Home in Jericho

The memorial plaques that were on the wall at CRT in Westbury are now in their new home on the left side of the sanctuary as you face the ark at TOEACRC in Jericho.

The wonderful transformation of the Lucite plaques to resemble the style of the brass plaques that they join is truly amazing. We are so grateful to Michael Wilner and his "guy," master craftsman Gerard Dwyer, for the incredible job that was done to bring it all together.

We are so happy that the process of making a new home for CRT in Jericho is now complete and we can continue to make new traditions for all of us!

President's Message:MIRACLES DO HAPPEN

As I write this article, there is snow on the ground, more in the forecast and everything seems "doom and gloom". Yes, some received one or both of their vaccine shots, but we still have to wear masks and protect ourselves and others around us. As we approach Pesach, we start to think of miracles. If G-d can part the Red Sea and bring a plague upon Egypt, can't G-d end a plague so we can go out to restaurants with others, take vacations on cruise ships, greet friends with a warm handshake and do everything we think of as normal?

They may not qualify as "miracles", but we do have some great things to celebrate. As you saw on the front page of this month's Shofar, the more than one year project of making and installing new memorial boards in our sanctuary to hold the yahrzeit plaques that had hung in the CRT sanctuary came to fruition. My deepest thanks to Michael Wilner, who put in an amazing amount of time and effort to oversee every detail to make sure that the look of the new memorial boards would be perfect. Thanks also to Ira Warshawsky, Mark Natelson and Rabbi Judy for going through over 650 CRT-legacy yahrzeit plaques to put them in the proper order for installation on the boards.

The boards are especially breathtaking on sunny mornings when the light of day filters through the nearby stained glass windows and reflects off of the boards. The effect is breathtaking. The perfect time to check them out will be on Saturday morning, April 3. That is our Passover Yizkor service, at which we will be dedicating the new memorial boards. Please join us. As always, the seating in the sanctuary will be properly socially distanced.

Equally as gratifying is seeing how so many people and branches of the temple are going above and beyond to get us all through the pandemic. Whether it's the Wednesday night yoga classes that commenced this past month, the Rabbi's "Open Chats", the Cantor's meditation sessions, the fun programs Deborah has done at the religious school or NOW's book club discussions (just to name a few), we have been able to hold and engage our membership more than anyone would have thought possible when our world was shaken almost exactly one year ago. Join us for a Congregational Seder by zoom on the second night of Pesach, March 28. With good weather hopefully just around the corner and the increase in vaccinations, we can look forward to even more in person gatherings to make our spirits soar.

May you and your families have a joyous Pesach

Rabbi's Corner:

On the Hebrew calendar, we have been through the entire Jewish year under Covid-19 restrictions, having just celebrated our second remote Purim. March marks a full secular calendar year of the same. By the end of March, we will celebrate another zoom Passover Seder on Sunday, March 28th. Once again, I invite you virtually to join my family Seder. Set your table and share your rituals with everyone.

Each year I prepare a traditional Seder plate and beginning with an orange for LGBT+ inclusion (it was really never about women) I also put together a seder plate of contemporary symbols. I use olives to symbolize our desire for peace, a banana for the safety of refugees, a tomato for the need for innovation and this year, I will add a symbol of our common battle against Coronavirus. The easy symbol would be a mask, but I like to keep the parallel with the traditional seder plate by using a symbolic food. Perhaps I will place a bit of chicken broth to represent healing on this second plate. I want to remain hopeful and incorporate the progress we have made in the past year, but still recognize the lengths we have to go as well as how much we've lost. Broth with no kneidlach portrays what I want to express.

As you have seen elsewhere in the Shofar, our consolidation continues. I am so grateful to all who worked to "Make a home for CRT at TOE", especially Michael Wilner, for completing the huge project to get the CRT memorial plaques hung in our Sanctuary. They are beautiful and fit in the Sanctuary perfectly. While I hope everyone feels comfortable already, these ever-present memorial boards signify a true homecoming for legacy CRT families. We will dedicate the plaques at the Passover service with Yizkor on Saturday, April 3rd at 10 am.

From my home to yours, Mike, Micah and Leora join me in wishing you a joyous and sweet Passover.

Rabbi JudyOnline Donations Made Easy

To make a donation on-line, go to the home page of our Temple's website, orelohim.com, scroll down to the "Donate Now" button and click on it. You will be brought to a different webpage. Fill in Account (credit card) Information. Then, fill in your Billing Information. At the end of this section there is a required field entitled "Purpose of Donation" which has a drop-down menu of 6 listings. If the donation does not fit any of the first 4 options, then click on either "Specific Purpose" or "Other". Then, underneath the "Purpose of Donation" line, there is another required field entitled "Donation Details". You should enter the particular reason for the donation, for example "High Holiday Appeal", "High Holiday Card" or "Honey From Your Heart". Complete the transaction. THANK YOU for thinking about donating to our Temple!

Please read this notice before writing a check to Rabbi's or Cantor's Discretionary Fund!

On the latest version of the Donations Form, there are instructions for the wording of the "Payable To" line on your check. The form is included in the Shofar every month. Please follow the instructions on the form; it will save us time and effort and Rabbi or Cantor will receive the funds so much sooner! Thank you for your cooperation.

Goldie and Robin

Cantor's Message:

Last month we celebrated Purim. The holiday where we vow to never forget the tyrannical people in our history who would stop at nothing to eliminate us as a people.

Purim reminds us through story and song, of the never-ending threat that we face as we live our lives as Jewish people.

The question remains however, how do we make sure we keep this reminder present without walking around being full of anxiety and fear, while still living a fulfilling and happy life.

The answer is not straight forward and simple but it is possible to not be overwhelmed.

One of the best ways to enjoy life without worrying is to contribute to your community, especially the Temple. This means giving of yourself in the best way you know how, whether it is on the PTA or coaching our kids' sports teams or helping out at Temple. In some way, contributing without asking for anything in return is the best way we can feel better deep inside ourselves and not just on the level of knowing we did something good. By giving freely we feel a much deeper connection to the spiritual side of ourselves.

This concept turned into action is one of Judaism's most important teachings. This type of giving is considered the highest level of Tzedakah. Tzedakah isn't necessarily "charity." Its root is righteousness. This makes sense because when we give of ourselves in this way, we are becoming more righteous in the positive way. We are building our better self and our spiritual side and becoming better people through our actions. Even more importantly, we are teaching and showing our children through real life actions how to make themselves better people, feel better about themselves, take control of their lives, in addition to helping their community and thus the entire world. It is connected to the other very important Jewish teaching "Tikkun Olam" or repairing the world.

It is our responsibility to keep ourselves spiritually fit so that we may make the world a better place for the generations to come. In doing so, we have a stronger community in the event another Haman decides to attempt another attack on our people. It is our responsibility to take care of ourselves in the present to prevent possible danger in the future.

By doing so, you can know that you are doing the right thing and contributing in your own way.

B'shalom,

Cantor Katz

Religious School:

Shalom Friends,

I hope everyone had a restful and enjoyable winter break!

February began with plenty of snow, bringing a sense of normalcy with children playing in the snow, building snowmen and enjoying newfound memories-Covid style!

While our local school districts declared a snow day and a day of remote learning, our Religious School offered our students the opportunity to receive private tutorial lessons with their teacher. Thank you to all our outstanding teachers for their continued patience, dedication, creativity and for working with me to reimagine education during these unprecedented times.

Despite Covid, snow, protocols, masks and more..... our Religious School offers a warm and embracing Jewish educational program, in person or virtual. We strive to meet the needs of each child, creating a nurturing, sacred environment in which to learn and develop a Jewish identity.

February came to an end with celebration and festive programming as we celebrated the holiday of Purim-a story of strength, perseverance and commemorating the saving of the Jewish people. Musical IQ entertained our children with storytelling and a musical journey through the village of Shushan. The enthusiastic banging of drums brought rhythm and excitement throughout the Temple. This innovative program featured an orchestra of drums (previously quarantined) granting each child the opportunity to explore their talents with emotion and imagination.

This month we will begin to prepare for Passover, a holiday that commemorates the extraordinary Exodus of the Israelites freedom from slavery in Egypt. Our Seders may be different this year but together we continue to focus on the concepts of gratitude and kindness.

May all of you have a joyous Pesach holiday, embracing all that you have with contentment and peace.

Next year, may we all be together again.

B'Shalom,

Deborah E. Tract, Director of Education

Book Club

I usually take about 4 trips a year. Those vacations could be overseas or right here in the United States. With Covid's ebbs and flows I am staying put. Instead, I am letting my imagination be painted with words described in books. Since the inception of this book club, we "have been" to at least 13 different places all over the world. From Kentucky, Minnesota to Alaska and other states in between. Authors have taken us to France, Italy, Germany North Korea, South Korea and Mexico. I invite you to join us for our next book club discussion. Just keep an eye out as the flyers are sent via email and posted on Facebook. This discussion is open to all men and women of the congregation. Verbal participation is NOT mandatory so if you just want to listen to other points of view feel free to do so! Looking forward to "traveling" with you as we embark on another literary journey.

N.O.W. (Network of Women)

News from NOW

This month's inspiration comes from an older Hadassah magazine. There was an article with a headline that read Socially Distanced, But Never Distant (Being there, in person or virtually, for the women we love.) Without reading any further I highlighted those words, tore out the page and left it on my desk for a couple of months.

Over the last nearly 12 months many of us became hairdressers, gourmet chefs (or short order cooks), manicurists, activities director, professional organizers, teachers, nurses, personal trainers and so many other roles that are normally played by people who help shape our lives and the lives of our family members.

Every month for the past few months NOW has tried to be a source of entertainment from an in person socially distant happy hour, virtual scavenger hunt, virtual BINGO, virtual arts and crafts and Finish That Lyric (even though we didn't actually get to it one meeting!). What I am trying to get across is that we are not just a group of people sitting around making plans for the next fundraiser or ways to help the Temple and our community. We do our job and when it's done we just have fun the best way we can. Please join us for our March meeting which is right now scheduled for Monday, March 15 at 7:30 PM via Zoom. We don't know yet what the "fun" part will be, but perhaps you'll find an interest in doing something different thereby creating your own fun!

Men's Club

The Men's Club continued its Zoom football parties for the Divisional and Championship rounds in January. Again, it was a lot of fun to do something you like to do (watch football) but with friends and good male camaraderie.

At our February meeting the guys decided to go ahead with a Sunday morning, March 14th late winter hike. More information on this event will be forthcoming.

At the February meeting we also talked about the nomination/selection of officers for the upcoming year. According to the bylaws we adopted in the fall we will need to put forward a slate of officers by our April meeting in order to have an election at the May meeting. So far, no brave (or foolish) volunteers have stepped forward.

Finally, the February meeting was capped by a very lively discussion about the relevance of two early 60's "Cold War" movies ("Advise & Consent" and "Seven Days in May") to today's current events. There was plenty to talk about and in true Men's Club style, while strong views were presented, everyone was respectful and civilized.

Stay safe everyone!
Ed Temple

Torah Notes:

March 6: Ki Tisa (Exodus 30:11-34:35)

This Torah portion begins discussing the creation of the Sanctuary. Israelites are asked to contribute a half shekel of silver to create it. God places "wise hearted" artisans Betzalel and Oholiav in charge of the Sanctuary's construction. The Torah portion then switches abruptly to Moses, who did not return from Mt. Sinai quick enough for the anxious Israelites. They create a golden calf and begin to worship it. Upon seeing the Israelites dancing to an idol, a distressed Moses breaks the tablets containing the Ten Commandments. After begging for God's forgiveness Moses receives the Ten Commandments once more.

March 13: Vayakhail-Pekudei (Exodus 35:1-40:38)

This chapter tells of the plans and details concerning the building of Israel's first house of worship. This all takes place in the Wilderness of Sinai as the people progress on their long march to the Promised Land. A voluntary contribution campaign system is set up by Moses and the people give generously, funds about which much speculation became centered.

An accounting is made of the gold, silver and copper donated by the people for the making of the Mishkan. Betzalel, Aholiav and their assistants make the eight priestly garments – the apron, breastplate, cloak, crown, hat, tunic, sash and breeches – according to the specifications communicated to Moses in the Parshah of Tetzaveh. The Mishkan is completed and all its components are brought to Moses, who erects it and anoints it with the holy anointing oil, and initiates Aaron and his four sons into the priesthood. A cloud appears over the Mishkan, signifying the Divine Presence that has come to dwell within it.

March 20: Vayikra (Leviticus 1:1-5:26)

This first Torah portion from the book of Leviticus focuses around the sacred offerings at the Sanctuary. It describes animal and meal sacrifices the people offer on the altar. These include an ascending offering a meal offering, a peace offering, a sin offering and a guilt offering.

March 27: Tzav (Leviticus 6:1-8:36)

This week's Torah portion delineates the responsibilities and rights of the priests who offer sacrifices in the temple. It explains the importance of an eternal fire upon the altar and the ways sacrifices should be treated.
