Confirmation 2022

Chase Brodsky and Alexandra Damast Confirmed

Affirming their commitment to Judaism, this year's confirmands Chase Brodsky and Alexandra Damast helped lead the Shavuot service held on June 5. Because of the pandemic, this was the first live confirmation service held at TOEaCRC since 2019.

Joined by their families and worshipers, Chase and Alex recited prayers and read from the Torah. Both teens have remained active in Jewish life since their Bat Mitzvahs and said they will continue to do so. In fact, right after the service, they both rushed off to a BBYO event.

"I'm so proud of Chase and Alex for committing to this," Rabbi Judy told congregants during the service. Speaking directly to Chase and Alex, Rabbi Judy told them: "I know that I express the pride of everybody who's here and everybody in our entire congregation in you, and the maturity that you show in being able to sort of analyze your experiences up through now and see where you are going both in the Jewish world and in the rest of your lives."

Director of Education Deborah Tract presented gifts to Chase and Alex, calling them role models. "A few years ago, you stood on this very bema and celebrated your Bat Mitzvahs, and during this time, I knew you both, would continue practicing what you have learned as young Jewish women in our community," she said.

Social Action

Volunteers Distribute Meals and Personal Essentials on Mitzvah Day

Numerous temple members participated in Mitzvah Day on May 15, where they prepared, sorted and bagged more than 100 sandwiches and snacks that were delivered to the Mary Brennan Inn in Hempstead.

Besides the meals, donated diapers, wipes and feminine products were delivered. The committee sold sunflower seeds, pots and dirt to support citizens of Ukraine. The committee extends its thanks to all of the volunteers for their assistance with shopping, and for their participation in helping make Mitzvah Day such a success! And a special thank you to a Hebrew School family for their very generous donation that will cover the costs of our Mitzvah Day purchases. Please remember that our Food Pantries need donations all year round—especially during the summer. The Hatzilu Pantry needs Kosher, non-perishable food & paper goods/cleaning supplies. For your convenience, there is a storage bin that we are using for donations outside the main entrance to the Temple. Thanks in advance for your generosity!

Baskets on the Bimah

A great way to honor a simcha is by sponsoring a basket on the bimah.

Proceeds go to assist local needy families.

Any congregant can have a basket displayed on the bimah for Shabbat by bringing a minimum of $36 to the Temple Office, at least one week in advance.

President's Message:The End and the Beginning

This is my last monthly column as your President. It has been an honor and a privilege. I look back at the objectives I publicly stated when I became President and see that we have made great strides in those areas. First and foremost, with the guidance of our invaluable Safety Task Force, we have come through the COVID-19 pandemic keeping ourselves connected to the Temple and to each other.

Everyone went that "extra mile" to be sure that we did as much in-person as was safely possible, even when no other temple was doing so. We used the zoom technology to do what could not be done live. With a few precautions in place, we are back to pre-pandemic levels of attendance at Friday Night services, with Onegs in the ballroom. Even while public schools were still doing remote learning, parents could still bring their children to our temple and know that they would be safe, and the kids were so delighted to be here. Some of my most gratifying moments have been hearing congregants of all ages express their appreciation for our efforts.

I have seen our two legacy temples truly become one, as we got to know each other better despite the physical limitations during parts of the past two years. As in any "marriage," when two parties live together for the first time they learn how to resolve their differences and go forward together. We certainly have done that! We learned "new traditions", as we incorporated the best of both legacy temples and found new paths. I eventually stopped worrying about anyone's legacy temple and simply appointed the people who I thought were best for the job at hand.

I am also proud that we are starting to develop a new generation of leadership. We are seeing more and more of our younger families get active on key committees and join our Board of Trustees. That is the only way to ensure the long-term future of our Temple.

We faced challenges during these two years but came through them stronger than ever. I have the upmost admiration for Rabbi Judy, Cantor David, Mrs. Tract and her teachers, our office staff, custodians, and our dedicated Executive Committee, Board of Trustees and other volunteers.

The biggest thank you of all goes to my amazing wife Laura. She had to put up with the demands on my time and my stresses that go with being President. More than that, she pitched in and helped out the Temple wherever she could, whether it was using her microbiology background to serve on our Safety Task Force, pinch-hitting for the Cantor when he was on vacation or just being the sounding board of whom I could bounce off certain thoughts and ideas.

My term as President may be ending, but I am ready to start a new chapter in my Temple life. I will assist our incoming President, Mark Natelson, in any way I can to ensure a smooth transition. I have the utmost confidence that Mark will do a terrific job and allow the progress we have made, to continue. If we stick together and respect each other, our ceiling is unlimited.

Rabbi's Corner:Summer: A Time to Relax but Also Reflect

As summer approaches, vacation season is upon us. Having celebrated Shavuot, this year's cycle of Festivals is now complete. Even as we look forward to some rest and relaxation, please know that Judaism and therefore the Temple runs year-round, including the summer. While I'll take a month away from Temple in August, I use this time to reflect and add to my knowledge and understanding. My goals are to return refreshed and with new ideas and goals to pursue in the coming year.

Like all of you, I am particularly distraught about the increased violence facing our society. Delving into the notions of gun ownership and use of force in Jewish law provide a tempered perspective. We are commanded to pursue our own self-defense when threatened with death, but the Talmud also teaches that saving a life saves the entire world and destroying a life, destroys the entire world. I feel saddened by the daily destruction, despite not having a personal connection to any victims of gun violence. We must do better as a society to prevent situations where we are confronted with these challenges. Judaism wants us to live. Our lives are gifts from God with opportunities to glorify God's name daily.

I fear for our religious freedom as Jews in American society. While New York took steps to codify abortion rights into NYS law, and I am proud of the work I did to shepherd that legislation through the halls of the legislature, many other citizens will lose those rights if the Supreme Court rules as we expect they will. Judaism's view on the beginning of life differs from the Christian interpretations that prevail among many lawmakers and lobbyists.

Jews believe the actual life of a woman takes precedence over the potential life of a zygote, embryo or fetus. This puts Jewish practice at odds with many state laws and bodes poorly, not only for women's health, but for the ability to keep our sacred and unique philosophy that has been the source of Jews' success and comfort in the United States. I will continue to learn about these topics and more during the summer months, as I reflect on this year.

At this time of year, I like to thank my colleagues who help me do my work as well as I can. I appreciate their daily presence and devotion to being the best at everything they do. It is a joy to ascend the bima knowing that I am joined in sacred partnership with Cantor David Katz. His knowledge and talent continually impress me at services, concerts and in meetings. Our director of education, Deborah Tract, is a dedicated professional beloved as much by the adults she works with as by the children she devotes her time educating. Her generosity of spirit is boundless.

Likewise, I wish to thank everyone who keeps our Temple running. Goldie Brandl and Robin Rabinowitz keep our office and thereby the entire Temple running smoothly.

This year, more than the past couple of Covid years, we saw the fruits of our teachers' endeavors in person. Laurel Fried, Cila Klingher, Joan Lieberman and Fortuna Southworth are masterful, and we saw each student shine this year, particularly at services for Young Families or the grade level services the students led. Special thanks to our custodial staff of Cliff Carroll, Rich Kleemann and Greg Powell for having everything at Temple ready to go and looking great so all our programs and services start out successfully.

Our lay leadership, especially our Board of Trustees, Executive Board and Committee Chairs, is terrific and I appreciate everything you do. Thanks to our outgoing president, Neil Miller and to Esther Reich, who has been the Shofar editor for years and is stepping down. You each epitomize the volunteer spirit which has made us successful. Kudos this year also go to our newly formed Security Committee under the chairmanship of Ira Warshawsky. They are a hard-working group of volunteers ensuring that coming to Temple is always safe as well as pleasant.

Have a wonderful summer but again remember that life at TOEACRC is on a 12-month plan. Someone is available throughout the summer. Thanks again for making this year a resounding success.

Rabbi Judy

Cantor's Message:Shul Sisters Deliver Inspiring Performance at Annual Concert

Shalom and welcome to the warm! Perhaps by the time you read this edition of the Shofar you are beginning your Summer and enjoying it with family and friends. I hope this is the case and everyone is healthy and well. Each year when this edition of the Shofar comes out, I try to reflect on this past year at the temple. I always find myself amazed at how fast this past year has gone and how much all of us have gone through. This year was no different. Our year at the temple was spectacular, exciting and fulfilling, all wrapped in one.

We had so many beautiful Bar and Bat Mitzvah services, along with many special services that included our Band, the Hebrew School Kids leading, Guest Artist Toby Tobias, Gathering Time and so many more! Each service had its own energy and meaning and experiencing this week after week was very fulfilling. It made me extremely proud of our temple and proud to be your Cantor.

Our annual concert with the Shul Sisters was a blast! It was an incredible and unforgettable experience for everyone who attended. The Shul Sisters are amazing and the whole afternoon was truly inspiring. The best part for me was seeing the entire sanctuary filled with people sitting next to each other and enjoying the show. The concert was the first "formal" concert in the sanctuary that we had since the pandemic. Not only was my voice singing but my heart was as well. I felt so full of joy being able to have the experience with all of you in our exquisite sanctuary and being able to bring everyone a wonderful afternoon of beautiful music.

But we must also remember that NONE of this can happen without all the people who stepped up and gave of their time and energy to make it come together. I am talking about our concert committee. I must thank all of you for giving so much of yourselves. It is a tireless but not thankless job! I know how much you all care and it will show in the end by making this happen so successfully. At the top of the thank you list must be our concert committee chair Laurel Fried. Without Laurel, for sure, none of this would be able to come together as it will. Thank you, Laurel for everything you do.

I must also thank my two partners in Temple, Deborah and Rabbi. Each year working with you and creating and taking care of our temple gets easier and easier. I could not do what I do without the two of you as co-workers. Thank you for everything.

And last but certainly not least, I must thank all of you- our temple family. Thank you for being a part of our temple and for allowing us to be a part of your family's lives.

I can't believe I am writing this, but I will see you all soon at the High Holidays! Until then, have a safe and wonderful Summer.

B'Shalom,
Cantor Katz

Religious School Reflections

Dear Friends!

First and foremost, congratulations, Mazal Tov to all our High School and College Graduates. The years flew by and so many of you were once young children in our Religious School. Now you are getting ready to enter a new phase of life, whether it be your college studies or the beginning of a career path. Several of you spent years volunteering in our Religious School as a Teacher's Assistant. I am so proud of all our young adults. I know you will all go on to do amazing things in the coming years.

On June 17, 2022, we will have Alumni Shabbat. Please try to attend this special service to honor YOU. I look forward to seeing many of you very soon and hearing about your great adventures.

May was a very busy and fulfilling month in our Religious School. For the first time in two years our children led services on the Bema with Rabbi Judy and Cantor David Katz. Our fifth and six graders shared the evening with our Bat Mitzvah candidate Marissa Katz and the "Gathering Time Band." It was a packed house! Our students were phenomenal. They were confident, excited, and so eager to share their accomplishments with our congregation. Our Religious School is warm and welcoming, a sacred place of learning that motivates children to want to learn about Judaism and Jewish identity.

The following week our awesome third and fourth grade students led a cheerful service, demonstrating their newly acquired Hebrew reading skills. For many, this was their first experience at a Shabbat service since the Covid lockdown. They were so poised and fantastic.

We also commemorated Yom HaShoah, with guest speaker Renee Zuroff and a seventh grade led service. Our students delivered a heartfelt service remembering the many lives lost during the Holocaust years. Candles were lit to recall the memories of the victims and the rescuers who risked their lives to save others.

Our children are the voices of the future. They must continue to hear the stories and to retell the countless acts of terror. Antisemitism is on the rise. Holocaust deniers continue to spread false statements. In our Religious School, Holocaust studies are a significant component of the seventh-grade curriculum. Our students have demonstrated the importance of standing up to the truth and reinforcing the words "Never Forget, Zachor, Remember."

We also celebrated our seventh graders "Moving Up" and "Staff Appreciation."

Lifelong Jewish Learning

It is my hope that our seventh-grade students will continue to study and move up to Confirmation. Lifelong Jewish learning does not end upon the completion of Religious School. On June 5, 2022, Chase Brodsky and Alex Damast will be confirmed. Please attend and together let's celebrate the accomplishments of these two terrific young ladies. Mazal Tov to them both and their wonderful families.

As our year comes to an end, I am thankful to so many. To our parents, thank you for trusting us with your children and for choosing our synagogue as your spiritual home. Your support and commitment to our synagogue allows us to continue to provide our community at large with a sacred place for learning and worship.

Our esteemed Clergy, Rabbi Judy and Cantor David Katz, my dear friends. We are a team that works together to assure that our temple families are well taken care of and that all our congregants' needs are met. You both are an inspiration and kept us going as we navigated the many unknowns during the last two years.

Thank you to Ed Stolarz who drives each week from NJ to assist our Clergy with his beautiful music.

Our teachers are exemplary role models for our students. They go above and beyond for our students. They never say "no" and will help every student navigate their learning, working around every child's schedule. Our teens who volunteer in our Religious School are fine young adults. They are responsible and nurturing to our students. Mazal Tov to Brian Reich, our 7th grade Teacher's Assistant as he graduates from High School this June. He will attend Adelphi University in their joint BA/MA Program, majoring in Adolescent English Special Education. We are so proud of Brian and his accomplishments.

Goldie and Robin are two outstanding women who welcome each of you into our temple daily. These women wear many hats. Their dedication and willingness to always help are only a few of the many things they do. They spend countless hours working to assure our synagogue is running smoothly and efficiently. We couldn't do it without them both. Our custodial staff are always working with smiles on their faces. They are reliable and keep our temple safe and secure.

A thank you to our Temple President Neil Miller, our Executive Board and Board of Trustees. Thank you to all our volunteers. Susan Bloomberg and Jamie Schulz, our RS Board Presidents. Your support of our Religious School continues to inspire us to create and reinvent ourselves yearly. Thank you! A special shout out to our AMAZING Covid Safety Task Force, Dr. Neal Brodsky and the entire team. Thank you for keeping us safe. Your guidance, protocols and procedures allowed our school to stay strong. We persevered and we did it!

Summer is here. Please tell your friends about us. No child should lose out on a meaningful Jewish journey due to conflicts with activities and school. We can provide every child with an education that is appropriate and fits their schedule!

We offer a variety of options for learning. Please spread the word! Wishing you and your families a summer filled with laughter, fun, adventures and making fabulous memories. If your child attends camp, or you travel, share your pictures on Facebook! Be safe and stay well. Don't forget to do Early School Registration!

B'Shalom,

Deborah E. Tract, Director of Education

Network of Women (NOW)

Earlier this month, NOW had its first joint event with Encore Luxury Living!

It was a Paint and Sip gathering with instructors from Pinot's Palette! Thank you for a wonderful afternoon of wine, cheese and painting!

Men's Club

Yes, spring is in the air, summer is right around the corner and the Men's Club is moving ahead with some enjoyable events in the coming months. Summer is typically the time for barbecues, trips to the beach, afternoons relaxing in the yard, baseball and vacations, but we continue to plan events that bring our members together.

In addition to our monthly meetings held at 7:30pm on the first Tuesday of each month, we've had some wonderful events over the past year, including a Club dinner in November, Comedy Night in March, the Mets game in May, and are planning some more great events later this year.

Upcoming events include:

- A Father's Day "Chat in the Park" (at the park next to the Jericho Public Library)
- Movie Night to show the Beatles' classic film, "Help!" (date: TBD)
- Men's Club Shabbat service (date TBD)
- A local boat ride, most likely on Long Island (sites and date TBD)
- A 50s/60s/70s Dinner Dance (date TBD)
- Hikes in local parks to exercise the body and mind (including June 26th at a park TBD)

Looking ahead to autumn, the raising of the Temple's Sukkah is one of the highlights of what our Club does. This is always a special time for everyone to get together, grab a bagel (and a few drills) and help build the Sukkah on the Temple grounds. We are looking forward to putting it all together in early October, so we hope you'll join us.

We are always looking for new members, so... join a meeting, come to an event or reach out at any time to myself or my co-president, Mark Heller, to learn more about what the Men's Club is all about.

In the meantime, enjoy the best that summer has to offer. Whatever you do, take care of yourselves, and stay safe.

Mark Starr, Men's Club co-president
