Hunger Awareness Campaign to Run Throughout March

March will be a busy month at Temple Or Elohim, A Community Reform Congregation focusing on hunger awareness. Spearheaded by Social Action chair Susan Levine and director of lifelong learning Deborah Tract, there will be a variety of events that everyone can participate in.

The hunger awareness campaign kicks off March 3 with a unique Erev Shabbat service with prayer and a presentation by Susan about ways families can help those in need in our community.

"I'll be speaking about what's going on in Nassau County specifically," she says. "As you can see on the calendar, we're going to collect different foods each week of the month, ending the last week in March with Passover food for the holidays. I am working with Deborah on a few things, and it will be a great program."

At Hebrew School, Matthew and Brandon Kusnetz will talk to our students about how they could grow vegetables for food pantries. On March 13, Long Island Cares: The Harry Chapin Foundation will visit the school for hands on-lesson with upper-grade students.

Also, each Sunday morning, there will be a weekly food collection. Please see the calendar for each week's theme. Of course, we always welcome donations of any unexpired and non-perishable goods.

President's Column

The next Town Hall will be held on Wednesday, March 29th at 8 p.m. After the first one held last November we are all looking forward to continuing the conversation with the congregation.

We had tremendous participation at the first Town Hall, and it just confirmed we need to keep holding them. So please save the date. I encourage you to come if you can, but we will make it available on Zoom as well.

We are kicking off our Torah Restoration project this month. If you ever wanted to preserve and actually write in a Torah, stay tuned and be on the lookout for more emails on the project. For many it is a once in a lifetime opportunity, don't miss your chance to be part of it.

As recently communicated by the Rabbi Search Committee, we are looking at various alternatives, since none of the candidates that we considered were suitable. One of the questions asked of prospective Rabbis during the interviews were: "What's your favorite book that pertains to Judaism?" We heard a lot of good answers and that got me thinking about what my answer would be.

It would take a nanosecond for me to answer that it's "The Source" by James Michener from 1965. Why would a book written by someone who is not Jewish be "the one"? I've first read it in my early 20's and came away from it with a newfound understanding of what it was like to be Jewish in the times from 9800 BCE to 1948.

Set at an archaeological dig near a well (water = source of life) in 1963, starting at the bottom level they find an artifact and the book tells the story of that time and what the Jewish experience was like in it. There are 15 levels at the dig, and it culminates with the birth of Israel. I've read it a few times over the years, and always see something new in it and it is still "the one." If you like Jewish history in the form of a novel check it out, both literally and figuratively.

Rabbi's Corner

Our kick-off event for the Circle of Life Torah Restoration Project is set to begin on Sunday April 2 at 10:00 am. Our Soferet Jill Kaplan's work is in progress.

The Ritual Committee has approved changes to our presentation at services of our Mi Sheberach and Shiva lists. Please continue to send your names of people who are in-need of our healing prayers. They will be recited aloud for two consecutive weeks. After that, if they are still in need of our prayers, their names will be published on our Mi Sheberach list which is distributed to congregants at services and through email to everyone receiving the weekly service bulletin electronically. I will pray for these individuals silently while Cantor Katz is singing the prayer. You are always welcome to recite a name aloud in the sanctuary or even at home while watching the live stream. I believe that God hears all prayers whether aloud or in our hearts.

Rabbi Judith Cohen-Rosenberg

Our Kaddish list has been reorganized to reflect the traditional periods of mourning, Shiva, the first, intense week of mourning immediately after death and burial, the period of Shloshim, the rest of the month following Shiva and Shana,

Our Kaddish list has been reorganized to reflect the traditional periods of mourning.

the rest of the year, totaling 11 months. Shiva and Shloshim are mourning periods observed for everyone who has passed on. Shana, meaning year, is a period of mourning traditionally reserved for parents and completes a year of mourning. That year is reduced to 11 months because it is said that the souls of righteous parents take 11 months of Kaddish to reach Heaven. Those without the merit of the righteous require 12 months of Kaddish. No one is going to say they do not consider their parents to be righteous, therefore the custom is to recite

Kaddish for a parent only for 11 months and consider that period Shana.

In our modern world, there are deaths of loved ones which we mourn in perpetuity and our Temple family joins in that mourning. If there is someone you would like to remember through Kaddish for longer than the traditional period for that individual, please discuss it with me privately, so your Temple family can be appropriately supportive.

I wish you a Happy Purim, a day we celebrate our physical salvation from anti-Semitic persecution. We will celebrate Purim with Megillah reading, a Spiel with a Beatles theme and a Shabbat service on Friday, March 10 at 7:30pm. Join us as well for festivities including crafts, Hamantaschen baking, and the Living Wax Museum presented by our 5th grade students on Sunday March 12 beginning at 10 am.

Chag Sameach

--Rabbi Judy

Cantor's Notes

T Happy Purim! This month we celebrate the holiday of Purim with our Purim Shpiel and service. It is one of the most fun and joyous services in our calendar year. Each year there is a theme to our Purim Shpiel. This year we will be setting the story to the music of.....THE BEATLES- Yes that is correct, Judah (John), Ringoleh (Ringo), Joseph (George) and Pishke ( Paul ) will all be here at temple in spirit to help us ring in the Purim holiday with their music! As well as being accompanied by our incredible band Neshama.

Cantor David Katz

The Shpiel will be happening on Friday March 10, 2023. Please try and make it to this special Shabbat service and shpiel. This is an event and holiday for the entire family, young and old. This is definitely a service you don't want to miss!

Purim the holiday allows for many changes and different takes on our services and traditions. It also is a special holiday in that even though we have a great time, there are deeper meanings as to what Purim can mean for us. I found online a wonderful Kabbalistic explanation of the Spiritual meaning of Purim that I think you will find very interesting. I have put it below.

I hope all of you can attend this year's Shpiel. We look forward to seeing you and sharing the holiday together with your entire family.

The Spiritual Meaning of Purim

Megillat Esther (The Book of Esther) describes forces that unfold in the person. These forces are what a person attaining spirituality discovers in connection with the Creator. They manage everything taking place in everyone's lives, and have been given the names Mordechai, Esther, Haman, as well as many others.

The story of Purim unfolds before the construction of the Second Temple, soon before the Aliyah (ascent) to the land of Israel. It depicts the final battle before the final correction (Gmar Tikkun). At this stage, the people of Israel, the innermost desire within the person that aspires to spirituality, live calmly and peacefully in the kingdom of Ahasuerus.

Mordechai, the spiritual desire that wants only to adhere to the Creator (the quality of bestowal and love), lived happily and the kingdom was at peace.

The people of Israel represent the majority of the desires that want to go straight to the world's leader to learn the law of the universe (the word "Israel" comes from the words "Yashar Kel" ["straight to God"]).

Indeed, in the beginning of the story, the narrative suggests that there is something wrong: "There is one nation that is scattered among the nations." This passage can also be read as "There is one desire that is scattered among the desires.” It is this nation, Israel, the desire for spirituality (a desire of bestowal and love), that is supposed to be united against all other nations, which are desires for self-gratification. The strength of the desire for spirituality (Israel) comes only from its unity, so when it is dispersed, it signifies that the person has not yet fulfilled his destiny, for only the people of Israel (the united desire for bestowal and love above all other desires) can lead the other nations (all other desires for self-gratification) to the common goal, adhesion with the Creator.

The evil Haman, who represents the egoistic desires in the person, wants to exploit the situation for personal gain. He eventually wants to overthrow the king from his throne. Haman believes that the fact that the people of Israel, the Jews, are dispersed testifies to their weakness, confusion and lack of faith. Therefore, he finds the situation to be a rare opportunity to eliminate the Jews from the face of the earth, as they are the sole force that stands between him and exploiting the Creator.

What Haman fails to understand, however, is that the Jews are dispersed for a reason: The Jews’ dispersion (i.e. the dispersion of the small amount of spiritual desires among the large amount of egoistic desires) is in order for all desires to acquire the form of bestowal and love, i.e. that spiritual unity comes in integration and perfect balance with all desires, and not in separation to them. Indeed, we will see the truth of it when at the end of the story, all people reform. The meaning is that all the desires in the person, called “people,” accept the spiritual desires that leads to confidence and happiness, called “Israel.”

The Israel in a person (the altruistic part) is limited. That limitation can only be overcome by the evil Haman. That is why we need to find the Haman (the egoistic part) within us.

Network of Women (NOW)

Every fiscal year I “take off” 2 nonconsecutive months. February was one of those months. Not much to report, but at the time of writing the March issue I want to share with you the thoughts of Emily Perl Kingsley who is the mother of a differently abled child. It is called Welcome to Holland.

I am often asked to describe the experience of raising a child with a disability - to try to help people who have not shared that unique experience to understand it, to imagine how it would feel.

It's like this.....

When you're going to have a baby, it's like planning a fabulous vacation trip - to Italy. You buy a bunch of guidebooks and make your wonderful plans. The Coliseum. The Michelangelo David. The gondolas in Venice. You may learn some handy phrases in Italian. It's all very exciting.

If you spend your life mourning the fact that you didn't get to Italy, you may never be free to enjoy the very special,

After months of eager anticipation, the day finally arrives. You pack your bags and off you go. Several hours later, the plane lands. The flight attendant comes in and says, "Welcome to Holland."

"Holland?!?" you say. "What do you mean Holland?? I signed up for Italy! I'm supposed to be in Italy. All my life I've dreamed of going to Italy."

But there's been a change in the flight plan. They've landed in Holland and there you must stay.

The important thing is that they haven't taken you to a horrible, disgusting, filthy place, full of pestilence, famine and disease. It's just a different place.

So, you must go out and buy new guidebooks. And you must learn a whole new language. And you will meet a whole new group of people you would never have met.

It's just a different place. It's slower paced than Italy, less flashy than Italy. But after you've been there for a while and you catch your breath, you look around.... and you begin to notice that Holland has windmills....and Holland has tulips. Holland even has Rembrandts.

But everyone you know is busy coming and going from Italy... and they're all bragging about what a wonderful time they had there. And for the rest of your life, you will say "Yes, that's where I was supposed to go. That's what I had planned."

And the pain of that will never, ever, ever, ever go away... because the loss of that dream is a very, very significant loss.

But... if you spend your life mourning the fact that you didn't get to Italy, you may never be free to enjoy the very special, the very lovely things ... about Holland.

I personally do not have first-hand knowledge nor have the first-hand experience that one of my two sisters from another mother has, but I have been around her and her family for the past 40 years. Recently their 26-year-old daughter passed away from covid related symptoms. I must state that she had many underlying conditions and disabilities. But the 26-year-old story is heartbreaking, even more heartbreaking than the story you just read above.

NOW

Holland is what they knew, lived and breathed. Today they start a new normal. I share in their journey: All the good, all the bad.

My family and all that came in contact with this family has learned so much from this nonverbal, almost non-functioning child. She gave to this world more than anyone would realize, patience, unconditional love, understanding, acceptance, inclusivity, friendship, empathy. All beautiful things that can be felt within our hearts. She radiated what her parents gave her. No one knows what another is going through behind closed doors. We, as individuals, must treat each other with patience, kindness, empathy, understanding, friendship, inclusivity, and love. Rebecca you will be missed and loved forever, and your parents embark on their journey home from Holland. 😞

FYI N.O.W.

By Barbara Ruvín

If you are looking to save some money, these two tips will help:

1. Cars with low mileage each year under 7,500 (ex. Allstate) offer lower insurance rates. I suggest a phone call to see if your car insurance company will let you qualify for lower rates. Different companies may have different requirements.
2. Tax reduction companies in Nassau County often charge a 50% free for money saved on your taxes. I have been with a company many years and I called and requested a change of 40% for them and 60% for me. They agreed. I suggest people call and see if their company will do the same for you.

Men's Club

Winter season is in the homestretch. It's been a milder than normal season thus far and we look forward to spring with more outdoor activities planned for our club membership to enjoy.

We had a quiet month in February, typical of past years', due to anticipated winter weather. March looks to be more active for the Club as winter wanes.

There are some upcoming events on the calendar for the next few months in 2023.

These include:

- Men's Club Meetings at 7:30pm on Tuesday, March 14th and April 4th at the Temple, or via Zoom.
- Walk in the Park, Sunday March 19th, weather permitting. Place and meeting time TBD.
- Come join us at a monthly meeting or join us at an event. There will be more events planned and more chances to meet our members as the spring thaw continues and we get out to take advantage of what our area has to offer.

Please stay safe this upcoming spring!

Torah Portions

March 4, Tetzaveh, Exodus 27:20-30:10

Moses receives instructions for kindling the sanctuary's eternal light, the ner tamid. This text is the origin for the eternal light that appears in most Jewish sanctuaries, including our own. Aaron and his sons are introduced as priests and the Israelites are asked to create for them sacred vestments to wear while performing their duties in and around the tabernacle. The priests are ordained through a ritual ceremony that includes sacrifice.

March 11, Ki Tisa, Exodus 30:11-34:35

This Torah portion begins discussing the creation of the Sanctuary. Israelites are asked to contribute a half shekel of silver to create it. God places "wise hearted" artisans Betzalel and Oholiav in charge of the Sanctuary's construction. The Torah portion then switches abruptly to Moses, who did not return from Mt. Sinai quickly enough for the anxious Israelites. They create a golden calf and begin to worship it. Upon seeing the Israelites dancing to an idol, a distressed Moses breaks the tablets containing the Ten Commandments. After begging for God's forgiveness Moses receives the Ten Commandments once more.

March 18, Vayakhail / Pekudei, Exodus 35:1-40:38

This portion tells of the plans and details concerning the building of Israel's first house of worship. This all takes place in the Wilderness of Sinai as the people progress on their long march to the Promised Land. A voluntary contribution campaign system is set up by Moses and the people give generously, funds about which much speculation became centered.

An accounting is made of the gold, silver and copper donated by the people for the making of the Mishkan. Betzalel, Oholiab and their assistants make the eight priestly garments – the apron, breastplate, cloak, crown, hat, tunic, sash and breeches – according to the specifications communicated to Moses in the Parshah of Tetzaveh. The Mishkan is completed and all its components are brought to Moses, who erects it and anoints it with the holy anointing oil, and initiates Aaron and his four sons into the priesthood. A cloud appears over the Mishkan, signifying the Divine Presence that has come to dwell within it.

March 25, Vayikra, Leviticus 1:1-5:26

This first Torah portion from the book of Leviticus focuses around the sacred offerings at the Sanctuary. It describes animal and meal sacrifices the people offer on the altar. These include an ascending offering, a meal offering, a peace offering, a sin offering and a guilt offering.

TORAH RESTORATION PROJECT 2023

RESTORING THE PAST

Our Torah Scrolls are made of all natural components, parchment, wood, even the thread and ink used come from kosher animals and as such are subject to natural deterioration. Just as we receive care to stay in the best of health, so must the Torah Scrolls.

ENHANCING THE PRESENT

We now embark on the Circle of Life Torah Restoration Project. We have engaged Soferet in Residence (Torah Scribe) Jill Kaplan to repair our scrolls with the goal of having five Torah Scrolls in pristine condition. We currently have one Scroll in such condition. Four more scrolls must be cleaned, re-lettered, and in some cases re-sewn and have parchment repaired to meet our goal. All this takes the Soferet's skill and time. This essential and worthwhile Mitzvah will also require our community's minimum commitment of $25,300 in Tzedakah money to complete this project. Any excess funds will be held in reserve to keep our scrolls in good condition well into the future. This campaign is an investment in the future of our Temple and Judaism.

ENSURING THE FUTURE

There are many opportunities for you to participate in this once in a lifetime Mitzvah. Soferet Jill Kaplan will be happy to entertain questions and provide opportunities for you to see her work while she is in residence. She is also meeting regularly with our Religious School students.

Special opportunities to work alongside Soferet Kaplan or observe unique repairs will be arranged as well as a thank you for your contribution to this project.

We are grateful for a dollar-for-dollar matching grant from our member, Arthur Katz, to help us reach our goal.

DONATION OPPORTUNITIES

You may choose to endow at any of the following categories and be inscribed on the Scroll of Honor:

- $ 18 Letter (for children only)
- $ 72 Word
- $ 180 Verse
- $ 540 Aliyah
- $ 1,800 Book

*The Matchmaker's Gift.

Lynda Cohen Loigman,
Is finding true love a calling or a curse?
Even as a child in 1910, Sara Glikman knows her gift: she is a maker of matches and a seeker of soulmates. But among the pushcart-crowded streets of New York's Lower East Side, Sara's vocation is dominated by devout older men—men who see a talented female matchmaker as a dangerous threat to their traditions and livelihood. After making matches in secret for more than a decade, Sara must fight to take her rightful place among her peers, and to demand the recognition she deserves.

Two generations later, Sara's granddaughter, Abby, is a successful Manhattan divorce attorney, representing the city's wealthiest clients. When her beloved Grandma Sara dies, Abby inherits her collection of handwritten journals recording the details of Sara's matches. But among the faded volumes, Abby finds more questions than answers. Why did Abby's grandmother leave this library to her and what did she hope Abby would discover within its pages? Why does the work Abby once found so compelling suddenly feel inconsequential and flawed? Is Abby willing to sacrifice the career she's worked so hard for in order to keep her grandmother's mysterious promise to a stranger? And is there really such a thing as love at first sight?

Nominating Committee: Gary Corn

The committee has nominated Cary Markman as VP of the executive committee. The board voted to approve the nomination as put forward.

Rabbi's Report: Rabbi Judy

- We should take the following words that are part of the wedding ceremony into our hearts in how we relate to one another: Ahava (love), Achava (brotherhood), Shalom (peace), Re'ut (friendship). Let's remember those four words and values in our deliberations. Amen.
- Attended a Martin Luther King, Jr. community program through the Interfaith Clergy Association of Jericho, Syosset and Woodbury, held at North Shore Synagogue on Jan. 15. Participated in an anti-racist program for children, where we talked about similarities and differences about Martin Luther King Junior's dream.
- Led a lunch-and-learn session for seniors at the Mid Island JCC.

Cantor's Report: Cantor David Katz

- On Feb. 3 we will hold our Sephardic all Sephardic music service
- Band will perform on Feb. 17
- Trying to get the choir going again.
- Purim is coming up, and the theme is officially a Beatles forum.

School Report: Deborah Tract

- We will hold our school fundraiser on Mar. 12 with a Purim program, and sponsorships are available.
- Working with Susan Levine to bring Hunger Awareness Month to the temple, which also consists of a food drive for Passover.
- On Mar. 13, LI Cares -The Harry Chapin Food Bank will visit our school and lead an interactive program with our older students. The Kusnetz boys (Mathew and Brandon) will also visit our school to share with our students the importance of growing vegetables for food pantries.
- On March 12 prior to Purim Family Fun Day is the Madame Esther's 5th Grade Living Wax Museum at 10am.
- Mark Apr. 30, 3–6 pm to celebrate Israel's 75th anniversary with food, entertainment and crafts.

Submitted Reports*President's Report (Mark)

- The Rabbi Search Committee brought in our first potential Rabbi to spend a weekend with us. The committee has started to explore contingency plans if we don't find a Rabbi. This effort will run in parallel with the committee while they interview candidates.
- Our Kol Nidre appeal ended on Dec. 31, 2022, and we were just shy of our goal of $150,000. I want to thank everyone for their generosity.
- Torah Restoration Campaign will kick off shortly.

Future of the Temple (Cary)

The committee meets with our financial advisors Alan Kleinberg and Michael Lenzo of Captrust, after the end of each calendar quarter. The most recent meeting was held on Jan. 17, 2023. The portfolio is performing better than the benchmark indexes. As of Dec. 31, 2022, the portfolio consisted of cash 3.67%, fixed income at 64.1%, US equities of 24.65% and international equities at 7.68%. We are more heavily in fixed income because Captrust lowered equity exposure in December. Given the potential range of outcomes in the economy/market, our advisors at Captrust are currently being extra cautious for the time being.

Rabbi Search (Laurel)

Rabbi Melody's Visit: The committee wants to thank everyone for attending dinners, services or zooms. As a committee, we have decided not to pursue Rabbi Melody further. She has been notified of our decision. Some of the organizational hiccups have also been reviewed. A survey was sent to the congregation for them to complete after the site visit, which will be distributed in person at future site visits and modified beforehand. Otherwise- we are still considering two other candidates. Once again, we will have them come in for a site visit if appropriate. The date would be the weekend of Feb. 10 as of now. If neither candidate works out, the contingencies must be further discussed.

Onegs (Laurel)

The price of Onegs is being raised to $225 due to increased food prices.

Website Design (Laurel)

We are currently waiting for a proposed home page from our designer.

Shabbat Under the Stars (Laurel)

Scheduled for Sept. 8, 2023. Hopefully, we will have a BBQ again.

Membership (Laurel)

We have one new family with two young children. We will reach out to past members soon and schedule a new member brunch and/or Service this Spring.

Library Renovation Project (Robin)

I met with three other contractors, all ranging in price from $27,000 to $4,500 for the same items. One contractor recommended painting most (not all) the wood to freshen everything up and modernize it. Still working on colors for the floor; however, if we go the painting route, it will change our direction. Rich stated he could rip up and install the flooring for $1500. The old name plaques of former presidents of legacy CRT: Gary Corn is looking into having them mounted. The placement of this particular board is still up in the air. Originally thought maybe by the mosaic doors. There are two mounts on the wall to the right of the boutique.

Possibly move those to another location and use that space to hang both legacy temples' past presidents' boards.

NOW (Robin)

Various events are outlined in the attached flyers. A few are fundraisers. Please support us if you can! Super Bowl boxes are still available. Think of Sid Eisenberg as this was one of the fundraisers he helped and truly enjoyed (and gave me lots of advice!!).

Tickets to West Side Story are also available. If you'd like a spot to learn the use of the AED and CPR, please see Sue Zichlin as she is coordinating this year. There is no meeting in February.

Men's Club (Mark Starr)

Men's Club dinner took place last week. Nothing planned for February except monthly meeting Feb. 7.

Sunshine (Robin)

I apologize, but I did not write down who I sent cards to!

Social Action (Susan Levine)

Over two dozen volunteers gathered at the temple on Christmas morning to collect and prepare the meals for delivery. The volunteers made deliveries to firehouses, two police departments, two veterinarians and an urgent care facility. Also, for the first time, this year we reached out to Jericho Cares, which provides temporary housing in nearby motels, and arranged a meal delivery, thanks to liaison Jill Citron.

This month, we are reminding congregants that Shoprite's "Can-Can" sale is still going on and it's a good opportunity to help our local food pantries that are in need.

Open session portion of the meeting adjourned at 8:52 pm. Minutes recorded and prepared by Jeff Schwartz, secretary.
