1 through 52 to 17 us, whether you produced contracts or stream of 18 payments or journals or ledgers or any other 19 information that would underlie EWC 1 through 52? 20 MR. PRESIADO: And I object to that as 21 privileged. What he produced to counsel is 22 privileged, so I'd instruct him not to answer.	72 1 communications and I'd instruct him not to answer. 2 THE WITNESS: Therefore, I will not answer 3 in accordance with the instruction from my 4 counsel. 5 BY MR. ROTTENBORN: 6 Q I disagree that that necessarily entails 7 that, but we'll obviously take direction from your 8 counsel. 9 Have you ever taken it upon yourself, 10 Mr. White, to see a public order requiring 11 Mr. Depp to produce the information that I just 12 listed? 13 MR. PRESIADO: I'm sorry, Ben, I -- I must 14 have missed the beginning of that. Can you repeat 15 that, please. 16 Q Other than communications with your 17 counsel, have you ever seen yourself, taken it 18 upon yourself to see a public court order 19 requiring Mr. Depp to produce documents referred 20 to or relied upon in constructing EWC 1 through 21 52? 22 MR. PRESIADO: I'm not sure I understand

1 that question, so I'll object as vague and
2 ambiguous.
3 But, again, to the extent -- to the extent
4 you understand the question, to the extent you can
5 answer without divulging attorney-client
6 communications, you can do so. Otherwise, I would 7 instruct you not to answer.
8 THE WITNESS: I do not believe I can
9 respond to that without violating the attorney-
10 client privilege, and, therefore, I will follow
11 the advice of my counsel.
12 BY MR. ROTTENBORN:
13 Q I just want to kind of get a breakdown
14 of -- or just kind of get an understanding of 15 these documents to some degree. So if we look at,
16 like we looked at before, just say EWC 20, just as 17 an example.
18 Just to make sure I'm understanding these 19 documents, this document is saying that in the 20 calendar year 2016, L.R.D. Productions had a gross
21 profit of 2.098 million and change?
22 A That's what the schedule states.

74

1 MR. ROTTENBORN: Let's go to -- just by
2 way of example, let's go to EWC 35, please.
3 BY MR. ROTTENBORN:
4 Q Can you -- and I think I have an
5 understanding, but I'm curious as to yours. Can 6 you explain to me what a residual is.
7 A Yes. Artists receive upfront
8 consideration for their performances. In 9 addition, if you are highly acclaimed, you have a
10 participation in the film based upon a formula.
11 And the residuals would be the quantification of 12 your participation. So it comes after the movie
13 is produced and viewed by the general public, and 14 typically been very successful, that produces
15 extraordinary income, and the artist may 16 participate in that, and that creates a residual.
17 Q How does that differ from profit
18 participation?
19 A It's a term of -- that some people use.
20 And it may be some -- substantially equivalent.
21 Q So, like, on EWC 35, in 2015, Scaramanga
22 Bros., as a result, I assume, with Mr. Depp's

1 involvement in these films, but tell me if I'm
2 wrong, received a number of residuals in a number
3 of films and television appearances, right?
4 MR. PRESIADO: Objection; compound.
5 THE WITNESS: The answer is yes, the
6 schedule depicts the sources of that revenue.
7 Q And if you go to the next page, EWC 36,
8 there's a separate section for Profit
9 Participation. Do you see that?
10 A Yes.
11 Q What is the difference between profit
12 participation and residuals --
13 A It's oftentimes how the entertainment
14 company classifies their disbursements. But both
15 a residual and a profit participation is something
16 earned by the artist in addition to their initial 17 guaranteed compensation.
18 Q Do you have -- obviously, this -- the 19 information that you have at your firm's disposal
20 for -- before you became involved, that
21 information had to come from somewhere, right?
22 MR. PRESIADO: I'm sorry, Ben. I missed

1 that question. Can you repeat it, please.
2 MR. ROTTENBORN: Sure. Let me rephrase.
3 BY MR. ROTTENBORN:
4 Q Did -- does -- the information about what
5 Mr. Depp or his affiliated companies earned before
6 you were hired, did that come from TMG records?
7 MR. PRESIADO: Again, to the extent
8 that -- to the extent your knowledge in that 9 regard was obtained through communications where 10 attorneys were present, I would instruct you not 11 to answer. But, otherwise, you can answer.
12 THE WITNESS: Attorneys were not present.
13 And we obtained all the historical documents that 14 had been constructed by TMG, and that would have 15 been the source of our information.
16 Q Do you have any knowledge one way or the 17 other on whether those records that you received
18 from TMG are accurate?
19 A I do not have any reason to believe
20 they're not accurate. But we did not reconstruct
21 the historical information and perform a
22 comprehensive forensic study.

101

1 Q Would it be common to provide this
2 information to Mr. Depp in, say, the first quarter
3 of 2020?
4 A We respond to Mr. Depp in accordance with 5 his request. And it would not be common that we
6 would necessarily send him the type of schedules
7 that you've been showing me within the first
8 quarter. If he has inquiries, we -- we would --
9 we would respond in a very timely manner, meaning
10 in the first -- within 30 days.
11 But in response to your question were 12 these statements produced with the objective to 13 sending them to Mr. Depp, the answer is no;
14 they're produced for other reasons.
15 Q And what are those reasons?
16 A We have to file tax returns for Mr. Depp
17 and his entities. In order to file tax returns, 18 you take out of the journals and the ledgers an 19 unadjusted trial balance, then you go through an 20 adjusting process. So we're producing these 21 documents primarily for our internal use in order
22 to be in compliance with the various taxing

102

1 authorities.
2 Q So for the 2020 Profit & Loss statements
3 would you have produced those for your internal
4 use prior to filing Mr. Depp's 2020 taxes?
5 MR. PRESIADO: Objection; vague and
6 ambiguous as to "produced." Do you mean create or 7 prepare, or do you mean "produced" in the context
8 of litigation?
9 Q You can answer, Mr. White.
10 MR. PRESIADO: You can answer, if you
11 understand it.
12 THE WITNESS: I don't know the timing of 13 when these documents were created, and I don't 14 know the origin of why they were created. I gave 15 you what I thought would be a reasonable
16 explanation, which is: We create financial 17 statements for several reasons. One is to be 18 compliant with taxing authorities. Others might 19 be that financial institutions that made loans to 20 Mr. Depp would like financial information about 21 his capacity.
22 So there would be a number of reasons why

103

1 a profit and loss statement might be produced, as
2 you called it, I call it created, within the --
3 from -- by my colleagues at EWC.
4 Q Is it -- would it be safe to assume that
5 the 2020 Profit & Loss statements were created
6 over a month ago?
7 A For 2020?
8 Q Yes.
9 A Oh, yes. We had to -- for 2020 we had to 10 file tax returns for these entities in a timely
11 manner, and it clearly would have not been created
12 in -- in -- I guess you're saying January of '22.
13 Q Right. So they would have been created
14 before you filed those timely tax returns?
15 A Yes. If this information was used in the 16 preparation of the tax returns, they would have 17 been produced notably before the compliance
18 scheduled dates.
19 Q And when did you get -- file Mr. Depp's
20 tax returns for 2020?
21 A Which tax return are you referring to?
22 Q For the three businesses.

104

VIRGINIA:

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF FAIRFAX COUNTY

JOHN C. DEPP, II,

Plaintiff,

v.

AMBER LAURA HEARD,

Defendant.

Civil Action No.: CL-2019-0002911

ORDER

THIS MATTER CAME TO BE HEARD upon Defendant and Counterclaim Plaintiff Amber Laura Heard's ("Ms. Heard") Motion to Compel Responses to Tenth Requests for Production of Documents to Plaintiff and Counterclaim Defendant John C. Depp II, pursuant to Rule 4:12 of the Rules of the Virginia Supreme Court; and upon consideration of the briefs, exhibits, and argument of counsel on August 6, 2021, it is hereby:

ORDERED that Ms. Heard's Motion is GRANTED in part and DENIED in part; and it is further

ORDERED that Plaintiff John C. Depp, II shall produce all responsive documents to the following revised Request No. 5 of Ms. Heard's Tenth Requests for Production of Documents:

Portions of non-privileged deposition transcripts, written discovery responses (including responses to interrogatories, requests for production, and requests for admission), pleadings, exhibits to pleadings, and deposition exhibits referenced in responsive portions of deposition testimony provided in any of the "Other Litigation" [as defined in the 10th Requests for Production] relating to:

- a. Ms. Heard's relationship with Mr. Depp;
- b. To the extent not covered by the preceding category, Mr. Depp's and Ms. Heard's respective allegations of physical or emotional domestic abuse/violence;

no enr 9/23/21

- c. Any alleged damage to Mr. Depp's career prospects, loss of and injury to reputation, loss of roles or economic opportunities, harm to his ability to carry on his profession, embarrassment, humiliation, emotional distress, loss of income, career interruption or lost career opportunity, as a result of alleged tardiness or behavior on set;
- d. Any allegations of reputational harm, alleged damage to Mr. Depp's career prospects, loss of and injury to reputation, loss of roles or economic opportunities, harm to his ability to carry on his profession, embarrassment, humiliation, emotional distress, loss of income, career interruption or lost career opportunity, caused by the defendants in the Other Litigation;
- e. Any allegations by the defendants in the Other Litigation of damage to Mr. Depp's career prospects, damage to his career prospects, loss of and injury to reputation, loss of roles or economic opportunities, harm to his ability to carry on his profession, embarrassment, humiliation, emotional distress, loss of income, career interruption or lost career opportunity;
- f. Any allegations by anyone of drug and alcohol use or abuse by Mr. Depp or Ms. Heard;
- g. Anything related to Mr. Depp committing property damage, including descriptions of the damage, pictures or other evidence of the damage, cost of repairs, and any other financial remuneration as a result of the property damage committed;
- h. Anything related to Ms. Heard committing property damage, including descriptions of the damage, pictures or other evidence of the damage, cost of repairs, and any other financial enumeration as a result of the property damage committed;
- i. Anything related to Mr. Depp's injury to his finger in March 2015; and
- j. Anything related to Mr. Depp's efforts to obtain a pre-nuptial or post-nuptial agreement from Ms. Heard and any communications in connection therewith.

and it is further

ORDERED that Plaintiff John C. Depp, II shall produce all responsive documents to the following revised Request No. 6 of Ms. Heard's Tenth Requests for Production of Documents:

All financial documents relied upon by Mr. White, or anyone else who may have been involved or participated (collectively, "Mr. White"), in preparing the documents bates numbered EWC 1-52. For purposes of clarity, this request is only seeking all underlying financial documents relied upon or referred to by Mr. White to prepare the numbers and calculations included in EWC 1-52.

and it is further

ORDERED that Plaintiff John C. Depp, II shall produce all responsive documents to the following revised Request No. 20 of Ms. Heard's Tenth Requests for Production of Documents:

Please provide documents sufficient to reflect all loans, benefits, perks, expenses, or payments for any other reason in excess of $5,000 in either cash or value made by You from May 21, 2016 through the present, to the following (for each person the request includes if paid to an entity or someone on their behalf): Debbie Lloyd, Christi Dembrowski, Trinity Esparza, Brandon Patterson, Cornelius Harrell, Alejandro Romero, Robin Baum, Laura Divenere, Christian Carino, Jack Whigham, Tracy Jacob, Melanie Inglessis, Stephen Deuters, Sean Bett, Malcolm Connolly, Nathan Holmes, Raquel Pennington, Kate James, Jennifer Howell, Michele Mulrooney, Edward White, Melissa Saenz, Tyler Hadden, Isaac Baruch, Lisa Beane, Erin Boerum, Connell Cowan, Bobby de Leon, Gina Deuters, Josh Drew, Ben King, David Kipper, Joel Mandel, Samantha McMillen, Kevin Murphy, Todd Norman, C.J. Roberts, Tara Roberts, Anthony Romero, Trudy Salven, Sam Sarkar, Robin Schulman, Doug Stanhope, Jessica Weitz, Bruce Witkin, Keenan Wyatt, and Blair Berk.

The foregoing shall not require the production of documents reflecting payments to Mr. Depp's attorneys. Mr. Depp shall also identify, in the affirmative and without stating any amounts, whether any of the above identified individuals received any salary, commissions, bonuses, or advances ("Salary") from him.

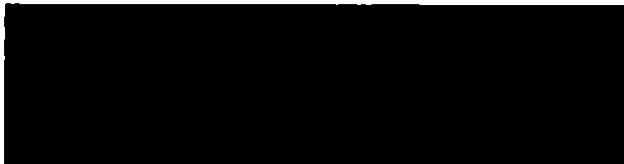

and it is further

ORDERED that Mr. Depp shall produce all documents responsive to the above Requests no later than September 17, 2021; and it is further ORDERED that Ms. Heard's Motion to Compel Requests 10, 24 and 25 of the Tenth Requests for Production of Documents is DENIED as overbroad.

SO ORDERED.

PLAINTIFF’S DESIGNATION/IDENTIFICATION OF OPPOSING EXPERT WITNESSES

Plaintiff John C. Depp, II, by and through his undersigned counsel, pursuant to Rule 4:1(b)(4)(A)(i) of the Rules of the Supreme Court of Virginia, and the Court’s Scheduling Order dated April 22, 2021, and in response to Interrogatory No. 15 in Ms. Heard’s First Set of Interrogatories dated October 7, 2019, hereby designates and identifies his opposing expert witnesses.

Given the ongoing state of discovery—in particular, the continuing document productions from the parties and non-parties and the fact that depositions of certain key parties and witnesses have yet to occur—Plaintiff reserves the right to supplement this Opposing Expert Witness Designation, to include (1) identifying additional or different areas of expected testimony for the designated witnesses, (2) identifying additional or different bases for the expected testimony of the designated witnesses, and/or (3) designating additional or different expert witnesses.

CONFIDENTIAL

5. Richard J. Shaw, MD, Forensic Psychiatrist, Stanford University School of Medicine, 401 Quarry Road, Suite 1122, Palo Alto, California 94305. Dr. Shaw is a Professor of Psychiatry who has been practicing psychiatry for over 35 years. Dr. Shaw currently works at the Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Sciences at Stanford University School of Medicine where he has worked since 1996. Dr. Shaw serves as the Medical Director for Consultation-Liaison Services at the Lucile Packard Children's Hospital at Stanford University and as a Psychiatric Consultant for the Pediatric Emergency Room at Standard University Medical Center. Dr. Shaw is board certified in psychiatry and child and adolescent psychiatry. Dr. Shaw currently serves on various professional organizations including as a member of the Committee on the Physically Ill Child for the American Academy of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry. Dr. Shaw has authored 70 peer reviewed manuscripts and almost 30 book chapters. Dr. Shaw serves on the editorial board for Academic Psychiatry. Dr. Shaw is a seasoned expert who has been performing forensic psychiatric work for the past 18 years, has been retained as an expert in almost 200 cases, and has provided trial or deposition testimony in nearly 50 cases. Dr. Shaw received his Pre-clinical Training in Basic Medical Sciences from the University of London and his Medical Degree at the Middlesex Hospital Medical School from the University of London.

Subject Matter of Dr. Shaw's Opinion: Dr. Shaw will testify concerning Dr. Spiegel's opinions as rendered in Ms. Heard's Supplemental Disclosure of Expert Witness dated January 11, 2022.

Substance of Dr. Shaw's Opinion: Specifically, Dr. Shaw will draw upon his experience and expertise as a forensic psychiatrist to testify that (i) based on the Goldwater Rule, psychiatrists should not render professional opinions about the mental state of individuals they have not personally and thoroughly evaluated; (ii) the Goldwater Rule remains best practices as it has been widely accepted by the professional organizations that dictate standards of care with regard to forensic practice; (iii) in rendering an opinion about cognitive deficits and psychiatric diagnoses in Mr. Depp without conducting a personal evaluation, Dr. Spiegel has failed to abide by the Goldwater Rule; and (iv) Dr. Spiegel misrepresents the literature on risk factors for IPV as Dr. Spiegel frames these risk factors as evidence that Mr. Depp is an IPV perpetrator.

Summary of the Grounds for Dr. Shaw's Opinion: Dr. Shaw will base his opinions on the following grounds:

f. The Goldwater Rule:

a. American Psychiatric Association:

- i. In 1973, the American Psychiatric Association (APA) developed a policy commonly known as the Goldwater Rule following a controversy that emerged during the 1964 presidential election when Fact magazine published the results of a large survey of psychiatrists who were asked whether Senator Barry Goldwater was psychologically fit to run for the presidency. Many respondents described the senator as “paranoid,” “grossly psychotic” and a “megalomaniac” while others provided diagnoses that included schizophrenia and narcissistic personality disorder.³⁷ After Senator Goldwater successfully sued the magazine for defamation of character, the APA asserted that psychiatrists should not give professional opinions about the mental state of individuals they have not personally and thoroughly evaluated.³⁸

- ii. The Goldwater Rule has subsequently been published as an annotation in Section 7.3 of the Principles of Medical Ethics with Annotations Especially Applicable to Psychiatry: “On occasion psychiatrists are asked for an opinion about an individual who is in the light of public attention or who has disclosed information about himself/herself through public media. In such circumstances, a psychiatrist may share with the public his or her expertise about psychiatric issues in general. However, it is unethical for a psychiatrist to offer a professional opinion unless he or she has conducted an examination and has been granted proper authorization for such a statement.”³⁹
- iii. The APA Ethical Guidelines further caution that “a psychiatrist should avoid cloaking their public statements with the authority of the profession.”⁴⁰
- iv. In 2008, Richard Friedman, MD, a Professor of Psychiatry at Weill Cornell Medical College, similarly opined that “for a mental health professional – or any physician – to publicly offer a diagnosis at a distance of a non-patient not only invites public distrust of these professionals but also is intellectually dishonest and is damaging to the profession.”⁴¹ He also wrote that “a professional opinion should reflect a thorough and rigorous examination of a patient, the clinical history, and all relevant clinical data and protection of strict confidentiality, none of which is possible by casual observation of a public figure. To do so otherwise is unethical because it violates this fundamental principle and thereby misleads the public about what constitutes accepted medical and nonmedical professional practice.”⁴²

- v. In 2016, Ronald Pies, MD, a Professor of Psychiatry, also at Weill Cornell Medical College, writing in the Psychiatric Times, supported the premise of the Goldwater Rule, including that it is unethical to offer publicly the putative clinical diagnosis of any living person unless the psychiatrist has conducted a thorough clinical examination of the person, evaluated appropriate ancillary data such as the person’s family history or psychometric testing, and has been granted proper authorization for stating the person’s diagnosis publicly.⁴³ However, he argued for greater clarity and specificity in interpreting the Goldwater Rule. While Dr. Pies asserted that comments made by a psychiatrist that amount to a clinical diagnosis of a living person in the absence of a clinical evaluation was a breach of the Goldwater Rule, he wrote that there were circumstances in which a psychiatrist might give a professional opinion. These included: (1) historical inferences

⁴³ Pies RW: Deconstructing and Reconstructing the “Goldwater Rule,” Psychiatric Times, Vol 33 No 10, October 7, 2016

as to a likely diagnosis applied to a person who was no longer living, often a historical figure of interest; (2) non-diagnostic professional opinions regarding living persons when a psychiatrist might comment broadly about the clinical significance of a pattern of behavior without offering a specific clinical diagnosis; and (3) professional comments that offer a differential diagnosis of a symptomatic or behavioral pattern in a living person, without providing a clinical diagnosis of that person. Dr. Pies also clarified that a clinical diagnosis can only be made on the basis of a direct personal examination of a patient.

vi. In 2017, the APA Ethics Committee reasserted its support for the Goldwater Rule in an opinion in which it was asserted that while it was reasonable for psychiatrists to share their expertise about psychiatric issues in general, it was unethical to offer a professional opinion about an individual without conducting a psychiatric evaluation.⁴⁴ The Ethics Committee clarified that the rule applied to all professional opinions offered by a psychiatrist, not merely those limited to affirming the presence or absence of a psychiatric diagnosis. In explaining this position, the Ethics Committee gave three justifications in support of their opinion:

1. When a psychiatrist renders an opinion about the behavior, symptoms, or diagnosis of a public person without consent, the psychiatrist is violating the principle that all psychiatric evaluations should be conducted with both consent and authorization of the individual.

2. When a psychiatrist offers a professional opinion about an individual who has not been examined, the psychiatrist is departing from the established and accepted community standard of care which requires a careful review of the individual's medical history and first-hand examination. Practicing in this manner compromises the integrity of the psychiatrist and the psychiatric profession.
3. When psychiatrists offer medical opinions about an individual whom they have not examined, there is the potential to stigmatize those with mental illness.

vii. In a 2017 commentary on the APA Ethics Committee opinion, Maria Oquendo, MD, PhD, the President of the APA, came out strongly in support of this position, including that adherence to the Goldwater Rule should supersede concerns commonly expressed against the Rule, including those related to freedom of speech, civic duty, and "professional opinions or psychological profiles solicited by courts or law officials for forensic cases."⁴⁵ Dr. Oquendo concluded her commentary by speaking to the damage to the professional integrity and trust of psychiatry by the community and wrote that breaking the

Goldwater Rule was “irresponsible, potentially stigmatizing, and definitely unethical.”⁴⁶

viii. The presidency of Donald Trump has brought fresh attention to the premise of the Goldwater Rule. In December 2016, a Huffington Post article featured a letter written by three professors of psychiatry citing President Trump’s “grandiosity, impulsivity, hypersensitivity to dislikes or criticism, and an apparent inability to distinguish between fantasy and reality” as evidence of his mental instability.⁴⁷ John D. Gartner, a practicing psychotherapist and author who teaches at Johns Hopkins University Medical School, and quoted in the U.S. News & World Report, described President Trump as having “malignant narcissism, which is characterized by grandiosity, sadism, and antisocial behavior.”⁴⁸ It has been argued that while the validity of psychiatric profiling is not established, it might reasonably be defended if it was deemed vital to public safety or national security.⁴⁹ However, this argument has little bearing with respect to private citizens involved in civil litigation.

b. American Psychological Association

i. In 2016, Susan H McDaniel, PhD, President of the American Psychological Association, in response to press coverage regarding whether or not therapists should analyze presidential candidates, came out strongly with the opinion that neither psychiatrists nor psychologists should offer diagnoses of candidates or any other living public figure they have never examined.⁵⁰ Dr. McDaniel wrote that the code of ethics of the American Psychological Association promotes the view that psychologists should “‘take precautions’ that any statements they make to the media ‘are based on their professional knowledge, training, or experience in accord with appropriate psychological literature and practice’ and ‘do not indicate that a professional relationship has been established’ with people in the public eye, including political candidates.”⁵¹

ii. When providing opinions of psychological characteristics, psychologists must conduct an examination adequate to support their statements or conclusions and should not offer psychiatric diagnoses of a living public figure they have not examined.

c. American Medical Association:

i. In 2017, the American Medical Association wrote new guidelines into the AMA Code of Medical Ethics stating that physicians should “refrain from making clinical diagnoses about individuals (e.g., public officials, celebrities, persons in the news) they have not had the opportunity to personally examine.”⁵² In a 2017 commentary on these guidelines, Mark Moran wrote that physicians should understand that they will be taken as authorities when they engage with the media and therefore should ensure that the medical information they provide is “accurate, inclusive of known risks and benefits, commensurate with their medical expertise, and based on valid scientific evidence and insight gained from professional experience.”⁵³

- g. Professional Standards of Forensic Practice Abide By The Goldwater Rule: Standards of care with regard to forensic practice have been addressed by the two principal professional organizations, the American Academy of Psychiatry and the Law and the American Board of Forensic Psychology. Both these organizations have published practice guidelines that are consistent with the principles outlined in the Goldwater Rule.

- a. American Academy of Psychiatry and the Law

- i. In 2015, the American Academy of Psychiatry and the Law (AAPL) published a Practice Guideline for the Forensic Assessment based on the work of an AAPL Task Force that consisted of many of the acknowledged experts in the field of forensic psychiatry.⁵⁴ The Practice Guideline was the product of a consensus based on the available literature and knowledge in a broad range of forensic assessments. The Practice Guidelines were intended to address the variable standards and inconsistencies in forensic practice, to ensure integrity in the course of a forensic evaluation, and to ensure adherence to the American Medical Association's Code of Ethics. These ethical guidelines call for adherence to honesty, objectivity, and respect for persons.

- ii.* The Practice Guideline specifically addresses the importance of informed consent in the course of a forensic assessment. The guidelines state that the evaluatee should be given an opportunity to ask questions regarding the process, contact counsel regarding questions about the assessment process, and give proper informed consent. With respect to collateral information, the Practice Guideline addresses the importance of a thorough review of collateral information including past psychiatric and mental health treatment records. With respect to the topic of conducting an assessment without an interview, the AAPL ethics guidelines state: "For certain assessments (such as record reviews for malpractice cases), a personal examination is not required. In all other forensic evaluations, if, after appropriate effort, it is not feasible to conduct a personal examination, an opinion may nonetheless be rendered on the basis of other information. Under these circumstances, it is the responsibility of psychiatrists to make earnest efforts to ensure that their statements, opinions, and reports or testimony based on these opinions, clearly state that there was no personal examination and note any resulting limitations to their opinions.”⁵⁵

iii. The Practice Guideline specifically comments on the need for a thorough mental status examination to elicit information about the frequency and severity of psychiatric symptoms including mood, anxiety, trauma-related symptoms, thought content, thought form, delusional beliefs, perceptual disturbances, cognition, and concentration and relevant comments, insights, and judgment. With respect to rendering opinions, the Practice Guideline notes that the scientific foundation for the opinion may have to withstand a Daubert challenge in court and that the evaluator should ensure that the scientific technique used is reliable and generally accepted among other factors.⁵⁶ When an opinion cannot be rendered to a reasonable degree of medical certainty, the referral source should be notified before the evaluator writes a report. In cases in which further information or testing is required to render a final opinion, the Practice Guideline states that “these opinions can be problematic and are not generally recommended” and that if a preliminary opinion is given, “its limitation should be explained and the need for further information described.”⁵⁷

⁵⁷ American Academy of Psychiatry and the Law. AAPL Practice Guideline for the Forensic Assessment, J Am Acad Psychiatry Law, 43, 2, 2015.

b. American Board of Forensic Psychology

- i. The American Psychological Association has also published practice guidelines for the specialty of Forensic Psychology.⁵⁸ These guidelines contain specific text regarding the rendering of professional forensic opinions about persons who have not been examined: “Forensic practitioners recognize their obligations to only provide written or oral evidence about the psychological characteristics of particular individuals when they have sufficient information or data to form an adequate foundation for those opinions or to substantiate their findings (EPPCC Standard 9.01). Forensic practitioners seek to make reasonable efforts to obtain such information or data, and they document their efforts to obtain it. When it is not possible or feasible to examine individuals about whom they are offering an opinion, forensic practitioners strive to make clear the impact of such limitations on the reliability and validity of their professional products, opinions, or testimony.”⁵⁹
- h. Dr. Spiegel Failed to Abide by the Goldwater Rule: In rendering an opinion about cognitive deficits and psychiatric diagnoses in Mr. Depp without conducting a personal evaluation, Dr. Spiegel’s practice is not consistent with the Goldwater Rule. He is proposing to offer damaging testimony about the character of Mr. Depp without conducting a thorough evaluation based on principles that have been endorsed by the American Psychiatric Association, American Psychological Association, American ⁵⁹ Ibid.

Medical Association, American Academy of Psychiatry and the Law, and the American Board of Forensic Psychology. The opinions that Dr. Spiegel intends to offer are based on an incomplete data set, lacking a mental status examination and lacking a review of relevant prior psychiatric history. Moreover, Dr. Spiegel is proposing to offer his opinions without having obtained informed consent from Mr. Depp. The Goldwater Rule was established specifically to discourage testimony of this nature recognizing that when a psychiatrist provides opinions about mental status and psychiatric diagnoses, he/she carries an authority that bears significant weight in both legal proceedings and with the general public. The Ethics Committee of the American Psychiatric Association has consistently ruled that psychiatric profiling and diagnoses made without a personal examination of the individual are a violation of its principles. In addition, Dr. Spiegel does not indicate whether he believes his opinions can be rendered to a reasonable degree of medical certainty or specify that further information would be needed to confirm these opinions. As noted above, the Practice Guideline of the American Academy of Psychiatry and the Law and of the American Board of Forensic Psychology states that reference should be made to these limitations in cases where conclusions are drawn without a full data set.

- a. Dr. Spiegel Improperly Speculates about the Cognitive Abilities of Mr. Depp without Evidence from Neuropsychological Testing: Dr. Spiegel opines that Mr. Depp has demonstrated impaired attention, difficulty with word-finding retrieval, and impairments in cognitive memory and processing speed which he believes are a direct result of his sustained use and abuse of drugs and alcohol. However, Dr. Spiegel cites no neuropsychological testing data to support these opinions. In addition, such opinions would generally be provided by a trained neuropsychologist who is credentialed to conduct such testing, rather than a psychiatrist. The manner in which these opinions have been developed is in violation of the Goldwater Rule.

b. Dr. Spiegel Improperly Attributes Undocumented Deficits in Brain Function, Cognition and Memory to Medications Prescribed to Mr. Depp: Dr. Spiegel is expected to testify that medications prescribed to Mr. Depp, including Seroquel, Neurontin, and Adderall, are highly abusable and that prolonged abuse can have damaging effects on brain function, cognition, and memory. Dr. Spiegel believes that, while taking these prescribed medications, Mr. Depp was not “sober” by any medical definition. It is not clear whether Dr. Spiegel has records to document the rationale for the prescription of these medications, the doses, the time of administration, or his clinical response. However, all three of these medications have established psychiatric indications and can be safely prescribed for many years without harmful effects on brain function, cognition, or memory. In fact, Adderall, a medication prescribed to improve focus and concentration and decrease impulsivity, has been shown in multiple studies to improve brain functioning and academic achievement.

i. Dr. Spiegel Improperly Speculates About the Presence of Narcissistic Personality Disorder and Deficits in Temperament in Mr. Depp without a Proper Clinical Evaluation: Dr. Spiegel intends to opine that Mr. Depp has characteristics of Narcissistic Personality Disorder, which include lack of empathy, controlling behavior, self-absorption, displays of physical violence when told “no,” and displays of anger when they perceive rejection from their partner. However, to make a diagnosis of Narcissistic Personality Disorder, the Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders, 5th Edition (DSM-5) specifies that the individual needs to manifest a pervasive pattern of grandiosity (in fantasy or behavior), need for admiration, and lack of empathy, beginning by early adulthood and present in a variety of contexts. The DSM-5 criteria do not include controlling behavior, displays of physical violence when told “no,” or displays of anger when they perceive rejection from their partner. In Ms. Heard’s Supplemental Disclosure of Expert Witnesses, Dr. Spiegel does not provide details of the data on which he bases his opinion. In addition, Dr. Spiegel intends to opine that Mr. Depp has a “frail temperament” that results in a lack of behavioral control and impulsivity. While there are established and evidence-based measures to assess temperament, there is no evidence that Dr. Spiegel has relied upon such data. The rendering of such opinions without a personal evaluation and supplementary evidence is another violation of the Goldwater Rule. Richard Friedman, MD, in a commentary on the practice of making clinical diagnoses in individuals without doing an in-person evaluation has also noted that characteristics of a diagnosis such as Narcissistic Personality Disorder may also be explained on the basis of other mental health issues.⁶⁰

⁶⁰ Friedman RA, (2008). Role of physicians and mental health professions in discussions of public figures. Journal

- i. Dr. Spiegel Misrepresents the Literature on Risk Factors for IPV as Evidence that Mr. Depp is an IPV Perpetrator: Much of the research conducted on topics of medical and psychiatric interest, including IPV, involves the identification of risk factors that are more commonly associated with specific behaviors or psychiatric conditions. This research can be useful in helping screen for specific diagnoses and developing interventions to help prevent these conditions. However, the presence even of multiple risk factors in any one individual is not evidence that that individual has this condition. With regard to Mr. Depp, his alleged past trauma history, alleged prior history of substance abuse, and alleged history of impulsive or erratic behaviors is not evidence that he is a perpetrator of IPV. The presence of IPV needs to be verified with objective data and cannot be established solely based on a profile of risk factors.

Dr. Shaw's rebuttal opinions will be based on a review of Ms. Heard's Supplemental Disclosure of Expert Witnesses dated January 11, 2022, as well as the evidence that Dr. Spiegel has relied on to form his opinion as identified as Attachment 7 to Ms. Heard's Supplemental Disclosure. Dr. Shaw's opinion will also be based on current and relevant peer-reviewed scientific literature. A full list of references that Dr. Shaw has relied on thus far to form his opinion is attached hereto as Exhibit J. Dr. Shaw may also testify as to any fact or opinion rendered or attributed to another witness or party as identified by non-parties. Plaintiff reserves the right to designate or substitute other witnesses of the same disciplines to testify as to the facts and opinions described herein. Plaintiff further reserves the right to supplement this Designation based on additional facts Plaintiff learns during discovery and/or his ongoing investigation of this matter.

Opinions of the Ethics Committee on The Principles of Medical Ethics

With Annotations Especially Applicable to Psychiatry

potential and competency, or consultants are asked to recommend a treatment regimen. To ask them to perform a personal examination in each case would be impractical and prevent such agencies from benefiting from psychiatric consultation. The psychiatrist must, of course, observe the rules of confidentiality (Section 4, Annotation 4, APA) and of proper relationships with other health professionals (Section 5, Annotations 2, 3, and 4, APA). (1976)

(G:7d)

Question: A psychiatrist testifies for the state in a criminal case about the competency of the defendant. The psychiatrist based the testimony on medical records and did not examine the defendant nor have the defendant's approval to render an opinion. Was this ethical?

Answer: Yes. See Section 7, Annotation 3 (APA): On occasion psychiatrists are asked for an opinion about an individual who is in the light of public attention or who has disclosed information about himself/herself through public media. In such circumstances, a psychiatrist may share with the public his/her expertise about psychiatric issues in general. However, it is unethical for a psychiatrist to offer a professional opinion unless he/she has conducted an examination and has been granted proper authorization for such a statement. (Confusion has arisen by taking the second sentence above and not connecting it to the first sentence as was intended. It is common for forensic experts to offer opinions as was done according to the question. Further, it would be too great an extension of the Goldwater Rule to say that a person, by being a defendant in court, has entered into "the light of public attention." This annotation was developed to protect public figures from psychiatric speculation that harms the reputation of the profession of psychiatry and of the unsuspecting public figure. (1988))

Answer: The psychological profiling of historical figures designed to enhance public and governmental understanding of these individuals does not conflict with the ethical principles outlined in Section 7, Paragraph 3, as long as the psychological profiling does not include a clinical diagnosis and is the product of scholarly research that has been subject to peer review and academic scrutiny, and is based on relevant standards of scholarship. (2008)

Expanded Opinion (2017):

Question: May a psychiatrist give an opinion about an individual in the public eye when the psychiatrist, in good faith, believes that the individual poses a threat to the country or national security?

Answer: Section 7.3 of The Principles of Medical Ethics With Annotations Especially Applicable to Psychiatry (sometimes called “The Goldwater Rule”) explicitly states that psychiatrists may share expertise about psychiatric issues in general but that it is unethical for a psychiatrist to offer a professional opinion about an individual based on publicly available information without conducting an examination. Making a diagnosis, for example, would be rendering a professional opinion. However, a diagnosis is not required for an opinion to be professional. Instead, when a psychiatrist renders an opinion about the affect, behavior, speech, or other presentation of an individual that draws on the skills, training, expertise, and/or knowledge inherent in the practice of psychiatry, the opinion is a professional one. Thus, saying that a person does not have an illness is also a professional opinion. The rationale for this position is as follows:

1. When a psychiatrist comments about the behavior, symptoms, diagnosis, etc., of a public figure without consent, the psychiatrist violates the fundamental principle that psychiatric evaluation occurs with consent or other authorization. The relationship between a psychiatrist and a patient is one of mutual consent. In some circumstances, such as forensic evaluations, psychiatrists may evaluate individuals based on other legal authorization such as a court order. Psychiatrists are ethically prohibited from evaluating individuals without permission or other authorization (such as a court order).
2. Psychiatric diagnosis occurs in the context of an evaluation, based on thorough history taking, examination, and, where applicable, collateral information. It is a departure from the methods of the profession to render an opinion without an examination and without conducting an evaluation in accordance with the standards of psychiatric practice. Such behavior compromises both the integrity of the psychiatrist and of the profession itself.
3. When psychiatrists offer medical opinions about an individual they have never examined, this behavior has the potential to stigmatize those with mental illness. Patients who see a psychiatrist, especially their own psychiatrist, offering opinions about individuals whom the psychiatrist has not examined may lose confidence in their psychiatrist and/or the profession and may additionally experience stigma related to their own diagnoses. Specifically, patients may wonder about the rigor and integrity of their own clinical care and diagnoses and confidentiality of their own psychiatric treatment.

Psychiatrists, and others, have argued against this position. We address five main arguments against this position:

- a) Some psychiatrists have argued that the “Goldwater Rule” impinges on an individual’s freedom of speech as it pertains to personal duty and civic responsibility to act in the interest of the national well-being. This argument confuses the personal and professional roles of the psychiatrist. The psychiatrist, as a citizen, may speak as any other citizen. He or she may observe the behavior and work of a public figure and support, oppose, and/or critique that public action. But the psychiatrist may not assume a professional role in voicing that critique in the form of a professional opinion for the reasons discussed above, those being, lack of consent or other authorization and failure to conduct an evaluation.
- b) Psychiatrists have also argued that the “Goldwater Rule” is not sound because psychiatrists are sometimes asked to render opinions without conducting an examination of an individual. Examples occur, in particular, in certain forensic cases and consultative roles. This objection attempts to subsume the rule with its exceptions. What this objection misses, however, is that the rendering of expertise and/or an opinion in these contexts is permissible because there is a court authorization for the examination (or an opinion without examination), and this work is conducted within an evaluative framework including parameters for how and where the information may be used or disseminated. In addition, any evaluation conducted or opinion rendered based on methodology that departs from the established practice of an in-person evaluation must clearly identify the methods used and the limitations of those methods, such as the absence of an in-person examination.
- c) Psychiatrists have further argued that they should be permitted to render professional expertise in matters of national security and that the “Goldwater Rule” prohibits this important function. While psychiatrists may be asked to evaluate public figures in order to inform decision makers on national security issues, these evaluations, like any other, should occur with proper authority and methods within the confidentiality confines of the circumstances. Basing professional opinions on a subset of behavior exhibited in the public sphere, even in the digital age where information may be abundant, is insufficient to render professional opinions and is a misapplication of psychiatric practice.
- d) Some psychiatrists have argued that they have a responsibility to render an opinion regarding public figures based on Tarasoff duties to warn and/or protect third parties. This position is a misapplication of the Tarasoff doctrine. Actions to warn and/or protect a third party occur in situations in which a psychiatrist is providing treatment to or an evaluation of an individual who poses a risk to others and Tarasoff serves as a rationale for a limited sharing of otherwise confidential or privileged information. However, for information in the public domain, law enforcement agencies that have the same, and perhaps even greater, access to information about the individual are charged with protecting the public.
- e) Finally, some psychiatrists have argued that rendering an opinion based on information in the public domain without conducting an examination should be permissible because psychiatrists are often involved in psychological profiling. However, psychological profiling differs markedly from self-initiated public comments as described in this opinion. Psychological profiling occurs when a law enforcement or other authorized agency or

Introduction

Dr. Dawn Hughes was retained by counsel for Amber Heard, in connection with John C. Depp II v Amber Heard (Civil Action No. CL-2019-0002911) which is pending in the Circuit Court of Fairfax County, Virginia. Ms. Heard is being sued for defamation by her ex-husband, John C. Depp II (known as "Johnny Depp"), in relation to her authoring an op-ed in the Washington Post on being a survivor of domestic violence. Although the op-ed never mentioned Mr. Depp by name, Mr. Depp stated in the complaint in this matter that he "never abused Ms.

Expertise and Qualifications

Dr. Spiegel's C.V. is attached as Att. 7. Dr. Spiegel is a Professor of Psychiatry and Behavioral Sciences at Eastern Virginia Medical School, which he joined in 2001 after almost a decade in private practice. Dr. Spiegel obtained his medical degree from SUNY-Health Science Center at Brooklyn, and then completed his psychiatry residency at Dartmouth-Hitchcock and Hershey-Penn State. Dr. Spiegel is a clinical supervisor for psychiatry residents and psychology interns and presents to community mental health professionals. Dr. Spiegel's inpatient and outpatient practices involve new and follow-up comprehensive evaluations, which include history, mental status examination, diagnoses, and treatment planning, and encompasses about 85-90% of Dr. Spiegel's daily workload. Throughout his career, Dr. Spiegel has diagnosed, treated and provided therapy to patients suffering from varying degrees of alcohol and substance abuse, as well as to both victims and perpetrators of intimate partner violence ("IPV").

Dr. Spiegel has testified as an expert in the Commonwealth of Virginia, as well as Maryland and South Carolina on a range of topics in psychiatry and behavioral sciences. He has written and lectured extensively on the effects of alcohol and drugs (both legal and illegal) on the human brain and the person's interactions with others (both short-term and long-term), the causes and effects of intimate partner abuse, and other psychiatric issues.

In conjunction with the rendering of his opinion in this litigation, Dr. Spiegel reviewed and relied upon the relevant pleadings, videos, audios, pictures, text messages, emails, medical records, and other documents produced in discovery, testimony from the UK, depositions, see

Att. 8 (“data reviewed” or the “record evidence”), and an interview with Ms. Heard. Dr. Spiegel twice requested an assessment of Mr. Depp, but Mr. Depp declined.

Dr. Spiegel will testify as an expert in the fields of Psychiatry and Behavioral Sciences. Dr. Spiegel bases his opinions, to within a reasonable degree of medical and professional probability and/or certainty in the fields of psychiatry and behavioral sciences, upon his background, experience, knowledge, a review of the materials provided to him, and other information available to him, including the sources cited in this Designation.

Dr. Spiegel has been engaged to analyze and opine on the impact of alcohol and substance abuse, including the combination of drugs taken by Mr. Depp, and the potential impact of sustained use of these substances on memory, cognition, and how this may impact Mr. Depp. Dr. Spiegel has also been asked to analyze the risk factors associated with perpetrators of Intimate Partner Violence (“IPV”), and in his evaluation of the record evidence, whether Mr. Depp has exhibited conduct or behaviors indicative or consistent with any of these risk factors. Dr. Spiegel will also testify relating to specific drugs and alcohol and their medical and psychiatric effects and impacts, the diagnoses and treatment of patients with alcohol and drug/substance use disorder, evidence of medical and psychiatric consequences of prolonged substance abuse, characteristics and behaviors consistent with prolonged substance abuse and IPV, and medical and psychological characteristics and explanations of behaviors demonstrated by the record evidence, Dr. Spiegel will also testify as set forth below.

I. The Impact of Alcohol and Drug Use/Abuse Over Limited and Prolonged Periods of Time.

Dr. Spiegel is expected to testify about the medical and psychological impact on Mr. Depp based on the evidence of Mr. Depp’s alcohol and drug use since the 1980s. Dr. Spiegel is expected to testify that the record evidence demonstrates that Mr. Depp has a history of using or overusing alcohol and controlled drugs, including cocaine, ecstasy (MDMA), magic mushrooms and cannabis as well as certain prescribed drugs (notably Oxycodone, Roxicodone or Roxies, Xanax and Adderall). Dr. Spiegel is also expected to testify that regularly associating with others who extoll the virtues of drugs is an indicator of a drug problem, and in this case, Mr. Depp regularly associated with such people, including Hunter S. Thompson, Keith Richards, and Marilyn Manson, who extolled the virtues of drugs and alcohol. Friends and associates of Depp have remarked publicly that hanging out with Mr. Depp means surrounding one's self with drugs and alcohol. Dr. Spiegel will also testify about record evidence, including but not limited to, Dr. Kipper attempting to treat Mr. Depp for years for "polysubstance abuse" (the abuse or dependence to many substances), text messages where Mr. Depp is seeking cocaine and ecstasy, text messages where Mr. Depp requests more of his prescribed medications, purporting to lose or be confused by the location of the doses prescribed, text messages to his nurse that he was "high as a muthafucka" when he made the film, Black Mass, articles where Mr. Depp admits that he spends much more than $30,000 a month on wine, deposition and trial testimony of Mr. Depp's drug and alcohol abuse, and notes from Mr. Depp's own doctors and nurses, including Dr. Kipper's analysis that Mr. Depp "is uncomfortable, is pessimistic that he will ever be able to stop doing drugs, actually romanticizes the entire drug culture and has no accountability for his behaviors." Based on this evidence, Dr. Spiegel is expected to testify that Mr. Depp's conduct is indicative of and consistent with displaying a long-term, alcohol and drug addiction and has abused drugs and alcohol, which is considered a significant risk factor and consistent with perpetrators of IPV, as further discussed below.

Dr. Spiegel is also expected to testify that hundreds of studies show a significant link between substance abuse and memory loss, which, as a result, affects cognitive functions such as learning, language and comprehension. The record evidence shows that Mr. Depp has experienced blackouts, periods of significant confusion, thinking people are present who are not, imagining entire conversations or fights with people not present, and the like. When a person experiences a blackout during alcohol or drug use, for example, it prevents the brain from completing the process of forming memories. Persistent drug use can cause not only issues with recalling recent events but also long-term memory loss. Drug and alcohol use affects the hippocampus which is essentially the brain's memory-storage system. Someone who becomes heavily dependent on drugs, including alcohol, will start to see long-lasting effects to their memory and brain function. They may begin to struggle with learning new things and have trouble recalling details such as birthdays and other important dates. Dr. Spiegel is also expected to testify that there is a high correlation between domestic abuse, heavy alcohol abuse, and cognitive disorders. See Differential Cognitive Profiles of Intimate Partner Violence Perpetrators Based on Alcohol Consumption, Alcohol Volume 70, August 2018, Pages 61-71, Sara Vitoria-Estruch; Angel Romero-Martínez; Marisol Lila; Luis Moya-Albiol. Dr. Spiegel is expected to testify that approximately 85% of individuals in rehab programs have a history of IPV.

Dr. Spiegel is expected to testify that based on his review of Mr. Depp during the video deposition taken of Mr. Depp on November 10, 11 and 12, 2020, and December 14, 2021, Dr. Spiegel was able to review and assess Mr. Depp's appearance, behavior and thought process, thought content, cognitive symptoms, insight and judgment

Dr. Spiegel is expected to testify that Mr. Depp demonstrated impaired attention, difficulty with word-finding retrieval, demonstrated impaired cognitive memory and processing speed, difficulty in his ability to focus on the topic at hand, disorganized thoughts, difficulty recalling details of events and difficulty with impulse control and demonstrated erratic behavior. Dr. Spiegel is expected to testify that based on Mr. Depp's age of 58, these impairments cannot be attributable to age, but are consistent with and a direct result of Mr. Depp's sustained use and abuse of alcohol and drugs. This is also consistent with the record evidence, which has demonstrated Mr. Depp having cognitive impairments not in line with his age, such as failing to recall his lines for his movies, and having them read to him while wearing an earpiece. Dr. Spiegel is further expected to testify that Mr. Depp's misrepresentations of sobriety and downplaying and failure to take responsibility for his drug and alcohol use are consistent with those individuals who have an alcohol and drug use disorder. Dr. Spiegel has also reviewed Mr. Depp's UK testimony and will testify that the inconsistencies in Mr. Depp's testimony regarding his drug and alcohol abuse is a clear example of patients with alcohol and drug use disorder. Dr. Spiegel is also expected to testify that a 2- to 5-day detoxification from drugs and alcohol is only the first step of rehabilitation treatment – this must be followed up with an extended plan or program, and a “cleansing” is not an effective mechanism to repair the cognition and memory effects of long-term drug and alcohol use disorder. In addition, Dr. Spiegel is expected to testify that drugs prescribed to Mr. Depp, including Seroquel, Neurontin, and Adderall are highly abusable, and prolonged abuse can have damaging effects on brain function, cognition, and memory. Dr. Spiegel is also expected to testify that while Mr. Depp was on these medications, he was not “sober” by any medical definition. Dr. Spiegel will further testify that the use of MDMA can cause feelings of being enraged, auditory and visual hallucinations, and erratic and uncontrolled behavior including self-mutilation and self-harm and cutting off one's own finger is behavior of that can occur in users of MDMA.

II. Intimate Partner Violence

A. Analysis of IPV

Dr. Spiegel is expected to testify as to the definition and medical and psychological characteristics of IPV, both perpetrators and survivors. IPV is a pattern of assaultive and coercive behaviors that may include inflicted physical injury, psychological abuse, sexual assault, progressive social isolation, stalking, deprivation, intimidation and threats.

IPV is common. It affects millions of people in the United States each year. Data from CDC's National Intimate Partner and Sexual Violence Survey indicate about one in four women have experienced contact sexual violence, physical violence, and/or stalking by an intimate partner during their lifetime and reported some form of IPV-related impact. About 35% of female IPV survivors experience some form of physical injury related to IPV. There are also many other negative health outcomes associated with IPV. These include a range of conditions affecting the heart, digestive, reproduction, muscle and bones, and nervous systems, many of which are chronic. Survivors can experience mental health problems such as depression and posttraumatic stress disorder (PTSD) symptoms.

Dr. Spiegel is expected to testify that, based on his work with perpetrators and victims of IPV, as well as significant research in the field, there are identified risk factors, or characteristics of a person that increase risk of that person being an IPV perpetrator. Those risk factors include heavy alcohol and drug use, poor behavioral control/impulsiveness, a narcissistic personality, and attitudes accepting or justifying IPV. Dr. Spiegel is expected to testify that, based on the evidence he reviewed, including text messages, photographs, video tapes, audio files, medical documentation, therapy records, witnesses, depositions, trial testimony and other exhibits, Mr. Depp has engaged in conduct indicative of or consistent with these risk factors.

Dr. Spiegel is expected to testify that this case includes allegations of all forms of IPV, including physical violence, sexual abuse, and psychological aggression, and is further expected to testify as follows:

i. Physical violence. Physical violence involves forceful physical contact that may vary from light pushes and slaps to severe beatings and lethal violence. A review of the evidence in this case shows a significant amount of physical abuse perpetrated against Ms. Heard throughout the course of their relationship, and that Ms. Heard was physically assaulted several times per week, sometimes daily. There are numerous witnesses who reported seeing cuts, bruises, and injuries for years, and it was reported that Mr. Depp grabbed, pushed, and shoved Ms. Heard; physically restrained her; pulled her by the hair; strangled her; punched her on her face, head, and body; slapped her with the front and back of his hand; kicked her; slammed her against the wall and floor; threw objects at her; suffocated her, flicked a cigarette at her; pulled her by the hair; and beat her up. In addition, Dr. Banks, M.D. testified that Mr. Depp acknowledged being physical with Ms. Heard and recalled hearing that he used a cigarette to burn himself. Banks Tr. 55:14-56:9.

ii. Sexual abuse. Sexual abuse includes coercive and physical behaviors varying from trying to persuade someone to perform a sexual act against their will, ignoring “no” responses, to physically forced sex acts. There is record evidence of Mr. Depp sexually assaulting Ms. Heard on a number of occasions.

iii. Psychological aggression. Psychological aggression (or emotional abuse) refers to acting in an offensive or degrading manner toward another, usually verbally, and may include threats, ridicule, withholding affection, and restrictions (e.g., social isolation, financial control). These behaviors are perpetuated by someone who is, was, or wishes to be involved in an intimate or dating relationship with an adult or adolescent, and one aimed at establishing control by one partner over the other. (Capaldi DM, Knoble NB, Shortt JW, Kim HK. A Systematic Review of Risk Factors for Intimate Partner Violence. Partner Abuse. 2012;3(2):231-280.doi:10.1891/1946-6560.3.2.231.).

Psychologically abusive behaviors by Mr. Depp that were reported in this case include but are not limited to: intimidation by throwing things, slamming things, writing on surfaces, such as countertops, lamp shades, mirrors and walls, erratic behavior; antagonistic behaviors about Ms. Heard's career; criticizing her ambition; obsessive jealousy about male co-stars; offensive and degrading comments (whore, cunt, bitch, ugly, fat); constant accusations of flirting and infidelity; controlling her clothing choices and movie parts; insisting on using his security detail and vehicles, not permitting her to have a password on her devices, showing up on set, insisting she spend his money and being upset when she resisted; criticizing her body; and emotional manipulation (threats of suicide; threats and actual infliction of self-harm).

B. Substance Abuse is a Risk Factor of IPV

Substance abuse has been found to occur in 40-60% of IPV incidents across various studies. Several lines of evidence suggest that substance use/abuse plays a facilitative role in IPV by precipitating or exacerbating violence. This includes IPV perpetration in the contexts of intoxication, and withdrawal and addiction. Likewise, drug-induced paranoia and fears of infidelity were used by perpetrators to justify IPV in ways that extended men's more everyday invocations of sexual jealousy and distrust as reasons for checking up on partners. Dr. Spiegel is expected to testify that intoxication related to alcohol and stimulant drugs (methamphetamines and cocaine) was linked to IPV perpetration in all studies. Several studies have also shown that both survivors of IPV and perpetrators talk about how partners under the influence of alcohol and/or drugs turn from a “good husband to a bad husband” (Boonzaier & Rey, 2003); from “Dr. Jekyll to Mr. Hyde” (Gilbert et al., 2001)] ; from “a warrior to a beater” (Matamonasa-Bennett, 2015)]; turn into “dictators,” and “converts you into a monster” (Gilchrist et al., 2015) (Boonzaier & Rey, 2003). Dr. Spiegel is expected to testify that the more disinhibited by drugs and alcohol a person is, the more likely the person is to exhibit physical violence towards another person, and particularly if the intoxicated person has baseline impulsivity and lacks behavioral control/response prevention.

Studies have also shown an increased risk of IPV perpetration when dependent perpetrators were in withdrawal or craving alcohol, heroin and stimulant drugs due to irritability and frustration (Satyanarayana et al., 2015; Wilson et al., 2017) (Gilbert et al., 2001) (Abdul-Khabir et al., 2014; Ludwig-Barron et al., 2015) (Watt, 2012).

As discussed above, the record evidence reflects that Mr. Depp had a history of alcohol and drug abuse, including during the relationship with Ms. Heard.

C. Lack of Behavioral Control and Impulsiveness is a Risk Factor of IPV

Dr. Spiegel is expected to testify that the lack of behavioral control and impulsiveness is also a strong risk factor for IPV. Research indicates a robust association between impulsivity, or the inability to regulate certain behaviors, and various forms of aggressive behavior (e.g., Abbey et al., 2002; Hynan & Grush, 1986; Netter et al., 1998), including IPV (e.g., Cohen et al., 2003; Shorey, Brasfield, Febres, & Stuart, 2010; Schafer et al., 2004). Cross-sectional research indicates that men who report IPV perpetration are higher in impulsivity compared to men who do not report IPV (Cohen et al., 2003).

Dr. Spiegel is expected to testify that the record evidence reflects that Mr. Depp has a "frail temperament" that results in lack of behavioral control and impulsivity. This evidence includes, but is not limited to, notes from Mr. Depp's doctor (Dr. Kipper) referring to Mr. Depp: "[t]here is also an issue of patience. He's driven almost reflexively by his id - has no patience for not getting his needs met, has no understanding of delayed gratification and is quite childlike in his reactions when he does not get immediate satisfaction." This lack of behavioral control and impulsiveness are significant risk factors for IPV. Dr. Spiegel will testify that Mr. Depp's testimony in this case and the UK action demonstrate a lack of behavioral control and impulsiveness, including, but not limited to, the following testimony:

20 A. Sorry. I was saying that the ability or the impetus or the 21 synapse that fires does not necessarily mean that you have to 22 be drunk to smash something or throw something against the 23 wall or punch a wall or door. It is a human reflex to 24 something that feels stronger than you. It is a frustration
25 and that is what happens.

Depp UK Trial 125:20-25.

14 A. Well, what I am trying to explain to you is that it does not 15 take alcohol for one to become upset about something. That 16 reaction, the internal reaction, does not require alcohol to 17 slam your hand down on a table or be so frustrated about what 18 you are unable to do, when it is out of your hands, and you
19 have fallen prey to something that is bigger than you, and it
20 is, you know, that is pretty much it.

21 Q. Did you smash things when you were living with Ms. Paradis?

22 A. Over 14 years, I imagine that I must have, and over 14 years
23 I imagine that she must have.

Depp UK Trial 126:14-23. Mr. Depp also testified that he was arrested in 1994 because, as he admitted, he “trashed” a hotel room in New York in 1994, and prior to that arrest, was arrested for assaulting a hotel lobby security guard. Depp UK Trial 55-56:3-3. While in Paris in 1999, he became angry with members of the press, and confronted and threatened them with a large piece of wood. In 2018, Mr. Depp was sued for assault of a location manager on the set of City of Lies. Depp UK Trial 90:70-15. In addition, Dr. Spiegel will testify that these instances show a pattern of violence and impulsiveness in lieu of self-control, which is consistent with the behavior of a perpetrator of IPV. Depp’s paranoia, jealousy, and uncontrollable anger and rage is supported by testimony from Mr. Depp’s psychiatrist, Dr. Blaustein. Blaustein Tr. 48:22-49:19, 184. In fact, for Depp it was often “easier to play a character” than to live with his “devil.” Blaustein Tr. 151:20-152:2, 140:21-141:7.

D. Narcissism is a Risk Factor of IPV

A narcissist is a person who has an inflated sense of their own importance, a deep need for excessive attention and admiration, troubled relationships, and a lack of empathy for others. Dr. Spiegel will testify that according to the Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders, 5th Edition, symptoms of Narcissistic Personality Disorder include (1) requiring excessive admiration; (2) possessing a sense of entitlement, such as an unreasonable expectation of favorable treatment or compliance with his or her expectations; (3) is exploitative and takes advantage of others to achieve his or her own ends; (4) lacks empathy and is unwilling to identify with the needs of others; (5) is often envious of others or believes that others are envious of him or her; and shows arrogant, haughty behaviors and attitudes. Dr. Spiegel will testify that narcissists have a fragile self-esteem that is vulnerable to the slightest criticism.

Dr. Spiegel is expected to testify that in his review of the record evidence, Mr. Depp has engaged in behavior and conduct indicative of and consistent with all these symptoms of Narcissistic Personality Disorder which is another risk factor for IPV. These behaviors and characteristics are documented by Mr. Depp's own treating physician, Dr. Kipper, as well as reflected by other record evidence.

Studies have shown that narcissistic men are more likely to commit domestic violence. For example, the findings of Kent State University researchers (2010) suggest that "the anger, hostility, and short fuse that accompany a man's narcissism tend to be directed toward ... women," and that "narcissistic men can become enraged when they are denied gratification... including when people reject them." In fact, some of the more common traits that overlap both narcissists and abusers include lack of empathy, controlling behavior, self-absorption, displays of physical violence when told "no," and displays of anger when they perceive rejection from their partner. Dr. Spiegel is also expected to testify when there is an association of substance abuse disorder with Narcissistic Personality Disorder, there is a significantly increased likelihood of more hostility and aggression from the perpetrator.

E. Attitudes Accepting or Justifying IPV is a Risk Factor of IPV

Attitudes toward IPV are known predictors of IPV victimization and perpetration. Dr. Spiegel is expected to testify that there is record evidence demonstrating that Mr. Depp would "joke" about IPV, even in public articles. This includes, but is not limited to, a GQ article in which Mr. Depp admitted telling Hunter S. Thompson about Kate Moss, "she gets a severe beating." Mr. Depp was also involved in a particularly striking text exchange with actor Paul Bettany, with whom Mr. Depp has admitted to using "cocaine, alcohol, and pills." In a text to Mr. Bettany dated June 11, 2013, Mr. Depp wrote "Let's burn Amber!!!" and "Let's drown her before we burn her!!! I will fuck her burnt corpse afterwards to make sure she's dead." Dr.

Spiegel is expected to testify that such cavalier attitudes toward IPV are a significant risk factor of IPV actually occurring in intimate relationships.

F. Being a Previous Victim of Physical or Psychological Abuse is a Risk Factor of IPV

Studies have also demonstrated that previously being a victim of physical or psychological abuse and witnessing IPV between parents as a child can also be a risk factor that leads to a person being an IPV perpetrator in his intimate relationships.²⁹ Dr. Spiegel is expected to testify that his review of the evidence demonstrates that Mr. Depp was a previous victim of physical violence from his mother, and saw his parents engage in IPV. This includes Mr. Depp's testimony that his "[b]rains [were] beaten out by my mom" as far back as he could remember, through the age of 17. Mr. Depp also testified that his mother would punch his father, knocking teeth out of his father's mouth, and that his father, in response, punched holes in the wall. This witnessing of violence at a young age is a high-risk factor of IPV.

G. Warning Signs of IPV

²⁹ See e.g., Storvestre GB, Jensen A, Bjerke E, Tesli N, Rosaeg C, Friestad C, Andreassen OA, Melle I, Haukvik UK. Childhood Trauma in Persons With Schizophrenia and a History of Interpersonal Violence, Front Psychiatry. 2020 May 5;11:383. doi: 10.3389/fpsy.2020.00383. PMID: 32431632; PMCID: PMC7214725; Ernst AA, Weiss SJ, Hall J, Clark R, Coffman B, Goldstein L, Hopley K, Dettmer T, Lehrman C, Merhege M, Corum B, Rihani T, Valdez M, Adult intimate partner violence perpetrators are significantly more likely to have witnessed intimate partner violence as a child than nonperpetrators. Am J Emerg Med. 2009 Jul;27(6):641-50; Flynn A, Graham K. In addition to risk factors of IPV, Dr. Spiegel is expected to testify based on studies and his work with perpetrators and victims of IPV, that there are certain warning signs to help recognize if someone is an IPV perpetrator. These warning signs include:

- Use of physical aggression. They often slap, hit, shove, or push their partner. Dr. Spiegel is expected to testify that based on the record evidence, including but not limited to, audio recordings, pictures of Ms. Heard's injuries, text messages, video recordings, and deposition and trial testimony, the record reflects that Mr. Depp has slapped, hit, shoved Ms. Heard on a regular basis, and has also head-butted her, grabbed her hair and punched her, dragged her across the room, kicked her, thrown objects at her, strangled her, and suffocated her.
- They are unpredictable. Their moods tend to change rapidly and radically. Dr. Spiegel is expected to testify to the record evidence, including but not limited to deposition and trial testimony, emails, texts, video, audio, and journal entries, that demonstrate Mr. Depp's change from a loving husband to what even Mr. Depp called "the Monster."
- They are often jealous, suspicious, and/or angry – even if they have no reason to be. Dr. Spiegel is expected to testify about the record evidence, which reflects Mr. Depp's jealousy of virtually any man (and woman) who worked with Ms. Heard, and his fear that she was having affairs with multiple partners.
- They control their partner's time. They monitor and control their partner's activities, including whether they go to work or school, and how much they see their family and friends. Dr. Spiegel is expected to testify that Mr. Depp reflected this conduct as well. Based on the record evidence, including deposition and trial testimony, he would call directors and male costars to check on her, insist she use his vehicles and security detail, not have passwords on her devices so he could easily access them, interfere with filming and roles, and regulate and manipulate who she could see and spend time with.

- They control their partner's money. They make important financial decisions with shared money by themselves, or they take their partner's money without permission. Dr. Spiegel is expected to testify to the record evidence that reflects that Mr. Depp exerted his financial control over Ms. Heard and attempted to exert even more control.
- They use verbal threats. They are not afraid to name-call, swear, and yell at their partner. Dr. Spiegel is expected to testify to the degrading comments Mr. Depp made toward Ms. Heard (whore, cunt, bitch, ugly, fat). Mr. Depp also told Ms. Heard that she was being his mother and psychotic sister. Blaustein Tr. 157:2-13.
- They isolate their partner. They may limit their partner's use of the phone or other sources of communication, or may force their partner to stay at home. Dr. Spiegel is expected to testify that the evidence of Mr. Depp controlling where Ms. Heard stayed, regulating who she can see and when, and requiring that she not have any passwords on devices so he had unfettered access to her devices and communications is a warning sign of IPV.
- They blame. They often try to blame their partner or others for their problems. Dr. Spiegel is expected to testify that the record evidence reflects Mr. Depp constantly blaming Ms. Heard for the problems in their relationship, and that Mr. Depp largely does not accept responsibility for any of his conduct, and routinely blames others.

- They threaten to hurt themselves, their partner, or their partner's loved ones if their partner tries to leave. Dr. Spiegel is expected to testify as to the warning signs of IPV, where Mr. Depp regularly told Ms. Heard during or after an altercation that he was thinking of suicide or threats of (and actual) self-harm if she did not do as he pleased, and audio recordings relating to using a knife to cut himself and inflicting a cigarette burn on himself.
- They apologize and make promises. Dr. Spiegel is expected to testify that perpetrators very commonly apologize after an instance of IPV and make promises not to repeat their behavior. The apologies may be sincere, at the time, but also may be motivated by wanting to remain in the relationship, where they view themselves as being dominant.

Dr. Spiegel is expected to testify that in his review of the record materials and in speaking with Ms. Heard, Mr. Depp exhibited all these warning signs in his relationship with Ms. Heard.

III. Rebuttal to Opinion of Dr. Shaw's regarding the Goldwater Rule

Dr. Spiegel is expected to testify that the Goldwater Rule does not apply in the context of expert testimony. It has long been established that the Goldwater rule does not extend to the court context.³⁰ "Rigid application of the rule (according to its broadest interpretation) would appear to invalidate long-standing working practice in the courts and in insurance and government agencies, where psychiatric opinion without diagnostic interview is commonplace.”³¹ Such a broad interpretation of the Rule is not supported by the APA and would prohibit expert testimony from psychiatric experts that is routinely admitted in court in a wide variety of contexts.³² For example “[i]n psychiatric malpractice cases, psychiatrists proffer opinions as to the diagnoses, dynamics and best treatment protocols without directly examining the patients. This is most obvious in cases involving completed suicides, but also in boundary violation cases, improper pharmacological treatment for a given diagnosis, and other alleged malpractice situations. Chart reviews are accepted as the evidentiary bases for expert opinions.” (Kroll and Pouncey, 2016).

Furthermore, there is little empirical or theoretical evidence to support the claim that a diagnosis can only be achieved through in-person evaluation. Indeed, “written records and accounts, along with video footage, can provide robust diagnostic information on patients not personally interviewed” (McLoughlin, 2021). Dr. Spiegel has examined over three days of videotaped deposition of Mr. Depp, video footage of Mr. Depp during the relationship with Ms. Heard, audio recordings of Mr. Depp during the relationship with Ms. Heard, pictures, text messages, emails, medical records, psychiatric history, and other documents produced in discovery, testimony from the UK and depositions. With such an abundance of audiovisual and documentary evidence, Dr. Spiegel's opinions, which are not diagnoses, but observed behaviors and statements from Mr. Depp that are consistent with IPV and narcissism, do not run afoul of the Goldwater Rule. All of Dr. Spiegel's opinions are within a reasonable degree of psychiatry and behavioral sciences and professional probability and/or certainty. Dr. Spiegel may also testify in response to the testimony and opinions of the Mr. Depp's expert witnesses, if any, and reserves the right to consider any further discovery and documentation or facts which become available to him.

Pouncey, The ethics of APA’s Goldwater Rule. 44(2) JOURNAL OF THE AMERICAN ACADEMY OF PSYCHIATRY AND THE LAW 226 (2016) (“Furthermore, the APA’s proscription on diagnosis without formal interview can be questioned, since third-party payers, expert witnesses in law cases, and historical psychobiographers make diagnoses without conducting formal interviews.”).

³² American Psychiatric Association, Ethics Committee Opinion, March 15, 2017 (“ . . . the rendering of expertise and/or an opinion in these contexts is permissible because there is a court authorization for . . . opinion without examination. . . and this work is conducted within an evaluative framework including parameters for how and where the information may be used or disseminated.”).

Stand by. 5 (Shaw 3, References, was marked for 6 identification and is attached to the transcript.) 7 AV TECHNICIAN: All right. That should be 8 it. 9 BY MR. NADELHAFT: 10 Q Dr. Shaw, I'm showing you what's been 11 marked as Shaw Exhibit 3. Do you recognize this 12 document? 13 A Yes. 14 Q What is this? 15 A It's a list of References that I referred 16 to in my designation. 17 Q Okay. And these documents that are on 18 pages 1 and 2 are articles and cases; is that 19 right? 20 A Yes. 21 Q And is this a totality of the documents 22 you reviewed in this matter?	31 1 deposition testimony. 2 Q Do you know if that was disclosed in the 3 expert disclosures? 4 A I don't know. 5 Q Okay. What depositions did you review? 6 A Can I go through this list that I have? 7 Q Yeah, sure. 8 A So there was the videotaped deposition of 9 Mr. Depp, depositions of Dr. Kipper, Dr. Cowan, 10 Dr. Blaustein, Dr. Banks, Dr. Anderson, and Debbie 11 Lloyd, and Erin Falati. 12 Q And are those depo- -- did those 13 depositions -- are you relying on them at all as a 14 basis for your opinions in this matter? 15 A I'm -- certainly the records by 16 Dr. Blaustein and the other mental health 17 providers are material that I relied on to some 18 degree, yes. 19 Q How did you -- how are the medical records 20 that you reviewed for Dr. Blaustein -- how did you 21 rely on them for your opinions? 22 A His records were important to me because
30 1 A I have reviewed some documents that 2 Dr. Spiegel referred to in his designation and 3 rebuttal. 4 Q Were those additional articles? 5 A Yes. 6 Q Do you recall what articles you reviewed? 7 A There was one that was referred to 8 yesterday by Dr. McLaughlin. 9 Q Anything else you recall? 10 A That's what I recall. 11 Q Okay. You did not review any depositions 12 in this matter, correct? 13 A I reviewed many depositions, but -- I have 14 a list of documents if you want me to go through 15 those. 16 Q So you did review -- you reviewed 17 depositions in this matter? 18 A I did, yes. 19 Q As part of your expert opinion? 20 A Yes. Well, not as part -- well, I don't 21 know if I'm using these as part of my opinion. My 22 opinion is fairly limited. But I did review	32 1 Dr. Spiegel had referred to them in his 2 designation and had stated that he had relied upon 3 his records. And he'd also made the point in his 4 rebuttal that opinions can be expressed in a case 5 without specifically personally evaluating a 6 patient. And I thought it was important to 7 understand the quality and nature of the records 8 that Dr. Blaustein had kept since I -- since I do 9 think it is reasonable to render opinions about a 10 case based on review of medical records, if the 11 medical records are of good quality and rigorous 12 and meet the standard of care. 13 Q So are you going to be giving an expert 14 opinion as to the quality of the records of 15 Dr. Blaustein? 16 A My -- you know, my scope is to talk about 17 Dr. Spiegel's opinions and his methodology. So 18 insofar as these records were relied on by him, I 19 would be -- certainly would have opinions about 20 the quality of the records that he used to render 21 his opinion. 22 Q In your designation did you disclose

33 1 anywhere regarding the quality of any medical 2 records in this case? 3 A I don't know. 4 Q Do you recall writing that in your 5 designation, about the quality of the medical 6 records in this case? 7 A No, I do not. But I did, certainly in my 8 review of Dr. Spiegel's rebuttal, take note of the 9 fact that he was -- his opinion was that it's 10 reasonable to conduct an evaluation without seeing 11 someone based on record review. And he gave 12 several examples, like insurance agents and 13 malpractice cases. And I agree that in those 14 cases it is reasonable to render an opinion, but I 15 do think that the records that are relied upon 16 have to be certainly of a -- you know, what I 17 would consider meeting the community standard of 18 care. 19 And so in this case, I -- you know, I 20 would have opinions about those records in the 21 context of this case that are relevant to my 22 opinions.	35 1 Q Did you review any contemporaneous audio 2 recordings -- 3 MS. CALNAN: Objection; vague. 4 Q -- of Mr. Depp? 5 MS. CALNAN: Objection; vague. 6 THE WITNESS: No. 7 Q Did you review any contemporaneous video 8 recordings of Mr. Depp? 9 MS. CALNAN: Objection; vague. 10 THE WITNESS: Aside from the video 11 deposition, no. 12 Q Did you review any contemporaneous photos 13 of Mr. Depp or Ms. Heard? 14 A I do recall seeing some photographs of 15 Ms. Heard. 16 Q What photographs did you see of Ms. Heard? 17 A Of her face. 18 Q And how were -- are the photos of her face 19 in any way affecting your opinion? 20 A No. 21 Q Did you review any contemporaneous text 22 messages that were produced in this case?
34 1 Q You've not disclosed your opinions on the 2 quality of the medical records in this case, 3 correct? 4 A I have not, no. 5 Q Okay. Did you review the video deposition 6 of Mr. Depp? 7 A Yes, I did. 8 Q So you reviewed -- do you recall how long 9 the dep- -- in total the deposition was? 10 A I don't. 11 Q Do you recall that there were four 12 separate days of deposition testimony? 13 A Yes. 14 Q And you don't have an estimate as to how 15 many hours the deposition was? 16 A I don't. 17 Q For the other depositions did you review 18 the transcripts or the videos? 19 A The transcripts. 20 Q Did you review any medical records of 21 Ms. Heard? 22 A No.	36 1 A Yes. 2 Q What text messages did you review? 3 A I don't recall the exact sequence of 4 messages, but there were text messages between 5 many of the parties, including Ms. Heard, 6 Mr. Depp. Some of these may have been referred to 7 in the depositions and I may not have actually 8 looked at the specific text, but I do recall 9 seeing some text messages including some text 10 messages between Mr. Depp and, I believe, 11 Dr. Kipper and Debbie Lloyd. 12 Q Did the text message -- did any of the 13 text messages you reviewed -- did you rely on any 14 of the text messages for your opinions in this 15 case? 16 A No. 17 Q Did you review any diary entries that were 18 produced in this matter? 19 A I'm sorry, did you say diary entries? 20 Q Diary, yup. 21 A I don't recall those, no. 22 Q Okay. And did you review -- the documents

61 1 MS. CALNAN: Sorry. 2 Objection; improper hypothetical. 3 THE WITNESS: I don't think there are 4 different interpretations. I think it's pretty 5 clear what it states. I think there are people 6 who have disagreed with it and -- but I think the 7 Goldwater Rule is -- it states clearly what is 8 expected of a psychiatrist. 9 Q Your designation says that Dr. Spiegel did 10 not thoroughly evaluate Mr. Depp. What's your 11 basis for that opinion? 12 A Well, a psychiatric evaluation -- there 13 are several components to a psychiatric 14 evaluation, particularly in the context of a legal 15 case. It requires a full history, a review of 16 medical records. It requires a full mental status 17 examination. 18 The components of the evaluation depend to 19 some degree on what opinions are being expressed. 20 So I would give you an example, that if one was to 21 make a diagnosis of narcissistic personality 22 disorder or reference narcissistic personality	63 1 conduct a thorough evaluation. He reviewed a 2 deposition, a long deposition, in which Mr. Depp 3 had to sit for many hours and answer very personal 4 questions that at times were difficult for him and 5 exposing and -- in which he was, you know, 6 frequently interrupted and told that he was not 7 answering the questions appropriately, and in 8 which there were arguments between the attorneys 9 that were upsetting to him. And, you know, 10 knowing what we know about his history of exposure 11 to trauma in his past, this is clearly upsetting 12 to him. 13 And so I think that relying on that 14 deposition was not proper and not necessarily 15 representative of who Mr. Depp is. And, again, 16 I'm not expressing an opinion one way or another 17 about Mr. Depp's mental status since I also would 18 not want to violate the Goldwater Rule, but this 19 was not a clear evaluation by Dr. Spiegel. 20 Q Do mental status exams ask patients 21 personal questions? 22 A Yes.
62 1 traits, there would be specific questions that 2 would have to be asked of the individual. And 3 those could be done in the course of an interview 4 by a competent psychiatrist or it could be done 5 with the assistance of structured interviews or 6 other measures, such as the Narcissistic 7 Personality Inventory. 8 If the expert is expressing an opinion 9 about -- sorry I'm being a bit repetitive here, 10 but I'll say it one more time. If they're giving 11 opinions about cognition, memory, attention, 12 word-finding difficulties, and -- and also as in 13 the case of Dr. Spiegel who was directly 14 attributing all of these deficits to alcohol and 15 substance use, it's incumbent on the expert to, 16 first of all, have their own thorough history 17 about which substances were used, for how long, 18 and to what degree and how recently. And to have 19 testing which would normally in this case be 20 neuropsychological testing to document those 21 deficits. 22 So on that basis I believe he did not	64 1 Q So a person would have to answer personal 2 questions in a mental status exam, correct? 3 A Yes. 4 MS. CALNAN: Objection; asked and 5 answered. 6 Q Okay. 7 A It would be an incomplete mental status 8 examination without these core questions that 9 every psychiatrist knows are part of their own 10 mental status examination. 11 Q Okay. And what are the core questions 12 that are part of a thorough mental status 13 examination? 14 MS. CALNAN: Objection; outside the scope 15 of Dr. Shaw's opinion. Sorry. 16 THE WITNESS: Okay. Sorry. 17 Yeah, well, certainly questions about 18 current mood, or what we call affect, presence of 19 suicidal ideation, questions about delusional 20 ideation or the presence of audio-visual 21 hallucinations. And with regard to the cognitive 22 portion of the mental status examination,

PLAINTIFF’S DESIGNATION/IDENTIFICATION OF EXPERT WITNESSES

Plaintiff John C. Depp, II, by and through his undersigned counsel, pursuant to Rule 4:1(b)(4)(A)(i) of the Rules of the Supreme Court of Virginia, and the Court’s Scheduling Order, dated June 27, 2019, and in response to Interrogatory No. 15 in Ms. Heard’s First Set of Interrogatories dated October 7, 2019, hereby designates and identifies his expert witnesses.

Given the ongoing state of discovery—in particular, the continuing document productions from the parties and non-parties and the fact that depositions of certain key parties and witnesses, specifically Ms. Heard, have yet to occur—Plaintiff reserves the right to supplement this Expert Witness Designation, to include (1) identifying additional or different areas of expected testimony for the designated witnesses, (2) identifying additional or different bases for the expected testimony of the designated witnesses, and/or (3) designating additional or different expert witnesses.

Retained Experts

1. Richard Marks, Entertainment Industry Expert, Richard Marks & Associates, 10573 W. Pico Blvd., Suite 221, Los Angeles, California 90064. Mr. Marks has had a long career as an executive and business lawyer in the entertainment industry. Mr. Marks

California state law in effect on May 21, 2016 related to policy and procedure development regarding general crimes and domestic violence response for law enforcement agencies; the LAPD's policies and procedures in effect on May 21, 2016 related to general crimes and domestic violence investigations; and standard patrol practices related to general crimes, domestic violence investigations, officer safety, and evidence identification and collection.

Ms. Frost may also testify as to any fact or opinion rendered or attributed to another witness or party as identified by other parties' witnesses. Plaintiff reserves the right to designate or substitute other witnesses of the same disciplines to testify as to the facts and opinions described herein. Plaintiff further reserves the right to supplement this Expert Witness Designation based on additional facts Plaintiff learns during discovery and/or his ongoing investigation of this matter. In particular, as of the date of this Expert Designation, the depositions of Ms. Heard, Officer Melissa Saenz, Officer Tyler Hadden, and the LAPD have yet to occur and the documents from the LAPD that were requested by Ms. Heard have yet to be produced.

Ms. Frost's CV is attached hereto as Exhibit H. She is being compensated for her work at the rate of $485 per hour for consultation time and $535 per hour for deposition and trial testimony time; none of her compensation is contingent on the opinions she renders or the outcome of the litigation.

Non-Retained Experts

1. Christian Carino, Creative Artists Agency, 2000 Avenue of the Stars, Los Angeles, CA 90067. Mr. Carino served as Mr. Depp's agent since October 2016. Mr. Carino is regarded as a leading talent agent in Hollywood, with extensive experience in the film, commercial, fashion and entertainment industries. Mr. Carino is expected to testify on the negative impact of Ms. Heard's defamatory Op-Ed on Mr. Depp's career, as well as the impact of a jury verdict in Mr. Depp's favor on his career going forward. In so doing, Mr. Carino may rely on his expertise in the entertainment industry and his experience as an agent and industry executive.

2. Jack Whigham, Range Media Partners. Mr. Whigham has served as Mr. Depp's agent since October 2016 and is regarded as a leading talent agent in Hollywood, with extensive experience in the film, commercial, fashion, and entertainment industries. 9 1 Q Is the cell phone number (310) 433-0334 an 2 old cell phone number of yours? 3 A An old cell phone number. 4 Q Okay. And is your email address 5 David@Kippermd.com? 6 A Yes. 7 Q And you've been deposed before, 8 Dr. Kipper? 9 A Yes. 10 Q So you know the general rules. I'm going 11 to start off asking you questions. If at any time 12 you don't understand a question, or can't hear me 13 because we're doing this via Zoom, please let me 14 know. If you respond it will be assumed you 15 understood and heard my question. Does that make 16 sense? 17 A Yes. 18 Q Okay. Please also be sure to answer 19 verbally as you're doing. As you know, a nod or a 20 shake of the head isn't going to do so the court 21 reporter can accurately transcribe what you're 22 saying; does that make sense?	11 1 A Correct. 2 Q And you've written a book on addiction? 3 A Yes. 4 Q What's the title of the book? 5 A The Addiction Solution. 6 Q And by addiction do you mean addiction to 7 drugs and alcohol? 8 A Yes. 9 Q Is there any other addictions that you 10 practice treating? 11 A Well, there are behavioral addictions, but 12 those are far less common. 13 Q And in your practice you've dealt with 14 patients who have blacked out from drugs or 15 alcohol? 16 A Yes. 17 Q And when a person experiences a black out 18 during alcohol or drug use what, if anything, 19 happens to the brain as to what's occurring or 20 understand -- what their understanding is 21 occurring around the person? 22 MR. HARWELL: Mr. Nadlehaft, you've just
10 1 A Yes. 2 Q Okay. Have you ever been deposed in any 3 cases involving Johnny Depp? 4 A No. 5 Q Okay. Now, you're a doctor; correct? 6 A Yes. 7 Q And an internist? 8 A Yes. 9 Q How long have you been practicing 10 medicine? 11 A Since 1977. 12 Q And I noticed on your website, it says you 13 provide concierge healthcare. What does that 14 mean? 15 A That means I provide healthcare on a 16 retainer-based -- arrangement. 17 Q What do you mean by retainer-based 18 arrangement? 19 A Patients pay an annual fee and all 20 services are included. And I'm available 24/7. 21 Q Now you also practice -- part of your 22 practice is addiction treatment; is that correct?	12 1 asked a question that requires the expert opinion 2 of Dr. Kipper. As I wrote to you all earlier last 3 week, if you ask expert questions you're going to 4 have to pay the expert fees required under 5 California Evidence Code Section 994. And I will 6 instruct him not to answer any questions calling 7 for expertise unless you wish to retain him for 8 that purpose for this deposition. 9 Q Do you understand that you've been listed 10 as a nonpaid expert by Mr. Depp? 11 A Can you define that for me, please, Adam? 12 Q Do you understand that you have been -- 13 identified as a potential non -- that there -- a 14 fact witness that is not -- let me, strike that. 15 I'll come back to that. 16 MR. HARWELL: Mr. Nadlehaft, if it helps 17 we're not answering any questions propounded by 18 Mr. Depp's lawyers that call for an expert opinion 19 without being compensated under evidence code 20 Section 994 either. 21 Q With the understanding that you've been 22 identified by Mr. Depp as a potential expert?

1 detox from alcohol, opiates, benzo, and cocaine?
2 A Those – those substances were in his
3 history. The substance that he was at that point
4 concerned about and abusing were opiates.
5 Q And when you say he was concerned about
6 the substance he was abusing was opiates, was this
7 in the conversation before May 22nd, 2014?
8 A I can't remember specifically.
9 Q Okay. So you had this initial
10 conversation with Mr. Depp and then you had this 11 initial consultation with him a few months later;
12 is that correct?
13 A Yes, that's correct.
14 Q And you met with Mr. Depp in Boston?
15 A Yes.
16 Q And Mr. Depp was filming a movie at the 17 time?
18 A Yes.
19 Q And in your notes you say he had had a
20 history of self-medicating behaviors involving 21 multiple substances of abuse. These include:
22 Alcohol, opiates, benzodiazepines, and stimulants,

34

1 cocaine. Is that -- is that accurate what he told
2 you?
3 A Yes. That's in my -- that statement is in
4 my notes, correct.
5 Q Okay. And in addition to opiates, was 6 he -- was Mr. Depp addicted to any other
7 prescription drugs?
8 A No, other than opiates, no.
9 Q Okay. What is -- with what is Roxicodone?
10 A It's an opiate.
11 Q And what is -- what is Adderall?
12 A Adderall is a stimulant.
13 Q Okay. And was Mr. Depp addicted to 14 Adderall?
15 A No.
16 Q What is Xanax?
17 A Xanax is a benzodiazepine.
18 Q Okay. So was it -- was at any time
19 Mr. Depp addicted to Xanax?
20 MR. HARWELL: I'm going to object to the 21 form of the question in that you appear to be 22 asking for his expert conclusion. If the question

35

1 was did Mr. Depp indicate he was addicted to a
2 benzodiazepine that's fine. If you wish him to 3 read from his expert report that's also fine.
4 MR. NADLEHAFT: Okay. That's fine. Alex,
5 can I take control?
6 Q Okay. This first -- this first paragraph
7 on this page, these are notes based off of your
8 discussion with Mr. Depp?
9 A Yes.
10 Q Okay. And then on the second page where 11 it says physical examination, that's just what you
12 conducted at the time -- on Mr. Depp?
13 A Yes. Yes.
14 Q Okay. And where it says "impression" on 15 the third page, that was your impression of 16 Mr. Depp at the time of May 22nd, 2014?
17 A Yes.
18 Q And under that, the plan, that -- 19 that's -- that's documenting your plan for 20 Mr. Depp going forward?
21 A Correct.
22 Q Did Mr. Depp pay for this visit?

36

1 A Yes.
2 Q Okay. And -- and was the plan to start
3 treatment for Mr. Depp after he was finished with 4 his movie in Boston?
5 MS. MEYERS: Objection; leading.
6 Q You can answer -- well, when was the plan
7 to start treatment of Mr. Depp?
8 A After his -- after he completed his
9 current film.
10 Q Okay. We can take this down. Can you put 11 up Kipper 4, please?
12 (KIPPER Deposition Exhibit 4 marked for
13 identification and attached to the transcript.)
14 MR. HARWELL: I will raise the same
15 objection as to this document. We did not produce
16 it to you. It contains PHI that we excluded from 17 our production.
18 Q Dr. Kipper, do you recognize Kipper
19 Exhibit 4?
20 A Yes.
21 Q And what are the -- what is Kipper
22 Exhibit 4?

57
1 production. And I'll represent to you that there
2 were no drug tests that I saw for 2014 or 2015 for 3 Mr. Depp. Do you know why that is?
4 A The only thing I can -- the answer is no.
5 I can't -- I don't understand that. We had a
6 flood in our office in 2014, October. The office
7 above us flooded our office and the basement,
8 which is where we kept certain records, but I'm 9 not sure which records relating to Mr. Depp would 10 have been involved in that. But other than that,
11 no.
12 Q Okay. Would the -- would drug tests for 13 Mr. Depp for 2014 and 2015, would those also be 14 kept electronically?
15 A No.
16 Q Who did you work with to conduct the drug
17 test of Mr. Depp?
18 A Yes, I ordered the drug test.
19 Q And -- and what company did you work with?
20 A It appears that it's MD Lab. That's the 21 lab we use.
22 Q Okay. And -- and the drug tests that we

58
1 do have, they came from your files; correct?
2 A Correct.
3 Q And they're meant to be accurate; correct?
4 A Correct.
5 Q All right. And you would agree that drug
6 tests that you took of Mr. Depp in the 2016
7 through 2019 period showed Mr. Depp testing
8 positive for cocaine; correct?
9 A Correct.
10 MS. MEYERS: Objection.
11 Q The drug tests showed Mr. Depp being
12 positive for cocaine; correct?
13 A Yes, correct.
14 Q Okay. And for THC, he was -- Mr. Depp was 15 also positive for THC; correct?
16 A Correct.
17 Q And for benzo; is that correct?
18 A The answer would be yes. I'm looking for 19 benzo -- the answer would be correct because he 20 was maintained on benzos, benzodiazepines.
21 Q Okay. And how long was -- was Mr. Depp on 22 benzodiazepine?

59
1 A He was on benzodiazepines pretty much
2 throughout our relationship during this period of
3 time.
4 Q Wasn't -- wasn't one of the objectives to 5 get him off of benzodiazepines?
6 A It was, and we actually used a medication
7 to accomplish that initially. But he didn't
8 tolerate that medication very well. Not everyone
9 does. So he was put back on his benzos.
10 Q Okay. Do you believe that Mr. Depp had an 11 addiction to benzo?
12 A I think Mr. Depp had an anxiety --
13 MR. HARWELL: Objection; calls for an
14 expert opinion.
15 MR. NADLEHAFT: You're not going to answer
16 that?
17 MR. HARWELL: I'm instructing him not to
18 answer.
19 Q On page 3 of Exhibit 7, what's being shown
20 here under where it starts with cocaine
21 metabolites?
22 A This -- this is a listing of substances

60
1 with reference ranges. And I think if you scroll
2 down you'll see his specific analysis related to
3 that.
4 Q Okay. And -- and on page 4, Robert Wells
5 was the name for Mr. Depp; is that correct? An 6 alias; correct?
7 A Yes, correct.
8 Q Okay. And this -- this is a drug test for
9 11/21/16; correct?
10 A Yes.
11 Q And it -- what is it showing Mr. Depp
12 positive for? What drugs?
13 A Positive for cocaine, amphetamines, and 14 benzodiazepines.
15 Q Okay. Is -- is amphetamines a drug that 16 you were prescribing to Mr. Depp?
17 A Correct.
18 Q What -- what drugs were that -- what drugs
19 were they?
20 A That's Adderall.
21 Q Adderall. Okay. Is there any -- strike
22 that.

65 1 Q Hold on one second. Sorry. Do you see at 2 Kipper 7 – Kipper 71 where it says MD's flight 3 has been canceled. Arrangements are being made 4 for him to arrive on the island on 8/12/14? 5 A Yes, I see that. 6 Q Okay. So is it -- is it accurate that you 7 arrived at Mr. Depp's island on August 12, 2014? 8 Is that accurate? 9 A Yes, that is correct. 10 Q Okay. Do you see the note on 8/15/2014, 11 "Texts from fiancée that patient is quote 12 'paranoid' and trying to fight with fiancée. 13 States he is quote 'angry' and quote 'freaking 14 out'?" 15 MS. MEYERS: Objection; hearsay. 16 Q "RN and MD went to assess patient." Do 17 you see that? 18 A I do. 19 Q Is this note yours or -- or Ms. Lloyd's? 20 A It's Ms. Lloyd. 21 Q Okay. And do you recall -- do you recall 22 Ms. Heard informing either you or Ms. Lloyd that	67 1 15:45, "Patient's fiancée came to get MD and RN 2 stating that patient was erratic and paranoid." 3 Do you see that? 4 A Yes. 5 Q And was this -- and again, was this your 6 notes or Ms. Lloyd's notes? 7 A Ms. Lloyd. 8 Q Okay. And did -- do you recall anything 9 else that Ms. Heard said about Mr. Depp beyond 10 being erratic and paranoid? 11 MS. MEYERS: Objection; calls for hearsay. 12 A I can't remember. 13 Q Do you recall Mr. Depp having any -- being 14 erratic when he was on the island? 15 MR. HARWELL: I'm going to object as it 16 calls for an expert opinion. 17 MR. NADLEHAFT: I'm not asking as a doctor 18 just as a person who was on the island with 19 Mr. Depp. 20 Q Was he erratic? 21 A My opinion would come as a doctor, not as 22 a nondoctor, because I am a doctor. So there were
66 1 Mr. Depp was paranoid and trying to fight with 2 her? 3 MS. MEYERS: Objection; calls for hearsay. 4 Q You can answer. 5 A I can't recall that specific conversation. 6 But if it's in these notes I would assume that 7 it's an accurate statement. 8 Q And you and -- and you -- and you and 9 Ms. Lloyd went to assess Mr. Depp based on the 10 texts from Ms. Heard; correct? 11 MS. MEYERS: Objection; assumes facts not 12 in evidence. 13 Q Did you go to assess Mr. Depp on 14 August 15th, 2014, according to these notes? 15 A That's correct. 16 Q All right. And by the way, fiancée is 17 Ms. Heard in these notes; correct? 18 A Yes. 19 Q And patient -- and patient is Mr. Depp; 20 correct? 21 A Correct. 22 Q And you see the note for August 17th at	68 1 certainly times during the course of the treatment 2 which -- which he demonstrated discomfort with his 3 treatment. 4 Q When you say discomfort what do you mean 5 with that? 6 A He was frustrated, and per the notes and 7 my memory, he was anxious to get this over with 8 and had expressed some frustration and discomfort 9 when -- when he wasn't feeling well. 10 Q Okay. And if we scroll down to 8/18/14, 11 is this at 1:00 in the morning? 12 A Yes. 13 Q Okay. And this is at Kipper 77 on -- on 14 Kipper 5, "Patient is upset and irritable. M.D. 15 and R.N. went to assess patient." Is that 16 accurate that you came to see Mr. Depp at 1:00 in 17 the morning? 18 A Yes. 19 Q And after receiving a text from Ms. Heard? 20 A Correct. 21 Q And Mr. Depp -- the note says he states -- 22 he being Mr. Depp, states, "He had a fight with

73 1 MS. MEYERS: Objection; calls for hearsay. 2 Q You can answer. 3 A She did – she did tell us that, yes. 4 Q And did Ms. Heard reaching out to you 5 cause you to visit Mr. Depp? 6 A Yes. 7 Q And in the second paragraph on Kipper 8 it 8 says, "It's difficult for me to read too much into 9 the conversation that followed. He's 10 uncomfortable, is pessimistic that he'll ever be 11 able to stop doing drugs, actually romanticizes 12 the entire drug culture, and has no accountability 13 for his behaviors." Was that accurate when you 14 wrote it? 15 A Yes. 16 MS. MEYERS: Objection. 17 MR. HARWELL: I'm going to object as to 18 whether that calls for an expert opinion. I think 19 that you can have some read -- read the language 20 into the record, but not ask him the basis for his 21 conclusion. 22 MR. NADLEHAFT: I just asked if it's	75 1 of patience. He is driven also reflexively by his 2 ID. He has no patience for not getting his needs 3 met, has no understanding of delayed 4 gratification, and is quite childlike in his 5 reactions when he does not get immediate 6 satisfaction." Is that accurate what you wrote? 7 MS. MEYERS: Objection; form; document 8 speaks for itself. 9 Q You can answer. 10 A That is what I wrote. 11 Q And you wrote this to Ms. Dembrowski 12 because you were concerned about Mr. Depp; is that 13 correct? 14 A I wrote this so that she was aware of 15 where we were in the process of his treatment. 16 Q And you wrote this after he had an 17 incident with Ms. Heard; correct? 18 MS. MEYERS: Objection; assumes facts not 19 in evidence. 20 A I did not witness the incident. I wrote 21 this after we were called to see him because there 22 was an alleged incident, but he clearly was
74 1 accurate. I didn't ask the basis. 2 MR. HARWELL: Is the writing accurate, 3 Dr. Kipper? 4 A Yes. That's what I said. That is what I 5 wrote. 6 Q And in the second page you write, "He has 7 fundamental issues with anger, and when he gets 8 mad at her, meaning Amber, for her bad behavior, 9 he has tremendous ambivalence and guilt about 10 these feelings even being valid." Is that 11 accurate -- is it accurate that you wrote that? 12 A Yes, it's accurate that I wrote that. 13 Q You also wrote, "I also think that his 14 need to be liked trumps his ability to actually 15 reach out to these guys with the vulnerability 16 that would ultimately give him the support he 17 needs from the community he respects." Is that 18 accurate that you wrote that? 19 A Yes. 20 MS. MEYERS: Objection; form; document 21 speaks for itself. 22 Q And you also write, "There's also an issue	76 1 uncomfortable at that time when we came to see 2 him. And, again, we were getting ready to 3 transition off of the island and I wanted Christi 4 to have a clear understanding of where we were at 5 that time. 6 Q Okay. And you wrote on page -- from the 7 bottom of page 2 to page 3, "For my two cents, I 8 think he needs to remain committed, endure some 9 discomfort. He's actually ever had very little. 10 Get neurochemically stable, seek an ongoing 11 therapeutic relationship with a doctor I know that 12 could help him, and get him into the recovery 13 community on whatever level he would accept. 14 Short of this, his chances remain slim. He is 15 discouraged and angry, but this is not unusual at 16 this phase of treatment." 17 Is that accurate what you wrote then? 18 A That is what I wrote, yes. 19 Q Okay. Do you need to take a break? 20 A I'm okay. 21 Q Okay. Fair enough. 22 A Pretty soon all this tea I'm drinking is

1 going to change that opinion.
2 Q I understand. You let me know. You see
3 at 23 -- at Kipper 79 at 2315, it says, "R.N.
4 received text from fiance stating, 'he's manic,
5 full-on flipping out. Give up. Not to call you
6 guys.'" Do you see that?
7 A Yes, I see that.
8 Q Okay. That's a note from Ms. Lloyd?
9 A Correct.
10 Q And Ms. Lloyd would only have written down
11 this note if she actually received that -- a text
12 like that from Ms. Heard; correct?
13 A Yes, that's correct.
14 Q Were you informed at this time that 15 Mr. Depp was manic, full-on flipping out?
16 A Yes, I was -- I certainly read her note,
17 and she relayed that information to me.
18 Q Okay. And Ms. Lloyd also received a text
19 from Ms. Heard saying, "We need help. He's at the 20 border, refusing to take his meds. Fiancee
21 informed nurse would come right over." Do you see
22 that at 8:20?

78

1 A Yes.
2 MS. MEYERS: Objection; calls for hearsay.
3 Q And then at 12:30 you and Ms. Lloyd met
4 with Mr. Depp?
5 A Yes, according to these notes, yes.
6 Q Okay. And do you know, was this now in 7 the Bahamas or was this back in Los Angeles?
8 A I need to go back to the date, not the 9 time. Can you scroll up? Thank you.
10 Q 8/20/14.
11 A And I'm just looking at my calendar. Yes,
12 we were now back in Los Angeles.
13 Q And in the notes on 12:30 on August 20th,
14 "Mr. Depp stated he was done with the process and 15 no longer wanted M.D. and R.N. services." Do you
16 see that?
17 A Yes.
18 Q Do you recall Mr. Depp telling you that?
19 A Yes.
20 MS. MEYERS: Objection; calls for hearsay.
21 Q And do you recall Mr. Depp saying there
22 was tension between him and Ms. Heard?

79

1 MS. MEYERS: Objection; calls for hearsay.
2 A Yes.
3 Q And it was -- you thought it was best for 4 Ms. Heard to take a few days for herself; correct?
5 MR. HARWELL: Objection; calls for expert
6 opinion.
7 Q Was the plan for Ms. Heard to take a few
8 days for herself?
9 A Yes.
10 Q And Mr. Depp wanted -- is it true Mr. Depp
11 wanted to stop taking all the medications you were 12 providing him?
13 A Yes, that's reflected in this note.
14 Q Now, you mentioned you had -- you did text
15 with Mr. Depp on occasion; correct?
16 A I believe so, but I really can't remember
17 any specific time or message that I sent to him.
18 MR. NADLEHAFT: Okay. Alex, can you put 19 up Exhibit 9, please, Kipper Exhibit 9.
20 (KIPPER Deposition Exhibit 9 marked for
21 identification and attached to the transcript.)
22 Q Dr. Kipper, Mr. Depp has produced a number

80

1 of texts in this litigation between you and him.
2 And they're in this chart here. We're not going
3 to go through all of them, I promise you. But I
4 want to ask you about a few of them. And we'll do
5 this throughout the deposition. And on 8/21/2014
6 it says Dr. David Kipper, this 310 phone number,
7 was that your phone number at the time?
8 A Yes.
9 Q Okay. And this was a text from you that 10 says -- to Mr. Depp that says, "Glad you're better
11 today. Respect you as much as I love you. You're 12 impossible not to love, but an easier job not to 13 respect. You're making my job a pleasure, an 14 honor, and a few sleepless nights. Stop firing
15 me, I know what I'm doing." Do you recall sending 16 that text to Mr. Depp?
17 A Yes.
18 Q Okay. Now, you had been working with 19 Mr. Depp for how long at this point as of 20 August 21st, 2014, approximately?
21 A We had started -- the detox started I
22 believe on the 10th of August, and this is -- I'm

81

1 having a little trouble – can this be enlarged a
2 little bit?
3 Q Sure. That might be too much.
4 A Yeah, that's a little – so this was
5 written on – I'm looking for the date, there it
6 is, 8/19 –
7 Q No, it's 8/21, the bottom one.
8 A Yes, I'm sorry. I forgot your question
9 already.
10 Q How long had you been working with 11 Mr. Depp at this point as of August 21st, 2014?
12 A And can you define by working with him?
13 Are you talking about specifically the detox or 14 are you talking about our initial meeting?
15 Q Even if you go with the initial meeting,
16 how many months has that been?
17 A So about four months.
18 Q Okay. And you write, "Stop firing me."
19 In that four months, how many times had Mr. Depp
20 tried to fire you?
21 A That was – I believe that was the first
22 time. And again, this was in reference to him not

82

1 wanting to proceed and not wanting our help. This
2 is actually – I'm sorry this was the second time,
3 because the first time was on the island just as
4 we were getting ready to leave. He did not want
5 to proceed, he didn't think he could do it. That 6 changed after a conversation, he was back on 7 board. And this came from – I think followed
8 that incident that you – we just referred to in 9 the notes when we were asked to come and visit
10 with them and – where he didn't want to proceed
11 and then again at the end of that visit he was 12 back on board.
13 Q Okay. Now, on August 24th, 2014, its 14 shows a text -- when it shows him, that's Mr. Depp
15 to you, David Kipper, and Mr. Depp wrote, "Forgot 16 to tell you, had a hopefully very positive and 17 free of ego squawk with Amber last night that went 18 very well... And then I shot a few Negroes in a
19 club on Sunset Boulevard. So far so good..."
20 Do you recall this text from Mr. Depp?
21 A No.
22 Q Was that Mr. Depp's typical language?

83

1 A Again, I don't recall this specific email.
2 So that may be – that may have been an attempt at
3 humor.
4 Q Were you concerned at all that he was 5 having any -- Mr. Depp was having any 6 hallucinations?
7 A No.
8 Q Okay. Were you ever concerned that
9 Mr. Depp was having hallucinations?
10 MR. HARWELL: Objection; calls for an
11 expert testimony.
12 Q Were you ever told that Mr. Depp was 13 having hallucinations?
14 MS. MEYERS: Objection; calls for hearsay.
15 Q You can answer that.
16 A I can't remember hearing that.
17 Q From anybody at any time?
18 A Correct.
19 Q Alex, can you put up Kipper 10.
20 (KIPPER Deposition Exhibit 10 marked for
21 identification and attached to the transcript.)
22 Q Dr. Kipper, Kipper 10 is an -- do you

84

1 recognize this document?
2 A No, but I'm looking at it.
3 Q Let me ask you this, do you recall if
4 Arrowsarc@icloud.com was Ms. Heard's email
5 address?
6 A I assume that by looking at this document.
7 Q Do you recall Ms. Heard emailing you
8 saying that she got into an argument when Johnny
9 didn't come home the night before or that night?
10 MS. MEYERS: Objection; hearsay.
11 Q You can answer.
12 A Until I saw this, I don't recall that 13 specifically, but I can see by this document that 14 that did happen.
15 Q Is it true that Ms. Heard informed you
16 then and at other times that Mr. Depp explodes?
17 MS. MEYERS: Objection; calls for evidence
18 not in the record; hearsay.
19 Q You can answer.
20 A Yes.
21 Q Okay. Exhibit 5, Kipper 101 at 9/22/14 at 22 1:25. You see it says, "R.N. received text from

101 1 you're able to know how you are, good or bad. 2 This is when we need to connect, and without 3 judgment, but I'm very concerned about you and 4 want to right the ship." So same concerns as you 5 had in the text message before; correct? 6 A Correct. 7 Q And -- and then on November 16th you 8 write, "I need to hear from you. Please call me." 9 So you were still concerned about Mr. Depp in this 10 November 16th, 2014, time frame; correct? 11 MS. MEYERS: Objection; vague. 12 A Yes. Evidently, yes. 13 Q Now, on November 17th, 2014 -- in 2014, 14 Mr. Depp texted you and said, "I have been to see 15 Amber downtown. Yeah, yeah, interesting to say 16 the least. Wow. Anyway, I'm still away and don't 17 foresee slumber anytime soon to this broken 18 instrument of a squash situated atop my shoulders. 19 I would love to speak whenever you get a minute, 20 Dear David, though honestly if I were you, Debbie, 21 and/or Erin I would RUN for the fucking hills!!! 22 I love you, Doctor... Cannot thank you enough for	103 1 MS. MEYERS: Objection; calls for 2 speculation; lacks foundation; vague and 3 ambiguous. 4 MR. HARWELL: And expert testimony. 5 A No. The answer would be no. 6 Q Do you know what he means by, "Fucking 7 brave Mikey"? 8 A He had a friend that had a serious health 9 issue, and this may have been the one that died. 10 But this was in reference to one of his friends. 11 Q Do you recall if after Mr. Depp had one of 12 his friends die, if he had a relapse into drugs or 13 alcohol? 14 MS. MEYERS: Objection; vague. 15 Q Around this 2014 time frame? 16 MR. HARWELL: And I'm going to object as 17 to calling for expert testimony. If you wish to 18 point him to a piece of paper and have him read it 19 to you, we're welcome to, otherwise you're asking 20 for expert testimony. 21 Q Do you recall if Mr. Depp was taking drugs 22 or alcohol in this November 2014 time frame after
102 1 all you've done. Not only for me and my poor pack 2 of wolves and my sweet, fucking brave Mikey... 3 these are the things that remind us that life 4 should be a fucking gas. I'm waste deep in big 5 muddy here... Hit me when you're drunk... It'll 6 be far less boring. Love you long time, 7 brother... And of course, the beautiful and 8 luminous Chanelle... And by now 8'6" Sam! Mucho, 9 mucho... From those of us who are not as others. 10 X. JD." 11 You recall do you recall this text from 12 Mr. Depp? 13 A No, I don't. But clearly I see that I 14 received that text. 15 Q Do you -- okay. Do you recall in this 16 November -- when -- have you seen texts like this 17 from Mr. Depp to you? 18 MS. MEYERS: Objection; vague and 19 ambiguous. 20 Q Let me ask you this way, when you would 21 receive texts from Mr. Depp, could you tell 22 whether he was intoxicated or not?	104 1 he lost a friend? 2 A No, I can't say. I can't remember. 3 MR. NADLEHAFT: Okay. Okay. Alex, can 4 you put up Kipper 13, please. 5 (KIPPER Deposition Exhibit 13 marked for 6 identification and attached to the transcript.) 7 Q Do you recognize, Dr. Kipper, this email 8 chain between you and Connell Cowan? 9 A I can't -- I don't remember it, but I'm 10 refreshing myself with what you're showing me. 11 Q Okay. Who is Connell Cowan? 12 A He's a psychologist that I had referred 13 Amber to see. 14 Q Okay. And on January 27th, 2015, at 6:11 15 p.m. you wrote to Mr. Cowan -- Dr. Cowan, 16 "Connell, sorry for getting back to you late. I'm 17 swamped. Amber and JD have been fighting nonstop 18 since he confirmed his need for a prenup on their 19 way to the airport going to Japan to promote his 20 movie. She tried to push up the date of the 21 wedding to avoid all this, but the reality is 22 he'll need prenup. If she fails to sign, they

105 1 won't get married. Both behaved like super triple 2 DD types, complete with thrown coffee, attempts to 3 storm the cockpit by him to turn the plane around, 4 attempts by her to leave the plane while they were 5 over the fucking ocean, etcetera." 6 Do you recall writing that to Dr. Cowan? 7 A No, I don't recall writing that, but 8 clearly I did. 9 Q Were you -- do you recall being in the 10 plane with Mr. Depp and Ms. Heard where he tried 11 to storm the cockpit? 12 MS. MEYERS: Objection; assumes facts not 13 in evidence; calls for speculation. 14 Q You can answer. 15 A Never, no. 16 Q Okay. But you were somehow informed that 17 Mr. Depp tried to storm the cockpit; correct? 18 A Yes. 19 Q And there was thrown coffee; correct? 20 MS. MEYERS: Objection; calls for hearsay; 21 calls for speculation; assumes facts not in 22 evidence.	107 1 violence? Were you asking a guy on the street it 2 might not be, but it would be the opinion of 3 someone who would be uninformed. You're asking 4 their physician whether he was concerned about 5 violence, and that in California requires expert 6 testimony. 7 Q Is there any -- Dr. Kipper, are there any 8 ethical rules to report -- report the violence if 9 you were to be told of violence? 10 A If I were to see the violence I would be 11 obligated to -- I would be obligated to make some 12 reporting. I never saw any violence. 13 Q And you didn't report either Mr. Depp or 14 Ms. Heard; correct? Because you didn't see -- 15 your testimony is you didn't see any violence 16 between -- from Mr. Depp to Ms. Heard or Ms. Heard 17 to Mr. Depp; correct? 18 A We never saw violence between the two of 19 them. 20 Q Okay. You heard reports but never saw -- 21 you never saw it is your testimony? 22 A Correct.
106 1 A Again, I don't recall who gave me this 2 information that I translated to Dr. Cowan. 3 Q And you were concerned about the 4 information enough to share it with Dr. Cowan; 5 correct? 6 MS. MEYERS: Objection; vague and 7 ambiguous. 8 A Yes, I was concerned because I was -- I 9 was trying to arrange for therapy for these two. 10 Q Okay. And Ms. Heard was your patient as 11 well as Mr. Depp at this time; correct? 12 A At this time, yes. 13 Q Were you concerned about any sort of 14 violence towards Ms. Heard at this time? 15 MS. MEYERS: Objection; vague and 16 ambiguous as to violence; assumes facts not in 17 evidence. 18 MR. HARWELL: And I'm afraid you're 19 calling for an expert opinion. 20 MR. NADLEHAFT: The concern about violence 21 you're saying is an expert opinion? 22 MR. HARWELL: Were you concerned about	108 1 Q Okay. And there isn't -- is there -- and 2 getting -- there's no ethical obligation to report 3 violence if you were told about purported 4 violence? 5 MR. HARWELL: If you know the answer to 6 that question, Doctor. 7 A I don't -- I know that -- if I know that a 8 patient of mine has committed a murder or has 9 committed a criminal act, murder, specifically, 10 then I am required to report that. 11 Q But if it's not a murder, if someone is -- 12 if a client is reporting being beaten by their 13 husband, you don't have to report that under the 14 ethical code? 15 A If it's reported to me, no. If I observe 16 this and know this to be a fact, then yes. 17 Q And that's based on your -- and that's 18 based on -- and you have that -- you gave the 19 statement based on what you recall of the ethical 20 code for doctors in California; is that correct? 21 A Yes, that's correct. 22 MR. NADLEHAFT: Okay. Can you put up

125 1 Q And Raja Sawhney emailed you, do you see 2 that? 3 A Yes. 4 Q Okay. And he writes, "Thank you for your 5 time, David. Attached is a copy of my notes for 6 you to use as necessary, re Robert Wells." And 7 Robert Wells is Mr. Depp; correct? 8 A Correct. 9 Q And this was from March 8th, 2015; 10 correct? 11 A Yes. 12 Q Okay. And Dr. Sawhney writes to you, 13 "51M, right ring finger injury and distal 14 detipping. Right-hand dominant. Unclear history 15 of traumatic event and no witnesses. Patient 16 under the influence and not coherent. Not sure of 17 mechanism. Accompanied by his physician, 18 Dr. Kipper, who has given him Toradol and 19 Augmentin, 870 milligrams orally." is there 20 anything inaccurate in that email? 21 A If this refers to him in the emergency 22 room in Australia, I did not see him as incoherent	127 1 speculation. 2 MR. HARWELL: And calls for an expert 3 opinion. 4 MR. NADLEHAFT: I don't believe it calls 5 for an expert opinion. 6 MR. HARWELL: You're asking him if there's 7 any reason for that doctor to have determined he 8 was coherent, and he did not determine he was 9 coherent. All you're going to get from him is 10 whether or not -- you asked him if it was 11 accurate; he said he doesn't think it's accurate. 12 Q Was it accurate that his hand -- that his 13 heavily contaminated hand and fingers with dirt, 14 grime, and paint? 15 A That's accurate. 16 Q Okay. Is there anything other than the 17 coherent here that you find that's inaccurate? 18 A No, the rest of that seems accurate. 19 Q Okay. And when you saw Ms. Heard at the 20 house in this March 7th, 2015, time frame, did she 21 seem like she was on -- was she coherent? 22 A She was coherent.
126 1 nor did I see him as under the influence. He was 2 perfectly coherent. 3 Q Okay. There was no reason for Dr. Sawhney 4 to lie in this email; correct? 5 MS. MEYERS: Objection; calls for 6 speculation. 7 A I can't respond to what he saw or what his 8 interpretation was. I only know my own. 9 Q Okay. And on the second page, he writes, 10 "On examination, conversant and pleasant when 11 awake, but not coherent. Heavily contaminated 12 hand and fingers with dirt, grime, and paint." Do 13 you see that? 14 A Yes. 15 Q Is that consistent with your memory? 16 A My memory was that he was coherent 17 throughout the time that I was with him. And I 18 was with him throughout that admission and 19 treatment in the emergency room. 20 Q So your -- again, is there any reason for 21 the doctor to say that he wasn't coherent? 22 MS. MEYERS: Objection; calls for	128 1 Q And did she seem like she was on any drugs 2 or alcohol? 3 MR. HARWELL: Objection; calls for an 4 expert opinion. 5 MR. NADLEHAFT: Okay. Can you put up 6 Exhibit 16. 7 (KIPPER Deposition Exhibit 16 marked for 8 identification and attached to the transcript.) 9 Q Dr. Kipper, do you recall seeing Kipper 16 10 from the Gold Coast University Hospital? 11 A Please allow me a minute to review this. 12 Q Sure. 13 A And your question was do I recall that 14 note? 15 Q Yeah. Do you recall seeing this document? 16 A Yes, I do. 17 Q Okay. And it's from Dr. Steve -- Steve 18 Dr. Grant, I'm not sure. And it says, "Thanks for 19 seeing and treating this patient. He sustained an 20 injury to his right middle finger tonight after 21 accidentally cutting it with a kitchen knife." Do 22 you see that?

1 Q Do you have a background in psychology?
2 A Yes. Actually, I have a background in
3 mental health, in addiction, and as a general
4 internist.
5 Q So you're qualified to make a diagnosis of 6 Bipolar I?
7 A Yes.
8 Q And did this diagnosis impact your
9 treatment of Mr. Depp in any way?
10 MR. HARWELL: Objection; calls for expert
11 opinion.
12 Q I'd like to direct your attention now to 13 the heading "Plan." Do you see this?
14 A Yes.
15 Q Okay. I'm going to go through the 16 medication listed under the heading re-establish 17 dopamine balance, do you see that?
18 A Yes.
19 Q Okay. So first of all, I see Adderall
20 listed. Was Mr. Depp taking Adderall at the time
21 you started treating him?
22 A Not at the time, no.

174

1 Q Adderall is something that you prescribed
2 to him when you started treating him?
3 A Yes.
4 Q And what was the purpose of prescribing
5 him Adderall?
6 MR. HARWELL: Objection. Calls for expert
7 opinion.
8 Q How did Adderall affect Mr. Depp?
9 A Adderall increased his ability to focus.
10 Q Okay. And I see trial lithium here, is 11 this another medication you prescribed to 12 Mr. Depp?
13 A Yes.
14 Q And he wasn't already taking it at the 15 time that you started treating him?
16 A Correct.
17 Q And how did lithium affect Mr. Depp?
18 A Lithium ultimately was not a good choice
19 because it created some fatigue for him. And 20 lithium is a mood stabilizing medication. And the 21 prescription -- the prescribing was to stabilize
22 his mood.

175

1 Q From what you observed, did it stabilize
2 his mood?
3 A Unfortunately it was hard to dissect that 4 out. Because this was -- again, he was in the 5 middle of a maintenance program on medication when 6 we started at that time to transition to an actual
7 detox. So during that period of time it's hard to 8 say what was what, which medicines were creating
9 what effects.
10 Q I see here you say maintain current dosing
11 of Roxicodone and Klonopin. How did -- so am I 12 correct this was medication that Mr. Depp was 13 already taking when you started treating him?
14 A Yes.
15 Q And how did maintaining this medication
16 affect Mr. Depp?
17 A It kept him from going into withdrawal
18 from these two different medicines.
19 Q Okay. I'd like to go on to the next page 20 here. I see trial of Ambien here. Is this -- is 21 this also medication that you prescribed to 22 Mr. Depp?

176

1 A Yes.
2 Q And he was not previously taking Ambien?
3 A Not -- not recently when I first met him,
4 no.
5 Q And how did the Ambien affect Mr. Depp?
6 A It allowed him to sleep.
7 Q And I see here maintain current Lexapro
8 but wean off gradually. Was this a medication
9 that Mr. Depp was already on when you started
10 treating him?
11 A Yes.
12 Q And how did this medication affect
13 Mr. Depp?
14 A It also contributed to adjusting his mood,
15 depression, and anxiety.
16 Q Of the medications that we've just 17 discussed, taking them together, how did that
18 affect Mr. Depp?
19 A These medications did not -- as a
20 combination did not negatively impact him.
21 Q When you say negative -- what do you mean
22 by when you say didn't negatively impact him?

JOHN C. DEPP, II, :

Plaintiff, :

v. : Case No.

AMBER LAURA HEARD, : CL-2019-0002911

Defendant. :

CONFIDENTIAL - UNDER SEAL

HEARING

Before the Honorable PENNEY AZCARATE

Fairfax, Virginia

Friday, October 8, 2021

11:51 a.m.

Job No.: 403339

Pages: 1 - 34

Reported by: Carol A. Lowe, RPR

1 past. So there's no question an IME could answer.

2 Of course, other than Ms. Heard Mr. Depp
3 has never even been accused much less arrested or 4 convicted of assaulting anyone; unlike Ms. Heard
5 who was arrested for assaulting her then
6 girlfriend, Tasya van Ree, and who spent a night
7 in jail nor has Mr. Depp had any contact, no
8 emails, no calls, no texts, with Ms. Heard in a
9 long time.

10 Defendant's reference to Dr. Kipper's
11 report is inapposite for the following reasons.
12 A, Dr. Kipper is a general internist. He's not a 13 psychologist. B, he treated both Mr. Depp and 14 Ms. Heard as their physician. C, Dr. Kipper did 15 no psychological testing of Mr. Depp that could be 16 retested for which Dr. Kipper would be wildly
17 unqualified. D, no one, not Mr. Depp or Dr.
18 Kipper, has put Mr. Depp's mental condition at 19 issue nor have they suggested that he has any 20 condition or takes any medications that in any way
21 proves he did not abuse Ms. Heard.

22 And, to be clear, we are not proffering

1 Dr. Kipper as an expert. And we'll be -- our 2 expert disclosures given the continuance of the 3 trial are not due until January. And I will make
4 this representation. And had there been a
5 meet-and-confer, we would have done this.

6 But we are not proffering Dr. Kipper as 7 an expert on anything. We are proffering him as a
8 fact witness. And irrespective of the letter to 9 Christi Dembrowski who's Mr. Depp's sister from 10 Dr. Kipper, Dr. Kipper has testified in response
11 to Mr. -- Ms. Bredehoft's questioning that he 12 never saw any injury on Ms. Heard.

13 That's what we're bringing him to tell
14 the jury; that there was no injury. And that's 15 consistent with the very credible, repeated
16 testimony by Officers Melissa Saenz and Tyler
17 Hadden that there were no marks on Ms. Heard.
18 And, remember, Officer Saenz had handled over a 19 hundred domestic abuse cases. So she knew what to 20 look for and when to look for it.

21 Ms. Heard's reference to fairness is 22 ironic as fairness strongly militates toward

CONSENT ORDER RESPECTING TRIAL
TESTIMONY BY AUDIOVISUAL MEANS AT TRIAL

Pursuant to Rule 1:27(c)(1) of the Rules of the Virginia Supreme Court, Plaintiff and Counterclaim-Defendant John C. Depp, II ("Mr. Depp") and Defendant and Counterclaim-Plaintiff Amber Laura Heard ("Ms. Heard") (collectively with Mr. Depp, the "Parties"), through their respective counsel, hereby jointly request and consent to the relief in this Order, as evidenced by their signatures below. Therefore, it is hereby:

ORDERED that the courtroom and technology that will be used for trial in this case meet the requirements of Va. Code § 19.2-3.1 and Rules 1:27(b) and (f) of the Virginia Supreme Court; and it is further

ORDERED that pursuant to Rule 1:27(e)(1), any witness within the scope of this Order testifying at trial from a remote location within Virginia shall be placed under oath in the same fashion as any live witness present at the trial; and it is further ORDERED that pursuant to Va. Sup. Ct. R. 1:27(e)(2), any witness within the scope of this Order testifying at trial from a remote location outside the Commonwealth of Virginia must sign a written consent before testifying meeting the requirements of Rule 1:27(c)(2)(A-C) of the Virginia Supreme Court; and it is further ~~ORDERED that the Parties shall disclose specifically on their Witness List filed with the Court on or before March 14, 2021 any witness who will testify remotely by audiovisual means at trial~~ and it is further

ORDERED that nothing prevents either party from moving to exclude all or part of any witness's testimony, including those identified as testifying by audiovisual means, nor does it exclude the ability of the parties to designate portions of depositions or prior testimony of any such witness identified on the parties' Witness Lists as testifying by remote audiovisual means; and it is further ORDERED that this Order shall not apply to the trial testimony of the parties or any expert witnesses; all such witnesses shall testify in person at trial, unless otherwise agreed to by the Parties in a subsequent Consent Order, or as otherwise ordered by the Court.

SO ORDERED.

JOHN C. DEPP, II,

Plaintiff and Counter-defendant,

v.

AMBER LAURA HEARD,

Defendant and Counter-plaintiff.

Civil Action No.: CL-2019-0002911

SCHEDULING ORDER

A SCHEUDLING CONFERENCE was held on March 26, 2021.

After discussing the various issues presented, It was ORDERED:

I. Trial

The trial date is April 11, 2022 (with a jury). The estimated length of the trial is four weeks.

II. Discovery

The parties shall complete discovery, including depositions, by thirty (30) days before trial, or by March 11, 2022; however, depositions taken in lieu of live testimony will be permitted until forty-five (45) days before trial, or by February 25, 2022. "Complete" means that all interrogatories, requests for production, requests for admissions and other discovery must be served sufficiently in advance of trial to allow a timely response 30 days before trial. Depositions may be taken after the specified time period by agreement of counsel of record or for good cause shown, provided however, that the taking of a deposition after the deadlines established herein shall not provide a basis for continuance of the trial date or the scheduling of motions inconsistent with the normal procedures of the court. The parties have a duty to seasonably supplement and amend discovery responses pursuant to Rule 4:1 (e) of the Rules of the Supreme Court of Virginia. "Seasonably" means as soon as practical. No provision of this Order supersedes the Rules of the Supreme Court of Virginia governing discovery. Any discovery motion filed shall contain a certification that counsel has made a good faith effort to resolve the matters set forth in the motion with opposing counsel.

III. Designation of Experts

If requested in discovery, plaintiff's, counter-claimant, third party plaintiff's and cross-claimant's experts shall be identified on or before ninety (90) days before trial, or by January 11, 2022. If requested in discovery, defendants and all opposing experts shall be identified on or before sixty (60) days before trial, or by February 10, 2022. If requested in discovery, experts or opinions responsive to new matters raised in the opposing parties' identification of experts shall be designated no later than forty-five (45) days before trial, or by February 25, 2022. If requested, all information discoverable under Rule 4:1 (b) (4) (A) (1) of the Rules of the Supreme Court of Virginia shall be provided or the expert will not ordinarily be permitted to express any non-disclosed opinions at trial. The foregoing deadlines shall not relieve a party of the obligation to respond to discovery requests within the time periods set forth in the Rules of the Supreme Court of Virginia, including, in particular, the duty to supplement or amend prior responses pursuant to Rule 4:1 (e).

IV. Dispositive Motions

All dispositive motions shall be presented to the court for hearing as far in advance of the trial date as practical. All counsel of record are encouraged to bring on for hearing all demurrers, special pleas, motions for summary judgment, or other dispositive motions not more than sixty (60) days after being filed.

V. Exhibit and Witness List

Counsel of record shall exchange by March 14, 2022 a list specifically identifying each exhibit to be introduced at trial, copies of all exhibits, marked, tabbed and indexed, and a list of witnesses proposed to be introduced at trial. The lists of exhibits and witnesses shall be filed with the Clerk of the Court simultaneously therewith but the exhibits shall not then be filed. Any exhibit or witness not so identified and filed will not be received in evidence, except in rebuttal or for impeachment or unless the admission of such exhibit or testimony of the witness would cause no surprise or prejudice to the opposing party and the failure to list the exhibit or witness was through inadvertence. Any objections to exhibits or witnesses shall state the legal reasons therefore except on relevancy grounds, and shall be filed with the Clerk of the Court and a copy delivered to opposing counsel by March 24, 2022 or the objections will be deemed waived absent leave of court for good cause shown.

VI. Pretrial Conferences

Pursuant to Rule 4:13 of the Rules of the Supreme Court of Virginia, a pretrial conference shall be held on February 9, 2022 at 10:00 a.m., wherein the briefing schedule for motions in limine, settlement discussions and other pretrial motions or matters which may aid in the disposition of this action can be heard. Also, to the extent not resolved prior to February 9, 2022, counsel for the parties shall present to the Court their respective positions as to how any claims for attorneys' fees and costs should be adjudicated at some point after the trial. Pursuant to the Court's Order of January 27, 2021, attorneys' fees and costs will not be tried in the corpus of the trial, now starting April 11, 2022 and attorneys' fees experts need not be identified by the deadlines set forth in Section III, supra.

VII. Motions in Limine

Absent leave of court, any motion in limine which requires argument exceeding five (5) minutes shall be duly noticed and heard before the day of trial. Objections to deposition excerpts addressed in Section XI infra, and Motions in Limine shall be heard at 10:00 a.m. on March 30, 2022 and March 31, 2022.

VIII. Witness Subpoenas

Early filing of a request for witness subpoenas is encouraged so that such subpoenas may be served at least ten (10) days before trial.

IX. Continuances

Continuances will only be granted by the court for good cause shown.

X. Jury Instructions

Counsel of record, unless compliance is waived by the court, shall by April 1, 2022 exchange proposed jury instructions. The parties shall confer and exchange objections by April 6, 2022 and shall confer with respect to the objections by April 8, 2022. At the commencement of trial, counsel of record shall tender the court the originals of all agreed upon instructions and copies of all contested instructions with appropriate citations. This requirement shall not preclude the offering of additional instructions at the trial.

XI. Deposition Transcripts to be Used at Trial

Counsel of record shall confer and attempt to identify and resolve all issues regarding the use of depositions at trial. ~~It is the obligation of the proponent of any deposition of any non-party witness who will not appear at trial to advise opposing counsel of record of counsel's intent to use all or a portion of the deposition at trial at the earliest reasonable opportunity.~~ Other than trial depositions taken after completion of discovery under Paragraph II, designations of portions of non-party depositions, other than for rebuttal or impeachment, shall be exchanged by no later than March 9, 2022, except for good cause shown or by agreement of counsel. All objections and counter-designations shall be exchanged by March 18, 2022, and any rebuttal and objections to the counter-designations shall be exchanged no later than March 23, 2022. The parties shall file with the Court deposition transcripts with the designations, counter-designations and rebuttal designations and all remaining objections no later than March 25, 2022. A hearing on all the remaining objections to designations shall be heard at 10:00 a.m. on March 30, 2022 and continuing into March 31, 2022, along with the Motions in Limine.

XII. Waiver or Modification of Terms of Order

Upon motion, the time limits and prohibitions contained in this order may be waived or modified by leave of court for good cause shown.

Entered this 22 day of ~~March~~ ^{April}, 2021. ^{OSC}

PLAINTIFF’S DESIGNATION/IDENTIFICATION OF EXPERT WITNESSES

Plaintiff John C. Depp, II, by and through his undersigned counsel, pursuant to Rule 4:1(b)(4)(A)(i) of the Rules of the Supreme Court of Virginia, and the Court’s Scheduling Order, dated June 27, 2019, and in response to Interrogatory No. 15 in Ms. Heard’s First Set of Interrogatories dated October 7, 2019, hereby designates and identifies his expert witnesses.

Given the ongoing state of discovery—in particular, the continuing document productions from the parties and non-parties and the fact that depositions of certain key parties and witnesses, specifically Ms. Heard, have yet to occur—Plaintiff reserves the right to supplement this Expert Witness Designation, to include (1) identifying additional or different areas of expected testimony for the designated witnesses, (2) identifying additional or different bases for the expected testimony of the designated witnesses, and/or (3) designating additional or different expert witnesses.

Retained Experts

1. Richard Marks, Entertainment Industry Expert, Richard Marks & Associates, 10573 W. Pico Blvd., Suite 221, Los Angeles, California 90064. Mr. Marks has had a long career as an executive and business lawyer in the entertainment industry. Mr. Marks

Designation based on additional facts Plaintiff learns during discovery and/or his ongoing investigation of this matter. In particular, as of the date of this Expert Designation, Ms. Heard has yet to grant access to the original devices, including mobile devices and computers (including laptops and iPads), as well as access to the operating system drives and cloud backups of these original devices for purposes of performing a physical extraction and direct examination of all relevant data from the original devices as requested in Mr. Depp's Seventh Set of Requests for Production, dated February 12, 2021, to Ms. Heard.

Mr. Neumeister's CV is attached hereto as Exhibit D. He is being compensated for his work at the rate of $575 per hour; none of his compensation is contingent on the opinions he renders or the outcome of the litigation.

5. Shannon J. Curry, PsyD, Clinical Psychologist, Curry Psychology Group, 200 Newport Center Drive, Suite 204, Newport Beach, California 92660. Dr. Curry is a clinical psychologist with extensive experience and clinical and research expertise in individual and community trauma, forensic psychology, and relationships/the Gottman method of couples' therapy. Currently, Dr. Curry is the owner and director of the Curry Psychology Group, a multispecialty mental health center in Newport Beach, California. Dr. Curry has nine years of experience as a licensed clinical psychologist, providing direct therapy and assessment services and supervising masters- and doctoral-level clinicians. Prior to becoming a clinical psychologist, Dr. Curry worked for seven years as a therapist. She is experienced in treating adults, couples, adolescents, children, and families across a diverse range of settings including community counseling centers, forensic psychiatric hospitals, correctional programs, military facilities, and rural clinics both in the U.S. and abroad (Ayacucho, Peru and La Paz, Mexico). In addition to her clinical work, Dr. Curry is on the board for the University of California Irvine Center for Unconventional Security Affairs (“CUSA”) and is involved in continued research on issues of poverty, warfare, violence, environmental sustainability, and complex disaster.

Dr. Curry received her Bachelor of Arts in Psychology and Social Behavior with high honors from the University of California, Irvine; a Master of Arts in Psychology from Pepperdine University; a Post-Doctoral Master of Science in Clinical Psychopharmacology from Alliant University (for psychologist prescriptive authority in certain states and federal jurisdictions); and a doctorate in Clinical Psychology from Pepperdine University with research honors. Dr. Curry completed a year-long doctoral internship at Tripler Army Medical Hospital in Honolulu, Hawaii, an American Psychological Association (“APA”)-Accredited training site, where she obtained intensive experience in psychological assessment and the treatment of post-traumatic stress disorder (“PTSD”). She then completed a two-year post-doctoral residency at Hawaii State Hospital, a forensic psychiatric hospital where she specialized in trauma and forensic psychology and obtained Certification as a Forensic Evaluator for the Hawaii State Department of Courts and Corrections.

Dr. Curry will testify concerning Ms. Heard’s behavior in the context of her relationship with Mr. Depp, including Ms. Heard’s abuse of Mr. Depp. Specifically, Dr. Curry is expected to draw upon her experience and expertise as a clinical and forensic psychologist as well as her review of current and relevant peer-reviewed scientific literature to testify as to the following:

- a. Ms. Heard exhibits patterns of behavior that are consistent with co-occurring Cluster B Personality Disorder traits, especially Borderline Personality Disorder (“BPD”);
- b. Ms. Heard repeatedly and characterologically perpetrated severe physical and psychological Intimate Partner Violence (“IPV”) toward Mr. Depp over the course of their relationship; and

- c. Ms. Heard exhibits patterns of behavior that suggest her allegations of abuse against Mr. Depp are false.

Dr. Curry's opinions will be based on a review of documentary evidence and deposition and trial testimony, including the deposition testimony of Ms. Heard in the 2016 divorce proceeding between Ms. Heard and Mr. Depp and the deposition testimony of Mr. Depp in this case, the documents, video and audio recordings, photographs, and text messages produced by Mr. Depp and Ms. Heard including documents submitted by Ms. Heard to obtain a temporary restraining order against Mr. Depp in 2016, the arrest records of Ms. Heard for domestic abuse against Ms. Tasya van Ree, and documents relating to Ms. Heard and her involvement, including any donations, to the American Civil Liberties Union, the documents produced by the Children's Hospital of Los Angeles, and the medical records produced by Dr. David Kipper, Dr. Connell Cowan, and Dr. Alan Blaustein. Dr. Curry's opinions will also be based on current and relevant peer-reviewed scientific literature. A full list of references that Dr. Curry has relied on thus far to form her opinion is attached hereto as Exhibit E.

Dr. Curry may also testify as to any fact or opinion rendered or attributed to another witness or party as identified by other parties' witnesses. Plaintiff reserves the right to designate or substitute other witnesses of the same disciplines to testify as to the facts and opinions described herein. Plaintiff further reserves the right to supplement this Expert Witness Designation based on additional facts Plaintiff learns during discovery and/or his ongoing investigation of this matter. In particular, as of the date of this Expert Designation, the follow depositions have yet to occur: Dr. David Kipper, Ms. Debbie Lloyd, Ms. Erin Falati, Ms. Heard's treating psychologists and physicians, Ms. Heard, and Ms. Tasya van Ree.

Dr. Curry's CV is attached hereto as Exhibit F. She is being compensated for her work at the rate of $300 per hour for time spent preparing and $500 per hour for time spent attending and providing testimony in court proceedings; none of her compensation is contingent on the opinions she renders or the outcome of the litigation.

6. Kimberly Ann Collins, MD, Forensic Pathologist, Newberry Pathology Group, Newberry Memorial Hospital, 2669 Kinard Street, Newberry, South Carolina, 29108. Dr. Collins is a forensic pathologist with the Newberry Pathology Group at Newberry Memorial Hospital and has been practicing in this area for twenty-seven years. Previously, Dr. Collins was a full professor in pathology and laboratory medicine and the Forensic Pathology Fellowship Director at the Medical University of South Carolina. Dr. Collins also served as the Chief Medical Examiner for Charleston County. Dr. Collins is board certified in anatomic pathology, clinical pathology, and forensic pathology from the American Board of Pathology. Dr. Collins is also a Diplomat of the American Board of Pathology in Anatomic and Clinical Pathology as well as Forensic Pathology. Dr. Collins is the former President of the National Association of Medical Examiners and former Chair of the Board. Dr. Collins has published more than eighty peer-reviewed manuscripts, chapters, and texts, including articles and presentations on spousal and domestic abuse. Dr. Collins serves on the editorial boards of Archives of Pathology and Laboratory Medicine, American Journal of Forensic Medicine and Pathology, and Journal of Forensic Science, Medicine, and Pathology. Dr. Collins is a seasoned expert and has worked on over 3,000 cases involving injuries, suicides, homicides, and accident investigations. Dr. Collins received her Bachelor of Science in Microbiology from the University of Georgia and her Doctor of Medicine from the Medical College of Georgia.

In the matter of 4 Depp versus Heard, this case comes today -- we do 5 have the courtroom cleared since it's under the 6 protective order -- dealing with a motion to 7 compel. 8 I understand there was an agreement. At 9 least I signed an order for the interrogatories. 10 But we're still on the RFPs; correct? 11 MR. CHEW: Yes, Your Honor. 12 THE COURT: All right. 13 MR. MURPHY: Yes, Your Honor. 14 THE COURT: Thank you for at least 15 working through some of it. I appreciate that. 16 Okay. All right. Yes, sir. Mr. Chew. 17 MR. CHEW: Good morning, Your Honor. 18 May it please the Court, Ben Chew for plaintiff, 19 Johnny Depp. May I please have leave to remove my 20 mask? 21 THE COURT: Yes. That's fine. 22 MR. CHEW: Thank you. I'll put it back

13	1 obviously we would adhere to that restriction. 2 With Your Honor's leave I would just go 3 to the next category unless Your Honor wants to 4 stop -- 5 THE COURT: Well, I can go ahead and 6 rule on this. Do you have anything else to -- 7 on -- on this matter? 8 MR. CHEW: Yes. Yes. 9 THE COURT: Is there anything else on 10 this matter? I just want to make sure -- 11 MR. CHEW: Oh, no, Your Honor. I 12 apologize. 13 THE COURT: Okay. All right. As far as 14 when we get to the RFP in the 10th set, four and 15 18, I'm going to deny those as I -- the raw data 16 is going to -- as stated before, it's -- it's 17 going to the -- to the experts. And that's where 18 we're going to leave it for now. 19 As far as one, two, five and six, it 20 will be the same scope as the August 2021 which is 21 just the same language. I think it's not 22 documents relied on. I think you're right. The	15	1 MR. MURPHY: -- care of now. 2 THE COURT: That takes care of that too. 3 Okay. All right. Then your next set. 4 MR. CHEW: Thank you, Your Honor. 5 The next set, these are request numbers 6 seven through 17 in Mr. Depp's 10th set of RFPs: 7 And these are documents reflecting, one, diagnoses 8 and treatment of Ms. Heard for mental, physical -- 9 psychological conditions similar to those claimed 10 in her counterclaim and expert disclosures and, 11 two, Ms. Heard's mental condition prior to, during 12 and after her alleged psychological, slash, mental 13 injuries. 14 Again, Your Honor, the relevance is 15 clear. Mr. Depp's expert, Dr. Shannon Curry, 16 needs these records from five years before 17 Ms. Heard's relationship with Mr. Depp to present 18 and evaluate Ms. Heard's baseline mental condition 19 prior to events where she claimed Mr. Depp caused 20 her PTSD; because remember, Your Honor, the scope 21 of Dr. Curry's investigation was to assess, A, 22 whether Ms. Heard, in fact, has PTSD and, B, to
14	1 language from that, whatever the experts relied 2 on, we're stopping there. We're not going to the 3 next level of -- of discovery from that. So we're 4 keeping the same scope there. 5 And then I think that left us with 6 three, correct, or is it -- 7 MR. MURPHY: I don't believe we've 8 addressed three yet, Your Honor. 9 THE COURT: Okay. 10 MR. CHEW: We had one through six and 11 18. 12 THE COURT: Okay. 13 MR. MURPHY: No. I -- we didn't argue 14 three, Your Honor. But I -- but I will say it 15 says -- 16 THE COURT: Is it similar to -- 17 MR. MURPHY: -- relied on. So -- 18 THE COURT: The same scope. 19 MR. MURPHY: Yeah. If you're going to 20 revise that within the scope of the previous 21 order, I think that could be taken -- 22 THE COURT: All right.	16	1 the extent she does what was the cause of it. 2 Ms. Heard has testified that she 3 suffered from abuse at a very young age which is a 4 reference to her parents or one of her parents and 5 that she had suffered sexual assault by the time 6 she was of college age which was long before she 7 met Mr. Depp. 8 And I would go, if I could, Your Honor, 9 to subparagraph B of Your Honor's order of October 10 7th, 2021, 2021, where Your Honor ordered that Dr. 11 Curry's evaluation may assess all domains that 12 were a focus of the prior examination by Dr. 13 Hughes including, and now subparagraph B, review 14 of relevant records including but not limited to 15 medical records including ER or urgent care 16 visits, mental health records, therapy, 17 psychiatric medication, treatment in an 18 out-patient or residential facility, former 19 psychological evaluations and all the raw data, 20 school records, grades, enrollment, suspensions, 21 expulsions, truancy, special education services, 22 et cetera, arrest records, legal records,

17 1 employment records, military records and diaries. 2 Relevant records must be obtained as far 3 back as necessary for Dr. Curry to determine with 4 a reasonable degree of certainty how Ms. Heard was 5 functioning prior to the alleged traumatic event 6 but not fewer than three to five years prior to 7 the alleged trauma, unquote. 8 So we believe this is not only in 9 keeping with but pursuant to the Court's prior 10 order. And Dr. Curry believes that five years, no 11 more than that, is -- is what she needs to have 12 the -- the baseline. 13 THE COURT: All right. Yes, sir. 14 And, Mr. Murphy, I know in your chart 15 you took six out; so if you want to just address 16 all of them except six. And then we'll do -- 17 MR. MURPHY: Yes, Your Honor. 18 THE COURT: Okay. 19 MR. MURPHY: And in the chart we tried 20 to sort of -- 21 THE COURT: 16. I'm sorry. Not six. 22 MR. MURPHY: Yeah, but I know --	19 1 MR. MURPHY: -- there was -- 2 THE COURT: That's fine. 3 MR. MURPHY: -- an additional -- 4 THE COURT: Go ahead. 5 MR. MURPHY: -- point. 6 The point being, Your Honor, is on 16 -- 7 for seven through five (sic) and 17, the plaintiff 8 (sic) is asking those be denied in total for 9 the reasons in the brief and the reasons I'll 10 state. 16 was stated separately because we -- we 11 believe there's a narrower scope that should be 12 ordered for that one. So that's why it was -- 13 THE COURT: Okay. 14 MR. MURPHY: -- it was separate. 15 THE COURT: Thank you. 16 MR. MURPHY: The -- the Court ruled; has 17 already ruled on this. We quote it in Attachment 18 5 in the brief and as in the chart. And we 19 believe that the scope of that -- that order is 20 exactly the scope that should be ordered today 21 when it comes to medical records. 22 And that's -- the language inserted into
18 1 THE COURT: 16. 2 MR. MURPHY: -- what you meant. But we 3 tried to -- 4 THE COURT: Okay. 5 MR. MURPHY: -- sort of red line in a 6 way without -- you know, you can't do red lines 7 like that. 8 THE COURT: Okay. 9 MR. MURPHY: But that -- 10 THE COURT: I understand. 11 MR. MURPHY: -- that was the point of 12 our chart. So -- so you said leave 16 out. Is 13 that because you think that's within -- 14 THE COURT: Well, you -- you just -- you 15 just left it out. You -- you put 16 separately. 16 I'm not sure why. 17 MR. MURPHY: Well, let me be clear, Your 18 Honor. It's within the same -- 19 THE COURT: Okay. 20 MR. MURPHY: -- grouping. It's just a 21 separate note on it because -- 22 THE COURT: Okay.	20 1 that, in the chart, is -- is a quote; is verbatim 2 from that prior order on the scope of medical 3 records. So that's why we believe 16 should be 4 narrowed to what Ms. Heard puts in the chart. 5 As to seven through 15 and 17, 6 they're -- first of all, they're overbroad, unduly 7 burdensome and unlikely to lead to discovery of 8 admissible evidence for the same reason based on 9 that previously defined scope of medical records 10 of Ms. Heard. 11 And by these RFPs' plain language they 12 have no date limitation whatsoever. They go back 13 to Ms. Heard's entire life as just quoted by Mr. 14 Depp's counsel, abuse at a very young age. So 15 that literally is her entire life they're seeking 16 medical records for. 17 I'm a little unclear what the scope is. 18 Are they seeking five years? Are they seeking the 19 whole life? Because both are stated in here. 20 But -- but, nevertheless, either one is overbroad; 21 but entire life is even more overbroad. I don't 22 even -- I'm not even aware of any case law that

1 describes entire life of medical records being
 2 relevant.
 3 And -- and Mr. Chew used the word
 4 "testified" in terms of this quote. May I just 5 clarify that this is not -- this was -- this was 6 pulled from, as stated in those RFPs, the op-ed.
 7 So I just think the word "testified" is -- is --
 8 is very misleading there because that implies it
 9 was some kind of testimony in court under oath. I
 10 just wanted to make that clarification.
 11 So we believe that those RFPs are 12 overbroad and should be denied and far exceed also 13 the scope of paragraph 6-B of Attachment 3 to 14 Ms. Heard's opposition which is that previous IME
 15 order, so yet another reason; overly broad, unduly 16 burdensome, unlikely to lead to discovery of 17 admissible evidence and relitigating issues
 18 already decided by this Court. So that's two 19 orders that Mr. Depp is attempting to relitigate
 20 the scope of through these RFPs.
 21 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. All
 22 right. Yes, sir.

22

1 MR. CHEW: Just very briefly; one short
 2 clarification. Yes, Ms. Heard did say that in the 3 op-ed she and the ACLU drafted. But she also
 4 testified to that in London; that she was abused
 5 growing up and then she was sexually abused when 6 she was of college age. But I just wanted to 7 clarify that.
 8 THE COURT: All right.
 9 MR. CHEW: So that's both in the op-ed
 10 and in her testimony, although neither Mr. Murphy
 11 nor I were in London. But I've seen the witness
 12 statements.
 13 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. I
 14 understand that.
 15 All right. So as to 16, that -- that 16 scope will be limited as we have stated previously 17 in -- in -- in the order. So that just has to be 18 limited to -- to the same scope as the previous 19 order.
 20 As far as the other ones, seven through
 21 15 and 17, I do find that they are overbroad.
 22 They would go back basically to her childhood.

23

1 And it's unduly burdensome. And I -- I do not see
 2 the relevance of that. So I'm going to sustain
 3 the objections, I guess, for those.
 4 All right. That would get us up to 19
 5 through 32.
 6 MR. CHEW: Yes, Your Honor. Thank you.
 7 Request numbers 19 through 32 of the 8 10th set of RFPs call for documents pertaining to 9 Ms. Heard's claim to have suffered 100 million
 10 dollars of damages as alleged in her counterclaim.
 11 These are for -- all of these RFPs are 12 focused on exploring the alleged damages of a
 13 hundred million dollars based on Mr. Waldman's
 14 three statements.
 15 Mr. Depp and -- and his counsel need to 16 know what career prospects and the income were for 17 Ms. Heard during the same year time line that the 18 Court previously applied to Mr. Depp as to his 19 damages; because, of course, Mr. Depp's
 20 affirmative claims for 50 million dollars, you
 21 know, relate to the lost opportunities stemming
 22 from the December 2018 op-ed.

24

1 And Chief Judge White ordered Mr. Depp
 2 to produce documents in -- in the 10 -- 10-year
 3 time line which I think also applied to his income
 4 tax returns.
 5 And -- and this 10-year time line again
 6 is -- is necessary to assess the career trajectory
 7 of Ms. Heard and how it was impacted, if at all,
 8 by the three statements Mr. Waldman made.
 9 We also need information, Your Honor,
 10 with respect to how the damages are allocated
 11 among the eight statements; because Your Honor may 12 recall that in the -- count two of the 13 counterclaims -- count one and count three were 14 thrown out -- five of the eight statements were 15 thrown out because they were time barred; one by 16 Mr. Depp, four by Mr. Waldman.
 17 So it will be Mr. Depp's contention that 18 it is Ms. Heard's obligation to assess how did
 19 these three statements affect her 100 million
 20 dollar damages claim as opposed to the other five.
 21 Also with respect to the RFP dealing
 22 with Ms. Heard's communications, we respectfully

HEARING

Before the Honorable PENNEY AZCARATE

Fairfax, Virginia

Friday, March 11, 2022

12:01 p.m.

Job No.: 436233

Pages: 1 - 68

Reported by: Carol A. Lowe, RPR

1 MR. NADELHAFT: No, I have no -- listen,
2 he -- there are -- we don't know what's in the 3 records. Dr. Anderson's counsel knows what's in 4 the records. And based on the HIPAA release she 5 made the determination as to what fell within the 6 HIPAA release.

7 That is -- there's nothing to -- there's 8 nothing more to order. She -- she's already done
9 that as have every other witness including Dr.
10 Kipper's counsel including plenty of doctors on 11 Mr. Depp's counsel -- side including Mr. Depp
12 himself in the document I just showed you which 13 had virtually everything redacted. Thank you,
14 Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: All right. All right.
16 Thank you. I -- I don't know about wrangling
17 or -- I -- I know that the HIPAA releases are the 18 same for everybody. And if the attorneys took 19 that and did what they did to redact it, I -- I
20 have to -- to -- to go with those redactions.
21 Based on what I've heard I'm just going to deny
22 the motion. Okay?

Amber Heard admits to smashing a door into Johnny Depp's head before 'clocking' him in the jaw in the latest bombshell in a series of explosive audio recordings obtained exclusively by DailyMail.com.

The shocking tape suggests the Pirates of the Caribbean actor, 56, was hit so hard by the bathroom door that it knocked him off his feet.

'I then stood up, I don't even know if I said, I mean, I might've said like, what the fk, you know, whatever. Cause I'd just been hit in the head with a fking corner of the door,' Depp protests.

'And then I stood up and then you fking clock me.'

Heard claims she didn't mean to slam the door into Depp's face - but says of the punch to her then-husband's jaw: 'I just reacted and I'm sorry. It's below me.'

The shocking audio has never been aired publicly, but Depp's lawyers played it out loud to the 33-year-old actress while she was giving a deposition in their bitter 2016 divorce case.

She told his attorneys that the taped conversation 'misrepresents what actually happened,' disputing whether it was a punch or a push, before adding: 'I mean, he was just very dramatic about everything.'

their toxic 18-month marriage - the precise opposite of what she claims.

In a previous exchange, published exclusively by DailyMail.com in January, Heard admitted to 'hitting' the Oscar nominee, and pelting him with pots, pans and vases.

Weeks later, DailyMail.com published a further clip in which Heard, an ambassador for women's rights and an outspoken domestic violence advocate, taunted Depp for fleeing a violent confrontation, telling him: 'You are such a baby. Grow the fk up Johnny.'

The latest tape emerged today as the warring A-listers prepare to square up again in two separate defamation lawsuits on either side of the Atlantic.

On March 23, Depp will take on News Group Newspapers in London over a 2018 article in The Sun newspaper that described him as 'wife beater' and allegedly damaged his standing as a globally famed movie star, with Heard scheduled to give testimony.

And, later this year, hostilities will switch to Virginia where Depp has filed a $50 million suit over a Washington Post op-ed in which Heard lamented her experiences as a domestic violence victim, an article that didn't mention her ex by name but allegedly led to him losing his role of Captain Jack Sparrow.

It's not known when or where the latest audio was made, however the pair had a habit of recording their arguments, often consensually, as a form of DIY marriage guidance so they could play the tapes back later.

'I opened the bathroom door when you were knocking on it,' Depp begins in the near-three minute clip.

'After a few times I opened and you know, you just kept coming, you just kept going, you just kept going, kept going.

'I tried to close the door three times, you know, please, please, just do you know.

Heard files for divorce after 15 months of marriage, citing irreconcilable differences. Four days later a judge issues a temporary restraining order against Depp over domestic violence allegations. Pictures of Heard's alleged injuries hit the tabloids but the LAPD finds no evidence of a crime.

August 16, 2016

Heard retracts her allegations as she and Depp reach a $7 million divorce settlement. Their marriage was 'intensely passionate and at times volatile, but always bound by love,' the former actors say in a statement. 'There was never any intent of physical or emotional harm'.

December 18, 2018

The Washington Post publishes an op-ed by Heard, an ambassador for women's rights at for the American Civil Liberties Union, urging support for women who suffer domestic violence. 'Two years ago, I became a public figure representing domestic abuse, and I felt the full force of our culture's wrath for women who speak out,' Heard writes.

'I think you kicked the door open. I mean the door. Yeah, more open so that it would hit me and it hit me.'

Heard insists that she didn't mean to slam the door into father-of-two Depp - but he protests: 'It hit me in the fking head.'

Heard responds: 'I did not do anything to, I did not kick a door or push a door so that it would hit you. I did not, I swear that I don't even, that did not, it was not my intention.

'I think I remember when the door scraped my toes. I, um, I, I reacted, but this whole, the door thing, I, I remember I never did that. That wasn't on purpose. I might've done it on accident.'

Depp is prepared to accept that the door smashing part of his accusation could have been unintentional.

But as for the alleged punch: 'I then stood up, I don't even know if I said, I mean, I might've said like, what the fk, you know, whatever. Cause I'd just been hit in the head with a fking corner of the door.

'And then I stood up and then you fking clock me.'

Heard replies: 'I remember hitting you as a response to the door thing. And I'm really sorry about hitting you with the door or hitting your head, I did not mean to.'

Finally Depp asks: 'You didn't mean to hit me in the head with the door but you meant to punch me in the jaw?'

In a previous exchange, published exclusively by DailyMail.com in January, Heard admitted to 'hitting' the Oscar nominee, and pelting him with pots, pans and vases. The fighting pair seem to refer to a violent incident that took place in Australia one month into their marriage in which Depp suffered a severed finger (pictured)

Depp has claimed in other audio tapes that Heard 'went berserk' when he asked her to sign a 'post-nup' agreement, hurling a Vodka bottle at him which shattered and ripped off the tip of his finger (pictured after surgery)

She adds: 'Okay. I'm sorry I hit you. I didn't mean to hit you but it was in response. I just reacted in response to my foot. I just reacted and I'm sorry. It's below me.'

When confronted with the same audio tape during her 2016 divorce disposition, Heard insisted she was the one trapped and on the defensive, not Depp.

'It also misrepresents what actually happened, which is him trying to get into a room,' she said, according to a transcript obtained by DailyMail.com.

'I'm trying to keep him out of, and then he runs the door over my toes trying to get into the room. I tried to push him out of it, which is what the hit is that is referred to.

'And Johnny, whenever he was hit or touched at all, referred to it in these ways of punching or clocked or whatever.

'And whether you discussed it with him or not, the last thing you do in talking to him afterwards or trying to reconcile with him is to get into what the definition of those words mean to him.'

Depp and Heard met on the set of The Rum Diary, back in 2011 and married in February 2015.

However they split less than two years later when Heard filed for divorce and obtained a temporary restraining order against Depp for allegedly beating her up, an accusation he has repeatedly denied.

Heard cataloged the 'horrific' abuse she claims to have suffered at Depp's hands, describing him as 'the monster' and recalling many of the allegations she made during their divorce. The filing included photos of bruises and scars (left and right)

Amid a torrent of headlines and blood-curdling allegations, the pair agreed to a $7 million divorce settlement in August 2016 - which Heard says she donated to charity.

However their back-and-forth feud reignited when she wrote in her December 2018 op-ed: 'I became a public figure representing domestic abuse, and I felt the full force of our culture's wrath for women who speak out.'

The article didn't mention Depp by name but he sued regardless, arguing he was the victim of an 'elaborate hoax' instigated by Heard to generate positive publicity and advance her career.

'Ms. Heard is not a victim of domestic abuse; she is a perpetrator,' the lawsuit alleges.

'She hit, punched and kicked me. She also repeatedly and frequently threw objects into my body and head, including heavy bottles, soda cans, burning candles, television remote controls and paint thinner cans, which severely injured me.'

Heard responded with a lurid 300-page filing of her own, cataloging the 'horrific' abuse she claimed to have suffered at Depp's hands, describing him as 'the monster' and recalling many of the allegations she made during their divorce.

A spokesman for Heard's legal team said: 'Ms. Heard's testimony is clear that, in the incident described, she was attempting to escape an assault at the hands of Mr. Depp.'

'It is unfortunately common for men who have committed domestic abuse to present themselves as the "victim" when nothing could be further from the truth.'

The case is due to be heard in August.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF FAIRFAX COUNTY

JOHN C. DEPP, II,

Plaintiff and Counterclaim-Defendant,

v.

Civil Action No.: CL-2019-0002911

AMBER LAURA HEARD,

Defendant and Counterclaim-Plaintiff.

Declaration of Julian Ackert

1. I am a Managing Director at iDiscovery Solutions, Inc. (“iDS”), an expert services and consulting firm that provides independent digital forensics analysis, electronic discovery services, expert testimony, original authoritative studies, and strategic consulting services to the business and legal community.

2. I have over 20 years of experience in consulting and litigation technologies that focus on electronic discovery and digital forensics. I have a Bachelor of Science degree in Computer Science from the University of Virginia. My curriculum vitae is attached here to as Exhibit A, which details my professional experience and all articles and testimony I have completed over the last ten years.

3. Specifically, I have extensive experience creating and implementing preservation, collection, and production strategies and performing digital forensics and metadata analysis on electronically stored information (“ESI”). I have performed preservation, collection, analysis, and production of ESI in hundreds of matters.

4. This declaration is based on my personal knowledge, years of experience, training, education, and the information provided to date. The opinions provided herein are given to a reasonable degree of professional certainty.

5. My forensic analysis and testimony rate is $525/hour and iDS is also being reimbursed for reasonable expenses and the cost of other employees working under my supervision. My opinions are not contingent on fees earned by iDS in this matter.

6. When I state “I,” “Myself,” or “iDS” I mean this work was done by me, or by people working at my direction and supervision within iDS.

7. iDS has been retained by Ms. Amber Laura Heard (“Ms. Heard”) through her counsel in this matter to provide digital forensic preservation and analysis services and electronic discovery consulting, search, and production services.

8. I have reviewed the metadata for many of Mr. Depp’s produced documents – specifically multimedia documents such as audio files and pictures, including those documents referenced in my declaration below.

9. Based on my review of the produced metadata, there are anomalies that call into question the authenticity of the multimedia documents. Specifically, I find instances where the date metadata, such as creation and modification date metadata, is either missing or is significantly after the alleged date of the incident. Missing creation dates and/or modification dates that post-date the facts can be a sign of digital evidence manipulation.

10. For example, DEPP00007303 is a picture produced with limited creation and modification metadata – all of which is dated July 22, 2019. I understand that the date of the alleged incident captured by this image is March 2015, and I would expect to see creation and modification date metadata that aligns with the alleged date of the incident.

11. In another example, DEPP00009916 is a picture produced with no creation date metadata and modification date metadata of July 3, 2020. On the face of the picture, I can see a date of March 9, 2015, but I have no way of authenticating that the picture was not modified or altered on July 3, 2020.

12. DEPP00009047 is yet another example of a produced document with metadata anomalies - the metadata indicates that the audio content was created in September 2015 and then somehow modified in June 2016.

13. When there are metadata anomalies such as these, an appropriate process to investigate and resolve them would start first with forensic images of the devices used to create and/or store the documents, followed by an extraction of targeted information, including all available metadata for each active and deleted document, which can then be analyzed for potential manipulations.

14. I reserve the right to supplement my findings if additional evidence or information is provided to me.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed on this 22nd day of December 2021.

Implemented custom preservation and collection protocols and extracted approximately 10 terabytes of structured data from proprietary client data-base systems for analysis and review. Developed a structured data ESI protocol that governed the parameters of structured data productions.
- Managed a team of consultants on the analysis of 100s of millions of database records for a complex litigation in the commercial real estate industry. Analyzed trends and patterns in the data-base records that assisted counsel with identifying potentially relevant employees, partner relationships, and timeframes of interest.
- Managed a team of UK and US consultants on a data preservation and email data analysis endeavor. Established an on-site review room in the UK and worked with UK outside counsel to ensure that electronic discovery processes upheld EU data privacy laws.
- Directed a team of computer forensic consultants and contractors on forensic data preservation, backup tape recovery, email, and electronic file culling and search for approximately 100 custodians. Established an onsite triage center at an offshore facility to handle nearly 5 terabytes of data. Authored expert report on the methods, processes, types, and volumes of data preserved, processed, and delivered for attorney review.
- Led a data analysis engagement consisting of metadata examination on Lotus Notes database documents. Acted as the client's Subject Matter Expert on Lotus Notes databases and authored expert testimony on the electronic discovery methods implemented during the project and subsequent project findings.
- Managed investigative team of computer forensic and complex data analysis consultants through the preservation, acquisition, and analysis of over 5 billion rows of NYSE trade data. Analysis period covered over 5 years of transactional data focusing on the alleged fraudulent trading activity. Additional responsibilities included administration of a SQL database containing key transactional trade data.
- Managed a data acquisition, e-file processing, and document review project in response to an SEC inquiry of over 45 custodians. Engagement required leading a multi-city team of computer forensic professionals through the forensic acquisition, electronic data processing, and document review phase of a project with a condensed project timeline of three weeks.
- Led multi-national electronic discovery preservation and analysis team on an internal audit committee investigation of a global metallurgy company. Engagement required managing computer forensic technicians through data preservation, forensic analysis, and automated culling of both Finnish and English enterprise email, financial data, and business documents related to the investigation.

1 P R O C E E D I N G S

2 MS. HEARD: If you're willing to work on the
3 things the way that you say you are, when it's easy to 4 say when you're not mad. If you're really -- if you're 5 really willing to stand by that when it is tough, then
6 we can work on these things.

7 But I have no ability -- I can't do it alone.
8 And yesterday I got so upset so fast because all those
9 fights before in Toronto, I didn't stoop to that level
10 once. And you hurt me more than ever before. And I ever
11 completely --

12 MR. DEPP: Last night?

13 MS. HEARD: No. The fights before that we --
14 these fights before and it didn't --

15 MR. DEPP: Yeah. The same. It's -- you hurt me
16 as --

17 MS. HEARD: And so again last night --

18 MR. DEPP: -- as much as I can be fuckin'
19 hurt.

20 MS. HEARD: That's not true.

21 MR. DEPP: Verbally for sure --

22 MS. HEARD: In Toronto I didn't say a single

1 fucking thing to you except for when I got mad at the
2 very end of the fight, the second or third fight. It
3 was the second fight, I think. But you -- that's the 4 only thing I did --

5 MR. DEPP: It wasn't at the end --

6 MS. HEARD: So this claim that I hurt you is 7 bullshit. I -- I --

8 MR. DEPP: It wasn't at the end and I also
9 [inaudible]

10 MS. HEARD: There's like recordings of it.
11 There's -- there's zero -- I didn't see --

12 MR. DEPP: Well, you never played them for me.
13 How come?

14 MS. HEARD: You tell me when that would have 15 been a good time to do.

16 MR. DEPP: Now's a good time.

17 MS. HEARD: I don't think now's a good time.

18 MR. DEPP: Now's a good time.

19 MS. HEARD: I don't think now's a good time.

20 MR. DEPP: We'll face the fuckin', you know --

21 MS. HEARD: If you -- if that's your -- it's 22 going to be your issue. And I told you, any time you

1 want to sit down and do it calmly, I even said to you
2 we could even like do it with somebody helping us.

3 MR. DEPP: I don't have to do it with you.
4 Just send them to me, right?

5 MS. HEARD: I -- all of this we have talked
6 about. But you want to talk about it now? Let's spend
7 more time talking about it now.

8 MR. DEPP: There's nothing I can say to you
9 about this argument of -- that's been happening since
10 Rio. Even leading up to the gig, trying to make sure
11 you were cool with your fuckin' screen test. Not 12 letting you take a commercial fly because I wanted, you
13 know, I thought we could fuckin' work out the thing.

14 MS. HEARD: If leaving a party two hours
15 before is -- is really a fair trade to you, then --

16 MR. DEPP: What do you mean leaving a party
17 two hours --

18 MS. HEARD: -- I going to really think about 19 some other things.

20 MR. DEPP: Leaving --

21 MS. HEARD: If that's important to you that 22 you would rather me not do it, go to -- or fly

1 commercial without you because you can't -- you -- you
2 didn't want to leave a party a couple hours early,
3 which is all I asked for, then fuck, then I need to 4 rethink some real things. I need to really think some 5 things over. If that's what you think --

6 MR. DEPP: It wasn't -- it wasn't about
7 leaving the party two hours early. We were only at the 8 hotel for a fuckin' -- maybe an hour. Maybe an hour and 9 fuckin' a half tops.

10 MS. HEARD: I don't know what you're talking
11 about. You mean at the restaurant?

12 MR. DEPP: After the show.

13 MS. HEARD: We hung out --

14 MR. DEPP: And we waited for the --

15 MS. HEARD: -- until everybody was done
16 hanging out.

17 MR. DEPP: No. Hang on, man. Don't you
18 remember waiting for the luggage?

19 MS. HEARD: Yes, I do.

20 MR. DEPP: Okay.

21 MS. HEARD: Because it wasn't taken care of.

22 MR. DEPP: Right. Right. No. It was tak- --

1 MS. HEARD: Because it's my life.

2 MR. DEPP: May I speak?

3 MS. HEARD: Yes.

4 MR. DEPP: The luggage was taken care of. The 5 truck did not show up. It's Brazil. The truck hadn't
6 shown up for the luggage. It was fuckin' two hours late
7 or something. So as you thought it was Nathan's fault -
8 -

9 MS. HEARD: I did not think it was Nathan's
10 fault. I did not think it was Nathan's fault. I didn't 11 know whose fault it was.

12 MR. DEPP: Well, who would you think?

13 MS. HEARD: I -- I have no idea. That was my 14 point. Everybody knew that there was this plan and that 15 it was important to me. It wasn't obviously important
16 to you. It was important to me.

17 MR. DEPP: It obviously wasn't important to 18 me?

19 MS. HEARD: Yeah. Like it wasn't part of your 20 life.

21 MR. DEPP: Why -- then why would I be taking - 22 - why would I -- why would I be doing that?

1 MS. HEARD: No, no. I didn't mean it wasn't
2 important to you emotionally. I meant like it wasn't
3 about your life. It was important to me in my life.
4 That's all I meant. I wasn't saying anything about you.

5 MR. DEPP: You're talking to them.

6 MS. HEARD: No. I'm saying it was -- no. I
7 said exactly what I meant. It wasn't like a priority in 8 your life. It wasn't your screen test, it was mine.
9 That's all I meant.

10 MR. DEPP: Right. But I made it my priority by 11 getting everything together.

12 MS. HEARD: Mm-hmm.

13 MR. DEPP: To make sure that we could leave on
14 time.

15 MS. HEARD: Yeah. So we could leave when you
16 wanted to leave. You said you wanted to play it by ear.
17 And you did not want to commit to leaving at like --

18 MR. DEPP: I had to commit -- I had to commit
19 to a plane. I had to commit to [inaudible]. Nathan 20 doesn't choose that. I choose that. The truck was late.
21 By the time we got everything loaded, we split. It took 22 us not nearly as long to get to the airport as we

1 thought, about 25 minutes maybe.

2 And we were there 15 minutes after we were
3 scheduled to have been there. Then we went through 4 customs, where they nearly took every fucking stitch of 5 clothing off everybody. Then we got on the plane. And 6 Brazilian airspace was closed. They -- fuckin' military
7 stopped it for that two and a half hours that we sat on 8 the fuckin' tarmac.

9 MS. HEARD: I know. I was there. I know all of 10 those -- the chronology of it.

11 MR. DEPP: Right. So it is not my fault.

12 MS. HEARD: I didn't say it was your fault.
13 But I'm glad we're going over everything that happened
14 that night. Do you think that it's weird that -- I mean
15 do you think it's normal -- I don't know -- that -- you
16 think normal couples always -- never let things go and 17 keep fighting about the exact same fight over and over
18 again every time they get mad?

19 Or do you think that we are two sensitive
20 people -- like we're so sensitive or emotional or 21 something, and that that's part of why like when we get 22 hurt or mad, we rehash everything we're fighting about

1 in recent history, in our recent past? Or do you think
2 it's normal?

3 MR. DEPP: I mean don't -- don't -- I -- I
4 don't really know what you're talking about. Because 5 this is all a part of it.

6 MS. HEARD: I'm saying like do -- do you think
7 that like it's normal that -- do you think normal
8 couples fight about the same fight over and over again?

9 MR. DEPP: But you're not acknowledging --
10 yeah, I do.

11 MS. HEARD: Because I just feel like that's 12 what we do a lot. You know, we fight about whatever the 13 last three or four fights were. And then we do it over 14 and over again. And I don't know, maybe that's normal.

15 MR. DEPP: All right. Let's talk -- let's
16 forget -- let's forget the plane and your absolute need 17 to --

18 MS. HEARD: Can you not be insulting?

19 MR. DEPP: -- get back here and do your screen
20 test.

21 MS. HEARD: Can you not -- don't be insulting.

22 MR. DEPP: Can you not judge what I'm saying

1 right now while I'm talking. Let's talk about last
2 night. Let's talk about you said Rocky and Josh are
3 going to come over, right? And have dinner. Unless you
4 don't want them to or whatever. And I said, no, no,
5 it's all right, it's cool.

6 I just really want to fuckin' take a shower
7 first. Because I haven't showered -- I hadn't showered
8 since before the gig. Because we had to leave when 9 we're -- to get to the airport.

10 MS. HEARD: Yes --

11 MR. DEPP: So by the time we got in.

12 MS. HEARD: [inaudible]

13 MR. DEPP: Shower. Yeah.

14 MS. HEARD: Yeah. It's very rude of me to have
15 [inaudible]

16 MR. DEPP: I'm sorry.

17 MS. HEARD: -- leave a party and didn't shower
18 --

19 MR. DEPP: I'm sorry. I can't --

20 MS. HEARD: I'm sorry; it's really rude of me,
21 really terrible --

22 MR. DEPP: Do we really have to talk about

1 past fights?

2 MS. HEARD: You just did.

3 MR. DEPP: [inaudible]

4 MS. HEARD: When you like made that little dig
5 about the shower, you know that little thing you did,
6 the little dig about the shower, because, you know --

7 MR. DEPP: I wanted a -- I'm explaining why I
8 wanted a shower.

9 MS. HEARD: Okay.

10 MR. DEPP: Right?

11 MS. HEARD: Yeah.

12 MR. DEPP: Is that all right with you?

13 MS. HEARD: Yeah. I hear you loud and clear
14 [inaudible]

15 MR. DEPP: Thanks Buzz [ph].

16 MS. HEARD: Nice.

17 MR. DEPP: So then about two seconds later
18 Rocky knocks on the door. I go get the wine. I open the 19 fuckin' wine. Hang out. You guys eat your fuckin'
20 cheese and stuff. I want to go up to the shower. So I
21 say I'm going to go up to the shower. Bang, food
22 arrives. So I said, eat without me.

1 Went up to the shower. Fuckin' light's out.
2 Tried to find candles. Two candles I could fuckin' find
3 in the dark. Fuckin' -- yeah. And it took a long time.
4 I was up there a long time. But I mean so what, that's 5 my business, what I'm doing. I'm taking a show- -- a
6 long shower. That's really neither here nor there to 7 anyone. That's my fuckin' business.

8 And came downstairs. They were getting ready
9 to split. Okay, bye-bye. Isaac asks me to go over 10 there. I went over there. I was there 45 minutes or 11 something. Okay, I should've called you. I come in the 12 room, I said fuckin' Isaac [inaudible] really talking,
13 fuckin' blah, blah, blah.

14 And -- and you're not saying a word to me. So
15 I said, what's wrong. Nothing. What's wrong? And then
16 so I let it go. And I grab the remote. And then you
17 were bitching because I -- you're reading a book and 18 watching a TV series at the same time, because you're 19 multitasking you say.

20 So I go to put it back on your channel. Then 21 you say, no, I don't care, I don't want to watch. Okay,
22 cool. So I'm looking around for shit. And then suddenly

1 you just fuckin' started cracking into me. And then the
2 next thing I know it's get the fuck out of my bed, get
3 the fuck out of my room, get the fuck -- it's a --
4 what?

5 And I -- I -- it was like -- what the fuck?
6 It's not like you caught me cheating on you down the 7 hall. I was next door talking to Isaac. There was no --
8 no harm in it. It didn't cause you any fuckin' harm. It
9 didn't do anything that should fucking have any effect
10 on -- on how you feel about me, or treat me, or look at 11 me. Walk away.

12 MS. HEARD: I'm not walking away. I was 13 [inaudible] through my bag to get a [inaudible]

14 MR. DEPP: And I guess what I'm trying to say
15 is that -- whatever offended you to the degree it did 16 that made you get so hot, as to throw me out of our 17 bed, when I know damn well you're going to come out and 18 you're going to fuckin' start yelling again. I know it.
19 Because we repeat ourselves, as you said.

20 So I was trying to figure out what to fuckin'
21 do after you yelled again downstairs. And I got 22 dressed. And you picked the lock on the fuckin' office

1 and then came through --

2 MS. HEARD: I didn't pick the lock.

3 MR. DEPP: It was locked.

4 MS. HEARD: I didn't -- I swear I didn't --

5 MR. DEPP: Really?

6 MS. HEARD: No. I didn't pick the lock.

7 MR. DEPP: I thought you fuckin' put a hairpin
8 in it or something because I locked it.

9 MS. HEARD: No. It opened. I don't know, maybe 10 it just doesn't -- it didn't even --

11 MR. DEPP: It's probably just a shitty lock.
12 Anyway --

13 MS. HEARD: I didn't do that.

14 MR. DEPP: I opened the bathroom door when you 15 were knocking on it. After a few times I opened. And 16 you know, you just come in -- you just kept going. You
17 just kept going, kept going. I tried to close the door
18 three times. You know, please, please, just -- you
19 know.

20 And then, wait, and then -- then I -- I -- I --
21 -- I accidentally I swear, when I was trying to close
22 the door, I guess it scraped your toes. And I didn't --

1 I -- you know, I didn't mean to do that. And I bent
2 down.

3 And you either pushed or you kicked, I think
4 you kicked the door open. I mean, the door -- yeah,
5 more open so that it would hit me. And it hit me --

6 MS. HEARD: No. I didn't mean to --

7 MR. DEPP: Wait --

8 MS. HEARD: I didn't know --

9 MR. DEPP: It hit me in the fuckin' head.

10 MS. HEARD: But I did not mean to do that. I
11 don't know what you're talking --

12 MR. DEPP: I was bent down behind the door.

13 MS. HEARD: I did not do anything to -- I did
14 not kick a door or push a door so that it would hit
15 you. I did not. I -- I swear. I don't even -- that did
16 not -- it was not my intention. I -- I think I remember
17 when the door scraped my toes, I -- I -- I reacted. But 18 this whole -- the door thing -- I -- I -- I never did 19 that. That wasn't on purpose. I might have done it on 20 accident.

21 MR. DEPP: Okay.

22 MS. HEARD: But --

1 MR. DEPP: So let's say that was an accident.
2 I then stood up. I don't even know if I said -- I mean
3 I might have said what the fuck, you know, whatever,
4 because I had just been hit in the head with the 5 fuckin' corner of a door.

6 MS. HEARD: I'm sorry. I did not -- I'm sorry
7 --

8 MR. DEPP: And then I stood up. And then you
9 fuckin' clocked me.

10 MS. HEARD: I -- I remember hitting you as a
11 response to the door thing. And I'm really sorry about 12 hitting you with the door, or hitting your head. I did 13 not mean to, nor --

14 MR. DEPP: You didn't mean to hit me in the 15 head with the door, but you meant to punch me in the 16 jaw.

17 MS. HEARD: I didn't -- I meant to hit you.
18 And I -- I -- I did not do this thing with the door. I
19 -- I do remem- -- I did mean to hit you and --

20 MR. DEPP: So that you didn't mean.

21 MS. HEARD: The door? No. God, no. I didn't --
22 and --

1 MR. DEPP: But punching me in -- in the jaw,
2 you did.

3 MS. HEARD: I didn't -- okay, I'm sorry I hit
4 you. I did mean to hit you, but it was in res- -- in 5 response. I just reacted in response to my foot. I just 6 reacted. And I'm sorry. It's below me.

7 MR. DEPP: Your foot? That was why you punched
8 me?

9 MS. HEARD: Yeah. But -- but -- I'm -- I'm
10 sorry. I'm sorry if I --

11 MR. DEPP: You should take photographs of the 12 wounds so you have them for --

13 MS. HEARD: I --

14 MR. DEPP: -- future.

15 MS. HEARD: Look, we -- I'm trying to 16 apologize to you and you're being an asshole.

17 MR. DEPP: And you're --

18 MS. HEARD: You want -- I mean --

19 MR. DEPP: No. You're -- you're -- you're -- 20 you're -- it's -- it's --

21 MS. HEARD: What are you saying?

22 MR. DEPP: It's awesome to see. You're

1 changing the story in your favor.

2 MS. HEARD: I am not changing the story. I
3 remember it differently. And I'm -- I'm really sorry
4 that that upset you so much. But I do remember reacting
5 when the door caught my foot. I just jumped. And I am --
6 -- I -- that's not to my favor. I mean I can't be 7 changing it to my favor when I'm actually --

8 MR. DEPP: You actually didn't jump --

9 MS. HEARD: Maybe I should just --

10 MR. DEPP: You went down, you went, ow.

11 MS. HEARD: I -- I can even rewind it to prove 12 you from this recording. I am sitting here saying sorry
13 for something I did. And you're telling me I'm changing
14 the story to your favor and being sarcastic, then being 15 offensive and rude --

16 MR. DEPP: No, saying that you didn't mean to 17 kick me in the fuckin' head.

18 MS. HEARD: That I did not mean --

19 MR. DEPP: Saying that the punch --

20 MS. HEARD: That was absolutely not --

21 MR. DEPP: Saying that the punch came from 22 your reaction to your toe being hurt --

1 MS. HEARD: It did. Didn't -- didn't it --
2 didn't it happen right after? What do you -- do you --
3 what is that you remember differently, that you're so 4 sure of?

5 MR. DEPP: I tried to -- I tried to close the
6 door.

7 MS. HEARD: After the -- after it ran over my
8 -- the --

9 MR. DEPP: No. I tried to close the door and 10 it ran over your toes, I guess.

11 MS. HEARD: Uh-huh.

12 MR. DEPP: I didn't see. I wasn't looking
13 down.

14 MS. HEARD: Well, I'm sure it's, you know,
15 it's questionable --

16 MR. DEPP: You may the --

17 MS. HEARD: I might have -- I just might have 18 made it up on the fly. But -- but that's good that --

19 MR. DEPP: You made a noise like you were 20 hurt.

21 MS. HEARD: Probably made it up, right. You --
22 you didn't see anything, so. And then I hit you.

1 MR. DEPP: Are you really going to do this
2 like this? You really want to be like that?

3 MS. HEARD: I was trying. And you weren't
4 letting me apologize.

5 MR. DEPP: I'm trying to fuckin' explain to 6 you. Fuck your smile. I don't need it, Amber. You go
7 and be -- the -- lie to somebody else, man. Lie to 8 somebody else.

9 MS. HEARD: No. I'm sit -- I'm sitting -- I'm 10 sitting here --

11 MR. DEPP: Like you lied in front of Travis
12 last night and said you didn't fuckin' smack, fuckin'
13 throw a fuckin' --

14 MS. HEARD: I don't know what you're talking
15 about.

16 MR. DEPP: Travis does.

17 MS. HEARD: Well, then you marry Travis.

18 MR. DEPP: Don't tempt me.

19 MS. HEARD: I'm sitting here -- I'm sitting 20 here apologizing to you. And you are --

21 MR. DEPP: No.

22 MS. HEARD: -- picking me apart and being an

1 asshole to me while I'm apologizing. You tell me I'm
2 changing the story to my favor. I -- I'm not saying I
3 did everything right. And I'm not saying I was right in 4 this case. In fact, I was actually actively -- you can
5 rewind it to see -- apologizing to you. And you weren't
6 letting me.

7 I hit you. Yes. After I felt like that barrier
8 was broken down. When my -- when -- when the door
9 slammed on my foot, I went, oh shit, it's -- in my head
10 I want, oh shit, it's going down. I reacted to the 11 pain. The fuckin' door caught me. And I thought he's 12 getting violent. I thought we were going there in my 13 head. We've been there before. And I reacted.

14 Last time, the last three fights all in 15 Toronto, I didn't react. And I felt fucked over,
16 royally fucked over, because no one was in more pain
17 than me for that entire week following. Because I heard
18 everything that you just cannot imagine to somebody.
19 And I didn't react. I didn't stoop to that level. I
20 didn't call you names. I didn't tell you I didn't love
21 you. I didn't [inaudible] I didn't do any of the shit.

22 I didn't say I was leaving. I didn't do any of

1 the shit. And I suffered for it. So I have learned
2 probably in a bad way that it doesn't do any good when
3 you take the high road, and when you don't do things
4 right, and when you're the only person doing it, you
5 get hurt more.

6 And so I feel like that didn't work. I really
7 tried hard in Toronto. I walked away with all the 8 fuckin' bruises. And the second I felt physical pain,
9 it just went -- in my brain went something different 10 than the emotional pain. And I went, shit, this is 11 going down.

12 And I don't know -- I did not mean to hit --
13 the -- like cause the door to hit you. I did not mean --
14 --

15 MR. DEPP: Wait, in the head you mean, when I
16 was bent down.

17 MS. HEARD: You said -- you said I caused the 18 door to hit you. And I did not mean that.

19 MR. DEPP: Well, you pushed it or shoved or 20 kicked it --

21 MS. HEARD: But I did not mean to hit you with 22 it. I did not mean -- that -- that's what I'm saying.

1 I'm not saying I didn't mean to touch the door. I
2 clearly did. I'm saying I did not mean to hit you with 3 it.

4 MR. DEPP: Okay.

5 MS. HEARD: I did mean to hit you with my fist
6 or hand. I didn't mean to punch you. I meant to hit
7 you. I'm sorry I didn't open my hand. I'm actually 8 sorry I did -- I did it at all. I should never do that.
9 I should never get physical.

10 But in my defense, I felt that pain. It went 11 some -- I went this is physical. And I just thought we 12 were going there. And I didn't last time. And I didn't 13 -- I got hurt more for it. I'm sorry I did it. And I
14 came over today because I feel bad that -- by the way,
15 I had also taken an Ambien already when I was laying in 16 bed.

17 And I don't know like if that has anything to 18 do with one's ability to like con- -- you know, control
19 yourself. But I don't -- I feel like if I look at 20 myself objectively and I reacted so bad, that I think
21 it must have something to do with it.

22 I'm really sorry. I didn't mean to. I didn't

1 mean to confront you. I was -- I took an Ambien so I
2 wouldn't even be tempted to say, what man, what the
3 fuck. Because I knew you wouldn't apologize for it. I
4 knew you would never under -- just understand me for 5 being hurt, that you fu- -- fucked off and did not even 6 like let me know, you know, I took a shower. I was
7 going to bed, I --

8 MR. DEPP: I did -- I told you when I was 9 leaving --

10 MS. HEARD: No. But you didn't -- not even 11 look at me. I just happened to hear it. I almost didn't 12 even hear it at all. And you didn't text me or -- or -- 13 or -- or let me know. And it took a very long time. And 14 I knew I couldn't just bring it up to you because I
15 knew you would never just hear me and say sorry. I -- I
16 know, I keep you waiting a lot. And I shouldn't do it.

17 I knew you wouldn't say that. So I knew it was 18 pointless to bring it up. And so all these old patterns
19 were repeating themselves. I -- I feel it's pointless
20 to bring things up to you that could be minor. So then 21 I sit on them or I sat on it. I was already in an
22 Ambien, or already falling asleep with an Ambien,

1 thinking I was trying to avoid bringing anything up to 2 you. But I also --

3 MR. DEPP: You were reading and watching
4 television [inaudible]

5 MS. HEARD: Yeah. Yeah. That's exactly how you
6 fall asleep. It's -- I mean that's exactly how I feel
7 asleep. You watch TV, and I watch TV, or I read, or 8 both.

9 MR. DEPP: [inaudible]

10 MS. HEARD: You know? And I had the TV on kind
11 of like this, you know, background because I was 12 catching up on the episode I already saw. And I was 13 trying to read and, you know, fall asleep. I had 14 already taken an Ambien. I was trying to fall asleep
15 and not bring it up to you, because I knew I couldn't
16 just bring it up to you when you say sorry.

17 MR. DEPP: All right. So once that -- once
18 when you came to the bathroom door, and once I tried to 19 close the door and it scraped your foot, which is -- I
20 swear to you, I promise, was an accident, absolutely an 21 accident. I'm not denying that it --

22 MS. HEARD: It's okay. I know.

1 MR. DEPP: [inaudible] it was an accident. So
2 once I did that, that's when you thought, oh fuck, the
3 violence is on [inaudible] fuckin' foot --

4 MS. HEARD: I just -- my brain just went
5 there, just clicked. And I -- I should've controlled it
6 better. It's my -- it's my fault --

7 MR. DEPP: And so when you were screaming at 8 me to get the fuck out of your bed, and out of your
9 room, and when you kicked the door, or pushed the door
10 to hit me in the back of the head and my back --

11 MS. HEARD: I did not mean to hit you in the 12 back of the head.

13 MR. DEPP: You slammed it on me as I was 14 walking out, Amber.

15 MS. HEARD: Did we not -- oh, oh, you mean the 16 --

17 MR. DEPP: You slammed the --

18 MS. HEARD: -- I thought you were talking
19 about the bathroom, when you said -- oh, I was like --

20 MR. DEPP: No. When I left the bedroom, when 21 you were screaming for me to get the fuck out of your
22 room and out of your bed --

1 MS. HEARD: I'm sorry. I don't even remember
2 that part. I was so upset --

3 MR. DEPP: You don't remember that part?

4 MS. HEARD: I don't remember -- well, no, I
5 remember screaming at you, but I don't remember
6 slamming the door or it touching -- I'm sorry. I didn't
7 -- I don't --

8 MR. DEPP: Well, that's when I thought the 9 violence was on.

10 MS. HEARD: Okay. Understandable.

11 MR. DEPP: Yeah.

12 MS. HEARD: Um, I'm sorry. I'm sorry I did
13 that. And I shouldn't have done it. And I'm -- I'm 14 sorry. I don't --

15 MR. DEPP: Okay. Well, what -- just tell me
16 something, please, as human beings.

17 MS. HEARD: Yeah.

18 MR. DEPP: As human fucking beings. What's 19 worse?

20 MS. HEARD: What's worse?

21 MR. DEPP: What's worse? I go next door and 22 I'm talking to Isaac. When you could've fuckin' texted

1 me, you could've texted Isaac. You couldn't come next
2 door --

3 MS. HEARD: [inaudible]

4 MR. DEPP: Please, wait, let me finish.

5 MS. HEARD: [inaudible] do that.

6 MR. DEPP: Well, you weren't going to do that?

7 MS. HEARD: I'm not going to come and
8 interrupt you when you want to be there. I just think
9 it would have been nice if you would consider --

10 MR. DEPP: But then why -- then why would you
11 be mad when I come back?

12 MS. HEARD: I wasn't mad. I wanted you to just 13 say, look I --

14 MR. DEPP: You weren't mad?

15 MS. HEARD: Like you just said, when you
16 brought it up to me on the plane, I wanted you to 17 realize it. I wanted you to realize it.

18 MR. DEPP: Brought up what on the plane?

19 MS. HEARD: When I walked away and talked to 20 Winnie [ph]. And I said you were mad. And you go, I
21 wasn't mad, I just wanted you to realize it. Okay. Back
22 at you. I wanted you to realize it.

1 MR. DEPP: No. Because I was -- on the plane,
2 so let's go back to that. Now we're going back into
3 used -- used garments --

4 MS. HEARD: No, I'm not. I'm referencing --
5 no, I'm not. I'm referencing --

6 MR. DEPP: That's what I was doing before.

7 MS. HEARD: -- something you -- no. I'm
8 referencing something you said.

9 MR. DEPP: Yeah. Can I tell you why I said it?

10 MS. HEARD: That -- that's relevant now.

11 MR. DEPP: May I tell you why I said it, so
12 I'll refresh your memory. You said -- no. I was in the 13 middle of a conversation because we were not doing
14 well. I was in the middle of speaking. You stood up and 15 started to walk away. And I said, are you just going to 16 walk away while I'm talking? And you said, I'm just 17 going to go get a water.

18 And about 30 minutes later you came back. Now
19 was I mad? No.

20 MS. HEARD: It's not something you say.

21 MR. DEPP: What?

22 MS. HEARD: You were fighting about -- you

1 were bringing up old fights, and we're not just talking
2 about --

3 MR. DEPP: No, but you did it.

4 MS. HEARD: No. I didn't. I talked about what
5 you said. I was refreshing your memory of what you said
6 --

7 MR. DEPP: I'm saying what you said. I'm
8 saying --

9 MS. HEARD: You're not.

10 MR. DEPP: -- what you said to me was, no, I'm 11 not getting up in the middle of your conversation, in 12 the middle of your talk. I'm going to get a water. And 13 then you don't come back for 30 minutes. Did you
14 fuckin' drill a well to get the water? No.

15 MS. HEARD: So you're talking about -- what
16 did I say -- what -- why -- what is the relevance here, 17 that you're trying to get away with talking about an 18 old fight, when I am not talking about that fight. I'm 19 talking about something you said --

20 MR. DEPP: You just did talk about that fight.

21 MS. HEARD: No, I'm not. No, I didn't. I said
22 what you said. You said, I'm not upset.

1 MR. DEPP: Right.

2 MS. HEARD: I just wanted you to be aware. So
3 I quoted you. And you said, and you looked at me,
4 looking like you had never heard that before, and you
5 go, what are you talking about? What -- I didn't say
6 that. And I repeated the context of when you said that.
7 I'm saying the same --

8 MR. DEPP: I can't wait to listen to this tape
9 back because --

10 MS. HEARD: I'm saying the same thing you're 11 saying, which is I'm -- I wasn't mad about the Isaac
12 thing. I wanted you to be aware. I -- was my -- were my 13 feelings hurt? Yes. But I wanted you to be aware. And I
14 knew I couldn't just say to you, man --

15 MR. DEPP: Is that how you make me aware by 16 throwing a wobbly [ph] --

17 MS. HEARD: If you were me --

18 MR. DEPP: All I said was, here's what you
19 did. I just want you to be aware. That was you walking
20 away from me in the middle of a fucking important
21 conversation, an important sentence. And you come back
22 30 minutes later. I wasn't mad. And I said, I'm not

1 mad. I just wanted you to fucking be aware. So I didn't

2 --

3 MS. HEARD: That's not what happened

4 [inaudible] --

5 MR. DEPP: When I came back --

6 MS. HEARD: And we can fight about it all day.

7 We can just dedicate this argument to it.

8 MR. DEPP: All right. Well, I can -- listen,
9 any -- any fuckin' two dime -- two -- two bit fuckin'
10 head shrink could listen to that tape and see that this
11 is fucking going nowhere. Nowhere.

12 MS. HEARD: Yeah. Want --

13 MR. DEPP: You're -- you're --

14 MS. HEARD: How much time do you want to 15 dedicate to this old fight I remember very differently.

16 MR. DEPP: Look, you're saying the violence
17 kicked off you thought when I accidentally scraped your 18 toes. Well, wrong. The violence kicked off when you
19 fuckin' either kicked or pushed our bedroom door into 20 me to get me out quicker I guess. It was probably a
21 helpful move. And screaming --

22 MS. HEARD: Stop being sarcastic --

1 MR. DEPP: -- shut the fuck -- get the fuck --
2 get the fuck out of my bed, get the fuck out of my
3 room, get the -- okay. And I did. And I said, don't --
4 don't fuckin' come after me -- don't come after me --

5 MS. HEARD: [inaudible] so you've said this a
6 thousand times since being on this couch, you know, all
7 you're doing. If I had done this --

8 MR. DEPP: Amber --

9 MS. HEARD: -- and you kicked off in Toronto
10 and just sat there and berated you over and over again
11 --

12 MR. DEPP: You did. You did.

13 MS. HEARD: And berated you over -- no, I
14 didn't.

15 MR. DEPP: Yes, you did.

16 MS. HEARD: I did not. It did not happen.

17 MR. DEPP: Go see -- go see what else was it?

18 MS. HEARD: You called me ugly, told me no one 19 would love me. You want to get back into this? I'll 20 tell you, you --

21 MR. DEPP: Your behavior was ugly.

22 MS. HEARD: -- you fucking crying, you're

1 still crying --

2 MR. DEPP: Your behavior was ugly.

3 MS. HEARD: And saying, poor me, poor me,
4 because you were called pussy. When you called me ugly,
5 you said no one would love me when I was old --

6 MR. DEPP: What else -- what else --

7 MS. HEARD: You said no one liked me. You told
8 me you didn't love me anymore.

9 MR. DEPP: [inaudible]

10 MS. HEARD: You told me you didn't want me to 11 be with you. What did you just say?

12 MR. DEPP: Not many people do like you. You
13 going to be aware of it. You must be aware of it. Want
14 me to do, lie?

15 MS. HEARD: Does this make you feel good?

16 MR. DEPP: No, it doesn't.

17 MS. HEARD: It does.

18 MR. DEPP: You know, it doesn't make me feel
19 good to be fuckin' harangued by you.

20 MS. HEARD: Right. You're the one telling me
21 everything I did wrong yesterday. I have -- all -- all
22 I've said is sorry.

1 MR. DEPP: [inaudible]

2 MS. HEARD: And you have done nothing but
3 remind me --

4 MR. DEPP: You're the one that's being
5 [inaudible]

6 MS. HEARD: Toronto. Because you're still
7 crying about being called pussy. You're still sitting 8 here, poor me, poor me, I was called pussy. You were 9 called one thing in a series of hours --

10 MR. DEPP: No, wasn't there another one? You
11 don't remember the other one?

12 MS. HEARD: Oh, there were two? Do you know
13 what I was called? Do you know what I heard? You are so
14 obsessed with yourself and your poor you, poor you,
15 poor you. You're -- all you focus on is this thing that 16 you recall you got called one name. And it's all you
17 care about. It's all you can focus on.

18 You're so thin skinned that all you can do is 19 focus on being called a name. Which by the way --

20 MR. DEPP: Pussy, coward, weakling, or weak.

21 MS. HEARD: I didn't call you weakling.

22 MR. DEPP: Uh, uh --

1 MS. HEARD: Didn't call you coward.

2 MR. DEPP: Yes, you fucking did.

3 MS. HEARD: I called you puss- -- not in that 4 fight.

5 MR. DEPP: Yes, you did.

6 MS. HEARD: And all you can think about is 7 you. And yet you for three nights told me every 8 hurtful, ugly, mean thing you could think of calling
9 me. And then --

10 MR. DEPP: That's wrong.

11 MS. HEARD: -- sit here and try and justify it
12 now --

13 MR. DEPP: That's wrong. That's wrong.

14 MS. HEARD: And yet all you can focus on is 15 being called a pussy? Do you know what it feels like to 16 have your fucking loved one tell you, I don't love you
17 anymore? No one likes you? No one likes you?

18 MR. DEPP: I'm -- I'm --

19 MS. HEARD: And you going to know. You going 20 to know. Oh, you didn't know? Oh, you must know.

21 MR. DEPP: I didn't say that.

22 MS. HEARD: Oh I -- you want me to lie? That's

1 exactly what you said.

2 MR. DEPP: Stop it now.

3 MS. HEARD: And for days, and all you can
4 focus on is being called pussy. Well, I mean --

5 MR. DEPP: No, there were a few more names.

6 MS. HEARD: -- that's kind of case in point,
7 don't you think?

8 MR. DEPP: There were a few more names, Amber.

9 MS. HEARD: Not true. Absolute lie. You -- all
10 you --

11 MR. DEPP: Did you tell -- did you tell Travis
12 that you --

13 MS. HEARD: All you did --

14 MR. DEPP: -- that you hit me last night when 15 I asked you to?

16 MS. HEARD: All you did was -- you called me
17 ugly, no one would love me --

18 MR. DEPP: Did you tell Travis last night,
19 let's talk about the current fight.

20 MS. HEARD: -- my tits sag. No one would ta- -
21 - love me if my tits sag. For days I heard this.

22 MR. DEPP: Did you --

1 MS. HEARD: For days. I'm leaving. I'm getting
2 a room. I'm getting a flight.

3 MR. DEPP: You're so full of shit, it's
4 fuckin' disgusting --

5 MS. HEARD: All you did was say those aw- --
6 most awful things you can think. I don't love you
7 anymore. I'm falling out of love with you anymore. I
8 don't like you anymore. No one likes you. Everyone
9 hates me. I should've listened to them. I'm getting a 10 room. I mean every mean, hurtful, nasty, ugly thing
11 that I told you one day, I'll never be able to forget.
12 And you --

13 MR. DEPP: Half of that stuff I don't even 14 know what you're talking about.

15 MS. HEARD: -- you looked at me -- you said
16 all of that shit to me.

17 MR. DEPP: No way.

18 MS. HEARD: Yes, you did.

19 MR. DEPP: Half of it I don't fuckin' know.

20 MS. HEARD: And I -- because I didn't sit
21 there and berate you for it the next day, and the day
22 after, and the day after, telling you over and over

1 again, even though you're apologizing to me, which
2 didn't happen. How -- every awful thing you did. I
3 didn't do that.

4 MR. DEPP: I don't know what you're talking
5 about. You've -- you've taken it to another level. My 6 sad little brain can't understand. Did you tell Travis
7 last night when I asked you to?

8 MS. HEARD: I don't know -- I don't know what 9 you're talking about.

10 MR. DEPP: You don't?

11 MS. HEARD: No. But let's hear it. Let's hear
12 every -- you want to -- you want to keep telling me?
13 Look, I said I was sorry.

14 MR. DEPP: I'll call Travis.

15 MS. HEARD: Do whatever you fuckin' want.
16 Marry Travis. I don't care. You are so obsessed --

17 MR. DEPP: Don't tempt me. Don't tempt me.

18 MS. HEARD: -- obsessed with fuckin' --
19 somehow Travis is going to help you. No one's arguing
20 with you. I --

21 MR. DEPP: The only other person who saw the 22 truth.

1 MS. HEARD: Yes. Only person that saw the
2 truth. You're right. Travis knows everything about our
3 relationship. And you're probably right. You should be 4 with Travis. You're right. He knows you. And he
5 understands our relationship. He knows everything. He 6 really gets all the context. I'm sure.

7 He probably was there for every one of these
8 fights and really understands you. He probably knows
9 our marriage so well that it matters right now that 10 what he thinks it does so much. You're right. He 11 probably sees everything.

12 MR. DEPP: Don't waste my time.

13 MS. HEARD: He knows it all.

14 MR. DEPP: Don't waste my fuckin' time with 15 this horseshit. Stop.

16 MS. HEARD: How --

17 MR. DEPP: Stop talking to me about Travis.
18 Stop talking to me about all that shit --

19 MS. HEARD: [inaudible]

20 MR. DEPP: Listen, he was the only person
21 there who saw the fuckin' truth.

22 MS. HEARD: Yes. I'm sure he saw the truth.

1 And I'm sure he knows the truth. And keep relying on 2 Travis because he knows everything. You want to keep
3 going? Keep talking about Travis --

4 MR. DEPP: Not many people see the truth.

5 MS. HEARD: Yeah. I'm sure he saw everything.
6 And I know he knows everything. And he certainly knows
7 what goes on. And he certainly knew what led up to it.
8 Right.

9 MR. DEPP: Have you always had an addiction
10 for dishonesty?

11 MS. HEARD: Yeah. Mm-hmm. There we go. Back to 12 that. You want to call me ugly again?

13 MR. DEPP: No.

14 MS. HEARD: Because you're following the same
15 route --

16 MR. DEPP: I said dishonesty.

17 MS. HEARD: -- of predicable insults, that you
18 can fuckin' -- who's being dishonest? What have I said
19 but sorry? Did I say it didn't happen? No. Did I say
20 I'm sorry for it happening? Yes. Do I remember things
21 exactly the way you remember them? No. That's called 22 fucking memory. It is going to vary.

1 I remember the plane differently. I remember
2 Toronto differently than you. Didn't mean I'm being 3 dishonest. You follow the same line of insults. And 4 then focus on you being called a pussy. When you don't
5 even look at your own hypocritical behavior. When you
6 can say the most mean insulting fucking things you can
7 think of saying to someone to hurt them. To hurt them.

8 MR. DEPP: Fat old man --

9 MS. HEARD: And then all you can think about 10 is the names you've been called.

11 MR. DEPP: Fat old man --

12 MS. HEARD: All you can think about is those 13 two -- see, look, see --

14 MR. DEPP: The one you lied about that you
15 said to Jerry --

16 MS. HEARD: All you can think about is a name
17 you were called a year ago. But yet you just ignored
18 that you just called me a liar. You fuckin' mind your 19 own fuckin' -- drink your own fuckin' medicine.

20 MR. DEPP: You do. You do lie.

21 MS. HEARD: Drink your own fuckin' medicine.
22 You're a hypocrite. You're a hypocrite.

1 MR. DEPP: No, you are --

2 MS. HEARD: All you're doing is ignoring all
3 the shit you do.

4 MR. DEPP: You lie to me all the way through.

5 MS. HEARD: All that you do is ignore
6 everything that you do and focus on the name you were 7 called.

8 MR. DEPP: So I'll just think of everything
9 that you do --

10 MS. HEARD: Focused on your problem. Focused
11 on the one thing you did. Focus on the one thing.

12 MR. DEPP: You focus on everything I've done
13 and stay with it.

14 MS. HEARD: So do you.

15 MR. DEPP: Nope. No thanks. Not buying. What a
16 fucking chump. What a chump I am. [inaudible] Would you
17 like anything else? Coffee or something?

18 MS. HEARD: I didn't come over here to fight
19 about last night with you. I didn't want to come over 20 here to remind you of all the shitty things that you
21 said to me in Toronto. I didn't come over here to fight
22 about it. I forgave you and I really intended to move

1 on.

2 I think our -- and I don't know what it is
3 about us not ever really letting anything go, because 4 we fight so much about all -- all the other fights.
5 That I don't know if [inaudible] because we feel so --
6 my hands are dry. Maybe it's because [inaudible] so
7 much pain. There's like a need to [inaudible] or 8 something, you know. I don't know what it is, but I
9 love you, Johnny --

10 MR. DEPP: That doesn't stop me from loving 11 you, any of it. I love you too, baby.

12 MS. HEARD: You're the love of my life. You
13 are also my home and my -- you're my life. It would be 14 so easy for either of us to walk away in any of these
15 fights. But it's been four years. And neither of us
16 have gone anywhere. And -- and it's because we -- you
17 feel, I hope, I think, it doesn't make sense otherwise,
18 that there is no life without the other one.

19 You're the love of my life. And if you weren't 20 the most amazing dynamic beautiful person I've ever
21 met, then I would have said fuck this a long time ago.
22 It would have been so much easier. But you're the

1 absolute joy and love of my life. And so when it's bad,
2 it's absolutely impossible to -- to -- to -- to walk
3 away because -- I mean truly walk away.

4 Both of us try and have tried. And I'm not
5 going anywhere. I'm telling you now, I love you, I
6 can't imagine my life without you. This is torture for 7 me as well. I want to change the things that we do
8 wrong. But I can't do it alone.

9 Everyone thinks that you can just change and 10 somebody else will have to change with you. And it's 11 not true. I don't have the ability to sit there and 12 hear for three fights in a row how you're leaving, and 13 walking out, and getting a room, and calling me all
14 these names, and saying the worst things you can 15 imagine to say to me over and over. And then --

16 MR. DEPP: How could it have been three nights
17 in a row?

18 MS. HEARD: It wasn't three nights in a row.
19 It was three consecutive [inaudible]

20 MR. DEPP: You're talking on the plane as 21 well.

22 MS. HEARD: One of them --

1 MR. DEPP: The plane was way before.

2 MS. HEARD: No, because the plane -- the plane
3 I participated in. I'm talking about the one where I
4 didn't -- I didn't participate. I kept trying to get
5 you to calm down, chill out, look at the broader
6 picture [inaudible] maybe there were two, I'm sorry.

7 But I can't be -- I don't have the chemistry,
8 the body chemistry to sit there and take it, and then
9 be okay, as you found out.

10 MR. DEPP: Nor do I.

11 MS. HEARD: So what we do is we fight to save
12 ourselves, you know. I see it in you. I do the same
13 thing as you do, you know.

14 MR. DEPP: Last night didn't have to happen.

15 MS. HEARD: No. It didn't. But it is not one
16 sided. This -- that fight escalated for the same
17 reasons they always escalate. And it could have been 18 stopped --

19 MR. DEPP: We could have gone right to bed. We 20 could have gone right to bed.

21 MS. HEARD: Yes. We could have. We could have.
22 I can tell you exactly what you could have done to make

1 that happen. And I'm sure you have idea of exactly what
2 I could have done to make that happen. You know, but we
3 didn't do that for -- for these reasons that are big,
4 like bigger, the pattern reasons, the --

5 For instance, I didn't bring it up to you in 6 the right way because I knew you wouldn't just say
7 sorry. I know that sucks. Sorry. Which would have made
8 it fine. But I knew you weren't going to do that 9 because of the conditioning, you know, feeling like you
10 don't -- your criticism, feeling I can't say something
11 when it hurts me, feeling like you don't -- you're too
12 defensive instead of care -- what is it? Caregiving?

13 Instead of the caregiving you get --
14 caregiving for your -- caregive yourself -- for 15 yourself. You protect yourself instead of me. So if I'm 16 hurt by something, the first thing you do is 17 immediately defend yourself with aggressive, you go on 18 the offense and defense at the same time, instead of 19 actually going --

20 I'm sorry, it's almost like if you say you're 21 sorry, you're admitting you're a fuckup. And I know
22 that that's the same thing for you. And I understand

1 that's why you never just go, oh sorry, yeah, I
2 could've done that differently.

3 And -- and so I didn't bring it up in the 4 right way because I just assumed that it would be a
5 fight if I brought it up. So it came out in a really
6 weird different way. And I don't want that either. I
7 fucked up in how I handled it. I did fuck up. And I am
8 sorry. Really from the bottom of my heart, I'm sorry.

9 I'm -- I'm so sorry. I should've never done
10 that. I should've never said get out. I should've never 11 yelled. I should've never touched you. And I'm really
12 sorry.

13 MR. DEPP: Thank you.

14 MS. HEARD: I want to get better. I want to 15 fix the things that are bigger so that those -- I don't 16 want to sit here and fight about what happened last
17 night, or on the plane, or in Toronto.

18 MR. DEPP: [inaudible]

19 MS. HEARD: I want to -- I want to work out
20 the bigger issues. It's bigger. And it's the same shit.

21 MR. DEPP: It is bigger. I mean, look, we've 22 committed ourselves to each other, not by some fucking,

1 you know, religious bullshit or --

2 MS. HEARD: Mm-hmm.

3 MR. DEPP: Just because we love each other.

4 MS. HEARD: Mm-hmm.

5 MR. DEPP: And that's not -- whatever feeling
6 that we have between each other together, that feeling
7 will not -- you know what I mean. One day you'll meet a
8 guy, who knows, and I have a girl. And -- and you have 9 something different with them than you do with me. But 10 that still won't take away what we felt for each other.

11 MS. HEARD: Mm-hmm.

12 MR. DEPP: And it probably still won't take 13 away your feelings or my feelings. None of it.

14 MS. HEARD: Mm-hmm.

15 MR. DEPP: We'll remember the bad points. But 16 the bad points seem to fade when you remember the good.
17 If there was good. And there has been good. The last 18 thing that I want in any case at any time is to fight
19 with you.

20 But you -- you -- and I say this truly, I -- I
21 -- I -- I -- this is not an insult. I say this with 22 utmost truth, that I just -- I don't want to be bagged

1 on, you know what I mean? Like I've -- it's always me.
2 I -- I keep doing stuff wrong. I really can't feel like
3 that all the time. And there -- there's quite a lot of 4 time that, you know, you become very sensitive about
5 small things. And, you know, shit, so can I too, you
6 know. I -- I can too.

7 MS. HEARD: But it's the same things.

8 MR. DEPP: No -- no. No, it's not. It's not
9 necessarily the same things. I've become -- I --

10 MS. HEARD: The -- if you look at the bigger
11 picture [inaudible]

12 MR. DEPP: I became irrational when you're 13 doing movies. I become jealous and fuckin' crazy and 14 weird. And you know, we fight a lot more. But I -- I
15 don't want to do that anymore. And I've --

16 MS. HEARD: I don't either. But I'm not
17 picking you apart. You only see criticism as an insult
18 and picking you apart. You never actually go, I'm a
19 human, I make mistakes. It's not even I make mistakes 20 all the time, it's that I have quirks. You have your 21 own. I have my own.

22 And if we look at everything that the other

1 person says, hey, I need this differently, or this made
2 me feel bad, or I want you be aware of this because it
3 kind of stung me.

4 MR. DEPP: I wish we would've done it last
5 night --

6 MS. HEARD: Every single time --

7 MR. DEPP: I wish I would've done that a
8 million times --

9 MS. HEARD: -- we bring it up, we can't see it
10 as like an ego shutdown. It can just be a thing we can 11 work on. I know, I have them. I have things that you --
12 that I want to be able to hear from you that aren't 13 mean. They're just -- this hurt me, or don't do that,
14 that stung me.

15 Or look, if I go over to say hi to Rocky and 16 the girls, and I stayed for that long, after I also 17 like, you know, was upstairs for so long --

18 MR. DEPP: But you have.

19 MS. HEARD: If -- but when -- okay so when I
20 do, if it affects you negatively, I --

21 MR. DEPP: It does -- I mean it --

22 MS. HEARD: Then -- then it's irrelevant. It's

1 about what the other person needs. You live a life with 2 somebody.

3 MR. DEPP: It's not irrelevant. It's just I'm
4 saying, I'm -- I'm -- I'm not going to get pissed off
5 because it's something that you want to do --

6 MS. HEARD: You have different --

7 MR. DEPP: -- somewhere you want to be.

8 MS. HEARD: Then baby, you have different
9 things that affect you than I do.

10 MR. DEPP: We all do, of course.

11 MS. HEARD: We're two different people living
12 in a life together. And the best we can do is say,
13 these are my corners, this is what affects me, this is 14 yours, you know. You might not be affected by that.
15 However, sometimes you might be. And sometimes you
16 might feel like I disappear in my closet and you were 17 waiting with coffee or whatever

18 And I want to be in a relationship where you
19 can tell me, I was waiting here with coffee, I thought 20 you were going to be back. And then I need to be the 21 person to be like, if it affected you and you're not 22 just trying to make a point of it, if it really did

1 affect you, I'd say sorry. Or I want to be that person
2 that says sorry.

3 I might not always be. And I'll fuckin' change
4 that. But I need to be able -- you can't -- if you see
5 every criticism as you're a fuckup, I can't ever say
6 this affects me negatively.

7 MR. DEPP: No, but --

8 MS. HEARD: Anything.

9 MR. DEPP: One doesn't feel like -- if -- if --
10 - if -- if there's criti- -- criticism, even like three 11 times a month, four times a month, that's a lot. It's 12 once a week. When it's more than that, it's really,
13 really fuckin' weird. It's weird. It's upsetting. It's 14 upsetting. Because --

15 MS. HEARD: I agree.

16 MR. DEPP: -- I only feel like --

17 MS. HEARD: I agree.

18 MR. DEPP: -- you see me in a way that --
19 that, whatever. You know, you keep saying that I going 20 to step up, you know. You know, stop running away, and 21 this -- the things that you've called running away in 22 the past are me trying to get out of a fight that could

1 escalate into something really ugly and violent. And I
2 don't -- don't ever want that again for us. I don't
3 want to --

4 MS. HEARD: I agree. But it is not --

5 MR. DEPP: [inaudible]

6 MS. HEARD: It is not criticism of you every 7 day, or every fuckin' week, or any -- it's the same
8 thing that you do that you don't work on, that you
9 don't actually change, you don't -- and it affects 10 everybody. It's not me alone. It's just I'm the only 11 one who doesn't work for you and can actually say to 12 you, this affects me.

13 I'm really glad that people like Shep [ph] in 14 your life can actually say to you, this affects, like
15 affects me. But you were let off the hook, as you
16 should have been. It's that thing that you do, you have 17 very little people in your life that can do like what 18 Shep did or what I do, which is say that fuckin'
19 affects me. No one else is going to say that to you.

20 MR. DEPP: But baby, for example --

21 MS. HEARD: You --

22 MR. DEPP: -- I was ready. Now I wasn't ready

1 long before you --

2 MS. HEARD: I -- I don't want to talk about
3 specifics though.

4 MR. DEPP: But I --

5 MS. HEARD: It's a -- you know it's a bigger
6 thing. I mean [inaudible]

7 MR. DEPP: No. But I know -- no, no. It is a
8 bigger thing. For sure. I -- I know.

9 MS. HEARD: You just --

10 MR. DEPP: I'm late. I'm late.

11 MS. HEARD: I just feel like breaking it down
12 in this one example minimizes it.

13 MR. DEPP: No. But it's -- okay.

14 MS. HEARD: You know?

15 MR. DEPP: Okay. Yeah.

16 MS. HEARD: If you want to, go ahead.

17 MR. DEPP: No.

18 MS. HEARD: But I just -- I don't want to 19 fight about a fight. I want to talk about the bigger
20 things, which is I'm not criticizing you all the time,
21 you do this, you dress this, don't do this, don't do
22 that. I have a fucking -- it is this -- it is one

1 thing. It's pretty fucking consistent. I have one major
2 criticism of you that I really feel like is important
3 in fights that really affects us negatively. That's in 4 fights. I'm talking about in life.

5 It is that one fucking thing. It is the K hole
6 [ph] of attention that is your gaze. It's whatever your 7 -- it's like -- it's like -- it's whatever is there,
8 everything else disappears. It's whatever is in front
9 of you and you lose track of also like when, you know -
10 - that's what makes you late, that's what makes --

11 MR. DEPP: It's my brain. It's -- there's shit
12 going on.

13 MS. HEARD: Yes. And I love your brain. And I
14 love everything that you have going. I love you. You
15 are not -- you're the same. You could have anyone you
16 want. I could have anyone I want. I love you. Most of 17 all because of what's in here and in here. I love your 18 brain. I love your heart. And I love you. I love being
19 with you.

20 I have one criticism. And it pops up in 21 different examples, in different facets. But it is 22 really one thing. And it is the lack of -- of -- of --

1 of -- of consideration. Not intentional. And you make
2 it sounds like I keep going, oh, well you do this, and
3 you do this, and I'm criticizing you. It's not the 4 case.

5 It is one thing that comes up in different --
6 not very different forms, but comes up in different
7 examples. It is the disappearing act of your -- of your 8 attention and energy. And sometimes you're great, and 9 so clear, and lucid, and present. And that's a
10 different thing altogether.

11 However, lately it's -- you know there's a lot
12 going on, and it hasn't really been like that, you
13 know. You haven't been the one to go, oh, I need to 14 text her, I've been over here for like an hour. Or 15 you're not one to -- it doesn't make me -- fuck it.
16 That's -- I'm being -- I'm being example --

17 MR. DEPP: I should've -- I --

18 MS. HEARD: I didn't mean to give an example.
19 Sorry.

20 MR. DEPP: I should -- no. But while -- while 21 you use the example, I should have, in retrospect, even 22 then, of course it crossed my mind. And then I thought,

1 well, she -- she's -- she's probably cool, she's taking
2 a shower, she's getting her makeup off.

3 MS. HEARD: Okay.

4 MR. DEPP: You know?

5 MS. HEARD: Yeah.

6 MR. DEPP: I mean, I -- that's what I was 7 thinking. And I was trying to get out of there for a
8 long time.

9 MS. HEARD: I'm sure you were.

10 MR. DEPP: And when I finally did get out, it
11 was, you know, another 15, 20 minutes at the door, you
12 know, like --

13 MS. HEARD: Yeah.

14 MR. DEPP: I said, dude, I'll just come --
15 I'll come by tomorrow, man, we'll talk about it, you
16 know, come back tomorrow, come back tomorrow. But he 17 was obviously starved for --

18 MS. HEARD: Sure.

19 MR. DEPP: -- attention. And, you know,
20 especially --

21 MS. HEARD: I invited him over for dinner.

22 MR. DEPP: No, I know. I could [inaudible] --

1 MS. HEARD: And we hung out for like --

2 MR. DEPP: He knocked on the door and --

3 MS. HEARD: We -- we hung out for like an hour
4 downstairs, and ate, and talked. And you were missed,
5 sorely missed.

6 MR. DEPP: But I was only upstairs.

7 MS. HEARD: I know. I know. And I wasn't mads
8 about it, you know? I mean, it's kind of like a joke,
9 you know, Rocky and Josh were, oh yeah, you know,
10 another -- what did Rocky -- Josh said, another 10
11 minutes, he's like, actually we're going to time it.
12 And then we thought, fuck it, no, because it's just so
13 amazing.

14 And I said, yeah, actually I'd be curious of 15 the time, because in France we did this game where we 16 would all bet, 55, 45, an hour and a half, or an hour
17 and 5, you know. And we'd -- whoever -- whenever you
18 would come back from 10 minutes, I'll be right behind
19 you, it would be -- no one ever guessed less than 45.
20 And it was between 45 and an hour and 5, where whoever
21 got the prize.

22 And it's a -- it's al- -- it's almost a joke.

1 I most of the time can laugh it off because I know you,
2 and I know it's you. But -- but it's so chronic, the 3 lateness, it's chro- -- it's so chronic and it's gotten 4 so bad. Whitney even said it. She's like, it's got --
5 this is like got -- it's gotten worse. It's so bad.

6 It's so late, so regularly, and so
7 consistently not on it, whatever that is, multitasking,
8 whatever you want to call it, that I do voice it
9 sometimes when it hurts me. It does hurt me sometimes.
10 When I'm upstairs, when I'm reading, in a shower. And 11 I'm like, well I don't want to bother him, he's where 12 he wants to be. But that's what hurts. You were where 13 you want to be. And I'm not --

14 MR. DEPP: I understand.

15 MS. HEARD: And I'm waiting for you. And --

16 MR. DEPP: Well, at Isaac's, I wasn't where I
17 wanted to be. I wanted to be back over there in bed
18 because I was hallucinating and tired.

19 MS. HEARD: All I wanted --

20 MR. DEPP: And --

21 MS. HEARD: -- was to be able to say that to 22 you and have you respond right there. And just, you

1 know --

2 MR. DEPP: I -- I -- I --

3 MS. HEARD: -- I'm sorry.

4 MR. DEPP: I would have --

5 MS. HEARD: It would have meant so much to me.

6 I --

7 MR. DEPP: I would have if it hadn't have been
8 so kind of aggressive, you know.

9 MS. HEARD: I -- I'm sorry. You're right. I
10 didn't handle it very well. But I -- it's because like
11 as soon as you go, well fuck it, I'm always a fuck up,
12 I'm al- -- you're always on me, and get mad at me, and 13 then yell at me, and be defensive, and make it a fight
14 about me.

15 MR. DEPP: No. But like for example -- and I
16 didn't fuckin' say anything. I can't -- I'm not going
17 to say anything to them when I get there. And, you
18 know, but look, I mean, and I don't mean this in a mean
19 way, I'm truly just giving you my observation.

20 Every -- every day before I went either to 21 rehearsal or to sound check, for -- for the Roxy, you -
22 - you -- you hit me up with some problem or what --

1 something you felt, or something I didn't do, or this
2 or that. And it was -- it was every day at rehearsal.

3 MS. HEARD: I was upset about Toronto that
4 entire time.

5 MR. DEPP: [inaudible]

6 MS. HEARD: And I was trying to suppress it.

7 MR. DEPP: And -- and -- and -- and I was -- I
8 mean I was at least 30 minutes late for rehearsal every 9 day. And I was 45 minutes late for the sound check at 10 the Roxy.

11 MS. HEARD: Mm-hmm.

12 MR. DEPP: You know? And [inaudible]

13 MS. HEARD: But it wasn't because of me.
14 That's not fair.

15 MR. DEPP: Well, no --

16 MS. HEARD: You were late -- I mean I took 17 maybe five min- -- I didn't get more than five minutes
18 of your time at --

19 MR. DEPP: No, no --

20 MS. HEARD: -- a single one of those days.

21 MR. DEPP: No, no, come on, Amber, please --

22 MS. HEARD: And every time I didn't even even

1 -- I didn't take more than five minutes. We talked the
2 first two days -- oh no, the first day of rehearsal,
3 the first two days of rehearsal, before you went up and
4 showered and stuff. You -- that was you and your not
5 managing the time. You cannot put that on me. That's 6 ridiculous.

7 MR. DEPP: I'm not --

8 MS. HEARD: I didn't have even five minutes.

9 MR. DEPP: Listen, like I said, I don't want
10 to fight with you. I don't want to fight with you about 11 this. But your perception of five minutes in this case
12 is -- is -- is off.

13 MS. HEARD: Okay. Well, coming from you, I'll 14 take that. Because I think you have a hard time with 15 time as well.

16 MR. DEPP: Of what?

17 MS. HEARD: I think you have a hard time
18 perceiving time. So if you tell me my perception's off
19 on time, I'll take it.

20 MR. DEPP: I just know how late I was.

21 MS. HEARD: That's you though. It's you
22 putting off the shower. That's you waiting to talk to

1 your wife until you're literally you're rushed and
2 telling me you had to go every -- I don't want to get
3 into it. But I --

4 MR. DEPP: Yeah. You -- you --

5 MS. HEARD: -- I was just trying to suppress
6 fighting --

7 MR. DEPP: You were upset because I wasn't
8 speak -- being -- being able to spend the morning with
9 you.

10 MS. HEARD: No. I was up- --

11 MR. DEPP: That was also because --

12 MS. HEARD: I was upset from Toronto. I didn't
13 want to --

14 MR. DEPP: -- you didn't get up late --

15 MS. HEARD: I didn't even want to be -- the 16 thing is, I was really struggling that whole week
17 because I was looking -- I was looking online for 18 apartment rentals, I was trying to -- one minute I -- I
19 mean one hour I thought -- I mean I'd wake up in the 20 morning and I'd go, I'm going to be fine this morning.
21 I'm going to not think about it, all the shit.

22 And I would by the end of the day, even in the

1 morning, try not to bring it up, but then also realize
2 that my marriage was des- -- being destroyed. I found a
3 counselor that could help like with, you know,
4 separation. I found a -- well I looked at apartments
5 online.

6 MR. DEPP: I -- I didn't know you went that 7 far.

8 MS. HEARD: I didn't -- because I could not 9 imagine getting over the pain of what happened in 10 Toronto. It was so bad.

11 MR. DEPP: I couldn't imagine getting over a 12 lot of shit like on the plane.

13 MS. HEARD: Yes. But --

14 MR. DEPP: That was the second time.

15 MS. HEARD: That was -- we both participated
16 in that. Toronto, I -- all I did in Toronto, all I did
17 was fight to keep you okay, safe. I was worried about 18 you getting -- going off the rails and binging because 19 you were drinking. I wanted you not -- I wanted you to 20 be okay for your press. I wanted you to stay in the 21 room, not to fight, but just even to go in the other
22 room so you weren't downstairs drinking until 5.

1 I -- it was not a mu- -- that was -- a lot of 2 our fights are -- are 50/50. And some of them are on
3 me. This one -- those Toronto fights, I spent the whole
4 time telling you I love you, and trying to get you to 5 calm down, and keep you safe. Stop. Let's not do this.
6 Look at the bigger picture. I love you. [inaudible]
7 picture.

8 And that train had fuckin' left. And there is 9 no excuse for it. You want to make excuses, I know
10 that's your instinct just to make --

11 MR. DEPP: For what?

12 MS. HEARD: -- an excuse, to allow yourself to 13 go off the rails. There is no excuse for just --

14 MR. DEPP: What are we talking about, Toronto?

15 MS. HEARD: Yeah.

16 MR. DEPP: The -- the -- listen, the --
17 there's no excuse for either of us being the way we -- 18 you know, getting the way we get. And being -- being 19 that fuckin' -- allowing ourselves to get to such a
20 degree, of such a fuckin' heated arena. There's no
21 fucking reason in the world for it. It's dumb, it's 22 dumb, it's stupid, and it's fuckin' dumb.

1 But you know, your memory of Toronto is what
2 it is. And yeah, I said some fuckin' really nasty
3 things to you. And -- and those nasty things had been 4 building up from the prior argument. Just like your 5 shit had been building up.

6 The plane I thought, this is it, we're fuckin'
7 -- we -- we're dead. After the plane. We're fuckin'
8 dead. I don't know how to look at her anymore. I don't
9 know how to feel anymore. I don't know -- I don't --

10 Again, I -- what you think an argument where 11 you didn't say shit, I mean, again, I'm sorry, but 12 there were people out the door -- right outside the 13 door who heard everything.

14 MS. HEARD: In Toronto? Is that what we're 15 talking about?

16 MR. DEPP: Yeah.

17 MS. HEARD: Then -- then get them in the room
18 right now, the -- the mystery help that you keep 19 referencing, and have them sit in front of me. I want 20 to hear someone tell me what I said to you. Because 21 still, I have yet to hear one thing. I called you
22 spineless at the end of one fight. And I -- I called

1 you a coward and -- no, I said spineless and pussy.

2 That -- those were two names that I called
3 you. And I told you what you were doing with spineless.
4 And I called you a pussy. And I said I was sorry. And I
5 meant it. But it was at the end of a fight. I had been
6 fuckin' provoked to no end, prodded, poked, kicked. I
7 had heard every nasty thing you could think of saying
8 to a woman before that comment came out.

9 And I still had the strength afterwards to 10 say, let's just not do this, please. Let's look at the 11 bigger picture. We love each other. Let's skip all the 12 steps when we say the hurtful things. Stop. And I said
13 that the whole time. So whoever you're fuckin' talking
14 about, quit fuckin' referencing them. Be fuckin' fair.
15 Fight fair. Get them here right now.

16 I want to fuckin' see them, look them in the 17 eye, and hear them tell me, in front of me, in front of 18 you, what I fuckin' said in Toronto. Because I didn't 19 say a fuckin' thing. I didn't do anything in Toronto. I
20 fuckin' held it together the whole time. I am sorry I
21 called you a pussy. And your actions were spineless.
22 And I am sorry I said that. I'm really sorry I said

1 that. I shouldn't have stooped to that level.

2 MR. DEPP: What actions --

3 MS. HEARD: But I had said --

4 MR. DEPP: What actions of mine were 5 spineless?

6 MS. HEARD: You had said you wanted to get a
7 room at the beginning of the fight.

8 MR. DEPP: No, I didn't.

9 MS. HEARD: Well, then I don't remember what
10 it was. But it was all the shit that led up to that. It
11 was at the end of that second fight. And I am sorry I
12 called you that name. But all you -- how much it's hurt
13 you, and how much you talked about it, and how much 14 you've complained about that affecting you, and how 15 much that you've carried that, magni- -- magnify that 16 by a thousand. Well, being literal, 200. Magnify that.

17 You're focused on one thing you got called.
18 Imagine being called 20,000 more things. And not just 19 called names. Being looked at and said the most 20 hurtful, ugly things I've ever been told ever in my 21 life, on top of being called those things. While you're 22 saying to someone, I love you.

1 I was actually saying to you, that last fight,
2 all I was saying is, come back, let's not do this, I
3 love you. I even sat down and you were like, fuck you,
4 you're fuckin' ugly, I can't look at you. And I said, I
5 love you. I fuckin' hate you. I love you. And I
6 actually did that.

7 MR. DEPP: You did.

8 MS. HEARD: I -- that was the fight. I got mad
9 at something that I would get mad about now. It was 10 rude and inconsiderate. And instead of me being able to 11 just say, that hurt me, you have a fuckin' -- you know,
12 the ego is so offended, that all you have to do is lash
13 out at me, hurt me, call me names, to try and defend 14 yourself. Because heavens forbid, you did something 15 rude. Which is human. You know? It was human.

16 You could have just said sorry and I would've
17 felt better. And that's all because we're two people
18 trying to struggle and it's so hard to live with each
19 other --

20 MR. DEPP: What was the fight about?

21 MS. HEARD: Remember we -- it started because 22 I -- you didn't -- we had gotten comfortable, I had

1 gotten my pajamas, started -- took my hair out. I
2 started off. We ordered pizza, ordered a movie. My mom
3 was coming up to the room. We were curled up on the 4 couch. And then you decided -- then you decided to tell
5 someone, me in this case, you wanted to go to a party.

6 And I -- I had no -- and I did say, I started
7 by saying I don't want to go, let's not do that. Why --
8 and then I said, why -- what the fuck, I have already 9 taken off my makeup, I fuck- -- my dress, my heels, my 10 hair --

11 MR. DEPP: But your makeup was still on --

12 MS. HEARD: Why didn't you tell me -- I had 13 started to take it off. I took off my lipstick. I said, 14 why didn't you tell me before? I have -- I'm in my 15 pajamas at this point. Why didn't you tell me before?
16 We had ordered a movie. We talked about our night. We 17 actually talked about doing -- that's how it started.

18 And after that moment, I came back. And I said
19 -- we got my dress on, got my shoes on, put my hair
20 back up. And I said, let's go to the party. And you
21 were so obstinate, and adamant, and stubborn, and --
22 and -- and -- and -- and I don't know what it was. But

1 you from that moment on did nothing but insult and hurt
2 me.

3 MR. DEPP: Could -- could it have been that I
4 was -- a bit prodded by your lack of wanting to get
5 dressed again.

6 MS. HEARD: I was prodded by your lack of 7 telling me. Don't you see? There's always a thing that 8 you can just rely on that. You not take any 9 responsibility for your shit. You -- that's no excuse.
10 You felt prodded, yeah, so did I. I felt prodded about 11 you telling me after the fact that we were going to go
12 to a party, after we had already talked about our 13 night.

14 We even ordered pizza. We fucking were queuing
15 up a movie. We told my mom. Even security was like,
16 what? They didn't know. No one knew that you were 17 going. You -- and you didn't tell anybody. And I -- you
18 don't think I felt prodded? I felt prodded.

19 MR. DEPP: Wasn't it Lawrence Krause [ph]
20 [inaudible]

21 MS. HEARD: No, it was the party for the -- it
22 was the afterparty for the movie.

1 MR. DEPP: Oh, right. No, we went to that.

2 MS. HEARD: No, we didn't.

3 MR. DEPP: [inaudible]

4 MS. HEARD: We didn't go. We went to something
5 else. We didn't go that night. We fought.

6 MR. DEPP: We went to a dinner thing where 7 Terry Gilliam was.

8 MS. HEARD: That was different. That was 9 Venice, Terry Gilliam.

10 MR. DEPP: Oh, I'm sorry. Too many to think of 11 --

12 MS. HEARD: I felt prodded too. I don't want
13 to sit here and fight about Toronto. And I really think
14 it's fucked up that we fight about the old -- old
15 fights over, and over, and over, and over again. I did
16 tell you I would let that shit go.

17 And I'm sorry that I spent five minutes of 18 your mornings ending in a bad way. But we didn't talk
19 for -- for more than 10. I did not make you late. You
20 have a late problem. It's a fact.

21 MR. DEPP: I do. I admit to that. But it was a
22 half hour.

1 MS. HEARD: It's -- it was not -- that was not
2 because of me. You put -- you putting off talking to me
3 until you were already a half hour late. In fact, every 4 time we talked, you were telling me you were already 5 late. So don't -- it's not on me. And I buried it, the 6 whole fucking week. I sat there --

7 MR. DEPP: I said, I'm -- yeah, I'm late. And 8 I -- and then I -- I got my guitar and my bag. And 9 everything else was out the door.

10 MS. HEARD: I buried it. I'm -- your wife
11 didn't take more than five second -- more than 10
12 minutes of your time. And in those -- all those 13 mornings. And I understooded you -- I understood you 14 have -- you had something very important going on. And 15 I wanted to support you. But I was dying on the inside.
16 Dying.

17 I have never felt so depressed about our 18 situation ever. I have had resolve before. I have 19 walked away from you when you're drunk and fucked up.
20 And things that are like -- but -- but -- but Toronto
21 was like the -- the plane that -- that the plane when 22 you kicked me. It was so bad and so unprovoked --

1 MR. DEPP: Wait, wait.

2 MS. HEARD: Sorry.

3 MR. DEPP: The plane when I kicked you. You
4 can't just reference it like with the plane that I
5 kicked you.

6 MS. HEARD: You know which one I'm talking
7 about, right? Like the one from a long time ago.

8 MR. DEPP: It's on the tape recorder. If
9 you're going to say that I kicked you, you'll say
10 everything else you did.

11 MS. HEARD: On the plane that I'm talking
12 about is the plane from Boston. I did nothing to you.
13 And everyone can attest. Everyone will back -- back
14 that up. I did nothing to you that time. You were -- 15 you were fucked up. You were real -- I'm talking about 16 a long time ago.

17 That was the only time in my relationship with 18 you. Remember I went back to New York, that I -- I felt 19 so unsure about us, is after Toronto. And I sat on that 20 all week, and cried every fucking day.

21 MR. DEPP: It was after Toronto when? This
22 Toronto? I didn't kick you on the fuckin' plane.

1 MS. HEARD: I know. I said that was the only
2 other time in our relationship that --

3 MR. DEPP: Oh, okay.

4 MS. HEARD: -- felt like this. And I'm sorry I
5 took a few minutes of your time in Toron- -- in -- in 6 LA when you were getting ready for rehearsals. But I
7 was trying desperately to figure out if I could res- --
8 recover, if there could be love gained that had been 9 murdered. I couldn't -- it was a --

10 MR. DEPP: I understand that. I --

11 MS. HEARD: It was a tough week. And I --

12 MR. DEPP: I'm going through the same exact
13 fuckin' thing.

14 MS. HEARD: I -- I -- you have certainly not 15 gone through this. I have certainly never looked at you
16 and said some of these things to you. I have --

17 MR. DEPP: Don't say that.

18 MS. HEARD: -- never told you I didn't love
19 you.

20 MR. DEPP: Yes, you have.

21 MS. HEARD: I did not. I've never told you I
22 was falling out of love with you. I never told you --

1 and also we've made promises. [inaudible] just defend
2 yourself. And me pointing out some of the things you
3 did [inaudible]

4 MR. DEPP: I'm not defending myself. I'm just 5 --

6 MS. HEARD: -- just bounces right back at me.

7 MR. DEPP: Hey, I'm not defending myself. You
8 wanted me to say when -- when I feel something, and you
9 know, when I -- I feel that the, you know, I want to 10 say something to you, that it was okay. That's -- 11 that's the promise you gave me a little while ago. I'm 12 -- I'm telling you, if you -- if you lost memory last 13 night of kicking me out the door with the fucker
14 hitting me --

15 MS. HEARD: Again, I'm sorry --

16 MR. DEPP: And you -- and your memory is gone
17 from you kicking the -- the bathroom door and hitting 18 me in the skull as I was bent down --

19 MS. HEARD: Again, I am sorry --

20 MR. DEPP: Wait. If you have those memory
21 fuckin', you know, divots --

22 MS. HEARD: I was upset. There was a lot going

1 on --

2 MR. DEPP: Okay. But wait --

3 MS. HEARD: And I was on an Ambien. Like what
4 -- why are you obsessing over the fact that I can't 5 remember it the way you remembered it. I said I was 6 sorry. I didn't deny it.

7 MR. DEPP: Okay. I know that. I'm not talking
8 about that. What I want to get to is that you say to 9 me, fuckin' unquestionably, like in -- in -- 10 impenetrably you never said, I don't want to fuckin' be 11 with you, I'm not in love with you anymore.

12 MS. HEARD: I'm falling out of love with you.
13 Falling out of love with you.

14 MR. DEPP: It was dark, man. It was a dark --
15 it was a dark moment.

16 MS. HEARD: I let it go. I meant it. My mom
17 said I have going to fucking forgive you or -- or not.
18 And I going to forgive you if I want to be with you. I
19 have got to forgive you.

20 MR. DEPP: I've going to forgive you if I want
21 to be with you.

22 MS. HEARD: Yes. It's not solo. I'm just

1 saying what I -- I made a choice to let it go and to
2 forgive you. And I meant it. And I'm sorry that it's 3 coming up now. It really should not come up. It really
4 should not be something that we keep using in fights.
5 It doesn't help us.

6 It doesn't help our standing to point out how
7 fucked -- it doesn't do anything but cause the other
8 one to retreat and defend. So I'm sorry --

9 MR. DEPP: If you listen to your tape back, it
10 would be you that brings up the Toronto shit more than 11 me.

12 MS. HEARD: You're right. I brought it up and 13 I'm sorry. That's why I'm saying this. I was trying to 14 defend myself from this whole thing about like me
15 taking your time when you were rehearsing. And I took 16 no time and suffered by myself. And really sat on that.
17 And didn't -- it wasn't right.

18 You ask me every morning what the fuck is 19 going on. And I wasn't right, wasn't okay. It was not 20 okay. And we talked about it on Whitney's birthday that 21 night. And you promised never to go there again. Is my 22 memory okay now? I mean so far? Was that wrong?

1 MR. DEPP: Yeah, as far as Whitney's party,
2 and I promised never to go there again, and all that
3 shit. Yeah. It is. But -- but --

4 MS. HEARD: All right. So I --

5 MR. DEPP: And the time thing is just -- it
6 doesn't matter --

7 MS. HEARD: Look, you see it differently. I
8 feel like I took five minutes of your time. And you let 9 like I took 30 minutes. And I -- it's probably 10 somewhere in between, to be honest. Okay. So obsessing
11 over it is pointless. It's fighting for nothing.

12 You're going to be able to -- you're going to 13 be able to hear what I need. And when you do something
14 wrong, it cannot be impossible ever to say to you --
15 you're going to be responsible. I hold you responsible.
16 And I know no one else does --

17 MR. DEPP: When I do something wrong, that 18 affects you in the wrong way.

19 MS. HEARD: We have to live together.

20 MR. DEPP: Yes.

21 MS. HEARD: Everyone else gets to go home. Ev-
22 --

1 MR. DEPP: That's the first time you said we,
2 by the way.

3 MS. HEARD: Pardon?

4 MR. DEPP: It's practically the first time
5 that you've said we.

6 MS. HEARD: Okay. We have to live together.
7 And I have said we a lot [inaudible] conversation. We 8 have to live together. And we both have quirks and 9 corners. Maybe you remember me saying this earlier.

10 We both have shit that we need to -- puzzle
11 pieces that we need to carve out to make -- to fit with 12 the other, you know, to fit in a life with someone. And 13 sometimes we fit perfectly. Sometimes I think we hurt
14 and don't know what to do with it. We don't have an 15 outlet for it. We're still holding on to it and not 16 admitting we're holding on to it.

17 We still kind of hate the other one for the 18 things I've said to you. You know, it's just -- and we 19 don't let it go. And then it comes up -- a fight comes 20 up, instigated by the same patterns, you know. Me
21 getting mad at you about something, or you getting mad
22 at me about something.

1 And then all this shit comes up in all the
2 fights. And why -- why can't we just like -- like be
3 humble enough to say, oh shit, I'm sorry, when we fuck
4 up. Why is it like this --

5 MR. DEPP: I don't -- I don't have an answer
6 to that question. I mean I -- I -- I'd love to be, if 7 I'm not [inaudible] I would love to be.

8 MS. HEARD: It takes humility. And I know I'm 9 the only person that like holds you accountable really 10 in your life in an overt way. But if you're late, or 11 you fuck off, and you ignore me, and I'm waiting on 12 you, it's rude, and it makes me feel bad. And I have to 13 be able to -- to say it. And yesterday I'm really sorry
14 for how I reacted.

15 But that was me not knowing how to fucking
16 have a normal fight with like a [inaudible] it's like
17 that's normal, couple -- like a normal couple thing. It
18 could have been small, like you said earlier.

19 MR. DEPP: It could have been two seconds.

20 MS. HEARD: Yes. But me not imagining that you
21 could give it that or allow it to be, made me -- I took 22 an Ambien so I wouldn't be -- so I wouldn't be -- so

1 I'd fall asleep before I'd be touched by you and have
2 to fuckin' confront it. I tried to, you know, read, and 3 calm down. I tried to not talk about it. Because I just 4 could not imagine it working. Where you could just hear
5 it and say, I'm sorry, and also know that that's an 6 issue you have.

7 I couldn't imagine it. And so it came out
8 really bad. It came out poorly. I handled it poorly. By 9 the time we talked, I was already seething. And then I
10 reacted like a -- a person that has been hurt over 11 many, many fights. And holding on to probably some 12 things without knowing it. And I reacted because I
13 thought, fuck it.

14 I don't want Toronto. I don't want to be the 15 person that sits there and says, I love you, while 16 someone's looking at you in the eye and telling you
17 that no one likes you, and that they don't like you 18 anymore, and they don't love you, and you're ugly, and 19 all this shit.

20 I don't want to -- I didn't want to be the one
21 that did that. I didn't want to take the high road. And 22 I -- I want to always -- I want us to both [inaudible]

1 I feel like one of us -- one of us fuckin' -- one of us
2 can't do it. We need to both do it. Otherwise one of us
3 -- one of us is just getting fucking hurt.

4 Like in Toronto I was a fucking punching bag.
5 I just heard every mean thing. And all I was doing was 6 saying stop. And I got so fucked up.

7 MR. DEPP: I understand.

8 MS. HEARD: I don't want to --

9 MR. DEPP: Toronto -- Toronto to you was the 10 plane ride to me. You know? And you're not going to 11 unhear that shit. You can forgive me for it if you
12 can't -- but you will never unhear that. And I'll never 13 unhear the shit I heard. So ultimately is that shit
14 important? No, in the big picture.

15 We should be bigger than that. We should find
16 a way. And we do both need work. I'm not saying I
17 don't. We both need to work on it.

18 MS. HEARD: So there's no accountability, no
19 stability, no rules? And we got married for that 20 reason. We got married so we'd have like stability. So
21 the fuckin' relationship wasn't on the line every time.

22 MR. DEPP: Look, I -- I didn't kick you out of 1 bed last night.

2 MS. HEARD: I did. I'm sorry for it.

3 MR. DEPP: Okay, but you -- you know what I'm
4 saying --

5 MS. HEARD: Yes. I do know what you're saying.
6 But it doesn't happen in a vacuum. It's the result of 7 conditioning of fights over and over again that do
8 things, that make us react in the way we react.

9 MR. DEPP: Indeed.

10 MS. HEARD: So where do we stop? Where do we 11 stop it?

12 MR. DEPP: Go see a counselor.

13 MS. HEARD: Do you imagine your life without 14 me? Could you?

15 MR. DEPP: I mean, no. Of course not. Why
16 would I -- why -- why -- why would I imagine? You know
17 I love you. I told you that. First thing you came in,
18 you said you love me, I said I love you. Because I do.
19 But it can't go on this way. Not for you -- not for 20 you, not for me --

21 MS. HEARD: I agree.

22 MR. DEPP: It can't go on this way.

1 MS. HEARD: I agree. I agree.

2 MR. DEPP: Because it's just going to build,
3 and build, and build. And if there's any more physical
4 violence, that's it.

5 MS. HEARD: I agree. I agree. I agree.

6 MR. DEPP: So I'll check on counselors, man.
7 Let's see somebody. If that's what needs to be done,
8 I'll do it.

9 MS. HEARD: I just don't know if you -- I want
10 to talk to that Amy person. But I'm worried that you
11 don't control yourself. And when you get mad, you --
12 you just take off. And I'm worried that on Skype, it's 13 not like we're going to be in a room, and you're just 14 going to fuckin' walk away if you don't like it.

15 MR. DEPP: It -- it's not about me liking, you 16 know, these horrible truths. I don't like them now. And 17 I'm not walking away.

18 MS. HEARD: Mm-hmm. True.

19 MR. DEPP: I -- I -- what I'm concerned with 20 is the truth, getting -- there is no fuckin' way that -
21 - if you, you know, change a story or if I change a 22 story, it -- it -- it -- there's no point in us seeing

1 a fucking shrink [inaudible]

2 MS. HEARD: There is no -- I see someone
3 regularly. No one knows that better than me. There is 4 no point in life to a therapist or to a counselor or 5 whatever. Knew you have it in your mind that, you know,
6 like I'll go to [inaudible] just to hear myself talk of 7 validation. It's the opposite of what I do.

8 What I value in people and why I don't want
9 people around me that need me more than I need them, or 10 that work for me, I don't want -- I had this breakdown
11 like before I even met you about realizing that 12 everyone around me was in some sort of need. And I
13 wasn't getting -- being able to get honest feedback.

14 And, you know, now I'm -- I'm -- aside from 15 Whitney, you know, she's different. Whitney never holds 16 back. Anyway, but that's part of why I value having 17 people around me that are going to be honest with me
18 and that don't need me. That's how you get something
19 from someone.

20 There's nothing -- that's the value. That's 21 the goal, is that people can hold you accountable.
22 People can hold up a mirror. People can be honest with

1 you --

2 MR. DEPP: Abso- -- absolutely.

3 MS. HEARD: And if I feel not safe enough to 4 do that because I don't know what you're going to do,
5 you're going to take off, and run, and not like --
6 that's -- it's going to be really hard to sit there and 7 get something from a counselor when I feel like I can't 8 actually --

9 MR. DEPP: But you can't predict the future.

10 MS. HEARD: No. I can't. No. I can't. But we 11 need help. And if we don't change, we will -- we won't
12 survive. And I love you. And I want my life with you.
13 But -- I know we both get mad and we both lose our 14 shit. But there has to be some sort of thing that you 15 follow, some rules, some guidelines, both of us. Both 16 of us. You know?

17 MR. DEPP: I don't disagree at all.

18 MS. HEARD: Promises -- I feel like I really 19 want you to keep your promises.

20 MR. DEPP: I don't --

21 MS. HEARD: Huh?

22 MR. DEPP: I mean I -- I keep my promises.

1 Maybe I'm late. Maybe I'm flaky. Maybe --

2 MS. HEARD: I'm not talking about that.

3 MR. DEPP: Well, what promises?

4 MS. HEARD: Just -- just want you to keep your
5 promises. So if we say --

6 MR. DEPP: I want you to keep your promises
7 too.

8 MS. HEARD: I know you do. I know you do. We 9 need help. And I'm -- I'm -- I -- I -- I -- I -- we 10 need to promise each other to do this. Don't you think?

11 MR. DEPP: Yeah.

12 MS. HEARD: I mean maybe I'm wrong. But I --

13 MR. DEPP: No.

14 MS. HEARD: I just think that there -- we can
15 use some things --

16 MR. DEPP: I promise you this --

17 MS. HEARD: -- like that.

18 MR. DEPP: I promise you this. If we go to the 19 therapist, couples therapist, marriage, whatever,
20 counselor, we go there, I promise you, absolute,
21 unabashed, straight up, honesty. And please, please,
22 because you going to be fuckin' really strong to do it

1 and not -- not let the ego ebb at you. Please be a
2 thousand percent honest. I don't care what it's about.

3 MS. HEARD: I will be.

4 MR. DEPP: Please.

5 MS. HEARD: That's easy. It's easy to be 6 honest. And I'm very honest. I know you don't have a
7 lot of people around you that confront you ever. But
8 you and I are two different human beings, different
9 consciences, right? So you are going to remember
10 something different than me.

11 And I can insult you, and insult your 12 character, by calling you pussy. Because you don't 13 conform to seeing it my way. So you must be a liar.
14 That just makes you feel bad.

15 MR. DEPP: I was a pussy -- the results of 16 the, you know -- I -- I fuckin' -- pussy -- I was a
17 pussy because I didn't take care of the fuckin'
18 [inaudible] you know, who tried to touch you in the 19 fuckin' elevator and --

20 MS. HEARD: Tried?

21 MR. DEPP: You told me he didn't touch you in 22 the fuckin' --

1 MS. HEARD: Yes. I told you he touched me. I
2 told you he grabbed me. I told you he tried to kiss me.
3 I told you he kissed all over my hands and arms and 4 head --

5 MR. DEPP: Yeah, yeah, yeah.

6 MS. HEARD: -- and -- and he grabbed me, and 7 grabbed my arm, and tried -- that's significantly
8 touching you. Grabbed my waist, my stomach. I mean
9 that's touching you. And I told you that. That's 10 honest. That's honest.

11 MR. DEPP: I -- I didn't know it was all to 12 that degree, I --

13 MS. HEARD: I did tell you that.

14 MR. DEPP: Okay. Okay. All right. Don't freak
15 out.

16 MS. HEARD: But you remember different things.
17 So that's different. I don't have to call you a liar.

18 MR. DEPP: It doesn't matter. I -- it doesn't 19 matter. You -- you -- I -- I went through all kinds of 20 shit.

21 MS. HEARD: Yeah. I get shit for being called 22 -- I'm calling you a pussy. Yet you call me a liar all

1 the time.

2 MR. DEPP: Can I finish my sentence? I went
3 through all kinds of shit to try to find that 4 motherfucker.

5 MS. HEARD: Good.

6 MR. DEPP: He never went back to his fuckin'
7 room.

8 MS. HEARD: Good.

9 MR. DEPP: I got his fuckin' name. I know how 10 to find him if need be.

11 MS. HEARD: Okay. Cool.

12 MR. DEPP: But you -- do you, you know, said
13 that I fuckin' --

14 MS. HEARD: Did -- did I --

15 MR. DEPP: Didn't even -- I didn't take care
16 of it because I was a fuckin' pussy, and a liar, and
17 [inaudible]

18 MS. HEARD: I called you the name that you
19 were calling me. You were calling me a liar and I
20 called it right back to you. And I did call you pussy.
21 And I -- it's like again, I said I was sorry for 22 calling you a pussy. I called you one name. For every

1 time you heard pussy, I heard a thou- -- every time you
2 heard that, I heard 15 insults from whore to liar.

3 MR. DEPP: Weak.

4 MS. HEARD: You, from whore to liar.

5 MR. DEPP: Coward.

6 MS. HEARD: I did not call you in -- in
7 Toronto, I did not call you --

8 MR. DEPP: Yes, you did.

9 MS. HEARD: No. I did not. I did not call you
10 a coward.

11 MR. DEPP: You have the tapes. Let's listen.

12 MS. HEARD: Yes. I will. I did not call you
13 that in Toronto. I have called you that before. But for 14 everything, every time you heard pussy, which you're so 15 obsessed that you got called. And I'm sorry. That must 16 be so tough that you got called that one name. I heard
17 a thousand. So it makes me a little, mmm --

18 MR. DEPP: A thousand is probably --

19 MS. HEARD: Annoyed.

20 MR. DEPP: If anything, that's probably a
21 little bit of an exaggeration.

22 MS. HEARD: To say the least. Annoyed, to say

1 the least.

2 MR. DEPP: Is a thousand exaggerating?

3 MS. HEARD: To hear you continue to complain
4 about being called that one name, when you called me --
5 roughly 50.

6 MR. DEPP: 50.

7 MS. HEARD: Yes. So being honest, stop. It's 8 so -- it's annoying me.

9 MR. DEPP: It's annoying you.

10 MS. HEARD: It's terribly annoying. You got 11 called one thing and you --

12 MR. DEPP: Is this called honesty and you are 13 --

14 MS. HEARD: -- called me a liar and a whore --

15 MR. DEPP: And you are getting taking defense.
16 How is that going to be with a marriage counselor?
17 You're worried about me walking away?

18 MS. HEARD: What do you mean?

19 MR. DEPP: Look at what you're doing.

20 MS. HEARD: I'm sorry if I'm getting angry.

21 So.

22 MR. DEPP: You want to try? You --

1 MS. HEARD: I -- did I not just say sorry for
2 getting angry? That's trying and you know it.

3 MR. DEPP: You've said sorry 15 times now for 4 getting angry.

5 MS. HEARD: You want to insult me for being --
6 and call -- saying sorry. You use it against me in 7 every fight when I do. And yet then you also say I
8 don't do anything wrong and I can't be wrong. Yet you -
9 - you don't think that's a little counterproductive to 10 yell -- to yell both things at me, [inaudible] with 11 both things?

12 You want to insult me for saying sorry now too
13 much? Well, I thought --

14 MR. DEPP: No.

15 MS. HEARD: -- if we're talking to each other,
16 and we're being honest, and trying to be humble, I
17 thought that's kind of like a good thing to do when you
18 feel it, you know, to be taking care of the other
19 person. I'm trying to take care of your feelings by 20 saying sorry. That's care.

21 MR. DEPP: Was it [inaudible]

22 MS. HEARD: And you're not.

1 MR. DEPP: In an aggressive way.

2 MS. HEARD: No. I did not say sorry in an
3 aggressive way. That's not true.

4 MR. DEPP: What led up to it?

5 MS. HEARD: I don't know what led up to it.
6 But I --

7 MR. DEPP: The conversation we just had.

8 MS. HEARD: I -- I said sorry. And I meant it.
9 And then you wanted to use it against me and then rub
10 my nose in it, which is something you do all the time.

11 MR. DEPP: No. Sorry --

12 MS. HEARD: Would you -- would you like to end
13 our conversation now because it's clearly not going 14 anywhere.

15 MR. DEPP: If you want to end the 16 conversation, end the conversation. Here's what I'm 17 saying. Sorry, when you hear it all the time --

18 MS. HEARD: Then I won't say it anymore.

19 MR. DEPP: Sorry becomes -- it almost has no
20 meaning.

21 MS. HEARD: Right. Then I won't say it
22 anymore.

1 MR. DEPP: And you're being defensive. You're 2 picking out things to -- to fucking hit back with in
3 your own way right now. So what's it -- what are you
4 going to be like with a counselor? Is it -- is it --
5 like am I -- is that a dream -- am I dreaming? Or is 6 that just something that you'd like to do, but you --
7 you worry about me running away, but yet you're the one
8 who gets heated up.

9 MS. HEARD: We both get heated.

10 MR. DEPP: I was not heated just now.

11 MS. HEARD: No. You weren't just now.

12 MR. DEPP: I don't think I've been heated the 13 majority of this conversation.

14 MS. HEARD: Oh, good.

15 MR. DEPP: I don't want that. If you love me,
16 I'll try. I love you, I'll try. I mean if you love me,
17 you'll try. And if I love you, I'll try. That's about 18 the most we can give one another right now.

19 MS. HEARD: Yeah. Let's just see what happens.

20 MR. DEPP: You can be fatalistic about it if 21 you want. That's -- that's also --

22 MS. HEARD: I didn't meant to be.

1 MR. DEPP: -- a waste of time.

2 MS. HEARD: I just feel stupid for trying to
3 be earnest. It's like any time I am, it's like you're a
4 fucking animal. You know, like you fuckin' smell
5 weakness. And as soon as I am humble and earnest, and 6 go, okay, I'm sorry or whatever, that's when you get
7 fuckin', you know, you get something from it. And then
8 you start going mean. And then you start saying
9 insulting things.

10 MR. DEPP: I'm not being mean.

11 MS. HEARD: And then you start, you know,
12 really -- you can't resist rubbing someone's nose in it
13 once they say, sorry I did that. You just like, you
14 can't -- it's like a scab you can't help but pick. You
15 going to like -- it's like you get something from it.

16 So I won't say sorry anymore. I won't be 17 earnest anymore. Like I was trying to be humble. I
18 thought it would work for us because ego, pompous,
19 fucking attitude's don't really work so well for us. So
20 I was actually trying to say sorry. You're right.
21 Sorry. I was wrong. Sorry. What do I get for it?

22 MR. DEPP: All I said was if -- if sorry

1 becomes just a go to sort of thing to fix -- to patch
2 it up, to band aid it --

3 MS. HEARD: Heavens forbid, I try to band aid
4 this.

5 MR. DEPP: That it becomes almost meaningless
6 those words.

7 MS. HEARD: Mm-hmm. Yeah. Seems really
8 meaningless to try and fix something that's broken.
9 That's really meaningless, huh. Heavens forbid, I try
10 to fix it.

11 MR. DEPP: Just saying, it helps to mean them.

12 MS. HEARD: Who says I don't mean them? Only 13 you. Only you. So you know how I feel, how I think. You
14 know better. And you want to -- and you want to tell me
15 you're trying to be earnest and humble. Are you trying 16 at all to be earnest, and humble, and real, and 17 earnest?

18 Have you ever tried that in a fight when 19 you're hurt, when you're angry? Have you ever just 20 tried to be stronger than that shit and just be 21 earnest?

22 MR. DEPP: I do -- what do you think I've been

1 doing, insulting you? Is that insulting?

2 MS. HEARD: Heavens forbid, I try to put a
3 band aid. Don't you fucking give me shit about saying
4 sorry. As if that's a bad thing, as if band aids --

5 MR. DEPP: Listen --

6 MS. HEARD: Or -- or bad fucking thing. You
7 know what we need? We need that. We need humility. We 8 need fuckin' humility. We need to be able to say sorry
9 to each other.

10 MR. DEPP: Let me tell you something. If 11 you'll remember, couldn't have been even two weeks ago,
12 we had a talk where I said to you, listen, I feel like 13 I keep saying I'm sorry. I would say I'm sorry for 14 everything. I've been saying that since I was a kid,
15 just to fuckin' get through this shit. I'm sorry, I'm 16 sorry, I'm sorry, I'm sorry.

17 Even sometimes if you don't feel like you did
18 anything wrong. You just say, I'm sorry, to fuckin'
19 quash it, to quell it.

20 MS. HEARD: Mm-hmm.

21 MR. DEPP: You know?

22 MS. HEARD: Mm-hmm.

1 MR. DEPP: So I'm not, you know, haranguing
2 you, or -- or -- or -- or fuckin' attacking you. I'm
3 just explaining to you, to me, from my perspective.
4 It's not just your sorries. It's my sorries too.
5 Because they happen a lot. Because we fight a lot.

6 So if -- like it's always just I'm sorry. You
7 know, I -- I love you can be said easily with the 8 mouth. But you going to know what's -- you going to see
9 what's happening inside. You going to be able to look
10 into those eyes. Or you going to be able to feel it.
11 But that's all I'm saying. I was not attacking you.

12 It's -- it's -- it's -- and matter of fact,
13 look, that's for both of us. That's for both of us.
14 Because I don't want to have to say I'm sorry, if I --
15 if I feel like I didn't do anything. And I don't want
16 to have to say I'm sorry all the time because --

17 MS. HEARD: Then don't.

18 MR. DEPP: Huh?

19 MS. HEARD: Then don't. Don't say you're 20 sorry. That's what we need. We need a real grown up
21 relationship where we don't have to say sorry to each
22 other when they -- when you hurt the other. That's

1 going to fix this. Of all the fuckin' things you take
2 from this --

3 MR. DEPP: No.

4 MS. HEARD: -- what you really walk away with 5 --

6 MR. DEPP: No.

7 MS. HEARD: -- is that?

8 MR. DEPP: No. Listen to me, please. What I'm 9 saying is, I'm sorry doesn't need to be tossed around 10 like it's the only thing that's going to get us out of 11 this. That's not going to do it --

12 MS. HEARD: Who said it was the only thing
13 that would get us out of this? Who said it's as simple
14 as a sorry? Who said that's all we're going to do?

15 MR. DEPP: I think we have to be honest. The 16 sorry can come later. Explain yourself. I'll explain
17 myself and say, look, I feel fucked over about this, or 18 I feel bummed about this. You say, look at, that was 19 really rude, you know, whate- -- blah, blah, blah. Then 20 --

21 MS. HEARD: You'll freak out.

22 MR. DEPP: You're predicting the future.

1 MS. HEARD: You're right. Last night I
2 couldn't have said anything. I wish I could.
3 Impossible. You would have fuckin' attacked me. You
4 would have fuckin' defended it, attacked me. The only
5 thing that really -- you would never have thought --
6 [inaudible] don't hold your -- no one holds you
7 accountable. You don't hold yourself accountable. Never 8 ever do.

9 You want to complain about having said sorry
10 too much, yet I actually feel like you attack more than 11 you say sorry. And if you ever have to say sorry, you
12 fucking lose it. I don't know what this obsession is 13 about not saying sorry. But if this is your ego
14 talking, then protect your ego, be with yourself. But 15 that just seems like ego to me.

16 MR. DEPP: You missed my point, altogether.

17 MS. HEARD: What would have really been great 18 yesterday is a sor- -- is a sorry. And so if your big 19 point is that we shouldn't have to say it and don't -- 20 we shouldn't say it, it's like how is that going to 21 help us? Yesterday you would have never thought, I'm 22 really sorry.

1 But yet if you had actually tried to change
2 how you saw, change your perspective and thought, I
3 want to take care of this person and not this person,
4 if you had thought that, you would have said sorry. You
5 might not have had the instinct to think that I was 6 right. But now in retrospect you know that I was right.
7 You know that I had the right -- that it was fair. Yes.

8 MR. DEPP: I walked into the room saying how 9 damn fuckin' Isaac --

10 MS. HEARD: It's not sorry.

11 MR. DEPP: -- talked my --

12 MS. HEARD: There's a difference.

13 MR. DEPP: I -- was I -- was I being 14 aggressive?

15 MS. HEARD: There's a difference. It's not a 16 sorry. There's a difference. One cares for me. The 17 other is you .

18 MR. DEPP: What I'm saying is --

19 MS. HEARD: If we need less of that in our 20 relationship, then you and I are totally talking
21 different languages and this is a waste.

22 MR. DEPP: No. I'm sorry is an after the fact

1 thing. Explain ourselves honestly and to the point,
2 without freaking out. And then I understand more of 3 what you're really upset about. And then I could say,
4 fuck, I'm sorry. Now I really understand.

5 But had I said sorry last night, you -- you --
6 you weren't going to -- I -- I mean, I -- I -- I'd bet
7 fuckin' dollars to donuts you weren't going to turn
8 around and say, it's okay, baby, I understand. For sure
9 not.

10 MS. HEARD: [inaudible]

11 MR. DEPP: I -- I'm -- I'm saying, it's -- if 12 I was at the track, I'd be putting all my money on 13 that.

14 MS. HEARD: Okay. But you should try it once.
15 You don't ever act like your humble. You don't -- 16 you're always defensive. You're always on the --

17 MR. DEPP: What did you say about me earlier?
18 You said I was the most kind --

19 MS. HEARD: Kind heart ever --

20 MR. DEPP: -- hearted, caring --

21 MS. HEARD: That's if you're not wrong. And if 22 you haven't done something wrong, you have this bad boy

1 complex, like a mom bad boy complex. As soon as you
2 feel like you fucked up, your -- I've never seen
3 anything like it.

4 MR. DEPP: You're going to include the dad in 5 there too, because he -- he -- he got me pretty good as 6 well.

7 MS. HEARD: It's like this -- this allergy to 8 being -- to doing anything wrong, if you were seen in a
9 bad light. And I'm not even saying you're a bad boy.
10 I'm not saying --

11 MR. DEPP: It's not about doing anything wrong
12 [inaudible] fucked with.

13 MS. HEARD: Yeah. But I'm not fucking with you
14 by saying, hey man, I've been waiting for you, you've 15 been a long time, and you could've just let me know,
16 could've texted me, whatever. That's not being fucked
17 with. But you see it that way.

18 MR. DEPP: That's --

19 MS. HEARD: That's the real issue.

20 MR. DEPP: That's not --

21 MS. HEARD: That's a big picture issue.

22 MR. DEPP: That is not the way it was

1 approached by you last night. It wasn't.

2 MS. HEARD: I didn't approach it last night
3 like that. Because I can't approach it. If I ever say
4 these things to you, you immediately -- like this is
5 what I'm talking about, you go into this ego driven,
6 protect your own self, defend yourself, I didn't do
7 anything wrong, fuck you, I'm tired of being wrong all
8 the time, I hate this, you know, kind of thing.

9 MR. DEPP: And that's what you were doing as 10 well.

11 MS. HEARD: Yeah.

12 MR. DEPP: That's exactly what you were doing
13 as well, if that's what you think.

14 MS. HEARD: Yeah.

15 MR. DEPP: It's true. It's fuckin' true.

16 MS. HEARD: Yeah.

17 MR. DEPP: Yeah. You were protecting your ego
18 because you didn't want to fuckin' say nothing
19 [inaudible]

20 MS. HEARD: Oh yeah. I was. I actually was 21 protecting my ego. I told you why. I told you why I did
22 that that way. I didn't want to do that. I didn't want

1 to internalize it, and be fucked over, and try to fall
2 asleep desperately, force yourself to sleep so you
3 don't confront the person you're supposed to be friends
4 with, for fear of -- knowledge of them not actually
5 saying I care about you.

6 I'm sorry I hurt your feelings, and not
7 hearing fuck about your feelings, and only caring about 8 themselves and whether they're right or wrong, whether 9 they're right specifically. Not a bad boy, they're not 10 a fuck up. So they can't do anything wrong. How dare
11 you fucking criticize me.

12 MR. DEPP: It's always like that?

13 MS. HEARD: I can't ever -- you want honesty,
14 but then when I'm honest with you and say, like what,
15 we're going to a party now? Why didn't you tell me?
16 That's fucking rude. I can't be mad. I can't -- I can't 17 get mad at you? You can't do anything wrong. I mean
18 it's just --

19 MR. DEPP: [inaudible] feel the way you do. I
20 am -- I am truly sorry. Because clearly I have had some 21 -- something to do with it, you know. Made you mad. I'm 22 sorry for that. [inaudible]. [inaudible].

1 MR. DEPP: What would you like to do, Amber?

2 MS. HEARD: [inaudible]

3 MR. DEPP: Mm-hmm.

4 MS. HEARD: [inaudible] security, safety
5 [inaudible]. I want them back. The ones I've destroyed
6 and the ones you've destroyed. The ones we've 7 destroyed. [inaudible] I want to know that marriage is 8 sacred. I want to know --

9 MR. DEPP: The marriage is sacred.

10 MS. HEARD: I want a few things. And I want to 11 make promises to the other. I want promises because I
12 need the safety, I need security. I need the safety
13 back. I used to feel safe with you. You know?
14 [inaudible] through phases and I can sometimes 15 [inaudible] feel safe. [inaudible] that song.

16 MR. DEPP: Mmm.

17 MS. HEARD: You have stripped me down and 18 shaved my head. And I've done the same probably to you,
19 you would say. Right? And now we're both here. And I
20 want to -- want some of the safety back. I want to make 21 the commitment again. I want to -- I want to -- and I
22 want to have a reason to honor it, you know?

1 Like there's no point in honoring it if you
2 think the other one's just going to fuckin' take off,
3 throw the ring at you, you know? There's no point in 4 keeping a boundary if you think you're going to be hit
5 or if they're going to just fuckin' run. You know,
6 either way.

7 For this to work, I want -- for -- for me, I
8 want -- I want -- I want us to make promises and keep 9 them to each other. And I want to get help to know how 10 we fight. I mean to -- to get help fighting. I think
11 it's always bigger issues. And we have the -- we don't 12 have the ability to bring it up safely to the other.

13 I want you to always be honest with me. I want 14 you to always be honest with me. And I want to be able 15 to take criticism and help make myself be somebody that 16 fits in your life the same way as I want you to want to 17 fit in my life.

18 You know, I was saying in Brazil about coming
19 back for the test is just I -- it is a -- I want to be 20 as important to you as you are to me. And sometimes 21 it's inconvenient to fly when you want to leave. So I
22 don't like flying in the middle of the night. But I do

1 it, you know?

2 Sometimes it's inconvenient. I'm missing work
3 or I'm missing this. I mean look at me, I haven't
4 worked since February.

5 MR. DEPP: [inaudible]

6 MS. HEARD: Depressed [inaudible]

7 MR. DEPP: Five movies coming out -- oh no,
8 you have [inaudible]

9 MS. HEARD: I have just one. Danish Girl. The 10 thing is, I have -- it's inconvenient, but I -- I do it
11 because I -- I love you. And I want to do it. I want to 12 make my life fit into yours. What I was saying on the 13 plane was just that, hey, can you motivate to make this 14 not stressful for me. And that didn't happen.

15 And -- and then when the -- when the plane was 16 two and a half hours late, which was out of your 17 control, and the car was two hours late, out of your
18 control, it really -- it really -- I barely got there
19 in time. And didn't have time to shower, do any of the 20 things that were comfortable, that I needed to feel 21 comfortable, and okay, and calm, and safe. I didn't 22 have that. Not --

1 MR. DEPP: I got you a hotel.

2 MS. HEARD: But those two -- yes, you did. And
3 you helped me with my lines. And in that -- that last
4 day, you were wonderful. Once we were on the plane, you
5 were so supportive. The problem is, it would have been
6 -- it would have meant a lot to me to have had an hour
7 shaved off the time we spent in the party -- or 8 whatever.

9 I didn't want to take the event from you. I
10 didn't want to take the after party from you. I have 11 been 100 percent on your arm and at your side. But I
12 just wanted a little compromise, a little, okay, it's 13 annoying, but let's go a little earlier, whatever. And 14 you did end up coming through. But it was so late, it
15 was too late, like we literally left -- we -- we didn't 16 leave any time for fuck ups, like out of our control
17 fuck ups. We didn't leave time for that.

18 And all I was saying, it wasn't a criticism,
19 it wasn't even a -- I was saying, I just want to know
20 that I'm -- that that's not like a reflection of me
21 being not important. I -- I'm -- it's insecure
22 [inaudible] blamed it on me. I said it's [inaudible]

1 sorry, I'm talking about a specific fight. I'm sorry.
2 I'm sorry.

3 MR. DEPP: [inaudible]

4 MS. HEARD: I want to get help and learn how
5 to fight about these things so we're not fighting about
6 the same shit over and over again.

7 MR. DEPP: Yeah.

8 MS. HEARD: And I want us to make promises to 9 each other that we keep boundaries.

10 MR. DEPP: We don't -- look, I didn't say -- I
11 didn't say divorce last night.

12 MS. HEARD: No. You didn't.

13 MR. DEPP: I did not say divorce last night.

14 MS. HEARD: No. You did not.

15 MR. DEPP: You said divorce last night.

16 MS. HEARD: I said breakup. Yeah.

17 MR. DEPP: No. You said divorce. You actually
18 said the word divorce. I'm sorry [inaudible]

19 MS. HEARD: It's just I -- I don't remember --
20 I'm not being dishonest.

21 MR. DEPP: No. I --

22 MS. HEARD: That's where you need to slow

1 down. You don't have to attack my character just
2 because I didn't remember one word.

3 MR. DEPP: I was not attacking your character.

4 MS. HEARD: Insinuating I'm not honest is an
5 insult to my character.

6 MR. DEPP: No. I said, I'm sorry, I just want
7 to be honest. You didn't remember saying that. I'm not
8 saying you're a liar. You said --

9 MS. HEARD: Then what does honesty have to do
10 with it. Why -- why -- you're insinuating I'm not being 11 honest. I want you to be -- oh, you mean being honest
12 with me.

13 MR. DEPP: I said, I just -- yeah.

14 MS. HEARD: Okay.

15 MR. DEPP: I want to be honest.

16 MS. HEARD: Okay. I want you to be honest.

17 MR. DEPP: And I want to be honest with the 18 fucking shrink if we see one.

19 MS. HEARD: We -- it -- if you want to do this 20 marriage thing, if you want to make this work, if you
21 don't -- if you want me in your life, then we do. We 22 have to see somebody. We have to get help.

1 MR. DEPP: I'm not disagreeing with you. I --
2 I absolutely agree. But you -- you do have to see, like
3 all -- all I was saying is I want to be honest. And 4 then you jumped and said, I'm calling you dishonest.
5 That was not the case.

6 MS. HEARD: Okay. All right.

7 MR. DEPP: Okay?

8 MS. HEARD: I get it. I'm glad you explained.
9 It sounded like you were insinuating I wasn't. Thank 10 you for explaining.

11 MR. DEPP: Sure. That's how the shit starts,
12 you know. If I did that to you, or you did that to me.

13 MS. HEARD: Well, that did happen. And we 14 handled it okay.

15 MR. DEPP: Yeah. Of course. We got through it.
16 We've gotten through worse. We have gotten through 17 worse where they were about to start and fuckin' get 18 crazy. And they -- and we talked ourselves down. I
19 don't [inaudible] with us. I want -- I want your 20 friendship. I want us to be happy. I want us to love
21 each other at all times.

22 Of course there's going to be fights here and

1 there. But we don't ever need to go where we've gone
2 again. We really just don't. And -- and I've love to 3 put everything behind us and just start out fresh and 4 new. As better people, as more understanding people. So
5 that we do have a shot at making it and staying
6 together.

7 You need another water?

8 MS. HEARD: Do you want anything?

9 MR. DEPP: No. I'm good. Thank you.

10 MS. HEARD: There's a water if you want it.

11 MR. DEPP: Thank you.

12 MR. DEPP: I called Dr. [inaudible] asking
13 about someone.

14 MS. HEARD: I have someone that [inaudible] we 15 could talk to, that I reached out to, and --

16 MR. DEPP: It's someone you've been to before.

17 MS. HEARD: No, no. Never met her.

18 MR. DEPP: Cool.

19 MS. HEARD: Just somebody that came -- that 20 came recommended. And we could also take the 21 suggestions from Kipper [ph]. But there's also that Amy
22 Banks lady [inaudible]

1 MR. DEPP: I know, but that's --

2 MS. HEARD: -- dynamic book on like the
3 chemical workings of the brain and how it affects
4 people in a relationship.

5 MR. DEPP: [inaudible]

6 MS. HEARD: Yes, but it's not here.

7 MR. DEPP: It might be. I don't know
8 [inaudible]

9 MS. HEARD: I'm not talking about the book.

10 MR. DEPP: Oh. Then what? What?

11 MS. HEARD: I'm saying your reservations about 12 her are because she's --

13 MR. DEPP: Oh. It's not necessarily
14 reservations. I just -- I -- I didn't get the feeling
15 that she -- she was interested in doing that when I
16 spoke to her.

17 MS. HEARD: No. She [inaudible]

18 MR. DEPP: She [inaudible] separate -- she 19 wanted to speak to us separately.

20 MS. HEARD: She wanted to get to know us. She 21 was -- she asked specifically, do you want this to be -

1 MR. DEPP: Well, then let's [inaudible] get
2 her fuckin' --

3 MS. HEARD: We need somebody in person, I
4 think, so. That's what I'm saying.

5 MR. DEPP: Oh, you think we need someone in 6 person.

7 MS. HEARD: Don't you?

8 MR. DEPP: I -- I would think so, yeah. But I
9 mean, that -- that lady [inaudible] Amy Banks. And we 10 both trust her. You read her book. I -- I -- you know,
11 if we get a fuckin', you know, Skype or whatever with 12 her on a fuckin' screen like that, it wouldn't be so
13 bad. [inaudible] computer screen, it can be a little,
14 you know, distracting.

15 MS. HEARD: Do you want me to tell [inaudible]

16 MR. DEPP: Sorry?

17 MS. HEARD: Do you need me to tell you I love
18 you?

19 MR. DEPP: I love you too. I love you too. I
20 love you more than anything in the world [inaudible].
21 I've told you this. The last thing fuckin' thing that I
22 want to do in this world is -- is -- is to let my woman

1 down. And especially if it feels to me like I do it all
2 the time. It's a horrible feeling.

3 MS. HEARD: I'm sorry you feel horrible all
4 the time.

5 MR. DEPP: I don't feel horrible all the time.
6 Did I just say that?

7 MS. HEARD: Well, you said that you feel like
8 it all the time. That you fuck up all the time.

9 MR. DEPP: Sorry. Okay. I didn't -- let's take 10 out all the time. I'm sorry. It -- it -- it -- the last 11 thing I want to do is let you down ever. And it just 12 seems like I do more than --

13 MS. HEARD: More what?

14 MR. DEPP: More than should be normal, I
15 think.

16 MS. HEARD: You just can't be like wrong. Or 17 normally can't do anything -- I can't tell you -- we're 18 two people trying to fit together. Our lives are trying 19 to fit together. And if you do something, and you don't 20 ever change it, like being in your fucking in your own
21 world and then not realizing, because you're absent
22 minded, that two hours have passed, and someone's

1 waiting on you.

2 That shit is something you do all -- you do it
3 very often. And if you never change it, of course I'm
4 going to say to you, it still bothers me. Because you
5 still do it. But yet if I don't say anything, I'm 6 fucked. If I do say something, I'm fucked, I'm the bad
7 guy, and you're feeling bad.

8 And yet you can't just say, I'm sorry. Because 9 then it's -- your ego doesn't allow it, or because it
10 doesn't protect you. But -- but we -- that could be 11 normal. You say it's more than -- happens more than 12 normal. Normal is being two people that allow each 13 other that.

14 MR. DEPP: Yeah.

15 MS. HEARD: Am I wrong?

16 MR. DEPP: No. Not wrong. I was only saying
17 that leading in, is I'm sorry, and sometimes you take 18 away from the words that come after. That sorry can 19 start to be just a [inaudible]. I don't want to be like
20 that.

21 MS. HEARD: Nor do I. I want honesty. And if 22 you cannot actually put yourself in someone else's

1 shoes, even though your inability to do so is ruining
2 your marriage, then I don't know what we'll do. If you
3 can't look at this and say, how would I feel if I were 4 her, ever, we'll keep having this. You won't be sorry.
5 You'll just feel like you're obligated to say it.

6 But if you put yourself in my shoes last
7 night, you would have -- you would have felt bad. You
8 would -- if you put -- if we switched places, and you
9 didn't automatically in your brain go, well, she does
10 that, just to deflect and bounce off the blame. If you
11 actually put yourself in my shoes, you'd -- you would 12 understand. And you wouldn't be forced to say sorry.

13 You would be like, yeah, that -- I wouldn't 14 want to be that. I -- that would suck. We need to --

15 MR. DEPP: [inaudible]

16 MS. HEARD: We need to fix it --

17 MR. DEPP: You just sat here and threw all the 18 blame on me.

19 MS. HEARD: No. I -- I did not mean to. I'm --

20 MR. DEPP: We're going to listen to the tape.

21 MS. HEARD: I'm sorry that it -- oh, can't say
22 sorry.

1 MR. DEPP: You can say you're sorry.

2 MS. HEARD: I don't feel like I can.

3 MR. DEPP: Of course you can. Just please
4 explain. Explain.

5 MS. HEARD: I went -- I went there because I -
6 - I was feeling like criticized for having the gall to 7 be upset with you more than once. It's like I keep
8 telling you, it's the same thing. You just don't change
9 it or address it. So it does come up, yes.

10 But it's not a character flaw. It's not like 11 I'm like I don't like you. I'm just saying, hey, that 12 bum- -- that -- that was rude [inaudible] sad or 13 whatever. You -- I don't feel like you're saying to me
14 ever in our life. Yeah, I can imagine if I were you.
15 I'm sorry. Or whatever it is. Not sorry. But you know,
16 understanding, the humility, humble, the earnest,
17 caring about me.

18 MR. DEPP: I said all that tonight or today. I
19 said all of it today.

20 MS. HEARD: I hate that we've been fighting
21 today. And I hate fighting with you ever. I want to 22 stop. I want to get better. And we need to be able to

1 have problems though in our life. Like we're not
2 [inaudible] be perfect.

3 MR. DEPP: Of course, but --

4 MS. HEARD: And I've said this a thousand
5 times to you, let's allow each other to be -- to fuck
6 up. Let's allow each other to like be human, and say
7 sorry, and move on, and hear the other one without 8 trying to jump.

9 MR. DEPP: Let's -- let's -- let's also let 10 the other person be the other person, that are --

11 MS. HEARD: I'm not preventing you from being 12 who you are when I am honest with you, which is what 13 you say you want --

14 MR. DEPP: That's what I want --

15 MS. HEARD: -- which is that affects me when 16 you just fuck off for this long and don't even text.
17 That affected me. And yet now you want to make it like
18 I'm trying to prevent you from being who you are. If I
19 did that shit, you would be hurt.

20 MR. DEPP: I'm not -- I didn't say that you
21 were guilty of it as well, or I mean, that I was guilty
22 of it as well. Those kind of things, it's not going to

1 do us any favors, that shit.

2 MS. HEARD: What shit?

3 MR. DEPP: To -- to -- to -- to -- to -- to --
4 rattle each other's cages and not --

5 MS. HEARD: Baby, be present. You're not --
6 that's not -- I was talking about something. Can you
7 please respond to that. Please.

8 MR. DEPP: What did I say wrong?

9 MS. HEARD: It's not wrong. Can you please
10 respond to what I'm -- I'm -- I'm saying?

11 MR. DEPP: Maybe I missed the question. Give 12 me the question again.

13 MS. HEARD: Every time we say to each other,
14 we're going to allow each other this, we're going to 15 allow each other to fuck up, we're going to, you know,
16 be human.

17 And -- and you said, well and just like maybe
18 allow each other -- allow the other one to be 19 themselves. And I said, wait a second, come on, we're 20 talking about last night.

21 I did not prevent you, me making a request of 22 you or being honest with you about how I felt is not

1 preventing you from being who you are. It's not. That's
2 -- that is you shirking responsibility for having done
3 something that's not really cool. You -- it was -- it
4 wasn't a big deal. And it could have been not a big
5 deal at all.

6 But you like fundamentally just it's like you
7 can't take any responsibility [inaudible] why can't you
8 just say -- or why can't you actually -- imagine how 9 you would feel if the table were turned and you were in 10 the other person's -- that's what we need.

11 We don't need this fuckin' rule of can't say
12 sorry, or you have to say sorry a certain way, and it's 13 too over- -- we need sorry. We need humility. We need 14 love. We need to care about the other person more than 15 our fucking selves.

16 MR. DEPP: I don't disagree. Again, the sorry
17 thing was more about being able to -- being able to say
18 how you feel before saying I'm sorry.

19 Let me say what I feel. Let me hear what you
20 feel. And if I'm wrong and if I've been a dick, the 21 fuckin' I am sorry. But -- but I -- I'm sorry shouldn't 22 be --

1 MS. HEARD: I can't --

2 MR. DEPP: -- just a go to thing before we
3 explain ourselves.

4 MS. HEARD: I can't rely on you going and 5 actually realizing --

6 MR. DEPP: Well, it's not because --

7 MS. HEARD: -- that you're sorry. Like you
8 won't ever think you're --

9 MR. DEPP: Everything that you --

10 MS. HEARD: -- you won't ever think you're 11 responsible. I know your personality. And you'll never 12 think you're responsible. You'll automatically throw 13 the blame. So if the rule is --

14 MR. DEPP: Amber, you -- you do know that 15 that's what you do.

16 MS. HEARD: Yet I say sorry all the time.
17 That's weird.

18 MR. DEPP: So do I.

19 MS. HEARD: No, you don't.

20 MR. DEPP: I had a talk with you about I felt
21 like I was saying it too much. We had a talk about it.

22 MS. HEARD: I feel like that [inaudible]

1 MR. DEPP: Yes. I -- that's -- that's where I
2 got the shit from.

3 But in my lifetime, I, you know, my life
4 before you, that was not the fuckin' case, you know.
5 I'm only saying that the truth of what we feel is more
6 important to hear from each other than I'm sorry.

7 Unless you're just coming into this saying --
8 and saying, look, I'm sorry, this is how I felt, I was 9 wrong, bang. You know? I'm not saying [inaudible]

10 MS. HEARD: Do you actually think you'll be 11 able to -- do you actually think you'll ever be able to 12 in the moment, when someone says to you, you did
13 something that affects me negatively, do you actually 14 think that you'll be able to transcend your immediate 15 impulse to just fight back and -- and the one, the 16 impulse, your immediate impulse that you've had since 17 you were a kid you say, you really think you can 18 transcend that and then go -- and actually listen to 19 me, for instance, say how I feel?

20 Do you act- -- do you actually -- I mean do
21 you think that?

22 MR. DEPP: Yeah. But you don't believe me, so.

1 MS. HEARD: I would -- I would love that to
2 happen. And I think if you can do that, I -- I would do
3 it.

4 MR. DEPP: Okay.

5 MS. HEARD: I would love it if, you know.
6 Can't keep fighting about the same shit. I'm so sick of 7 revisiting every fight we've ever had. I think you're 8 right. I think we going to move forward and start over.
9 Are you okay? And you going to be able to let it go
10 too.

11 MS. HEARD: [inaudible]

12 MR. DEPP: Can you see me as [inaudible] can 13 you see me as your friend.

14 MS. HEARD: What?

15 MR. DEPP: If you -- if you -- let's trust a
16 lot of my -- what my reactions are going to be. Do you
17 love me as a man? Do you love me as your husband, as 18 the man who signed up to spend the rest of his life
19 with you?

20 It just doesn't sound like you trust me very 21 well. And my reactions are going to be fucked up and 22 that I've never said I'm sorry to you and --

1 MS. HEARD: I didn't say you never said it.

2 MR. DEPP: Okay, that I don't say I'm sorry to
3 you.

4 MS. HEARD: I certainly don't think you'll say
5 sorry to me like you think you will. I don't think 6 you'll mean it. I don't -- because I don't think you'll 7 say it unless you mean it.

8 And I don't think you'll mean it. And then I
9 think sometimes you say sorry and you don't mean it, as 10 you admitted to me earlier in a different fight, of 11 course.

12 And that made me feel like you're dishonest.
13 So I don't want that either. So I don't know what the 14 fuck. Because I certainly don't think that you'll be 15 able to see if I, God forbid, if I get upset with you
16 for something. I get hurt.

17 If you do something that hurts me, because 18 you're just not thinking or whatever it is, God forbid,
19 if I have to deal with it.

20 I don't know what I'll do. I don't know how to 21 say it to you. You won't be okay. You won't -- the 22 first thing you're going to do is be defensive.

1 And -- and -- and I -- I'm not trying to
2 predict the future. I'm not trying to be discouraging.
3 But I don't know what the fuck is going to change, you
4 know?

5 I came over here to say, what are we going to 6 fuckin' do different. And I just feel like --

7 MR. DEPP: Feel like what?

8 MS. HEARD: I don't know. I don't know.

9 MR. DEPP: Well, then that's something you
10 have to think about.

11 MS. HEARD: I -- I -- I came over here, and do
12 you remember how I started this conversation. Do you
13 remember me telling you I loved you?

14 MR. DEPP: Yes.

15 MS. HEARD: Do you remember me telling you you
16 were my man?

17 MR. DEPP: Yes.

18 MS. HEARD: And that I can't imagine my life
19 without you.

20 MR. DEPP: Yes. Do you remember me saying it
21 back?

22 MS. HEARD: Yes. When I asked you about living

1 your life with me, you said yes. You took a while, and
2 you kind of begrudgingly said yes.

3 MR. DEPP: I gave you a weird look like a --
4 the kind of -- what -- why -- why would I have fuckin'
5 married you.

6 MS. HEARD: Yes.

7 MR. DEPP: I -- I love you. Deeply. I love you
8 passionately. I love you in every fucking way, in every 9 fucking way. And it hurts to -- to -- to feel like I'm 10 letting you down.

11 Because I don't -- because I don't want to do
12 that. And -- and I know it hurts when we get in a big 13 one, and I start calling you names, and you start
14 calling me names.

15 And, you know, and one of them, it was me more
16 than -- doing more of the name calling. So the only 17 fuckin' reason to ever, ever think about any of the 18 fights again is as a reminder, and that's it. I really,
19 really wish we could get there.

20 I'm sorry for last night. I'm sorry that I was 21 at Isaac's for so long. Couldn't get out.

22 MS. HEARD: Could've just been so simple. You

1 know? Small.

2 MR. DEPP: Totally.

3 MS. HEARD: I have the right to get mad at
4 you.

5 MR. DEPP: You -- of course you do.

6 MS. HEARD: It's going to happen. I'm a human.
7 You're a human. We live together. I'm a woman. I'm your
8 woman. I'm going to get mad at you. I'm telling you
9 now, I'm going to get mad at you.

10 There are going to be things you -- you --
11 that you -- it's like you use it as an excuse to -- to 12 say, fuckin', you know, that you're in a bad situation,
13 and you don't -- can't do it anymore, and you can't
14 always let me down.

15 And you grand -- you make it this grandiose
16 thing, like this big negative grandiose thing, where if 17 I say one thing to you, it's like you're always -- like 18 I'm always letting me down.

19 And you can't be in the situation you're 20 always letting me down. And it's not fair to me. It
21 makes me so I can't say -- we can't have normal
22 interactions. Like normal fights. Normal problems.

1 I want you to be able to do the same with me,
2 without me freaking out, thinking this is it, you know?
3 Which is where my head, you know, went yesterday.

4 MR. DEPP: Yeah. Of course. In those
5 situations it's pretty easy. I [inaudible] with that
6 shit. I just -- just think that we can try with a 7 counselor. Whether you want to do this lady that's in 8 town or whoever it is, I'm in. If you want to do what's 9 her face with the book, Amy -- Amy whatever her name
10 is. Banks. We'll do it with her.

11 If you want -- whatever, man. I -- I'm -- I'm 12 prepared. I don't want to be unhappy, no more than you
13 do. So why shouldn't we try to fix it.

14 MS. HEARD: We need boundaries.

15 MR. DEPP: I agree. And -- and remember when 16 we were talking and I said, you know what we should do,
17 write down on a piece of paper our -- our things. Kind 18 of [inaudible] each other the --

19 MS. HEARD: Sorry, excuse me.

20 MR. DEPP: Want some paper?

21 MS. HEARD: Yes.

22 MR. DEPP: It's not here.

1 MS. HEARD: No?

2 MR. DEPP: Nope. It's not here. [inaudible]
3 write on this. What is this? Okay.

4 MS. HEARD: [inaudible]

5 MR. DEPP: [inaudible] what are you -- I mean
6 you can do the list all right now. That's what you
7 want.

8 MS. HEARD: No. This is to be off limits.
9 Divorce. That's on my list. You can never ever throw it
10 around. That's on my list.

11 MR. DEPP: I haven't.

12 MS. HEARD: I -- I'm not saying you -- I'm not 13 saying you did. I'm -- I'm saying it's on my list. And 14 it's one I fucked up last night.

15 MR. DEPP: Okay.

16 MS. HEARD: So this is -- I'm being impartial
17 here.

18 MR. DEPP: Okay, cool.

19 MS. HEARD: That is a must for me.

20 MR. DEPP: I don't want a divorce.

21 MS. HEARD: Yeah. But I want to feel safe. I
22 want to feel safe. I fucking don't feel it. I don't

1 feel safe. I don't feel -- I'm looking at fucking
2 apartments half the time. I mean like not half the 3 time. I fuckin' -- I don't want to do that. I'm 4 married.

5 MR. DEPP: I wish you would've told me.

6 MS. HEARD: I couldn't. I couldn't talk to 7 you. You were busy. You were going to rehearsals.

8 And every time I tried to talk to you a little 9 bit, I wasn't -- we didn't have enough time. You were -
10 - every time I spoke to you in that whole week you were 11 rushing out. Never did you have time. And I even said
12 this to you.

13 MR. DEPP: [inaudible] I was there right after 14 rehearsals.

15 MS. HEARD: Please don't argue with me. I
16 promise you that I'm not lying when I say this. I even 17 said this to you. I said, I feel like the last thing
18 you have time for is me. I just want a little time, 10
19 minutes, whatever.

20 And it was -- didn't have time. I was -- and 21 then when I -- when I finally talked to you, which I
22 carried it around all week, and when I finally talked

1 to you, I said this to you. Remember when we talked
2 that night, Whitney's birthday?

3 MR. DEPP: Yeah. Yeah, I did -- I didn't want
4 to [inaudible]

5 MS. HEARD: That night that we had that talk.
6 And you apologized.

7 MR. DEPP: Yeah.

8 MS. HEARD: We got married so that there would 9 be safety, so that there was a foundation. And it's all 10 fuckin' pointless. I'd rather take off my ring now and 11 fuckin' live my life, and just say how it go -- see how 12 it goes, than to continue in this fucking forced thing,
13 where we every single time go I don't want this
14 anymore.

15 It's like -- it's like every time it gets 16 hard. We didn't write vows. We didn't, you know, get 17 around to doing the important shit, which is like, you
18 know, fuckin' fighting for the wedding I fuckin' made
19 happen. No. We didn't do that. We didn't say to each 20 other, I up and down, low and high, tough and easy,
21 both.

22 We didn't say that to each other, but we need

1 to. It's going to be sacred. There's no point in being
2 married. We -- there's -- I don't get anything from 3 this. You don't get anything from this. And what --
4 why? Safety.

5 For the -- a foundation, for the home. We burn
6 it to the ground every time we fight. And I know you
7 didn't do it this time.

1 every day. 04:27:37

2 Q So is it your understanding that the 04:27:38

3 finger incident happened at the same time as the 04:27:40

4 dog incident in which the dogs were illegally in 04:27:43

5 Australia? 04:27:46

6 A I believe it was before that -- 04:27:48

7 Q All right. 04:27:50

8 A -- and that's where I was trying to 04:27:50

9 come up with a timeline, and there was so much 04:27:52

10 that was said in that time. It was constant. So 04:27:55

11 that's where I've always said on dates I'm very -- 04:27:58

12 I'm just trying to be as honest and give you what 04:28:01

13 I know as I possibly can. So I don't know the 04:28:03

14 exact date. 04:28:06

15 Q So March of what year? 04:28:07

16 A It would be 2015. 04:28:13

17 Q Okay. Now, you also said that Whitney 04:28:15

18 gave you a blow-by-blow of how the finger was cut 04:28:21

19 off. 04:28:27

20 Do you recall saying that? 04:28:28

21 A Yes, ma'am. 04:28:30

22 Q So tell me exactly what Whitney said in 04:28:30

1 the blow-by-blow of how Amber cut off Johnny's 04:28:33
2 finger. 04:28:37
3 A She came back in from whoever she was 04:28:39
4 talking to out in the hall, she was still very 04:28:41
5 upset, and she was like, "She apparently threw a 04:28:44
6 bottle, his finger's off, and they rushed him 04:28:48
7 out." 04:28:51
8 She was in kind of a state of panic, to 04:28:52
9 be honest with you, because she was so upset and 04:28:54
10 didn't know what to do. And, yeah, I mean, that 04:28:56
11 would be what I'm saying the blow-by-blow that I 04:28:58
12 was referring to was. 04:29:01
13 Q So she said -- 04:29:02
14 (The Reporter clarified the record.) 04:29:10
15 BY MS. BREDEHOFT: 04:29:12
16 Q I just want to make sure I've got 04:29:12
17 exactly what you recall Whitney saying. 04:29:14
18 So she said, "So apparently she threw a 04:29:17
19 bottle"? 04:29:21
20 A (No verbal response.) 04:29:24
21 Q What else? 04:29:25
22 A And that it cut off his finger, and 04:29:25

1 firsthand, or what they thought or might have 04:32:24
2 heard from someone else? 04:32:28
3 MS. VASQUEZ: Objection. Compound. 04:32:30
4 Calls for speculation. Calls for hearsay. 04:32:31
5 THE WITNESS: The way it was told to 04:32:34
6 me, I assumed it was firsthand, but I do not know. 04:32:35
7 BY MS. BREDEHOFT: 04:32:41
8 Q Okay. And have we exhausted your 04:32:41
9 recollection about the cutting off the finger in 04:32:44
10 Australia? 04:32:47
11 A Yes, ma'am. My entire brain's 04:32:47
12 exhausted in general, so, yes, ma'am. 04:32:49
13 Q Okay. Now, you also said that there 04:32:55
14 was an incident in which Whitney said that Amber 04:32:57
15 threw a glass of wine at her, correct? 04:33:02
16 A Yes, ma'am. 04:33:06
17 Q And that was at the Tribeca Film 04:33:07
18 Festival? 04:33:10
19 A I believe so, yes, ma'am. 04:33:11
20 Q And do you recall which film was being 04:33:13
21 presented at the Tribeca Film Festival? 04:33:19
22 A I believe it was The Adderall Diaries, 04:33:22

1 yes, ma'am. 04:33:25

2 Q Which was James Franco with Amber, 04:33:25

3 correct? 04:33:28

4 A Yes, ma'am. 04:33:29

5 Q Okay. And what is it exactly that you 04:33:29

6 recall Whitney saying? 04:33:33

7 A She came back into the office. She 04:33:36

8 often sat in the chairs that I'm telling you 04:33:38

9 about, the black-and-white ones by the kitchen, 04:33:41

10 and she came back and she said that she and Amber 04:33:44

11 had gotten in a huge fight, and Amber threw a full 04:33:46

12 glass of red wine at her in an elevator. 04:33:49

13 Q And when did Whitney tell you that? 04:33:54

14 A It was, I believe, April-ish of that 04:33:57

15 year. That's usually whenever Tribeca is, so I'm 04:34:00

16 assuming around that time. 04:34:04

17 Q Do you recall what year? 04:34:06

18 A It would be, I think, 2015 as well. 04:34:08

19 Q Okay. And did Whitney tell you 04:34:17

20 anything else about that argument other than that 04:34:19

21 Amber threw a glass of red wine at her? 04:34:23

22 A No, ma'am. 04:34:28

1 witness's testimony. It's an improper 04:36:16
2 hypothetical. 04:36:21
3 THE WITNESS: Yes, ma'am. 04:36:21
4 BY MS. BREDEHOFT: 04:36:24
5 Q "Yes" in what way? 04:36:25
6 A I'm sorry, am I -- sorry, sorry, sorry, 04:36:28
7 sorry. I just said, "Yes, ma'am." 04:36:31
8 What was the last question? 04:36:32
9 Q Are you able to discern whether these 04:36:34
10 are just typical close-sister fights that happen 04:36:36
11 with close-aged sisters? 04:36:41
12 A I don't really know how to answer that. 04:36:48
13 She was confiding in me as a friend and talking to 04:36:49
14 me about her personal relationship, and I do not 04:36:53
15 have anyone a year and a half in age to me, so I 04:36:56
16 guess that's your point. 04:37:01
17 Q All right. Did Whitney tell you -- 04:37:02
18 ever tell you that she had been beaten by Amber? 04:37:05
19 A I mean, yes, would be the short answer 04:37:14
20 of that. 04:37:17
21 Q All right. Let's hear when 04:37:17
22 specifically. 04:37:20

1 A The way the stories went were that it 04:37:21
2 was her whole life. I can't give you specifics, 04:37:24
3 because, again, she was confiding into me -- 04:37:27
4 confiding in me while she lived there, and I 04:37:30
5 listened, and I do understand sibling 04:37:33
6 relationships because I'm close with my sisters 04:37:36
7 too. What she shared with me seemed very extreme 04:37:38
8 based on any experience I have in any friendships 04:37:41
9 or relationships I have. 04:37:45
10 Q All right. I want you to tell me 04:37:46
11 exactly what was said by Whitney that you 04:37:47
12 considered to be extreme, including when, what the 04:37:51
13 circumstances were, the best you can recall. 04:37:56
14 A Growing up, she said that they were 04:37:58
15 both pretty severely abused and that Amber would 04:38:00
16 take the brunt of it on her behalf and that she 04:38:03
17 always appreciated that, and that where she would 04:38:08
18 take the brunt of it, that when she got mad, 04:38:14
19 that-- I'm trying to articulate it in the best 04:38:17
20 and kindest way I can, because I have deep 04:38:20
21 sympathies for both of them from what Whitney 04:38:24
22 shared with me. 04:38:26

1 That their childhood was extremely 04:38:27
2 abusive, and where Amber would take up for her in 04:38:30
3 those abusive situations that happened to them, 04:38:34
4 that she would also then turn and direct her rage 04:38:36
5 on Whitney later. That's how it was told to me in 04:38:39
6 ways -- that's the best way I can communicate it. 04:38:43
7 Q So exactly what words did Whitney use 04:38:48
8 to describe how Amber directed the rage onto 04:38:51
9 Whitney? 04:38:55
10 A I mean, this was however long ago. She 04:38:58
11 lived with me for 11 months, and it was one story 04:39:01
12 after the next. While she was there, she just 04:39:03
13 kind of opened up to me. So I'm giving you a vast 04:39:06
14 generalization of all the stories, because I never 04:39:09
15 knew that however many years later I would have to 04:39:12
16 ever disclose any of this or share any of this. 04:39:17
17 Q Can you remember any specifics that 04:39:20
18 Whitney told you about Amber turning any type of 04:39:23
19 rage on her? 04:39:31
20 A I don't -- I mean, I don't want to 04:39:31
21 misstate specific incidences. Stuff that happened 04:39:33
22 with kids in high school on up. She said that it 04:39:36

1 MS. VASQUEZ: Objection. Assumes 04:44:40
2 facts -- I'm so sorry, Elaine. I apologize. 04:44:40
3 (The Reporter clarified the record.) 04:44:46
4 BY MS. BREDEHOFT: 04:44:48
5 Q -- January of 2018? 04:44:48
6 MS. VASQUEZ: Objection. Assumes facts 04:44:51
7 not in evidence. Calls for hearsay. 04:44:52
8 THE WITNESS: No, ma'am, I do not 04:44:58
9 recall. I had no idea if they were dating or not. 04:44:59
10 BY MS. BREDEHOFT: 04:45:06
11 Q Now, there's one more thing that you 04:45:06
12 reported in your declaration and your witness 04:45:09
13 statement. You said that Whitney told you that 04:45:12
14 Amber had struck Johnny and that Whitney had tried 04:45:15
15 to interfere in some manner. 04:45:20
16 Do you remember that? 04:45:23
17 A Yes, ma'am. 04:45:24
18 Q Tell me when Whitney told you that. 04:45:25
19 A I -- this was where I was trying -- 04:45:30
20 trying to put that together. She -- when she came 04:45:32
21 to stay with me, what she said -- that was one of 04:45:35
22 the main incidents. She said that she had gone 04:45:38

1 up, she was -- according to her recollection of 04:45:41
2 the stair incident, she was running up the stairs 04:45:45
3 behind them and trying to stop Amber from 04:45:49
4 attacking Johnny. Amber pushed her down the 04:45:52
5 stairs, according to her, and she said if the 04:45:56
6 security guard hadn't been there, she would have 04:45:58
7 probably fallen all the way down. 04:46:01

8 Q When was this? 04:46:05

9 A I'm not sure. Sometimes March, April, 04:46:06
10 or May. 04:46:10

11 And that's where I said to Adam, I'm 04:46:10
12 not sure if she came to stay with me and then went 04:46:13
13 back to live with them and then came back again in 04:46:15
14 May or not, because I was traveling during that 04:46:19
15 time as well. But whenever she came to stay, she 04:46:21
16 did go back down there some, so that's where I 04:46:24
17 can't -- I don't know the dates of the incidents. 04:46:28
18 I'm assuming, yeah. 04:46:31

19 It was all -- literally, it was chaos 04:46:38
20 in the office, is truly the truth. All of these 04:46:40
21 stories were coming out. It was constant with 04:46:43
22 Whitney sharing all this stuff to the point I was 04:46:45

1 Q -- to live at the Eastern Columbia 10:53:45
2 building? 10:53:46
3 MS. PINTADO: Objection; calls for 10:53:47
4 hearsay, speculative, leading. 10:53:49
5 A She -- she was not. She was not. And 10:53:52
6 when she first started working here, Johnny had 10:53:55
7 given her a car as well, so she had a car that he 10:53:58
8 had given her. It was an orange Dodge car of some 10:54:01
9 sort that she was driving. And she always went on 10:54:07
10 and on and on about how generous he was for giving 10:54:10
11 her that car, and giving her a place to live, and 10:54:12
12 how great he was. 10:54:15
13 Q I think you testified previously that 10:54:17
14 Ms. Henriquez would speak often at Art of 10:54:19
15 Elysium's offices about her relationship with 10:54:23
16 Ms. Heard and her observations of -- of Ms. Heard 10:54:27
17 and Mr. Depp's relationship. Fair? 10:54:32
18 A Yes. 10:54:34
19 MS. PINTADO: Objection; misstates the 10:54:35
20 testimony. 10:54:37
21 Q Was there an incident that took place at 10:54:39
22 Art of Elysium in 2015 relating to Mr. Depp and 10:54:41

1 Ms. Heard's stay in Australia? 10:54:51

2 MS. PINTADO: Objection; leading, 10:54:54

3 speculative, calls for hearsay. 10:54:55

4 A The -- there were a few -- the dogs -- 10:55:01

5 the dog situation, after that happened and they 10:55:05

6 were flown back here, the dogs were coming in the 10:55:09

7 office. Whitney had the dogs. She went and 10:55:13

8 took -- took time off work to go pick them up and 10:55:13

9 bring them in. So we had the dogs here every day. 10:55:17

10 And that happened, and then the other 10:55:20

11 thing is she was sitting in the office and loudly 10:55:22

12 proclaimed that she had done it now, that she'd 10:55:28

13 had cut off his finger. And -- 10:55:30

14 Q Let me -- 10:55:31

15 A -- I -- 10:55:32

16 Q Let me -- sorry, Ms. -- Ms. Howell. I'm 10:55:33

17 just going to try to take this in -- in pieces -- 10:55:35

18 A Okay. 10:55:37

19 Q -- just to make sure the record's clear. 10:55:38

20 Let's talk about that exclamation by -- 10:55:42

21 by Ms. Heard -- Ms. Henriquez. I want to 10:55:45

22 understand what happened. 10:55:49

1 So you were in the office that -- that 10:55:51

2 day when Ms. Henriquez said something about a 10:55:53

3 finger being cut off? 10:55:57

4 A Yeah. I mean, to be -- 10:55:58

5 MS. PINTADO: Objection -- 10:56:00

6 A -- honest -- 10:56:01

7 MR. CHEW: Objection, calls for hearsay, 10:56:01

8 misstates the testimony, assumes facts not in 10:56:02

9 evidence. 10:56:05

10 A To be honest with you, Camille, I was 10:56:06

11 sitting exactly where I'm sitting right now 10:56:09

12 because I'm sitting at my desk in the office. So 10:56:11

13 I was sitting right here on my computer, working, 10:56:14

14 in my zone, responding, doing whatever I was 10:56:17

15 doing. And right over there, there were two 10:56:20

16 black-and-white chairs at the time with a table in 10:56:24

17 between it. Whitney was sitting in one of the 10:56:25

18 black-and-white chairs. There's a door that goes 10:56:28

19 out right over there as well, and she just 10:56:30

20 screamed, She's done it now. She's cut off his 10:56:32

21 God damn finger, and made this huge proclamation. 10:56:36

22 And I pushed my chair back. I was, like, What? 10:56:41

1 And she goes, She cut off his finger. She cut off 10:56:45
2 his finger. 10:56:45
3 And then she bolted out the door and 10:56:45
4 was, like, I got to call somebody. I got to call 10:56:47
5 somebody. And she went out the door and she 10:56:50
6 called someone. I don't know who she called. 10:56:52
7 That's what was said. 10:56:55
8 Q Did Ms. Henriquez say to you who the 10:56:56
9 "she" was and who the "he" was? 10:56:59
10 A It was Amber -- 10:57:01
11 MS. PINTADO: Objection. Objection; 10:57:02
12 hearsay, assumes facts not in evidence, lack of 10:57:03
13 foundation, leading. 10:57:05
14 A It was Amber and Johnny, and she 10:57:08
15 apparently had thrown a bottle and cut off his 10:57:11
16 finger, is what she reported when she came back in 10:57:14
17 from whoever she talked to outside. 10:57:17
18 MS. PINTADO: And I'll move to strike 10:57:20
19 that on the basis of, it's unresponsive and based 10:57:21
20 on hearsay. 10:57:26
21 Q So what you heard Ms. Henriquez say in 10:57:30
22 the office was -- she screamed and she said 10:57:32

1 bid -- building. 10:28:19

2 Q And do you remember what year, 10:28:20

3 approximately, you attended the birthday party at 10:28:21

4 Nobu in Hollywood for Ms. Heard? 10:28:23

5 MS. PINTADO: Objection; asked and 10:28:26

6 answered, leading. 10:28:27

7 A '15 or '16, I would think. 10:28:30

8 Q Each time you saw Mr. Depp, did you ever 10:28:37

9 see him doing any illicit, illegal drugs? 10:28:40

10 A Never. 10:28:47

11 Q Did you ever see him consuming excessive 10:28:48

12 amounts of alcohol? 10:28:51

13 MS. PINTADO: Objection. 10:28:52

14 A No. 10:28:52

15 MS. PINTADO: Form. 10:28:53

16 A Never. 10:28:55

17 Q Did you ever see Mr. Depp appear 10:28:58

18 intoxicated? 10:29:00

19 A No. 10:29:04

20 MS. PINTADO: Objection to form. Calls 10:29:04

21 for expert testimony. 10:29:06

22 A Never. No. 10:29:08

1 year did you attend a birthday party for Ms. Heard 10:32:45
2 at her home? 10:32:49
3 A I would say that was probably '17 or 10:32:51
4 '18. 10:32:55
5 Q Other than -- 10:33:03
6 A She was living with Rocky because Rocky 10:33:04
7 was there getting dressed as well. And Rocky 10:33:06
8 had -- he -- she was with a stunt double, the guy, 10:33:09
9 I believe, she ended up marrying, they were there 10:33:13
10 whenever we got there. So it was whenever she was 10:33:16
11 living with Rocky and Rocky's now husband in a 10:33:18
12 home. 10:33:22
13 Q Other than that incident in either 2017 10:33:24
14 or 2018 at Ms. Heard's home for her birthday, did 10:33:27
15 you ever witness Ms. Heard do any illegal or 10:33:32
16 illicit drugs in your presence? 10:33:36
17 A No. No. 10:33:39
18 Q Since you've known Ms. Heard, have you 10:33:47
19 ever observed her drinking excessively? 10:33:49
20 MS. PINTADO: Objection. 10:33:52
21 Q Drinking alcohol excessively? 10:33:53
22 MS. PINTADO: Objection; vague, assumes 10:33:56

1 facts not in evidence, leading. 10:33:57

2 A 2018 Heaven, she showed up incredibly 10:34:02

3 intoxicated. There was an issue on the red carpet 10:34:09

4 with the people who were dealing with the red 10:34:12

5 carpet. And it kind of spread throughout the 10:34:14

6 event on headset how to kind of handle her and get 10:34:16

7 her in because she was very intoxicated when she 10:34:20

8 showed up for the event. And there was some issue 10:34:23

9 on the red carpet. 10:34:25

10 I was not -- I did see her later and 10:34:27

11 definitely can say she was intoxicated, but I was 10:34:29

12 only hearing through the production team that they 10:34:32

13 were having a problem holding her up to get her 10:34:36

14 down the red carpet. 10:34:39

15 Q And when -- 10:34:40

16 MS. PINTADO: And I'll -- 10:34:41

17 Q -- you saw -- 10:34:42

18 MR. CHEW: -- move to strike that. 10:34:42

19 A That would have been at John Legend's 10:34:45

20 Heaven. She came with Whitney. 10:34:46

21 MS. PINTADO: And I'll move to strike 10:34:50

22 that as nonresponsive, and also calls for expert 10:34:50

VIRGINIA:

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF FAIRFAX COUNTY

John C. Depp, II,

Plaintiff,

v.

Amber Laura Heard,

Defendant.

Civil Action No.: CL-2019-0002911

DECLARATION OF JENNIFER HOWELL

I, Jennifer Howell, declare as follows:

1. I am over the age of 18 and not a party to this action. I have firsthand, personal knowledge of the facts set forth below and if called as a witness could competently testify thereto.
2. Whitney Henriquez, whose maiden name was Whitney Heard, is my dear friend. She has told me that I am her "chosen sister." I also call her my "chosen sister".
3. Whitney worked for me at a non-profit organization that I founded 22 years ago and run called The Art of Elysium. We take artists and help them be of service to communities in need. We serve over 30,000 individuals in need each year. Whitney volunteered for the organization in 2014 for about 6 months. And she worked full time as a paid employee for me in 2015-2016, where Whitney served as Art Salon Manager/Director.
4. I have learned that Whitney testified in court July 23 in London about a violent incident in March 2015 on the stairs at Johnny Depp's penthouse. She testified that Johnny supposedly hit Amber and Whitney on the stairs at Johnny's downtown penthouse. Then Whitney said she had to go to live with her employer where she had to sleep on their floor. I am that employer. This is not what I was told to be true. First, Whitney came to live in the guest room of employer. This is not what I was told to be true. First, Whitney came to live in the guest room of my apartment on Wilshire Boulevard, not on my floor but in my guest room. Second, when Whitney arrived, she was a mess. Whitney told me she tried to stop her sister Amber from hitting and attacking Johnny on the stairs. Whitney said when she tried to intervene to stop Amber from going after Johnny, Amber nearly pushed Whitney down the stairs. She told me she was worried Amber "was going to kill Johnny." She told me she had endured that kind of abuse her entire life, first from her father, and then from Amber, who she said was extremely violent. She lived with me because she did not feel she could go back to live at the Eastern Columbia Building. My father reminded me this morning that I told him that "Whitney had moved in with me because she was terrified of her sister."

Scanned with CamScanner

5. While Whitney was living with me, she told me Johnny kept checking in to see how she was doing and that he called her "sis" and she called him "brother." Whitney said to me on multiple occasions that she did not know why he was staying in the relationship nor why he was putting up with Amber's abuse. Whitney shared with me the damage endured by both her and Amber as children and the injuries she had suffered from Amber both psychologically and physically. Whitney was devastated during this time, and my heart broke for her.

6. When Whitney came back from New York (I believe it was for Tribeca Film Festival, THE ADDERALL DIARIES premiere or both) she shared with me and everyone in the office that Amber freaked out, attacked Whitney and threw a wine glass full of red wine at her in the elevator.

7. While Amber and Johnny were in Australia, Whitney was in the office sitting in the black and white chairs near the kitchen and loudly proclaimed, "oh my God, she has done it now. She has cut off his fucking finger."

8. I knew Paige Heard, Amber and Whitney' mother. Paige shared with me while I was visiting Whitney that Elon Musk had gifted a Tesla or multiple Teslas (not sure if it was one or more), but Amber found out that they were "bugged." Paige told me that Amber said Elon was controlling, abusive and that she was in a legal battle with him over the rights to embryos that they had created together. He wanted to destroy them, and Amber tried to keep them to have a baby. Paige told me that Johnny was either an "angel" or a "saint" compared to Elon, and she wished that Amber and Johnny would reconcile. Paige also told me the reason Johnny and Amber broke up was because Amber was violent and emotional and loved Johnny so much that she could not control it. I was indeed taken aback because this conversation occurred after the divorce and when Hunter was only a few months old, and I was at Whitney's house. Whitney told me that Amber and Johnny were still in touch and that they were each other's true loves or something to that exact sentiment. Whitney was still going through the emotions of having had a baby and all of those ups and downs, and I could not believe that Amber and Johnny's relationship was being discussed while Whitney was the one who needed to be the focal point and needed our support.

9. When Amber got into legal trouble regarding smuggling the dogs into Australia, she asked me to write her a character reference about her charity work, and I did so. We had given her a humanitarian award. She volunteered with the charity and attended events for the charity. I am still grateful for that. I knew nothing about her personal life behind closed door until I became close with Whitney.

10. When Amber was in trouble with the Australian authorities, she asked me to write a character letter in support of her, which I did. I wrote on behalf of Amber for her volunteering with the charity.

11. Later, when Amber and Johnny were divorcing, $7 million of the proceeds was supposed to go to charity. I learned that none of it would be directed to The Art of Elysium, which Amber had been closely associated with for years. Instead, I understood it would all go to ACLU and LA Children's Hospital. I asked Amber's publicist why, when she and Amber had been so eager to use our name in the press during the divorce, and when the funds would mean so much to a small organization like ours, would Amber direct all the money to these other two huge charities that she had not been associated with? Amber's publicist told me that they were more prominent charities with a more significant press reach and got international press. Then, months later, a $250,000 donation came into our organization from an anonymous donor "on behalf of Amber Heard." The funds did not come from Amber. I believed this donation came from Elon.

12. Years later, on July 24, 2020, I received two subpoenas from Johnny's attorney after Whitney testified about sleeping on my floor following the stairs incident. The following day, I spoke with Johnny's attorney Adam Waldman for the first time.

13. I told him the stories of my experiences with Whitney, Paige and Amber Heard, and he asked me to give this declaration. I shared the names of The Art of Elysium's staff who worked during the same time as Whitney who also heard these things and more and willingly gave access to my e-mails, texts to confirm dates and timeline of all stated.

Executed this 26th day of July, 2020, in Los Angeles, California.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America and Commonwealth of Virginia that the foregoing is true and correct.

WITNESS STATEMENT OF JENNIFER HOWELL

I, JENNIFER HOWELL, of 3278 Wilshire Boulevard, Los Angeles, CA, 90019 WILL SAY
 as follows:

1. I am the Founder of a non-profit organization that I have run for 23 years called The Art of Elysium (the "AoE"). We take in artists and help them to be of service to communities in need. We serve over 30,000 individuals in need each year.

2. Unless stated otherwise, the facts and matters referred to in this witness statement are within my own knowledge and are true, or they are true to the best of my knowledge, information and belief based on sources stated within this witness statement.
3. I make this witness statement in response to the evidence given under cross examination by Whitney Henriquez during the trial of these proceedings on 23 July 2020. I understand that the Appellant will seek to rely upon it in his appeal.
4. There is now produced and shown to me a paginated bundle of documents marked JH1 to which I refer to below.

My relationship with Whitney Henriquez and Amber Heard

5. Every year the AoE holds the 'HEAVEN' gala in Los Angeles. It is usually a big event in January, held on the night before the Golden Globes. I believe that Amber first came to the gala in 2008 or 2009, which I believe is when I first met her. Johnny Depp also attended the gala a few times and I had met him at them.
6. I met Whitney Henriquez through Amber Heard. I believe I met her at an event she had attended with Amber. The first time she and I had any one on one interaction is when she came to The Art of Elysium's art salons to discuss potentially using the space for a bridal shower for Amber. During this meeting she told me how excited she was that Amber was marrying Johnny and how excited she was to put together a bridal shower for her sister. During this meeting, she told me about her previous work experience doing events, bar management and the like. I told her the plans of expanding the art salons into an artist program for the charity and that I would love to discuss bringing her on board to manage the salons once we had funding to so. Whitney was excited by the opportunity and shortly thereafter began volunteering with the art salons before we were able to officially offer her a job. She began volunteering around 28 August 2014 and was formally employed by the AoE as Art Salon Manager/Director shortly before the 2015 HEAVEN gala.

Date: 13 January 2021

7. In January 2015 at this Heaven gala, AoE honored Amber with the Spirit of Elysium Award. She was nominated by one of the AoE staff who coordinated the volunteering and who nominated Amber as she was good with the children, particularly as she was bilingual so she could speak to them both in Spanish and English, and in sign language. I am still grateful for her support of our charity.
8. Around this time, I was invited to an engagement party for Amber and Johnny.
9. I knew nothing about Amber's personal life behind closed doors until later, as I got to know Whitney better, which happened naturally during the course of her employment at the AoE. I still consider Whitney to be my dear friend and she has told me that I am her "chosen sister". I also called her my "chosen sister". She meant this in the context of wishing that she could choose me as her family, instead of the sister she was given by blood.

March 2015 to January 2016

10. During the course of her employment and as a result of working together closely in our offices, Whitney began to disclose information about Amber's behavior. For example, while Amber and Johnny were in Australia, and which I believe must have been early March 2015, Whitney was sitting near the kitchen in our office and suddenly proclaimed loudly: "oh my God, she has done it now. She has cut off his fucking finger." I have since read Amber's testimony during the trial in London and I understand that Amber claims that Johnny accidentally cut part of his own finger off, which is contrary to what I was told by Whitney at the time.
11. At that time, Whitney was living in a penthouse at the Eastern Columbia building, where her sister and Johnny lived. Later that year, she asked to come and stay with me. She ended up living with me in the guest room of my apartment on Wilshire Boulevard, in a queen-sized bed. She stayed with me for a number of months in 2015 and into 2016. I cannot recall exactly when Whitney moved in or when she moved out, as I did not keep records at the time and had no reason to think I needed to. It is also difficult for me to remember when and how long Whitney was staying in my apartment, because she seemed to fall out and make up with Amber on a number of occasions and so I do not think she stayed with me for only one uninterrupted period of time, but there was one longer period of time which I believe fell in the second half of 2015 and the early part of 2016. My job also requires me to travel a lot and so I was not at my apartment for the entire period Whitney was staying with me. I no longer have a record of my text conversations with Whitney at the time (which was her main method of communication) as I have since changed my phone service provider. I have found emails from between 11 January and 6 March 2016, which suggest that Whitney was still living with me at the time. A copy of those emails are enclosed at Exhibit JH1 pages 1 to 3. Although I also believe that she and Amber were reconciled in January 2016, as they both came to the AoE Heaven gala.

12. When she arrived, it was one evening, and Whitney was in a mess. She told me she had tried to stop Amber from hitting and attacking Johnny during an argument on the stairs. Whitney said when she tried to stop Amber from hitting and attacking Johnny, Amber nearly pushed her (Whitney) down the stairs. She told me she was worried Amber was going to kill Johnny. She told me she had endured that kind of abuse her entire life, first from her father, and then from Amber, who she said was extremely violent. As she told me this, she was inconsolable. I cannot remember if she had anything with her when she arrived at my apartment that evening, but I think she had to go back to the Eastern Columbia Building at some stage to get some more clothes and her things.
13. At the time, I believed that Whitney was telling me about an event which had just happened. However, I understand from reading about the trial in London, which I did after Whitney referred to me in her evidence, that an incident involving Whitney, Amber and Johnny on the stairs in the penthouses at the Eastern occurred in late March 2015. I do not believe that it was that early in 2015 when Whitney came to stay, but I cannot say for sure. If it was later, I cannot say whether I misunderstood when thinking that the stairs incident had just happened, or if Whitney gave the wrong impression.

14. She lived with me because she told me that she did not feel she could go back to live at the Eastern Columbia Building. She told me that she had fallen out with her sister badly and no longer wanted to be involved with her at that time. My father recently reminded me that I had told him at the time that "Whitney had moved in with me because she was terrified of her sister."
15. I remember one time, Whitney had returned from New York, where I think she had been for a premiere or the Tribeca Film Festival. She shared with me, and nearly everyone in the office, that during the trip Amber had freaked out, attacked her (Whitney) and had thrown a wine glass full of red wine at her in an elevator. I believe it would have been April 2015, as that is when the Tribeca festival takes place. I think this must have been before Whitney moved in with me for the longer period of time, as I doubt that Whitney would have gone with her sister if it was just after she came to live with me.
16. While Whitney was living with me, she told me Johnny kept checking in to see how she was doing and that he called her "sis" and she called him "brother." I obviously did not see any of her messages. Whitney was always singing his praises and said that Johnny was more of a brother to her, than Amber was a sister. Whitney said to me on multiple occasions that she did not know why he was staying in the relationship nor why he was putting up with Amber's abuse. Whitney shared with me the damage endured by both her and Amber as children from their parents.
17. While living with me Whitney started sharing with me the magnitude of everything which had happened with her and Amber, not only with me but with people in our office. Whitney told me so much about Amber that at times I had to tell her I didn't want to know any more. I knew that at some point Amber would be back in her life and that I would have to see and speak to Amber and I didn't want to have to interact with her knowing all of the awful things Whitney said that she had done.
18. In light of how much she told me and others about Amber and Johnny I have no doubt that if Johnny had ever laid a hand on Amber, we would have been told about it. If she had told me that Johnny had hit Amber I would have been down there with the cops and social workers to get her out of there. I am embarrassed and deeply regret not doing the same kindness for Johnny.

19. Whitney's employment at the AoE came to an end shortly after Heaven in January 2016 as a part of wider layoffs at the time, because we no longer had the budget to employ her. At the time a donor had made a pledge, which we had based our entire budget on, but the pledge was not paid.
20. Amber had gotten into legal trouble regarding smuggling her dogs into Australia. She asked me to write her a character reference about her charity work, and I did so. A copy of that reference is enclosed at Exhibit JH1 page 4. We had given her a humanitarian award a year earlier and I still felt grateful for her support of the AoE, even if by then I felt very protective of Whitney and was concerned about Amber's behavior. Whitney also asked me to write the letter on behalf of her sister. I deeply regret writing that letter at this point in time.

Contact with Whitney and Amber in 2019

21. Later, when Amber and Johnny were divorcing that summer, $7 million of the proceeds from the divorce was supposed to go to charity. I learned that none of it would be directed to the AoE, which Amber had been closely associated with for years. Instead, I understood it would all go to ACLU and LA Children's Hospital. I was disappointed at this news and asked Amber's publicist why, when she and Amber had been so eager to use our name in the press during the divorce, and when the funds would mean so much to a small organization like ours, would Amber direct all the money to these other two huge charities that she had not been associated with. Amber's only volunteering opportunities at CHLA were while she was volunteering as one of the AoE artists for our programs. Amber's publicist told me that they were more prominent charities with a more significant press reach and got international press.
22. On 9 January 2018, a $250,000 check came into our organization from an anonymous donor, with a note stating it was made "on behalf of Amber Heard." The funds did not come from

Amber, but from "Fidelity Charitable". A copy of the check received is enclosed at Exhibit JH1 page 5. I was very grateful for the donation.

23. I knew Amber and Whitney's mother, Paige Heard through Whitney. I visited Whitney at her house on 9 February 2019, shortly after she had given birth to her son, Hunter. Paige was there with her. During the visit Paige shared that Elon Musk had gifted Amber a Tesla or multiple Teslas (I'm not sure if it was one or more), but Amber had told her that she had found out that they were "bugged." Paige also made other private disclosures to me about Amber and Elon's relationship. Paige said that she wished Amber and Johnny would reconcile, and that they had broken up because Amber was violent and emotional and loved Johnny so much that she could not control it. She said that the restraining order Amber obtained in 2016 was only due to the attorneys' advice. Whitney told me that Amber and Johnny were each other's true loves or something to that exact sentiment.

24. I was taken aback by this conversation. Whitney was still going through the emotions of having had a baby and all of those ups and downs, and I could not believe that Amber and Johnny's relationship was being discussed while Whitney was the one who needed to be the focal point and needed our support.

25. I last saw Whitney in 2019. I was in contact with Whitney via text message in 2020, but with everything going on with the pandemic we didn't see each other as we had previously done.

July 2020

26. I did not follow the trial in London between Johnny and the Sun. On 24 July 2020 I was called by someone who wishes to remain anonymous, to tell me that Whitney had mentioned me while testifying in court in these proceedings in London and had said something about sleeping on my floor.

27. I was told and have since read Whitney's testimony, during which she recalled a violent incident in March 2015 on the stairs at Johnny Depp's penthouse. She testified that Johnny supposedly hit Amber and Whitney on the stairs at Johnny's downtown penthouse. Whitney also said she had to go live with her employer. I am that employer. As stated above, she stayed in my guest room in a queen sized bed, not on the floor or a couch, and the incident on the stairs which she had described to me in 2015 was the opposite of what she told the court.

28. After hearing about this I agonized over whether to come forward with what I knew. I had not come forward before this because I had not appreciated what I knew was relevant. I couldn't believe that Whitney had lied in that way.
29. In the end, I spoke to Christi, Johnny's sister, whom I had met through the AoE chairman years ago. Christi asked me if I would give a statement. I said I would only be comfortable doing so if I had a subpoena. I expressed to her my deepest apologies for not coming forward before Whitney took the stand and had I known what she would say under oath that I would have done something. Later that day I received a subpoena from Johnny's attorney, Adam Waldman (see Exhibit JH1 pages 6 to 8). I said in my US declaration that I received two subpoenas from Adam, but I have since checked my records and have realized that I have two copies of the same subpoena. The following day, on 25th July, I spoke with Adam. I told him my experiences with Whitney, Paige and Amber Heard, including what Whitney had told me in what I believed was the immediate aftermath of the argument on the stairs, which contradicted what Whitney had said in court. He asked me to give a declaration for the case in Virginia which I agreed to do. We worked on it during the course of the next day. A copy of the final version that I signed is enclosed at Exhibit JH1, pages 9 to 12.
30. After speaking to Adam on 25 July, I called Tash Brooks, who is Whitney's best friend and another employee of mine at the AoE. When I told her I was giving evidence in response to what Whitney had said on the stand, she fell apart. She said that Amber had convinced Whitney to lie for her. Tash told me that before travelling to London, Whitney was so worried about the trial that she was physically ill and her hair was falling out.
31. I felt awful for Whitney. Whitney's son was only a year or so old at the time, so I cannot imagine how difficult it was for Whitney, but from all the things she had talked about back in 2015, I assumed that she was again doing her sister's bidding.

32. At around 3am on 26 July 2020 Whitney texted me. She asked if it was true that I was giving evidence to Johnny's legal team. Clearly it had gotten back to her that I was preparing to explain what she had told me. I responded telling her that she had chosen to mention me up on the stand in court, and that she should know that I would always tell the truth. She wrote back saying that Adam Waldman is trying to destroy her family's lives and that I had been lied to. I did not respond, but instead wrote her a letter, informing her that I had received subpoenas, that I had spoken to Adam and that I had given him my account. In my letter I told Whitney that it had taken the subpoenas to get me to be forthcoming about what I had been told. I told her this at the time, as I did not want her to think I had betrayed her trust by providing my evidence without being compelled to. In fact, I had told Christi that I would provide my testimony but only if I was subpoenaed. I then wrote an email to Whitney on 28 July, to which I attached my letter. I followed up with another email half an hour later, after reading Whitney's statement to the press in which she said my declaration was untrue. The press reported statements (see Exhibit JH1 pages 13 to 17) from Whitney saying that: "This is complete fiction. Jennifer Howell's statements do not bear any relationship to the truth and I have no idea why she is saying this." My correspondence with Whitney is enclosed at pages 18 to 33 of Exhibit JH1. Whitney has not responded, and I have not heard from her since.
33. I had hoped that Tash and my other employees at AoE who had heard what Whitney had said back in 2015 about Amber would speak out. Tash has since told me that Amber is paying for her (Tash's) attorney and for some of my other employees and former employees' attorneys and that they are being advised to oppose any subpoenas from Johnny's lawyers. I have spoken with one of the AoE's former employees who has told me that he was contacted by Whitney and Tash and told to avoid telephone calls from certain numbers and if he was contacted by any attorneys, that he should say he does not recall anything and does not know why I am saying these things. They told him that I must be being paid to give a false testimony, which is entirely untrue.
34. On 7 August 2020 Leslie Culp, one of the AoE's employees, received a subpoena from Amber's US attorneys for me and a second one for the AoE. The subpoenas from Amber's attorneys seek copies of our entire server, financials, text messages and staff information. Copies of the subpoenas are enclosed in Exhibit JH1 pages 34 to 76. We have opposed this. I believe they are trying to suggest that I have been paid or financially incentivized to lie for Johnny. That is not true. If I were to be motivated in anyway by money, Amber had a $250,000.00 donation made to us in her honor and that amount is far more than any amount Johnny has ever donated to the charity. My motivation in starting the charity was to have a servant's heart and to be of service to those in need and through art transcend any circumstance an individual is facing. Part of a servant's heart is to do what is right even when it is hard.

35. I wish to make clear that I have only met Johnny a handful of times at our events, once or twice at the Eastern Standard building with Amber and once at a birthday party for Amber. I have no loyalty to Johnny or any reason to lie for him. My loyalty is to Whitney as I can't stand the position she has been put in and am so upset for her that she felt she had to lie in Court for her sister. Coming forward as a witness in the US proceedings prompted the subpoenas being issued against the AoE, which has a legal bill for the non-profit organization of over $60,000. I have no financial or other reason to lie or support Johnny.
36. I have received no gifts or donations from Johnny, or anyone associated with him and the AoE has received no recent donations from him. Johnny did donate $25,000 to the AoE in 2015, the same year that Amber was honored at the Heaven gala (see Exhibit JH1 page 151). He also did a benefit concert in January 2016 (see Exhibit JH1, pages 185 to 190). This was an annual event which benefits two or three charities. The AoE was one of the two charities chosen that year. The donations from the event came from a sponsor of the evening, ticket sales and silent auction items. No donations came from Johnny or any of his companies or affiliates directly. Johnny also donated a lot of musical instruments as an in-kind donation while he and Amber were together. The AoE has not received any donations from Johnny since his divorce from Amber.
37. My interest in coming forward to give evidence in these proceedings is justice and ensuring that the truth comes out. If my loyalty is to anyone, it is to Whitney, who I continue to be very fond of. I was very concerned to hear that she had lied under oath in London during the trial. While living with me Whitney told me that she had spent her whole life cleaning up her sister's messes and this appears to be another example.

STATEMENT OF TRUTH

I believe that the facts stated in this witness statement are true. I understand that proceedings for contempt of court may be brought against anyone who makes, or causes to be made, a false statement in a document verified by a statement of truth without an honest belief in its truth.

AMBER LAURA HEARD

Re: Depp v. Heard, California Case No.: 19STCP04763
Case No.: CL-2019-002911 (Action Pending Outside California)

Dear Counsel:

As you know, this firm is counsel to Non-Party Warner Bros. Entertainment Inc. (“WBEI”) in connection with the Deposition Subpoena for Personal Appearance (“Deposition Subpoena”) and Subpoena for Production of Business Records (the “Document Subpoena”) served on WBEI by Plaintiff John C. Depp, II (“Depp”). We write to meet and confer regarding the Deposition Subpoena in an effort to avoid motion practice.

WBEI is a third party that has nothing whatsoever to do with this litigation. Nevertheless, in response to the Document Subpoena, WBEI has already produced the contract between WBEI and Defendant and Counterclaim Plaintiff Amber Laura Heard (“Heard”), as well as two option letters, for the motion pictures Aquaman and Aquaman 2. There is no dispute that Heard was cast in both Aquaman and Aquaman 2 and paid for her services per her contract; the continued attempts to involve WBEI in this lawsuit due to speculative and baseless claims is improper and unwarranted.

February 3, 2022

We understand that the reason the parties seek to depose WBEI in this lawsuit is based on Heard's apparent claim that WBEI delayed in exercising her option for Aquaman 2 because of her dispute with Depp and that this delay resulted in her not being able to renegotiate her contract for additional compensation on Aquaman 2. This is simply not true. As WBEI communicated to Heard's agent at the time, there were creative concerns with continuing to cast Heard in the role of Mera for Aquaman 2, the subject of which were communicated to Heard's agent. Any alleged delay by WBEI in picking up Heard's option as Mera for Aquaman 2 was not due to her dispute with Depp or any of the allegations in this lawsuit. Moreover, Heard could not have negotiated for more money for her role in Aquaman 2, even with more time, as she apparently speculated at her deposition. There is simply no basis for Heard's claims.

As set forth below, WBEI is willing to submit a declaration under penalty of perjury to this effect. Moreover, as a non-party, WBEI has limited information about the progress of the litigation, discovery to date, and issues raised by the pleadings or adjudicated by the Los Angeles Superior Court or the Virginia Circuit Court of Fairfax County. Given WBEI's willingness to submit a declaration, and that, as a non-party, WBEI is entitled to heightened protection from discovery that imposes an undue burden, no deposition of WBEI should go forward. See, e.g., Calcor Space Facility, Inc. v. Super. Ct., 53 Cal. App. 4th 216, 225 (1997) ("The concerns for avoiding undue burdens on the 'adversary' in the litigation . . . apply with even more weight to a nonparty.").

To avoid the substantial burden of a WBEI deposition, whose employees are still largely working remotely because of the continuing COVID-19 pandemic, WBEI is willing to serve the parties with a sworn declaration setting forth the following facts:

- Any delay in WBEI picking up Heard's option for Aquaman 2 was due to creative issues in casting Heard in the role of Mera for Aquaman 2, which were communicated to Heard's agent at the time.
- Any delay in WBEI picking up Heard's option for Aquaman 2 was not due to Heard's dispute with Depp or any of the allegations in this lawsuit.
- WBEI would not have paid Heard more money on Aquaman 2, even if Heard had had more time to attempt to negotiate.

WBEI's good faith proposal is a reasonable way to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on WBEI, especially in light of the fact that WBEI is a non-party with no involvement in this lawsuit. See Calcor Space Facility, 53 Cal. App. 4th at 225. Please confirm that neither party in this case will seek to proceed with a WBEI deposition in light of the above and will accept a sworn declaration in lieu of testimony.

Elaine:

To refresh your recollection, you sent us a stipulation with an email that stated the following:

Ms. Heard is willing to agree not to claim damages from any conduct associated with Aquaman II, so long as Mr. Depp will agree not to mention or raise in any manner Aquaman II at trial, including that Ms. Heard earlier claimed damages as a result of conduct associated with Aquaman II. Essentially, we would remove Aquaman II from the case and not discuss in any manner.

Your stipulation included the following express condition:

The Parties agree that neither Ms. Heard nor Mr. Depp will include at trial any reference to Aquaman II for any reason, including but not limited to, any evidence or references supporting or disputing Ms. Heard's damages as it relates to her Counterclaims.

Nowhere in your email or stipulation do you suggest any wiggle room. Nowhere in your email or stipulation do you use the phrase "initial draft." Nowhere in your email and stipulation do you invite revisions. You made a proposal. We rejected it. We sent back a counterproposal. You did not respond.

It is clear that your stipulation was never a serious proposal, since I cannot imagine you actually thought we could agree to make no mention of Aquaman 2 at trial.

Should you wish to further discuss a possible stipulation, we would be generally open to discuss your stipulation to the truth of the facts in WBEI's attorneys' letter, the admissibility of a declaration from WBEI setting forth those facts, and the withdrawal of Ms. Heard's damages claims related to Aquaman 2. We will not agree under any circumstances to a blanket prohibition on mentioning Aquaman 2.

As for the comment that Ms. Heard was presumably responding to some sort of pressure, that seems a reasonable enough inference from the circumstances, since litigants and their attorneys do not normally volunteer to walk away from millions of dollars of claimed damages if they believe they have a valid basis in fact and law to pursue them. We obviously were not copied on the communications between you and WBEI, and the brief makes clear that that statement is our assumption as to your reasons for abruptly offering to stipulate away your client's claimed damages. No retraction is required.

Thank you,
Sam

Subject: RE: John C. Depp, II v. Amber Laura Heard - Opposition to WBEI's Motion to Quash Subpoenas

Sam: We have read your Opposition and are quite troubled by two representations you made in your brief and Declaration:

1. You represented to the Court that Ms. Heard offered to enter into a Stipulation because of "pressure" from Warner Bros' counsel, suggesting Warner Bros was coercing or directing us. This is false.

2. You suggested to the Court that this so-called “coerced” Stipulation was a “take it or leave it” Stipulation. Instead, it was an initial draft, in an effort to settle the dispute, which we sent to you in Word for your review and editing. You chose not to provide any suggested edits or engage in any discourse and instead sent back terms I am confident the Court will recognize as on-its-face ludicrous. Your intent was clearly to sabotage the possibility of a Stipulation to force Warner Bros into a deposition.

We request that you file a retraction of the representation that Warner Bros in any manner attempted to coerce or direct us on our efforts to resolve this matter, and further to correctly represent to the Court the draft Stipulation we sent to you inviting edits and discourse, and your intentional efforts to thwart any resolution by demanding conditions to which no litigant would ever agree, so you could force the deposition.

We look forward to receiving your corrected pleading. Elaine

Sarah,

We will forward you an unredacted copy. The attachments to the unredacted copy contain references to Ms. Heard's income information and some medical information that is (arguably) confidential. In an abundance of caution, please execute and return to us and to Ms. Heard's counsel on behalf of your firm Exhibit A to the attached Protective Order, by return email. Thank you.

Best,
Sam

Sam: We have read your Opposition and are quite troubled by two representations you made in your brief and Declaration:

1. You represented to the Court that Ms. Heard offered to enter into a Stipulation because of “pressure” from Warner Bros’ counsel, suggesting Warner Bros was coercing or directing us. This is false.
2. You suggested to the Court that this so-called “coerced” Stipulation was a “take it or leave it” Stipulation. Instead, it was an initial draft, in an effort to settle the dispute, which we sent to you in Word for your review and editing. You chose not to provide any suggested edits or engage in any discourse and instead sent back terms I am confident the Court will recognize as on-its-face ludicrous. Your intent was clearly to sabotage the possibility of a Stipulation to force Warner Bros into a deposition.

We request that you file a retraction of the representation that Warner Bros in any manner attempted to coerce or direct us on our efforts to resolve this matter, and further to correctly represent to the Court the draft Stipulation we sent to you inviting edits and discourse, and your intentional efforts to thwart any resolution by demanding conditions to which no litigant would ever agree, so you could force the deposition.

We look forward to receiving your corrected pleading. Elaine

Counsel,

At the Court’s suggestion during the hearing that took place last week, please find attached a draft declaration that WBEI is prepared to sign, and which the parties can stipulate to the admissibility of in their upcoming trial. See Virginia Circuit Court Requests, Notices, and Applications Pretrial Conferences, Scheduling, Management, VA KR Circuit 308; VA R S CT Rule 1:19 (“At the final pretrial conference ... the court and counsel of record may consider any of the following: ... (c) the possibility of obtaining stipulations of fact, including, but not limited to, the admissibility of documents”).

Please confirm your agreement to accept this stipulation in lieu of a deposition by 10 a.m. PT on March 2 and we will notify the Court that Non-Party WBEI’s Motion to Quash Plaintiffs’ Deposition Subpoena For Personal Appearance and Production of Documents and/or Protective Order has been taken off calendar.

DECLARATION OF _____

I, _____, declare as follows:

1. I am _____ at Non-Party Warner Bros. Entertainment Inc. (“WBEI”). I have personal knowledge of the facts set forth herein. I am submitting this sworn declaration in lieu of providing trial testimony.

2. Amber Heard was cast in both Aquaman and Aquaman 2 and was paid for her services per the terms of her contract. True and correct copies of Ms. Heard’s “Talent Option” agreement, dated September 21, 2015 (“Option Agreement”), as well as the March 24, 2017 letter exercising the option for Aquaman under the Option Agreement and the June 3, 2021 letter exercising the option for Aquaman 2 under the Option Agreement are attached hereto as Exhibits A, B, and C.

3. Any alleged delay in picking up Ms. Heard’s option for Aquaman 2 was due to creative issues in casting Ms. Heard in the role of Mera for Aquaman 2, which were communicated to Ms. Heard’s agent at the time.

4. Any alleged delay in WBEI picking up Ms. Heard’s option for Aquaman 2 was not due to Ms. Heard’s dispute with Mr. Depp or to any of the allegations in this lawsuit.

5. WBEI would not have paid Ms. Heard more money on Aquaman 2, even if Ms. Heard had had more time to attempt to negotiate her contract.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed on February __, 2022 at Los Angeles, California.

Caution: External Email

Sarah,

Thank you for this, which is very helpful to see in writing. I have made some suggested edits to your proposed Declaration in track changes in the attached, which reflect what I think we would need WBET to attest to (assuming it to be true, of course), in order for us to be willing to proceed by declaration in lieu of live testimony.

I think we would also need a stipulation and Consent Order from Ms. Heard (which would need to be filed with the Virginia Court in advance of this week's hearing in California) with respect to the following basic points:

1. Ms. Heard would need to stipulate and agree in the Consent Order that the Declaration is authentic, competent, admissible, and may be used for all purposes at trial;
2. Ms. Heard would need to stipulate and agree in the Consent Order that she will not seek to controvert at trial the factual statements in the Declaration; in other words, it will be an agreed fact at trial that Ms. Heard suffered no damages related to Aquaman 2; and
3. Ms. Heard would need to stipulate and agree in the Consent Order that she is conclusively withdrawing any claims for any damages based on Aquaman 2, and will supplement any applicable discovery responses to reflect that fact, to the extent necessary.

If we can all reach agreement on those points, then I think your proposed Declaration (with my revisions) would probably be acceptable. Otherwise, I see no alternative but to proceed with the deposition, since if we cannot reach agreement on those points it will be clear that there are still factual disputes that need to be explored in discovery.

Please let me know if you think it would be helpful to get on a call to discuss, and I will make myself available for a call today or tomorrow. I will be pleased to consider any revisions you suggest to my edits.

For the avoidance of doubt, this is all obviously subject to final review and approval on our end, but if you are agreeable to these terms I would expect to be able to get approval on our end quickly. Thank you.

Best regards,
Sam

CAUTION: External E-mail. Use caution accessing links or attachments.

Counsel,

At the Court's suggestion during the hearing that took place last week, please find attached a draft declaration that WBEI is prepared to sign, and which the parties can stipulate to the admissibility of in their upcoming trial. See Virginia Circuit Court Requests, Notices, and Applications Pretrial Conferences, Scheduling, Management, VA KR Circuit 308; VA R S CT Rule 1:19 ("At the final pretrial conference ... the court and counsel of record may consider any of the following: ... (c) the possibility of obtaining stipulations of fact, including, but not limited to, the admissibility of documents").

Please confirm your agreement to accept this stipulation in lieu of a deposition by 10 a.m. PT on March 2 and we will notify the Court that Non-Party WBEI's Motion to Quash Plaintiffs' Deposition Subpoena For Personal Appearance and Production of Documents and/or Protective Order has been taken off calendar.

I, _____, declare as follows:

1. I am _____ at Non-Party Warner Bros. Entertainment Inc. (“WBEI” or “Warner Bros.”). I have personal knowledge of the facts set forth herein, and if called upon as a witness I would and could competently testify thereto. I am submitting this sworn Declaration in lieu of providing trial testimony in the action entitled John C. Depp, II v. Amber Laura Heard, Fairfax County Circuit Court Case No.: CL-2019-002911.

2. I am authorized to make this Declaration on behalf of Warner Bros., and my testimony in this Declaration is a true and accurate statement of the knowledge of Warner Bros. on the matters set forth herein.

3. Amber Laura Heard (“Ms. Heard”) was cast in both the film Aquaman and its sequel, Aquaman and the Lost Kingdom (“Aquaman 2”), and was paid for her services on both films per the terms of her contract. True and correct copies of Ms. Heard’s “Talent Option” agreement, dated September 21, 2015 (“Option Agreement”), as well as the March 24, 2017 letter exercising the option for Aquaman under the Option Agreement and the June 3, 2021 letter exercising the option for Aquaman 2 under the Option Agreement are attached hereto as Exhibits A, B, and C.

4. Ms. Heard did not suffer any adverse employment action by Warner Bros. in connection with either Aquaman or Aquaman 2 because of any of the allegedly defamatory statements by John C. Depp, II (“Mr. Depp”) or Adam Waldman (“Mr. Waldman”) that are alleged in her Counterclaim (the “Counterclaim Statements”). ~~Ms. Heard was not fired from Aquaman 2 because of the Counterclaim Statements, and Ms. Heard’s compensation for Aquaman or Aquaman 2 was not reduced because of the Counterclaim Statements.~~

Amber Heard: I spoke up against sexual violence — and faced our culture's wrath. That has to change.

Opinion by Amber Heard

Dec. 18, 2018 at 5:58 p.m. EST

Amber Heard is an actress and ambassador on women's rights at the American Civil Liberties Union.

I was exposed to abuse at a very young age. I knew certain things early on, without ever having to be told. I knew that men have the power — physically, socially and financially — and that a lot of institutions support that arrangement. I knew this long before I had the words to articulate it, and I bet you learned it young, too.

Like many women, I had been harassed and sexually assaulted by the time I was of college age. But I kept quiet — I did not expect filing complaints to bring justice. And I didn't see myself as a victim.

Then two years ago, I became a public figure representing domestic abuse, and I felt the full force of our culture's wrath for women who speak out.

Friends and advisers told me I would never again work as an actress — that I would be blacklisted. A movie I was attached to recast my role. I had just shot a two-year campaign as the face of a global fashion brand, and the company dropped me. Questions arose as to whether I would be able to keep my role of Mera in the movies "Justice League" and "Aquaman."

I had the rare vantage point of seeing, in real time, how institutions protect men accused of abuse.

Imagine a powerful man as a ship, like the Titanic. That ship is a huge enterprise. When it strikes an iceberg, there are a lot of people on board desperate to patch up holes — not because they believe in or even care about the ship, but because their own fates depend on the enterprise.

In recent years, the #MeToo movement has taught us about how power like this works, not just in Hollywood but in all kinds of institutions — workplaces, places of worship or simply in particular communities. In every walk of life, women are confronting these men who are buoyed by social, economic and cultural power. And these institutions are beginning to change.

We are in a transformative political moment. The president of our country has been accused by more than a dozen women of sexual misconduct, including assault and harassment. Outrage over his statements and behavior has energized a female-led opposition. #MeToo started a conversation about just how profoundly sexual violence affects women in every area of our lives. And last month, more women were elected to Congress than ever in our history, with a mandate to take women's issues seriously. Women's rage and determination to end sexual violence are turning into a political force.

We have an opening now to bolster and build institutions protective of women. For starters, Congress can reauthorize and strengthen the Violence Against Women Act. First passed in 1994, the act is one of the most effective pieces of legislation enacted to fight domestic violence and sexual assault. It creates support systems for people who report abuse, and provides funding for rape crisis centers, legal assistance programs and other critical services. It improves responses by law enforcement, and it prohibits discrimination against LGBTQ survivors. Funding for the act expired in September and has only been temporarily extended.

We should continue to fight sexual assault on college campuses, while simultaneously insisting on fair processes for adjudicating complaints. Last month, Education Secretary Betsy DeVos proposed changes to Title IX rules governing the treatment of sexual harassment and assault in schools. While some changes would make the process for handling complaints more fair, others would weaken protections for sexual assault survivors. For example, the new rules would require schools to investigate only the most extreme complaints, and then only when they are made to designated officials. Women on campuses already have trouble coming forward about sexual violence — why would we allow institutions to scale back supports?

Subject: Edited version of Ms. Heard's Washington Post op-ed

Good afternoon.

Below is an edited version of Amber Heard's Washington Post op-ed on women and abuse. Please review the text carefully, as it is our last chance to make changes before publication. If you have any questions or concerns, please hit reply-all to this email so our copy chief will see the message as well.

I do have a quick question highlighted in the text below.

Thanks so much, and have a great evening.

I was exposed to abuse at a very young age. I knew certain things early on, without ever having to be told. I knew that men have the power - physically, socially and financially - and that a lot of institutions support that arrangement. I knew this long before I had the words to articulate it, and I bet you learned it young, too.

Like many women, I had been harassed and sexually assaulted by the time I was of college age. But I kept quiet - I did not expect filing complaints to bring justice. And I didn't see myself as a victim.

Then two years ago, I became a public figure representing domestic abuse, and I felt the full force of our culture's wrath for women who speak out.

Friends and advisers told me I would never again work as an actress - that I would be blacklisted. A movie I was attached to recast my role. I had just shot a two-year campaign as the face of a global fashion brand, and the company dropped me. Questions arose as to whether I would be able to keep my role of Mera in the movies "Justice League" and "Aquaman."

I had the rare vantage point of seeing, in real time, how institutions protect men accused of abuse.

Imagine a powerful man as a ship, like the Titanic. That ship is a huge enterprise. When it strikes an iceberg, there are a lot of people on board desperate to patch up holes - not because they believe in or even care about this man, but because their own fates depend on the enterprise. QUESTION: I would suggest changing "this man" to "the ship," to maintain the analogy formed at the beginning of the paragraph. Conversely, in the following paragraph, I would change the word "ships" to "men." However, I did not want to do so without running it past you first. Thoughts?

In recent years, the #MeToo movement has taught us about how power like this works, not just in Hollywood, but in all kinds of institutions - workplaces, places of worship or simply in particular communities. In every walk of life, women are confronting these ships that are buoyed by social, economic and cultural power. And these institutions are beginning to change.

We are in a transformative political moment. The president of our country has been accused by more than a dozen women of sexual misconduct, including assault and harassment. Outrage over his statements and behavior has energized a female-led opposition. #MeToo started a conversation about just how profoundly sexual violence affects women in every area of our lives. And last month, more women were elected to Congress than ever in our history, with a mandate to take women's issues seriously. Women's rage and determination to end sexual violence is turning into a political force.

We have an opening now to bolster and build institutions protective of women. For starters, Congress can reauthorize and strengthen the Violence Against Women Act. First passed in 1994, the act is one of the most effective pieces of legislation enacted to fight domestic violence and sexual assault. It creates support systems for people who report abuse, and provides funding for rape crisis centers, legal assistance programs and other critical services. It improves responses by law enforcement, and it prohibits discrimination against LGBTQ survivors. Funding for the act expired in September, and has only been temporarily extended.

We should continue to fight sexual assault on college campuses, while simultaneously insisting on fair processes for adjudicating complaints. Last month, Education Secretary Betsy DeVos proposed changes to Title IX rules governing the treatment of sexual harassment and assault in schools. While some changes would make the process for handling complaints more fair, others would weaken protections for sexual assault survivors. For example, the new rules would require schools to investigate only the most extreme complaints, and then only when they are made to designated officials. Women on campuses already have trouble coming forward about sexual violence - why would we allow institutions to scale back supports?

I write this as a woman who had to change my phone number weekly because I was getting death threats. For months, I rarely left my apartment, and when I did, I was pursued by camera drones and photographers on foot, on motorcycles and in cars. Tabloid outlets that posted pictures of me spun them in a negative light. I felt as though I was on trial in the court of public opinion - and my life and livelihood depended on myriad judgments far beyond my control.

I want to ensure that women who come forward to talk about violence receive more support. We are electing representatives who know how deeply we care about these issues. We can work together to demand changes to laws and rules and social norms - and to right the imbalances that have shaped our lives.

4 BY MR. CHEW: 02:39:27

5 Q Is this your op ed, Ms. Heard? 02:39:28

6 A If you're representing to me that this is 02:39:31

7 the op ed in full, it looks like what I wrote, but 02:39:35

8 I'd have to see -- I can't say one way or another 02:39:40

9 that this is word for word the exact copy without 02:39:43

10 seeing the -- 02:39:49

11 Q Okay. Well, I will represent to you that 02:39:50

12 it is and I think your attorney would be squawking 02:39:53

13 if it weren't. On the first page of the op ed, 02:39:55

14 Exhibit 7, do you see where it says "by Amber 02:39:57

15 Heard"? 02:40:00

16 A Yes, I do. 02:40:00

17 Q That's accurate, correct? I mean, you did 02:40:06

18 write the op ed, true? 02:40:09

22 THE WITNESS: I -- with the help of -- with 02:40:13

23 assistance, I did it and -- and wrote it. These are 02:40:18

24 my words, I signed my name to it. 02:40:22

1 Q And that's because the Rolling Stone 14:44:04

4 MS. BREDEHOFT: Same objections. 14:44:12
5 MR. SCHWARTZ: Same objections. 14:44:13
6 A I don't know what -- what was the 14:44:14
7 constellation of things that they relied on. 14:44:19
8 Q Had they done their due diligence, they 14:44:22
9 never would have run the false story, would they? 14:44:25
10 MS. BREDEHOFT: Same objections. 14:44:27
11 Go ahead. 14:44:29
12 MR. SCHWARTZ: Same objections. 14:44:29
13 A I don't know that it is the case that -- I 14:44:30
14 don't know. I don't know the answer to that. 14:44:34
15 MR. CHEW: All right. Let's look, please 14:44:38
16 -- let's turn to Exhibit 73. 14:44:43
17 THE TECHNICIAN: Yes, sir. Standby. 14:44:51

22 Q Mr. Dougherty, have you ever seen this 14:45:09

1 document before? 14:45:26

2 A Yes. 14:45:29

3 Q Is this the online copy of the op-ed that 14:45:31

4 the ACLU placed -- 14:45:34

5 MS. BREDEHOFT: Objection to the -- 14:45:38

7 Q -- [indiscernible]. 14:45:38

8 MS. BREDEHOFT: -- form of the question. 14:45:39

9 I'm sorry. 14:45:40

10 Objection to the form of the question, and 14:45:41

11 calls for hearsay, foundation, and speculation. 14:45:42

12 Go ahead. 14:45:45

13 A Yes. 14:45:47

14 Q Directing your attention to the title, 14:45:47

15 "Amber Heard: I spoke up against sexual violence - 14:45:54

16 and faced our culture's wrath. That has to 14:45:58

17 change." 14:46:04

18 Who came up with that title? 14:46:04

19 MS. BREDEHOFT: Objection to the form of 14:46:06

20 the question, hearsay, foundation, and 14:46:08

21 speculation. 14:46:11

22 Go ahead. 14:46:11

1 A Based on my investigation, I'm not aware 14:46:12
2 of any -- I'm not aware that the ACLU had any role 14:46:16
3 in writing the name of the op-ed piece, and my 14:46:23
4 understanding of how op-ed pieces work is, that 14:46:26
5 the media, in this case The Washington Post, would 14:46:31
6 have drafted the name of the -- the title of the 14:46:36
7 op-ed and not the person who wrote the op-ed. 14:46:41
8 Q Did The Washington Post seek the ACLU's or 14:46:45
9 Ms. Heard's approval of its title? 14:46:51
10 A I believe the answer to that is: No. 14:46:54
11 There's nothing in the evidence that shows that 14:46:55
12 they reached out to us to do that, and it is 14:46:57
13 inconsistent with my understanding that these news 14:46:58
14 outlets do not usually ask for the permission of 14:47:01
15 the author of the op-ed to -- you know, for when 14:47:04
16 they come up with the title. 14:47:08
17 Q It says, "I spoke up against sexual 14:47:10
18 violence - and faced our culture's wrath." 14:47:14
19 What does that refer to? 14:47:18
20 MS. BREDEHOFT: Objection, leading, 14:47:19
21 hearsay, foundation, calls for speculation. 14:47:22
22 Go ahead. 14:47:25

1	A That, after Ms. Heard spoke up about	14:47:27
2	domestic violence, that she then had a lot of	14:47:34
3	significant adverse impact of this, such as, you	14:47:36
4	know, relating to her career and relating to how	14:47:45
5	the public, at large, approached her.	14:47:48
6	Q What "violence" did she speak up about?	14:47:50
7	MS. BREDEHOFT: Objection to the form of	14:47:54
8	the question, also hearsay, foundation, and	14:47:56
9	speculation.	14:47:58
10	Go ahead.	14:47:59
11	A I believe that Amber has spoken up about	14:48:00
12	several instances of violence throughout her life,	14:48:04
13	including during her marriage to Johnny Depp.	14:48:09
14	Q So you understood, as anybody would, that	14:48:12
15	this was a reference to her claims that her	14:48:16
16	then-husband, Johnny Depp, physically abused her,	14:48:21
17	correct?	14:48:25
18	MS. BREDEHOFT: Objection to the form of	14:48:25
19	the question, and also calls for hearsay,	14:48:30
20	foundation, and speculation, and I believe it's	14:48:31
21	also outside of the topic.	14:48:32
22	Go ahead.	14:48:32

PLAINTIFF AND COUNTERCLAIM DEFENDANT JOHN C. DEPP, II'S SUPPLEMENTAL DESIGNATIONS OF DEPOSITIONS

COMES NOW Plaintiff and Counterclaim Defendant John C. Depp, II ("Plaintiff"), by counsel, and pursuant to the Section XI of the Scheduling Order entered by this Court submits the following designations of the depositions, taken in this action, as deposition testimony that Plaintiff may introduce at trial, through video and audio display and/or via reading of the transcript. Plaintiff reserves the right to withdraw any of these designations and/or to supplement these designations as appropriate, including to the extent warranted based on any rulings of the Court or any counter-designations submitted by the defendant. Plaintiff further notes that, although the Scheduling Order does not require the designation of party depositions, Plaintiff specifically reserves the right to use any and all portions of Defendant and Counterclaim Plaintiff Amber Laura Heard's ("Defendant") deposition transcript and video at trial, for any and all purposes, and, to the extent required, the entirety of Defendant's depositions are deemed designated.

Fairfax County Circuit Court, Virginia
 Case No.: CL-2019-0002911

Hon. Penney S. Azcarate, Chief Judge, Fairfax
 Circuit Court, Presiding

1 TO ALL PARTIES AND THEIR ATTORNEYS OF RECORD:

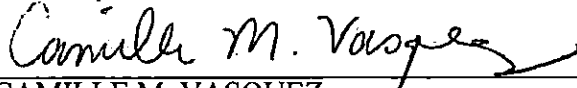

2 PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that on August 5, 2021, at 8:30 a.m., or as soon thereafter as the
3 matter may be heard in Department 19 of the above-entitled Court, located at 111 N. Hill Street,
4 Los Angeles, California, Plaintiff and Petitioner John C. Depp, II ("Mr. Depp") will and hereby
5 does petition the Court (the "Petition") for an Order compelling third-party witness Eric George
6 ("Mr. George") to sit for a second day of deposition and further respond to a number of questions
7 previously posed to him, as well as appropriate follow-up questions. The Petition is brought on 8 the grounds that Mr. George failed and refused to provide responses to numerous questions during 9 his deposition, principally on the basis of unfounded privilege objections asserted by Defendant
10 Amber Laura Heard ("Ms. Heard").

11 This Petition is brought pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure §§ 2025.480 and 2029.600,
12 and is based on this Notice of Petition and Petition, the attached Memorandum of Points and 13 Authorities, the attached Declarations of Camille M. Vasquez and Samuel A. Moniz and 14 supporting evidence attached thereto, and such additional evidence and argument as may be 15 presented at or before the time set for the hearing.

1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 1. INTRODUCTION

3 By this Petition, Plaintiff and Petitioner John C. Depp, II (“Mr. Depp”) seeks an Order of 4 this Court compelling further responses and a further day of deposition of third-party witness Eric
5 M. George (“Mr. George”). This is an action for defamation commenced by Mr. Depp against his 6 former wife, Amber Laura Heard (“Ms. Heard”). Mr. Depp’s Complaint arises from Ms. Heard’s
7 publication of an Op-Ed (the “Op-Ed”) in The Washington Post that Mr. Depp contends
8 republished demonstrably false and defamatory allegations that he committed domestic abuse.

9 Ms. Heard has asserted the affirmative defense of advice of counsel, alleging in her
10 Answer to Mr. Depp’s Complaint that she relied on counsel in connection with the drafting and 11 publishing of the Op-Ed, and therefore could not have acted with malice for purposes of 12 defamation. The assertion of the defense of advice of counsel waives the attorney-client privilege
13 with respect to the subject matter of the advice. The Virginia Court before which this dispute is 14 pending has, accordingly, entered an Order dated May 12, 2021, in which the Court concluded, in 15 pertinent part, that:

16 By asserting defense of counsel as an affirmative defense, [Ms.
17 Heard] waived her attorney-client privilege with respect to the Op-
18 Ed at issue in the Complaint. Accordingly, her communications on 19 that subject are not privileged, and [Ms. Heard] shall produce all 20 communications to or from anyone, including but not limited to 21 any of her legal counsel... relating in any way to the Op-Ed[.]
(Emphasis added).

22 Mr. George was formerly Ms. Heard’s attorney, and was deposed in this action on April 5,
23 2021. During his deposition, Ms. Heard and Mr. George sought to impose a narrow temporal limit
24 on the scope of questioning, and declined to answer questions about his communications with 25 Ms. Heard to the extent that the answer might implicate communications before his first receipt of 26 a draft of the Op-Ed from Ms. Heard, or after its publication. This attempt to effectively impose a 27 temporal limitation on the scope of Ms. Heard’s waiver is improper. The defense of advice of 28 counsel waives privilege as to the subject matter of the advice, and cannot be artificially restricted

1 as to time.¹ Communications outside this narrow timeframe are certainly relevant to evaluating
2 the affirmative defense of advice of counsel, and are within the scope of the subject matter waiver
3 as dictated by governing law and the Order of the Virginia Court. The limitations sought to be 4 imposed by Ms. Heard and Mr. George on Mr. Depp's discovery into this area are contrary to the 5 Virginia Court's Order and applicable law, and should be overruled.

6 The Petition should be granted.

7 2. BACKGROUND

8 A. Summary Of The Virginia Action

9 This action commenced on March 1, 2019 in Virginia, when Mr. Depp filed an action for 10 defamation against Ms. Heard, based on her demonstrably false claims to have been a victim of 11 abuse during their relationship and brief marriage. The filing of Mr. Depp's Complaint (the 12 "Complaint")² arose from an Op-Ed by Ms. Heard that was published in The Washington Post (the 13 "Op-Ed"), in which Ms. Heard referenced claims of abuse she had previously asserted against 14 Mr. Depp during their brief marriage. As alleged in Mr. Depp's Complaint, "[i]n the op-ed,
15 Ms. Heard purported to write from the perspective of 'a public figure representing domestic abuse'
16 and claimed that she 'felt the full extent of our culture's wrath for women who speak out' when 17 she 'spoke up against sexual violence.'" (Complaint at ¶ 1.) As further alleged by Mr. Depp, "the 18 op-ed was plainly about (and other media consistently characterized it as being about) Ms. Heard's
19 purported victimization after she publicly accused her former husband, Johnny Depp... of 20 domestic abuse in 2016[.]" (Complaint, at ¶ 2.) Mr. Depp contends that Ms. Heard's allegations
21 of domestic abuse are demonstrably false and defamatory.

22 ///

23 _____
24 ¹ Counsel for Mr. George appears to have conceded in meet and confer correspondence the 25 principle that the scope of a waiver resulting from the defense of advice of counsel is not 26 necessarily temporally limited, but nonetheless seems firmly committed to the position that communications between Mr. George and Ms. Heard that post-date the publication of the Op-Ed and Mr. Depp's Complaint are not discoverable.

27 ² A copy of Mr. Depp's Complaint is attached to the attached Declaration of Camille M. Vasquez
28 in Support of the Petition ("Vasquez Decl.") at ¶ 4, Exhibit 1.

1 B. Mr. George’s Representation Of Ms. Heard

2 Ms. Heard was represented early in the Virginia Action by the law firm Brown George
3 Ross LLP, including by Eric George as lead counsel (“Mr. George”). Mr. George’s firm filed
4 Ms. Heard’s initial response to the Complaint on or about April 11, 2019, a motion to dismiss and 5 transfer the Virginia Action to California, which was denied by the Virginia Court. Following the 6 denial of that motion to dismiss, Mr. George’s firm withdrew as Ms. Heard’s counsel, on or about
7 November 8, 2019. Mr. George was replaced as Ms. Heard’s counsel by the law firms Kaplan
8 Hecker & Fink LLP and Susman Godfrey LLP. These two firms were in turn replaced by 9 Ms. Heard’s third and current counsel, Charlson Bredehoft Cohen & Brown, on or about June 17,
10 2020.³

11 C. Ms. Heard’s Assertion Of The Defense Of Advice Of Counsel

12 On or about August 10, 2020, Ms. Heard’s current counsel filed, on behalf of Ms. Heard,
13 her Answer And Grounds of Defense (“Answer”).⁴ As her fourth affirmative defense in her 14 Answer, Ms. Heard alleges that she “relied upon counsel in writing and publishing the Op-
15 Ed,” and that therefore “there can be no malice as a matter of law, and therefore no action for 16 Defamation.” (Answer, p. 29.) (Emphasis added).

17 D. The Virginia Court’s Finding That Ms. Heard Waived The Privilege As To All
18 Communications “Relating In Any Way To The Op-Ed”

19 Following the assertion of the defense of advice of counsel by Ms. Heard, Mr. Depp served
20 his Fourth Set of Requests for Production (“Fourth RFPs”) on Ms. Heard on or about December 21 29, 2020 which included a request No. 19 for “[a]ll Documents and Communications regarding 22 Your op-ed published in the Washington Post, which is referenced in Your Counterclaim at 23 paragraph 37, and is the subject, at least in part, of the above-captioned action.”⁵ In her response
24 to the Fourth RFPs, Ms. Heard sought to assert a privilege objection to this request; Mr. Depp

25 ³ See, Vasquez Decl. at ¶ 5.

26 ⁴ A copy of Ms. Heard’s Answer is attached to the Vasquez Decl. at ¶ 6, Exhibit 2.

27 ⁵ A copy of Mr. Depp’s Fourth Request for Production is attached to the Vasquez Decl. at ¶ 7,
28 Exhibit 3.

1 moved to compel further responses and to overrule Ms. Heard's objections to the Fourth RFPs on 2 April 8, 2021. The Virginia Court, the Hon. Chief Judge Penney S. Azcarate presiding, entered an
3 Order on May 12, 2021 (the "May 12 Order"), in which the Virginia Court overruled Ms. Heard's
4 privilege and other objections and found that based on the assertion of the defense of advice of 5 counsel, Ms. Heard had waived the attorney-client privilege with respect to documents and
6 communications "relating in any way to the Op-Ed":

7 [Ms. Heard's] objections to RFP Nos. 18 and 19 are OVERRULED.
8 By asserting defense of counsel as an affirmative defense,
9 [Ms. Heard] waived her attorney-client privilege with respect to 10 the Op-Ed at issue in the Complaint. Accordingly, her 11 communications on that subject are not privileged, and 12 [Ms. Heard] shall produce all communications to or from anyone, including but not limited to any of her legal counsel and/or anyone associated with the ACLU, relating in any way to the Op-Ed, and shall produce... any and all other documents responsive to RFP Nos.
18 and 19. (Emphasis added).⁶

13 E. Mr. George's Failure To Answer Questions At His Deposition

14 Prior to the Court's May 12, 2021 Order, Ms. Heard had filed and served a subpoena for 15 Mr. George's deposition, and counsel for Ms. Heard and Mr. Depp deposed Mr. George on 16 April 5, 2021.⁷ During Mr. George's deposition, counsel for Ms. Heard sought to elicit testimony
17 in support of Ms. Heard's fourth affirmative defense of advice of counsel. In response to 18 Ms. Heard's questioning, Mr. George testified, in part, as follows:

19 Q: Okay. Thank you. So what, if any, legal representation did you
20 provide to Ms. Heard relating to the op-ed?

21 A: So -- and, again, I want to be clear that it's my understanding, for 22 purposes of answering this question, that Ms. Heard is comfortable 23 with waiving the attorney-client privilege as to that question, and as 24 to what I'm being asked here, and it's under that understanding that 25 I'm answering this.

And that, in that capacity, she presented to me a draft of the op-ed, and asked for my counsel in terms of reviewing it, editing it, and finalizing it for publication.

26 ⁶ A copy of the Court's May 12, 2021 Order granting Mr. Depp's Motion to Compel in pertinent
27 part is attached to the Vasquez Decl. at ¶ 8, Exhibit 4.

28 ⁷ A copy of Ms. Heard's subpoena to Mr. George is attached to the Vasquez Decl. at ¶ 9, Exhibit 5.

1 See Transcript of Deposition of Eric George (“Depo Transcript”) at 18:1-14.

2 Q: In connection with the op-ed, what, if anything, was your
3 objective in representing Amber Heard with respect to the review
4 and revision of the op-ed?

5 A: I reviewed it and spent some significant time on it to make sure
6 the there would be no meritorious claim that could be brought 7 against her in connection with a defamation or related type of tort 8 claim, and, ideally, with that in mind, to minimize the possibility of 9 her ever being sued in connection with publishing it.

10 Depo Transcript at 27:3-13.

11 Mr. George further testified, in response to questioning by Ms. Heard’s counsel, that “I
12 was comfortable that the piece could be published without there being any meritorious argument
13 that it would constitute a breach of the divorce judgment or otherwise defame or constitute some 14 other tort.” (Depo Transcript at 92:11-16.)

15 However, when questioned by Mr. Depp’s counsel, Mr. George made clear that he would 16 be guided by the privilege objections asserted by Ms. Heard’s current litigation counsel, who 17 sought to impose strict limits on the scope of the communications subject to disclosure. More
18 specifically, Mr. George—at the instruction of Mr. Heard’s current counsel and his own counsel—19 refused to discuss any communications that preceded or followed the narrow timeframe in 20 December of 2018 during which he was providing Ms. Heard advice on the Op-Ed. As a result,
21 Mr. Depp was foreclosed from inquiring into communications between Ms. Heard and Mr. George 22 following the publication of the Op-Ed, regardless of whether such communications may have had 23 a relation to the subject matter of the defense of advice of counsel. Mr. George repeatedly made 24 his intentions in that regard clear on the record:

25 “I can make this easy. Again between those -- within the narrow 26 frame of my being engaged to consult on the op-ed and the 27 publication of the op-ed, I did not have any such discussions with 28 her. And, prior to that, to the extent that I did, I can't get into that 29 without either a waiver of the privilege or a court order.”

30 (Depo Transcript at 215:7-13.)

31 Throughout the course of the deposition, Mr. George repeatedly and explicitly clarified
32 that he was drawing a very narrow temporal line around the scope of his testimony, beginning
33 with his receipt of the first draft of the Op-Ed, and ending with its publication. Mr. George and

1 his counsel consistently followed the instructions by Ms. Heard’s current litigation counsel not to
2 answer questions outside of that very narrow time window, regardless of whether those questions
3 related to the subject matter of the Op-Ed.

4 As the transcript makes plain, Mr. George made clear that he was refusing, on a blanket
5 basis, to answer questions about his communications with Ms. Heard—including communications
6 that specifically related to the content and drafting of the Op-Ed—that occurred outside that 7 narrow timeframe. See, e.g., Depo Transcript at 229:20-230:1 (referring to “the time period for
8 which the privilege has been waived commencing with my being asked about a forthcoming op-
9 ed and then the publication of it”); Depo Transcript at 207:16-208:1 (“So within this specific
10 time period where I’m advising Ms. Heard about the op-ed, I don’t believe that we had a
11 particular discussion at that particular time, but it is very important for me to emphasize that I am
12 not, until the privilege is waived or I’m so ordered, getting into any such prior discussions to the 13 extent that they occurred beforehand”); Depo Transcript at 211:16-20 (“I cannot answer the 14 question other than to say that, during the specific time period that I was engaged to advise with 15 respect to the op-ed, no, I did not have such discussions in that narrow time frame”). (All 16 emphasis added). That is also consistent with the instructions that Mr. George was given by his 17 own counsel (See, e.g., Depo. Transcript at 287:17-18 -- “I’ll instruct the witness not to answer
18 anything outside the time period”), and the instructions given by counsel for Ms. Heard.

19 Counsel for Ms. Heard and for Mr. George instructed Mr. George not to answer a number
20 of questions relating to the drafting and content of the Op-Ed, and precluded, on a blanket basis,
21 efforts to explore-post-publication communications on the subject matter of the Op-Ed. These 22 questions are detailed more fully in Mr. Depp’s concurrently filed Separate Statement; however,
23 for illustrative purposes, Mr. George failed to answer the following questions, among others:

- 24 • “What conversations, if any, did you have with Ms. Heard prior to the publication 25 of the op-ed of what happened two years ago, when she became a “public figure
26 representing domestic abuse?”” (Depo Transcript at 209:17-21.) This question
27 relates directly to particular language that appears in the Op-Ed.

28 ///

- 1 • “What understanding, if any, do you have with respect to the language [in a draft of 2 the Op-Ed], ‘Then two years ago, after I got a temporary restraining order against 3 my then-husband.’ What does that refer to?” (Depo. Transcript at 264:22-265:16.)
- 4 • “Within the scope of your engagement, prior to the publication of the op-ed, what,
5 if any, investigation did you do of whether Ms. Heard, in fact, was physically
6 abused by Mr. Depp, or did you just take her word for it?” (Depo Transcript at 7 177:11-178:9.)⁸

8 F. Meet And Confer Efforts

9 Mr. Depp commenced his meet and confer efforts with Mr. George by letter, through 10 counsel, on May 20, 2021, noting that the limitations on Mr. George’s testimony at his deposition
11 were inconsistent with the waiver imposed by the Virginia Court and applicable law.⁹ Counsel for 12 Mr. George responded by letter on May 24, 2021, declining to produce Mr. George for a second 13 day of deposition.¹⁰ Mr. Depp’s counsel responded, again by letter, on May 28, 2021.¹¹ On 14 Friday, June 4, 2021, counsel for Mr. Depp met and conferred by telephone with counsel for 15 Mr. George. Although no agreement was reached during this telephonic conversation, both parties
16 agreed to engage in further efforts to confer. By email the same day, counsel for Mr. George
17 confirmed an extension of Mr. Depp’s deadline to move to compel, until June 14, 2021.¹² Counsel
18 for Mr. Depp proposed a compromise by email on June 9, 2021.¹³ By letter on June 11, 2021, 19 counsel for Mr. George declined that compromise and made a counterproposal, which was 20 objectionable in several respects to Mr. Depp.¹⁴ Among other problems, counsel for Mr. George

21 ⁸ A copy of excerpts from Mr. George’s deposition is attached to the Vasquez Decl. as collective
22 Exhibit 6.

23 ⁹ A copy of the May 20, 2021 letter to Mr. George’s counsel is attached to the Declaration of 24 Samuel A. Moniz (“Moniz Decl.”) as Exhibit 7.

25 ¹⁰ A copy of the May 24, 2021 letter is attached to the Moniz Decl. as Exhibit 8.

26 ¹¹ A copy of the May 28, 2021 letter is attached to Moniz Decl. as Exhibit 9.

27 ¹² A copy of counsel’s email is attached to the Moniz Decl. as Exhibit 10.

28 ¹³ A copy of the June 9, 2021 email is attached to the Moniz Decl. as Exhibit 11.

¹⁴ A copy of the June 11, 2021 letter is attached to the Moniz Decl. as Exhibit 12.

1 continued to essentially stand on a temporal limit on the scope of waiver, taking the position that
2 post-publication communications would not bear on the advice at issue in the advice of counsel
3 defense.

4 Mr. Depp requested a further extension of the motion to compel deadline by email on 5 June 11, 2021.¹⁵ Counsel for Mr. George did not respond. On June 14, 2021, counsel for 6 Mr. Depp again exchanged emails with counsel for Mr. George and again requested an extension
7 to allow for further meet and confer efforts. Counsel for Mr. George ignored the request.¹⁶

8 Given the impending deadline to move to compel and the lack of agreement on a further 9 extension of the same, Mr. Depp was forced to file this Petition the same date. However, it is 10 Mr. Depp's intention to further confer with counsel for Mr. George, and to the extent that the 11 parties are able to reach an informal agreement among themselves or with the guidance of the 12 Court at an Informal Discovery Conference, Mr. Depp may withdraw the Petition.

13 3. LEGAL STANDARD

14 This Petition is brought pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure § 2029.600, which provides,
15 in pertinent part, as follows:

16 (a) If a dispute arises relating to discovery under [the Interstate and 17 International Depositions and Discovery Act], any request for a 18 protective order or to enforce, quash, or modify a subpoena, or for 19 other relief may be filed in the superior court in the county in which discovery is to be conducted and, if so filed, shall comply with the applicable rules or statutes of this state.

20 (b) A request for relief pursuant to this section shall be referred to as 21 a petition notwithstanding any statute under which a request for the same relief would be referred to as a motion or by another term if it was brought in a proceeding pending in this state.

22 In turn, motions to compel further responses at a deposition are governed by Code of Civil 23 Procedure § 2025.480, which provides, in pertinent part, as follows:

24 (a) If a deponent fails to answer any question or to produce any 25 document, electronically stored information, or tangible thing under

26 ¹⁵ A copy of counsel's email requesting a further extension is attached to the Moniz Decl. as
27 Exhibit 13.

28 ¹⁶ A copy of this email exchange is attached to the Moniz Decl. as exhibit 14.

1 the deponent's control that is specified in the deposition notice or a 2 deposition subpoena, the party seeking discovery may move the court for an order compelling that answer or production.
3 (Emphasis added).

4 (i) If the court determines that the answer or production sought is 5 subject to discovery, it shall order that the answer be given or the production be made on the resumption of the deposition.

6 Because of the broad scope of discovery in California, the scope of permissible questioning
7 at deposition is, of necessity, quite broad. See, e.g., Code of Civil Procedure § 2017.010; see also,
8 Kalaba v. Gray (2002) 95 Cal.App.4th 1416, 1423 (“deposition questions are intended to elicit
9 information reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence, not just 10 admissible evidence”). The party objecting and refusing to respond at deposition bears the burden
11 of justifying its objection. See, e.g., San Diego Professional Ass'n v. Superior Court (1962) 58
12 Cal.2d 194, 199 (“[t]he burden of establishing that a particular matter is privileged is on the party
13 asserting that privilege”). Objections not asserted with particularity on the record are waived.
14 Boler v. Superior Court (1987) 201 Cal.App.3d 467 fn. 1 (“an objection to a deposition question 15 must state the specific ground, and unstated grounds are waived”).

16 In accordance with Code of Civil Procedure § 2025.480(h), a certified copy of the relevant
17 portions of the transcript of Mr. George’s deposition will be lodged prior to the hearing on this 18 Petition.

19 4. ARGUMENT

20 A. The Assertion Of The Defense Of Advice Of Counsel Waives The Attorney-Client
21 Privilege As To The Subject Matter Of The Advice

22 To the extent that the defense of advice of counsel is a valid defense to a claim, the 23 elements required to satisfy it under Virginia law are as follows:

24 “The defendant must prove that he sought advice of counsel with an 25 honest purpose of being informed of the law, that he made a full, 26 correct, and honest disclosure of all material facts known to him or which he should reasonably have known, and that he acted in good faith guided by the advice given by counsel.”

27 Pallas v. Zaharopoulos, 219 Va. 751, 755 (1979).

28 ///

1 “The party opposing the defense of reliance on advice of counsel must be able to test what
2 information had been conveyed by the client to counsel and vice-versa regarding that advice—
3 whether counsel was provided with all material facts in rendering their advice, whether counsel
4 gave a well-informed opinion and whether that advice was heeded by the client.” Scalia v.
5 Medical Staffing of America, LLC, 2020 WL 1811344 at *4 (E.D. Va. 2020). Accordingly, by 6 asserting the defense of advice of counsel in Virginia,¹⁷ Ms. Heard has tendered as issues in the 7 litigation such matters as whether she made a “full correct, and honest disclosure of all material
8 facts”; whether she sought advice of counsel in good faith and with an honest purpose of 9 following the law; and whether she acted in good faith reliance on the advice of counsel in 10 concluding that the Op-Ed would not defame Mr. Depp.

11 Because of the nature of the defense, Virginia law and persuasive federal authority relied 12 upon by Virginia courts, consistently recognize that the assertion of the defense operates as a 13 waiver of the attorney-client privilege as to the subject matter of the advice. See, e.g., 7600
14 Limited Partnership v. Questech, Inc., 41 Va. Cir. 60 (1996) (“it is well settled that when a party
15 asserts an advice of counsel defense, it waives the attorney-client privilege with respect to all 16 communication to and from counsel concerning the transaction for which counsel's advice was 17 sought”) (emphasis added); Luthman v. Geico, 40 Va. Cir. 404 (1996) (“because [the defendant]
18 asserts as a defense to this claim the advice of counsel, the information sought pertaining to the 19 attorneys' mental impressions and opinions is no longer protected by the attorney-client privilege
20 and is therefore discoverable”); see also, LifeNet, Inc. v. Musculoskeletal Transplant Foundation, 21 Inc., 490 F.Supp.2d 681 (E.D. Va. 2007) (recognizing waiver in the context of the assertion of the 22 defense of advice of counsel, and explaining that “[t]he widely applied standard for determining 23 the scope of a waiver of attorney-client privilege is that the waiver applies to all other 24 communications relating to the same subject matter”) (emphasis in original); and United States v.

25 _____
26 ¹⁷ Since Ms. Heard has asserted the attorney-client privilege in the Virginia Action, where she is a
27 party and subject to the jurisdiction of the Virginia Court, the scope of her waiver is necessarily 28 dictated by Virginia law and, to some extent, by relevant federal authorities routinely relied on by Virginia courts.

1 Dallman, 433 F.Supp.3d 804, 814 (E.D. Va. 2020) (concluding that while not unlimited, the scope
2 of the waiver clearly extends to “any information that would undermine the defense” and citing 3 with approval authorities extending the waiver to documents and communications that might be
4 relevant “to impeach or undermine such a defense”).¹⁸

5 The concept that the waiver extends broadly to the subject matter of the advice is fully 6 consistent with Virginia law and related persuasive federal authorities that recognize that an
7 intentional waiver of the attorney-client privilege as to a partial communication will generally
8 waive the privilege as to all communications with counsel concerning the same subject matter. See,
9 e.g., Federal Election Commission v. Christian Coalition, 178 F.R.D. 61, 74 (E.D. Va. 1998)
10 (recognizing “the concept of subject matter waiver” under which “when a party waives the 11 attorney-client privilege as to one document or communication, it may waive the attorney-client
12 privilege as to all documents that bear on the same subject matter”) (emphasis in original); Williams
13 v. Big Picture Loans, LLC, 2019 WL 1983048 at *8 (E.D. Va. 2019) (“It has accordingly become 14 established that if a party interjects the ‘advice of counsel’ as an essential element of a claim or 15 defense, then that party waives the privilege as to all advice received concerning the same subject
16 matter”); Weil v. Investment/Indicators, Research and Management, Inc., 647 F.2d 18, 24 (9th Cir.
17 1981) (“it has been widely held that voluntary disclosure of the content of a privileged attorney
18 communication constitutes waiver of the privilege as to all other such communications on the same
19 subject”). Consistent with that principle, although federal authorities are not unanimous in the 20 handling of the issue, numerous courts have rejected a temporally limited waiver such as the one
21 sought to be imposed by Ms. Heard and Mr. George. See, e.g., LifeNet, Inc. v. Musculoskeletal

22
23 ¹⁸ California law is in accord with that principle. See, e.g., Transamerica Title Ins. Co. v. Superior
24 Court (1987) 188 Cal.App.3d 1047, 1053 (“the deliberate injection of the advice of counsel into a
25 case waives the attorney-client privilege as to communications and documents relating to the 26 advice”); Wellpoint Health Networks, Inc. v. Superior Court (1997) 59 Cal.App.4th 110, 128 27 (where a defendant seeks to rely on prelitigation advice and investigation by counsel, “it will have
28 put the adequacy of the investigation directly at issue, and cannot stand on the attorney-client privilege or work product doctrine.... The defendant cannot have it both ways” and “If it chooses this course, it does so with the understanding that the attorney-client privilege and the work product doctrine are thereby waived”).

1 Transplant Foundation, Inc. v. Superior Court, supra, 490 F.Supp.2d 681, 688 (E.D. Va. 2007)
2 (noting that “[t]he overarching goal of waiver ... is to prevent a party from using the advice he
3 received as both a sword, by waiving privilege to favorable advice, and a shield, by asserting 4 privilege to unfavorable advice” and extending the waiver to include trial counsel); see also,
5 Genentech, Inc. v. Insmmed Incorporation, 442 F.Supp.2d 838, 844 (N.D. Cal. 2006) (rejecting a
6 temporal limitation on the scope of the waiver and concluding that “Defendants' reliance on the 7 advice of trial counsel is a basis for extending waiver to trial counsel”).

8 Virginia law similarly has recognized that a waiver of privilege may constitute a waiver as 9 to the entire subject matter at issue. Indeed, the concept of subject matter waiver with respect to 10 the attorney-client privilege and work-product doctrine is specifically codified in Virginia law at 11 Va. Code Ann. § 8.01-420.7, which recognizes the extension of a partial waiver of privilege to 12 other, undisclosed communications, in circumstances when “[t]he waiver is intentional,” the 13 “disclosed and undisclosed communications or information concern the same subject matter” and 14 “[t]he disclosed and undisclosed communications or information ought in fairness be considered
15 together.” Virginia courts have also found subject matter waiver in appropriate circumstances.
16 See, e.g., Vesilind v. Virginia State Board of Elections, 91 Va. Cir. 490 (2016 (finding a subject
17 matter waiver of the attorney-client privilege based on partial disclosure, and citing Weil v.
18 Investment/Indicators, Research and Mgmt., Inc., as authority in support of a finding of subject
19 matter waiver); Ostermann v. Monoflo International, 1992 WL 884430 at *2 (1992) (“If the 20 Defendant Corporation has already provided the Complainant with privileged communications,
21 then the privilege has been waived as to any other related documents which are within the same
22 subject matter”); Tomblyn v. Compton, 26 Va. Cir. 131 (1991) (recognizing waiver of privilege
23 and extending a partial waiver of the attorney-client privilege to two sets of successive attorneys 24 so as to encompass the entirety of the relevant timeframe, where “fairness” so required, because 25 the court “cannot allow” a party to “use the attorney-client privilege as both a sword and shield”); 26 Blackman v. Commonwealth, 45 Va.App. 633, 641 (2005 (recognizing “subject matter waiver” in 27 Virginia law, in the context of the fifth Amendment privilege).

1 B. Virginia Law—And The Virginia Court’s May 12, 2021 Order—Impose A Waiver
2 As To The Entire Subject Matter Of Ms. Heard’s Communications Regarding The 3 Op-Ed

4 Here, Ms. Heard has asserted the defense of advice of counsel, to argue that the drafting
5 and publication of the Op-Ed was done in consultation with counsel, and that she could therefore 6 not have acted with “malice” for purposes of a claim for defamation. The concept of malice is 7 recognized in Virginia law as involving “a showing that the statement was made... with 8 knowledge that it was false or with reckless disregard of whether it was false or not.” Fleming v.
9 Moore, 221 Va. 884, 891 (1981). Accordingly, Mr. Depp must be entitled to explore Ms. Heard’s
10 communications with Mr. George relevant to evaluating that defense as framed in this action, 11 including such matters as communications about Ms. Heard’s own understanding of the import of 12 the language used in Op-Ed; Ms. Heard’s understanding of the truthfulness of its contents; the 13 extent to which Ms. Heard had disclosed to Mr. George all facts material to the truthfulness and 14 accuracy of the Op-Ed; and whether Ms. Heard was acting in good faith reliance on Mr. George’s
15 advice so as to avoid defaming Mr. Depp. Communications bearing on those and similar issues 16 are relevant and discoverable regardless of when they occurred, even if they post-date the 17 publication of the Op-Ed or the filing of Mr. Depp’s Complaint, provided that they relate to the 18 advice rendered to Ms. Heard on the Op-Ed.

19 The questions at issue on this Petition are all reasonably calculated to explore these and 20 similar issues, and clearly fall within the scope of the subject matter waiver. For instance, several 21 questions simply seek to explore conversations Mr. George and Ms. Heard may have had 22 regarding particular language used in the Op-Ed, (e.g., “What conversations, if any, did you have 23 at any point in time with Ms. Heard about this allegation here that she writes as a woman who has 24 had to change her ‘phone number weekly,’ because she was getting ‘death threats’”); other
25 questions seek to explore the extent to which the Op-Ed was intended to remind Ms. Heard’s
26 readers of her allegations of abuse against Mr. Depp (e.g., “What understanding, if any, do you
27 have with respect to the language, ‘Then two years ago, after I got a temporary restraining order 28 against my then-husband.’ What does that refer to?”).

1 Questions such as this are directly relevant to the issues raised by the assertion of the 2 defense, and require a response. Mr. George’s failure to answer these questions is simply not
3 tenable. Fairness requires that Mr. Depp be allowed to explore all communications between 4 Mr. George and Ms. Heard related to the advice rendered by Mr. George in connection with the 5 Op-Ed. The scope of that questioning may not be artificially limited, as was done during the 6 deposition, to only those communications that pre-date the publication of the Op-Ed.

7 Ultimately, the Virginia Court’s May 12, 2021 Order is dispositive of this dispute. The 8 Virginia Court clearly found a subject matter waiver, ordering production of documents by 9 Ms. Heard of all communications “relating in any way” to the Op-Ed. And, notably, the May 21,
10 2021 Order did not include any limitations as to time:¹⁹

11 By asserting defense of counsel as an affirmative defense, [Ms.
12 Heard] waived her attorney-client privilege with respect to the 13 Op-Ed at issue in the Complaint. Accordingly, her
14 communications on that subject are not privileged, and [Ms.
15 Heard] shall produce all communications to or from anyone,
16 including but not limited to any of her legal counsel... relating in 17 any way to the Op-Ed[.] (Emphasis added).

18 C. Mr. George Should Be Required To Attend A Second Day Of Deposition To 19 Further Respond To Questions Posed—And Appropriate Follow-up Questions

20 Accordingly, the objections asserted during the course of the deposition should be 21 overruled, and Mr. George should be required to attend a second day of deposition and to provide 22 appropriate and complete responses to the questions set forth in the concurrently filed Separate 23 Statement, and to appropriate follow-up questions directed to the subject matter of the Op-Ed.
24

25 ¹⁹ Nor can Mr. George justify the greatly narrowed scope of his responses on the basis of the 26 work-product doctrine. For one thing, to the extent that Mr. George was representing Ms. Heard
27 in Virginia, Virginia law provides for limited work-product protection that can be overridden 28 where, as here, it is directly at issue. See, Rakes v. Fulcher, 210 Va. 542, 546 (1970) (“This doctrine, however, does not offer absolute immunity, and discovery will be permitted where a showing of necessity greater than the normal requirement for good cause is made”). Given Ms.
Heard’s assertion of the defense of advice of counsel, that standard is clearly met with respect to Mr. George’s work in connection with the Virginia Action. In any event, under either California or Virginia law, the work-product doctrine offers no support for the narrow temporal limit sought to be imposed during the deposition.

NATURE OF PROCEEDINGS: Court Order Petition to Compel Further Responses at Deposition of Eric George filed by Plaintiff/Petitioner John C. Depp, II

RULING

After consideration of the briefing filed and oral argument at the hearing, the Petition to Compel Further Responses at Deposition of Eric George filed by Plaintiff/Petitioner John C. Depp, II is DENIED in its entirety.

Petitioner withdraws his motion as to Question No. 4 at the hearing.

The Court denies the motion as to any proposed modifications for Question Nos. 8, 9 and 10.

Counsel for Amber Heard to give notice.

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

This is a civil petition that arises from the Depp v. Heard action, Case No. 2019-0291, filed on March 1, 2019, in Fairfax County, Virginia (the "Virginia Lawsuit"). Plaintiff in that case, John C. Depp II ("Plaintiff" or "Mr. Depp") filed suit against the petitioner in the instant matter before the Court, Amber Laura Heard ("Ms. Heard" or "Respondent"), alleging a singular cause of action for defamation stemming from an "op-ed" published by Petitioner in the Washington Post on December 18, 2018 (the "Op-Ed"). The Complaint filed by John Depp in the Virginia Lawsuit alleges that "the op-ed depended on the central premise that Ms. Heard was a domestic violence abuse victim and that Mr. Depp perpetrated domestic violence against her" and that [t]he op-ed's clear implication that Mr. Depp is a domestic abuser is categorically and demonstrably false" and "defamatory per se."

On June 14, 2021, John Depp, II filed the instant Petition to Compel Further Responses at Deposition of Eric George. (the "Petition" or "Petition to Compel").

On July 23, 2021, Ms. Heard filed an Opposition (the "Heard Opposition"). On July 26, 2021, Non-Party Eric George filed an Opposition (the "George Opposition").

Pursuant to the written stipulation of the parties signed by the Court on July 28, 2021, the Court considers Mr. George's Opposition as timely.

GROUND FOR PETITION

Pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 2025.480 and 2029.600, John Depp, II moves for an order compelling non-party witness Eric George to sit for a second day of deposition and further respond to questions previously posed to him, as well as appropriate follow-up questions. Mr. Depp asserts that Mr. George improperly failed and refused to provide responses to numerous questions during his deposition, principally on the basis of unfounded privilege objections asserted by Petitioner Heard.

REQUEST FOR JUDICIAL NOTICE

Non-Party Eric M. George's unopposed request to take judicial notice of Exhibits B, F, and G is GRANTED. (Evid. Code, § 452(d), (h).)

The Court also GRANTS Respondent Heard's unopposed request to take judicial notice of Exhibit 15, but DENIES her request to take judicial notice of "[t]he description of the Conciliation Program on the Virginia Court's website...." It is unclear which "facts" Ms. Heard seeks judicial notice of or whether and how the "description" applies to the instant matter.

The Court notes that taking judicial notice of a document is not the same as accepting the truth of its contents or accepting a particular interpretation of its meaning. (See, e.g., Fremont Indem. Co. v. Fremont General Corp. (2007) 148 Cal.App.4th 97, 113-14; StorMedia Inc. v. Sup. Ct. (1999) 20 Cal.4th 449, 457 n. 9.)

DISCUSSION

I. Procedural Requirements

A. California Rules of Court

California Rules of Court, rule 3.1346 provides that:

A written notice and all moving papers supporting a motion to compel an answer to a deposition question or to compel production of a document or tangible thing from a nonparty deponent must be personally served on the nonparty deponent unless the nonparty deponent agrees to accept service by mail or electronic service at an address or electronic service address specified on the deposition record.

(Cal. R. Ct., 3.1346.)

Neither Mr. George nor Ms. Heard object to the Petition on grounds of failure to comply with the California Rules of Court. The Court finds that Eric George consented to the form of service of the Petition and accompanying documents.

B. Code of Civil Procedure

Code of Civil Procedure section 2029.600, subdivision (a) provides that:

If a dispute arises relating to discovery under this article, any request for a protective order or to enforce, quash, or modify a subpoena, or for other relief may be filed in the superior court in the county in which discovery is to be conducted and, if so filed, shall comply with the applicable rules or statutes of this state.

(Code Civ. Proc., § 2029.600(a).)

Code of Civil Procedure section 2029.600, subdivision (b) provides that “[a] request for relief pursuant to this section shall be referred to as a petition notwithstanding any statute under which a request for the same relief would be referred to as a motion or by another term if it was brought in a proceeding pending in this state.” (Code Civ. Proc., § 2029.600(b).)

1. Timeliness

A petition to compel further responses made pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure sections 2025.480 and 2029.600 must be made no later than sixty (60) days after completion of the record of the deposition. (Code Civ. Proc., § 2025.480(b).)

Here, the deposition of Eric George occurred on April 5, 2021, and the Petition to Compel was filed and served on June 14, 2021. (See Camille Vasquez Decl., ¶ 10, Ex. 6; Petition to Compel, p. 6.) Following meet and confer efforts, counsel for Mr. George agreed to extend the deadline for John Depp to file and serve a motion to compel to June 14, 2021. (Samuel Moniz Decl., ¶¶ 7-8, Ex. 10.) Accordingly, the Court deems the Petition timely.

2. Notice

Notice of the petition “shall be given to all parties and to the deponent either orally at the examination, or by subsequent service in writing. If the notice of the motion is given orally, the deposition officer shall direct the deponent to attend a session of the court at the time specified in the notice.” (Code Civ. Proc., § 2025.480(b).)

The Court finds that John Depp, II has given proper notice of the instant Petition.

3. Meet and Confer

A party moving to compel a deponent to provide further answers or production pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 2025.480 must include with the motion “a meet and confer declaration under Section 2016.040.” (Code Civ. Proc., § 2025.480(a), (b).) The declaration “shall state facts showing a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of each issue presented by the motion.” (Code Civ. Proc., § 2016.040.)

Here, after consideration of the Declaration of Samuel A. Moniz included in the Petition to Compel, the Court finds that counsel for John Depp, II made a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of each issue presented by the Petition to Compel. (See Moniz Decl. at ¶¶ 4-12, Exs. 7-14.)

II. Analysis

“If a deponent fails to answer any question or to produce any document, electronically stored information, or tangible thing under the deponent’s control that is specified in the deposition notice or a deposition subpoena, the party seeking discovery may move the court for an order compelling that answer or production.” (Code Civ. Proc., § 2025.480(a).) “If the court determines that the answer or production sought is subject to discovery, it shall order that the answer be given or the production be made on the resumption of the deposition.” (Code Civ. Proc., § 2025.480(i).)

As an initial matter, the Court rejects Ms. Heard’s suggestion that the appointment of a “conciliator” prevents the Court from ruling on the instant Petition to Compel. The Court agrees with Mr. Depp that Ms. Heard provides no basis to conclude that Mr. Depp must first seek the relief sought in the Petition from the “conciliator” in Virginia. Mr. George is a non-party witness residing in California whose deposition appearance was obtained by means of a Deposition Subpoena for Personal Appearance in Action Pending Outside California. The Court finds this method properly provides for discovery to be conducted under the jurisdiction of the Los Angeles Superior Court. (See Vasquez Decl. at ¶ 9, Ex. 5.)

1. Scope of Waiver of Ms. Heard’s Attorney-Client Privilege

It is undisputed that the Virginia Court’s May 12, 2021 Order ruled upon Mr. Depp’s “Motion to Compel Defendant’s Further Responses Without Objections and Production of Documents in Response to His Fourth Request for Production.” (Petition to Compel at pp. 5-6, 15-16; Heard Opposition at pp. 2-7; George Opposition at pp. 5, 7-10.) However, the parties assert different interpretations as to the scope of Ms. Heard’s waiver of the attorney-client privilege with respect to her affirmative defense that she “relied upon counsel in writing and publishing the Op-Ed,” there can be no malice as a matter of law, and therefore, no action for Defamation. (Eric M. George Decl. ¶ 3, Ex. B [Amber Heard’s Answer to the Complaint]; accord, Vasquez Decl. at ¶ 6, Ex. 2.)

The Court agrees with the arguments asserted by Ms. Heard and Mr. George in the briefing filed. The Court sustains the objections for Question Nos. 1, 3, 5, and 6, and the Court is satisfied with Mr. George’s answers, finding them proper as phrased.

The Court does not allow the proposed modifications for Question Nos. 8, 9 and 10, as it does not follow the procedures under Code of Civil Procedure section 2025.480. The Court finds that it would be patently unfair and unduly prejudicial to both Ms. Heard and Mr. George to compel answers to the modified questions that were not posed at the deposition itself. Further, the Court finds sustains the objections to the original questions posed in Question Nos. 8, 9 and 10 as phrased.

Finally, the Court agrees with Mr. George’s arguments that certain questions implicate the work-product doctrine. (See George Opposition at pp. 5, 7-8, 12-15.) The work-product objection was asserted by Mr. George’s counsel with respect to Questions 8 and 9. Ms. Heard’s counsel asserted the work-product objection with respect to Questions 2, 8, and 9. The Court sustains the objections on that ground. The Court finds that any thought processes or after-the-fact analysis, conclusions or opinions are not discoverable, and Mr. George is the holder of the privilege. (Code of Civ. Proc. section 2018.010 et seq.; 2018.030). The Court does not find that denial of this discovery from Mr. George will unfairly prejudice Mr. Depp or result in an injustice under the circumstances here. Further, Plaintiff still has the opportunity to depose Ms. Heard to explore 21 I was asking to you identify. The atmosphere was happy.

 22 A. Are you asking me if we looked happy in that video?
 23 Q. Yes.
 24 A. You can hardly tell anything in that video.
 25 Q. Can you remember?

[Page 2190]

1 HENRIQUEZ - LAWS
 2 A. I do not remember. I do not remember that night. I do not
 3 know what we were doing.
 4 Q. 22nd May: you describe your sister's injury in your witness
 5 statement and I will read it out to you in full. You may not
 6 need to go to it, but you say your sister's eye was bruised
 7 and swollen, her lip was busted open, and there was a chunk of 8 her hair missing. Do you remember that, saying that?
 9 A. I remember seeing that.
 10 Q. You saw it?
 11 A. I remember seeing those injuries.
 12 Q. You are adding — well, first of all you are lying, are you
 13 not?
 14 A. I am not lying.
 15 Q. You are going further than anybody else has gone when giving 16 that description, are you not?
 17 MR. JUSTICE NICOL: Well —
 18 MS. LAWS: Well, you have sat and listened to the evidence,
 19 Ms. Henriquez.
 20 A. What are you asking me exactly?
 21 Q. Have you, in your description, when you are lying on behalf of 22 your sister, decided to add even more details?
 23 A. I am not lying. I am adding the details that I honestly
 24 recall. That is it. As to what other people said in theirs,
 25 I cannot speak to it.

[Page 2191]

1 HENRIQUEZ - LAWS
 2 Q. Do you agree that your sister has a temper?
 3 A. I disagree.
 4 Q. Do you agree that your sister is someone that needs to be
 5 calmed down?
 6 A. If she is upset, yes, we all do.
 7 Q. There has been reference to texts and I can take you to them.
 8 It may be that you remember them. If you do, I will ask you
 9 about them; if not, I will take you to them. Do you remember
 10 text messages between yourself and Mr. Depp where you describe
 11 your sister as someone who needs to be calmed down?
 12 A. I cannot recall. Can you take me to the text messages,
 13 please?
 14 Q. File 8, please.
 15 A. File 8?
 16 Q. Yes.
 17 MR. JUSTICE NICOL: 8, and which tab, please?
 18 MS. LAWS: If I may just have a moment, I am just checking.
 19 (Pause) I think it is tab 57, please.
 20 A. Page number?
 21 Q. In fact, I am going to come back to those because there are 22 several messages and my notation is inaccurate. I do not want
 23 to waste time.
 24 MR. JUSTICE NICOL: So, not file 8?
 25 MS. LAWS: No. I do not want to waste time trying to find them

1 that I've showed you, is your understanding that 16:13:04
2 those are all accurate copies of ECB footage that 16:13:07
3 were taken and preserved by ECB since 2016? 16:13:10
4 A Yes. 16:13:15
5 Q And, again, by taken by ECB, I mean by you 16:13:17
6 or someone under your direction in the regular 16:13:21
7 course of business; is that your understanding? 16:13:25
8 A Yes. 16:13:27
9 Q And is it correct that ECB has produced 16:13:29
10 all the video footage that had been subpoenaed by 16:13:33
11 attorneys? 16:13:39
12 A Yes, that's correct. 16:13:41
13 Q So to the extent that footage has not been 16:13:43
14 produced, is it fair to say that that footage no 16:13:47
15 longer exists, or do you have another explanation? 16:13:53
16 MS. VASQUEZ: Objection; vague and 16:13:57
17 ambiguous, calls for speculation, assumes facts, 16:13:59
18 lack of foundation. 16:14:02
19 THE WITNESS: Can you expand on that, 16:14:03
20 please? 16:14:04
21 BY MS. STEMLAND: 16:14:04
22 Q Sure. So there's -- my understanding is 16:14:05

1 you testified there was 87 clips that have been 16:14:08
2 preserved; is that right? 16:14:10
3 A Yes. 16:14:13
4 Q And that the date and timestamps are 16:14:15
5 reasonably accurate, to your knowledge, on those? 16:14:18
6 MS. VASQUEZ: Objection -- 16:14:21
7 THE WITNESS: Yes, to my knowledge. 16:14:21
8 MS. VASQUEZ: Sorry, Mr. Patterson. Calls 16:14:23
9 for speculation and expert opinion. 16:14:25
10 BY MS. STEMLAND: 16:14:28
11 Q And to the extent there are any missing 16:14:28
12 days or times, is it fair to say that that footage 16:14:30
13 no longer exists, or is there any other footage 16:14:33
14 that could be produced? 16:14:35
15 MS. VASQUEZ: Objection; vague and 16:14:38
16 ambiguous, speculation. 16:14:39
17 THE WITNESS: Outside of the videos that 16:14:44
18 were requested, that's correct, no -- everything 16:14:45
19 else would have been written over at this point. 16:14:49
20 BY MS. STEMLAND: 16:14:52
21 Q Okay. So there's no other videos other 16:14:52
22 than those that have been produced, to your 16:14:54

1	knowledge?	16:14:57
2	MS. VASQUEZ: Asked and answered, calls	16:14:59
3	for speculation.	16:15:02
4	THE WITNESS: Yes, correct.	16:15:02
5	BY MS. STEMLAND:	16:15:04
6	Q Okay. And I believe you testified that	16:15:05
7	ECB currently has a new and improved video system;	16:15:11
8	is that right? Am I remembering that correctly?	16:15:17
9	A Yes.	16:15:20
10	Q And back in 2016, would you agree with me	16:15:23
11	that the video quality was somewhat grainy, as I	16:15:26
12	believe that we have talked about in some of the	16:15:32
13	clips?	16:15:34
14	MS. VASQUEZ: Objection; compound,	16:15:35
15	leading, vague and ambiguous, and calls for an	16:15:40
16	expert opinion.	16:15:45
17	THE WITNESS: Yes, compared to today's,	16:15:48
18	yes.	16:15:52
19	BY MS. STEMLAND:	16:15:53
20	Q And was it also a little bit fuzzy in the	16:15:54
21	clips that we reviewed today?	16:16:06
22	MS. VASQUEZ: Same objections.	16:16:09

1 MS. STEMLAND: Okay. Can we, please, 18:29:09
2 scroll down to comment seven and could -- right 18:29:10
3 there is good. Can we, please, blow that up a 18:29:17
4 little. 18:29:20
5 BY MS. STEMLAND: 18:29:23
6 Q And I would like you to read, please, the 18:29:23
7 comment -- the third comment down where it says, 18:29:25
8 was this footage found? I'm not certain of the 18:29:28
9 date or time. I also do not recall who she was 18:29:33
10 with, but it was two females. I do not recall who 18:29:35
11 threw the pretend punch. I also do not recall if 18:29:38
12 she had any signs of injury during this time. 18:29:41
13 However, do I recall one of the females pretending 18:29:44
14 to punch Amber in the face. 18:29:46
15 Now, did you write this comment? Do you 18:29:49
16 remember it? 18:29:55
17 A I... 18:29:55
18 MS. VASQUEZ: Objection; compound, vague. 18:29:58
19 THE WITNESS: I do recall vaguely. 18:30:02
20 BY MS. STEMLAND: 18:30:06
21 Q And this footage never was found; is that 18:30:07
22 correct -- 18:30:11

1	MS. VASQUEZ: Objection; calls for	18:30:11
2	speculation.	18:30:12
3	BY MS. STEMLAND:	18:30:13
4	Q -- to your knowledge?	18:30:14
5	MS. VASQUEZ: Objection to speculation,	18:30:15
6	assumes facts.	18:30:17
7	THE WITNESS: The footage was never	18:30:18
8	requested.	18:30:20
9	BY MS. STEMLAND:	18:30:23
10	Q By whom?	18:30:24
11	A Any of the attorneys.	18:30:25
12	Q So the footage -- is it your testimony	18:30:31
13	that this exists, this footage exists or not?	18:30:36
14	MS. VASQUEZ: Objection; vague and	18:30:40
15	ambiguous, unintelligible, misstates prior	18:30:43
16	testimony.	18:30:47
17	BY MS. STEMLAND:	18:30:47
18	Q Are you aware that Mr. Depp's attorney in	18:30:47
19	the UK trial has already admitted this footage	18:30:50
20	does not exist?	18:30:52
21	MS. VASQUEZ: Oh, my God. Objection;	18:30:54

1 Plaintiff John C. Depp, II (“Mr. Depp”) opposes the Motion to Quash Plaintiff’s
2 Deposition Subpoena for Personal Appearance and Production of Documents or Protective Order
3 (the “Motion”) filed by Warner Bros. Entertainment Inc. (“Warner Bros.” or “WBEI”) as follows:

4 1. INTRODUCTION

5 WBEI’s conduct in bringing the present Motion is indefensible and warrants sanctions.
6 The Motion was filed without any valid basis in fact or law, for the improper purpose of running
7 out the clock on facially appropriate discovery. Moreover, the Motion is the culmination of a
8 series of questionable tactics on the part of WBEI to pressure the parties to this action to abandon 9 legitimate efforts to depose WBEI by, among other actions, threatening to say “bad things” about 10 Mr. Depp and Ms. Heard, and otherwise threatening to testify about the parties in a damaging 11 manner. When those tactics failed, WBEI filed this Motion, effectively taking the extraordinary
12 position that it is entitled to just ignore a subpoena. The Court should send a clear signal that 13 WBEI is not above the law and is not exempt from relevant, targeted discovery. The Motion
14 should be denied, WBEI should be ordered to produce a representative for deposition, and 15 sanctions should be imposed against WBEI for its abuse of the discovery process in bringing this 16 grossly improper Motion.

17 This is a defamation action brought by Mr. Depp against his former wife, Amber Laura 18 Heard (“Ms. Heard”), on the grounds that she has falsely claimed to be a victim of domestic abuse.
19 In turn, Ms. Heard has brought a $100 million Counterclaim against Mr. Depp, contending that 20 she has suffered damages to her career as a result of three allegedly defamatory statements by a 21 lawyer associated with Mr. Depp, Adam Waldman (the “Counterclaim Statements”).

22 Consequently, a major disputed issue in this case is whether Ms. Heard can credibly claim
23 to have suffered $100 million (or any amount) in damages to her career. Ms. Heard is an actress 24 whose roles include performing in WBEI’s major superhero films Aquaman (which preceded the 25 Counterclaim Statements) and its sequel, Aquaman and the Lost Kingdom (“Aquaman 2”) (which 26 postdates the Counterclaim Statements). Mr. Depp served subpoenas on WBEI which are attached 27 to Motion, seeking documents (“Records Subpoena”) and testimony (“Deposition Subpoena,” and

28 ///

1 collectively, the "Subpoenas") relevant to assessing whether Ms. Heard suffered any adverse
2 consequences from WBEI as a result of the Counterclaim Statements.

3 Astoundingly, WBEI's subsequent Motion seeking to quash the Subpoenas is based on 4 relevance. But the relevance of the discovery sought by Mr. Depp is beyond any legitimate
5 dispute. [REDACTED]

Given that she is claiming career damage in this action, Ms. Heard's role in Aquaman 2 is a major issue in this litigation. Of note, WBEI's counsel has represented in writing that Ms. Heard's suffered no adverse consequence as a result of any statements by Mr. Depp; that any delays in picking Ms. Heard up for a role in Aquaman 2 was either nonexistent or due to "creative issues" about Ms. Heard; and that WBEI would never have renegotiated her salary. WBEI has thereby conceded that WBEI is in possession of directly relevant, discoverable information about Ms. Heard's lack of damages.

A deposition of WBEI to explore those issues is manifestly appropriate. Yet, bafflingly, WBEI has refused point blank to produce anyone for deposition, on the apparent grounds that Ms. Heard's claims are bogus and that WBEI should not have to be bothered with testifying about them. While Mr. Depp agrees that Ms. Heard's claims are bogus, one of the basic purposes of discovery is to develop evidence to refute and disprove meritless claims. WBEI is not immune from discovery, and is not entitled to simply ignore the subpoena power of the Court. The discovery sought by Mr. Depp is indisputably relevant and narrowly tailored (and has been substantially narrowed in the meet and confer process).

The Motion should be denied. And because WBEI lacked substantial (or any) justification for filing it, Mr. Depp seeks appropriate sanctions.

1 2. BACKGROUND

2 A. Summary Of Action And Subpoenas

3 This is a defamation action pending in the Commonwealth of Virginia and is currently set
4 to commence trial on April 11, 2022. See, Declaration of Samuel A. Moniz in Support of 5 Opposition to Motion to Quash (“Moniz Decl.”) at ¶ 4. Mr. Depp commenced the action in March
6 2019, with the filing of his Complaint, which alleges, among other things, that during Mr. Depp’s
7 relationship and marriage to Ms. Heard, Ms. Heard was violent and abusive (once going so far as 8 to cut off the tip of one of Mr. Depp’s fingers), and falsely accused Mr. Depp of committing
9 abuse, causing him significant career and reputational harm. Ms. Heard, in turn, filed a
10 Counterclaim, asserting that she has suffered $100 million in damages from certain statements
11 disputing her truthfulness, purportedly attributable to Mr. Depp. Id.

12 In an effort to explore Ms. Heard’s damages claims, and because Ms. Heard is known to be 13 attached to the Aquaman and Aquaman 2 films, Mr. Depp issued and served the Deposition
14 Subpoena and the Records Subpoena on WBEI. Id. at ¶ 5. Thereafter, Mr. Depp’s counsel met
15 and conferred with counsel for WBEI on a number of occasions in December 2021 and January
16 and February of 2022. Because Ms. Heard is still attached to the Aquaman projects, Mr. Depp 17 agreed in December 2021 to accept, initially, a minimal production of documents from WBEI (its 18 contract with Ms. Heard), and further agreed to postpone a deposition of WBEI’s person most 19 qualified (“PMQ”) until after Ms. Heard was deposed, to avoid burdening third-party WBEI with 20 a deposition that might prove to be unnecessary. Id.

21 However, it very quickly became apparent that a deposition of WBEI is necessary. [REDACTED]

Id. at ¶ 6.

Shortly thereafter, Ms. Heard was deposed in this action in January 2022. Following her testimony, counsel determined that a deposition of WBEI was needed. Id. at ¶ 7.

B. Mr. Depp’s Further Meet And Confer Efforts And Request For A Limited-Scope Deposition Of WBEI

Mr. Depp contacted counsel for WBEI by email on January 17, 2022, to request a further meet and confer. The parties subsequently met and conferred telephonically on or about January 19, 2022, and Mr. Depp’s counsel explained the need for a deposition of WBEI to explore Ms. Heard’s involvement in Aquaman 2 and any damages or lack thereof, in order to prepare for trial and prepare a full damages analysis. Counsel for WBEI indicated that she would consult internally and with her client. (Moniz Decl. at ¶ 8.) Counsel subsequently met and conferred again on or about January 21, 2022. During these meet and confer calls, counsel for WBEI proposed providing a declaration that confirmed that Ms. Heard had suffered no adverse consequence as a result of any conduct by Mr. Depp, in lieu of deposition testimony; Mr. Depp’s counsel responded that such a declaration would be insufficient, and likely would not be accepted as admissible by the Virginia Court. Id. at ¶ 9. Also on January 21, 2022, counsel for Mr. Depp provided counsel for WBEI with a modified and narrowed list of proposed deposition topics and documents by email, with an offer for further discussion. Id. at ¶ 10.

Counsel for Mr. Depp followed up again with counsel for WBEI on several occasions by email, and was advised that WBEI was consulting with its client. Id.

1 C. WBEI's Letter

2 On or about February 3, 2022, counsel for WBEI sent counsel for Mr. Depp and for Ms.
3 Heard, by simultaneous email, a letter, stating, in part, as follows:

4 To avoid the substantial burden of a WBEI deposition, whose 5 employees are still largely working remotely because of the 6 continuing COVID-19 pandemic, WBEI is willing to serve the parties with a sworn declaration setting forth the following facts:

- 7 • Any delay in WBEI picking up Heard's option for Aquaman 2 was 8 due to creative issues in casting Heard in the role of Mera for Aquaman 2, which were communicated to Heard's agent at the time.
- 9 • Any delay in WBEI picking up Heard's option for Aquaman 2 was 10 not due to Heard's dispute with Depp or any of the allegations in 11 this lawsuit.
- WBEI would not have paid Heard more money on Aquaman 2, even if Heard had had more time to attempt to negotiate.

12 (Moniz Decl. at ¶ 11.)

13 Counsel for Mr. Depp responded the same day via email, to explain that the offered
14 declaration was not sufficient, as follows:

15 We are in receipt of your letter today requesting that Warner Bros.
16 proceed by declaration in lieu of deposition testimony. We fully 17 appreciate your client's status as a third party, and have no wish to 18 cause unnecessary expense or inconvenience. In light of the content
19 of your letter, we will consider whether we can further narrow or 20 withdraw some of our document requests, and we are open to further 21 refinement of the deposition topics we have proposed. However,
22 based on our understanding of Ms. Heard's contentions in this action, we believe evidence from Warner Bros. is essential to prepare our case for trial and to address Ms. Heard's anticipated contention at trial that she has suffered substantial monetary damages as a result of conduct she seeks to attribute to Mr. Depp.
Moreover, we do not believe that the declaration you propose would be accepted as admissible by the Court in Virginia, particularly in the absence of any cross examination of the declarant.

23 Id. at ¶ 12.

24 D. Ms. Heard's Proposed Stipulation And Unacceptable Conditions

25 Presumably as a result of behind-the-scenes pressure by WBEI, Ms. Heard's Virginia
26 counsel subsequently offered a stipulation [REDACTED]

27 [REDACTED] However, Ms. Heard's proposed stipulation included
28 conditions that were entirely unacceptable to Mr. Depp, including an agreement that neither party

1 could even mention Aquaman 2 at trial, and the further restriction that Mr. Depp could not
2 mention at trial [REDACTED]

3 [REDACTED] Ms. Heard's proposed stipulation included the following
4 limitations on the parties' ability to present evidence at trial and seek discovery:

5 The Parties agree that neither Ms. Heard nor Mr. Depp will include
6 at trial any reference to Aquaman II for any reason, including but 7 not limited to, any evidence or references supporting or disputing
8 Ms. Heard's damages as it relates to her Counterclaims.

9 The Parties agree that neither Ms. Heard nor Mr. Depp will seek any 10 additional discovery regarding Aquaman II for any reason, including 11 but not limited to, agreeing not to depose Non-Party Warner Bros.
12 Entertainment Inc. or seek any information relating to Aquaman II
13 from WME or any of Ms. Heard's current or former agents or 14 publicists.

15 [REDACTED]
16 [REDACTED] and will not question Ms. Heard, any of 17 Ms. Heard's experts, or any fact witnesses, regarding Aquaman II in 18 either deposition or at trial.

19 (Moniz Decl. at ¶ 13.)

20 Since a major argument against the plausibility of Ms. Heard's damages is that she remains 21 attached to Aquaman 2 (and that fact must obviously be incorporated into any analysis of her 22 claimed damages and presentation of evidence to a jury), [REDACTED]

23 [REDACTED]
24 [REDACTED] Ms. Heard's proposed stipulation was an 25 obvious nonstarter for Mr. Depp, and Mr. Depp rejected Ms. Heard's proposed stipulation. Id. at 26 ¶ 13.

27 E. Ms. Heard's Subsequent Interrogatory Responses Under Penalty Of Perjury

28 Late on February 9, 2022, mere hours after offering her stipulation, Ms. Heard served sworn interrogatory responses in which she asserted, in part, as follows:

F. WBEI's Threat To Give Harmful Testimony Against Mr. Depp, And Mr. Depp's Final Meet And Confer Efforts

On Thursday, February 10, 2022, counsel for Mr. Depp met and conferred telephonically with counsel for WBEI. During that call, Mr. Depp's counsel explained that Ms. Heard's conditions for her stipulation were unacceptable, and that a short deposition of WBEI was necessary, largely to memorialize in the form of admissible testimony the factual assertions stated in counsel's letter. Counsel for WBEI asserted that Mr. Depp had been "given a gift" as a result of Ms. Heard's proposed stipulation, and that Mr. Depp's counsel should "be careful what you wish for," threatening that if forced to give a deposition WBEI would give testimony damaging or embarrassing to Mr. Depp. Mr. Depp's counsel responded by reiterating that a deposition was needed, but agreed to further explore a possible stipulation with Ms. Heard's counsel. Mr. Depp's counsel requested that in the meantime WBEI identify a PMQ and propose convenient dates for a short deposition. (Moniz Decl. at ¶ 15.)

Mr. Depp subsequently offered a counterproposal to Ms. Heard's stipulation, which Ms. Heard's counsel ignored. Id. at ¶ 16.

1 On or about February 16, 2022, Mr. Depp's lead Virginia counsel received an unsolicited
2 telephone call from WBEI's chief counsel, Wayne Smith, urging Mr. Depp to abandon any
3 deposition of WBEI, and warning that WBEI's representatives would say "bad things" about both
4 Mr. Depp and Ms. Heard if a deposition took place. When Mr. Depp's counsel did not accept,
5 WBEI's representatives warned that WBEI would move to quash. Id. at ¶ 17.

6 On February 17, 2022, Mr. Depp's counsel received a final communication from WBEI's
7 outside litigation counsel threatening a motion to quash. Counsel for Mr. Depp responded the 8 same date, rejecting WBEI's arguments, explaining once again the reasons a short deposition is 9 needed, and urging WBEI not to waste the parties' time and money with useless motion practice.
10 Id. at ¶ 18. No response was received from WBEI's counsel, and the Motion was filed the 11 following day.

12 G. Mr. Depp's Proposed Narrowed Parameters Of A PMQ Deposition

13 Mr. Depp has repeatedly offered to narrow and refine the PMQ topics throughout the 14 course of the meet and confer but has run into the solid wall of WBEI's outright refusal to produce
15 anyone to testify on any topic. Nonetheless, Mr. Depp's final proposal for the PMQ topics, are set 16 forth below, and are also reflected in an amended subpoena issued on February 22, 2022:

- 17 • Topic No. 1: Any of YOUR [i.e., WBEI's] internal discussions as to whether to release
18 or terminate MS. HEARD from AQUAMAN 2.
- 19 • Topic No. 2: The reasons for any release or termination of MS. HEARD from 20 AQUAMAN 2.
- 21 • Topic No. 3: Any negotiations or communications with MS. HEARD or her agents
22 regarding her release or termination from AQUAMAN 2.
- 23 • Topic No. 4: Any negotiations or communications with MS. HEARD or her agents
24 regarding her compensation for AQUAMAN 2.
- 25 • Topic No. 5: All information regarding the decisions to cast and keep MS. HEARD in 26 AQUAMAN 2.
- 27 • Topic No. 6: Any reduction in MS. HEARD's role in AQUAMAN 2 as a result of 28 negative publicity related to MR. DEPP.

- 1 • Topic No. 7: All reasons for any reduction in MS. HEARD’s role in AQUAMAN 2.
- 2 • Topic No. 8: The impact (if any) of publicity related to the relationship between MR.
- 3 DEPP and MS. HEARD on whether to cast or release MS. HEARD from AQUAMAN 2.
- 4 • Topic No. 9: The impact (if any) of publicity surrounding any statements by MR.
- 5 WALDMAN regarding MS. HEARD on whether to cast or release MS. HEARD from
- 6 AQUAMAN 2.
- 7 • Topic No. 10: To the extent not covered by the preceding topics, the casting of MS.
- 8 HEARD in AQUAMAN 2.
- 9 • Topic No. 11: Any creative concerns in continuing to cast MS. HEARD in
- 10 AQUAMAN 2.
- 11 • Topic No. 12: Any creative concerns regarding MS. HEARD’s performance in the
- 12 original AQUAMAN.
- 13 • Topic No. 13: All nonprivileged facts supporting the factual assertions contained in the
- 14 letter from YOUR counsel to counsel for Mr. Depp and Ms. Heard on February 3,
- 15 2022, that “[a]ny delay in WBEI picking up Heard’s option for Aquaman 2 was due to
- 16 creative issues in casting Ms. Heard[.]”
- 17 • Topic No. 14: All nonprivileged facts supporting the factual representations contained
- 18 in the letter from YOUR counsel to counsel for Mr. Depp and Ms. Heard on February
- 19 3, 2022, that “[a]s WBEI communicated to Heard’s agent at the time, there were
- 20 creative concerns with continuing to cast Heard in the role of Mera for Aquaman 2, the
- 21 subject of which were communicated to Heard’s agent.”
- 22 • Topic No. 15: All nonprivileged facts supporting the factual representations contained
- 23 in the letter from YOUR counsel to counsel for Mr. Depp and Ms. Heard on February
- 24 3, 2022, that “[a]s WBEI communicated to Heard’s agent at the time, there were
- 25 creative concerns with continuing to cast Heard in the role of Mera for Aquaman 2, the
- 26 subject of which were communicated to Heard’s agent.”
- 27 • Topic No. 16: All nonprivileged facts supporting the factual representations contained
- 28 in the letter from YOUR counsel to counsel for Mr. Depp and Ms. Heard on February

1 is relevant to the subject matter involved in the pending action” or “reasonably calculated to lead
2 to the discovery of admissible evidence.” Moreover, California courts give the discovery statutes a
3 “liberal construction,” so as to uphold the right to discovery whenever possible. See, e.g., Davies
4 v. Superior Court (1984) 36 Cal.3d 291, 299; Greyhound Corp. v. Superior Court (1961) 56
5 Cal.2d 355, 357. Information will be found relevant to the subject matter if it “might reasonably 6 assist a party in evaluating the case, preparing for trial, or facilitating settlement.” Jessen v.
7 Hartford Cas. Ins. Co. (2003) 111 Cal. App. 4th 698, 711-712.

8 Here, the proposed deposition topics are all appropriately tailored to the issues in this
9 action, and are directly relevant. For instance, [REDACTED]

10 [REDACTED]
11 [REDACTED]
12 [REDACTED] So,
13 Mr. Depp seeks to explore at deposition whether there was any delay or other controversy in 14 casting Ms. Heard in Aquaman 2, and if so, the reasons. Similarly, [REDACTED]

15 [REDACTED]
16 [REDACTED]
17 Mr. Depp seeks to explore at deposition the reasons for a reduction in Ms. Heard’s role, if any.

18 It is no answer for WBEI to argue that it should be entitled to submit a hearsay, un-cross-
19 examined declaration instead of deposition testimony, since such a declaration would be useless at 20 trial and would not enable Mr. Depp to fully explore the myriad issues involved through 21 questioning a witness. Nor is it an answer for WBEI to argue that Ms. Heard has offered to 22 eliminate Aquaman 2 as an issue in this case—there is no agreement on that issue, and Mr. Depp
23 is obviously entitled to explore in discovery and present evidence at trial that Ms. Heard has not 24 suffered any adverse consequences as a result of the Counterclaim Statements. The fact that Ms.
25 Heard has never been fired from Aquaman 2 is directly relevant to the issue of damages. Mr. Depp
26 is clearly entitled to explore the lack of damage to Ms. Heard’s involvement in Aquaman 2 (not to 27 mention any of WBEI’s creative concerns regarding casting her), since all of those issues are 28 relevant to any damages analysis.

1 In short, the standard for discoverability is easily satisfied. Mr. Depp has no desire to
2 unnecessarily burden a third party with discovery, and has bent over backwards to accommodate 3 WBEI – but this deposition is vitally necessary, and WBEI’s apparent argument that the 4 information sought does not meet the test for discoverability is not merely meritless but outright
5 frivolous.

6 B. WBEI’s Arguments Based On Confidentiality Are Unfounded, And In Any Event
7 The Discovery Sought Is Vitally Relevant And Outweighs Any Countervailing
8 Considerations

9 As a fallback argument, WBEI argues – with no supporting evidence whatsoever – that 10 the discovery sought implicates proprietary business information. This argument also offers no
11 basis to refuse to produce a PMQ to testify regarding the narrowly tailored topics at issue.

12 First, WBEI has failed to meet its burden of establishing, as a threshold matter, that any 13 confidential information is implicated. The initial burden falls to the party asserting a 14 confidentiality interest in establishing the existence of that interest, which WBEI has failed to even 15 attempt to do, beyond citing generic authorities on confidentiality in a two-paragraph argument in 16 its brief. See, e.g., Williams v. Superior Court (2017) 3 Cal.5th 531, 556 (explaining that “Courts
17 must instead place the burden on the party asserting a privacy interest to establish its extent and 18 the seriousness of the prospective invasion, and against that showing must weigh the 19 countervailing interests the opposing party identifies”). Indeed, WBEI identifies no specific 20 confidential information that is at issue, nor does it present any evidence regarding the seriousness
21 of any supposed invasion of privacy. And in any event, WBEI’s arguments are entirely 22 speculative, since it has not yet been deposed and no questions have been posed to it.

23 Second, even if WBEI had met its initial burden (which it clearly has not), the information
24 sought is not merely relevant, but directly so. Indeed, it is difficult to imagine more relevant or 25 appropriately targeted discovery, given the nature of Ms. Heard’s allegations. Any confidentiality
26 interest is far outweighed by Mr. Depp’s need for the information sought to prepare to dispute at 27 trial Ms. Heard’s claim for $100 million in damages. Deposing WBEI is the only reasonable

28 ///

1 course for Mr. Depp to take. And in any case, there is a Protective Order in effect in this action,
2 and WBEI is free to designate its testimony as “Confidential” under the Protective Order.

3 C. WBEI Should Be Sanctioned

4 This Motion should never have been filed, and WBEI’s arguments are patently lacking in 5 substantial (or any) justification. Pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure § 1987.2, “the court may in 6 its discretion award the amount of the reasonable expenses incurred in making or opposing the 7 motion [to quash], including reasonable attorney’s fees, if the court finds the motion was made or 8 opposed in bad faith or without substantial justification[.]” In addition, Code of Civil Procedure § 9 2023.010(h) provides that “misuses of the discovery process include... making or opposing,
10 unsuccessfully and without substantial justification, a motion to compel or to limit discovery.”
11 And, to the extent that the Motion is characterized as a motion for protective order, Code of Civil 12 Procedure § 2025.420(h) provides that “[t]he court shall impose a monetary sanction against any 13 party, person, or attorney who unsuccessfully makes or opposes a motion for a protective order,
14 unless it finds that the one subject to the sanction acted with substantial justification or that other 15 circumstances make the imposition of the sanction unjust.” The Motion is not supported by a
16 single meritorious argument. Sanctions are appropriate and are requested in an amount no less
17 than $7,327.50. (Moniz Decl. at ¶ 20.)

18 4. CONCLUSION

19 For all the foregoing reasons, Mr. Depp respectfully requests that the Motion be denied in 20 its entirety; that WBEI be ordered to immediately produce its PMQ for deposition; and that WBEI
21 be sanctioned in an amount sufficient to compensate Mr. Depp for the reasonable expense incurred
22 in preparing this Opposition and supporting papers, in an amount no less than $7,327.50.

24 DATED: February 22, 2022

Respectfully submitted,

BROWN RUDNICK LLP

25
26 By:
27 CAMILLE M. VASQUEZ
28 Attorneys for Plaintiff, JOHN C. DEPP, II

DECLARATION OF SAMUEL A. MONIZ

I, SAMUEL A. MONIZ, declare as follows:

1. I am an attorney at law, duly licensed to practice before the above-entitled Court, and am an associate of the law firm of Brown Rudnick LLP, attorneys of record for Plaintiff John C. Depp, II (“Mr. Depp”). In addition, I am admitted pro hac vice to practice before the Fairfax County Circuit Court, Virginia, in the case currently pending between John C. Depp, II and Amber Laura Heard, Case No.: CL-2019-0002911, in which Brown Rudnick is also counsel of record (the “Virginia Action”).

2. I have first-hand personal knowledge of the matters set forth herein, and if called upon as a witness, would and could competently testify thereto.

3. This declaration is submitted in support of Mr. Depp’s attached Opposition. Except as otherwise stated herein, all capitalized terms have the same meaning as in the Opposition.

4. The Virginia Action involves crossing claims for defamation by Mr. Depp and Ms. Heard, in which both parties are seeking substantial damages. Trial in the Virginia Action is currently set to commence on April 11, 2022.

5. True and correct copies of Mr. Depp’s Subpoenas to WBEI are attached as Exhibits 1 and 2. Following service of the Subpoenas on WBEI, I along with various of my colleagues, met and conferred with Sarah L. Cronin, counsel for WBEI on a number of occasions in December 2021 and January and February of 2022. In the course of those meet and confer efforts, the parties agreed in December 2021 to a limited production of documents from WBEI and further agreed to postpone a deposition of WBEI’s person most qualified (“PMQ”) until after Ms. Heard was deposed, to avoid burdening WBEI with a deposition that might prove to be unnecessary, while reserving rights to seek broader discovery.

6. Ms. Heard served her Disclosure of Expert Witnesses on Mr. Depp’s counsel on or about January 11, 2022. A true and correct copy of excerpts of Ms. Heard’s Expert Disclosures is attached as Exhibit 3.

1 7. Shortly thereafter, Ms. Heard was deposed in this action in January 2022. I was
2 present during portions of Ms. Heard's deposition, and following Ms. Heard's testimony at 3 deposition, and in view of other disclosures made by Ms. Heard in the case, it was determined by 4 Mr. Depp's counsel that a deposition of WBEI was needed.

5 8. I contacted counsel for WBEI by email on January 17, 2022 to request a further
6 meet and confer. I subsequently met and conferred telephonically with counsel for WBEI on or 7 about January 19, 2022, and explained that following Ms. Heard's deposition the determination
8 had been made that Mr. Depp needed a short deposition of WBEI to prepare his case for trial.
9 Counsel for WBEI indicated that she would consult internally and with her client and respond.

10 9. I subsequently met and conferred telephonically with counsel for WBEI again on or 11 about January 21, 2022. During either this call or the preceding call – I do not recall precisely
12 which – counsel for WBEI proposed providing a declaration to confirm, in effect, that Ms. Heard
13 had suffered no adverse consequences from WBEI as a result of any conduct by Mr. Depp, in lieu 14 of deposition testimony. I responded that such a declaration would be insufficient, and likely 15 would not be accepted as admissible by the Virginia Court.

16 10. Also on January 21, 2022, I provided counsel for WBEI with a modified and 17 narrowed list of proposed deposition topics and documents by email, with an offer for further
18 discussion. A true and correct copy of my email of January 21, 2022 is attached as Exhibit 4. I
19 subsequently followed up again with counsel for WBEI by email and was advised that WBEI was 20 consulting with its client.

21 11. On or about February 3, 2022, Ms. Cronin's colleague Michael J. O'Connor, also 22 counsel for WBEI, sent counsel for Mr. Depp and for Ms. Heard, by simultaneous email, a letter.
23 I was copied on the transmission email. A copy of the February 3, 2022 letter was submitted as an
24 attachment to WBEI's moving papers, as Exhibit "E."

25 12. I responded the same day via email. A true and correct copy of my email response
26 is attached as Exhibit 5.

27 13. Presumably as a result of behind-the-scenes pressure by WBEI, Ms. Heard's
28 Virginia counsel subsequently offered a stipulation to eliminate Aquaman 2 as an issue in the case.

1 However, Ms. Heard's proposed stipulation included conditions that were unacceptable to Mr.
2 Depp, including a complete prohibition on mentioning Aquaman 2 at trial. A true and correct
3 copy of Ms. Heard's proposed stipulation is attached as Exhibit 6. Mr. Depp rejected Ms. Heard's 4 stipulation.

5 14. On or about February 9, 2022, Ms. Heard served interrogatory responses. A true
6 and correct copy of excerpts from Ms. Heard's interrogatory responses is attached as Exhibit 7.

7 15. On or about February 10, 2022, I met and conferred telephonically with Mr.
8 O'Connor and Ms. Cronin. Also present from my office were my colleagues Camille M. Vasquez,
9 and Benjamin G. Chew, lead trial counsel in the Virginia Action. During that call, I explained that 10 Ms. Heard's conditions were unacceptable, and that a short deposition of WBEI was necessary.
11 Counsel for WBEI stated words to the effect that Mr. Depp had been given a gift as a result of Ms.
12 Heard's proposed stipulation, and that Mr. Depp and/or his counsel should be careful what we 13 wished for. I interpreted counsel's statements to effectively be a threat that if forced to give a 14 deposition WBEI would give testimony damaging or embarrassing to Mr. Depp. I responded by 15 reiterating Mr. Depp's position that a deposition was needed and that WBEI had an obligation to 16 respond to Mr. Depp's subpoena, but agreed to further explore a possible stipulation with Ms.
17 Heard's counsel. I requested that in the meantime WBEI identify a PMQ and propose convenient 18 dates for a short deposition.

19 16. My colleague Ms. Vasquez subsequently offered a counterproposal to Ms. Heard's
20 stipulation. I have never seen a response from Ms. Heard's counsel to Ms. Vasquez's proposal.

21 17. I understand from Mr. Chew that on or about February 16, 2022, he received a
22 telephone call from WBEI's chief counsel, Wayne Smith, urging Mr. Depp to abandon any
23 deposition of WBEI, and warning that WBEI's representatives would say bad things about both
24 Mr. Depp and Ms. Heard if a deposition took place. I further understand from Mr. Chew that 25 WBEI's representatives warned that WBEI would move to quash.

26 18. On February 17, 2022, I received a final communication from WBEI's counsel
27 advising me that WBEI would file a motion to quash if the Subpoenas were not withdrawn.
28 I responded the same date, reiterating the appropriateness of Mr. Depp's discovery, and urging

1 counsel not to engage in motion practice. I received no response.

2 19. On February 22, 2022, Mr. Depp issued an amended subpoena seeking a deposition
3 of WBEI, reflecting counsel's modified proposals for a narrowed deposition. It is requested that
4 the Court direct WBEI to appear for deposition in conformity with the parameters of that amended
5 subpoena, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit 8.

6 20. I spent no less than 6 hours preparing this Opposition and related papers. My
7 billing rate is $815 per hour. Leo J. Presiado is a partner in my office, whose billing rate is $975
8 per hour. I anticipate that Mr. Presiado will spend no less than 2.5 hours preparing for and 9 appearing at the hearing on this Petition. Accordingly, sanctions are requested in an amount no
10 less than $7,327.50.

11 I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the 12 foregoing is true and correct.

13 Executed February 22, 2022, at Carmichael, California.

2 DEFINITIONS

3 1. "YOU" and/or "YOUR" shall mean and refer to Warner Bros. Entertainment Inc.

4 2. "COMMUNICATION" and/or "COMMUNICATIONS" shall mean and refer to
5 any written and/or verbal exchanges between any person or persons or entities, including but not
6 limited to verbal conversations, telephone calls, letters, e-mails, memoranda, reports, telegraphs,
7 faxes, exhibits, drawings, text messages, and any other documents which confirm or relate to the
8 written or verbal exchange, including applicable ELECTRONICALLY STORED
9 INFORMATION.

10 3. "ELECTRONICALLY STORED INFORMATION" means data that is stored in an 11 electronic medium and shall include, by way of example only, computer programs, electronic mail
12 (including message contents, header information and logs of electronic mail usage), output
13 resulting from the use of any software program, including electronic, digital, or any other recorded
14 material whatsoever, including but not limited to, any notes, memoranda, videotapes, affidavits,
15 statements, papers, files, forms, data, tapes, printouts, letters, reports, communications, contracts,
16 agreements, telegrams, records, financial records, applications, correspondence, diaries, calendars,
17 recordings and transcriptions of recordings, voice mail messages recorded electronically and in
18 writing, email messages and printouts, photographs, diagrams, or any other writings, however
19 produced or reproduced, word processing documents, spreadsheets, databases, telephone logs,
20 contact manager information, Internet usage files, PDF files, .JPG files, .TIF files, .TXT files,
21 batch files, ASCII files, and any and all miscellaneous files and data and shall include all active
22 data, deleted data, file fragments, metadata, native file formats and forensic images thereof.

23 4. "DEFAMATION ACTION" shall mean and refer to the action entitled John C.
24 Depp II v. Amber Laura Heard, Circuit Court of Fairfax County Virginia Civil Action No. CL-
25 2019-0002911.

26 5. "DIVORCE ACTION" shall mean and refer to the action entitled In re the 27 Marriage of Amber Laura Depp and John Christopher Depp II, Los Angeles Superior Court Case
28 No. BD641052.

1 masculine gender shall be deemed to include the feminine, in order to bring within the scope any
2 DOCUMENTS which might otherwise be construed to be outside the scope of these Requests.
3 The terms, "and" and "or," have both conjunctive and disjunctive meanings, and "each," "any,"
4 and "all" mean "each and every."

5 14. All undefined terms shall be interpreted according to their plain and commonsense
6 meaning.

7 15. DOCUMENTS should be produced as single page .tiff format files imaged at 300
8 dpi, with the exception of stand-alone Databases (e.g., Access), spreadsheets (e.g., Excel), slide
9 presentations (e.g., PowerPoint), video files, and audio files, which should be produced in native
10 format. Each .tiff file should have a unique name matching the Bates number labeled on the 11 corresponding page. Color DOCUMENTS should be produced in color.

12 16. DOCUMENTS should be produced with (a) a delimited data file (.dat), and (b) an 13 image load file (.opt and/or .lfp). Each .tiff in a production must be referenced in the 14 corresponding image load file. The total number of documents referenced in a production's data 15 load file should match the total number of designated document breaks in the image load file for 16 the production.

17 17. DOCUMENTS should be produced with extracted metadata for each DOCUMENT
18 in the form of a .dat file. The metadata should include the following fields, to the extent such 19 fields are available in the original DOCUMENT as it originally existed in its native format:

Field	Description
Bates_Begin	The bates label of the first page of the document
Bates_End	The bates label of the last page of the document
Attach_Begin	The bates label of the first page of a family of documents (e.g., email and attachment)
Attach_End	The bates label of the last page of a family of documents

18. All DOCUMENTS attached to and/or embedded in an e-mail and/or other DOCUMENT must be produced contemporaneously and sequentially after the parent e-mail/document.

19. In producing DOCUMENTS, you shall furnish all DOCUMENTS in your possession, custody, or control. Without limitation of the term "control," a DOCUMENT is deemed to be in your control if you have the right to secure the DOCUMENT or a copy thereof from another person or public or private entity having actual possession thereof, or if you have the practical ability to obtain the DOCUMENT from a third-party, irrespective of any legal entitlement to the DOCUMENT. If any original DOCUMENT requested is not in your possession, custody, or control, then you are required to produce the best available copy, and to state, to the best of your knowledge, the name and address of the person in possession and/or control of the original. The fact that a DOCUMENT is in possession of another person or entity does not relieve you of the obligation to produce your copy of the DOCUMENT, even if the two DOCUMENTS are identical. In addition, any copy of a DOCUMENT shall be produced if it differs in any respect from the original (e.g., by reason of handwritten notes or comments having been added to copy which do not appear on the original or otherwise).

20. If responsive DOCUMENTS no longer exist because they have been destroyed, cannot be located, or are otherwise no longer in your possession or subject to your control, identify each DOCUMENT and describe the circumstances under which it was lost or destroyed.

21. All DOCUMENTS should be organized and labeled to correspond by number with the numbered categories set forth in these Requests. If a DOCUMENT is responsive to more than one Request, reference that DOCUMENT in your written response to each Request to which it is

1 responsive or in a load file identifying the same.

2 22. A Request for a DOCUMENT shall be deemed to include a request for any and all
3 file folders within which the DOCUMENT was contained, transmittal sheets, cover letters,
4 exhibits, enclosures, or attachments to the DOCUMENT in addition to the DOCUMENT itself.

5 23. If you claim that any DOCUMENT is, in whole or in part, beyond the scope of
6 permissible discovery (including but not limited to any claim of privilege or confidentiality),
7 specify in detail each and every ground on which such claim rests and identify generally what the
8 document is. If you assert any claim of privilege, then at the time of production you are to furnish
9 a privilege log that specifically identifies each DOCUMENT (or portion) withheld by (a) date, (b)
10 author, (c) recipient, (d) persons copied, (e) general description of the subject matter of the 11 DOCUMENT, and (f) a statement of the specific privilege claimed and the basis upon which such
12 privilege is claimed as to each separate DOCUMENT (or portion) withheld. The privilege log
13 should contain enough specificity, but without disclosing privileged information, to allow
14 Plaintiffs and the Court to adequately assess the privilege claimed.

15 24. To the extent you consider any portion of the following Requests to be
16 objectionable, (a) identify the portion of the Request claimed to be objectionable, (b) state the 17 nature and basis of the objection, and (c) produce DOCUMENTS responsive to any portion of 18 such Request that is not claimed to be objectionable.

19 25. If you believe that any Request is unclear, unintelligible, or because of its wording
20 otherwise prevents you from responding fully to that Request, identify the ambiguity or source of 21 confusion and explain the definition and understanding that you relied upon in responding. It shall
22 be insufficient to object to a particular Request on the grounds that it is vague, ambiguous, or
23 otherwise unclear, and withhold DOCUMENTS on that basis without seeking clarification.

24 26. Unless otherwise stated, the timeframe of these requests is January 1, 2010 through
25 and including the present.

1 ATTACHMENT A

2 DEFINITIONS

3 1. "YOU" and/or "YOUR" shall mean and refer to Warner Bros. Entertainment Inc.

4 2. "COMMUNICATION" and/or "COMMUNICATIONS" shall mean and refer to
5 any written and/or verbal exchanges between any person or persons or entities, including but not
6 limited to verbal conversations, telephone calls, letters, e-mails, memoranda, reports, telegraphs,
7 faxes, exhibits, drawings, text messages, and any other documents which confirm or relate to the
8 written or verbal exchange, including applicable ELECTRONICALLY STORED
9 INFORMATION.

10 3. "ELECTRONICALLY STORED INFORMATION" means data that is stored in an 11 electronic medium and shall include, by way of example only, computer programs, electronic mail
12 (including message contents, header information and logs of electronic mail usage), output
13 resulting from the use of any software program, including electronic, digital, or any other recorded
14 material whatsoever, including but not limited to, any notes, memoranda, videotapes, affidavits,
15 statements, papers, files, forms, data, tapes, printouts, letters, reports, communications, contracts,
16 agreements, telegrams, records, financial records, applications, correspondence, diaries, calendars,
17 recordings and transcriptions of recordings, voice mail messages recorded electronically and in
18 writing, email messages and printouts, photographs, diagrams, or any other writings, however
19 produced or reproduced, word processing documents, spreadsheets, databases, telephone logs,
20 contact manager information, Internet usage files, PDF files, .JPG files, .TIF files, .TXT files,
21 batch files, ASCII files, and any and all miscellaneous files and data and shall include all active
22 data, deleted data, file fragments, metadata, native file formats and forensic images thereof.

23 4. "DEFAMATION ACTION" shall mean and refer to the action entitled John C.
24 Depp II v. Amber Laura Heard, Circuit Court of Fairfax County Virginia Civil Action No. CL-

16 custody, or control, then you are required to produce the best available copy, and to state, to the 17 best of your knowledge, the name and address of the person in possession and/or control of the 18 original. The fact that a DOCUMENT is in possession of another person or entity does not relieve 19 you of the obligation to produce your copy of the DOCUMENT, even if the two DOCUMENTS
20 are identical. In addition, any copy of a DOCUMENT shall be produced if it differs in any respect
21 from the original (e.g., by reason of handwritten notes or comments having been added to copy 22 which do not appear on the original or otherwise).

23 20. If responsive DOCUMENTS no longer exist because they have been destroyed,
24 cannot be located, or are otherwise no longer in your possession or subject to your control,
25 identify each DOCUMENT and describe the circumstances under which it was lost or destroyed.

26 21. All DOCUMENTS should be organized and labeled to correspond by number with 27 the numbered categories set forth in these Requests. If a DOCUMENT is responsive to more than 28 one Request, reference that DOCUMENT in your written response to each Request to which it is

1 responsive or in a load file identifying the same.

2 22. A Request for a DOCUMENT shall be deemed to include a request for any and all
3 file folders within which the DOCUMENT was contained, transmittal sheets, cover letters,
4 exhibits, enclosures, or attachments to the DOCUMENT in addition to the DOCUMENT itself.

5 23. If you claim that any DOCUMENT is, in whole or in part, beyond the scope of
6 permissible discovery (including but not limited to any claim of privilege or confidentiality),
7 specify in detail each and every ground on which such claim rests and identify generally what the
8 document is. If you assert any claim of privilege, then at the time of production you are to furnish
9 a privilege log that specifically identifies each DOCUMENT (or portion) withheld by (a) date, (b)
10 author, (c) recipient, (d) persons copied, (e) general description of the subject matter of the 11 DOCUMENT, and (f) a statement of the specific privilege claimed and the basis upon which such
12 privilege is claimed as to each separate DOCUMENT (or portion) withheld. The privilege log
13 should contain enough specificity, but without disclosing privileged information, to allow
14 Plaintiffs and the Court to adequately assess the privilege claimed.

15 24. To the extent you consider any portion of the following Requests to be
16 objectionable, (a) identify the portion of the Request claimed to be objectionable, (b) state the
17 nature and basis of the objection, and (c) produce DOCUMENTS responsive to any portion of
18 such Request that is not claimed to be objectionable.

19 25. If you believe that any Request is unclear, unintelligible, or because of its wording,
20 otherwise prevents you from responding fully to that Request, identify the ambiguity or source of
21 confusion and explain the definition and understanding that you relied upon in responding. It shall
22 be insufficient to object to a particular Request on the grounds that it is vague, ambiguous, or
23 otherwise unclear, and withhold DOCUMENTS on that basis without seeking clarification.

24 26. Unless otherwise stated, the timeframe of these requests is January 1, 2010 through
25 and including the present.

Thanks, Sarah.

As discussed, I'm setting forth below the basic parameters of what I think we're looking for from a Warner Bros. PMK (subject to further revision/discussion):

- Any internal discussions at Warner Bros. as to whether to release or terminate Ms. Heard from Aquaman 2;
- The reasons for any release or termination of Ms. Heard from Aquaman 2;
- Any negotiations or communications with Ms. Heard or her agents regarding her release or termination from Aquaman 2;
- Any negotiations or communications with Ms. Heard or her agents regarding her compensation for Aquaman 2;
- The decision to keep Ms. Heard in Aquaman 2;
- Any reduction in Ms. Heard's role in Aquaman 2 as a result of negative publicity related to Mr. Depp;
- The impact (if any) of publicity surrounding the Depp/Heard relationship and litigations on whether to cast or release Ms. Heard from Aquaman 2; and
- The impact (if any) of publicity surrounding any statements by Adam Waldman regarding Ms. Heard on whether to cast or release Ms. Heard from Aquaman 2.

Of course, we're happy to further discuss.

Thanks,
Sam

Subject: FW: Depp v. Heard - Warner Bros. Deposition
Date: Thursday, February 3, 2022 12:55:53 PM

Mr. O'Connor,

We are in receipt of your letter today requesting that Warner Bros. proceed by declaration in lieu of deposition testimony. We fully appreciate your client's status as a third party, and have no wish to cause unnecessary expense or inconvenience. In light of the content of your letter, we will consider whether we can further narrow or withdraw some of our document requests, and we are open to further refinement of the deposition topics we have proposed. However, based on our understanding of Ms. Heard's contentions in this action, we believe evidence from Warner Bros. is essential to prepare our case for trial and to address Ms. Heard's anticipated contention at trial that she has suffered substantial monetary damages as a result of conduct she seeks to attribute to Mr. Depp. Moreover, we do not believe that the declaration you propose would be accepted as admissible by the Court in Virginia, particularly in the absence of any cross examination of the declarant. Under the circumstances, and absent a withdrawal by Ms. Heard of her damages claims and her stipulation to the facts stated in your letter – which I do not anticipate will be forthcoming – we unfortunately see no alternative but to proceed with the deposition.

With that said, we will do whatever we can to accommodate your client, including setting the deposition by Zoom on a mutually convenient date. Given the content of your letter, I would expect it to be a short, straightforward deposition.

Please propose some dates in the next few weeks when you can make someone available for a short deposition. Should you wish to further discuss this matter, please feel free to contact me by telephone.

Best regards,
Sam

Subject: Re: Depp v. Heard - next week's depositions

Elaine, if you have authority for the proposition that emailing subpoenas to counsel for a party has the effect of compelling a nonparty to do anything, by all means send that authority to us so that we can review it.

As you know, we have never agreed to accept service on Ms. Deuters' behalf and, incidentally, have never been authorized to do so. You have been fully on notice of that fact for months.

And setting aside the question of service, if you have authority for the proposition that Virginia law authorizes the use of Virginia subpoenas as to nonresidents of Virginia who are not present in Virginia, we would appreciate seeing that authority also. I have no idea why you would take the facially incorrect position that a Virginia subpoena has any effect as to someone outside Virginia. After all, you have issued dozens of California subpoenas to California residents, thereby conceding that a VA subpoena alone is not effective as to persons in California. The same principle obviously applies with even greater force as to persons outside the United States.

And finally, if you have any authority for the proposition that a UK resident who is not a party and is not a VA resident or present in VA is subject to jurisdiction in Virginia, you can send that authority to us as well.

In the absence of such authority, your demands and threats have no valid basis in law or fact, and are not a productive use of your time or ours.

As indicated in my email below we can explore whether Ms. Deuters is willing to appear voluntarily, but I very much doubt that even if she is, she would be willing to do so this week.

I don't know that we have an address for Ms. Deuters, but if you intend to attempt to seek discovery via international processes in the UK—which is the only option open to you unless she agrees to appear voluntarily—we can see if we are able to obtain that information for you.

Sam:

Thank you for confirming my list of which depositions are on and off for this coming week is correct. We will proceed accordingly, except as to Gina Deuters.

For Ms. Deuters, we served both Subpoenas on Brown Rudnick as Ms. Deuters' retained counsel and the designated party to receive any communications on her behalf on November 30, 2021. Mr. Depp's Interrogatory responses identified and supplemental Interrogatory responses maintained that Gina Deuters can only be "contact[ed] through Plaintiff's counsel." Mr. Depp never supplemented by providing any different contact information since October 2019- over 2 years ago. Therefore, Ms. Heard served the Subpoenas on Ms. Deuters' counsel based on Mr. Depp's sworn Interrogatory responses. Neither Ms. Deuters nor Mr. Depp served any timely objections to either Subpoena or challenged service. Yet no documents were produced on December 19. We raised all these issue some time ago and you said you would "look into it," and never responded with a follow up. Even after that, Mr. Depp did not supplement by providing any different contact information for Ms. Deuters, and is now estopped from doing so after the service of the subpoenas, no objections being served, and nearly two months have passed as we rapidly approach the close of discovery.

Ms. Heard obtained valid service of these Subpoenas on Ms. Deuters, intends to proceed with the deposition as noticed on January 27, and we will send you the Zoom link. If Ms. Deuters or Brown Rudnick (as counsel for either or both Ms. Deuters and Mr. Depp) fail to appear as noticed, they do so at their own risk and we will address the issue with the Court.

Thank you for your consideration.

Elaine,

Thanks for the response.

With respect to Gina Deuters, I don't believe you're correct that that deposition is going forward next week. Ms. Deuters is a UK resident and is not subject to subpoena power or jurisdiction in Virginia. We have not agreed to accept service and, even if we had, the Virginia subpoena you emailed our office would be wholly meaningless as to a nonresident of Virginia. We can look into whether Ms. Deuters might agree to a voluntary deposition, but are not in a position to commit one way or the other on that today.

Sam,

Depp has been under Court order to provide proper contact information for over a year and should have done it before that as part of his obligation under Virginia's discovery rules. He has violated both the order and the rules. We're not playing these games with you during the last week of discovery, when the parties have multiple fact discovery, expert discovery, and trial deadlines outstanding. We are not agreeing to continue depositions outside the discovery period when, but for your failure to provide contact information, these witnesses could have been deposed long ago. And we will object to any attempt by Mr. Depp to have these witnesses testify at trial.

Ben:

Your email below is both surprising and disappointing, and suggests that Ms. Heard is engaged in yet more improper gamesmanship, rather than a serious effort to obtain discovery. True to form, your office provided no indication one way or the other whether these witnesses had been served or if their depositions were going forward. We had no idea whether you were proceeding, and we have learned to expect you and your colleagues to simply ignore our inquiries on those matters. We therefore sought out contact information for these individuals (which, incidentally, we had to obtain from a third party), and contacted them directly. They advised that they are willing to appear for deposition, and we notified you of that fact the same day. I note that we have cross-noticed these depositions, which you never informed us were off calendar. For you to claim that somehow you are being given inadequate notice of the date your own office noticed is an unusual position, to say the least. Nonetheless, we are open to an agreement to take these depositions next week, if you genuinely believe Thursday is not workable. As for documents, you can take that up with the witnesses; I have no information one way or the other on whether any documents even exist. The bottom line is this: if you want to depose these witnesses, you have the option of doing so. The choice to proceed or not is yours. Please let us know by COB today.

On another note, as you know, Gina Deuters is a UK resident and is beyond either party's subpoena power. You never followed up on our inquiries whether you intended to seek any sort of international discovery, and you have made no effort to do so. We have nonetheless been in contact with her for several weeks to see if she will agree to appear voluntarily for a deposition, recognizing that neither party has the ability to compel her testimony. She has now indicated that she is available to appear next week, on a purely voluntary basis by Zoom, and without agreeing to accept service of a US subpoena which, as you know, is a nullity as to a UK resident. If you wish to take her deposition next week, we will not object to your doing so after the discovery cutoff. Again, the choice to proceed or not is entirely yours, but you have the option of doing so. Either way, please let us know by COB tomorrow.

Thank you.

Sam,

The Court ordered you to produce accurate contact information for these two witnesses over a year ago. You did not do that, and despite repeated attempts, we have not been able to serve either Mr. Damien or Mr. McGivern. It's improper for your side now apparently to make them available for deposition (presumably with you serving as their counsel) with two days' notice during the last week of discovery. To the extent this is an attempt to avoid having the witnesses excluded at trial, it is inappropriate and we reserve all rights to object to their appearance at trial. Moreover, our subpoenas included requests for documents, which you do not indicate they will be providing in advance of any deposition. If I'm wrong on that, and they plan to make a full and complete production of documents, please let me know. Otherwise, we will not be moving forward with their depositions this week.

We can confirm that Christian Carino's deposition is going forward and Tasya Van Ree's, Adir Abergel's, and David Heard's are not.

13 1 BY MR. ROTTENBORN: 2 Q. Without disclosing anything to me about 3 what you and Mr. Sherman talked about, what did 4 you do to prepare for your deposition today? 5 A. I did -- 6 MR. SHERMAN: Well, I'm going to object 7 that it does call for attorney/client privilege 8 generally, but you can answer the question. 9 THE WITNESS: I didn't prepare. 10 BY MR. ROTTENBORN: 11 Q. Okay. Did you speak to anyone who 12 wasn't your attorney in preparation for today's 13 deposition? 14 A. No. 15 Q. Okay. When did you -- and I know that 16 your attendance today is -- is reluctant. That's 17 fair to say; right? 18 A. It is. It's not my comfort zone. 19 Q. Right. Right. I get it. 20 And your involvement in this case 21 generally has been reluctant and out of your 22 comfort zone too; right?	15 1 that, particularly the -- the large yellow text at 2 the top. Yep, just scroll down a little bit. 3 (Deposition Exhibit Number 1 4 was marked for identification) 5 BY MR. ROTTENBORN: 6 Q. And if you ever need anything enlarged 7 or if you need -- 8 A. I'm good. 9 Q. All right. Just let us know. Okay? 10 A. Uh-huh. Thank you. 11 Q. Is this -- 12 MR. ROTTENBORN: Can you shrink that a 13 little bit, Alex, so we can see a little more of 14 it? Thanks. 15 BY MR. ROTTENBORN: 16 Q. Is this the text that you were just 17 referring to, Ms. Divenere? 18 A. Yes. 19 Q. What was your reaction to receiving this 20 text? 21 A. You know, I was a little horrified. I 22 was, you know, I was concerned, just because I
14 1 A. True. 2 Q. When did you first become involved in -- 3 and when I say, "this case," you understand that 4 I'm referring to the lawsuit pending between 5 Mr. Depp and Ms. Heard in Virginia; correct? 6 A. Correct. 7 Q. When did you first become involved in 8 this case? 9 A. When I received a text from Mr. Waldman. 10 Q. And Mr. Waldman is Mr. Depp's -- one of 11 Mr. Depp's attorneys? 12 A. Correct. 13 Q. I'm going to ask Alex to pull up the 14 exhibit that's been uploaded that's called, 15 "Waldman Text to Laura D." 16 And, Ms. Divenere, the way this is going 17 to work is you're going to -- I'm going to show 18 you a few documents today. It won't be many, but 19 a few. And I'm going to put them up, or the 20 Planet Depos tech person is going to put them up 21 on the screen like this. 22 MR. ROTTENBORN: And if you can enlarge	16 1 felt like I really -- you know, it was a couple 2 years later. I didn't really, you know, I didn't 3 know why I was involved with it. And I -- I felt 4 a little threatened by it, to be honest. 5 Q. Did this text make you feel 6 uncomfortable? 7 A. Yes. 8 Q. And did it -- did it make you feel like 9 you were being put under pressure by Mr. Waldman 10 to make a Declaration in Mr. Depp's favor? 11 MS. VASQUEZ: Objection. Leading the 12 witness. 13 MR. ROTTENBORN: You can answer. 14 THE WITNESS: Yes. 15 BY MR. ROTTENBORN: 16 Q. Did you feel pressured by Mr. Waldman to 17 say things that were unfavorable about Ms. Heard? 18 MS. VASQUEZ: Objection, leading. 19 BY MR. ROTTENBORN: 20 Q. You can answer. 21 A. Yes. 22 Q. And I believe you testified to this, but

17 1 did you feel that Mr. Waldman was threatening you 2 with some negative consequences personally if you 3 didn't cooperate with him? 4 MS. VASQUEZ: Objection, leading. 5 THE WITNESS: Yes. 6 BY MR. ROTTENBORN: 7 Q. Did you feel that Mr. Waldman's conduct 8 in sending you this text and in getting you to 9 sign a Declaration was appropriate? 10 MS. VASQUEZ: Objection, leading. Vague 11 and ambiguous as to "appropriate." 12 MR. SHERMAN: Yeah, I'm going to object 13 to that as well. It also calls for a legal 14 conclusion in terms of whether -- I don't know 15 whether you mean by "appropriate," appropriate 16 conduct for a lawyer or not, but she wouldn't be 17 able to opine on that. 18 MR. ROTTENBORN: Okay. Well, she can 19 answer the question, so I'll ask it again with 20 your objections noted. 21 BY MR. ROTTENBORN: 22 Q. To you, as you understand the word	19 1 THE WITNESS: Okay. 2 MR. SHERMAN: -- and then you answer the 3 question afterwards, unless I instruct you not to. 4 Okay? 5 THE WITNESS: Okay. 6 MR. SHERMAN: So go ahead and answer 7 that question. And if you need it read back or 8 you need to hear it again -- 9 THE WITNESS: Yes. 10 MR. SHERMAN: -- they can do that for 11 you, because it's been a minute. 12 THE WITNESS: Thank you. Can you repeat 13 the question? 14 BY MR. ROTTENBORN: 15 Q. Sure, yeah. At any point -- at any time 16 have -- have you believed that Ms. Heard somehow 17 concocted a hoax that she was abused by Mr. Depp? 18 MS. VASQUEZ: Same objections. 19 MR. SHERMAN: Same objections. 20 THE WITNESS: No. 21 BY MR. ROTTENBORN: 22 Q. Now, in this text from Mr. Waldman, he
18 1 "appropriate," Ms. Divenere, did you feel that 2 Mr. Waldman's conduct in sending you this text 3 and getting a Declaration from you was 4 appropriate? 5 MS. VASQUEZ: Same objections. 6 THE WITNESS: No. 7 BY MR. ROTTENBORN: 8 Q. And at any point when you received this 9 text, or since then, have -- have you believed 10 that Ms. Heard somehow concocted a hoax that she 11 was abused by Mr. Depp? 12 MS. VASQUEZ: Objection, leading. 13 Assumes facts not in evidence. It's vague and 14 ambiguous. 15 MR. SHERMAN: Also overbroad. 16 THE WITNESS: I'm -- I'm sorry. Am I 17 supposed to answer this? 18 MR. SHERMAN: Yeah, you can -- 19 THE WITNESS: Okay. 20 MR. SHERMAN: Laura, you answer the 21 questions. When the objections come, just wait 22 and let them get made --	20 1 says that he has you, quote, "all over the 2 surveillance video." Do you see that? 3 A. Yes. 4 Q. Did he ever show you any surveillance 5 videos from this building? 6 A. I don't recall. I believe I might have 7 seen one photo that he had -- that he had shown 8 me. In fact, he did show me one photo of myself 9 in an elevator. 10 Q. Was anyone else in that elevator with 11 you? 12 A. I don't remember. 13 Q. And Ms. Heard wasn't; correct? 14 A. I don't remember. 15 Q. And this building that is being referred 16 to in this text is the Eastern Columbia building 17 in which you resided at that time; correct? 18 A. Correct. 19 Q. Did you -- is it fair to say that this 20 text left you with the impression that if you 21 didn't cooperate, that you were going to have to 22 spend a significant amount on your own attorney?

29 1 Q. And do you have any personal knowledge 2 of any fact that suggests that Ms. Heard's 3 statements regarding abuse at the hands of Johnny 4 Depp are false? 5 A. I have -- 6 MR. SHERMAN: Object -- hold on. 7 Objection. It's overbroad and lacks 8 foundation as to this witness. 9 You can answer the question, Laura. 10 MS. VASQUEZ: I join in those 11 objections. 12 THE WITNESS: I'm sorry. Can you repeat 13 the question? 14 BY MR. ROTTENBORN: 15 Q. Sure. Do you have any personal 16 knowledge of any fact that suggests that 17 Ms. Heard's statements regarding abuse at the 18 hands of Johnny Depp are false? 19 A. No. 20 MS. VASQUEZ: Same objection. 21 MR. SHERMAN: Laura, did you answer? I 22 didn't hear you.	31 1 Declaration he wanted? 2 MS. VASQUEZ: Objection, leading. 3 Assumes facts not in evidence. Calls for hearsay. 4 MR. SHERMAN: Also vague the way it's 5 phrased. 6 You can answer, Laura. 7 THE WITNESS: Yes. 8 BY MR. ROTTENBORN: 9 Q. And did you feel coerced to sign this 10 Declaration by Mr. Waldman? 11 MS. VASQUEZ: Objection, asked and 12 answered. Assumes facts not in evidence. 13 THE WITNESS: Yes. 14 BY MR. ROTTENBORN: 15 Q. I'd like to go to paragraph 5, please. 16 And paragraph 4 as well. 17 Do you see in paragraph 4 there's a 18 reference to an accusation that Amber Heard made 19 against Mr. Depp regarding an incident that 20 happened on Saturday, May 21st, 2016? 21 A. Yes. 22 Q. And then in paragraph 5, you talk about
30 1 THE WITNESS: Yes. I'm sorry. I said, 2 no. 3 MR. ROTTENBORN: Alex, can you please 4 pull up the document entitled, "Declaration of 5 Laura Divenere Signed," and slowly scroll through 6 it, just so she can see all the pages and her 7 signature at the end, please. 8 (Deposition Exhibit Number 3 9 was marked for identification) 10 BY MR. ROTTENBORN: 11 Q. Ms. Divenere, is this the Declaration 12 that Mr. Waldman had you sign? 13 A. Yes. 14 Q. And did -- 15 MR. ROTTENBORN: You can scroll back up 16 to the top, please, Alex. 17 BY MR. ROTTENBORN: 18 Q. In your conversations with Mr. Waldman, 19 both in the text that we saw earlier and leading 20 up to signing this Declaration, did Mr. Waldman 21 leave you with the impression that you could be 22 charged with perjury if you didn't sign the	32 1 seeing Ms. Heard in some of the days following 2 that alleged incident; correct? 3 A. Yes. 4 Q. You didn't see her -- to the best of 5 your knowledge, you didn't see her on May 21st 6 after the incident, did you? 7 A. I honestly -- I don't recall. 8 Q. Okay. And you didn't see her on May 9 22nd after the incident; right? 10 A. I don't recall. I -- again, I don't -- 11 these are just dates. And it's been so long, I 12 have no concept of that time. 13 Q. And when -- when you say that you saw 14 her at least on May 23rd, 24th, and 25th, are 15 those -- is that your recollection that you saw 16 her on those days, or did Mr. Waldman tell you 17 that you saw her on those days? 18 MS. VASQUEZ: Objection, calls for 19 hearsay. Lack of foundation. Assumes facts not 20 in evidence. It's also vague and ambiguous as to 21 time. Her recollection when? 22 THE WITNESS: Those would have been

33 1 dates that Mr. Waldman gave me. Because, again, I 2 don't have any correlation or idea of what those 3 dates were, especially after so many years. 4 BY MR. ROTTENBORN: 5 Q. And when it came to seeing signs of 6 abuse on Ms. Heard's face, Mr. Waldman told you 7 that if there had been abuse, that you would have 8 been able to see signs; right? That was something 9 he said to you? 10 MS. VASQUEZ: Objection, hearsay. 11 Assumes facts not in evidence, misstates the 12 record. 13 THE WITNESS: Yes. 14 BY MR. ROTTENBORN: 15 Q. And he told you that any signs of abuse 16 would have been very visible to you; right? 17 MS. VASQUEZ: Object -- same objections. 18 THE WITNESS: Yes. 19 BY MR. ROTTENBORN: 20 Q. But he never explained to you how or why 21 he would have any personal knowledge or any basis 22 to make such a statement; right?	35 1 thanks. It's always -- always interesting with 2 Zoom with the little time delay; right? 3 To your knowledge, Mr. Waldman isn't an 4 expert on spousal abuse or domestic violence; 5 correct? 6 MS. VASQUEZ: Objection. 7 MR. SHERMAN: Objection. Lacks 8 foundation. Calls for speculation. Calls for a 9 legal conclusion as to the word, "expert," 10 depending on if you use it as a term of art. 11 MS. VASQUEZ: I'll join in those 12 objections. 13 BY MR. ROTTENBORN: 14 Q. You can answer. 15 A. Correct. 16 Q. And to your knowledge, Mr. Waldman isn't 17 an expert on what cuts and bruises and swelling 18 and other signs of abuse look like; right? 19 MS. VASQUEZ: Same objections. 20 THE WITNESS: Correct. 21 BY MR. ROTTENBORN: 22 Q. But nonetheless, Mr. Waldman led you to
34 1 MS. VASQUEZ: Same objections. 2 THE WITNESS: Correct. 3 BY MR. ROTTENBORN: 4 Q. Mr. Waldman wasn't there on May 21st, 5 2016, to your knowledge; right? 6 A. To my knowledge -- 7 MR. SHERMAN: Objection. It lacks 8 foundation. Calls for speculation. 9 MS. VASQUEZ: Join. 10 MR. SHERMAN: You can answer, Laura. 11 THE WITNESS: Oh. Correct. 12 BY MR. ROTTENBORN: 13 Q. He never told you that he was there on 14 May 21st, 2016; right? 15 A. Correct. 16 MS. VASQUEZ: Objection. Calls for 17 hearsay. 18 Apologize, Ms. Divenere. I was a bit 19 delayed. 20 THE WITNESS: It's fine. 21 BY MR. ROTTENBORN: 22 Q. To your knowledge, Mr. Waldman --	36 1 believe that if you didn't notice signs of abuse 2 on Ms. Heard's face, that she hadn't been abused; 3 right? 4 MS. VASQUEZ: Objection. Assumes facts 5 not in evidence. Misstates the record. Calls for 6 hearsay. 7 THE WITNESS: Correct. 8 BY MR. ROTTENBORN: 9 Q. Now, you did -- you mentioned this in 10 your conversation with Ms. Heard. You did see 11 Ms. Heard's face red and swollen on those days in 12 late May 2016 when you saw her; right? 13 MS. VASQUEZ: Objection. Assumes facts 14 not in evidence. It's compound. 15 THE WITNESS: To my recall, yes. 16 BY MR. ROTTENBORN: 17 Q. And you have no personal knowledge or 18 reason to believe that if you hadn't seen bruises 19 or cuts on Ms. Heard's face, that somehow she 20 wasn't abused and was making up the allegations of 21 abuse; right? 22 MR. SHERMAN: Objection. It's vague as

PLAINTIFF'S DESIGNATION/IDENTIFICATION OF EXPERT WITNESSES

Plaintiff John C. Depp, II, by and through his undersigned counsel, pursuant to Rule 4:1(b)(4)(A)(i) of the Rules of the Supreme Court of Virginia, and the Court's Scheduling Order, dated June 27, 2019, hereby designates and identifies his expert witnesses.

Given the preliminary state of discovery—in particular, that the parties have barely begun their document productions, non-parties have yet to make significant document productions, and no depositions have been taken—Plaintiff reserves the right to supplement these Expert Witness Designations, to include (1) identifying additional or different areas of expected testimony for the designated witnesses, (2) identifying additional or different bases for the expected testimony of the designated witnesses, and/or (3) designating additional or different expert witnesses.

Retained Experts

1. Richard Marks, Entertainment Industry Expert, The Point Media, 150 S. Rodeo Drive, Suite 220, Beverly Hills, California 90212. Mr. Marks has had a long career as an executive and business lawyer in the entertainment industry.

Mr. Marks has served as a business and legal affairs executive at Universal, Disney and Paramount, in addition to working as a business attorney in private practice at Greenberg Traurig well as his extensive experience as a CPA and financial forensics professional. Mr. Spindler may also testify as to any fact or opinion rendered or attributed to another witness or party as identified by other parties' witnesses. Plaintiff reserves the right to designate or substitute other witnesses of the same disciplines to testify as to the facts and opinions described herein. Plaintiff further reserves the right to supplement this Expert Witness Designation based on additional facts Plaintiff learns during discovery and/or his ongoing investigation of this matter.

Mr. Spindler's CV is attached hereto as Exhibit C. He is being compensated for his work at the rate of $525 per hour; none of his compensation is contingent on the opinions he renders or the outcome of the litigation.

Non-Retained Experts

1. and 2. Jack Whigham and Christian Carino Creative Artists Agency, 2000 Avenue of the Stars, Los Angeles, CA 90067. Mr. Whigham and Mr. Carino have served as Mr. Depp's agent since October 2016. Messrs. Whigham and Carino are regarded as two of the leading talent agents in Hollywood, with extensive experience in the film industry. Mr. Whigham and Mr. Carino are expected to testify on the negative impact of Ms. Heard's defamatory Op-Ed on Mr. Depp's career – and that Ms. Heard's Op-Ed referred to Mr. Depp - as well as the impact of a jury verdict in Mr. Depp's favor on his career going forward. In so doing, Mr. Whigham and Mr. Carino may rely on their expertise in the entertainment industry and their experience as an agent and film industry executive.

3. Edward White, C.P.A., Edward White & Co., LLP, Warner Center Towers, 21700 Oxnard Street, Suite 400, Woodland Hills, California 91367. Mr. White has served as Mr. Depp's business manager and accountant since March 14, 2016. Mr. White is expected to testify on the negative impact of Ms. Heard's defamatory Op-Ed on Mr. Depp's career – and that

Ms. Heard's Op-Ed referred to Mr. Depp - and economic circumstances as well as the impact of a jury verdict in Mr. Depp's favor on his career going forward. In so doing, Mr. White may rely on his expertise in business and accounting and his experience as a business manager in the entertainment industry.

4. Robin Baum Partner, SLATE PR, LLC, 901 North Highland Avenue, Los Angeles, California 90038. Ms. Baum is regarded as one of the leading publicists in Hollywood, with extensive experience in the film industry. She has served as Mr. Depp's publicist for over a decade. Ms. Baum is expected to testify on the negative impact of Ms. Heard's defamatory Op-Ed on Mr. Depp's career - and that Ms. Heard's Op-Ed referred to Mr. Depp - as well as the impact of a jury verdict in Mr. Depp's favor on his career going forward. In so doing, Ms. Baum may rely on her expertise in the entertainment industry and her experience as a publicist in that industry.

PLAINTIFF’S DESIGNATION/IDENTIFICATION OF EXPERT WITNESSES

Plaintiff John C. Depp, II, by and through his undersigned counsel, pursuant to Rule 4:1(b)(4)(A)(i) of the Rules of the Supreme Court of Virginia, and the Court’s Scheduling Order, dated June 27, 2019, and in response to Interrogatory No. 15 in Ms. Heard’s First Set of Interrogatories dated October 7, 2019, hereby designates and identifies his expert witnesses.

Given the ongoing state of discovery—in particular, the continuing document productions from the parties and non-parties and the fact that depositions of certain key parties and witnesses, specifically Ms. Heard, have yet to occur—Plaintiff reserves the right to supplement this Expert Witness Designation, to include (1) identifying additional or different areas of expected testimony for the designated witnesses, (2) identifying additional or different bases for the expected testimony of the designated witnesses, and/or (3) designating additional or different expert witnesses.

Retained Experts

1. Richard Marks, Entertainment Industry Expert, Richard Marks & Associates, 10573 W. Pico Blvd., Suite 221, Los Angeles, California 90064. Mr. Marks has had a long career as an executive and business lawyer in the entertainment industry. Mr. Marks

California state law in effect on May 21, 2016 related to policy and procedure development regarding general crimes and domestic violence response for law enforcement agencies; the LAPD's policies and procedures in effect on May 21, 2016 related to general crimes and domestic violence investigations; and standard patrol practices related to general crimes, domestic violence investigations, officer safety, and evidence identification and collection.

Ms. Frost may also testify as to any fact or opinion rendered or attributed to another witness or party as identified by other parties' witnesses. Plaintiff reserves the right to designate or substitute other witnesses of the same disciplines to testify as to the facts and opinions described herein. Plaintiff further reserves the right to supplement this Expert Witness Designation based on additional facts Plaintiff learns during discovery and/or his ongoing investigation of this matter. In particular, as of the date of this Expert Designation, the depositions of Ms. Heard, Officer Melissa Saenz, Officer Tyler Hadden, and the LAPD have yet to occur and the documents from the LAPD that were requested by Ms. Heard have yet to be produced.

Ms. Frost's CV is attached hereto as Exhibit H. She is being compensated for her work at the rate of $485 per hour for consultation time and $535 per hour for deposition and trial testimony time; none of her compensation is contingent on the opinions she renders or the outcome of the litigation.

2 I object -- I object to you asking any questions. 05:03:22
3 Mr. Derin -- 05:03:25
4 MS. PINTADO: Okay. You stated your 05:03:26
5 objections, Leo. 05:03:28
6 MR. PRESIADO: -- it's up to you. I think 05:03:28

9 MR. DERIN: Yeah, I think you -- you folks 05:03:36
10 can take it up with the judge. I think we'll put a 05:03:38
11 stipulation on the record with regard to, you know, 05:03:41
12 the signing the transcript and you folks can fight it 05:03:44
13 out with -- fight it out with your judge. You did it 05:03:48
14 last time, and we were forced to come back for a 05:03:51
15 second session of the deposition. And we were happy 05:03:54
16 to accommodate you to do that and, you know, we'll 05:03:57
17 live with whatever the resolution is with your judge. 05:04:02

1 PROCEEDINGS

2 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We're now on the
3 record. Here begins tape number 1 in the 4 Videotaped Deposition of Richard Marks. It's
5 taken in the matter of Depp versus Heard.
6 Today's date, March 21st, 2022. The time on 7 the video monitor is 12:04 p.m. Eastern
8 Standard Time.

9 My name is Armando Forte, I'm the 10 videographer representing Planet Depos.

11 All parties are attending this
12 deposition remotely.

13 Will counsel please identify themselves
14 and who they represent.

15 Ms. Pintado.

16 MS. PINTADO: Clarissa Pintado for Amber
17 Laura Heard.

18 MR. CHEW: Ben Chew and Stephanie Calnan
19 for plaintiff, John C. Depp II.

20 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: Thank you, Counsel.

21 Our court reporter for today is April
22 Reid, representing Planet Depos. She will

1 now swear in the witness and we will proceed.

2 THE COURT REPORTER: Mr. Marks, will you
3 please raise your right hand.

4 THEREUPON:

5 RICHARD E. MARKS, ESQ.

6 being first duly sworn or affirmed to 7 testify to the truth, the whole truth, and 8 nothing but the truth, was examined and 9 testified as follows:

10 THE COURT REPORTER: Thank you.

11 EXAMINATION

12 BY MS. PINTADO:

13 Q. Mr. Marks, I represent Ms. Heard. My
14 name is Clarissa Pintado.

15 Can you please provide your full name,
16 for the record.

17 A. My full legal name is Richard Edward
18 Marks, M-A-R-K-S.

19 Q. Thank you.

20 And what is your business address?

21 A. My business address right now is at my 22 home and -- but I -- the business address I'm

1 using is a post office box down the block,
2 10573 West Pico, P-I-C-O, Boulevard, Suite 221,
3 Los Angeles, California 90064-2333.

4 Q. And you understand that you're here to 5 testify about the opinions that you provided in 6 this case; correct?

7 A. I -- I think my opinions were included
8 in documents called designations and, yes, I do
9 understand that.

10 Q. And do you have any notes or any 11 documents, either, you know, on your desk or on 12 the screen, that you're going to be referring to 13 during this deposition?

14 A. I don't have anything on the screen. I
15 did pull out copies of the designations which I
16 have right here.

17 Q. Okay.

18 A. Because they include my opinions, if you
19 will.

20 Q. And you've been deposed; correct --
21 deposed before; correct?

22 A. Yes.

1 Q. Did you review any testimony from the
2 ACLU?

3 A. Not that I recall right now.

4 Q. Do you know who drafted the title of 5 this op-ed?

6 A. I don't. It's -- it's an opinion. It

7 says that it's written by Amber Heard. From my

8 little knowledge of the newspaper business, they

9 usually have someone on staff write the -- the 10 headline, if you will. But the opinion is by 11 Amber Heard.

12 Q. Would you agree that Aquaman was a
13 breakthrough role for Amber?

14 MR. CHEW: Objection, argumentative,

15 lack of foundation, assumes facts not in

16 evidence.

17 A. From what I've read, Amber Heard

18 auditioned with many, many other actors and then

19 tested and then was chosen to play this role -- I

20 believe it's Mera -- and she entered into an

21 option -- test option agreement. And this was

22 definitely a breakthrough role for her.

1 of it, but -- but again, my -- my clientele is
2 normally producers, and they are -- I think, even 3 though they -- they produce advertising, they're 4 engaging me in terms of production and 5 development.

6 Q. All right. And looking at G, paragraph
7 G, it says, "The positive and significant impact
8 of a jury verdict in Mr. Depp's favor on his 9 career and reputation in the film industry going
10 forward."

11 Is that still your opinion today?

12 A. Yes, I have an opinion on that. Yes,
13 absolutely.

14 Q. What is your --

15 A. That's still my opinion.

16 Q. What is your opinion on that?

17 A. That if there is a -- if -- if Mr. Depp
18 can obtain repudiation of these statements, in 19 effect, prove defamation, that it will have a 20 positive and significant impact on his career and 21 reputation on a go-forward basis. In effect,
22 he'll be reclaiming his -- his good name from

20 MS. PINTADO: Let's take another break.

21 Just five minutes, if that's -- unless you

22 need longer.

81

1 THE WITNESS: No. Five -- again, I -- I

2 don't know what Mr. Chew needs, but if you

3 say five minutes, I'll be back in

4 five minutes.

5 MR. CHEW: Yeah, that -- that -- that's

6 fine with me.

7 MS. PINTADO: Okay.

8 MR. CHEW: That way we can move it

9 along.

10 MS. PINTADO: Okay. Fine with me.

11 2:10.

12 THE WITNESS: Okay. Great. Going off

13 the record at 2:04.

14 (Recess in proceedings.)

15 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We're back on the 16 record, 2:14.

17 Please continue.

18 BY MS. PINTADO:

19 Q. Mr. Marks, are you aware of any actors
20 accused of abuse who have had a jury verdict on 21 the issue?

22 A. As I sit here right now, I can't think

1 of a jury verdict, no.

2 Q. What about any verdict -- or any

3 judgment, I should say, other than Mr. Depp?

4 A. When you say jury -- "verdict," what are

5 you talking about?

6 Q. Let me rephrase.

7 Are you aware of any actors accused of

8 domestic abuse who have had a judgment issued by a

9 court on the issue?

10 A. As I sit here now, I can't recall a

11 judgment on domestic abuse.

12 Q. Are any of your opinions in this case

13 based on statistical analyses?

14 A. My -- my opinions -- I'm not a

15 statistician. I know there are other experts in 16 this case that are. But I'm not basing my

17 opinions on statistics. I'm basing them on my

PLAINTIFF'S SUPPLEMENTAL DESIGNATION/IDENTIFICATION OF EXPERT WITNESSES

Plaintiff John C. Depp, II, by and through his undersigned counsel, pursuant to Rule 4:1(b)(4)(A)(i) of the Rules of the Supreme Court of Virginia, and the Court's Scheduling Order dated March 26, 2021, and in response to Interrogatory No. 15 in Ms. Heard's First Set of Interrogatories dated October 7, 2019, hereby supplements his Expert Designations dated January 11, 2022 to reflect the findings of Dr. Shannon Curry's IME report dated January 18, 2022.

Given the ongoing state of discovery—in particular, the continuing document productions from the parties and non-parties and the fact that depositions of certain key parties and witnesses have yet to occur—Plaintiff reserves the right to further supplement this Expert Witness Designation, to include (1) identifying additional or different areas of expected testimony for the designated witnesses, (2) identifying additional or different bases for the expected testimony of the designated witnesses, and/or (3) designating additional or different expert witnesses.

Retained Experts

1. Richard Marks, Entertainment Industry Expert, Richard Marks & Associates, 10573 W. Pico Blvd., Suite 221, Los Angeles, California 90064. Mr. Marks has had a long career as an executive and business lawyer in the entertainment industry. Mr. Marks has served as a business and legal affairs executive at Universal, Disney, and Paramount among other high profile entertainment companies, in addition to working as an entertainment transactional attorney in private practice with firms such as Greenberg Traurig, The Point Media, and, most recently, at Richard Marks & Associates, an entertainment law firm that Mr. Marks founded in April 2020. Mr. Marks has represented clients such as ITV, Village Roadshow, MRC, New Regency, Legendary, Electus, DirecTV, Relativity and Ovation in connection with their development and production of programming for exploitation in all media and on all platforms. Early in his career, he was responsible for business and legal affairs relating to the development, production, post-production, marketing, and advertising for feature films such as “Beverly Hills Cop II,” “Aladdin,” and “Beauty and the Beast,” and television series such as “Cheers,” “Harts of the West,” and “Family Ties.” Most recently, he has done similar work for streaming series such as “Bosch” and feature films including “All the Money in the World.” While working on “All the Money in the World,” Mr. Marks gained first-hand experience with how a production company navigates and handles accusations of sexual assault and abuse alleged against an actor starring in its film. In that case, the studio removed the star of its movie even though his services had already been performed and accepted by the studio and the studio had already paid him because it felt so strongly that these sorts of claims alleged against a star in its film would irreparably damage the success of the movie.

Mr. Marks also has a reputation in the entertainment industry for his expertise in its customs and practices and has been engaged as an expert witness by companies as varied as Warner Bros., CAA, and Celador and individuals including Jillian Michaels, Frank Darabont, and Helen Bowers. He earned both his bachelor's degree and his Juris Doctor from University of California, Los Angeles ("UCLA"), graduating respectively as the Valedictory Speaker and the Chief Justice of the Moot Court, and has been a member of the California Bar since 1973.

Subject Matter of Mr. Marks' Opinion: Mr. Marks will testify concerning the impact of Ms. Heard's December 2018 Op-Ed in The Washington Post on Mr. Depp's career.

Substance of Mr. Marks' Opinion: Specifically, Mr. Marks will draw on his experience and knowledge as a business and legal affairs executive with entertainment companies as well as his experience as an entertainment lawyer to testify as to the following facts and opinions: (1) Disney's decision to not cast Mr. Depp in future installments of the Pirates of the Caribbean film franchise was a result of Ms. Heard's December 2018 Op-Ed in The Washington Post in which she portrayed herself as a victim of domestic abuse by Mr. Depp; and (2) the severe damage and negative impact that Ms. Heard's December 2018 Op-Ed in The Washington Post had on Mr. Depp's career and marketability, including the decreased interest and demand from studios and brands to work with Mr. Depp on a project or otherwise have Mr. Depp attached to a certain project, film, or brand, in an industry that is especially sensitive to abuse and violence allegations made by women in light of the #MeToo Movement.

Summary of the Grounds for Mr. Marks' Opinion: Mr. Marks will base his opinions on the following grounds:

- a. Film studios, production companies, and distributors, especially companies specializing in family-friendly content such as Disney, are particular in their evaluation of whether, and on what terms, to hire an actor for film roles, and seriously consider allegations of violence or abuse when determining whether to retain an actor, particularly claims from women of abuse by men in light of the #MeToo Movement;

- b. Ms. Heard's December 2018 Op-Ed in The Washington Post, a nationally recognized publication, was directed towards the entertainment industry and its alleged mistreatment of Ms. Heard which, because it was an Op-Ed authored by Ms. Heard herself and published just three days prior to the U.S. release of Aquaman, a movie starring Ms. Heard, carried more significance and had a greater impact on the entertainment industry;
- c. It is normal entertainment business and industry custom and practice for Disney to not make a statement or otherwise announce why it had decided to not continue to work with a particular actor, especially where the contract at issue is an option contract instead of a pay-or-play guaranteed contract;
- d. Companies looking to market products are particular in their evaluation of whether, and on what terms, to engage an actor to promote such products in advertising and seriously consider allegations of violence or abuse when determining whether to retain an actor, particularly claims from women of abuse by men in light of the #MeToo Movement;
- e. An actor's reputation is an important and critical factor that film studios, production companies, distributors, and luxury brands consider when selecting an actor for film roles and advertising campaigns;

- f. Mr. Depp's tardiness while working on films did not seem to impact whether film companies or production companies decided to work with Mr. Depp again; and
- g. The positive and significant impact of a jury verdict in Mr. Depp's favor on his career and reputation in the film industry going forward.

Mr. Marks' opinions will be based on a review of documentary evidence and deposition and trial testimony, including the Complaint and related exhibits and Counterclaims and related exhibits filed in this action, the deposition testimony taken in this action including of Jack Whigham dated January 20, 2021, Christian Carino dated January 19, 2021, Tracey Jacobs dated January 28, 2021, Johnny Depp dated November 10-12, 2020, documents produced by Mr. Depp (DEPP00018328-DEPP00018404; DEPP00018508-DEPP00018594), Jack Whigham (JW000001-000149), Christian Carino (CC000001-252), Edward White & Co., LLP (EWC000001-EWC000052), and Disney (DISNEY000001-383), relevant articles and publicly available web pages such as The Hollywood Reporter's Disney's Film Production Chief Talks 'Mary Poppins' and His Big Bet on 'The Lion King': "It's a New Form of Filmmaking" dated December 20, 2018 (<https://www.hollywoodreporter.com/news/general-news/disneys-film-production-chief-is-placing-big-bets-lion-king-1169170/>), Variety's Johnny Depp, Amber Heard's Divorce Settled, Domestic Violence Case Dismissed dated August 16, 2016 (<https://variety.com/2016/film/news/amber-heard-johnny-depp-domestic-violence-settlement-1201838239/>), and Mr. Depp's IMBD web page (<https://www.imdb.com/name/nm0000136/>), as well as his extensive experience as an entertainment industry executive and attorney. Mr. Marks may also testify as to any fact or opinion rendered or attributed to another witness or party as identified by non-parties. Plaintiff reserves the right to designate or substitute other witnesses of the same disciplines to testify as to the facts and opinions described herein. Plaintiff further reserves the right to supplement this Expert Witness Designation based on additional facts Plaintiff learns during discovery and/or his ongoing investigation of this matter. In particular, as of the date of this Expert Witness Designation, the following depositions have yet to occur and/or be completed: Ms. Robin Baum, Mr. Edward White, Edward White & Co., LLP, Disney, and Mr. Christian Carino.

Mr. Marks' CV is attached hereto as Exhibit A. He is being compensated for his work at the rate of $975 per hour; none of his compensation is contingent on the opinions he renders or the outcome of the litigation.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF FAIRFAX COUNTY

JOHN C. DEPP, II,

Plaintiff,

v.

AMBER LAURA HEARD,

Defendant.

Civil Action No.: CL-2019-0002911

ORDER

Upon consideration of Plaintiff's Motion to Compel Independent Mental Examination ("IME") of Defendant Amber Heard ("Plaintiff's Motion"), Defendant's opposition thereto, arguments of counsel, and being fully advised, it is, this 1st day of October, 2021, hereby ORDERED as follows:

1. Plaintiff's Motion is GRANTED.
2. Defendant Amber Heard shall submit to an IME conducted by Dr. Shannon J. Curry, PsyD, MSCP.
3. The IME shall take place on December 10, 2021 and December 17, 2021 at the offices of Curry Psychology Group, 200 Newport Center Drive, Suite 204, Newport Beach, California 92660. Each day shall begin at 9:00 a.m. and continue for a period of seven (7) hours to include a one (1) hour lunch break, two (2) fifteen minute (15 min.) breaks in the morning, two (2) fifteen minute (15 min.) breaks in the afternoon, and any other breaks as needed and agreed to by Ms. Heard and Dr. Curry. No one is allowed to observe the IME. If all or any portion of the examination is recorded, Ms. Heard is entitled to informed consent and shall be notified of such recording. Such recording shall be reviewed only by Dr. Curry, and no one else is permitted access to it without leave of Court.

4. The IME shall consist of a one-on-one examination and clinical interview between Dr. Curry and Ms. Heard, to include appropriate testing as determined by Dr. Curry based on her training, experience, expertise, and review of relevant materials.

5. The scope of Dr. Curry's IME is not limited to Dr. Hughes' report and shall be Ms. Heard's current mental condition and her mental condition during and preceding relevant events and time frames at issue in Mr. Depp's Complaint and Ms. Heard's Answer and Counterclaim. Dr. Curry's evaluation of Ms. Heard will utilize the same tests that were administered by Ms. Heard's expert, Dr. Hughes, with the caveat that any instruments which are identified as possessing poor retest reliability (variability in results if the test is taken again) or validity concerns will be substituted for measures with greater established validity and reliability.

6. Dr. Curry's evaluation may assess all domains that were a focus of the prior examination by Dr. Hughes, including:

- a. ~~Personality profile, including but not limited to completion of an intake form; collateral interviews with individuals who observed Ms. Heard prior to, during and/or after the alleged trauma;~~ DSB
- b. Review of relevant records including but not limited to medical records (including ER/urgent care visits); mental health records (therapy, psychiatric medication, treatment in an outpatient or residential facility, former psychological evaluations and all the raw data); school records (grades, enrollment, suspensions/expulsions/truancy, special education services, etc.); arrest records; legal records; employment records; military records; and diaries. Relevant records must be obtained as far back as necessary for Dr. Curry to determine with a "reasonable degree of certainty" how Ms. Heard was functioning prior to the alleged traumatic event, but not fewer than three to five years prior to the alleged trauma;

- c. post-traumatic stress and Posttraumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD);
- d. characteristics of intimate partner violence (IPV);
- e. coping and adjustment;
- f. psychopathology (including, but not limited to, assessment of mood and anxiety disorder symptoms);
- g. response validity/malingering; and
- h. any other mental condition identified by Dr. Curry during her review of relevant records and/or examination of Ms. Heard

7. Dr. Curry's Rule 4:10 report (the "Report") shall be served on counsel within thirty (30) days of completion of the IME. Counsel for Parties and Dr. Hughes shall have access to the Report.

8. Defendant shall produce to Dr. Curry the raw data collected by Dr. Hughes during her examination of Ms. Heard by November 15, 2021, which shall be treated confidential under the Amended Protective Order. Only Dr. Curry, not counsel for the Parties shall have access to the raw data. Similarly, Dr. Curry shall subsequently produce to only Dr. Hughes her raw data within thirty (30) days completion of the IME and it shall also be treated confidential under the Amended Protective Order.
