Escape the [Chanukah] Room

A dark room with just a dim light of one single menorah. This was life during the miracle of the oil that lasted 8 days. What was it like to play dreidel? To eat meals? To play "Escape the Room"?

Familyhood held its first ever "Escape the Room" event on December 10, 2017 with customized Chanukah clues! With over 40 people in attendance and with 8 clues to solve, the team successfully escaped! We darkened the room so that only the glow of a menorah was present. Watching a digital timer of a candle burning down, the team worked together to solve challenging clues. The clues ranged from unlocking the screen of an iPad with a secret code, to solving a riddle that led to finding candles. This clue ended the game with a finale with Rabbi Kail lighting the official candle menorah with the team. They were then awarded the key to unlock the door and "escape" before the digital candle timer burned out. The teamwork demonstrated by those as young as 4 and as old as 17 was heartening.

Our event was then followed by a sing-along of various Chanukah songs, led by Rabbi Kail who played her guitar. We enjoyed a delicious breakfast and jelly donuts!

It was a fun morning enjoyed by all. We thank those who were able to be a part of it and look forward to bringing you more, unique events in the future. If you have suggestions for activities that you'd like Familyhood to have, please reach out to Jodi or Steve, or simply start up a 'discussion' on our Facebook group!

Warm wishes for a Happy New Year,

Sponsor an Oneg:

A special way to celebrate your family's simcha is by sponsoring a Friday night oneg. Sponsorship is not only for Bar/Bat Mitzvah families. You can celebrate an anniversary, birthday, aufruf, bris, special birthday, graduation, becoming grandparents or anything else.

The price for an oneg following a traditional Friday night service with an event attached to it is $300 with fruit and $250 without fruit. An oneg following a Friday night service without an event may be available at a reduced rate. Your sponsorship will be acknowledged in the pamphlet and will be announced from the Bimah.

You will not only be making a wonderful gesture on behalf of your family, but will be helping out your Temple as well.

Come out of the Cold and Have Dinner With Us Instead!

What better way to feel part of our congregation than to join us for our annual New Member/K-2 Shabbat Dinner and service. A long-standing tradition of this temple family and enjoyed by many in the past, it is time to bring back the Shabbat Dinner before services once more.

This year on January 19th we will be having a multi-faceted celebration starting with none other than our Temple band, Nishamah comprised of our President - Michael Wilner, Ritual Chair - Len Gerschitz, Cantor David Katz, and the one and only Dave Berg. The band is always looking for new members to audition if you are interested in joining. Our congregation's new members will be integrally involved throughout the evening, participating in the dinner and service, reading selections in Hebrew and English. Fellow congregants and their families are welcome to join the membership committee in incorporating these new families into our Temple Family. We will also be saying thank you to our office staff, Nancy and Goldie for all of their hard work keeping our Temple running smoothly. Finally, what is more special than the youth of our congregation? The kindergarteners through second graders will be singing and leading us in prayer as they light candles, sing the Shema and engage us in many other surprises for all of you to enjoy.

This would not be possible without the dedication and support of our clergy, Rabbi Cassi Kail and Cantor David Katz, as well as our Director of Education, Deborah Tract. This year our wonderful Teaching Assistants, Hanna Kweit and Stephanie Lashin, have made it fun and educational for the young children to learn the Aleph Bet from their teachers Mrs. Jill Karp and Mrs. Laurel Fried.

Please make sure you join us for this Shabbat dinner and service led by our kindergarteners through second graders enhanced by Nishamah's musical presence and to thank our office staff Nancy and Goldie on January 19th at 6:00 PM for dinner and 7:30 for the Service!

RSVP's for dinner are required by January 10. The cost of the Dinner is $25 for adults, $15 for children over 13 years of age and free for younger children and new members.

See you on the 19th!

Winter Air

A small green spruce
Struggles through gray brush,
Near the shadow
Of a winter-dead oak,
And suns itself,
While gently swaying
To the air of God's love
(Adam Fisher)

During this time of year, we spend an inordinate amount of time indoors, using heaters and draft-free windows to shield us from blistery winds and snowstorms. The middle of winter may seem like a peculiar time to celebrate Tu Bishvat, the birthday of the trees. And yet, we will celebrate this holiday from sundown on January 30th until sundown of January 31st. Unlike here, in the Land of Israel, the worst of the rainy winter season is coming to a close. Plants are beginning to struggle through heavy ceilings of soil and blossom on the other side. This is truly something to celebrate. Tu Bishvat is a day on which we can rejoice in this miracle by acknowledging the beauty of creation, eating fruits and nuts and planting seeds in anticipation of the spring.

Tu Bishvat was not always celebrated this way. It began as a day of delight in the full moon. Since Deuteronomy 14:22-23 teaches "Every year, you shall set aside a tenth part of the yield, so that you may learn to revere your God forever," as Israelites gathered their harvest, they gave 10% of their produce in order to support priests, their assistants (the Levites) and people who were poor. Hillel, a 1st century Rabbi, suggested that taxes be collected on Tu Bishvat, allowing everyone to celebrate in the beginning of the harvest and the miracles of nature. In this way, Tu Bishvat became the birthday of the trees. In the 16th century, Kabbalists created a Tu Bishvat seder, which many people follow today. While we no longer collect taxes on Tu Bishvat, the holiday remains alive as a celebration of a harvest, rejuvenation and life.

On January 30th and 31st and throughout the rest of this winter season, may we look beyond the bare trees on the horizon and open up our eyes to the miracles of creation happening just beneath the soil's surface—both in the Land of Israel and in our own backyards.

L'shalom,

From Our Cantor:

Are you ready? Are you able? Can you do it? It's a new year and it's all up to you. 2018 has arrived and Or Elohim is making it thru the ups and downs of the Jewish world in brilliant fashion.

Some amazing highlights, especially from last month are very worth mentioning. Our Band was tremendous and we had a packed house for our Chanukah service. We also lit our menorahs with the light coming from them shining throughout the whole service. It was beautiful. Additionally, I must thank our very own Noah Svetkov for playing his solo "Hanukah o Hanukah" on the piano!

If you have not yet been to a band shabbat (which I cannot imagine how that could be!) then you must make it one of your new year's resolutions. We really have a great time. It's a whole community celebration and the music is a blast.

Last year, the choir also sang magnificently during many services including the High Holidays. So please come and hear the choir when it's listed on the calendar in this new year. Music coming from the choir member's beautiful voices fill the entire sanctuary.

Given all this joy and fun, let's project about what will come this year for YOU! All of us face the new year with the same struggles, hopes and dreams for an easier life for ourselves and our families. Can we try and move that energy and strength to others around us? Can we support those closest to us so that they may feel strong and useful in our world? In Jewish tradition there is the concept that God creates and destroys the entire world every second. This means that anything that happened in the past is just that, the past. Let the last year go, let go of the old resentments and deep seated anger. Practice forgiveness and give yourself a chance to be a part of the endless re-creation of the world. Let yourself be free of the chains that bound you last year and open up to the unlimited possibilities of which you are truly capable. This is my wish for you and your family.

Happy new year and many blessings for a great and prosperous New Year.

President's Message:

Dear Congregational Families and Friends,

A Healthy, Happy, Prosperous and Gebentched New Year, 2018, to all our Congregants, Temple Members and Friends. I am still kvelling and filled with delight with the retirement party's ambiance and success honoring Rabbi Harvey Abramowitz and Rebbetzin Joan. The service was extremely meaningful and hartzig as Rabbi Harvey and Rabbi Marvin Antosofsky filled the room with their Judaic presence and Talmudic Chachum talk and demeanor. I was in awe to see such spiritual leaders grace our Temple halls once more.

Rabbi Kail's service that morning was once again on a new level of Shabbat bliss as we all scratched our heads in wonder to the genius and poignancy of her D'var Torah for that weekly parsha. Bravo Rabbi Kail!

I must thank Susan Bloomberg and Dr. Phil Rubin for the exemplary leadership they displayed taking care of all necessary moments making this honoring of Harvey and Joan such a success. Let me not forget Jessica and Len Gerschitz, organizers, planning to perfection every facet of this memorable day. Thank you "Super Gabai Len & Jessica, the NEW voice of Temple Or Elohim."

Thank you everyone who helped make this such a special day; Anne Edelman, Barbara Feinstein, Laurel Fried, Ken Gerome, Mark Heller, Mark Rozner, Roz Vermut, Deena Yaris and Sue Zichlin.

Bagels and Torah with Rabbi Kail is on fire twice a month from 8:45 -10am, as was the Bar Mitzvah of Aaron Samuelson on 12/14. Aaron led us through the Shabbat morning service with an air of adult sophistication that was quite impressive, especially his in depth D'var Torah of the weekly parsha Mikeitz.

We also had a nice few days of snow during December that got us ready for winter, just before we all disappeared for vacation. I hope everyone is back and refreshed and had a great time relaxing with family and friends. We are now ready to rock and roll at Temple Or Elohim in 2018.

From my family to yours, may nothing bad befall any of our family and friends...Amen. See you Friday nights. Please watch for our musical Erev Shabbats with Nishamah.

Respectfully,
Michael Wilner, President

Religious School:

Shalom Friends,

Happy New Year! May 2018 bring you and your family best wishes for good health, happiness and cherished memories.

Chanukah was celebrated with a unique, interactive music and drumming program. We brought the story of Chanukah alive by going back in time when the 2nd Temple was ruled by the Greeks. Mattiyahu and his sons had no fear and stood up to their enemies. The bright lights that flicker on the Menorah are a reminder that a great miracle happened. Our children, through interactive music, drumming and imagination, learned and commemorated The Festival of Lights!

Throughout the year, our students learn about the MITZVAH (Commandment) of charity. When combined with an Act of Kindness, it is considered equal to ALL the MITZVOT in the Torah. The act of Tikkun Olam, defined as to "repair the world" was a joint effort between our Religious School and our congregation at large. We demonstrated this with the act of giving, one of the several Social Action projects we do at Temple Or Elohim. We collected an abundance of new toys for the John Theissen Foundation for Sick & Underprivileged Kids. This year's toy drive was a huge success. Thank you to everyone who generously donated a toy for an ill child. Your generosity and assistance will definitely put smiles on the faces of many children. Not only did you so generously donate but all of you came together as a community, with compassion and empathy.

We had a wonderful community-wide Chanukah party on December 17, 2017. A huge thank you to all our volunteers. This party could not be possible without all of you. Your time, efforts and dedication are admirable and greatly appreciated. Thank you Mark Heller, President of Men's Club and the terrific group of men who came to support our event, as well as your generous donations. Thank you to Sisterhood for always supporting our school events, and your generous donation. Thank you to our Board of Trustee's Leadership for coming and volunteering with our school's efforts. All of you need to be commended for your time, energy and efforts.

A huge shout out to our teen, Samantha Coleman and the Plainview/Old Bethpage Robotic Team for once again bringing thought provoking games and working with our children. All of you are role-models and future leaders. Your participation was a tremendous asset to the day's festivities.

As we enter the New Year of 2018, please remember we will have Parent/Teacher Conferences on January 22, 23 and 25th. Please be on the lookout for an e-mail regarding an appointment time to discuss your child (ren's) progress.

Wishing all of you a very Happy New Year! May 2018 be a good year for all!!

B'Shalom,

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 23, 2018 - 7:00 PM EARLY SHABBAT SERVICE FOLLOWED BY *MENASHE

The Men's Club's annual winter Shabbat movie night takes place on Friday, February 23. Shabbat services will start early that night at 7 p.m., followed by the movie Menashe. The movie will be shown immediately after a brief oneg, which will include movie snacks as well as the usual oneg desserts.

Menashe was released last summer to rave reviews. Featuring non-actors, it takes place in New York City's Hasidic community. The title character works at a local food store, barely able to keep his job and make ends meet, and must deal with the recent death of his wife while fighting for the right to raise his own son in the face of tradition which forbids him from doing so alone. The boy's uncle is given custody but the local rabbi gives Menashe custody for a week. Can Menashe use that week to overcome his inner "screw-up" and show that he is a suitable man of faith and fatherhood?

Brave the cold and come out on a winter night to support the Men's Club programming and enjoy both a delightful Shabbat service and a thought-provoking movie.

Sisterhood:

We had a successful shopping day and want to thank everyone who helped run it.

19 Sisterhood members attended our holiday celebration in December at Lisbon Café restaurant. It was a wonderful evening. A big thank you to Barbara Ruvin who put it all together.

We are still selling Mah Jongg cards, so make sure you get your orders in.

We are planning an event at the Nassau County Museum of Art in Roslyn for Saturday, February 17th at 2:00pm. We'll be meeting for lunch beforehand. More details to follow, so save the date.

Being active and meeting new people is what Sisterhood is all about. We will always be one woman short until you join. We are always looking for new fundraising ideas and welcome your suggestions.

My best wishes for a very happy and healthy New Year

Social Action:

Let's not forget our neighbors in need during the holiday season. We collect non-perishable food and gift cards in all amounts (small or large) all year long. The donations are given to families that struggle to provide the everyday needs that we often take for granted.

Hatzilu Rescue Organization is in need of volunteers! If you are interested and want more information reach out to Alan Levine, President of Hatzilu at alevine@photoreporter.com

Please email Susan with all ideas & suggestions you may have.

Baskets on the Bimah Program:

A great way to honor a simcha is by sponsoring a basket on the bimah. Proceeds go to assist local needy families.

Any congregant can have a basket displayed on the bimah for a non-Bar/Bat Mitzvah Shabbat by bringing a minimum of $36 to the Temple Office, at least one week in advance.

A great way to honor any simcha you are celebrating!

Contact the Temple Office at (516)433-9888 Ext. 14.

Men's Club:

Happy New Year everyone! I hope this year brings each and every one of you happiness, prosperity and peace. I am not a big fan of the holiday season. It is too hectic, too loud and just too over the top. New Year's on the other hand, I like. I like it for the simple reason that it's an opportunity to reset – start with a clean slate. I like that it gives me a chance to look back at the past year and take stock of what was right and what was wrong and continue with the right and do less wrong. I love the optimism of New Year's. It gives me yet another chance to be the best I can be and finally live up to my own expectations.

I'm writing this month's installment in the afterglow of a most excellent Or Elohim Chanukah party. The party was well attended and everyone had a great time. I am so happy and proud to have been a part of it. I would be remiss if I did not take this opportunity to thank the extraordinary gentlemen of Men's Club who so graciously donated their time to make this an amazing event: Master Chef Ken Gerome, Max Heller, Mike Mogavero, Ed Kislik, Mark Starr, Jeff and Scott Feltman, Rich and Philip Jankowitz, Neil Miller, Larry Tract and Brandon Meyer. You guys rock!

Have we got a special Movie Night for you! Continuing our Shabbat Movie Series on Friday, February 23rd immediately following an early 7PM Shabbat service, we will be presenting Menache. Taking place in New York City's Hasidic community, the title character, in the immediate aftermath of his wife's death and his brother being given custody of his son, must fight his own inner "screw-up" and use the week of custody given to him by the local rabbi to show that he is a suitable man of faith and fatherhood.

Save the date! On Sunday, January 14th at 10AM, we will be having a presentation about General Mickey Marcus, a very important piece of American-Israeli history. If you are a fan of American History, Israeli History or both, this is a must see. Our own Paul Rosenfeld will do the presentation. We'd love to see you there!

Save the date, take two: In light of the new changes to the tax laws and the uncertainty surrounding them, on Sunday, April 22nd, we will be having a financial planning seminar hosted by our own Mike Mogavero. This will be especially geared to families who would like a solid financial foundation for their future.

So friends, again, a very Happy New Year to you all. Good luck with your resolutions and remember, please be kind to one another.

All The Best,
Mark Heller, Men's Club President

Tidbits from Larry Jacobs:

This past July, Robert Kraft, owner of the New England Patriots led a group of 18 National Football League Hall of Famers and their wives on a week-long spiritual trip to Israel. Their first stop was to coach a mix of Jewish and Arab students playing football in Tel Aviv. The group visited typical tourist sites. Several players chose to be baptized in the Jordan River. The trip concluded with the dedication of the Kraft Family Sports Complex, a 6 million, 25 acre plot in Jerusalem that includes the first full sized American football field in Israel.

Four Jewish men were awarded the Nobel Prizes for 2017:

- Michael Rosbash, a 74 year old from Brandeis University. His father was a Cantor at a Reform Temple in Brookline, Massachusetts
- Rainer Weiss, an 85 year old professor at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. He worked on the same project as Barry Barish. Weiss was born in Berlin.
- Barry Barish, an 81 year old from the California Institute of Technology. Barish was born in the United States. He's the grandson of Polish immigrants.
- Richard Thaler, a 72 year old professor at the University of Chicago in the field of behavioral economics.

A scribbled note written by Albert Einstein in 1922 contained his theory of happiness. It read, "A quiet and modest life brings more joy than a pursuit of success bound with constant unrest." It sold for $1.6 million at an auction in Israel. A second note written by Albert Einstein at the same time read, "Where there is a will, there is a way" sold for $240,000.

Kabbalah is the most misunderstood part of our Jewish tradition. It is usually referred to as Jewish Mysticism. It was once under an ancient prohibition which restricted those who could learn it to only be men over the age of 40 who are married, fully observant and experts in every aspect of Judaism and Jewish Law. In the year 1540, the prohibition was lifted for the basic principles of Kabbalah. The Torah tells us how to practice Judaism...the Kabbalah tells us why.

Torah Notes:

December 31- January 6 Shemot (Exodus 1:1-6:1)

A new Egyptian Pharaoh rose to power who did not remember the once positive relationship between the Hebrews and the Egyptians. Seeing Hebrews as a threat, he turned them into slaves and ordered them to drown male children in the Nile River. Somehow, a Levite woman was able to keep her son alive by placing him in a basket on the Nile. Pharaoh's daughter found Moses and decided to raise him in the palace as her own. As Moses grows up, he begins to wonder about his true identity. Feeling a connection to the Hebrew people, he kills an Egyptian on their behalf. He then flees for his life to Midian, where he settles down and had children. Years later God's calls to him out of a burning bush, insisting that he return to Egypt. After a substantial protest, he agrees.

January 7-13 Vaera (Exodus 6:2-9:35)

God asks Moses and his brother Aaron to deliver the Hebrews from Egyptian bondage. After many years of slavery, the Hebrews aren't sure what to make of that promise. Moses and Aaron perform a miracle with a snake, and tell Pharaoh to let their people go. Again and again, Moses makes this plea. Each time Pharaoh fails to uphold his end of the bargain. This portion includes the first seven plagues.

January 14-20 Bo (Exodus 10:1-13:16)

The final three plagues rain down on Egypt, including locusts, and darkness. Before the final plague, God instructs Aaron and Moses about the Passover festival. God tells the people what to do to avoid being affected by the final and most gruesome plague yet: the death of the firstborn. After this plague, Pharaoh finally allows the Hebrews to leave Egypt. God repeats the commandments about Passover.

January 21-27 Beshalach (Exodus 13:17-17:16)

The story of the Exodus from Egypt reaches its climax, as the Hebrews flee. Pharaoh changes his mind about letting the people go, and sends his army to retrieve them. The Hebrews come to the Sea of Reeds. Before them is a body of water too deep and long to cross. Behind them are Egyptian soldiers. They are trapped. Suddenly, the water begins to part and the Hebrews are able to pass through as if on dry land. The water then closes behind them so that the Egyptian army cannot follow. As the Israelites reach the other side, they joyously sing the words Mi Chamocho "Who is like you, O God?" God provides the Hebrews with food called Manna. When the people complain about water, Moses hits a rock with his rod and water gushes out.
