It was a service where the sound of barking was normal, as a variety of dogs gathered in Rabbi Judy's yard for a service to honor and bless them. Small and large dogs alike participated as the Rabbi read an assortment of prayers honoring them.

"We have come to honor all our pets," Rabbi Judy read. "You bring laughter and love into our lives, enriching us and reminding us of the presence of the Divine in all creation. You challenge us to give strict discipline and unfettered love in equal portions. You have expanded our ability to open our hearts to animal and human alike. Thank you for inspiring us and others to continue the partnership between all God's creatures."

"WE HAVE COME TO

Rabbi Judy led the pets' families singing several songs including This is Very Good, Rise and Shine and Oseh Shalom. Also, the Rabbi recited The Rainbow Bridge, a memorial prayer for those pets who are no longer with us.

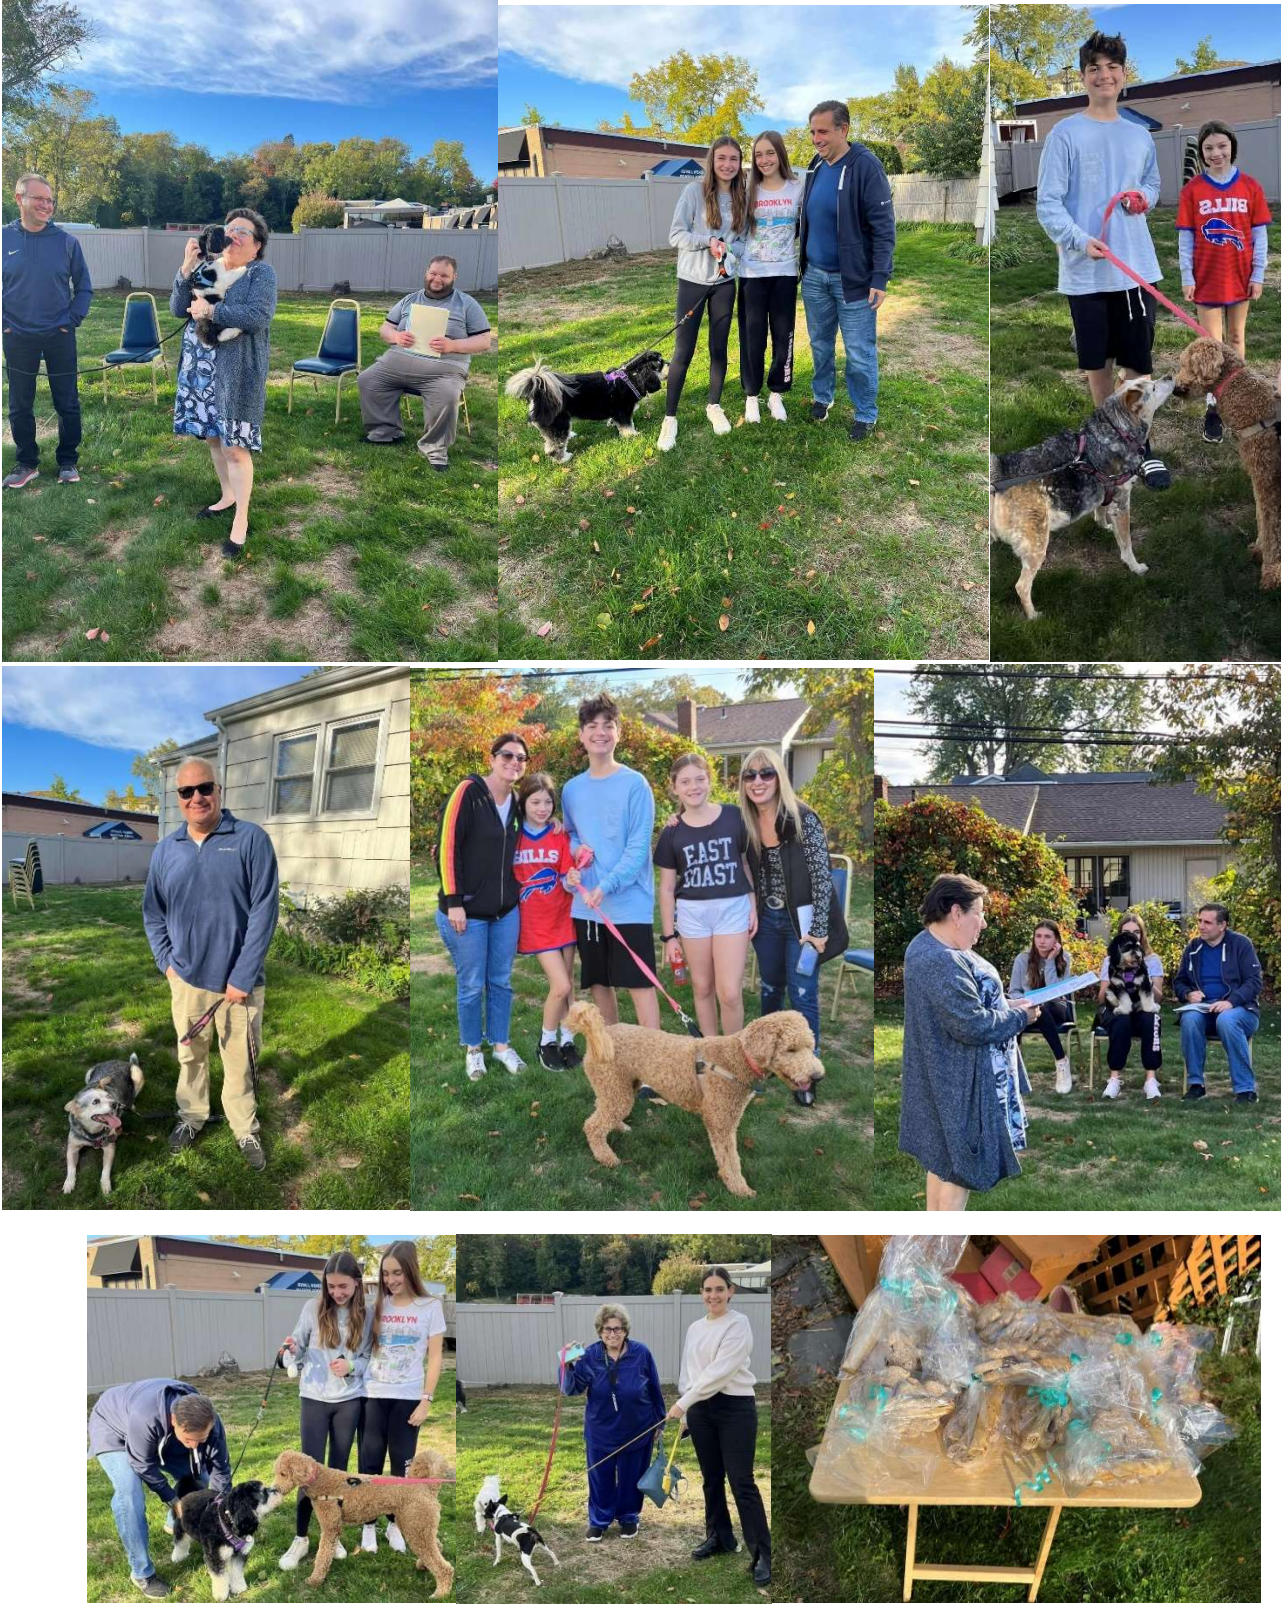

The pets were all very well behaved during the service. Each dog received a certificate, and of course treats, for attending. Rabbi Judy invited all of those who attended, as well as those who couldn't be there, to contribute to Little Shelter Animal Rescue and Adoption Center through the temple (Amazon gift cards also accepted).

President's Update

It is always the same, a tremendous amount of preparation and coordination goes into getting ready for the High Holy Days. Then they seem to go by in a blur and before you know it, it's Sukkot. This year was no exception.

Rabbi Judy and Cantor David were incredible as was Gabbai Len Gerschitz. We had great participation from the congregation as they performed their honors both in person and virtually. I also want to thank Jeanie Corn, Laurel Fried, Andrew Silverman, Cary Markman and Ivan Dolowich for sharing their thoughts with the congregation.

Mark Natelson

One of the things we want to focus on this year is to increase the transparency between the Board of Trustees, Committees, and the congregation. Starting next month, we will publish the monthly committee reports and the Board minutes in the Shofar.

Please be on the lookout for our first Townhall scheduled for November 17. Everyone is invited. The purpose of the Town Hall is to continue the conversation we had with the entire congregation. We will provide updates about what is going on in the congregation and we want to get your feedback and suggestions. One thing we learned from the focus groups is that we must keep the dialogue going.

Finally, I would be remiss not mentioning the passing of Sid Eisenberg. Sid was one of the "good" ones, generous, open minded, active in the congregation as a Vice-President and on many committees. He was direct and always willing to help. While he may have sounded tough, inside he was a mush. I am not alone when I say he will be sorely missed. On behalf of the congregation, I want to extend our condolences to Barbara's and Sid's families.

--Mark

Social Action

On behalf of the Social Action Committee, thanks to our generous congregation for your donations during the annual High Holiday Food Drive.

We collected over 700 pounds of food, paper goods and toiletries. After sorting everything, we loaded the donations into several cars and drove them to the Rudman Food Pantry at the Mid-Island JCC in Plainview. Kosher donations were delivered to the Hatzilu Rescue Organization in Baldwin.

The Social Action Committee Needs You! We are looking for congregants to join our committee. Only experience required is a genuine interest in helping the less fortunate within and around our community. All are welcome.

Rabbi's Corner

The High Holidays are well over, but due to deadlines, I want to take the opportunity to thank all of you for your participation in our beautiful services. You see the work of Cantor Katz and Len Gerschitz that make our services so inspiring; you do not see the Ritual Committee's work and the work of all our extra volunteers except in how smoothly everything runs. Thank you hardly suffices. I want to give a special shout out to our custodial staff who have our physical space looking its best in honor of our holidays. Thank you Cliff, Greg, Nick and Rich.

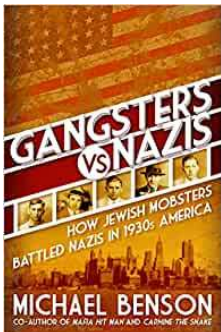

Rabbi Judith Cohen-Rosenberg

On to Sukkot: the Men's Club built us a brand new Sukkah for our celebrations. Thanks to them we will have wonderful Sukkah experiences for years to come. We rolled out the Torahs on Simchat Torah giving me an opportunity to talk about our Torah Restoration Project. We want our Torah Scrolls to be in pristine condition now and for the future, so we are working in partnership with Soferet in Residence, Jill Kaplan to clean and repair most of our scrolls.

Kristallnacht, commemorated this year on Wednesday, Nov. 9th at 7:30pm, will feature Bernard Furshpan, a second generation survivor, who has made it his life's mission to tell his father's story. We met last year at Yom HaShoah when he came to Temple to support Renee, the lovely survivor who spoke to us. Mr. Furshpan passionately explained his desire to inform each upcoming generation about his family's experiences in particular and the Holocaust in general. We will be in person for this program and it is suitable for all.

Kristallnacht, on Wed., Nov. 9th at 7:30 pm, will feature Bernard Furshpan, a second-generation survivor, who has made it his life's mission to tell his father's story.

The Rabbi's Reading Group will discuss the book, "Gangsters Vs. Nazis" by Michael Benson on Nov. 30 at 7:30 p.m.

Maintaining the theme of Holocaust remembrance, The Rabbi's Reading Group will discuss the book, "Gangsters Vs. Nazis" by Michael Benson. This book chronicles the efforts made to combat the Bund in various states in the US during the 1930s. Thanks to Gary Corn for suggesting this book. Read it or even some articles on the topic and join us on Wednesday, Nov 30 at 7:30 on Zoom. The next book will be "Shonda: A Memoir of Shame and Secrecy" by Letty Cottin Pogrebin scheduled for February.

While Cheshvan, our Hebrew month is devoid of celebrations, November brings us Thanksgiving. I hope you will gather with friends and family to celebrate your good fortune and, also to remember all those in need as winter takes hold. You can always bring a food donation to Temple which will be shared with the Rudman Food Pantry of the Mid Island Y/JCC and with Hatzilu Rescue Organization.

Wishing you Thanksgiving blessings,

--Rabbi Judy

Cantor's Notes

Each year it seems so much has happened and so much has changed. Now that we have had a chance to recover from the Jewish Holidays, we get to gear up again this month for the "American" holidays. This month, of course, we celebrate Thanksgiving. Each year I remind myself and often write in my Shofar articles about Thanksgiving and being grateful. This message and action can never get old. They say that the more you focus on what you have, rather than what you do not have, the better you will feel. It is worth a try, and you have nothing to lose!

Cantor David Katz

In Judaism, being grateful is nothing new. Most all of our prayers and requests center around the action of gratitude and the feeling of gratitude or the outright expression of unending thanks for all in this world that we have and what the world provides for us. If you take a look even at the simple prayer from our daily service called "Modim", you will see one of the quintessential prayers for gratitude that has been around long before Thanksgiving was ever even an idea. The first three words of the prayer, "Modim anachnu lach", literally mean "we gratefully acknowledge". It starts from the very beginning with a statement of gratitude and continues from there. The prayer continues with the words: "We shall thank You for our lives, for our souls, for miracles that are with us every day and for wondrous deeds and favors at all times, evening, morning and noon."

Just imagine how you would feel if you said this, or a version of this prayer every day, when you woke up and then again when you went to sleep. It would only help you to feel more grateful and appreciate what you have each time, constantly reminding you to "take stock" of your life with a whole different perspective. By doing this you are not doing anything difficult or even "odd." You are simply allowing yourself to become more aware of how much you really do have, versus focusing on what may or may not be lacking in your life.

At temple we try to stay in the grateful and appreciative mode as well. We focus on how amazing our congregation is and how wonderful and grateful we are to have this community to be a part of. We also focus on how beautiful our building is and how incredible it is that we are growing with such strength and security. Perhaps you can allow yourself to see this as well. After all it is the place where you and your family come to express joy, celebrate your life events, and just have fun!

I wish for you all, a fabulous and very grateful Thanksgiving holiday this year.

--Cantor Katz

Religious School

Shalom Friends!

October was a month filled with holiday fun and celebration. It was wonderful to see so many Religious School families at our High Holy Day services. I am proud of all our post Bat/Bar Mitzvah kids who prepared and participated in our services.

Lifelong learning is a journey that begins with study, practice, involvement and commitment.

In 1997, Rabbi Eric Yoffie stated, "There is no task more urgent and no mission more compelling than the deepening of Jewish learning at all levels." We teach our children beginning at a young age that Judaism is a way of life. Staying involved beyond the Bat/Bar Mitzvah years enhances Jewish continuity and a meaningful Jewish practice for our future generations.

Deborah Tract

Our Religious School follows the Jericho School District Calendar. On Tuesday, November 8, 2022, the Public School will be remote learning only. We will remain open, and all Religious School families are invited for a fun afternoon of Familyhood Challah braiding, pizza and crafts beginning at 4:30 PM.

December 15 is our Latkes, Vodka and Magic night for all those 21+. Join us for a magical evening of Pre-Chanukah fun for adults who also need a break from the everyday routine! As you can see, our Familyhood Chairs and I are working together to bring out of the box events for our moms, and dads, too. Please sign up by November 5th for our night of LVM event!

Thanksgiving is approaching. Gratitude and thankfulness are sentiments that resonate deeply within me. We continue to persevere, and our synagogue and school are thriving. I am so blessed to work with dedicated volunteers who govern our synagogue, the best of the best Clergy -- Rabbi Judy and Cantor Katz and our passionate staff and teachers. I am thankful for my husband Larry and my children, who have always stood behind me and support my passion for our temple life and learning.

From our home to yours, best wishes for a Happy and Meaningful Thanksgiving.

B'Shalom,

Network of Women (NOW)

"Thanks for doing what you do!" "You are appreciated for all you do." "The work you do is important and so appreciated." "Sending a little heartfelt appreciation your way today!" "Just wanted to express our deep gratitude for the dedicated work you do day after day." All lovely and meaningful thankful quotes, but the best one I found is simple, meaningful and hopeful... "Be thankful for what you have; you'll end up having more."

Robin Grossman, NOW President

I am so very thankful for those who show up every month to a meeting to discuss and plan for temple activities and fundraisers. I am thankful for the people who show up to a Zoom Book Club discussion. I am thankful to those who support our fundraisers. I am thankful for those who participate in events (Canasta lessons, Mah Jongg lessons, NOW Shabbat and so much more throughout the years). For all of you I am thankful, BUT it's the second half of that quote that I am hoping to have more; more of you to show up, participate, and run an event or fundraiser. We need everyone's expertise no matter how trivial you might think it is...we need you!

NOW for the News:

Not much went on in the month of September as I was laying low for Stephen's wedding on October 1. However, I was busy planning events that came to me by others' suggestions: nighttime Canasta lessons, daytime Mah Jongg lessons, an outing to the show Mystic Pizza at the John Engemann Theater (although on our end it had to be canceled as we did not have enough participation). Our relationship with Encore Luxury Living in Jericho continues to flourish. All announcements for those events are made on Facebook. Book Club continues (the next one is November 30 so please keep an eye out for the book to be discussed in your email and Facebook) as do our monthly meetings (the next one is Monday, November 21 at 7:30 pm). Looking ahead into December our monthly meeting (Monday December 19) will be a Babka and Latke event at no charge for NOW members. Keep an eye out for more info as the date approaches. We continue to collect eyeglasses for the New Eyes for the Needy Program, blankets, sheets and towels for our furry friends and hotel toiletries for those in need. All items can be dropped off at the temple (there are small bins in the office for glasses and toiletries and I will be notified for the linens).

From my family to yours, we wish you all a warm Thanksgiving filled with family and friends, love and happiness, thankfulness and peace.

Network of Women

Cordially invites you to attend a Unique Shabbat Service

Friday, November 4th at 7:30PM

Together with our Clergy, the Network of Women will lead us in song and prayer as we celebrate the new moon.

Men's Club

Autumn is in full swing and football, falling leaves and apple cider are just a few of the things we associate with this time of the year. The high holidays were joyous and gave us time to reflect on the past year, gather with our friends and family and look forward to a new beginning. This year my co-president, Mark Heller, arranged the construction of a brand-new Sukkah for the Temple with new materials. The guys in the Club rolled up their sleeves, grabbed tools (and some donuts) and built the Sukkah in late September and early October. It is always an event we look forward to because it brings us all together and now, we'll have a new Sukkah that will last for years. On behalf of all of us in the Club, "Thanks Mark, for organizing the construction, ordering the supplies, and making the 'Sukkah build' a success"!

Mark Starr
Men's Club co-president

At the Men's Club, we enjoy our Zoom monthly meetings where we share ideas, chat about the topics that matter to us, and plan new events.

There are some fun upcoming events on the calendar for the next few months as 2022 comes to a close and 2023 begins.

These include:

- Fall Movie Night on Sunday November 20th at 5:30pm...Showing the fantastic Beatles' 1965 classic movie, HELP! Food and drinks will be available.
- Monthly Men's Club meeting at 7:30pm on Tuesday, December 6th.
- Bowling Night on Sunday, December 11th, time and place TBD.
- Monthly Men's Club meeting at 7:30pm on Tuesday, January 10th.

So, come over and join us at a monthly meeting, which usually lasts for about an hour, or join us at one of our events. We look forward to welcoming new members who will share in our goal to strengthen our members' tie to Jewish values, to build ties with the community, to support our Temple, and to build fellowship and camaraderie through social interaction. Whether it's taking part in a charitable walk at Jones Beach, contributing to the library renovation at the Temple, or assisting other religious organizations in the area, our membership is involved. Come out and see for yourself. You won't be disappointed.

Stay safe in this upcoming holiday season!

Torah Notes

November 5, Lech Lecha, Genesis 12:17 – 17:27

The life and experiences of Abraham, Judaism's remarkable pioneer, are told here. The establishment of the faith in One God and God's covenant with Abraham that the land of Canaan shall be the land of the Hebrews. Unable to have children with his wife Sarah, Abraham takes Hagar to himself as wife and has a son, Ishmael.

Nov. 12, Vayeira, Genesis 18:1-22:24

Abraham welcomes three visitors into his tent. They announce that Sarah will soon have a son, at the age of 90. Abraham argues with God about the destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah, though ultimately the cities are destroyed. Isaac is born, circumcised, and weaned. Sarah sends away Hagar and her son Ishmael, and an angel saves them. God tests Abraham by asking him to sacrifice Isaac on Mount Moriah.

November 19 Chayei Sarah (Genesis 23:1-25:18)

Although this Torah portion means "the life of Sarah," it begins with her death. Abraham purchases the cave of Machpelah in which to bury her. Abraham sends a servant to find a wife for Isaac. He finds Rebecca, who shows the servant great kindness in offering to draw water for his camels at the well. Isaac and Rebecca get married. Abraham remarries. At the age of 175, he dies, and is buried alongside Sarah, by Isaac and Ishmael.

November 26, Toldot (Genesis 25:19-28:9)

Rebecca has twins named Esau and Jacob. Being the elder son, Esau is to receive the birthright and blessing of the firstborn from his father. Esau gives Jacob his birthright in exchange for some stew. When Isaac is on his deathbed, Rebecca and Jacob deceive Isaac so that Jacob will receive the blessing of the firstborn. Esau threatens to kill Jacob, and Jacob flees to Haran.

We sorrowfully mourn the passing of:

Remembering Our Beloved Congregant Sidney Eisenberg

The passing of Sidney Eisenberg last month was felt widely throughout our congregation. Sid was an active participant in various Temple functions, and recently became a vice president of the executive committee.

Barbara Feinstein extends her gratitude to everyone who has expressed their condolences during this difficult time. Barbara shared the following note:

Thank you to my Temple Family for your prayers, support, and outstretched arms.

I lost my wonderful Sidney, who was a loving, kind, and generous man to all who knew him.

I truly appreciate all your calls, cards, and donations in Sidney's memory.

*We were blessed,
