Baskets on the Bimah

A great way to honor a simcha is by sponsoring a basket on the bimah.

Proceeds go to assist local needy families.
Any congregant can have a basket displayed on the bimah for Shabbat by bringing a minimum of $36 to the Temple Office, at least one week in advance.

President's Message:Getting Better All the Time

I know things are on the upswing when I can use a lyric from a Beatles song as the title of a column. As we do more and more in person inside the Temple, things really are looking up (hey, I even got to throw in a Gershwin lyric).

My motto since my Presidency started in July of 2020 is that we will do the maximum we can that is safely possible, whatever extra work is required to do so. March epitomized that philosophy, as with input from our Safety Task Force, Comedy Night returned to our ballroom after a two-year absence. We were able to do a full-fledged musical Purim Shpiel up on the bema, with Clergy and congregants performing "Friday Night Fever," the Purim story told through the lens of the Disco era, songs included. This Shpiel was the epitome of perseverance, as it was originally set to be performed in March of 2020 when the COVID-19 pandemic started and forced its postponement. March also saw the opening of our Temple services and events to all, regardless of vaccination status, although for safety reasons we are still requiring masks for those who are not fully vaccinated at Temple services and events. Masks are optional at services and Temple events for those who are fully vaccinated (2 shots). I urge all our members who have not already done so to become fully vaccinated and to receive a booster unless there is a medical reason. For our Religious School classes, we are following the local school districts in not requiring either vaccination or masks to attend, although I again encourage all our Religious School parents to have their children vaccinated after consulting with their doctors.

My optimism is also based on how our April calendar looks. Friday night onegs are now back in the ballroom with coffee and tea set-ups. The group "Gathering Time" is planning for an encore performance at the Temple on Friday night April 29. If you saw the group when they came to our Temple previously, you know that is something not to be missed.

The Spring "Bar Mitzvah season" started up in March and will go into full mode later this month after Pesach. Likewise, later in April we commence the cycle of Friday night services led by different classes in our Religious School. The common denominator of these services is that we are aiming to have fuller sanctuaries filled with the infectious joy of our children and their families. Share in the delight by coming to these services. Your spirits are sure to climb, you will be supporting our children and you get a glimpse of the bright future of the Jewish people.

To paraphrase yet another classic song lyric, there's no use sitting alone in your room, come hear the music and other joys of our Temple. Life may not be a cabaret, but there are plenty of delights just waiting for you.

Rabbi's Corner:

Passover is soon upon us with Bedikat Chametz, the search or checking for leavened substances, being performed on Thursday, April 14. The Seders are Friday, April 15 and Saturday, April 16. We will not have services so that we might join with family and friends at what might be our first in-person Seders in two years.

I mentioned checking for Chametz, but that is not the only checking being done at our Temple. The Ritual Committee has embarked on a process of having all our Torah Scrolls inspected and evaluated. Torah Scrolls are all organic and we don't call the Torah a tree of life gratuitously. All the components of a scroll are natural, klaf, parchment made from the skin of a kosher animal, sewn together with the gut of a kosher animal, displayed on wooden rollers called atzei chaim (trees of life) and ink organically made.

As careful as we are with our Torah scrolls, age and environment take their toll. Jill Kaplan, who may be familiar to you as a past Director of Education at TOE or as the Sofer (ritual scribe) who refurbished one of the CRT Torah Scrolls, has been examining our scrolls. She will prepare reports for the Ritual Committee describing the condition of each scroll and make recommendations for any work needed to make sure our scrolls are kept in good form. Then the committee will be able to make informed decisions about how to proceed.

We are blessed with many Torah Scrolls including our Holocaust Torah on loan to us. That one will remain untouched by agreement with the Memorial Scrolls Trust. Another of our scrolls was refurbished recently by Jill Kaplan just before the consolidation and the rest will be examined.

This is an ongoing project. I will keep you informed at each step. Think of it the same way you think of maintaining your own health. Our Torah scrolls will get check-ups. Our Sofer, however, makes house calls!

Rabbi Judy

Cantor's Message:

Shalom,

What does it really mean to be free? A good question that for most Jewish people, is very important. While there are many answers that can be given for this question, I will leave it up to each of you to decide what makes a person free. This of course, is the theme of the month of April because in a few weeks we celebrate Passover. Each year at this time we are asked according to our tradition, to look at ourselves and find gratitude for being free. At the same time, we are asked to look at ourselves and assess what personal behaviors and attributes we own that shackle us. Not an easy task. However, the holiday and all the celebrating that goes along with it does give us the spirit and energy to at least try to begin the process. Our seder gives us the opportunity to realize how lucky we are to have family in our lives and how amazing it is that we are even able to celebrate together. As we sit at the seder table and sing and recite prayers and readings that have been in our tradition for generations, it reminds us to never give up hope and be strong against anyone who may oppress us in any way.

Do your best this year to try and look inside and find out what keeps you from being your best. Use the holiday as it was given to us to be used, and not just to eat great food and find the afikomen!

I wish you all a wonderful and happy holiday.

Cantor Katz

Religious School:

Shalom Friends!

April is quite a busy month in our school. Soon we will be celebrating the holiday of Pesach, recalling the Israelites exodus from Egypt. It is my hope that our temple families will be sharing Seders with family and loved ones now that we are beginning to feel some normalcy in our lives.

Our students are learning about the story of will, determination and faith that guided Moses as he led the Jews from bondage to freedom. This story of triumph and perseverance resonates to the situation that has occurred in Ukraine. President Volodymyr Zelensky, a Jew, has risen to be a world-wide leader fighting to protect sovereignty, an icon of peace, strength and courage. He is another fine example of a leader thrown into battle to conquer a complicated situation.

As we sit around our Seders, let's continue to keep the people of Ukraine in our thoughts and prayers. May we continue to go from strength to strength-Chazak, Chazak, V'nitchazeik. May our strength as a Jewish community continue to be there for one and all.

On April 27, 2022, please join us at 7:00 PM as we gather together to remember a very dark time in history, the Holocaust. Our 7th graders will lead a service commemorating the victims of the Holocaust as well as the many that selflessly risked their lives to save others. Following our service we will hear from a 91 year old survivor as Renee Silver shares her story of survival. A hidden child in the Holocaust, Mrs. Silver's testimony of resilience will inspire all of you and your children, the voices of our future. Looking forward to seeing everyone at this most important and meaningful evening.

Chag Pesach Sameach, Happy Passover from my family to you and yours.

B'Shalom,
Deborah E. Tract, Director of Education

Men's Club

Spring is here! The better weather of April and the longer days of spring are rejuvenating. Here at Men's Club, we have had some nice late winter events, such as Comedy Night on March 5, which was a great success. We all had a blast with a musical performance by the Penny Lane Experience, a terrific Beatles tribute band and some good comedians to make us laugh. I'd like to present a special thank you to Phil Rubin for his hard work putting that night together and making it one of our best attended events ever. Awesome job, Phil!

At the Men's Club, we enjoy our Zoom monthly meetings where we share ideas, chat about the topics that matter to us and plan new events.

There are some upcoming fun events on the calendar for April, May and June. These include:

- ❖ Monthly Men's Club meeting at 7:30 pm on Tuesday, April 5.
- ❖ Monthly Men's Club meeting at 7:30 pm on Tuesday, May 3rd.
- ❖ Mets game vs. St. Louis at Citifield Tuesday night, May 17th...tentative, assuming the MLB lockout has ended.
- ❖ Monthly Men's Club meeting at 7:30 pm on Tuesday, June 7th.
- ❖ Boat ride around Manhattan, in June...details TBD

Come out and join the guys for some enjoyable events that bring us together. We're always looking to expand our membership to make our Club, your Club!

Stay safe!

Torah Notes:April 2, 2022 Tazria – Levit. 12:1-13:59

Tazria deals with laws of purification. These laws are considered to be both hygienic and 'levitical', related to religious law. This portion deals in specific detail with purification after childbirth and the laws associated with the disease of leprosy. The health of the community was of sacred concern among the Israelites, so as to achieve spiritual well-being. Priests were given the responsibility for healing. We are taught that how we live, what we eat, how we think and act in our everyday lives is an important aspect in our religious/spiritual lives.

April 9, 2022 Metzora – Levit. 14:1–15:33

In Metzora, the rites and rituals of purification of a leper and the cleansing of the infected home are covered, as are other items of ritual impurity dealing with physical secretions.

April 16, 2022 First Day of Passover – Exodus 12:21-51)

This portion describes the bringing of the Passover Offering in Egypt, the Plague of the Firstborn at the stroke of midnight and how "On this very day, God took the Children of Israel out of Egypt."

April 23, 2022 8th day of Passover- Deuteronomy 15:19-16:17

The week of Passover culminates on Shabbat with verses that discuss the Passover sacrifice and the laws of Passover. The Torah reminds us not to eat chumetz (leavened bread) during the seven days of Passover. (Although Passover is a seven-day holiday, many Jews in the diaspora choose to celebrate it for 8 days). Since our ancestors did not have time to wait for their bread to rise, we eat scrumptious unleavened bread as they did during the exodus. Beginning on the second day of Passover, the Torah then instructs us to "count off seven weeks" between Passover and the holiday of Shavuot. Shavuot marks the beginning of the grain harvest. It is also the date on which we receive the Torah from God each year.

April 30, 2022 Acharei-Mot - Leviticus 16:1-18:30

Achrei-Mot deals with preparations by the High Priest for Yom Kippur. Only on Yom Kippur could the High Priest enter the Holy of Holies where the Ark of the Tablets was kept. Each Israelite was required to fast and atone on this day and to seek forgiveness from God and from each other. Also listed are the laws of prohibited marriages of close relatives, which was then common practice amongst the Egyptians and Canaanites.
